Fortune Chapter 471

Inside General Tado's mansion, at this moment, the Japanese, the Second Righteous Son and the others were already seated, General Tado was sitting at the head of the table, behind him stood the two men, Machete and Shakun, at this moment, General Tado was looking at the Japanese and the Second Righteous Son and the others who were sitting in the positions on either side of him with a smile on his face.

"Your Excellency, General Tado, now that our friends from China have arrived, can you state the reason for bringing us here?" Takeo Yamamoto glanced lightly at the Second Righteous Son and the others, and then he said to General Tado.

Hearing these words from Yamamoto Takeo, the Second Yoshihiko and the others also looked at General Tado, the reason why they had come to General Tado's residence, that was because they had received an invitation from General Tado, so they had rushed over.

Of course, whether it was the Japanese or the Second Righteous Son, they didn't have a good feeling about General Tado, who was a vampire and asking for a lot of money because he had that one item in his hand.

General Tado looked at his watch on his hand and then smiled; "No hurry gentlemen, we still have a friend who has not arrived, I think in a few minutes he should be here too."

"Someone else is coming?" After hearing General Tado's words, Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son narrowed their eyes at the same time, right now on this side of the Golden Triangle, could it be that apart from the people from their two sides, there were other forces coming as well?

At this moment, they saw the Second Righteous Son ask indifferently; "General Tado, I wonder where the friend you invited is from?"

"Coincidentally, he is from the same place as Mr. Fan." General Tado smiled slightly, the Second Righteous Son's real name was Fan, when he heard this from General Tado, he frowned, could it be that the other group of people General Tado had invited were also from China?

The answer to this question was soon given to the Second Righteous Son, for at that moment outside the hall came a man walking like a tiger, a man with a slim figure, cold eyes and long hair, but what was noticeable was that the man's face was covered with a black iron mask, which covered half of his face, giving him an overall eerie feeling.

Behind this man, four experts followed, each of which had an aura no weaker than the three Wolf King experts under the Second Righteous Son.

"Ghost Servant!"

Seeing this man, the Second Righteous Son's eyes stared and his face gradually became serious, it could be seen that he knew this man with the black iron mask, and judging from his expression, he was somewhat scornful of this man.

“Fan Wu Xi, are you surprised to see me?” The ghostly servant walked like a tiger, a cold and evil aura was being released above that slim body at all times, his gaze looked at the Second Righteous Son, the corner of that mouth slowly hooked into a wicked and sinister smile out.

“I’m not surprised that the Northeast Tigers are involved, what I’m surprised about is that the Northeast Tigers would send you over, it seems that the Northeast Tigers are quite ambitious!” The Second Righteous Son said this with narrowed eyes.

Ghost Servant, one of the several strong experts under Northeast Tiger, known as the cold-faced Ghost Servant, killing people like a sack of shit, and was famous in the Northern Heavenly Ranking.

“Could it be that the Grassland King is less ambitious?” Ghost Puff sneered and said indifferently; “If it wasn’t for the First Righteous Son, Xiao Jianli, who was in seclusion, I’m only afraid that the person who came to the Golden Triangle would be him.”

Second Righteous Son Fan Wu Xi said indifferently; “Whoever comes is the same, that item can only belong to me, Grassland Divine Eagle, whoever wants to take it, has to ask me, Fan Wu Xi, if he agrees.”

“That depends on here, who is most qualified.” Hearing these words from Fan Wu Xi, Shan Ben Wu Fu hummed indifferently, the three forces’ gazes met, and a cold intent spread out inside this living room, as if the temperature here had dropped a few points as a result.

The more the three families fought, the better it would be for his situation. In the past two days, the Japanese had been sending their experts to follow him secretly, and the Second Righteous Son had also made such movements, which made General Tado keep an eye on him.

With the situation on all sides, if these people were really desperate, General Tado, although not afraid, would be an extremely troublesome matter.

“General Tado, can you now tell us the reason why you invited us to your residence?” Yamamoto Takeo said at this point, looking at General Tado.

At that, General Tado nodded and then said; “Two of you here are from China and one is from Japan, and you are all very interested in this item in my possession. If you are interested, you can start bidding now, and I, Tado, will not make any false claims.”

At these words, Takeo Yamamoto, the Second Righteous Son and the ghostly servant all stared at the same time, what was this General Tado selling in his gourd? How long has it been since then, has he really changed his mind about auctioning it off to them?

“Your Excellency, General Tado, is this true?” Yamamoto Takeo looked at General Tado with a gleaming gaze.

“Naturally, it is true.” General Tado said; “But on top of that I have one condition, no matter which of you bids for this item, you must agree to this condition of mine, otherwise, this General would rather not sell it.”

The Second Righteous Son said; “General Tado please say, as long as I can do something, I will definitely not push back.”

General Tado's face went cold as he said; "My condition is difficult to say, but not difficult to say, I want you to help me destroy the other three major warlords in the Golden Triangle, I wonder if you all have the guts to do so?"

At these words, the faces of Yamamoto Takeo, the Second Righteous Son and even the Ghost Servant all changed, exterminating the other three major warlords of the Golden Triangle, this was not exterminating one, but three, this difficulty was much more difficult than exterminating General Tado.

Looking at the faces of Yamamoto Takeo, the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant, General Tado laughed coldly in his heart. To him, if the people here could really exterminate the other three major warlords and were willing to pay huge amounts of dollars, he wouldn't mind putting that item up for auction.

General Tado's move today was motivated by three things: firstly, to get people to help him get rid of the other three warlords in the Golden Triangle, and secondly, to divert attention from the fact that there were too many people with their eyes on him. After today's meeting, whether it was the Japanese or the Second Righteous or the Ghost Servant, they would all shift their attention to their opponents, and would instead be less watchful of his side.

Thirdly, if the auction did not go ahead, the three families would be less watchful of him and focus on his opponents, thus giving General Tado time to breathe.

Of course, if someone did agree to his terms today, General Tado wouldn't mind selling that item.

Fortune Chapter 472

"General Tado, you can't be joking, right? Destroying the other three warlords of the Golden Triangle, that kind of difficulty is much more difficult than trying to destroy you, do you think we will agree to this condition?" The Second Righteous Son looked at General Tado, his gaze calm, and said.

Yamamoto Takeo laughed lightly and said; "If General Tado gives that item to me unconditionally, then we, the Black Dragon Society, can instead exterminate them for you."

The ghostly servant did not say anything, a gleam of cold aura in those evil and morose eyes, making people wonder what he was thinking.

Seeing this, General Tado said; "Today, this general has invited you all here for this matter, if you agree, you can bid now, if you feel uncomfortable, you can also go back and think about it before answering me, but I advise you to make your decision quickly, because the guests I am waiting for will arrive in three days, once they arrive, then, this general will not be look after you all."

When they heard General Tado's words, all of them frowned; at the moment it was just the three of them, but in a few days' time, there would be more than just the three of them coming here and the competition would be even fiercer.

"General Tado, can you first show us the item in your hand, although it is rumoured to be in your possession, I don't think any of you here have seen it with your own eyes, have you?" The ghost servant's gaze swept past the people present, and this sentence, which was straight to the point, caused the eyes of Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son to light up and gaze at General Tado, however, after hearing the ghost servant's words, General Tado's face was somewhat unsightly.

“Could it be that you all do not believe in this general?” General Tado glanced at the people present as he said; “If you all did not believe, why would you have come all the way to this place, the Golden Triangle.”

“We naturally believe in the General.” The ghost servant said indifferently; “But the truth that people’s hearts are malicious must not be lost on the general, what if we here help you destroy the other three warlords and pay the money, but you don’t have that item in your hands? Wouldn’t that leave us with a basket full of water?”

Yamamoto Takeo said; “Mr. Ghost Servant is right, Sir General, to be on the safe side, I think it would be better for you to bring out that item for us to see, once we are sure, so that we can also reply to the conditions you have proposed.”

At these words, General Tado’s face was a little grim, the way things had developed, he had actually trapped himself.

After a moment of silence, General Tado said; “I have hidden that item in a very safe place, and it is only a little inconvenient to take it out, if you do not believe me, I can take out a photo to show you.”

After saying that, General Tado waved his hand at Machete, who was standing behind him, and then Machete placed a few photos in front of the three of them, Yamamoto Takeo, the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant, and the thing on that photo was indeed the triangular-shaped iron block that they wanted to obtain this time.

Seeing this photo, a brilliant light flashed across the eyes of all three.

However, at this very moment, the gazes of Yamamoto Takeo, the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant all looked towards a corner of the hall at the same time, where an obscure fluctuation was coming from.

“Who’s there? Get out!”

As this voice fell, the first person under the tree behind Yamamoto Takeo rushed over, his body like lightning, the katana in his hand was drawn out brazenly, and he slashed directly towards that location.

Ding!

However, under the gaze of the people inside the hall, after Shushita slashed out that slash, a sound of gold and iron clashed violently, and then, Shushita’s body frantically retreated backwards, his face was a little pale, obviously suffering some effects after exchanging a move with that person in the shadows.

“Stealth powers, friend, since you’re here, is there a need to hide?” The ghost servant sneered as he looked at that position, it wasn’t that he hadn’t seen masters of this particular group of supernaturals back then.

“It seems that our friend in the shadows wants us to step in and ask them to come out.” Seeing that the people in the shadows were slow to move, the Second Righteous Son sneered, and General Tado frowned, his place was heavily guarded, but there were still uninvited guys barging in, which made his heart a little angry.

“Why do we need you all to come and invite us personally, haven’t we come to meet you all in time?” At this time, there was a fluctuation in the air, then Ye Han slowly manifested himself with his arm around Shadowless’ small waist, a faint smile on his face, and he walked towards General Tado and the others, with that relaxed and full appearance, as if this was his own home.

At this moment, Wu Ying’s legs were a little weak, if it wasn’t for Ye Han’s arm around her, she would have gone limp on the ground, just now, Shushita’s slash was directly at her, naturally, with her strength, she couldn’t stop Shushita, who was already an upper ninja, if it wasn’t for Ye Han’s hand at the critical moment, Shushita’s slash just now could have definitely killed her.

Two voices sounded in unison at the same time, the person who said this was Ichiro Gangmura as well as Machete, Ichiro Gangmura naturally had a vivid memory of Ye Han, the person who had cut off one of his arms, and Machete had once gone to Shanghai City to kill Ye Han, so naturally he had also seen Ye Han’s picture, so the two of them recognized Ye Han as soon as he appeared.

Ye Han ignored Gangmura Ichiro and Machete as he looked at General Tado and the others with a faint smile and said; “Gentlemen, please forgive me for intruding, I would have liked to pay a proper visit, but alas! The defences here are too tight, I am afraid that before I get close, I will already be sieved into a sieve, so, I have to make this move.”

Hearing these words, the crowd laughed coldly in their hearts.

At that moment, they heard the Second Righteous Son sneer and say; “Ye Han, why are you running to the Golden Triangle if you are not staying honestly in the South? Could it be that you also want to interfere?”

Ye Han smiled lightly and sat down on an empty seat with his arm around Shadowless and said; “If all of you are so interested, why can’t I?”

“You can naturally participate in it, but only if you have that ability, young man, if you don’t have the ability, be careful not to play with your life.” Yamamoto Takeo said indifferently, Ichiro Gangmura then said next to him; “Teacher, he was the one who ruined our Black Dragon Society’s plan in the first place, moreover, the student’s arm was also cut off by him.”

“So it was him!”

After hearing these words from Gangmura Ichiro, Yamamoto Takeo’s face was completely gloomy, looking at Ye Han with a murderous aura like a sword in his eyes, his hostile aura was released, Gangmura Ichiro was his most favored disciple, yet, he was actually ruined by this young man in front of him.

Fortune Chapter 473

The more chaotic the scene was, the better it would be for him. It would be best if Yamamoto Wufu and Ye Han staged a duel to the death, no matter who died, it would do him no harm, and he would be happy to see such a situation.

The Second Righteous Son also looked like General Tado, with a look of watching the show, because of Nalan Mietian's relationship, right now the Divine Eagle and the Qunyin Society were allies, and ostensibly also led by the Qunyin Society, so the Second Righteous Son and Ye Han were also enemies.

As for the Ghost Servant, he could not see any expression on his face, only that his eyes were staring closely at Ye Han, right now this young man was famous in China and was known to be the first genius, when he saw him today, that aura was indeed extraordinary, just this person, was he also as powerful as the legend said?

"You want to kill me?" Sensing the killing aura on Yamamoto Takeo's body, Ye Han's body also released a strong aura enveloping Shadowless, who was weaker and naturally could not withstand the killing intent released by Yamamoto Takeo, an expert.

"You guessed right, I just want to kill you." Yamamoto Takeo said indifferently; "Anyone who dares to go against my Black Dragon Society will definitely die."

At these words, Ye coldly laughed; "Old man, although you have many experts behind you, but to kill me, you can try, by the way, a word of advice, if you make a move, I can guarantee that none of the people you brought today will survive."

"Arrogant brat, let me see if you have three heads and six arms." Yamamoto Takeo snorted coldly, and then, he fiercely transformed his palm into a sword, a terrifying sword qi fiercely slashed towards Ye Han's position, this sword qi attacked and killed, so powerful and matchless that Shadowless felt a deep fear.

However, at this time, Ye Han likewise used his hand instead of his sword and waved a terrifying sword qi, the clash of the sword qi and the sword qi, the air blast sounded as if it was a bomb that suddenly resounded out, that sound made everyone present feel a slight pain in their eardrums, as if a needle had pierced into their ears.

At this moment, a look of shock flashed in Yamamoto Takeo's eyes. After clashing with Ye Han for one move, Yamamoto Takeo could feel how much terrifying power Ye Han's body contained, and how he had such terrifying strength at such an age.

When those present saw this scene, their eyes were narrowed, this young man is really not a name in vain! Even an old man like Yamamoto Takeo didn't dare to make a rash move.

"South has Ye Han, these words are not false." A faint evil smile appeared on Ghost Servant's face.

Seeing that neither Ye Han nor Yamamoto Takeo had any intention of continuing to fight, at this time, General Tado said indifferently to Ye Han; "Ye Han, I didn't expect you to dare to come to my place, because of you, the Machete Killer Organization under this general's hand has suffered heavy losses, do you think that it is time for me to collect this debt from you?"

At that, Ye Han laughed; "General Tado, forgive me for saying something unpleasant, the current you, you wouldn't dare to lay a hand on me, that wouldn't do you any good, because next to me there are several wolves watching you with a deadly eye, you fight me, as soon as you get the chance, they will eat you up without even a bone left, who do you think is more important to them between me and you?"

Hearing this from Ye Han, Yamamoto Takeo, Second Righteous Son, Ghost Servant and the others did not express anything, because what Ye Han said was the truth, as soon as they found the right opportunity, they would definitely strike at General Tado, although not killing him, but tying him up was still a possibility.

General Tado looked a little silent, obviously, he also knew that what Ye Han said was the truth, however, at this juncture General Tado did not want to lay a hand on Ye Han, although it was in his own territory, but there were too many hungry wolves around him who were watching him closely, he had to act carefully and cautiously, not to let others have an opportunity to take advantage of him.

Ye Han continued; "General Tado, I think it's better to continue that conversation from earlier, now add me to the list, you shouldn't mind, right?"

General Tado narrowed his eyes and said; "Naturally I won't mind, this general is a businessman, I will sell that item to whoever can agree to the condition I just made and help me to do it, that counts for anyone, provided someone has the ability to do that."

Takeshi Yamamoto said; "Sir General, this is something we in the Black Dragon Society can consider."

General Tado nodded, then his eyes looked towards the Second Righteous Son, the Ghost Servant and Ye Han, and said; "I wonder what the three of you mean now?"

Ye Han first smiled; "Since the experts of the Black Dragon Society have already agreed to consider it, I will not be involved in this matter, it is really a bit inconvenient for me to bring a woman over to fight and kill, so I will let the other few people do this good thing."

"Ye Han, so you are not going to participate in this auction?" The Second Righteous Son sneered and said.

"No, I didn't say that, is this brother deaf? Or does he have a bad memory?"

"You" Hearing Ye Han's mocking words, a murderous look flashed in the eyes of the Second Righteous Son, but the Second Righteous Son could hold back his anger, but the Fifth Righteous Son standing behind him could not, he already looked at Ye Han with displeasure "Little bastard, do you believe that I will let you die in the Golden Triangle? Never be able to return to the South."

"Just by you?" Ye Han gave a cold laugh; "Let Xiao Jianli come and talk to me, maybe I will even look at him squarely, with you you are not qualified for that."

"Little calf, I'll get you killed now!" The fifth righteous son was furious, and a rolling killing intent was released in his eyes.

"Old Fifth, don't act recklessly." Seeing this, the Second Righteous Son said indifferently, the Fifth Righteous Son was not a match for Ye Han at all, even the Second Righteous Son himself was not sure, he could not go hard with Ye Han at this time now, if the expert he had brought was compromised in Ye Han's hands, it would not be worth the loss for the Second Righteous Son.

Seeing this scene, a strange colour flashed in the eyes of Shadowless, who had always been quiet and peaceful, since Ye Han had appeared here, he had already made Yamamoto Takeo and General Tado not dare to move, and now even the Northern Divine Eagle's people were doing the same.

Perhaps, for this guy next to her, she was going to get reacquainted.

General Tado and the others looked at Ye Han with flickering uncertainty, this kid really had some ability! The later had surprisingly eaten them all to death, leaving them helpless against him.

“Alright, gentlemen, now that our friends from the Black Dragon Society have agreed to consider it, apart from Ye Han, I wonder what the other two think?” General Tado then looked at the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant and asked.

Upon hearing this, the Second Righteous Son pondered for a moment and said; “This is something that we can also consider.”

Right now, there was only the Ghost Servant left to answer, so General Tado’s gaze looked directly at him.

Seeing this, the ghost servant glanced at Ye Han who appeared somewhat calm, then the corners of his mouth hung with a seemingly evil smile as he said; “I’m keeping the same decision as Ye Han, I came to the Golden Triangle to buy something, not to kill someone.”

Fortune Chapter 474

Hearing these words from the ghost servant, General Tado’s face was obviously a little unsightly, two parties agreed and two parties did not, this situation was clearly beyond his control, Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son agreed to consider it, going forward in these days they would definitely divert their attention to the other three warlords, thus narrowing their attention to him.

However, if Ye Han and the Ghost Servant did not agree, these two would still continue to cast their eyes on him. Such an outcome would not change anything at all for General Tado, whose main objective was that he did not want so many people to set their eyes on him, so that there would be much less danger beside him, and, moreover, to use this method to drag these few families down for as long as possible.

After all, the other three warlords were no slouches and were not so easily wiped out.

As long as the guest he was waiting for came and sold that hot potato, then there would be nothing left for him to do in this.

Of course, if someone really helped him to exterminate the other three major warlords in the Golden Triangle and offered a reasonable price, he wouldn’t mind selling that hot potato in advance.

Keeping the item was an untimely bomb that might explode at some point, so getting it out early would be a relief.

Looking at General Tado’s cloudy face, Ye Han then said; “General Tado, although I have not agreed to your conditions, the price I have offered is definitely big enough, I wonder if you are willing to listen to it?”

“Oh, then, how much price can you offer?” After hearing Ye Han’s words, General Tado’s gaze fell directly on Ye Han, who extended two fingers and said; “General Tado your starting price is one billion dollars, then I am willing to offer two billion dollars, this price should be okay for you, right?”

“Two billion dollars!”

After hearing Ye Han’s words, Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son’s faces immediately turned very ugly, even the Ghost Servant’s face also turned gloomy, Ye Han’s asking price was two billion dollars, then, the item they wanted to auction, the asking price would have to be higher than two billion dollars, spending two billion dollars to buy that item, and also having to help General Tado destroy the other three warlords of the Golden Triangle, such a price was too high.

If he had known this was the case, he would have been willing to pay two billion dollars for it, why wait until now.

“Ye Han, are you here to stir up trouble?” The second righteous son’s face was very ugly, looking at Ye Han with a murderous aura rolling in his eyes, the same was true for Yamamoto Takeo, Ye Han’s bid was two billion dollars, they simply hated Ye Han.

“No, no, no, I think this is a very reasonable price for Mr. Ye Han, Mr. Yamamoto, now it’s your turn.” General Tado had a smile on his face, even his address to Ye Han had changed, now he didn’t look at Ye Han with as much hate as he did just now, Ye Han’s words were like the God of Wealth opening a path of prosperity for him, he couldn’t be happier now, how could he hate Ye Han.

“I will add another 50 million.” Yamamoto Takeo said grimly, at this moment, he could not allow him not to call for a price, if General Tado, a wealthy man, really had his heart set on selling the item to Ye Han, it would be somewhat difficult for him to get it again.

“Bastard!” The Second Righteous Son cursed angrily in his heart, although the Divine Eagle could come up with so much money, he was a bit unwilling to have it spent like this, however, unwilling as he was, the Second Righteous Son still had to call for a bid; “Two hundred and one billion dollars.”

At this point, it was the Ghost Servant’s turn to call for bids, ahead of him, Ye Han opened his mouth at two billion dollars, Yamamoto Takeo raised it to two billion and fifty million dollars, and the Second Righteous Son raised it to two billion and one hundred and one million dollars.

However, under General Tado’s expectant gaze, the ghost servant shrugged his shoulders and then said; “Everyone is rich and powerful, so I, a poor man, will not participate, you guys are free to do as you please, I will just watch, it seems that this item and I are not destined for each other.”

Hearing the ghost servant’s words, General Tado’s face was obviously a little disappointed, the more people called for bids, the higher the price increase would be, the ghost servant chose not to call for bids, would Ye Han still increase as hard as he did just now? I was only afraid that it would be added slowly, step by step.

“Two and a half billion dollars.”

However, to General Tado’s delight, Ye Han still raised the price big time this time, directly from 2.1 billion dollars to 2.5 billion dollars, when General Tado heard this, the excitement on his face was even happier than if he had played with a dozen women, that brilliant smile was like a chrysanthemum.

“Bastard!” After Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son heard Ye Han’s words, they could no longer hold back, and directly slapped the table and stood up, their terrifying aura enveloping Ye Han, with the intention of striking together and uniting against Ye Han.

“What, can’t the two of you afford to play?” Ye coldly laughed, then he looked at General Tado and said; “General, now that someone is threatening your guest, what do you think should be done?”

Threatening Ye Han, that was threatening his god of wealth, General Tado naturally would not agree, he said with a sullen face; “Both of you, this is a normal auction, so I also hope that you will show some respect, this general does not like to see unpleasant things appear.”

Hearing these words, Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son even had the heart to kill Ye Han and General Tado, if it wasn’t for the fact that General Tado had what they needed in his hands, they could have killed General Tado right now to vent their hatred.

“General Tado is indeed a hospitable man, I thank you in advance.” Ye Han then arched his hand with a smile on his face at General Tado, who waved his hand and laughed; “Mr Ye, you are now my guest, I naturally have to protect your safety, no need to be polite.”

This was so hypocritical that Shadowless couldn’t help but want to vomit, just now he wanted Ye Han’s life, and now he was his guest, and he had to protect Ye Han’s safety, it was true that in front of great interests, even the greatest hatred could be turned into friendship!

Seeing that Yamamoto Wufu and the Second Righteous Son were gloomy in silence, Ye Han had to add another fire at this time, he said to General Tado Tower; “General, if I have auctioned that item, you must send someone to escort me out of the Golden Triangle overnight, otherwise, certain people should have ulterior motives.”

“Please don’t worry Mr. Ye, after the matter is completed, I will send you a warplane so that you can leave the Golden Triangle safely, unless someone uses a missile, no one can shoot down my warplane.”

After hearing these words from General Tado, as Ye Han had expected, the faces of Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son changed at the same time, and they had to open their mouths to continue raising their bids.

This auction tonight, in fact, for Ye Han, he had nothing to do with it at all, he was completely here to stir the pot, to slaughter Yamamoto Takeo and the Second Righteous Son ruthlessly, as for the price quoted, would he really give it to General Tado at the end of the day?

Fortune Chapter 475

“Two billion and fifty million dollars!”

The Second Righteous Son couldn’t help but open his mouth to make an offer, if Ye Han really got his hands on it and left the Golden Triangle in a warplane overnight, where would they find Ye Han and it would be much harder to get that item from Ye Han’s hands later.

“Two billion six hundred million dollars!”

After the Second Righteous Son spoke, Yamamoto Takeo said with a sullen face, his thoughts were the same as the Second Righteous Son’s, here, they had to be the first to get their hands on it, they could not let others get it first.

Two and a half billion dollars, that was equivalent to more than fifteen billion yuan, such a huge fortune, it was almost as much as the proceeds General Tado had gotten from selling drugs all these years, so the smile on his face was getting bigger and bigger, his eyes were narrowing into a line as he smiled.

The ghostly servant's face had an evil smile on it, and he hadn't intervened since the beginning, watching them raise the price there as if he was no longer interested in the item General Tado was holding.

"Well, this is going to be difficult for me."

At this moment, when it was Ye Han's turn to call for a bid, he said to Shadowless with a difficult face; "Wife, we only have two and a half billion dollars with us, now we have no more money, what do you think we should do?"

Hearing his words, Wu Ying had a bad chill in her heart, "I pooh, who is your guy's wife now?"

But Shadowless didn't reveal it, she cooperated and said; "Don't play if you don't have money, can you afford to play compared to a big consortium like the Black Dragon Society?"

"That's right, forget it, I'm not playing anymore, two, you guys continue." Ye Han smiled faintly at Yamamoto Wufu and the Second Righteous Son, hearing his words, Yamamoto Wufu and the Second Righteous Son were almost spitting blood from anger, this bastard had raised the price so high, and now he was telling them that he was not playing, was this not a clear ploy to screw them?

"Ye Han, I'll get you to death!" At this moment, even the fifth righteous son, a reckless man with a developed mind and simple limbs, could see Ye Han's true intentions, and naturally, the ghost servant and General Tado could also see this, but this had nothing to do with them, to General Tado, it didn't matter whether Ye Han bought or not, he had raised the price, now the remaining Yamamoto Takeo and the second righteous son had to buy, even if the price was only 2.6 billion dollars, General Tado was still very happy, it was more than he had expected.

"Wife, it seems that this guy's mouth is really stinkier than the shit inside a thatch pit, when I have the chance, I have to make him shut that stinky mouth forever." Ye coldly smiled, hearing this from him, Shadowless glared at him in the dark, this guy was screaming wife wife wife and had even gotten addicted to it.

At that moment, only to hear General Tado laughing; "Now Mr. Ye gives up and is automatically out, Mr. Fan, it's your turn to call for bids, if you don't raise your bid, then this item will go to Mr. Yamamoto."

"Two billion seven hundred million dollars!" With a fire in his heart, the Second Righteous Son directly added a hundred million dollars up.

"Two billion eight hundred million dollars." Yamamoto Takeo's face was ugly as he added one hundred million dollars, Ye Han was out, but this mess he had deliberately made he still had to continue to pick up with the Second Righteous Son, it wasn't over yet.

"Two billion eight hundred and fifty million dollars." The Second Righteous Son gritted his teeth and added another fifty million dollars, this price had reached the bottom line in his heart.

"Three billion dollars!"

At this time, Yamamoto Takeo's words shocked everyone around him, even Ye Han didn't expect this old man to be so bold, directly raising his price to three billion dollars, if he had known earlier, Ye Han would have continued to play with him and slaughtered him again ruthlessly.

"Ye Han, you've really done a lot of harm to people!" The ghost servant glanced towards Ye Han, the smile on that evil face made people shudder a little, Ye Han laughed; "It is indeed harmful, but it's nothing to screw the little Japanese, you are very smart, you actually chose to protect yourself, it seems that harming you is not possible."

At these words, the ghost servant smiled wickedly, and then did not continue talking to Ye Han, he was not that kind of brainless reckless man, when Ye Han chose not to agree to General Tado's conditions, he felt that Ye Han would definitely come to play a good game, so, like Ye Han, he also chose not to agree to General Tado's conditions, and was quietly a spectator at the side, to see how Ye Han was going to play?

Right now, it turned out that Ye Han had played a big game and had pitted Yamamoto Takeo against him.

"Haha, it seems that it is still Mr. Yamamoto who is bold enough, three billion dollars, I wonder if Mr. Fan wants to continue to raise the price?" General Tado laughed out loud, an item obtained by chance was sold for such a price, that was equivalent to a fortune from heaven, three billion dollars, such a heavenly price, even if the guest he was waiting for arrived, he was only afraid that it would be difficult to come up with such a price.

After hearing these words from General Tado, the Second Righteous Son gave a cold hum and chose to remain silent.

"Good, now I declare that this item belongs to Mr. Yamamoto, and after Mr. Yamamoto helps me destroy the other three warlords, the deal between us can officially begin."

"What!" When Yamamoto Takeo heard these words from General Tado, his face turned darker than black charcoal, offering three billion dollars and asking him to exterminate the other three warlords, this was simply a dream.

"What, is it that Mr. Yamamoto is not willing?" General Tado frowned and said; "Mr. Yamamoto, this was the agreement between us at the beginning, I would sell to whoever offered the highest price, right now Mr. Yamamoto you offer the highest price, I naturally sell to you, however, you have to help me with the conditions I put forward."

"Your Excellency the General, you must not bully people too much!" Yamamoto Takeo had a cloudy face, and the men behind him, including Ichiro Gamura and Shushita, were even more so.

"Oh, Mr. Yamamoto, people did not force you, General Tado, you agreed yourself, what, do you want to return?" Ye Han at this time gave a faint laugh from the side, his fallen look made Wu Ying roll his eyes straight, this guy was really black enough, he didn't let go after making others so miserable, this was pushing Yamamoto Takeo to the brink of extinction!

At this moment, even the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant narrowed their eyes and looked at Ye Han, they had seen this guy's tactics today, a typical person who would not let go until his tail was torn.

In fact, Ye Han is not a gentleman at all when it comes to dealing with his enemies. In order to deal with the First Day King, he could join forces with the White Faced Scholar, and in dealing with Murong Hetu, he could also join forces with Huo Tianzun, his enemy.

Fortune Chapter 476

"Bastard, shut up, when we leave here, I'll kill you for sure!"

When Yamamoto Wufu heard Ye Han's words, that angry look was close to running straight over and finishing Ye Han off.

"My mouth is growing on my own body, why should I shut up?" Ye Han gave a cold laugh and continued; "I am merely saying what is in my heart in place of General Tado, Mr. Yamamoto, you are an expert of the Black Dragon Society, you have to do what you have promised others, otherwise, it will only make people laugh at the people of the Black Dragon Society for being just a bunch of villains who do not keep their word, General Tado, don't you think so?"

"Oh, Mr. Ye is right, Mr. Yamamoto, I don't know if you've thought it through, if you're not willing, then I'll leave it to someone else. And of course, that item will naturally no longer belong to you." General Tado looked at Takeo Yamamoto and said with a smile.

"Your Excellency General, the price I gave is already high enough, don't you think this condition can be"

"Humph, this general is not the kind of person who goes back on his word, words spoken are water spilled." General Tado snorted coldly and said; "Mr. Yamamoto, I have made it clear before the auction that the highest bidder will win, I don't care what this price is, but the highest bidder must help me destroy the other three major warlords, if you can't do that, then there is no need to talk between us, anyway, Mr. Ye, Mr. Fan, Mr. Ghost Servant, and even the people who will be arriving here in three days, I think they will help me fulfil this wish, and by then, Mr. Yamamoto, you will have more rivals, so I hope you will think about it."

"Would you rather compete with your rivals? Or would you rather take the past lightly? It's your choice."

"Fine, I'll do" Yamamoto Takeo gritted his teeth and agreed, at this moment, he really wanted to beat General Tado's head into mush, but he couldn't do that right now, unless the item came into his hands, then, he could go crazy to take revenge on everyone, including Ye Han.

"Oh, it seems that Mr. Yamamoto is a man of his word, then this general will wait here for your good news, and I wish you success in your horse."

"Your Excellency General, please give me two days, my humble servant will fulfill your wish, but I hope that Your Excellency General can keep his word, if I do this for you but do not get what I want, then this place will be razed to the ground." Yamamoto Takeo said in a gloomy and deep voice, he had no other choice but to do so now.

“Please don’t worry Mr. Yamamoto, that thing is very safe, if I die, it will be destroyed with me, I don’t think anyone is willing to do that, in two days, I will hand over that thing to you intact, however, it depends on Mr. Yamamoto’s ability to keep it or not, after all, all of you here are very greedy for this thing.”

At the end of his words, General Tado played a trick, his meaning was clear, in two days’ time the item would be in the possession of the Japanese, so don’t come to me, it’s useless to come to me, and of course, don’t come to me even more in the meantime, if something happens to me, then, no one will get it.

Seeing that the matter had been discussed, Yamamoto Takeo left General Tado’s residence with a group of experts with a cold face, the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant also took their leave, Ye Han naturally had no intention of staying much longer and followed him out of the place.

“Machete, double the defences around, I don’t want to see things like today.” After everyone had left, General Tado said to Machete with a sullen face, right now his place was already considered heavily guarded, but Ye Han could even enter here silently, it was clear that his defence was still not in place, if Ye Han wanted to kill him, he would have already died several times.

Of course, for ordinary experts, General Tado’s place was indeed heavily guarded, but an expert like Ye Han was not included in this list, moreover, neither was Shadowless, a psychic with stealth powers, unless General Tado had installed infrared sensor alarm systems all around his residence.

“Yes, General.” Machete answered.

When Shakun, who was standing behind General Tado, saw this, he immediately said; “General, since there’s nothing else going on then I’ll go back first.”

“Yes, General.”

Looking at Shakun’s departing back, General Tado had a cold smile and a murderous look appearing on his face, nothing could be hidden from him here.

“What are you thinking about?” On the way out of General Tado’s residence, the ghost servant deliberately slowed down his steps and waited for Ye Han to approach.

Ye Han smiled at the ghost servant; “If I say that I am thinking about what you are also thinking about right now, I wonder if you believe me?”

Upon hearing that, the ghost servant smiled wickedly and said; “Ye Han, you are really evil, it seems that Yamamoto Wufu is going to be pitted by you again.”

“No, this time it’s not me who has pitted him, it’s you, or rather Fan Wu Xi.” Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “Ghost Servant, I know that you and Fan Wu Xi both have the same idea now, to secretly inform the other three major warlords and inform them of what Yamamoto Wufu is going to do, so that it will be more difficult for Yamamoto Wufu to destroy these three major warlords, and it would be better if Yamamoto Wufu and the three major warlords die together, so that the good things behind will all fall on you and Fan Wu Xi. The good things that follow will fall on you and Fan Wu Xi.”

“Ye Han, isn’t that what you think?” The ghost servant sneered.

“I naturally have such a thought.” Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “But I won’t go and inform the other three great warlords, I’ve already done the front things and gotten us all a lot of benefits, so I should leave the back things to you, if I’m allowed to do everything, but in the end I have to share such results with you and Fan Wu Xi, wouldn’t I be too much of a loser.”

“Ye Han, you are sinister enough.” The ghost servant gave Ye Han a cold look and said; “Good, I will do this, I will secretly inform the other three warlords, if Yamamoto Wufu and the three warlords all die, then you, me and Fan Wu Xi will inevitably have to make a second bid, then we will each be on our own merits.”

Ye Han laughed; “Dealing with smart people is quick, however, you still haven’t thought about the main topic, why do we have to be led by General Tado’s nose all the time?”

Upon hearing that, the ghost servant froze, he hadn’t really thought about this point above after being led by General Tado today.

“Ye Han, so what do you mean?” The ghost servant narrowed his eyes at Ye Han, what was this guy’s head made of? How could he think ahead of him on everything?

Ye Han laughed; “Naturally, I can’t tell you what I mean, we are rivals now, it’s up to you to figure it out.”

“Machete, send someone to keep a dead eye on Ye Han, I want to know if this kid came to the Golden Triangle alone or not, if so, when this matter is understood, this general will definitely kill him.”

After Sha Kun left, General Tado said with a cold face, although Ye Han had joined unexpectedly and let him reap huge amounts of dollars, but he would not really stop hating Ye Han just because of this, the greedy General Tado he had a big heart, he wanted to get the wealth as well as have someone help him destroy the other three major warlords, in the end, he also wanted to destroy Ye Han, the Golden Triangle was his territory, since Ye Han had come, this kind of good opportunity he certainly He would not let go.

Machete said; “General, why don’t I go personally, this Ye Han is too uncomplicated, just a moment ago just by performing some small tricks he forced Yamamoto Wufu to the brink, facing him, I don’t feel comfortable letting others go.”

“No, you can’t go, if you go, who else will protect this general here?” General Tado shook his head and continued; “If Yamamoto Takeo really wants to take on the other three warlords, then war is bound to break out in the next few days, I can’t leave you around even more, you inform Shakun about this matter, if he wasn’t still of some use, I would have killed this white-eyed wolf long ago.”

After walking out of General Tado's residence, Ye Han did not take Shadowless to find Air Elder and the others, it was somewhat inappropriate to go to Air Elder and the others at this time, only that secretly there were several pairs of eyes on him now, on the surface, Ye Han only took Shadowless with him, but secretly, who knew if he had other forces hidden, so it was inappropriate to expose Air Elder and the others at this time, they hid in the shadows to have the effect of surprise.

Moreover, at the moment, without being able to understand Ye Han's true power in the Golden Triangle, I am afraid that no one would dare to take the risk of making a move against Ye Han, except for Yamamoto Takeo, who had been viciously pitted by Ye Han.

Now, what Ye Han wanted to do was to let the enemy not be able to feel his bottom, the unknown, is the most scary.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Shadowless gave him a look and said; "Now that you've come out, there's no need to continue taking advantage of me, do you think I really won't get angry, put away your nasty thoughts."

Hearing Shadowless' words, Ye Han was a bit speechless, because he hadn't gone to settle accounts with her for what this woman had just exposed inside General Tado's residence, but now he was still suspicious of his intentions, just now inside General Tado's residence, if Shadowless hadn't seen those pictures and had some emotional fluctuations, how could they have been discovered.

Ye Han said speechlessly; "I say, Miss Shadowless, is it possible that I am really that bad in your heart? Now that we've been exposed, I'm afraid there are already many pairs of eyes on us in the shadows, so it's not appropriate for us to be with Khong Lao and the others at this time, let Khong Lao and the others hide in the shadows in order to have an unexpected effect on the enemy, more so that the enemy can't feel our bottom, we can't go back to the hotel side anymore, it just so happens that I know a good place where we can live in the open. "

At that, Shadowless frowned and said; "Is it just the two of us?"

"Is it hard to say that you want to add another one?" Ye Han scowled at Shadowless' body, and that gaze made Shadowless' face a little hot.

"The two of us are living inside a house, alone, don't you feel it's not right?"

"You sleep in yours and I sleep in mine, what's wrong with that? Don't worry, although you are indeed quite pretty, you're not my cup of tea, I won't eat it up." Ye Han shrugged his shoulders, then walked towards the front after taking a glance at the location where the empty old man was hiding them.

"Hmph, even a sow can go up a tree if you believe in men." Shadowless snorted coldly, but she still followed behind Ye Han, it really wasn't the right time to be with Empty Elder and the others at the moment.

"Looks like Ye Han and the others are already safe, let's go, let's go back to the hotel."

Hearing this from Elder Kong, Cheng Jun said; "Elder Kong, aren't we going to rendezvous with Ye Han?"

"This kid Ye Han must have his own plans since he didn't choose to come to us, we can just go back to the hotel and wait for his news."

After saying this, Elder Kong and the others slowly disappeared around General Tado's residence.

The place Ye Han was going to was not somewhere else, but the place where the Bai family's father and son lived; with the Bai family's father dead, the place should be left vacant at the moment.

When Ye Han brought Shadowless to this place, the whole house had been cleaned and the bodies of the Bai family's father and son had also been disposed of. It seemed that General Tado already knew that the Bai family's father and son were dead, but he just didn't have the time to bother about it now, moreover, the death of the Bai family's father and son didn't have much to do with him.

After arriving here, Shadowless, who was a secret agent, habitually checked inside the house to see if there was anything like a monitor, Ye Han didn't bother to pay attention to her, he could see the problem if he used his yin and yang magic eye to look through the whole house.

"Empty Elder, I can't go back to the hotel side with Shadowless Girl for now, you guys must be careful when hiding in the shadows, right now even the Northeast Tiger is involved, the situation has become more and more unfavorable for us."

Empty Elder said; "Ye Han, don't worry, no one has found us yet, you and Shadowless have been exposed for now, you yourselves must be careful, we are in the shadows just in time to keep an eye on these people."

"I was thinking the same thing." Ye Han said; "The Golden Triangle may be in chaos in the next two days, the Japanese have promised General Tado to deal with the other three warlords in order to get that item, the Second Righteous Son and the Northeast Tiger's people should take advantage of the opportunity to cause trouble, but let them make as much trouble as they want, our focus remains on General Tado, right, Khong Lao, send someone to keep Sha Kun under surveillance, see if this guy will see if there is any movement. If we're lucky, we might be able to get what we want from him."

"Sha Kun, as far as I know, this man is a military talent under Tado's hand, could there be something fishy in his body?" Elder Air asked suspiciously.

Ye Han said; "The exact reason is not clear in this, but he must not be caught out when monitoring him, this person is also a careful and cautious character."

"Okay, I got it Ye Han, keep in touch if anything happens."

After the call, Ye Han leaned back on the sofa and thought about his own business, the Golden Triangle was a muddy water he wanted to get what he wanted from it, neither of these two things could be missing, right now everyone had their own agenda, the Japanese were forced to destroy the other three warlords in order to get that item, General Tado was sitting behind the scenes to reap the benefits, the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant would only take advantage of this opportunity in The Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant will probably take advantage of this opportunity to secretly and ruthlessly undermine Yamamoto Takeo, so that he will fight the three warlords to the death.

If Yamamoto Takeo dies, it will be a good thing for the Second Righteous Son, for the Ghost Servant and for Ye Han, as everyone will have one less powerful competitor.

To General Tado, if Yamamoto had died, he might have lamented the loss of a huge sum of money, but he would never have lamented it, because he would not have been worried about selling what he had. General Tado would be happy to see that.

In a word, Yamamoto was the worst offender in the matter of the three warlords.

But Yamamoto, who was in a state of rage, did not think about this at all, so he was doomed to a tragic end.

Fortune Chapter 478

At this time, no matter which side of the Golden Triangle, everyone was harbouring their own ideas, secretly playing with each other.

At this time, Shadowless, who had already checked the whole house, came inside the living room, she looked at Ye Han who was in deep thought, then sat down opposite him and said; "This building is very safe, there are no bugging devices, Ye Han, now are we just going to sit here and do nothing?"

At that, Ye Han retrieved his thoughts as he looked at Shadowless and said; "Who told you that I'm not doing anything? Didn't I already do it when I was at General Tado's residence? Now at this time, I think the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant must be premeditating against Yamamoto Takeo while premeditating how to get that item from General Tado's hands, although General Tado made a good move, unfortunately he was too greedy, he thought he could divert everyone's attention this way, but his greed will lead him to the end of his life."

"What do you mean?" Shadowless asked, somewhat puzzled.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han shook his head somewhat speechlessly as he looked at Shadowless and said; "You know what? Seeing you reminds me of a word."

"What word?" Shadowless frowned, she felt that Ye Han would not say anything good.

As expected.

The next moment the word that popped out from inside Ye Han's mouth made Wu Ying hate to smash his face into a pig's head.

"Big breasts and no brain."

Ye Han didn't bother with the angry Shadowless as he continued; "General Tado is too greedy, once Yamamoto Takeo and the three warlords fight, do you think the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant will quietly watch from the sidelines? If General Tado hadn't shown such strong greed, perhaps the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant would have waited until after Yamamoto Takeo and the Three Warlords were defeated before looking for General Tado to negotiate a price, but three billion dollars, even if I wasn't willing, would the Second Righteous Son and the Ghost Servant be willing to give it?"

"So, they will definitely go after General Tado." Shadowless said with a frown.

“There is a possibility that they will, and there is also a possibility that they won’t.” Ye Han answered Shadowless ambiguously, hearing him say this, Shadowless felt that she really couldn’t follow Ye Han’s thinking a bit, why was that?

“Women, never forget yourself when thinking about others.” Ye Han looked at Shadowless with a faint smile and said; “The reason I said that is because they still have to guard against me, to them, I am also a threat.”

“So what should we do now?” Shadowless simply stopped thinking about it, she looked directly at Ye Han and asked, having a conversation with this demon and not being able to keep up with his thinking was really a hard thing to do.

Ye Han said; “Right now we don’t need to do anything, wait for news from Elder Kong and his side, I think Sha Kun must be unable to resist trying to find that item now, if he does find it then we can get our hands on it without blowing our heads off, on the other hand, if not, we will have to take a walk to General Tado’s barracks.”

“It’s that simple, it’s just that you’re overthinking it yourself.” Ye Han said; “Right now, all the people who should be arranged and monitored are already in place, we just need to wait for the news. Miss Shadowless, it’s getting late, do you think we should rest?”

“Us?” Shadowless glared angrily at Ye Han; “You’re thinking beautiful, I’m telling you Ye Han, if you dare to mess around, I’ll make sure I’ll cut you up.”

“Hey hey, just kidding, just kidding” Ye Han grinned afterwards, he went upstairs with a flash, sleeping with Shadowless, this was naturally impossible, even if Shadowless agreed, he would have to think about it.

A night passed like this, and Shadowless got up very early the next day, sleeping here last night, she had not slept well all night, deeply afraid that Ye Han would turn into a hungry wolf and eat her in the middle of the night.

“Good morning, Miss Wu Ying!”

“I’m going back to the hotel.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han shook his head and said; “No, you going back now will reveal the location of Air Elder and the others.”

Ye Han said; “Don’t worry, if the situation is unexpected, I don’t think it will be long before we get busy, for the time being we can’t move around, I think at this moment there should be several waves of people outside here watching us here, the calmer we act the more baffled they will be.”

“Don’t you feel bored staying like this?” Shadowless is obviously someone who can’t stay, and most importantly, staying inside this room and having to face Ye Han all the time made her feel very uncomfortable.

“Fine, I will take you out for a stroll and see the customs and traditions of the Golden Triangle.”

However, just at this time, the communicator on Ye Han’s wrist lit up, Ye Han pressed the answer button and asked; “Elder Kong, what’s the situation?”

On the other side of the communicator, Air Elder said; “Ye Han, last night, Yamamoto Takeo fought with a warlord called Rondo, this group of little Japanese are really powerful, they destroyed General Rondo even though he was prepared, exterminating the high level forces around Rondo, now the people under Rondo’s hand are in chaos.”

Hearing this, Ye Han asked; “Elder Kong, what about the loss of Yamamoto Takeo?”

“Lost four midshipmen.” Air Elder said; “But next it won’t be that easy for Yamamoto Takeo to exterminate the other two warlords, after seeing how powerful Yamamoto Takeo is, the other two warlords have joined forces, and now there are several warplanes patrolling the skies of the Golden Triangle, making it look like an African battlefield, you two should be careful over there.”

“We will be careful, Khong Lao, continue to monitor Yamamoto Takeo, these guys hate me to the bone, it’s best to destroy them.”

“We won’t relax on our side, right now General Tado, the Second Righteous Son, the Ghost Servant and the others are all under our surveillance.” Air Elder said; “Ye Han, the Shakun you asked me to spy on has also come to light, this guy quietly sent out a group of people last night, but after these people entered a building, all of them were blown up, and a hundred meters radius was razed to the ground, fortunately our people did not follow them in at that time, otherwise they would have suffered along with them.”

“Trapped?”

Ye Han’s eyes looked somewhat cold, it seemed that this news was deliberately spread by General Tado through Ana’s mouth, the purpose of which was to lure people who secretly had evil intentions towards the item in his possession to fall for it, all within a hundred meters were razed to the ground, with such a powerful explosion, even if Ye Han had mistakenly entered in, he was afraid that he would not be able to escape.

“A good General Tado, what a deep heart!”

After Ye Han turned off the communication system, he said to Shadowless; “Shopping is cancelled, now let’s go to General Tado’s barracks.”

“Now?” Shadowless looked at the sky outside, it was broad daylight, going to General Tado’s barracks like this, this guy couldn’t be crazy, right?

“Just go now.” Ye Han said; “Since you don’t even think it’s the right time to go now, all the more reason for us to go, General Tado won’t expect us to dare to break into his barracks in broad daylight.”

Fortune Chapter 479

“You guy still this is an unconventional person when it comes to doing things .” After giving Ye Han a look, Shadowless said; “Go now, don’t you need to prepare anything?”

“No need.” Ye Han shook his head and said; “Let’s just think of it as going out for a stroll and then find a chance to enter General Tado’s barracks, since this place that Shakun is looking for doesn’t have what we want, right now there is only General Tado’s barracks left, time is running out, there are still two days left until the guest that General Tado is waiting for, after today there will only be one day left, we must get that item found.”

With a plan in mind, Ye Han and Shadowless went out like a couple, walking through the streets of the town, with some of the people who were secretly following them following from afar, reporting back from time to time on the situation here.

After shaking off the people following them, with Ye Han’s speed and Shadowless’ invisible powers, the two of them soon arrived outside General Tado’s barracks, and no one found them, as there was a three-metre high power grid outside General Tado’s barracks, with millions of volts of voltage, and inside the barracks were soldiers on guard, with heavy weapons such as warplanes, tanks and anti-aircraft guns placed inside. There was at least a battalion of soldiers inside.

However, with the help of Shadowless, a psychic capable of stealth, the two of them easily entered the barracks.

After arriving here, Ye Han opened his Yin Yang Dharma Eyes at all times. Right now, his Yin Yang Dharma Eyes could see things within 1,000 metres, and anything hidden within this range could not escape Ye Han’s eyes.

In one of the barracks of this barracks, General Tado and Shakun were talking to a map, Ye Han gestured for Shadowless to come closer and after listening, he realised that this guy was thinking about how to take over the territories of the other three warlords.

After listening for a minute, Ye Han and Shadowless walked towards other places inside the barracks, and soon the two of them arrived at a military machine heavy place, where the guards were even tighter, holding guns firmly guarding the place, with serious expressions, so that one could tell at a glance that they were not ordinary soldiers, but definitely the best who had survived the baptism of war.

After arriving here, Ye Han began to take a penetrating look at this military aircraft heavy place, however, without looking, a glance, Ye Han’s body even sweat hairs stood up, because this military aircraft heavy place actually placed dozens of kilograms of explosives inside, other than that, this military aircraft heavy place has nothing else.

Moreover, the detonation point of these explosives was the gate of this military aircraft heavy area, if someone forced open this gate, then the dozens of kilograms of explosives stored inside would immediately explode, and then half of the military camp would be blown up into the sky.

Ye Han’s heart was cold, if he didn’t possess the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, which could see through things inside, if he rashly barged in, once he detonated these explosives, he would never have a chance to live.

After seeing this place, Ye Han scanned the arrangement inside the barracks, those heavy weapons and some important equipment were three to four hundred meters away from here, once this place exploded, it would not ripple over there, so at this look, this military machine heavy ground was more like a trap, because no one would think that General Tado would arrange such powerful explosives inside his own barracks.

This military machine heavy ground looked heavily guarded with powerful soldiers guarding it, but to really come here was not a very difficult task for experts like Ye Han and the others.

A trap, a total trap, the place that Sha Kun was looking for, as well as this military machine heavy site was a trap set up by General Tado, and it was specifically designed to deal with experts like Ye Han and the others.

After observing the situation here, Ye Han instructed Shadowless to take him away, there was no need to continue investigating this military camp, this military machine place as well as other places Ye Han had used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to view, there was nothing here that he was looking for, instead it was a terrible trap.

Seeing that Ye Han was about to leave, although Shadowless had some doubts in her mind, she did not ask more questions, this was not the place to talk, in case someone found out again it would be troublesome.

Immediately after the two arrived outside the barracks, Shadowless frowned and said; "Ye Han, what's wrong with you? We haven't even started checking yet, why are we leaving?"

Ye Han said; "That's because you didn't, I've already mapped out the situation inside, there's no need to investigate any further, I suddenly thought of a way, when the night comes, we'll go visit General Tado again, if we can succeed, maybe we'll get something tonight, let's go, let's go back first."

Hearing Ye Han's words, although Wu Ying was a little annoyed that Ye Han did not say anything to understand, however, this place was dominated by Ye Han, if Ye Han did not say anything, there was nothing she could do.

General Tado's barracks was a trap, this matter Ye Han did not intend to say anything for the time being, perhaps, this trap could be used by him.

Towards the end of the night, Ye Han and Shadowless once again arrived outside the gates of General Tado's residence, but this time the two of them came to visit openly and honestly, instead of sneaking around like they did last time.

"Haha, I didn't expect Mr Ye to be so free to come to my place, it's really a rare guest." Inside the hall of the government residence, General Tado sat on the first place, he looked at Ye Han who walked in holding Shadowless' hand and laughed twice, but he had no intention of getting up to welcome him.

Ye Han directly led Shadowless to sit down on a seat, and then smiled; "General Tado, last time I took the liberty to disturb you, so I feel ashamed inside, so tonight I am here to apologise to you, I hope you won't take it to heart, we should work together more often in the future."

At these words, General Tado said; "Mr. Ye that is a serious statement, now you are the god of wealth of this general, treating the god of wealth how can this general go angry, just like last night, I hope that there will not be again, this general's door is open, whoever comes is a guest, no matter who it is I will not So, guests should go through the front door, not sneak in over the wall."

"Didn't I go through the front door this time?" Ye Han smiled slightly at General Tado, causing General Tado to smile back and said; "This proves that Mr. Ye really wants to make friends with this general, treating friends, this general will always be sincere, Mr. Ye has been here in the Golden Triangle for a few days, this general has not yet hosted a banquet for you, choose a day, I wonder if Mr. Ye and this beautiful young lady can appreciate your face now? "

Ye Han smiled; "Since General Tado has graciously invited us, it would be too much of a lack of friend if we refused."

"Haha, good, I like Mr. Ye's promptness, someone, prepare the dinner."

Fortune Chapter 480

As the hegemon of the Golden Triangle, General Tado naturally lived in great luxury, with large fish and meat and all kinds of delicacies on a large table.

However, to have a full meal, Ye Han would not treat his stomach badly.

Shadowless ate civilly and very little, but looking at Ye Han's wolfish appearance, she really wondered if this guy hadn't eaten a full meal for days and was too careless about his image.

General Tado was just watching the scene indifferently, occasionally saying a few polite words to Ye Han, so that the whole atmosphere would not be too awkward, half an hour later, Ye Han was full, he put down his chopsticks and looked at General Tado who had already eaten and said; "Thank you for your hospitality today, when the General goes to China in the future, I will definitely treat the General well. "

Hearing Ye Han's words, although General Tado sneered in his heart, his face still wore a smile and said; "Mr. Ye, you are my General's friend, I naturally have to treat you well, if there is a chance to go to China, my General will definitely go to bother you."

"Oh, when the time comes, I will sweep my couch to welcome you, so I will not bother the general today." As the saying goes, General Tado shook hands with General Ye Han and said, "Since Mr. Ye is leaving, I won't stay much longer, I hope we can keep in touch during this time in the Golden Triangle, after all, Mr. Ye is also very interested in the item I have."

"Oh, what the general said, I will take my leave, please stay here, general."

After saying that, Ye Han turned around with a smile on his face and led Shadowless away from General Tado's residence.

"General, what exactly does this kid mean by coming to you at this time?" After Ye Han and Shadowless left, Machete, who had been standing behind General Tado, asked with a frown, he always had a feeling that he couldn't see through Ye Han, this young man was too dangerous as he was hiding a sword in his smile.

General Tado sneered and said; “No matter what he means, as long as this kid doesn’t have any bad intentions towards me for the time being, right, what about the matter I asked you to find out if he also brought others to the Golden Triangle?”

Upon hearing that, Machete said; “General, I haven’t found out yet, on the surface it seems that this Ye Han did bring only one woman to the Golden Triangle, he didn’t have any dealings with anyone.”

“Keep checking, we can’t be careless with this kid.” General Tado said with narrowed eyes.

“Ye Han, what kind of medicine are you selling in this gourd?” On the way back, Shadowless looked at Ye Han with a puzzled face, this guy went to General Tado’s residence and just ate a meal, and did nothing else, wasn’t this a waste of time?

Hearing this from Shadowless, Ye Han smiled; “Perhaps, for that item, I already have an eyebrow.”

“Really?” Shadowless’ eyes lit up, but he also looked at Ye Han with some uncertainty, just by having a meal with General Tado did this guy know?

“Of course it’s true.” Ye Han said confidently; “As the saying goes, the most dangerous place is the safest place, it seems that I really underestimated General Tado, this man’s mind is really not simple, even I was fooled by him.”

“Are you saying that the item is in General Tado’s residence?” Shadowless asked.

Ye Han nodded, when he shook hands with General Tado just now, Ye Han opened his Yin Yang Dharma Eyes, opening both his left and right eyes, and could see some images of what had happened in the past through something, an ability that Ye Han had already discovered before, but right now, Ye Han replaced the thing with a person.

At the beginning, Ye Han was not sure if this method of his would work, but after experimenting on General Tado, Ye Han’s method worked and he managed to see some places that General Tado had visited before through the medium of General Tado.

Among them, there was this image of the place where General Tado had placed the triangular iron piece.

There was also a secret room under General Tado’s mansion, a room that was unknown even to General Tado’s women and even to Machete, except for General Tado himself, and it was in this secret room that General Tado had hidden the piece.

When he first went to investigate General Tado’s residence, Ye Han had not thought about this, so much so that he thought that General Tado would not have placed such an important item in such an obvious place; after all, there were too many people who had thoughts about that triangular iron piece at the moment, and it would be easy for General Tado to have it stolen from such an obvious place in his own villa.

However, General Tado played a trick for everyone to turn the impossible into possible, the most dangerous place is the safest place, this trick, even Ye Han was fooled, checked General Tado’s residence twice with no luck, only afraid that anyone would have the same thought as Ye Han.

Shadowless' eyes flashed with excitement and said; "Ye Han, since we already know the whereabouts of this item, shouldn't we make a move? If we strike late and the others find out, it will be much more difficult for us to get it."

Ye Han pondered and said; "We will act late at night, in order to prevent any changes, inform Elder Kong and the others to meet us outside General Tado's residence at night, we have to move fast, if we can get this item without making a sound it would naturally be great, if something unexpected happens, we will have to fight a big battle."

"Good, I'll inform Elder Kong and the others to move." Shadowless immediately contacted Elder Kong and his side, after everything was arranged in place, Shadowless looked at Ye Han and said; "Ye Han, I can't see that you are quite capable, right, how did you know that the item was at General Tado Tower's residence?"

This was a question that Ye Han could not answer Shadowless because it involved his secret, so naturally he could not say it to Shadowless, an outsider.

"You really want to know?" Ye Han smiled and glanced at Shadowless.

Shadowless gave Ye Han a blank look and said; "Nonsense, why would I ask you if I didn't want to know?"

"But, I can't answer you on this question." Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and walked quickly towards the front, with these words, he was directly angry, Shadowless looked like he was gnashing his teeth behind him, how did Ye Han know this, Shadowless did want to know, did Ye Han have the ability to foretell? Unfortunately, ah, Ye Han would not say, Shadowless was destined to not be able to know.

All she could feel was that mystery in Ye Han's body, this was a guy who was so full of mystery that one could not help but want to pry open his head to take a look.

However, after Ye Han and Shadowless returned together to their temporary place of residence, outside the building where they lived, there were already two people waiting for him.
