Fortune Chapter 481

Looking at the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son standing outside the building like two gods of the gate, after Ye Han swept a glance around the building, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth as he walked over and said; "I didn't expect the two of you to be so elegant, to come out for a walk to enjoy the moon together, such elegant sentiments make me admire you."

Enjoying the moon?

The ghost servant and the second righteous son looked up at the night sky at the same time, there weren't even any stars tonight, where was the moon, this guy's bullshit skills were even better than his mouth.

"Ye Han, having come to your place, don't you invite the two of us in to have a seat?" The ghost servant looked at Ye Han and said indifferently.

Ye Han laughed; "The two of you have such interest, I naturally won't refuse, please do."

Subsequently, Ye Han invited the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son inside the building, the three of them each sat in a separate position, their gazes calmly surveying each other, seeing that the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son had no intention of speaking first, Ye Han could only speak; "I wonder if you two have come to my place at this late hour for something? If there's nothing, the long night is long, so I'm going to go lie down in a gentle place."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Shadowless, who was sitting next to him, blushed and hated to give Ye Han a punch to that face.

The ghostly servant said; "Ye Han, I know that you are also interested in that item in General Tado's hand, so how about we work together? If the three of us join together, we can bring down General Tado without much effort and force him to hand over that item."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han laughed; "Could it be that with the strength of the two of you, you are still unable to do this? Why do you need to call on me?"

The Second Righteous Son snorted coldly and said; "Ye Han, naturally I called you in because I want to drag you in with me, right now Yamamoto Takeo is fighting with several warlords and can't get away, we should take this opportunity to snatch that one item from General Tado's hands, this guy is too greedy and can only take it by extreme means."

"Fan Wu Xi is right, Ye Han, I wonder if you are willing to join forces with us?" The ghost servant's gaze looked at Ye Han, a cold evil aura was being released among the eyes that were not covered by the black iron mask.

When Ye Han heard this, he smiled and said; "Pulling me in is a lie, the two of you are afraid of me is the real thing, right? If the two of you deal with General Tado in the front while I undermine you in the back, your situation will become very unfavourable, I wonder if I am right?"

"Indeed, Ye Han, you are simply too scandalous, so you must be tied together with us." The Second Righteous Son narrowed his eyes and looked at Ye Han and said, Ye Han's tactics, they had seen them when they were at General Tado's residence, the reason why they had not yet made a move against General Tado was also because they were afraid of Ye Han, so they had to come to Ye Han and tie him to them in a car.

Ye Han laughed; "As far as I know, although the Northeast Fierce Tiger and the Divine Eagle in the north are not considered deadly rivals, you should at least be enemies with each other because of Nalan Miantian's relationship, now that you have tied your interests together, aren't you afraid that this boat will turn over?"

"Ye Han, this has nothing to do with you, now we only want a word from you, will you do this matter?" The ghost servant asked indifferently. Ye Han laughed indifferently; "Not even giving me time to think about it, it seems that the two of you don't have any eyebrows about that item, so that's why you want to use such an extreme method to deal with General Tado."

The ghost servant and the second righteous son looked a little silent, they indeed had no eyebrows about the item, they had patronised General Tado's mansion for several times without finding it.

"Unfortunately, I am not a person who likes to work with other people, so I will have to let you guys down."

Ye Han's words directly caused the eyes of the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son to instantly turn cold and sharp, if Ye Han did not agree, then they would have to take some extreme measures against Ye Han as well, leaving Ye Han alone behind to watch them and General Tado go at it was too dangerous, maybe at the critical moment, Ye Han would stab them very sinisterly from behind, making them the same as Yamamoto Takeo at the moment.

"Ye Han, do you know why it is the two of us who have come together to find you tonight?" An evil, eerie smile appeared on the ghost servant's face, and the Second Righteous Son's face was also flushed with a burst of coldness at this moment, a fierce light slowly surfacing in his eyes.

Seeing this, Ye Han's eyes narrowed directly, could it be that these two fellows still wanted to make a move on him?

If Ye Han agreed to join forces with them, they could still check each other because of their interests, but if Ye Han chose not to join, then they would have to get rid of Ye Han, leaving Ye Han Behind them was too dangerous!

At this moment, even Shadowless felt the murderous intent on the faces of the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son, her brow furrowed as she unknowingly moved a little closer to Ye Han.

"It seems that you have made enough preparations to come to me tonight!" Ye Han narrowed his eyes as he looked at the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son.

"How can I deal with you without preparation?" The Second Righteous Son responded indifferently.

Upon hearing that, Ye Han laughed; "Then, I would like to know how to divide it up if you guys join if you get that item? You know, everyone is very thirsty for that item, so it can't be shared between the three of us, right?"

The ghost servant said; "Ye Han, what you said is for later, right now we must take that item from General Tado's hands, that is what is most important."

"What a pity! I still can't join you guys." Ye Han said; "In fact, there is no need for you guys to be so wary of me at all, I don't even know what exactly that item you are fighting over is, I came to the Golden Triangle to kill Tado, not for that item you are talking about, for me, killing Tado is more important than anything else."

"Humph, Ye Han, when you say that, do you think we will believe it?" The Second Righteous Son snorted coldly.

"There's nothing I can do if you guys don't believe me." Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and said; "However, to show my sincerity, I can give you a clue, I wonder if you two would like to hear it?"

"What clue?" The ghost servant's gaze was fixed on Ye Han, as if he wanted to see from Ye Han's face whether his words were true or not.

Ye Han said; "I think you have already been to General Tado's residence, but you have found nothing, but apart from General Tado's residence, his military camp, I wonder if you two have gone to patronize it?"

Military camp?

After hearing Ye Han's words, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son's brows furrowed, General Tado's military camp was heavily guarded, although they could go in and check it out, the area they could check out was too small, they simply could not go in and out freely inside.

Fortune Chapter 482

"It seems that the two of you have not been there."

Ye Han laughed; "To show that I have no hostile intentions towards you two, I can reveal a little bit in that there is a military machine important place in General Tado's barracks, perhaps, there will be something you need there, of course, I only learned this news by chance, whether or not this is the case, you two will have to check it out for yourself."

"Ye Han, would you be so kind as to tell us this news?" The Second Righteous Son had a cold smile on his face.

"Since you two don't believe me, there is nothing I can do, after tomorrow, the guests that General Tado is waiting for will arrive, if during this period Yamamoto Takeo can successfully destroy those warlords, that item will naturally belong to Yamamoto Takeo, I think by then Yamamoto Takeo will have become a toothless tiger, you can go and snatch it, however, if Yamamoto Takeo doesn't succeed, then However, if Yamamoto Wufu does not succeed, then I am afraid that it will be even more difficult for you guys to go and snatch it from other people's hands, so the opportunity left for you guys is not much." Ye Han said indifferently.

Hearing Ye Han's words, the ghost servant and the second righteous son fell silent one after another, how could they not know what Ye Han said, that was why they had come to Ye Han, they had to get their hands on that item before the guests like General Tado arrived.

“You want to deal with us, and even if you succeed, you will only cost yourselves a fortune, are you really willing to take the risk?” At this time, Shadowless who had been silent suddenly popped out, causing Ye Han to give her a high look, this woman who was acting recklessly finally knew how to use her brain!

“People from the Abnormal Energy Association.” The ghost servant’s gaze lingered on Shadowless’ body.

To this, Shadowless did not reply.

“How’s the walking wind?”

Hearing this, Shadowless’ gaze stared as she looked at the ghost servant and asked; “How do you know about Xingfeng?”

“I owed him a favour back then, so I’ll pay him back today, Fan Wu Xi, go.” Saying that, the ghost servant directly stood up and walked out, when the second righteous son saw this, he frowned before following suit, since the ghost servant was unwilling to lay a hand on Ye Han, with him alone he naturally did not have that kind of ability.

“This ghost servant is not simple, the members inside the Abnormal Energy Association are the most secretive special agents, no one would even know their names without the appropriate rank.” Looking at the departing ghost servant, Shadowless said with a frown.

Ye Han said; “When I pitted Yamamoto Takeo, I knew that this guy was not simple, this man is thoughtful and calm, but even so, there are times when he is not as careful as he should be, tell Elder Kong and the others not to rush into action yet, keep an eye on Ghost Servant and Second Righteous Son for me, when they have acted, we will act.”

“Are you saying that the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son will go to General Tado’s barracks to check?” Shadowless looked at Ye Han and asked.

“It will.” Ye Han said; “Although they are not sure if what I said is true or not, the time left for them is running out, so even if it is false, they will still take the risk to check it out, and when they go to the barracks, that is when we will go to General Tado’s residence.”

“Is it hard to say that there’s really something fishy inside that military camp?” Shadowless gave Ye Han a strange look.

At that, Ye Han smiled mysteriously and said; “You’ll know when the time comes, I’m sure, at that time, it will light up the entire night sky!”

Afterwards, Shadowless informed Watching Air Elder that they would temporarily cancel their operation and closely monitor the movements of Ghost Servant and Second Righteous Son, while Ye Han and Shadowless waited for news inside their home.

Since the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son had already moved to kill him, Ye Han naturally would not show them any mercy, having pitted Yamamoto Takeo, it was now the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son’s turn.

This is called lending a knife to kill, lending General Tado’s knife to kill the ghost servant and the second yoshio.

At one o'clock in the morning, word came from the Empty Elder that the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son had indeed made their move and had quietly gone to General Tado's camp.

After hearing the news from Empty Elder, Ye Han stood up and straightened his clothes and said; "Let's go, it's our turn to make an appearance, tonight, it's going to be very exciting."

Outside General Tado's barracks, at this moment, a group of people had already quietly felt their way inside the barracks, these people were agile and incredibly quick, moving constantly inside the barracks, dodging the passing patrolling soldiers.

In another dark area, Ye Han, Elder Kong and the others were quietly watching the scene, the secret movements of the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were completely under their watch.

"These guys have really done as you said, Ye Han, when do we make our move?" Elder Empty asked as he withdrew his gaze and looked at Ye Han. Ye Han smiled; "On hold, the signal hasn't been sent out yet, when the signal goes off, that's when we'll make our move."

"A signal?" Elder Empty and the others all looked at Ye Han with a puzzled expression.

However, this process did not take long to pass, only to see that at this moment, a shockingly large explosion rang out violently inside the barracks, causing the entire barracks to shake, the rushing fire light shot up into the night sky, illuminating the dark night within a thousand meters, in an instant, chaos broke out inside the barracks, the explosions were one after another, extremely terrifying.

When they saw this, a look of horror appeared on Elder Kong's face. With such a terrifying explosion, they were afraid that the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were already in grave danger, and even if they didn't die, they had lost half of their lives.

"Good guys, this time they should cry out in pain!" Cheng Jun and the others grinned, looking at this scene happening inside the barracks with an admiring expression, Shadowless' gaze at this time looked at Ye Han like a monster and said; "Did you guy know that there were explosives hidden inside?"

"I did know." Ye Han nodded his head and looked indifferently at this scene of fire and light ahead.

At those words, a flash of scorn flashed across Shadowless' eyes as he said; "You guy is too scary! After you pitted Yamamoto Takeo, even the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son have been pitted by you."

"To be merciful to your enemies is to be cruel to yourself, not to mention, they were the ones who tried to kill me in the first place." Ye Han's eyes were cold, at this time, General Tado was alarmed, he himself walked out from inside the mansion, without even putting on his clothes, and went straight over to the military camp with his scimitar.

After seeing this place, Ye Han said; "Now is the time for us to act, Elder Kong, you guys take care of your concealment and wait for good news from me and Shadowless."

After saying that, Ye Han directly swept inside General Tado's residence with Shadowless, at this time, it was perfect to fish in troubled waters, General Tado would only focus on the military camp side.

Fortune Chapter 483

As they watched Ye Han and Shadowless enter General Tado's residence without any problems, Elder Kong and the others took cover, keeping an eye on the situation at the barracks while keeping an eye on the situation inside General Tado's residence.

At this moment, inside the barracks, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were even angry, their lungs were about to explode, they had been pitied by Ye Han, pitied miserably, although the explosion just now did not kill them, but had already seriously injured them, moreover, all the people they had brought with them had died in the big explosion just now.

Now, they were almost surrounded by General Tado's men, with all sorts of powerful heavy weapons aimed at their hidden positions, and if they attacked, they could only run for their lives.

"Damn you Ye Han, I will break you into pieces!" The Second Righteous Son's eyes flashed with a monstrous murderous spirit, the Fifth Righteous Son was dead, even the three Wolf King experts were dead, and his own leg had been injured by the blast.

"If you want to kill Ye Han, let's get out of here alive first." Although Ghost Servant's evil face was also covered with killing intent, he was much more calm and composed than the Second Righteous Son, all the people he had brought with him were likewise dead, and both he and the Second Righteous Son were now a bare-bones commander.

But these were not the most important things, right now, survival was the most important thing. Facing General Tado's powerful heavy weapons, even in their heyday they would have had to be careful, let alone now.

While the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were facing a dire situation, Ye Han and Shadowless had already entered General Tado's residence silently and arrived at the underground chamber that General Tado had built, this underground chamber was huge and the entrance was extremely secretive, the mechanism to open it was all an unexpected painting, only when this painting was moved would the door to the underground chamber be opened. This was something that Ye Han had already seen in General Duo's body.

In this underground chamber were many of General Tado's private collections, which included a large amount of gold and jewellery, antique objects were also not a few, filling the entire chamber, and the preliminary estimate was that if the items here were put up for auction, their value would definitely exceed one billion.

Looking at these things, Ye Han was very greedy. If conditions permitted, he would not mind looting General Tado's private underground chamber, but unfortunately, he could not take these things away at the moment.

"You fellow, don't be greedy, hurry up and find what we need." Seeing Ye Han staring at those jewels and jewellery with shining eyes, Shadowless was furious and pushed him, if he delayed here for long, it would be troublesome if General Tado returned later.

“Don’t look, it’s on that shelf in the far corner.” Ye Han looked at the far corner of the secret room, where there was a wooden box, and General Tado had placed the triangular iron block inside this wooden box.

Upon hearing Ye Han’s words, Shadowless hurried over and opened the wooden box, and as expected, what she needed surfaced in front of her eyes, but there was also a miniature bomb inside this wooden box, and if it was detonated, the whole wooden box would explode, and the contents inside would be blown into pieces.

Handling something like a bomb was not a difficult task for Shadowless, and she quickly removed this miniature bomb.

Ye Han walked up to Shadowless’ side and was also examining the triangular-shaped iron block, which was exactly the same as the photo Situ Zhentian had sent him, with the same number of profound runes engraved on it that one could not understand.

However, when Ye Han looked carefully at this moment, he felt a very mysterious and mysterious aura on this triangular iron block, extremely subtle, an aura that was definitely not something that could be emitted from an ordinary relic.

“This thing should be incomplete, right?” Ye Han asked, looking at the triangular-shaped iron block inside the wooden box.

“It should be unfinished, there are still articulated seams around this triangular iron block, it might just be a part of its whole.” Shadowless said.

When Ye Han heard this, he gave Shadowless a look and said; “Is it hard to say that this is something that even you don’t know?”

Shadowless shook his head and said; “My rank is not enough, I only know that this time my mission is to bring it back intact, I know nothing else.”

Ye Han said; “It seems that the superior has done a pretty tight job of keeping it a secret, even you, a person from the Abnormal Energy Association, don’t know about it.”

“Alright, this mission is done, we should leave, General Tado will also be in trouble if he comes back and finds out that this item is missing.”

“Don’t, there are so many good things here, don’t you have any that you fancy?” Ye Han looked at this room full of treasures, he smiled at Shadowless and said; “Don’t be polite, take whatever you fancy here, it’s free anyway.”

“Talking so nicely, you think all these things are yours? If you have the guts, you buy it and give me one?” Shadowless gave Ye Han a white glance, Ye Han didn’t answer, he walked over and took out a pendant after picking out some of those jewellery items, this pendant was very beautifully made, pure white, if Shadowless carried it on her body it would be beautiful.

“Here, this is for you, it should fit quite well on you.” Ye Han handed the pendant to Shadowless, originally Shadowless did not want to take it, but after seeing this pendant, her eyes lit up and she said;

“This is the most famous royal pendant in the Silver Country, a priceless treasure worn by a certain royal queen of the Silver Country.”

“Like it, take it if you like it, leaving it here out of sight is a complete waste of it, a rough man like General Tado doesn’t need such a thing.”

Hearing this from Ye Han, Shadowless snatched it from his hand and said; “For the sake of you being so sincere, I’ll accept this gift.”

“Alright, the stuff is in hand, hurry up and leave, the battle over at the barracks should be almost over.”

After saying this, Ye Han and Shadowless left this underground chamber of General Tado at once, right now, General Tado was still commanding over at the military camp and had not returned, the entire residence looked somewhat empty inside except for some necessary guards, so Ye Han and Shadowless came out very smoothly.

At the barracks, under General Tado’s command, wave after wave of heavy weapon attacks were fired out, showing no mercy, since this trap he had set was hit by the people in the dark, to General Tado, he had to strike hard to exterminate the people in the dark.

Under this powerful firepower attack, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were beaten and scattered, without even the slightest power to fight back, looking very wretched.

Ye Han and Shadowless appeared beside Elder Kong and the others at this time, seeing that the two had returned safely, Elder Kong immediately asked; “How is it Ye Han, did you get the stuff?”

“Fortunately, it was not an insult.” Ye Han smiled, causing Elder Kong’s face to immediately rejoice.

Fortune Chapter 484

Afterwards, Shadowless handed the wooden box to Elder Kong, after Elder Kong opened it and looked at it, he nodded with a smile on his face and said; “That’s it, let’s go back, before the night gets too long, this item must be sent back home immediately.”

After Ye Han turned his head to look at the battle inside the barracks, his figure disappeared in a flash.

The battle between the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son and General Tado was very tragic, they were bombarded by the artillery fire for more than ten minutes before they finally escaped from the barracks with heavy wounds.

At this time, Ye Han and the others had already arrived at the hotel quietly. Since the item had already arrived, Elder Kong and the others must immediately rush back to the country with this item, which was very important to the country and could not be lost.

“Ye Han, since the ‘Divine Disc Fragment’ has arrived, we are about to leave, are you leaving?” Inside the hotel, Elder Kong and the others all looked at Ye Han, this mission had been successfully completed with Ye Han’s help, and it was time for them to leave the Golden Triangle.

Ye Han shook his head and said; “Elder Kong, I haven’t finished my business over here, after I destroy General Tado, I will go back to the country, since this item is so important to the country, you guys should go back first, it was so hard to get it, don't have any more accidents, Elder Kong, this triangular iron piece is called 'Divine Disc Fragment'?"

Elder Empty nodded and said; "This triangle we have is only a part of the divine disc fragment, the other parts are still scattered all over the place, as for its use I can't reveal it to you, it's confidential, moreover, I myself know little about the divine disc fragment."

"That's alright, I'm not really curious about this thing." Ye Han laughed.

Elder Empty said; "Ye Han, are you sure about this side alone at the moment? If General Tado finds out that the divine disc fragment is missing, he will definitely suspect you."

Ye Han laughed; "Suspicion if you want, but he doesn't necessarily suspect me, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son are both possibilities, so after you guys leave, I can do a big job without any worries."

"I'll stay with you, if I leave, General Tado will suspect you even more." At this time, Shadowless suddenly spoke out.

Hearing this from Shadowless, Elder Kong and the others all placed their gazes on her, their eyes looking a little strange.

Seeing this, Shadowless blushed and said immediately afterwards; "Elder Kong, you guys should not think nonsense, anyway, now that the mission has been completed, it is quite boring to go back so early, I have come out for once, so it is just as well that I can play for two more days."

"Shadowless girl, are you sure?" Elder Empty asked.

"Of course I'm sure, I'll go back to the country with Ye Han when the time comes." Shadowless said.

"Alright then." Empty Elder nodded, then he said to Ye Han; "In that case, Ye Han, you should keep an extra eye on this girl Shadowless over here, she is a bit impulsive and reckless, but it is good for you if she stays, it will reduce General Tado's suspicion of you, and her supernatural abilities can't say that she can help you as well."

Ye Han nodded and said; "No problem, it just so happens that I lack a helper like her here too."

"Good, there's no time to lose, let's leave the Golden Triangle now." After having made a decision, Air Elder did not want to delay any further, Cheng Jun and the others walked over and patted Ye Han's shoulder, saying; "Ye Han, we are waiting for you inside Yanjing City, we believe that one day, you will still set foot in that place, and when that time comes, our gang of brothers will all stand behind you."

"Many thanks!"

After watching Elder Kong lead Cheng Jun and the others away, Ye Han withdrew his gaze before saying to both Kunsang and Silly Ben; "Big brother Kunsang, Silly Ben, the two of you are still staying on this side of the hotel and helping me keep an eye on the Second Righteous Son, now that the mission is complete, it's time to do our own thing next."

Kunsang said; "Coming to the Golden Triangle, we've been waiting for this day, Hanzi, keep in touch at all times, if we came together as brothers, we have to go back together."

Ye Han nodded, then he looked at Silly Ben who had a serious air on his face and said; “Silly Ben, protect big brother Kunsang, let me know if anything happens in time.”

Silly Ben nodded with a naive smile, perhaps it was to Ye Han that he would release this naive smile that should have belonged to him.

After that, Ye Han took Shadowless back quietly to the residence where the Bai family’s father and son had been at first. It had been a wonderful night, the battle that had erupted inside the military camp had caused people inside the whole town to be terrified, and every family was ready with weapons, but this wonderful scene had also ended very quickly.

The trap he had set himself had worked, and many of the experts who had come from the shadows had been destroyed by this trap.

“General, I checked and there were eight dead, except that these people’s faces were blurred by the blast and for a while it was unclear whose men they were.” Machete said to General Tado.

“Never mind.” General Tado waved his hand and said; “The situation is getting more and more favourable for us now, even if Yamamoto Takeo doesn’t destroy the several warlords we don’t have to worry, after tomorrow the guest I’m waiting for will arrive, then whoever wants what I’m holding will have to come up with the banknotes that move me in exchange.”

General Tado laughed out loud, with a look of victory, in the Golden Triangle he was the king and anyone who wanted to deal with him would have to pay the price.

“Damn bastard, we’ve been screwed by him!” In the temporary quarters of the ghost servant, the second righteous son looked at his current wretched appearance, he had such thoughts as wanting to grind down Ye Han’s ancestral grave at this moment, after Shanben Wufu, they were actually pitted by Ye Han once, and the pit was even more ruthless and desperate than Shanben Wufu, directly making them become the commander of the bare rod.

“If you’ve been pitted by him, you have to find him to get it back.” The ghost servant said with an indifferent face; “This time we were too hasty and fell for this guy’s treacherous plan, it seems that he knew that there was a trap inside General Tado’s barracks and deliberately lured us into the trap here, wanting to use General Tado’s hand to get rid of us, what a vicious guy!”

“To get back?” The Second Righteous Son said with an indignant look on his face; “With our current state can we still ask for it back from his hands? Not to mention going to fight for the fragment of the divine Disc, right now our strength is greatly reduced, we are only afraid that nothing is possible, moreover, that bastard Ye Han’s backhand has not been exposed until now, can we still fight him?”

Hearing these words from the Second Righteous Son, the ghost servant said with a calm face; “Therefore, we must unite together even more right now, the only way for you and I to have a ray of hope is to do so.”

Fortune Chapter 485

At any time, one should not be too hasty, as the saying goes, haste does not make the bean curd hot.

If the ghost servant and the second righteous son had thought about it calmly at the beginning, they would have known how Ye Han, as their opponent, would be so kind as to give them this information.

Unfortunately, the anxious ghost servant and the second righteous son did not think carefully, and the previous lesson of Yamamoto Takeo was the example for them.

Inside the building, Ye Han looked at a relaxed Shadowless at this moment and said; "Why did you choose to stay and help me? You know that this side of the Golden Triangle will become more and more dangerous, don't you worry about your safety if you stay here?"

"Isn't there still you here?" Shadowless glanced at Ye Han and said; "The first genius of the martial world shouldn't even have the strength to protect a woman like me, right? What's more, being with you is much more exciting than going back to Yanjing City."

Ye Han smiled; "In the Golden Triangle as long as you do as I say, there won't be too much risk, and since you chose to stay and help me, then I have to say thank you, after tomorrow, when the guest General Tado is waiting for arrives, I'm going to make it official on him, and I want you to do one thing for me then."

"What is it?" Shadowless asked.

Ye Han smiled mysteriously and said; "I want you to help me contact those left over from the destruction of the warlord by Yamamoto Takeo."

"You mean those remaining soldiers, what's the point of contacting them?" Shadowless asked curiously.

"I can't tell you yet, but this step is crucial for me."

"Well, it seems that you guy is thinking of some crooked ways again." Shadowless shrugged and said; "It's not impossible to help you contact these people, but you'll have to send me a helper, right, I'm a weak woman to contact them, I'm just afraid that people won't even buy my account ."

"I'll have Silly Ben follow you when the time comes." Ye Han said; "Remember to use more brains when doing things, don't use your hands if you can use your brains to solve things, once you move your hands, it has to be thunderous, you can't be indecisive."

"You guy, don't you feel tired of thinking about some schemes and tricks to calculate others all day long?" Shadowless gave Ye Han a vicious white glance.

"One can't help oneself when one is in the jungle!" Ye Han sighed, in fact, he also wanted to think about nothing and quietly be an ordinary person, but after stepping into the bloody world of the Underworld, he could only step on the bones of his enemies and walk forward, he could not go backwards, if he did, he would be in the abyss of ten thousand feet, his enemies would eat him to the point of not even having any bones left, what about the people around him then?

And so, a day and a night passed.

The guests that General Tado was waiting for would arrive tomorrow. Since the battle at the barracks, neither the oni nor the second righteous son had survived, and the battle on Yamamoto Takeo's side was nearing its end. and Shushita.

The battle with the three warlords was a very stifling one for Yamamoto Takeo, who was pitted by Ye Han, forcing him to deal with the three warlords, but only after doing so did Yamamoto Takeo realise that he had made the wrong move. not only did he not get what he wanted, but he had also helped General Tado to destroy three enemies.

But, having already engaged the three warlords, there was no chance for Takeshi Yamamoto to quit even if he wanted to. So Yamamoto could only do his best to destroy the three warlords in a very frustrating situation.

General Tado had not noticed by now that the triangular iron block he had hidden inside the underground chamber was missing, and was still waiting very expectantly for his guest to arrive.

So, with the exception of Yamamoto Takeo's side, which was still fighting like glue, everything seemed calm on General Tado's side.

This calm, however, was more like a premonition of a coming storm.

Perhaps, in the dark, apart from Ye Han, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son were also beginning to premeditate their affairs.

Finally, on this day, General Tado sent someone to invite Ye Han to his residence and participate in the auction, as the guest General Tado was waiting for arrived today.

After receiving the invitation, Ye Han naturally took Shadowless to General Tado's residence. At this time, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son, Yamamoto Takeo had only received the invitation.

After arriving at General Tado's residence, Ye Han saw that Ghost Servant and Second Righteous Son had already arrived. At this moment, the two of them were sitting on their seats with gloomy faces, their eyes were very cold as they looked at Ye Han, with that look, they wanted to swallow Ye Han.

To the gaze of the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son that looked as if they wanted to eat people, Ye Han turned a blind eye to them as he smiled directly at General Tado; "General Tado, it seems that today is a good day, to have laboured you to gather us all together."

General Tado gave a sneer in his heart, then said; "Mr. Ye, please sit down first, we still have guests who have not arrived, once they arrive, this general will take out that item for everyone to bid on, still the highest bidder will win, unfortunately Mr. Yamamoto has exceeded the expected time, this item cannot go to him."

Ye Han smiled; "A truly good item is naturally won by those who can afford it, I think all of you here today are very much looking forward to this."

"Ye Han"

At this time, outside of the hall, a cold and piercing voice suddenly rang out, then, Yamamoto Takeo walked in with Ichiro Gamura and Shushita, with a murderous look on his face, a terrifying killing machine enveloped Ye Han, seeing such a scene, General Tado, Ghost Servant and Second Righteous Son's hearts all laughed coldly, right now, none of the people here wanted Ye Han to live, who all wanted to kill him.

"I wonder what Mr. Yamamoto called me for?" Ye Han glanced at Yamamoto Wufu indifferently, his eyes calm.

"Ye Han, you will not escape today!"

"Is that so? With just you, plus two useless trash?" Ye Han gave a cold laugh. Hearing his words, Ichiro Gangmura and Shushita's faces turned even colder.

"Oh, Mr. Yamamoto, calm down a little, let's sit down and talk about what's going on." At this time, General Tado put on a good old-fashioned look and came out to round things up.

Upon hearing this, Yamamoto Takeo snorted coldly as he looked at General Tado and said; "Sir General, I have already helped you to destroy the three major warlords, now, it is time for you to fulfil your own promise, right?"

General Tado smiled faintly and said; "Mr. Yamamoto, if you had said this to me yesterday, then, this General would have definitely taken that item out and given it to you, but, now you have passed the expected time, so, you will have to bid again for this item in my hands Mr. Yamamoto."

"Your Excellency the General, do you know what price you will pay for going back on your word?" Takeo Yamamoto looked at General Tado with an icy expression.

"Mr. Yamamoto please calm your anger, this General can give you a promise, if the price of the auction does not reach the high price Mr. Yamamoto offered, this item still belongs to Mr. Yamamoto."

Fortune Chapter 486

After hearing these words from General Tado, Yamamoto Takeo's heart was simply suffocating to the point that what should have belonged to him was now on the verge of flying away, and he had paid a huge price for this item.

"Sir General, are you playing with me? You know that in order to help you exterminate the three warlords, my men have suffered heavy losses, and for that, shouldn't Your Excellency the General take out that item and give it to me?" Yamamoto Takeo said with a cold face.

At that, General Tado frowned and said; "Mr. Yamamoto, I am very happy that you helped me destroy the Three Great Warlords, however, this General has already said that if no one bids higher than you in the auction later, then this item will naturally remain yours, so why do you need to be in a hurry?"

"Hmph, scumbag, in case someone bids more than us, will this item still belong to us?" Ichiro Gamura looked at General Tado with a cold snort and a murderous look in his eyes.

Hearing this, General Tado sneered; "If that is the case, then this General will have to say sorry, your Black Dragon Society did not complete my conditions as I had scheduled, this General will naturally not buy this item to you again, now if you want it, bid again, whoever gives the highest price, I will sell this item to them."

Seeing Yamamoto Takeo and General Tado arguing, Ye Han and the ghost servant and the second righteous son looked like they were watching the show and did not say anything, there was nothing for them to do here, so there was no need to get involved, the dark General Tado was not the first time they had met him, this person was a man with a mouth and a sword, his words were not consistent, even if he promised you something, he would not necessarily do it.

At this time, Yamamoto Takeo exhaled deeply, he looked at General Tado and said indifferently; "General Tado, my humble servant has already destroyed three major warlords in a row, if someone fails to keep his word, then I don't mind destroying one more warlord, so I hope General Tado can consider carefully what he just said."

"Mr. Yamamoto, are you threatening me?" General Tado's face went completely cold.

"This is not a threat, but a warning."

General Tado sneered; "This general sees you as a fart, with your current capabilities, can you deal with this general?"

"General if you don't believe me, you can try and see if our Black Dragon Society is capable of doing it."

Yamamoto Takeo slowly stood up, there was an endless hostility being released in those old eyes, seeing this, Machete took a step across and blocked in front of General Tado, his gaze looked coldly at Yamamoto Takeo.

"Oh, I didn't expect the house of General Tado to be so lively just after my arrival, it seems that I came at the wrong time!" As the swords were being drawn, a group of tall foreign men came in, but there was not only one group of foreign men, but also a group of Asian men with yellow skin and black hair.

They were, at this moment, being led by Sha Kun into the hall inside.

"So it's Old Maozi and Stick."

Ye Han, the ghost servant as well as the Second Righteous Son's gazes all fell on these two groups of people one after another, five from the Old Maozi side and seven from the Stick Nation, these people were not ordinary people, they were all trained experts from the Old Maozi and Stick Nation mysterious departments, although the way these people trained was different from the domestic experts, the power was the same, they all possessed inhumanly powerful attacking power.

Seeing these two groups of people, Yamamoto Takeo, Ghost Servant and Second Righteous Son, along with Ye Han's eyes faintly stared, these two groups of people were not ordinary, the power they possessed was very powerful, not comparable to ordinary experts, for that triangular iron block, Old Maozi and Bangzi were very attached to it, bringing powerful experts to the Golden Triangle.

Seeing this, Ye Han and Wu Ying were somewhat thankful in their hearts that they had already obtained that triangular iron block, otherwise, facing the Old Maozi and the experts of the Stick Kingdom at this moment, their chances of winning were not really good.

However, even though the Old Maozi and the Stick Nation had a strong line-up, Ye Han was not worried, the triangular iron block had already been sent back home, so the Old Maozi and the Stick Nation could not even think of getting it.

“Haha, Mr. Shelter, Mr. Jin Wu Xu, my humble servant has been waiting for you for a long time.”

When General Tado saw the visitors, he laughed twice and then greeted them with a smile on his face, shook hands with those two people cordially and then personally invited them to take their seats, obviously to these two honoured guests, General Tado was very attached to them.

Once everyone had sat down, the handsome man from that stick country swept his gaze at Ye Han and the others and said indifferently; “General Tado, I didn’t expect you to have quite a few guests here, it seems that everyone has the same aim, so many people competing together, you’re going to make a fortune this time.”

How could General Tado not hear that Jin Wu Xu was blaming him for calling too many people, he laughed; “Mr. Jin Wu Xu, all the friends here are here in admiration for that item, so I can’t turn them away, however, more people are more lively, so, for this bidding today, whoever bids the highest price, that item will be theirs.”

More people are more lively? I’m afraid it’s only when there are more people that you make more money, right?

Jin Wuxu sneered in his heart, but Ye Han and the others, Jin Wuxu did not put them in his eyes, his main opponent was Xelt, as long as he defeated this old Maoist, that item would be returned to their country.

“General Tado, since we have arrived, can that item be put up for auction?” At this moment, the old Maoist Shelter said with a smile on his face, sweeping his gaze over the bodies of those present as if he were a gentleman.

“That is natural.” General Tado smiled faintly, and then, a morose cold smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth, his gaze slowly fell on Ye Han, and his voice spoke coldly; “But there is an enemy of this general here today, if any of you help me get rid of him, after the auction is over This general is willing to take out 100 million dollars as payment.”

At these words, Ye Han’s eyes narrowed into a line as he looked at General Tado, his ten fingers slowly clenched up, the people present heard these words their eyes changed, then they followed General Tado’s gaze, the next moment, Yamamoto Takeo, the ghost servant and the second righteous son sneered at the same time, it seemed that here today, General Tado was preparing to strike at Ye Han, the same old trick, letting someone else take care of his opponent instead of him.

Last time it was for Yamamoto Takeo to destroy the three warlords, while this time it was for the people here to destroy Ye Han.

“Retribution, what a retribution!” The Second Righteous Son looked at Ye Han with a cold smile on his face, perhaps, without them having to make a move, Ye Han was going to die at the hands of others this time.

“General Tado, is this person your enemy?” Jin Wu Xu indifferently glanced at Ye Han, he didn’t care about the 100 million US dollars, but to get rid of a rival, he was more than willing to do it, not to mention, there was 100 million US dollars in it as payment.

General Tado looked at Ye Han and smiled, at this moment, he finally showed his fangs fully in front of Ye Han and said; "This general has many enemies, but this person is the one who scares and hates me the most, I wonder if any of you are willing to do this favor for this general? If the reward of US$100 million is not enough, I can add another US$100 million just to kill him."

Fortune Chapter 487

After hearing General Tado's words, the people here raised their eyebrows. It seemed that General Tado was really willing to spend money in order to kill Ye Han, although US$100 million was not much, but US$200 million was more than one billion RMB.

Moreover, killing Ye Han would also take care of a rival in the process, which was a beautiful job for all the people here.

"Ye Han, you're dead today." The Second Righteous Son looked at Ye Han and let out a cold laugh.

Feeling a line of gazes around them all cast upon them, Shadowless immediately felt a pressure descend upon her, her face was ugly, at this time, anyone here could be their enemy and could strike at them at any moment.

This situation, Ye Han had not even thought of it at first, General Tado had even played the same trick of borrowing a knife to kill someone on his body, making him face a serious situation at this moment, Yamamoto Takeo, the ghost servant and the second righteous son already had an enmity with him, now if he added in the stick or the old Maozi, it could be quite dangerous for Ye Han's situation at this moment.

"General Tado, aren't we friends?"

At this moment, Ye Han's gaze was very calm as he looked at General Tado and asked.

The question was a bit idiotic and made people want to laugh, who would be friends with General Tado here? It was only because of interests, because each wanted what they wanted that they sat at a table, if General Tado did not have what everyone wanted in his hand, I was afraid that anyone here would want to kill him.

"Ye Han, do you think that's possible?" General Tado laughed coldly and said; "Letting you live in the Golden Triangle for so many more days is already generous of this General, and now, it is time for this General to take your life, without killing you, this General can't even sleep peacefully, your heart is too frightening! As your enemy, it is difficult to feel at ease at all times without killing you."

This, Yamamoto Takeo, even the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son agreed, they had already personally experienced Ye Han's tactics, they had all successively fallen on Ye Han's hands and suffered heavy losses.

"So that's how it is, it seems that this time when I come to the Golden Triangle, I'm only afraid that this place will become my graveyard." Ye Han smiled lightly and said.

"Hmph, you can still laugh even now, Ye Han, this general really admires your guts, great body and mind, a rare talent, however, even if you are outstanding, today you will not escape death." General Tado snorted coldly, then he looked at those present and said; "I wonder who among you is willing to help me kill him? After killing him, this general will immediately bring out that item for auction."

"In this matter, I choose not to interfere." To one's surprise, Old Mao Xelt had chosen not to intervene in this matter against Ye Han.

"I'll do this matter for you." However, right after Shelter said this, Jin Wu Xu immediately spoke indifferently, hearing his words, General Tado's face broke out in joy, today, he could solve another opponent without any effort, although he would end up paying 200 million US dollars, but as long as he could kill Ye Han, this amount of money did not matter, anyway, the item that was about to be auctioned would help him earn it back, taking action to kill Ye Han himself, General Tado did not have a sure win He was not sure that he could win.

Seeing that the matter of killing Ye Han had been decided, the people around looked at Ye Han indifferently, the strength of the stick side could not be underestimated, there were seven experts, if Ye Han really came to the Golden Triangle with only a woman, then he would definitely die today.

Gradually, the experts of the stick nation had surrounded Ye Han from several directions, each one's body was filled with cold corn killing intent.

General Tado leaned back in his chair and watched the scene with a cold smile on his face, Ye Han, the enemy that scandalised him, was about to die.

"Hold on."

However, just as General Tado's heart was secretly happy, Ye Han spoke indifferently; "Gentlemen, is it possible that you believe his words so much?"

At those words, the crowd's expressions froze, and a look of disbelief was the first to flash across Yamamoto Takeo's face, for he had already been deceived once by General Tado, making him General Tado's free fighter to help him destroy the three great warlords.

"What do you mean by that?" Jin Wu Xu looked at Ye Han and asked indifferently

Ye coldly laughed; "I don't trust this General Tado, who is a man of his word, and I think everyone here has the same thoughts as I do. Will he really put that item up for auction after he kills me?"

"Bastard, are you suggesting that this General would go back on his word and deceive everyone here?" General Tado slammed the table and stared at Ye Han with a sinister expression.

Ye Han still sneered and said; "That can't be said, wasn't our Mr. Yamamoto of the Black Dragon Society deceived by you once? In the end, did you give him that item? So, your character is cheap with me and not worth trusting at all."

"You" General Tado's face turned very ugly, how dare he deceive everyone here? Unless he didn't want to live anymore, as for Yin Yamamoto Wufu, that was only if he saw that Yamamoto Wufu didn't have many helpers around him anymore.

Jin Wu Xu said; "General Tado, I think it is better to take out that item you have for auction first, trust, that is under the premise of treating your most loyal friend, this is a relationship of interest between us, so there is no trust, I want to see the item you have first."

"I think so." Shelter spoke with a smile.

Seeing this, General Tado's face became even more ugly, after putting that item up for auction, if the people here got that item and waved their sleeves and walked away from helping him kill Ye Han, wouldn't his idea fall flat.

"What, does General Tado not have that item we need in his hands?" Seeing this, Ye Han said with a smile, the God Plate fragment had already been sent back home, now, he wanted to see what General Tado would take to give an explanation to the crowd?

Fortune Chapter 488

The sight of General Tado looking lost in thought caused a frown to form on the crowd's faces.

What happened to the item? Why hadn't General Tado brought it out?

"General Tado, the item? Can you bring it out and let us have a look?" Jin Wuxu's eyes were stern as he looked at General Tado, to them, the item in General Tado's hand was the most important thing.

His gaze was like a poisonous snake sweeping over Ye Han, Yamamoto Wufu, the ghost servant and the Second Righteous Son, and finally, General Tado also glanced at Sha Kun, the item he had hidden in the underground chamber must have been stolen by these five people.

When he had not found it in the underground chamber, General Tado had been so angry that he had dropped his collection, and now he even wanted to kill anyone.

"General Tado, I hope you can answer what I just said." If General Tado was silent, Jin Wuxu's face instantly became cold and stern, and even old Mao Xelt's face also became very cold and sharp, they had come all the way to this shitty place in the Golden Triangle just for that item, if General Tado did not give it out at this time, they would have to vent their anger here.

"It seems that General Tado does not have the item." The ghostly servant's gaze swept over the bodies of those present, if that item was really lost by General Tado, then who here actually had this ability to steal it away silently?

"I'm sorry, gentlemen, I no longer have that item, it was stolen by some damned little thief who I'm sure is still among us." General Tado blurted this out with an ugly look on his face.

The moment he said this, Jin Wu Xu and Xelt stood up from their chairs and looked at General Tado with gloomy eyes.

"General Tado, I advise you to give us a reasonable explanation, otherwise, the consequences will be quite serious, you should know the importance of that item to me." Jin Wu Xu's gaze that contained killing intent looked at General Tado, it was evident that he was also furious to the extreme after hearing these words from General Tado.

At this moment, Shelter's body no longer had that gentlemanly demeanour, his eyes were cold and piercing; "General Tado, although you are the overlord of the Golden Triangle, it is a simple matter for us to destroy you, so that item you had better find out, don't let us use the place you have worked so hard to fight for as a place to vent your anger."

Hearing these threatening words from the two men, General Tado's body trembled in anger as he said in a deep voice; "I dare to guarantee with my life that the item must still be in the Golden Triangle, and that little thief who stole it is among us, as long as we uncover that little thief, we will be able to find the item."

At those words, Ye Han smiled coldly in his heart, the God Plate fragment was already within China right now, General Tado's desire to find it in the Golden Triangle was undoubtedly a fool's errand.

"It seems that I was right, some people's credit is still very cheap!"

Ye Han sneered at General Tado and said; "Gentlemen, I see that he doesn't have what we need in his hands at all, everything is just a bluff, luring us here to be pawns in his hands and help him destroy some of his opponents."

"Bastard, what are you babbling about?" With these words, General Tado looked at Ye Han like an angry tiger, then growled; "It's you, it must be you who stole that item, hurry up and hand it over or this general will have you killed without a burial place."

At those words, a gaze fell on Ye Han's body, eyes sharpened, had Ye Han really done it?

"Joke." Ye Han let out a cold laugh and said; "General Tado, I think you should have been angry and confused, right? If I had gotten that item, do you think I would still risk remaining in the Golden Triangle?"

Indeed, after hearing this explanation from Ye Han, Jin Wuxu, Xelt as well as Yamamoto Wufu and Ghost Servant did not bother to suspect Ye Han, with Ye Han's personality, if he had stolen that item, he would have left the Golden Triangle a long time ago, and would not have bothered to remain here.

"It's either him or you guys, you must have done it!"

At this moment, General Tado was catching whoever he saw, bumping around like a blind cat, at this moment he placed his eyes on Yamamoto Wufu and the ghost servant and the second righteous son and the others, seeing this, Yamamoto Wufu coldly snorted and said; "General Tado, I didn't settle the score with you, now you are wrongly accusing me instead, I advise you better clear your head. "

Hearing these words, General Tado was furious, he took out a gun and pointed it at the trembling Shakun, and said in a hoarse voice; "Say, is it you? Don't think that what you have done is unknown to this general."

Shakun was directly frightened by General Tado's move and fell to his knees, his voice trembling as he said; "General, it's not me, it's really not me, I'm loyal to you, General, you must believe me"

"White-eyed wolf, sleeping with my woman and trying to steal my things, I'll beat you to death"

"Humph, a mad dog who has lost his mind, it seems that none of us will be able to get that item today." Looking at General Tado who was kicking Sha Kun madly and viciously at the moment, a cold smile spread across the ghost servant's evil face as he said.

Seeing General Tado's furious look, the crowd was outraged and at the same time, they directly wanted to slap him to death, however, General Tado could not die now, he still had to be allowed to search for that item, and if he really could not find it, then it would be the time of his death.

“Tado, I will give you one day, you better give me a satisfactory answer, otherwise, you know what kind of consequences you will bear.” After Jin Wu Xu coldly snorted, he led his men out of the place, and Shelter also spoke with a cold face at this time; “Tado, I also give you one day, if I don’t see what I need after one day, you should go to hell.”

Seeing that both Jin Wu Xu and Xelt had left, Ye Liang gave a cold laugh before also walking out of the place with Shadowless.

“Follow him.”

Looking at Ye Han’s back, a terrifying murderous look flashed across Ghost Servant’s evil face as he and Second Righteous followed closely behind Ye Han, since they couldn’t get that item for the time being, they would have to get rid of Ye Han and avenge his death.

“Teacher.” As he watched the ghost servant and the Second Righteous Son rush away, a monstrous hatred welled up in Gangmura Ichiro’s eyes, he could be said to hate Ye Han to his bones.

“The time has come to kill him, let’s go.”

One group after another followed behind Ye Han and Shadowless, and in a few moments, only the frantic and indifferent General Tado and the indifferent Machete, as well as the beaten half-dead Shakun, were left at General Tado’s residence.

Fortune Chapter 489

After leaving General Tado’s residence, Ye Han took Shadowless straight to the place where he was temporarily staying. Although today’s situation was unexpected, it was good that he had muddled through and did not obtain the divine disc fragment, Ye Han knew that at this moment in time, the Ghost Servant and the Second Righteous Son and Yamamoto Takeo would definitely take advantage of this time to seek revenge on him.

Therefore, after returning, Ye Han waited inside the courtyard for their arrival. As for Shadowless, she had already taken cover inside the house, the battle that would break out later was not something she could get involved in.

Before Ye Han had finished one cigarette, the ghost servant and the second righteous son slowly walked inside the courtyard, the gate Ye Han didn’t even close, just waiting for them to come in by themselves.

“It seems that you are waiting for us yourself.” The ghost servant looked at Ye Han with an evil smile and said.

The Second Righteous Son sneered and said; “I think he is sending himself to his death, because he knows that there is absolutely no way to live today.”

Ye Han threw away his cigarette and said; “I think you are thinking too much, how about it, that big explosion the night before last should still be too much for you guys, right?”

“Bastard, I’ll send you to hell today!” The Second Righteous Son’s fists clenched and a half-metre long scimitar appeared in the Ghost Servant’s hand, his eyes cold as the two slowly separated and moved their feet to surround Ye Han.

Seeing this, Ye Han laughed lightly and said; "With the two of them wanting to kill me is not enough, Yamamoto Takeo, since they are here why not fight together, this way you have a better chance of winning."

On hearing this, outside the building, three figures swept into the courtyard at the same time, a fierce and fierce aura immediately spread out from their bodies, all three of them tightly gripped their katanas, after Yamamoto Takeo glanced at the ghost servant and the second righteous son, he said indifferently to Ye Han; "Ye Han, I have wanted to kill you for a long time, in the face of the five of us, even the gods can hardly save you today. "

"Is that so?" Ye Han smiled faintly, the Dragon Scale Dagger slowly appeared in his hand and said; "Then, you can make your move and see who lives and who dies here today?"

Without unnecessary words, the ghost servant and the second righteous son shot towards Ye Han at the same time, one fist and one blade fell across the sky, directly towards Ye Han's face, on the other side, Yamamoto Takeo, Gangmura Ichiro and Shushita were also killing Ye Han at the same time.

In the midst of such terrifying attacks, Ye Han stood with a smile on his face as he held the Dragon Scale Dagger.

"Roar!"

At this moment, a tiger-like whistling sound suddenly resounded, and then, a tower-like body fell from mid-air and threw a fist that clashed with the Second Righteous Son with a solid punch, and with a click, after the Second Righteous Son clashed with Foolish Ben, a sudden expert, a terrible sound of broken bones rang out from his arm, and cold sweat came out from the pain.

At the same time, after Silly Ben appeared, a figure appeared on the wall of the courtyard immediately afterwards, and the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards Ye Han was finally not hiding them.

"There are experts!"

After seeing this, Ghost Servant and Yamamoto Takeo's faces changed greatly, and they went even more frantic towards Ye Han, right now they could only kill Ye Han as quickly as possible, and then break out and leave the place.

"Ghost Servant, Yamamoto Takeo, haven't you always wanted to know my backhand? I'll let you see it today, Heavenly Dragon Guards, no one will be left behind!"

As the words fell, Ye Han's body swung across the air and swung out his blade, colliding fiercely with Ghost Servant's slashing scimitar, the terrifying blade aura was released, the burst of bright white aura stung people's eyes, but after Ghost Servant and Ye Han clashed, his face changed, an infinite force impacted on his body, causing him to fall backwards in the void. He was unable to defeat Ye Han?

However, as Ye Han was forcing back the ghost servant with his blade, Yamamoto Takeo's katana was already coming from the void behind Ye Han, as fast as lightning, Yamamoto Takeo was already a heavenly ninja expert, equivalent to the middle governor realm, for him, Ye Han did not even dare to be careless, at this urgent moment, Ye Han's figure flashed in the void, the ladder cloud vertical unfolded, a trail of Ye Han slashed through the void, the residual shadow followed.

Boom!

A terrifying airburst sounded behind Ye Han, as Yamamoto Takeo's slash cut through the void, the power of his slash directly bursting the air, a circle of relentless air waves sweeping around like a ferocious tide.

"Ye Han, receive my slash!"

While Ye Han was avoiding this terrifying attack from Yamamoto Takeo, the ghost servant who had just been forced back by Ye Han's slash once again came towards Ye Han to kill him.

"Still dare to come." Ye coldly laughed as the Dragon Scale Dagger swung out in a smooth motion, an endless force spread out with Ye Han's slash, as if it was a monstrous wave, endlessly powerful and continuous, the power of Ye Han's slash all fell on top of the Ghost Servant's scimitar.

In the next moment, the ghost servant's body burst back like a thunderstorm, his body hit the wall and spat out blood, a look of horror flashed in his evil eyes. Not to mention that there were many experts around here.

"Ah"

At this time, the Second Righteous Son, who was fighting with Foolish Ben, was fiercely hit by Foolish Ben's fist, which dented the Second Righteous Son's chest, and it looked like he would not survive.

"Bastard!"

The katana in his hand danced with a terrifying blade, making several Tianlong guards come close to death.

With the Intrinsic Fire in his palm, Ye Han strolled out in the void, a terrifying fierce light flashed across his black eyes, then the Intrinsic Fire was fiercely smashed down by Ye Han towards Yamamoto Takeo, the terrifying temperature followed on the side, causing the air in the void to become extremely dry.

"Get lost!" Sensing the power of Ye Han's smashing down flame, Shanben Wufei was in the void and slashed out fiercely towards that flame, however, the Chi You Divine Compulsion's destiny flame had traumatized even Murong Hetu back then, how could Shanben Wufei resist it, after that terrifying flame fell, it wrapped around Shanben Wufei's body like a maggot on a tarsal bone.

The next moment, Yamamoto Takeo's angry, fearful roar came out in the midst of those flames, and at this moment his entire body turned into a man of fire, pulsating madly.

"Sensei!" After seeing this scene, a look of horror flashed across Ichiro Gangura's eyes, how could Ye Han be so powerful? Even his teacher couldn't resist him.

After seeing the power of Ye Han's flames, the ghost servant's eyes were equally appalled, without much thought, his figure swept towards the outside of the courtyard after a flash, there was no hope for him on the Golden Triangle side, facing the terrifying Ye Han, he could only retreat at this point.

The Ghost Servant fled, the Second Righteous Son was killed by Silly Ben, Yamamoto Takeo could not survive under the attack of the Flame of Destiny, the remaining Gangmura Ichiro and Shushita naturally could not make it, they were quickly killed by the Heavenly Dragon Guards.

The battle was over before it had gone on for ten minutes, and apart from the Ghost Servant who had escaped, all those who had come to trouble Ye Han had left their lives inside this courtyard.

Fortune Chapter 490

If he couldn't handle this group of people, there would be no point in continuing to hang around.

The ghost servant fled, and Ye Han did not go after him, they would meet again in the future.

As for Old Maozi and Bangzi, if these people didn't look for him, Ye Han wouldn't have bothered with them, after all, the experts brought by Old Maozi and Bangzi weren't that easy to deal with.

Right now, it depended on what kind of reply General Tado was going to give to these guys, the God Disc Fragment was missing, and it wasn't that simple for General Tado to appease Old Maozi and Stick, who had come all the way here specifically for the God Disc Fragment, but in the end, General Tado couldn't get his hands on anything.

"Shadowless, you should take Silly Ben to the other three major warlords' residences now and contact those remaining leaders, remember, your aim is to contact them, you cannot use force to oppress them until the last resort, wait for my notice after you have contacted all these people in place." Inside the room, Ye Han was currently giving an explanation to Shadowless.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Shadowless nodded and said; "Okay, let me know when you're done with your side of things."

"Watch out for safety, Silly Ben, protect Shadowless, if any pricks try to pick a fight, you watch out for yourself."

Silly Ben rounded his head and said; "Promise to finish the job."

"Hanzi, then I'm done, what do I do?" Seeing that Ye Han had arranged tasks for both Silly Ben and Shadowless, Kunsang said with a bitter face, he hadn't even had the chance to show off his skills after coming to this side of the Golden Triangle.

Ye Han laughed; "Brother Kunsang, I don't think it will be long before it's time for you to show off your skills, I want to ask you, if you were to take control of this part of the Golden Triangle, would you be sure?"

"Take control of the Golden Triangle?"

Hearing Ye Han's words, Kunsang and Wu Ying simultaneously shook, did Ye Han want to take control of this part of the Golden Triangle for himself?

"Ye Han, you guy's ambition is too big, but given the situation today, if General Tado is eliminated, this is a good opportunity to take full control of the Golden Triangle." Shadowless said.

Ye Han's ambition was certainly great, he said; "The Golden Triangle is the common link between the three countries of Titanium, Myanmar and Laos, the situation here is complicated and no one is willing to manage it, this is a very ideal place for me, moreover this place is rich in drugs, it is the world's drug kingdom, if I control this place, it is equivalent to controlling half of the world's drug sales, which is a huge amount of money."

“Do you guy still want to be a big drug lord?” After hearing Ye Han’s words, Shadowless immediately glared at him.

Ye Han laughed; “You are thinking too much, the drugs that flourish in the Golden Triangle will not be sold to the country in the future, back then the opium war hurt the nation, now I will return these to them.”

“That’s more like it, but this idea of yours is simply too sinister.” Shadowless sniggered, the longer she stayed with Ye Han, the more she felt that there was more badness inside Ye Han’s stomach, but it did not arouse her disgust at all.

“Hanzi, do you really want me to take control of the Golden Triangle?” Kunsang looked at Ye Han and asked with some uncertainty, taking control of the Golden Triangle, this was something Kunsang had never even thought about before, but now that Ye Han had said so, it had in turn aroused the ambition in his heart, these people in Tado could become the overlord of the Golden Triangle, could it not be possible for him, Kunsang?

“Naturally, it is true.” Ye Han said; “Brother Kunsang, you are the most suitable candidate, once General Tado dies, the huge Golden Triangle will have no leader, this is the most suitable time for us to take the position, this job, just see if you dare to do it?”

“Shit, I’ll do it!” Kunsang gritted his teeth and agreed without hesitation.

Ye Han laughed; “Brother Kunsang, I believe in your ability, in the future if possible, I am also going to develop the Golden Triangle, although this looks like a barren place, but if it is developed properly, it may not be impossible to turn it into a prosperous city.”

At these words, Shadowless laughed; “Ye Han, if you really develop the Golden Triangle, then the people here will only worship you as a god.”

The people living here in the Golden Triangle were still in deep water and most of them could only live on poppy cultivation, if the living environment here could be improved and foreign investment introduced, it would definitely be a different world.

Ye Han said; “This is just a temporary idea, it is hard to say if it can be done.”

Shadowless pondered and said; “Actually, if you take control of the Golden Triangle, it would be a good thing for the country, because the amount of drugs that circulate from here to the country every year is huge, controlling this place is the same as controlling the source of drugs, and you can further clean up the drug gangs in the country.”

“This is also my intention.” Ye Han slowly nodded his head.

At this time, a Heavenly Dragon Guard who was outside tidying up the battlefield walked in and said to Ye Han; “Young Ye, there is a person outside who wants to see you.”

“Who is it?” Ye Han was a little puzzled.

“Sha Kun.”

Upon hearing that, Ye Han smiled and said; "I didn't expect that Tado hadn't killed him, bring him in and see what he wants to see me about."

Not long after, Sha Kun was brought inside the house, but this fellow's appearance at this moment was considered quite miserable, his whole face was swollen like a pig's head, and he was also walking with a limp.

Seeing him, a look of disgust flashed across Shadowless's face, clearly she didn't like this person Sha Kun.

"Mr. Ye." Sha Kun's gaze glanced at the people sitting inside the room, then looked at Ye Han and called out.

"Mr. Sha Kun please sit down, I wonder if you are looking for me for something?" Ye Han said with a smile on his face, Sha Kun slowly sat down on the sofa, inside Tado's mansion, he had a few of his ribs broken by Tado.

"Mr. Ye, I know that you want to deal with Tado, and in this matter, our goals are the same, so I can help you." After Sha Kun sat down, he directly opened up to Ye Han and said.

"Then, I wonder how Mr. Sha Kun wants to help me?"

"I can help you with the heavy weapons that Tado has." A sinister look flashed across Sha Kun's face before he continued; "I think Mr Ye is also very scornful of Tado's heavy weapons, if you have my help, it will be much easier for you to exterminate Tado."

"That's a good offer." Ye Han laughed; "But now that Tado doesn't trust you anymore, you are already lucky not to have killed you, I want to know how you are going to help me with the heavy weapons that Tado has?"
