Fortune Chapter 561

Ye Han didn't think much about the order issued by the Blood Righteousness Sect to kill him, as the soldiers were coming to stop him and the water was coming to cover him up.

If he took control of this place, it would do Ye Han absolutely no harm. The idea of taking control of the underground world of Xiangjiang and making it his own came to Ye Han only after Hong Tiansheng insisted on going against him.

"Sir, let's not leave Xiangjiang for now, there are many hospitable people over here, it seems they want to keep us here for a few more days, but that's good, this city that never sleeps in Xiangjiang is beautiful, so beautiful that I want to take it into my arms." Looking out of the car window at the receding night scene, Ye Han said with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth.

On the other side of the phone, Leng Wufei nodded with a smile and said; "Okay, I know what you mean, Xiangjiang is indeed a good place."

After saying that, Leng Wufei hung up the phone, he looked at Sun Buwei who was looking at him and said; "Xiao Han said that we are not leaving Xiangjiang for the time being, certain people are too enthusiastic and we can't let them down."

"Hehehe, just what I want, this time no one should steal from me, I, Lin Qi, will be the first to take the lead, let's see what kind of experts there are on the Xiangjiang side." Lin Qi wiped his sky-breaking halberd and grinned, a chilling smile on his face, the kind of smile that sent shivers down one's spine like the smile of the god of death.

"Silly Ben, you don't want to lose to this fellow Lin Qi." Hearing Lin Qi's words, Zhou Lie touched Silly Ben and said with a squeezed face.

Upon hearing this, Silly Ben spared his head and said; "He can't beat me."

Hearing this, Lin Qi snorted coldly and said provocatively; "Silly Ben, dare to have a match with me?"

"What do you want to compare?" Silly Ben's naive smiling gaze looked towards Lin Qi, however, there was the same sharpness and battle intent surging in the eyes of this large, seemingly naive man, Lin Qi and Silly Ben, the two of them were natural born rivals, one was the World Breaker Star, and the other was the World Killing Seven Killers Star.

"Hey, let's just compete to see which of us two has killed the most people in Xiangjiang." Lin Qi looked at Silly Ben with a bloodthirsty smile.

"Okay, I'll compete with you." Silly Ben nodded his head and agreed, battle intent bulging around his body, his naive eyes turning very cold and sharp.

Under the dim street lights, a black Rolls Royce made its way into a cluster of villas, before stopping in front of a villa at the very back, which looked elegant from the outside, and in a place like Xiangjiang, where every inch of land is gold, such a villa would only cost a lot of money.

Entering inside the villa, Li Xinran said to Ye Han; "How is it, is it still satisfactory?"

"It's quite good." Ye Han sat down on the sofa with a butt and said; "But I'm staying here tonight, where are you staying?"

"Of course it's here too." Li Xinran took off the coat she had draped over her body and said; "There are many rooms here, pick one at your own leisure later, I won't be leaving after a very late day."

After saying this, Li Xinran took her coat and went upstairs, leaving behind a dumbfounded Ye Han, who was a bit dumbfounded, this night when a man and a woman were alone in the same room, this seemed to be a bit inconsistent with Li Xinran's personality.

However, if he thought so, Ye Han naturally wouldn't be stupid enough to think so, what kind of person is Li Xinran?

Ye Han smoked a cigarette downstairs and then went upstairs, opened a room at random, the bed here and everything has been done, directly to sleep, Ye Han took a bath and then lay comfortably on the bed, did not think about anything, peacefully into the dream, what will happen tomorrow tomorrow.

Hong Kong, Li family manor.

At this time, an old man in Tang costume walked into Master Li's study without making a sound. At this time, Master Li had not yet rested, and was reading carefully with his eyes in the light of a book "International Economics".

"Old master, it's time for you to go and rest." The old man in the Tang suit said to Old Master Li.

At his words, Master Li looked at the clock hanging on the wall, took off his glasses and smiled; "Alas, I'm getting old, if I don't rest, this body is getting worse and worse!"

"That's not true, old master, you won't have a problem living for another few decades." The Tang-suited old man laughed and then said; "Old Master, the people below have sent word that Miss did not return to her villa this evening and stayed at a villa over in Saigon."

"Is there something wrong with that?" Master Li asked rhetorically, he was quite satisfied with that granddaughter of his and basically would not interfere with her affairs.

"The problem is that there is a young man living in the place where she lives now as well." The Tang-suited old man let out a bitter laugh and said; "This young man is from the mainland side, I haven't checked his identity yet, but this young man is currently under a jianghu chase order by the black and white channels in Xiangjiang, both of them want to kill him."

"There's still such a thing?" Master Li's brow furrowed and said; "Although Xiangjiang is a strict legal society, it is also chaotic in the dark, with black and white collusion."

"I know, old master, now you should go and rest."

Master Li got up and smiled, saying; "You have to remind me every time, to say the least we are about the same age but not as fit as you."

"Old man, old man, half in the ground too!" The two old men left the study, one after the other.

At this moment, inside a magnificent manor on Kowloon Island, a group of senior members of the Blood Righteousness Sect were having a meeting, and Mr. Hung was sitting on the top chair, saying; "In Hong Kong, no one dares to ignore my Blood Righteousness Sect."

At these words, an old man sitting below Hong Tiansheng said; "Moreover, apart from us associations, the Jiang General Secretary and the Guo family are also prepared to take action against this kid, both black and white are going to kill him, there will be no way for him to escape in this mu and three parts of Xiangjiang."

Escape? If he wanted to escape, Ye Han would have fled long ago, why would he sleep comfortably?

Hong Tiansheng said indifferently; "Send orders to all the large and small halls and associations in Hong Kong, in three days' time, I want to see the head of that mainland boy."

Fortune Chapter 562

There are hundreds of large and small societies in the whole of Hong Kong, with tens of thousands of members on the periphery, and tens of thousands of members on the periphery of big societies like the Blood Righteous Clan.

Unlike the mainland, where it is important to have elite members, the real core of these societies is not so terrifying, but these societies have their own ways of gaining a foothold in Hong Kong.

Chief Secretary Kong is one of the highest representatives.

At the moment, the underground forces have issued a hunt and kill order against Ye Han, and the white channel is also operating under the control of Chief Secretary Jiang, as if Ye Han is a terrorist who has entered Hong Kong, and as long as he is seen, he does not need to be captured alive, but simply killed.

Therefore, in this part of Sai Kung, law enforcement forces can be found everywhere at all intersections, and the black and white ones are spreading their nets. If Ye Han dares to show his face, these people will know his whereabouts, so that he can be rounded up and killed.

Of course, last night's hunt for Ye Han by the Hung Yee Society had also spread in the Saigon underground circle. Over two hundred people from the Blood Righteous Clan were surprisingly beaten by a single person without a fight, such a fierce man was not something that ordinary small societies could mess with, unless it was a society that had the ability to deal with Ye Han.

"Everyone, that Ye Han is in Sai Kung right now, I think he will show his face again soon, there are more than ten large and small societies on our side of the New Territories combined, the whole New Territories societies have tens of thousands of people combined, I don't believe that we can't kill him, so there is no need to be afraid to deal with this Ye Han, the most important thing right now is to find out where he is, then we will unite to kill him."

The Loyalist Sect was one of the most powerful societies on this side of the New Territories, and many small societies listened to them, after the Blood Righteous Sect, the overlord of the Fragrant River, issued a Jianghu hunt, the Loyalist Sect called on the societies in the New Territories to start looking for Ye Han and hunting him down.

“Boss Tu, with our strength in Sai Kung, it’s not difficult to find that Ye Han, but last night over two hundred of my brothers are still lying in the hospital, it’s definitely not feasible for one particular society to kill him, I advocate that we should unite together, the credit is for all of us, and we should all take the risks together.” The big brother of Hong Yi Society said at this time.

“Good, last night over two hundred brothers from the Hung Yee Society failed to kill him, so it is evident that this mainland boy is not simple either, the risk should be borne by all together.”

Inside this council hall, more than ten big brothers of the New Territories’ societies sat together, at this moment, many of the big brothers of the societies agreed to unite to kill Ye Han, they had to listen to the Blood Righteousness Sect’s Jianghu pursuit order, not listening to the Blood Righteousness Sect’s call was to oppose the Blood Righteousness Sect’s dominance in the underground world of Xiangjiang, but listening was one thing, doing was another, they couldn’t fold their own men in this too.

“Good, since we all propose to do so, then we will join together and kill that Ye Han together after we find out his whereabouts, so that we can also give an account to the Blood Righteousness Sect.” Boss Tu of the Loyalty Sect said this.

In the New Territories, more than a dozen large and small societies, a few tens of thousands of people acted, and the figure of the kooks could be seen in the streets and alleys, so I was afraid that Ye Han would be known as soon as he showed his face.

At this time, Ye Han had already arrived with Li Xinran in front of a large vacant villa, this villa is called Zhongshan Villa, the villa’s surrounding view is open, occupying a large piece of land, surrounded by a field similar to a large park, in which you can also play golf, it seems very quiet and independent, the owner of this villa’s company closed down, in a hurry to sell, the bid is only more than 30 million.

After looking around, Ye Han was satisfied that this Zhongshan villa was not only independent, but most importantly, the site was large enough and had all kinds of facilities, so he didn’t have to go back and buy furniture.

“How about it, is it still satisfactory?” Li Xinran asked from beside Ye Han.

“Not bad, that’s it.” Ye Han nodded and continued; “I’ll transfer the money to your account later, I’ll trouble you to take care of the other formalities, I might stay here for a while.”

“No problem, is there anything else I can help you with?” Li Xinran asked with a smile.

Ye Han shook his head and said; “You can’t help with anything else, I’ll take care of it myself.”

“That’s not necessarily true, at least I have some contacts here in Xiangjiang.” Li Xinran said; “You have my phone number, call me if you need help, that’s all for today, I have to go to the company later, right now with both the black and white sectors hunting you, I expect you to make a name for yourself here.”

After saying this, Li Xinran smiled and left.

Afterwards, Ye Han dialed Leng Wufei and his men and told them to rush to Zhongshan Villa, half an hour later, Leng Wufei and his men had already arrived, all together there were nineteen of them, after arriving here, the Heavenly Dragon Guards immediately cordoned off the area around the villa.

“Little Han, it seems that the Saigon side has cast a wide net, just waiting for you to show up yourself.” Leng Wufei said; “In the morning, I asked the Heavenly Dragon Guards to go out and ask around, right now the people from the societies on this side of Saigon are hanging out on the streets, and the societies from several other areas are also investigating, as soon as you show up they will unite to strike at you.”

Ye Han said; “They are not enough to worry about, the reason why the wolves huddle together to feed is because there is a wolf king above them who rules and orders them, as long as this wolf king is destroyed, this pack of wolves will naturally disperse.

“Yes.” Leng Wufei said; “Not only are there kooks on the streets outside now, patrol forces are everywhere, lining up passers-by, the black and white are all stirred up together.”

“Interesting, then we’ll start with this place in Saigon and take them all together, black and white.” Ye Han stood up and said; “This place in Xiangjiang is very special, it is a piece of treasure, if we can take this place the benefits will naturally go without saying, instead of letting them come to us, we should take the initiative ourselves and kill them by surprise, we will strike at the societies in Saigon tonight, the army is very quick, I want to make Saigon in complete chaos tomorrow, snakes without heads will not work, if these If all the bigwigs of these societies die, the people underneath will definitely be very confused, by then, how can they still care about us, after destroying them, it will be time to deal with those guys who are eating royal food but secretly doing ugly deeds.”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Lin Qi grinned at Silly Ben and said; “Silly Big One, how about the two of us being the front-runners tonight and taking the lead?”

“I have no problem with that.” Silly Ben nodded his head.

Fortune Chapter 563

The New Territories is one of the three major districts in Hong Kong, which includes Tai Po, Tuen Mun, Yuen Long, North District, Sai Kung, Sha Tin, Tsuen Wan, Kwai Tsing and Islands. There are two societies on the Sai Kung side, one is the Hung Yee Society which attacked Ye Han last night, and the other is called the Little Knife Society, these two societies are not considered big societies in the New Territories, but the combined number of people under the hands of the two societies is nearly 10,000.

Since he was in Sai Kung, Ye Han naturally had to strike at the Sai Kung society first. It seemed that the lesson he taught the Hung Yee Society last night was not enough, as more than 200 people were beaten up and put in hospital by him, but he still did not make the bigwigs of the Hung Yee Society stop acting against him.

The night came and the lights went on.

The men under Ye Han’s command split into two, one to clean up the Little Knife Society and the other to the Hung Yee Society.

Although each of these two societies claimed to have several thousand members, most of them were peripheral members with little combat power.

Most of these people were ex-soldiers, or practicing soldiers, and their combat power was not comparable to that of the outer members of the society.

Tonight, Leng Wufei and the Chen brothers, as well as Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie, did not participate in the killings, and it was the eleven Heavenly Dragon Guards and Silly Ben and Lin Qi who took action.

Ye Han also came, he was followed by Foolish Ben and five Heavenly Dragon Guards, looking at the stronghold of Hong Yi Society, the corner of Ye Han's mouth hung a cold smile, under the perspective, how many people were inside and where they were, he knew them all clearly.

"Go on, leave no one behind." Ye Han waved his hand, and after that, Foolish Ben led five Heavenly Dragon Guards to kick down the door and walked in with a fierce face, there were nearly five hundred people inside the Hong Yi Society's stronghold, these people were the core strength of the Hong Yi Society, however, they could not stop the Heavenly Dragon Guards who were known for killing, and even more so, no one could stop Foolish Ben.

"What people? Kill ....."

In an instant's effort, a human figure came rushing inside the Hong Yi Society's stronghold from all directions, all holding special steel swords in their hands, seeing this, Foolish Ben smiled bloodthirstily; "Kill!"

As the word "kill" fell, the Heavenly Dragon Guards rushed towards the people of the Hongyi Society as if they were gods of death reaping human lives, they didn't use swords or knives, but their fists were even more terrifying than swords and knives.

The attack of Silly Ben was even more terrifying, his temporary weapon was still the Crescent Moon Blade, that blade swept out like an invincible general who was invincible, corpses were everywhere, not a single corpse remained intact, this silly big man was killing people while counting the number in his mouth, it seemed he cared a lot about the competition with Lin Qi, to see who killed more people.

Ye Han did not participate in the battle, smelling the strong smell of blood coming from inside, he smoked a cigarette quietly outside.

Inside the stronghold, Zhang Guozhong, the big brother of the Hong Yi Society, was as anxious as an ant on a hot pot at the moment, listening to the shouting and killing sounds coming from outside he was as anxious as hell, he didn't even know what kind of people were killing in now, inside this house, it was a few of the most skilled experts of the Hong Yi Society protecting him.

"You guys go out and see, what kind of people are killing in?" Zhang Guozhong instructed to the experts around him.

"Boss, I hear that the situation outside is a bit unpleasant, I think the few of us should escort you and retreat first."

At those words, Zhang Guozhong's face looked a little gloomy, in his own lair would be forced to flee, if the bigwigs of other societies knew about it wouldn't they laugh at his incompetence, but listening to the terrified screams coming from outside, under the pressure of that deathly aura, Zhang Guozhong still nodded, face is not as important as life, and said; "Let's go, go through the dark passage, humph, who exterminates my lair today, I will definitely exterminate his whole family in the future."

Several experts from the Hong Yi Society nodded their heads.

However, just then, the closed door was suddenly kicked open by someone, the thick wooden door was directly kicked in pieces, this shock scared Zhang Guozhong, who had just turned around, and he hurriedly turned around, and then he saw a young man with a blood-dripping short knife in his hand walking in with a smile on his face.

“Yes yes yes ..... you are Ye Han!”

Zhang Guozhong’s heart was greatly shocked, his face changed wildly, even his words stuttered, several experts from the Hong Yi Society saw this and shouted out, all of them pounced towards Ye Han, but how could these people be Ye Han’s opponent, just now all the way in front of him, all the people who stood in his way became the souls under his sword.

A few slashes of light flashed through the air, and these few experts of the Hongyi Society who pounced on Ye Han were all killed, becoming a cold corpse lying on the floor, with blinding blood slowly flowing out from their necks.

After seeing this scene, Zhang Guozhong was so scared that his legs were shaking, his mouth opened, but he could not even utter a single word.

“You’re the boss of the Hong Yi Society, right?” Ye Han looked at Zhang Guozhong with a cold smile and said; “I had someone bring you a message last night, it seems that you didn’t listen, perhaps you think that I, Ye Han, can’t do anything to you in this part of Xiangjiang, that’s right, there are hundreds of large and small societies in Xiangjiang, there are only 100,000 members, what is a mere Ye Han to me.”

“No, Mr. Ye, please let me go once, I have an old man and a young one ..... I will never dare to lay a hand on you again!” Looking at Ye Han, this big brother of Hong Yi Society who usually looked very prosperous in front of people actually kneeled down in a very spineless manner.

Seeing this, Ye coldly laughed and said; “I already gave you a chance last night, it’s you who didn’t cherish it, so I won’t give it to you a second time, don’t complain about anything when you get to Yama, sooner or later, those who mix in the jianghu will have this fate.”

Saying that, in Zhang Guozhong’s horrified gaze, Ye Han wiped his neck with a knife.

In one night’s time, the core forces of the two major societies in Saigon were destroyed, the bigwigs of the Hung Yee Society and the Little Knife Club were both dead, this news spread and shocked the whole New Territories black and white, for a while, Saigon appeared to be in some chaos, a group of kooks each working for themselves started to grab territory, fire fights kept happening in the streets, the bloodshed shocked the public, it was even reported on the news, the police calls were almost always. The police were so busy in Saigon that they didn’t have the manpower to stop it from happening.

With the bosses above them dead, what’s the point of them being gangsters? Who would pay them? Who will pay them? Who else will work for them? But with the death of the bosses above them, this is also an opportunity for them to rise to the top.

Whoever has a strong enough fist, enough people and is ruthless enough, will have the chance to rise to the top.

The whole of Sai Kung was in complete chaos, with close to ten thousand kooks under the two societies, the Hung Yee Society and the Little Knife Club, causing trouble in this part of Sai Kung, with vandalism and firefights happening all the time, and in just one day's time, the guardhouses and prisons in Sai Kung were almost filled with heads.

Fortune Chapter 564

There was chaos outside, and the whole of Sai Kung was in a state of anxiety, with gangsters fighting and causing trouble everywhere in the streets and alleys, and of course, police cars swarming everywhere.

However, how chaotic it was outside, it had no effect on Ye Han now, once the two societies on this side of Saigon were settled, the eyes of the underground world on this side would become blind and would not focus on him, as for the other societies in the New Territories, he would go and settle them one by one.

"Bastard, it must be him, check it out, check it out, I don't care what you do, find out where he is, dead or alive, I want him to disappear from Hong Kong, completely!" Inside a high-rise building, at this moment, Chief Superintendent Kong was furious and slapped the table, the anger on his face and the people underneath the cloud could feel this Chief Superintendent's anger.

"Chief Superintendent Jiang, the police officers over in Saigon are working hard on the investigation, I don't think it will take long for the results to come in."

"It won't take long? A day? Two days? Or a month? Do we have to wait for him to make a big mess of the whole New Territories?" Chief Secretary Jiang swept his gloomy gaze at everyone sitting here and said; "I give you one day, within one day, I want to see all the law and order in Sai Kung restored, and, that mainland boy must also be caught, and if he resists, he will be killed on the spot."

Right now, what happened in Saigon had already aroused public opinion, the internet was full of news about the law and order in Saigon, the public opinion of the social media, plus the pressure from his top boss, Chief Superintendent Jiang felt that he was almost overwhelmed. He wanted to kill Ye Han with one shot.

"Yes, sir!"

"This guy, he really has no scruples!" In an office, Li Xinran was looking at the morning newspaper, many sections of the newspaper were about what was happening in Saigon, the smart Li Xinran could naturally tell something from this morning newspaper, she knew that it was all Ye Han's doing.

After reading the newspaper carefully, Li Xinran took off her glasses and said with a smile to herself; "This is a perfect move to shake the tiger from the mountain and win in the chaos. The more chaos the better for him, bloody tactics, smart approach, however, Saigon law and order has been so chaotic by him, I am afraid many people now would hate to just shoot him with a gun."

After saying this, Li Xinran used the office landline to make a call out; "Ah Fei, go and keep an eye on his movement for me, and report to me at any time."

"Yes, Miss." After bodyguard Ah Fei answered, he left the underground garage in his Rolls Royce.

"The triad piece has already been cleaned up a bit by you knocking the mountain out of the way, but what about the white channel?" A smile hung at the corner of Li Xinran's mouth, she enjoyed this waiting in anticipation of Ye Han's next move, it gave her a feeling of laughing at the winds and clouds of the mountains, a feeling that was even more addictive than her galloping through the shopping malls.

At the Zhongshan Villa, Ye Han and the others were now sitting together in deliberations.

"Little Han, the two societies on this side of Saigon have basically been destroyed by us now, what should be our next step? Go and get rid of the other societies?" Leng Wufei asked.

"There's no rush on this for now." Ye Han looked very calm, tapping his fingers on the table and said slowly; "The way to deal with the underground world is just to kill by bloody means, kill until they are afraid, these people are not difficult for us to deal with, what is difficult to deal with here in Xiangjiang is the white road, here is different from the mainland, the wind of collusion between black and white is prevalent, here we want to do things in an upright manner without the slightest resistance. But before we can build this network, we must first knock off those who have a problem with us."

"That's a good point, it's much easier to build a network of connections once we've knocked out these people who want to work against us." Chen Tianxing nodded in agreement. Sun Buwei also said at this time; "Trying to crack down on this group of people over here, using the same method to deal with the underground world to deal with them will only cause the wrath of the higher ups, later on Zhou Lie and I will take the Four Heavenly Dragon Generals to check out the details of those who want to go against us, these people's asses will definitely not be clean."

"Hey, hey, doing this is my specialty." Zhou Lie grinned.

Ye Han said; "I think so too, but when we look into these people, we also need to look into the other people in the official circles here in Hong Kong, I need to find a partner from them, and also, although this time we have exterminated two societies with a thunderbolt to shake the tiger, but this trick is only useful for some small societies, those big societies with some ability will not be afraid of us. So, Silly Ben, Lin Qi, you two take the rest of the Heavenly Dragon Guards to keep an eye on them, and contact me at any time if anything happens."

"Young Ye, don't worry, these guys can't escape my Lin Qi's eyes, if you ask I'll take my men over there now and destroy them." Lin Qi said with a hostile smile, when this guy went to exterminate the Little Knife Club, he gave full play to his killing nature, that really left no chicken or dog behind, all the people and livestock inside the Little Knife Club were slaughtered by him, but in the end, when he came back to settle accounts with Silly Ben, he found that the number of people killed was surprisingly less than Silly Ben by more than ten, his heart had been unbalanced, and now he was thinking of going to places outside Saigon to exterminate other associations.

Ye Han shook his head and scolded with a smile; "You kid take it easy for me, the commotion we made in Saigon has already caused discontent, if the whole NT causes a big chaos because of us, then we will really become terrorists by then, there is a degree in everything, we can't exceed this line."

"Hehehe, don't worry, you didn't give your word, I'll deposit that brat's head on their neck for now, I'll get it later." Lin Qi grinned.

When Ye Han finished deploying, everyone around him, except for the Chen brothers and Leng Wufei, functioned, going to investigate, spying, each in their own way, and the entire Zhongshan Villa was left to Ye Han and the four of them.

After two days in a row, the law and order in Saigon had gradually weakened under the crackdown of the law enforcement forces, but Ye Han's trace was not found after a long time, which made Chief Superintendent Jiang angry and dismissed several senior police officers.

However, the law enforcement forces in Hong Kong were not fooled, and after three days of tracing, Ye Han's hiding place was still found by these people. At this time, one by one, the police officers with loaded guns left the police station with their cars whistling, and more than ten cars headed for the Zhongshan Villa, with sirens blaring all the way.

Fortune Chapter 565

As Hong Kong is a cosmopolitan city, the law enforcement forces here are naturally no slackers. After the security situation in Sai Kung had improved, more police officers were involved in tracking down Ye Han, so the fact that Ye Han was hiding in the Zhongshan Villa was not hidden from them.

After tracing Ye Han's whereabouts, the police officers were armed and headed to Zhongshan Villa. In order to round up Ye Han, hundreds of police officers from Saigon were deployed and all of them were armed.

He had been staying at Zhongshan Villa for two or three days, and if the law enforcement forces of Xiangjiang still hadn't found him, it would be time for a major change in the law enforcement system.

At Zhongshan Villa, Ye Han and the four of them were drinking tea and discussing the current situation in Xiangjiang.

Saigon was only the first step they had taken, and once this step was implemented, the next step was to use Saigon as a starting point to spread to the entire New Territories. As long as the network of the White Road was resolved, Ye Han's idea was to take the New Territories within a week, and then use the New Territories as a springboard to take on the two regions of Hong Kong Island and Kowloon Island.

To take the whole of Xiangjiang, Ye Han's idea was half a month, the New Year's Eve was approaching, he could not stay too long on this side of Xiangjiang, there was still a strong enemy waiting for him to clean up in the south, if he wanted to dominate the southern underground world before the New Year's Eve came, Ye Han would have to squeeze in time.

"The most powerful society on this side of the New Territories is the Loyalist Sect, perhaps we can start with them after the matters on the White Road are taken care of, the reason why the societies on this side of the New Territories are huddled together, one is because the Blood Justice Sect's jianghu pursuit has forced them to listen, and the other is because there is a Loyalist Sect in the New Territories, and this Loyalist Sect has the ability to call on the big and small societies in the New Territories." Ye Han's fingers tapped on the table and said.

"The loyalty clan has tens of thousands of kooks under their hands, they are the leading figures on this side of the New Territories, knocking them out will have a stronger deterrent effect on other societies, once they are removed, the big and small societies on this side of the New Territories will not be as active as they are now." Chen Tianxing said analytically.

“To hit a snake, you have to hit the seventh inch.” Ye Han laughed; “The Loyalist Sect is the seventh inch of this group of societies in the New Territories, we will discuss how to do this after the matter in the White Road has been dealt with, for now we will just wait for news from Sun Lao and Silly Ben.”

However, just as Ye Han finished speaking, a burst of ear-splitting sirens sounded around the Zhongshan Villa.

After hearing this commotion, Leng Wufei and Chen Tianxing frowned and stood up at the same time and went out to take a look, only to see that at this time, the surroundings of Zhongshan Villa were surrounded by a group of loaded police officers, with a dark gun aimed at the inside of the villa.

“Xiao Han, the police are here.” Leng Wufei said as he walked in.

On hearing this, Ye Han said; “They didn’t come too fast or too slow, it seems that this group of guys who are eating the royal food are still somewhat capable.”

“With these people they still can’t catch us.” Chen Tianxing said indifferently.

“No, we can’t resist in the face of these people, once we resist things will get even bigger and might even alert the mainland side, I don’t want to get involved with some special departments in the country right now.” Ye Han said calmly, with their group of inhuman strength to resist the Xiangjiang law enforcement system, naturally they could do it.

However, once they rebelled, the mainland side would inevitably know the news, and more likely would send special departments to deal with them.

If he owed someone a favor, he would slowly pay it back later.

“Listen to the people inside, walk out with your hands on your head, no resistance, or we will rush in.”

“Listen up people inside .....

The sound of the loudspeaker rang out again and again outside the Zhongshan villa, hundreds of police officers with guns aimed at the villa’s main entrance, the police lights on the car flashing indefinitely, at this time, Ye Han and four people had already walked out from inside the villa, his gaze calmly looking at this group of police who surrounded them to death.

At the sight of this scene, a sound of safety was heard one after another, and guns emitting cold intent were aimed at Ye Han and the four of them.

“Hands on your heads, crouch down!” A senior police superintendent waved his hand at this moment, and then the police officers wearing bulletproof vests slowly approached towards Ye Han and the others with their guns, not allowing them to be careless, these people were tough bandits that the chief superintendent had ordered to be arrested, and their abilities were extraordinary.

Finally, Ye Han and the four of them were handcuffed, and the senior superintendent of police now came over and flashed an arrest warrant and said; “I am now arresting you on a number of charges such as murder and creating terror, now please cooperate. Otherwise, we have the right to shoot.”

“It doesn’t matter, don’t you already have it in your hands now?” Ye Han shrugged his shoulders.

At this moment, a female police officer wearing a bulletproof vest came over and said; "Team Zhang, the General Administration has conveyed an order to keep a close watch on them, and the Chief Superintendent is going to personally participate in the interrogation, and is now on his way from Kowloon."

"Good, Xiaoyue, keep an eye on them on the way and collect the team."

Saying that, Ye Han and the four of them were pressed into a bomb-proof car, four or five policemen with loaded guns were watching them inside, and of course, the female police officer called Xiao Yue.

"After so many years in the jungle, this is the first time a big girl has been in a sedan chair." Leng Wufei leaned against the car window and smiled lightly at Ye Han, Chen Tianxing also said; "This time, let's consider it as a visit to the Xiangjiang General Administration, and see if there is any difference between the treatment over here and over on the mainland."

Ye Han laughed; "I heard that Xiangjiang is a strict rule of law society, there shouldn't be those things like doing tiger stool and pouring pepper water, it's good to go in and have a cup of tea, just to kill time from boredom."

"Shut up and keep quiet!"

Hearing that Ye Han and the four of them had no sense of being prisoners and had no regard for them, the female police officer called Xiao Yue gave Ye Han and the others a fierce glare.

Ye Han glanced at the female officer's chest, the writing senior police officer on the ID hanging there as well as her name and said; "Officer Xiang, freedom of speech should be promoted in Xiangjiang, are all prisoners here not allowed to speak?"

"I told you to shut up, otherwise, I don't mind giving you a little bitterness to eat first." Xiang Yue looked at Ye Han coldly, she hadn't met a few prisoners like this who had no scruples.

Fortune Chapter 566

At this time, Elder Li was looking at a file in his study, the file was all about Ye Han, it was four or five pages long, after reading it one by one, he put it down and smiled; "It seems that this young man is really something, and he is also a rare young handsome person, at a young age he is already famous. Nowadays, there is only one person in the whole of China who can compete with him.

The old man in the Tang suit laughed; "Old master, when I looked up this information, I was also surprised, such a flying dragon came to Xiangjiang, no wonder he stirred up such a big wave, over on the mainland because of him has already triggered a bloody storm, many old monsters who don't come out of the world have come out because of him, what's more is that he is the son of a madman, the eldest grandson of the Ji family, an ancient Chinese hermit family, and also with single-handedly sat on the position of the hegemon of the southern part of the continent, East China, such a person is not often seen!"

At these words, Elder Li said; "His identity is not important, what I see is this young man's potential, from this information, I can see that this young man's future will never stop at his current position, he has courage and strategy, and acts decisively, if such a person was placed in ancient times, he would definitely be a general figure like Sun Quan, Liu Bei, or Cao Mengde."

"It seems that the continental Jianghu, which has been silent for many years, is about to sweep up a wave!" The Tang-suited old man sighed with emotion and said; "Old Master, should we intervene in regards to this kid's affairs in Xiangjiang? I heard that he has now been arrested by the people over at the police station."

"It's inevitable to intervene, no matter how you say it, he is also Old Man Yan's grandson, with the friendship between the two of us, Old Man Yan and I it's a bit unreasonable not to intervene." Elder Li paused and continued; "However, the small police station will not be able to trap him, and, before that, I have to see the attitude of that girl Xinran."

The old man in the Tang suit laughed; "Perhaps by this time, the young lady's side has also learned of this matter."

"Hehe, in that case, there would be no need for my old bones to step in." Old man Li chuckled and said; "However, it's not that easy for this little guy to take over Xiangjiang, the underground world and the white channel on Xiangjiang's side are all easy to deal with, but it's not easy to get through that hurdle of the Cihang Zhai."

"Cihangzhai!" Hearing those three words, the Tang-suited old man's eyes stared, although that Taoist nun was magnificent, she never showed any mercy when she did something.

At the police headquarters, Ye Han and the four of them were already being guarded separately.

Even if the four of them were in the police station, once they found out something, they would find a way to get them out.

Even if that wasn't the case, Ye Han himself would still find a way to get out, just as Elder Li had thought, the police station couldn't trap him yet.

But it was during this boring wait that the door of the small dark room Ye Han was in was opened, and instantly, the light inside this also came on, although it seemed dim, but Ye Han still adapted to the light inside for an instant, at this time, two men and a woman walked in, one of them was the team Zhang and the female police officer Xiang Yue who arrested Ye Han, and the other was the police officer from the negative record.

The three sat down at the table opposite Ye Han, the female police officer Xiang Yue immediately opened her mouth and said; "Ye Han, male, born in the year xxxx, Han nationality, Chinese ..... these I am not wrong, right?"

Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and said; "Quite a careful investigation, so, I wonder what I have committed, do you have any evidence to arrest me?"

"Hmph, evidence, you dare to say that you didn't do the Hong Yi Society and the Little Knife Club's extermination tragedy." Xiang Yue directly slapped the table and stood up, looking at Ye Han with an angry face, she was personally involved in the Hong Yi Society and the Little Knife Club's extermination tragedy, the death of those people still made her body tingle when she thought of it, it was too cruel!

"Officer, before you say that, you have to show evidence, otherwise, I have the right to sue you for defamation." Ye Han said calmly, the Heavenly Dragon Guards did not leave a bit of evidence behind when they struck, exterminating the Hong Yi Society and the Little Knife Club that was considered to be eliminating harm for the people, Ye Han did not believe that these people could produce evidence, the reason why he was arrested, I'm afraid it was also that Chief Secretary Jiang who was giving orders behind the scenes.

"You ....." Xiang Yue's face was very unpleasant, they really had no evidence in their hands to prove that Ye Han did it, but all directions pointed to Ye Han and the others.

"Alright, Xiaoyue, I'll do it." Zhang team gestured for Xiang Yue to sit down, then he looked at Ye Han and said; "Young man, I know you are not small in origin and have offended many people on this side of Xiangjiang, right or wrong, I don't want to delve into it, but I will beat up anyone who dares to cause trouble here, you have violated the law on this side of Xiangjiang, we have the right to prosecute you, as for the evidence, within 48 hours, I will lay the evidence in front of you."

"Okay, I will wait for 48 hours, if you all have no evidence, please also release us, otherwise, I have the right to the above." Ye Han said indifferently.

"Hmph, aforementioned, I think you are dreaming." The door to the interrogation room was opened just as Ye Han finished his words, and in came Chief Superintendent Jiang and his secretary, who had met Ye Han on one occasion. Chief Superintendent of Police would not be laughed at.

"Chief Superintendent."

Seeing Chief Superintendent Jiang walk in, Team Zhang and Xiang Yue and another police officer all stood up and saluted, the Chief Superintendent was their head superior's head superior, it was difficult for police officers at their level to see him on a regular basis.

"You guys go out first, leave him to me for personal trial." Chief Superintendent Jiang said indifferently to the three Zhang team members, with the posture of a superior officer, the three Zhang team members nodded and immediately walked out of the interrogation room.

Soon, only Chief Superintendent Jiang, his secretary and Ye Han were left inside the interrogation room.

"Chief Superintendent Jiang, I didn't expect you to have this leisure to see me." Ye Han smiled lightly and said.

"Hmph, go ahead and laugh, you won't be able to laugh later." Chief Secretary Jiang sneered and said; "Ye Han, I didn't expect you to have some ability, even the Hong Yi Society and the Little Knife Club were ruined by yours, but it doesn't matter, you ended up in my hands, Xiao Liu, have him put his handprint on that document, this charge is done, even if you are very powerful in the mainland no one can protect you."

Hearing these words, the secretary named Xiao Liu immediately took out a file from inside his briefcase, it was a file about Ye Han's charges, as long as Ye Han pressed his handprint on it, he would be charged with collaborating with the enemy and the state, colluding with terrorists and brutally killing hundreds of ordinary citizens.

Looking at the file that his secretary Xiao Liu brought out, Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to scan it and he knew what was on it, which caused his eyes to sink in an instant.

But just at this time, there was a knock on the door, hearing this, the secretary Xiao Liu immediately put that file away, after knocking on the door, it was team Zhang who walked in, he said; "Chief Superintendent, someone has come to bail out Ye Han."

After Team Zhang finished these words, behind him, a svelte young man with glasses walked in, and, besides him, there was a woman following behind.

Fortune Chapter 567

Inside the interrogation room, Ye Han's gaze looked towards the door, after that Zhang team came in, a svelte young man and a woman also walked in, this woman was no other than Li Xinran, as for the svelte young man with glasses, Ye Han did not recognize him.

Seeing this, Chief Superintendent Jiang's brow furrowed as he stood up and said; "So it's Miss Li and Mr. Xiang, sorry, this person can't be bailed out yet."

Upon hearing this, the svelte young man said; "Chief Superintendent Jiang, you have arrested my client, I wonder if you have any evidence? If there is no evidence, from the legal point of view, I have the right to release my client on bail, which I think Chief Secretary Jiang knows better than I, the lawyer, do."

"The evidence is already in preparation ....."

"Since the evidence is still in preparation, please come back to my client after Chief Secretary Jiang has all the evidence ready, you have no right to arrest my client without evidence." Before Chief Secretary Jiang could finish his words, the svelte young man said immediately afterwards.

Hearing this, a gloomy look flashed across Chief Secretary Jiang's eyes, this young man in front of him was not easy to deal with, he was called a gold medal lawyer, there was no lawsuit he could not win, and he was the son of his arch rival.

"Chief Secretary Jiang, since you have no evidence, please let my friend go immediately, I, Li Xinran, am willing to be the guarantor." At this time, Li Xinran strolled over, a pair of wise eyes looked at Chief Superintendent Jiang indifferently, but that kind of bland gaze made Chief Superintendent Jiang feel an endless pressure, Miss Li's family in this side of Xiangjiang, not to mention him, the Chief Superintendent, even his top boss had to be polite when he met him.

"Chief Superintendent Jiang, it's almost time, please release my client, otherwise, we have the right to prosecute you for using your authority to illegally arrest my client."

"Chief Secretary Jiang, what are you still hesitating for? Do you think what I, Li Xinran, have said is not clear enough, or do you need my old man to personally come and vouch for you before you will release him?"

Hearing these words, Chief Superintendent Jiang's face became even more gloomy, at this time, that team Zhang said beside Chief Superintendent Jiang; "Chief Superintendent, why don't we let them go first, and then arrest them after we have found the evidence?"

Hearing this, Chief Superintendent Jiang's gloomy face looked better and said; "Since there are two people as guarantees, I, the Chief Superintendent, am not the kind of person who is unforgiving, someone, open the handcuffs."

On hearing that, Team Zhang immediately uncuffed Ye Han, Ye Han stood up and moved his wrists, he looked at Chief Superintendent Jiang with a faint smile and said; "Chief Superintendent Jiang, it seems that your wishful thinking is going to come to naught."

"What does Mr. Ye mean by that? Do you still want to stay inside the police station for two more days?" Chief Superintendent Jiang said coldly.

Ye Han smiled faintly as he approached Chief Superintendent Jiang and said beside his ear; "Don't think I don't know what you have in mind, collaborating with the enemy, collaborating with terrorists and killing ordinary citizens, this unfounded crime is really big, but if you miss this opportunity, you will be in the end of your life."

After saying this, in the shocked gaze of Chief Superintendent Jiang, Ye Han walked out, Li Xinran and the svelte young man followed behind, and when they reached the main entrance of the police station, they only saw a female police officer walking over, she walked straight up to the svelte young man and asked; "Brother, why are you bailing him out? He's a murderer with blood on his hands, and it was so hard for our police station to catch him."

"Xiaoyue, you can't talk about things without evidence." Xiang Ying shook her head and said; "When your police station has found conclusive evidence, I naturally won't get involved in this matter, well, you shouldn't ask about other things."

Ye Han glanced at the female police officer Xiang Yue and smiled; "Officer, Xiangjiang is a legal society, everything here has to be based on evidence, I'm waiting for you to come and arrest me next time."

"You ....." looking at Ye Han's departing back, Xiang Yue could not wait to draw her gun and smash it at him.

"My little sister doesn't know what to do, I hope Mr. Ye won't take offense." Xiang Ying laughed at Ye Han's side, smiling, Ye Han laughed; "How could I blame her for being a good policeman with a heart for the people, I have to thank Mr. Xiang this time."

"Oh, if Miss Li hadn't invited me, I wouldn't have been willing to get into this mess." Xiang Ying laughed.

"It seems that I owe you a favour." Ye Han smiled at Li Xinran and said.

Li Xinran said; "Then you owe it for now, I will find you to collect this favour when I need it, right now the situation on this side of Xiangjiang is very chaotic, how are you going to deal with it next? I'm looking forward to it!"

"Looks like I can't let you down either!" Ye Han smiled, and at this time Leng Wufei, Chen Tianxing and Chen Tiandi walked out from inside the police station.

"Just locking us up for a few hours and releasing us, these guys seem to have nothing better to do." Leng Wufei smiled as he walked up and Ye Han smiled; "We have to thank these two for getting out so quickly, sir, contact Sun Lao for me, I need to know how things are going on their end?"

Leng Wufei nodded his head.

Seeing that there was nothing more going on here, the svelte young man named Xiang Ying left, and the four of them got into Li Xinran's car and headed back to Zhongshan Villa. Inside the car, Leng Wufei said to Ye Han after contacting Sun Buwei; "Little Han, Old Sun's side is very successful, they have found out enough information to shake the officialdom of Xiangjiang, and are now heading back. bring down those guys who are working against us will be much easier."

"It seems that even the heavens are helping me, it's time to change the position of Chief Superintendent of Police in Hong Kong." Ye Han threw his cigarette out of the window with a cold smile on his face, hearing this, Li Xinran's beautiful eyes, who was driving, twinkled.

Half an hour later, Ye Han had returned to Zhongshan Villa, Sun Buwei and the others had already returned first, all of them sat down inside the living room, Sun Buwei handed a thick file to Ye Han and said; "Little Han, with these things, it's enough to make a bloodbath in the officialdom of Xiangjiang, under the prosperity here, I didn't expect that there were so many assholes hidden."

"That's normal, the more prosperous the place, the more corrupt people there are, there aren't many people who can remain clean and honest here." Ye Han opened the file bag and looked at it, Li Xinran sat next to him sipping her coffee, after reading the evidence, Ye Han continued to look at a list of people about the officialdom of Xiangjiang, among these people, he was looking for a collaborator, an umbrella that would be useful to him.

"Don't look at it, you want to find a collaborator, Xiang Xian is a suitable person, he is a member of the Xiang family in Xiangjiang, he has been eyeing the position of Chief Superintendent for a long time, give him these things, he can definitely help you bring down Chief Superintendent Jiang." As Ye Han was looking at this list, Li Xinran spoke up, upon hearing this, Ye Han smiled; "A gentleman sees the same thing, good, it's this Xiang Xian, I'll pay him a visit later."

Fortune Chapter 568

The Xiang family is one of the three major families in Hong Kong, the Li family, the Guo family and the Xiang family, but the Li family is stronger than the Guo family and the Xiang family in every way.

Although Xiang Xian is not the head of the Xiang family, he is also one of the most powerful figures in the Xiang family, the female police officer Xiang Yue and the gentle young man Xiang Ying are his children.

It was nine o'clock at night, and Ye Han was driving Li Xinran's Rolls-Royce, parked on the neon-lit street, next to him was Chen Tianxing, who did not say a word. At this time, when Ye Han finished burning a cigarette, a middle-aged man with a serious face came out of a high-rise building next to him.

The man had a briefcase in his hand and was about to go to his car. This man was naturally the person Ye Han was waiting for, Senior Superintendent Xiang Xian.

Seeing this, Ye Han opened the car door and stepped down, walking directly towards Xiang Xian.

"Mr. Xiang, do you have time? How about I treat you to a cup of tea?" Ye Han stood at two meters with a smile on his face and asked, this position was just so that Xiang Xian could not feel the danger, hearing this, Xiang Xian turned to look at Ye Han, immediately he narrowed his eyes and said; "Young man, you want to ask me out for a tea appointment I'm afraid."

“Aren’t I asking Mr. Xiang out right now?” Ye Han smiled and said; “Mr. Xiang, let’s not speak in the dark, who am I, I think you already have my file on your desk, I have something in my hand that you are interested in, I wonder if Mr. Xiang wants to take a look at it?”

“Ye Han, you’ve got a lot of nerve, how dare you come to me?” Xiang Xian narrowed his eyes at Ye Han, just as Ye Han had said, after the first glance at Ye Han, Xiang Xian knew that the youth in front of him was the very protagonist who had stirred up the chaos in Saigon, and he had a thick pile of information about Ye Han on his desk.

“Why don’t I dare to come? As the saying goes, an opponent’s opponent is a friend, could it be that Mr. Xiang is not interested in what I have in my hands?” Ye Han laughed, upon hearing this, Xiang Xian clamped his briefcase, still narrowing his eyes and said; “That depends on whether what you have in your hands can really arouse my interest.”

“Definitely won’t let Mr. Xiang down, please.” Ye Han made an inviting gesture.

“Hehe, good, then I’ll go and ask for a cup of tea.” Xiang Xian narrowed his eyes and smiled before walking onto the Rolls Royce, Ye Han then drove off.

After making a cup of tea, Ye Han poured it for Xiang Xian and said; “Mr. Xiang, as the saying goes, if the tea is poured seven times full, it leaves three points of friendship, you and I are meeting for the first time, so I will toast Mr. Xiang with a cup of tea instead of wine, I hope we will have the opportunity to interact more in the future. ”

“Oh, it depends on whether Mr. Ye’s friendship can be afforded by me, you are now considered a rat in the street in Hong Kong, everyone is shouting at you, if I get involved, I am afraid that I will not get the fox, but will make a mess.” Xiang Xian drank a cup of tea and smiled lightly.

Hearing Xiang Xian’s words, Ye Han cursed the old fox, this Xiang Xian was really the master of not seeing the rabbit and not spreading the hawk, if he did not come up with something practical, this old guy would never talk to him about business.

Ye Han smiled, picked up the file bag next to him and placed it in front of Xiang Xian’s body, saying; “Mr. Xiang, it’s up to you to decide whether you can fish for the fox or not.”

Upon hearing that, Xiang Xian glanced at Ye Han before opening the file bag placed in front of him, which contained evidence about Chief Superintendent Jiang’s corruption and bribery over the years, using his authority to act as an umbrella for the underground forces, and some evidence of selling out the police department’s internal intelligence, if these things were ever known, Chief Superintendent Jiang would definitely be removed from his post and spend the rest of his life in jail.

With this file, he wanted to bring down Chief Superintendent Jiang, and his own position as Chief Superintendent of Police was not far away, and when he saw the end, Xiang Xian’s face calmed down, and he looked at Ye Han and smiled; “I admire Mr. Ye for his great ability, but I don’t know what Mr. Ye means by this? ”

Ye Han smiled; “Mr. Xiang, we are both smart people, I think we should not beat around the bush, my intention is clear to you, I help you to sit in the position of Chief Superintendent of Police, and you help me to set up the relations in the white road, in this place of Hong Kong, without a network of relations, if you nod, then, this file belongs to you tonight, if you feel that it does not mean anything to you, then you can pretend that I have never been in this place. If you think it doesn't mean anything to you, just pretend that I, Ye Han, have never mentioned this matter in front of you, and I will take this file away now."

After saying that, Ye Han got up and prepared to take the file that was placed in front of Xiang Xian, however, he was pressed by Xiang Xian, and then he laughed; "Mr. Ye, why are you in such a hurry? This gift is too heavy, you have to let me think about it too."

Ye Han sat down again as he smiled; "Mr. Xiang, there is not much time left for you to consider, if you do not give your nod tonight, then I will have to regretfully go and find another collaborator."

At those words, Xiang Xian fell silent, Ye Han sipped his tea without speaking, waiting for Xiang Xian to slowly think about the pros and cons.

A few moments later, Xiang Xian said; "I can agree to your request, but you also have to promise me that Xiangjiang is a society under the rule of law, no violence can occur here, at least not in public, once the incident expands, I can't protect you over here."

Hearing these words from Xiang Xian, Ye Han smiled; "This is something Mr. Xiang can still rest assured, I have always been a low-key person, I will definitely not make things difficult for Mr. Xiang."

"Oh, I just like young people like Mr. Ye, wish us a happy cooperation." Xiang Xian raised his teacup and smiled lightly, Ye Han likewise raised his teacup and smiled; "I also like a straightforward person like Mr. Xiang, this is just our initial cooperation, if Mr. Xiang satisfies me, I still have a lot of fierce material on hand to offer to Mr. Xiang, perhaps in the future, Mr. Xiang will not stop at Chief Superintendent."

The first time I saw this, Xiang Xian's gaze flashed with a vague look of surprise, could it be that Ye Han had something else in his hands? Thinking of this Xiang Xian felt a little chill down his spine, Ye Han could find out what was unclean on Chief Secretary Jiang's ass, it was hard to guarantee that Ye Han's hands would not be his.

Whether his own ass was clean or not, Xiang Xian knew very well, if once someone caught a hold of him, he would have to play the end as well.

"Oh, it seems that I will have to thank Mr. Ye more in all aspects in the future, please rest assured Mr. Ye, we are the best of friends, your business is my business." Xiang Xian made an effort to put on a sincere smile and smiled at Ye Han, working with Ye Han, there were profits and risks, he had to be careful with it.

Fortune Chapter 569

He was able to find out about Jiang's unclean affairs, so he could also find out about Xiang Xian, and he did have some leverage on Xiang Xian.

After talking to Xiang Xian, it was time for Ye Han to wait for the news. If Xiang Xian left with the evidence, I'm afraid he would start to move the next day, and by then, Jiang General Secretary would definitely not be able to escape and would be caught in the middle of everything.

As long as Jiang General Secretary's side is settled, with Xiang Xian as an umbrella in the white road, Ye Han can strike at the major societies in the underground world without any fear, these societies are without an umbrella, Ye Han does not need to be afraid of anything at all.

"Back, it seems that everything should still go well." Li Xinran was sitting in the living room of the villa looking at a newspaper, Leng Wufei and the others did not know where they had gone, when she saw Ye Han walking in, Li Xinran looked at him and continued to read the newspaper in her hands.

Ye Han sat down beside her and smiled; "Xiang Xian is an old fox with ambition, he can't refuse that kind of temptation when faced with such a big piece of cake, I think tomorrow the newspaper you're watching will have the report of the fall of Chief Secretary Jiang on it."

"Xiang Xian is an old fox, but you have to be in control too, don't let him bite you back when the time comes." Li Xinran said.

Ye Han said; "Don't worry, I've already knocked what I should knock, this old guy knows what to do, if he wants to sit firmly in his position and climb high, he has to be tied to me."

"That's good, give me the car keys, I'm going back." Li Xinran said as he put down the newspaper and stood up.

"Go back." Ye Han looked at the dark night sky outside and said with a smile; "It's so late, I don't think you should go, anyway, this place is big enough and there's no shortage of rooms for you."

Li Xinran gave Ye Han a blank look and said; "Knowing that it's so late, why don't you see me off?"

Upon hearing that, Ye Han was a bit speechless, then shrugged his shoulders and said; "Fine, I'll give you a lift then."

Afterwards, the two of them drove the car out of Zhongshan Villa and returned to the villa where Li Xinran had stayed overnight, the two of them got out of the car together, seeing Li Xinran open the villa door, Ye Han also followed him in, seeing this, Li Xinran gave him a strange look and said; "Why aren't you leaving yet? Could it be that you still want to spend the night at my place?"

"Why not." Ye Han laughed; "It's weirdly unsafe for you to live alone in such a big villa, besides, it's almost twelve o'clock now, you're not still thinking of kicking me out, are you?"

"As you wish, you still sleep in the same room as last time, also, don't mess around, although you are indeed quite fierce, but I have studied fighting arts and specialize in attacking men's vital points." Li Xinran glanced at Ye Han and walked towards upstairs; "I'm going up to take a shower, you sit by yourself for a while."

Looking at Li Xinran's wonderful back, Ye Han shook his head and smiled, on this side of Xiangjiang, who dared to mess around with the granddaughter of the Li family's old man? Although Li Xinran was a woman who possessed the desire to make boys conquer, however, Ye Han was not nasty enough to go this far, even if he did have interest in Li Xinran, he would still come gradually.

"Li family, Li Xinran ....." A smile appeared on the corner of Ye Han's mouth, if he conquered the granddaughter of the old man of the Li family, his power on this side of Xiangjiang would be more consolidated, not to mention Xiangjiang, he would also have some influence on the mainland side.

After knowing Li Xinran's identity, this idea took root in Ye Han's mind. Of course, Ye Han did have an interest in Li Xinran, otherwise even if Li Xinran's family history was even more unbelievable, Ye Han would not have had this idea. Right now on the mainland, Ye Han had basically lost this umbrella from above, so he now had to rely on his own efforts to build his own powerful network of connections, without having to depend on others.

As for the status of the son of a madman, Ye Han didn't even think about it, what he wanted, he would only obtain with his own hands, he always remembered this, he wasn't a rich second generation with a family background, he had to stand at the top with his own hands.

When Li Xinran got up the next morning, Ye Han was already exercising in the courtyard of the villa.

On the balcony, Li Xinran was wearing pure white pyjamas, the three thousand green threads fell vertically, the slender legs were flawlessly white, and under her vegetal face, she had a transcendent beauty. From Ye Han's position, he could see from Li Xinran's calves to her thighs, but of course, it was impossible to continue upwards.

Although Ye Han could have used his yin and yang magic eyes to have a look at the scenery inside, but Ye Han did not do so, it was more fulfilling to look when Li Xinran was willingly lying in front of him.

A man, some times, was such a strange creature hovering between good and evil.

"Good morning." Ye Han raised his head towards Li Xinran and greeted her, then he only saw his body lengthen and his whole body flew lightly up to the first floor, standing next to Li Xinran and accompanying her to look at the surrounding scenery together.

She said, "You seem to be standing in the wrong place, this is the balcony of my room, don't you know that women's rooms are not to be entered at will?"

"Hey, I'm just looking at the cold weather and came up to give you some clothes." Saying that, Ye Han shamelessly took off his jacket and put it on Li Xinran's shoulders, and also helped her button it up with his hands, and wrapped his arms around Li Xinran's waist from behind.

Feeling Ye Han's movement, Li Xinran's body instinctively stiffened, a pair of jade hands clasped tightly, a scarlet colour flashed across her face, but in the end she didn't say anything more, still letting Ye Han hold her, the two of them stood on the balcony feeling the cool breeze of the morning in Xiangjiang.

"Do you think that if Master Li knew that I had soaked his most beloved granddaughter away, would he also put a jianghu pursuit order on me like the others?" Ye Han asked as he smelled the clean leisure emanating from above Li Xinran's hair, his entire body looking a bit intoxicated.

"Do you think too highly of yourself, what did I promise to be your girlfriend?" Li Xinran glanced at Ye Han and said.

"Hey, certain people seem to have forgotten what they said in Shanghai City, it seems that I have to cook the raw rice into cooked rice before I can do so." An evil look flashed across Ye Han's face, hearing his words, Li Xinran's body instantly became stiff and broke away from Ye Han's embrace to walk inside the house; "Beautiful you!"

Looking at Li Xinran's back, Ye Han grinned, but at this time, his mobile phone rang.

“Sir, what’s the matter?” Ye Han asked after picking up the phone.

“Little Han, someone has intervened in the matter of Chief Secretary Jiang, after a series of criminal realities of Chief Secretary Jiang were exposed this morning, people from the Guo family in Xiangjiang immediately got involved and wanted to protect Chief Secretary Jiang, and not only that, many kooks from regional societies started to cause trouble and protest, holding parades, I’m afraid it will be difficult for Chief Secretary Jiang to be pulled down for a while.”

At these words, Ye Han’s brow furrowed, this was something he had not thought of beforehand, Chief Secretary Jiang was the umbrella of many societies, if he fell, many societies would have to be finished, it was normal to hold parades and protests, however, people from the Guo family were even involved.

Guo Yunxiao!

Fortune Chapter 570

The man was really good at finding trouble for him, it seemed that Guo Yunxiao should be eliminated, keeping him behind to make small moves would lead to a big problem in the future.

Ye Han had already given Guo Yunxiao two chances to stay alive, but this insidious villain was still working against him behind his back.

“Guo Clan, Guo Yunxiao!” An ice-cold look flashed across Ye Han’s face.

At this time, Ye Han’s mobile phone rang again, and this call was from Xiang Xian.

“Mr. Xiang, I already know the matter, I will take care of these matters, you just do what you need to do.” Ye Han spoke directly.

Upon hearing this, Xiang Xian said; “With your words I am relieved, right now many regional associations are parading around in protest, they are the biggest headache, as for the pressure from the Guo family I can still withstand it, in Xiangjiang, our Xiang family is not a vegetarian either.”

“No, I want to beat up the Guo family first.” Ye Han said; “I know this villain Guo Yunxiao, he will not rest until the last moment, this time, I will make the Guo family lose a lot because of Guo Yunxiao.”

“How do you want to do that?” Xiang Xian asked.

Ye Han said; “Mr. Xiang, send me a copy of the Guo family’s information, especially about Guo Yunxiao, the more detailed the better, as for what to do, I have to understand the Guo family before I can come up with a countermeasure.”

Xiang Xian nodded and said; “Good, I will send you the information about the Guo family on your phone later, for this matter, you have to deal with it quickly, otherwise if it drags on for too long, Chief Secretary Jiang will get back on his feet and then everything we have done will be in vain.”

“Don’t worry, our hard work won’t be in vain.” Ye Han hung up the phone.

At this time, Li Xinran, who had already freshened up, reappeared on the balcony, and she looked at Ye Han, who had a cloudy face, and asked; “What’s wrong? Have things changed?”

Ye Han nodded and said; “The Guo family’s people are involved and want to protect Chief Secretary Jiang, moreover, the associations that were protected by Chief Secretary Jiang in the past are also marching in protest to prevent the government side from removing Chief Secretary Jiang from his post.”

“So what do you want to do?” Li Xinran asked as she looked at Ye Han with her beautiful eyes open.

“Beat up the Guo family first.” Ye Han said; “The Guo family is known as one of the three great families in Xiangjiang, and their influence is not trivial, if they want to forcefully protect Chief Secretary Jiang, it will become very troublesome.”

Upon hearing this, Li Xinran said; “I’m afraid it’s a bit difficult, the Guo family has existed in Xiangjiang for a long time and is a giant in the jewellery industry, their connections and assets are unimaginable.”

Ye Han said; “Even if I can’t bring down the Guo family, I still have to give them a pain, so that they don’t have the energy to meddle in the affairs of the Jiang General Division.”

“This idea is fine, however, how do you want to handle the major societies’ side?” Li Xinran asked.

“Naturally, we will launch a decapitation operation.” Ye Han said; “The reason the major societies have so much time is because they haven’t felt the crisis yet, if the bigwigs of these societies died, would the kooks underneath still parade the streets in protest? I’m afraid that by then it will be another good show of fighting for power and turf.”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Li Xinran frowned and said; “In that case, won’t the whole New Territories be in chaos, and by then the police department side will put their eyes back on you again, so it won’t be worth the loss.”

“No, this time, it’s different.” Ye Han laughed; “Because of the Loyalist Sect, I won’t touch them.”

“Are you trying to keep the Loyalist Sect under control and make them your puppets?” Li Xinran said as a bright light flashed in her beautiful eyes.

“Clever.” Ye Han gave a thumbs up to Li Xinran, this was indeed his idea, at the beginning Ye Han wanted to exterminate the Loyalty Sect, the largest society in the New Territories, to deter other smaller societies, but after this incident, Ye Han felt that his plan needed to be changed.

“Very good idea, it seems that this side of the New Territories will soon belong to you.” Li Xinran welcomed the cool breeze with a faint smile, at this time, the information on Ye Han’s mobile phone about the Guo family had been sent to Xian, Ye Han opened the file and looked at it carefully.

The Guo family has existed in Xiangjiang for three generations, with a focus on the operation of jadeite jewellery, their jewellery occupies a large market in the whole of Asia, and is considered a dominant player in the jewellery world, with assets of up to a hundred billion dollars, and its branches and subsidiaries all over Asia.

Guo Yunxiao is the eldest son of the current head of the Guo family, a young man of extraordinary ability in business. Apart from Guo Yunxiao, the eldest son of the Guo family, the head of the Guo family also has a son and a daughter, and the entire Guo family’s direct and collateral lines have a combined population of nearly a hundred people, each with their own network of connections throughout the whole of Xiangjiang, and the combination of this force is very terrifying.

“Guo Yunjiang, this person seems to be no worse than Guo Yunxiao in terms of ability, why hasn’t he been reappointed by the Guo family?” Ye Han looked at a photo on the profile, the following profile of him was very thorough, he was a high achiever graduated from Harvard University abroad, he had been hired by a top 500 company abroad with a new annual salary of ten million but he refused, choosing to return to the family business, but never got reused by the Guo family.

Li Xinran said; “I know this Guo Yunjiang, he is indeed a talent, but his status in the Guo family is very embarrassing, is the illegitimate son of the Guo family head, he is in the Guo family belongs to the kind of role of grandma does not love uncle does not love, suffer from discrimination, no one has been able to look at him with a positive eye, is now working in the Guo family a company management, it is because of the illegitimate son’s status let it is because of his illegitimate status that he has not been relied upon by the Guo family.

Looking at the photo on his mobile phone, Ye Han smiled; “I heard that this Guo Yunjiang has tried to break into the core of the Guo family’s business several times, but he has been thwarted time and again, so I can see that he is also a very ambitious person, Xinran, help me contact this Guo Yunjiang, I want to meet with him.”

At these words, Li Xinran nodded, it was not difficult for her to contact Guo Yunjiang.

In the afternoon, Ye Han and Li Xinran both went to a cafe together, where Li Xinran had asked Guo Yunjiang to meet her. After walking into the cafe, Ye Han saw at a glance a young man sitting in the corner, looking somewhat dishevelled, drinking coffee carelessly, his gaze looking out, wandering.

“Looks like he has arrived.” Li Xinran walked over with a faint smile and sat down with Ye Han opposite that Guo Yunjiang.

Seeing this, that Guo Yunjiang withdrew his thoughts, looked at Li Xinran with a faint smile and said; “I said why did Miss Li want to get up and ask me, the young master of the Guo family’s trash, on a date today, it turns out that she came to be the middleman, it seems that I, Guo Yunjiang, thought too much.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han looked at Guo Yunjiang and smiled; “So, you do know me?”
