

Fortune Chapter 581

Another night has come, the loyalty clan, eight hundred good men on nearly forty buses to Kowloon, this evening, Ye Han will take down Kowloon, get rid of the left hand alliance, so that the blood righteous clan in the whole of Xiangjiang except for the associations on the Xiangjiang Island side, he will have no helper associations can deal with Ye Han side by side with him.

The situation is similar to that in the New Territories, and the Left Hand Alliance's position is the same as that of the Loyalist Sect in the New Territories. However, this time, Ye Han's actions did not escape the eyes of the Left Hand Alliance in Kowloon, and right now, the large and small societies in Kowloon have completely united under the call of the Left Hand Alliance.

The core strength of nearly twenty large and small societies had united in one piece, a total of five thousand people.

This force was blocking the road to Nine Dragons, a place where few cars usually passed at night and few people came here, the best place for the societies to settle their grudges.

The headlights shone on the dark main road, and the vehicles walking at the front came to a halt as a car pulled up in the middle of the road, and a human figure also came to the ground in the light, his icy gaze looking straight at the people and horses blocking the road in front of them.

"What's going on?" Ye Han opened his eyes as he sat inside an Audi car.

"Mr. Ye, the people from the Left Hand Alliance have appeared, it looks like we'll have to fight them to the death here." On the passenger side, Tu Zhenxiong said to Ye Han after receiving the report coming from the front.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "Since they have already chosen the place themselves, isn't it just the right time to save digging a pit to bury them."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Tu Zhenxiong's face looked a little difficult as he said; "But Mr. Ye, the Left Hand Alliance has gathered the entire Nine Dragons Association's men, adding up to more than 5,000 people, with the power we have on hand, I'm afraid it's a little difficult to take them down."

"Difficult?" Ye Liang smiled; "That's only for you, let your men meet the battle head on, I'll take care of the rest."

"Yes, Mr. Ye." Ye Han lit a cigarette and got out of the Audi, the matter in Xiangjiang could not be delayed any longer, whether it was public or private, Ye Han did not want to continue to spend time in Xiangjiang, there were not only enemies he had to solve on the mainland, there was also his unborn son waiting for him to go back and look after him.

Therefore, any stumbling block that stood in Ye Han's way at the moment would become the target of his bloody killings.

"Sir, kill the enemy first, capture the thief first, I'll leave the rest to you guys." Ye Han looked at Leng Wufei and the others and said. Leng Wufei nodded and said; "Understood, an army without a general will not work, once the leader dies, they will become routed."

Ye Han and the others came to the front, opposite them, black pressed heads swayed, a thick fierce aura was also emitted from their bodies, there were more than ten people leading this group, Ye Han wanted to sweep the Nine Dragons Association, these people naturally had to unite against them.

“Tu Zhenxiong, if you want to take this fat piece of meat from the Nine Dragons, you are not afraid of prolonging your death.” On the opposite side, a one-armed man looked at Tu Zhenxiong, his face was flushed with a cold smile, this man was the one-armed of the Nine Dragons Left Handed League, known as Master Zuo, in this part of the Nine Dragons he was the deserved bearer, Master Zuo was different from the other big brothers, his current status had climbed up step by step from the bottom, he himself was also a fierce man with excellent skills.

“Those who support the bold, starve the timid, Master Zuo wouldn’t be unaware of this truth, would he?” Ye Han looked at Master Zuo with a faint smile and said.

“You are Ye Han.” Master Zuo sneered and said; “I, Master Zuo, have guarded this place in the Nine Dragons for over twenty years without anyone being able to snatch it away, and today, neither can you.”

“Is that so?” Ye Han said; “Others can’t snatch it away, that’s because they are not as capable as Master Zuo.”

“In that case, do you think you have the ability to do so?” Master Zuo laughed coldly and said; “I have more than five thousand brothers behind me who are willing to fight and kill for me, even with less than a thousand of your men you want to eat me, Ye Han, don’t you think you are talking about a fool’s dream?”

“Hehe, soldiers are more valuable than many.” Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “Master Zuo don’t forget, with a dozen men I was able to take down the New Territories, now I even have these eight hundred brothers to help me, so how can I not eat you Nine Dragons?”

“Talking nonsense, cut the crap, let’s see the real thing underhand.” Master Zuo slowly stepped back as more than five thousand black men came forward with swords, a stern and murderous aura enveloping the night sky.

“Kill!”

Tu Zhenxiong waved his hand, and the men on both sides instantly charged at each other, and the next moment, the sound of weapons clashing erupted out in the open night, swords flashing, shouts of killing and screams.

“It’s our turn to perform.” A stern look flashed across the eyes of Leng Wufei and the others as they rushed out like a god of killing, their target directly targeting those who were leading the charge, anyone who stood in their way would be mercilessly obliterated.

The bloody killing was officially staged, Ye Han and Tu Zhenxiong stood at the back of the crowd, gazing straight at the spectacular battlefield, in terms of numbers, five thousand against eight hundred, Ye Han’s side had no advantage, and indeed it was, Tu Zhenxiong’s men were being pressured, at this rate, it would only take less than half an hour for his men to be slaughtered cleanly.

“Mr. Ye.” Tu Zhenxiong’s face was ugly.

“Don’t worry, there’s me.” Ye Han slowly walked out as Leng Wufei and the others carried out their beheading plan, taking the head of a general among 5,000 men, which was neither too difficult nor too difficult for them.

Xiong!

At this moment, a blazing flame erupted above Ye Han’s palm, a flame that was like an extinguishing light, like an underworld under this dark night, a terrifying killing power spreading in that flame, causing Tu Zhenxiong to retreat with a frightened look on his face, if he was closer, he felt that the flame would melt him.

With the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire in his palm, Ye Han strolled out towards the middle of the great battle, and with a single wave of his hand, a large area of flame spread, and in an instant, dozens of people were enveloped by this flame, turning into a sea of fire that lit up most of the night sky around them, and seeing this scene, a gaze followed.

However, just then, the flames went out and all those who had just been enveloped in flames disappeared! Yes, they had disappeared! Just like that, they disappeared without a trace under the gaze of one and all, except for some white powder that was fluttering in the air with the wind.

A look of horror, deep horror flashed across the faces of those who saw this scene, that sea of fire just now, just in those few seconds, devoured more than fifty lives, this almost demonic tactic, made people naturally give birth to a sense of despair, although it was only one person, this tactic of terror was enough to wipe out these five thousand people of theirs.

Fortune Chapter 582

After the successful beheading by Leng Wufei and his men, coupled with the horrific massacre by Ye Han’s Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire, the people of the major societies in Kowloon gradually lost their will to fight, despite their large numbers, without their spiritual leaders, and surrendered and fled.

Under such circumstances, Tu Zhenxiong naturally entered Kowloon with his men and started to take over the major venues and re-recruit people.

Ye Han did not bother with these matters, and Tu Zhenxiong would handle them well. Right now, after taking over Nine Dragons, only the Blood Righteousness Sect was left on Xiangjiang Island.

“Mr. Ye, this side of Kowloon is basically under our control, although there are still some kooks underneath who are unwilling to submit, but it is an unchangeable fact that we control Kowloon, this place will soon be quiet, what should we do next?” Inside the headquarters that originally belonged to the Left Hand Alliance, Tu Zhenxiong looked at Ye Han and said.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; “First fix the forces you have on hand, the next big showdown with the Blood Righteousness Sect will be brutal, it is best to recruit some fresh blood into it, this will also minimise the losses of the Loyalist Sect, also, send someone to keep an eye on Hong Tiansheng for me, the big showdown is coming soon, it is impossible for him to be unprepared, we need to guard against it, any movement on his side I want to be the first to I want to be the first to know.”

“I understand, I’ll send someone to keep an eye on the Blood Righteousness Sect.” As Tu Zhenxiong walked out, Ye Han looked at Leng Wufei and the others and said; “Sir, we will still carry out the decapitation operation next, after Tu Zhenxiong finds out what the Blood Righteous Clan is doing, if the situation allows, we have to take the first step and cut down Hong Tiansheng and the backbone of his side. The main thing is that we have to rely on ourselves.”

“Xiaohan, you mean the Cihang Zhai?” Leng Wufei asked.

Ye Han nodded and said; “Good, if the Blood Righteousness Sect has not asked the people of Cihang Zhai to come forward, we will start our operation, if Cihang Zhai has come forward, we will have to plan afresh, now, we have to wait for news from Tu Zhenxiong’s side.”

“What if the people from the Cichang Zhai choose to intervene?” Sun Buwei asked.

Upon hearing this, a cold look flashed across Ye Han’s eyes as he said; “Then we will personally go to the Cihang Zhai, I can’t stay too long on the Xiangjiang side, the wind is rising on the mainland side, the Little Japan and the Stick Kingdom experts have gone to the south, I’m afraid, there are many pairs of eyes on me now, the longer we delay on this side, the bigger the change will be.”

The entire Hong Kong community was completely shaken by Ye Han’s success in taking down the underground world of Kowloon. He would become the godfather of the underground world of Xiangjiang once the Blood Righteousness Sect was taken down.

If that was the final outcome, I’m afraid that Ye Han would become the youngest and fastest rising godfather in the history of the Xiangjiang community!

“Congratulations, you are one step closer to success.” After knowing that Ye Han had taken down the Nine Dragons Underworld, Li Xinran’s call came to Ye Han’s mobile phone, and Ye Han smiled into the phone; “Woman, isn’t my success also your success? There’s a saying; behind a successful man is a great woman.”

“I’m not a great woman, come to my house, the old man wants to see you.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han was a little surprised and asked; “Old Master Li wants to see me?”

“What, don’t you dare to come?” Li Xinran asked rhetorically.

Ye Han laughed; “Why wouldn’t I dare, I was thinking of going to see his old man sometime, isn’t this the opportunity?”

“Cut the crap, the old man is a man with a strong sense of time, giving you an hour is enough.” After saying this, Li Xinran hung up the phone. Listening to the blind tone coming from inside the phone, Ye Han grinned and drove the Bugatti Veyron given to him by Tu Zhenxiong towards the New Territories.

The Li family manor was located in a private mountain village in the New Territories, where the scenery was unique, and the air and environmental indicators were all excellent, but of course, the Li family manor was located here, and the security was quite strict.

At this time, a Bugatti Veyron was driving like a sharp sword on the road leading to the Li family manor, and finally, the car arrived at the gate of the Li family manor.

“Excuse me, is this Mr. Ye?” The guard at the gate came over and asked.

Ye Han nodded, and at this time, inside the Li family manor, Li Xinran, who was dressed in casual clothes, walked out and said to the guards; "You guys go and get busy, I'll do it."

"Yes, Miss."

Li Xinran walked to the car window, looked at Ye Han who was sitting motionless with a bad smile on his face, and said with a smile; "What, you can't come down? Or are you afraid to enter this door?"

"Don't provoke me, I'm just looking at you dressed a little differently today." Ye Han got out of the car and took Li Xinran's arm and said; "Let's go, go and see your old man, if you make him wait for a long time, it will be a big sin, maybe, a beautiful wife like a flower will be lost."

"Hmph, it's good that you know." Li Xinran snorted lightly and led Ye Han inside the manor.

In the backyard of the Li family manor, there was a garden with a rockery, a pond and some flowers and trees.

Next to the old man, there was an old man wearing a Tang suit, who was looking at Ye Han with a smile on his face. The old man playing Tai Chi was naturally the old man of the Li family, a legendary figure in the business world, a titanic existence.

Ye Han did not disturb the old man Li's Tai Chi practice, and stood next to him with Li Xinran for about five minutes before the old man slowly stopped, at this time, the old man in the Tang suit handed over a towel, after the old man Li wiped his sweat, he laughed; "Old, really old, a little bit of activity and this leg can't work anymore, the years are not forgiving! It's not as good as you youngsters."

On hearing this, Ye Han laughed; "Although the old man is old, but his body functions are good, there is nothing serious wrong with him, it's just that as people get old, their physical abilities will inevitably decline a bit."

"I can't see that you still know the art of medicine, old man Yan is blessed! Got an outstanding grandson." Elder Li sat down on a stone bench, and Ye Han and Li Xinran followed.

Fortune Chapter 583

"Sit down, let's talk, I've been wanting to meet you since you came to Xiangjiang."

"Thank you, old master." Ye Han sat down and said; "Old Master and Master Yan of Yanjing City know each other?"

Upon hearing that, Elder Li glanced at Ye Han and smiled; "What, is it difficult for you to call Old Man Yan a grandfather?"

Ye Han said; "Perhaps Old Master misunderstood, I have no relationship with the Yan family in Yanjing City, I am who I am, Ye Han, and not Old Master Yan's grandson."

"Although you don't admit it, blood ties cannot be cut off." Elder Li said; "I believe that one day, you will willingly call Old Man Yan a grandfather, forget it, this is your family matter I will not say much, Ye Han, on the Xiangjiang side you have already taken the New Territories and Kowloon, next you should enter the Xiangjiang Island, however, I believe that you can handle these matters well, so I will not ask questions, but I want to remind you of one thing, this place, Cixihangzhai, I'm sure you've already heard of it, right?"

Ye Han nodded and said; "I know, I heard that there is a very powerful high person living inside."

"Oh, I'm afraid she's not even close to being a high ranking person, she has a beautiful face but her heart is already dead, if she chooses to interfere in the affairs of the underground world in Xiangjiang, you will be in big trouble, when the time comes, I'm afraid you will have to face not only her, but also the celebrities of the business world in Xiangjiang, although this woman has cut herself off from the red world, she has attracted countless talented men and elite figures to bend down for her, and now, these her Most of her former suitors are famous in Xiangjiang, and if she chooses to deal with you, these same people will intervene."

At those words, Ye Han's brow furrowed, did that Jing Yi of the Cixi Zhai really have such a great charm? He had only just settled the troubles in the White Dao, if there were any more waves, his return trip would have to be pushed back.

"Thank you for reminding me, old master." Ye Han said; "Old Master shouldn't just call me here today just to remind me, right?"

"Of course not." Old Master Li smiled; "Since this girl Xinran has chosen you, I as a grandfather have to meet you no matter what, to be honest, you are not the most satisfactory son-in-law for me, but I respect Xinran for her own choice."

"Thank you, old master, for making it possible." Ye Han said; "Although I am not your most satisfactory granddaughter's son-in-law, I will definitely be a man who makes Xinran feel happy, and in this life, I will definitely not be negative to her."

Elder Li laughed; "I believe you are a young man of your word, I feel at ease leaving Xinran in your hands, well, that's all I have to say, now you two young people get along well."

With that said, Elder Li stood up and left with his hands behind his back.

"It's that simple?" Ye Han looked at Elder Li's back with a bit of surprise, he still had a whole lot of things he was ready to say inside his stomach that he hadn't said yet, if he had known it was so simple, he wouldn't have bothered to think about this.

"By the way, although you are not my most satisfactory granddaughter-in-law, you are the hardest to find, so if anything happens in the White Road, I will help you out." After saying this, Elder Li and the Tang-suited old man left this garden.

"As expected of Old Master Li, this thinking is really not comparable to some old guys who are stuck in their old ways." Ye Han grinned as Li Xinran said; "Did you feel a little too relaxed about passing?"

Ye Han said; "Indeed, I am, I'm all ready to face Old Master Li's questioning and rebuke."

"Grandpa is not that kind of pedantic and unconventional person." Li Xinran glanced at Ye Han and said; "But the hardest thing for you is not Grandpa's hurdle, but me, if you displease me and make me unhappy one day, I, Li Xinran, will repudiate my husband."

“Husband repudiation!” Ye Han’s eyes glared at Li Xinran and said; “You dare, it seems I have to do what needs to be done before I can do it, otherwise some people can’t live their lives if they think of repudiating their husbands all day long.”

After saying that, amidst Li Xinran’s shriek, Ye Han directly swept out of the Li family manor with her in his arms, the speed was as fast as a black light, then, the Bugatti Veyron left the Li family manor like a sharp sword and drove to Li Xinran’s villa in Saigon.

A primal battle of heavenly thunder was staged inside a certain villa.

This night, Ye Han did not leave Li Xinran’s villa, the two of them stayed in the villa for the whole night, when the first ray of sunlight shone into the room the next morning, Ye Han had already woken up, he looked at Li Xinran who was lying in his arms and was sleeping, the corners of his mouth blossomed into a happy smile.

“What, are you happy to have gotten me?” Li Xinran had actually woken up, but she was a little afraid to face Ye Han, although the two of them had been honest with each other last night, and had done everything that needed to be done, but, women, the reserve mentality is very strong.

“More than happy, I feel like I should have gotten lucky, God is too favourable to me.” Ye Han put his arm around Li Xinran’s fragrant shoulders and said; “There is a saying that Elder Li is right, I am not a grand daughter in law that satisfies him the most, because he knows that there are other women beside me, this, you also know, I cannot manage to concentrate my love on one woman, but every love I have will be given with my life, and the same goes for you. ”

“Hmph, if you dare to negative me” said Li Xinran, her jade hand reaching for a certain spot and narrowing her eyes; “I will cut it so that you can never be a man in your life.”

“Isn’t that a little too mischievous?” Ye Han touched his nose.

“You can try it oh, see if I dare or not.”

“Then I’d rather choose not to try, the ending is too sad.”

Ye Han was kicked off the bed by Li Xinran and could only meekly dress and go to the living room, in a soothing mood, stretching beautifully, it was now morning time, the time of day when the air was at its best, but there was news from Tu Zhenxiong’s side that made Ye Han’s mood instantly turn gloomy.

“Mr. Ye, our people have found out that Hong Tiansheng has gone to Rising Sun Mountain, and it seems that he is preparing to ask for help from Cihang Zhai.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han’s eyes turned cold as he said; “Continue to keep an eye on the Blood Righteousness Sect, sit ready for the big showdown at any time, I will handle this matter.”

After saying this, Ye Han also called and informed Leng Wufei and the others to head to Rizhao Mountain and meet up at the bottom of Rizhao Mountain, Hong Tiansheng had gone to Rizhao Mountain and was bound to ask for help from Cihang Zhai, it was fine if Cihang Zhai did not intervene, if they did, they absolutely could not be allowed to walk half a step down Rizhao Mountain.

“What is it? Did something else appear?” Li Xinran had already dressed and walked down at this time, her body had a mature charm different from the old days, looking even more charming, Ye Han had no other thoughts right now, he said; “Xinran, I have to go to Rizhao Mountain for a trip, I’m afraid I can’t accompany you.”

“Rizhao Mountain!” Li Xinran frowned and said; “I’ll go with you together.”

Fortune Chapter 584

There is a nunnery on this mountain, but it does not accept incense and worship, so although it is known that there is a nunnery on Rizhao Mountain, basically no one comes here.

Moreover, the government has ordered that visitors are not allowed to visit Rizhao Mountain.

Today, however, a group of people went to Rizhao Mountain, and that leader was naturally Hong Tiansheng as well as his wise advisor, Yu Shi, and some patriarchal figures of the Blood Righteousness Sect.

Ye Han ate the New Territories and Nine Dragons in succession, which made Hong Tiansheng start to become a bit restless. He did not know if he could stop Ye Han with his Blood Righteousness Sect, so for safety’s sake, he could only come to Rizhao Mountain to ask for help from Cihang Zhai, if Cihang Zhai came forward, then it would be much easier to deal with Ye Han.

“Big brother, we haven’t come to Rizhao Mountain for some years, and we don’t know if the people from Cihangzhai are willing to see us?”

Hong Tiansheng said with a cold face; “Ye Han is too strong, Cihangzhai is our last chance, no matter what we have to ask the people from Cihangzhai to come forward, even if it’s at all costs I want Ye Han to die in Xiangjiang.”

“Yes, that mainland boy is too deceitful, he has gained the New Territories and Nine Dragons, and he still presumes to swallow our Blood Righteousness Sect as well, this time we must ask someone from the Cihangzhai to step in and do justice for us no matter what.”

Bullying people too much? This man had probably forgotten before he spoke that Ye Han had only come to Xiangjiang to kill Huo Tianzun and did not want to have any enmity with anyone, instead, it was his Blood Righteousness Sect that had placed a Jianghu hunting order on Ye Han, that was why they had come to this point, the Blood Righteousness Sect had come to this point, just like Guo Yunxiao, it was all their own fault.

“Who came to my Sunshine Mountain? Report to me!”

At this time, two Daoist nuns appeared on the road to Cihang Zhai, these two were wearing grey Daoist robes, with grey hats on their heads, holding ancient swords in their hands, looking at Hong Tiansheng’s group coming down the steps at the bottom of the mountain with a serious face.

Upon seeing this, Hong Tiansheng immediately said; “Two masters, I am Hong Tiansheng of the Blood Righteousness Sect, I have something to ask to see Master Jing Yi, I hope you two masters will make it easier.”

“Someone from the underground world of Xiangjiang.” One of the Daoist nuns, who was about thirty years old, said; “Tell us the purpose of your visit and we will report it to the Master of the Saison, as to whether the Master will see you or not, it is up to her own will, without her permission, you cannot enter the Cihang Saison.”

Hearing these words, Master Yu, who is the wise advisor of the Blood Righteousness Sect, pushed his glasses and said; “Two masters, recently a murderous villain has arrived in Xiangjiang, and the entire Xiangjiang underworld has been caused by this person, causing a lot of bloodshed and heavy casualties. I hope that the senior members of the Tzu Hang Zhai can stop this man from continuing to kill in Hong Kong.”

“A murderous villain?” The Taoist nun, who was about thirty years old, frowned and said; “What is this person’s origin? What is his name?”

Master Yu said; “This person is called Ye Han, from the mainland, I have a detailed information about him here, the two masters can take it and show it to Master Zhai.”

“Ye Han?” The slightly younger Daoist nun frowned as she looked at Master Yu and asked; “Is the Ye Han you speak of a young man?”

“So young master knows of him.” Master Yu took out a file from inside his briefcase and personally handed it to the older Daoist nun, saying; “This Ye Han has already killed thousands of people from major societies in the underground world of Xiangjiang, if the underground world of Xiangjiang is controlled by this person, the future of Xiangjiang will definitely be brought into a bloody era by this person, I hope the two masters will be careful.”

“All right, I will personally report your matter to the Master of the Saison, you will wait here, and you are not allowed to enter the Ts’aihang Saison privately without being summoned.” With that said, the two Daoist nuns walked towards the mountain.

“Lark, you know this man?” The Daoist nun who was about thirty years old asked on the way to the mountain.

Yunqiu was the woman who was responsible for protecting Guo Yunxiao at the beginning, in the end because of Cheng Jun Ye Han let her live, Yunqiu said; “Sister, if this Ye Han and the person I know are the same person, I do know him, I almost died at his hands over in Yunnan at the beginning, but in the end he let me go.”

“Alright, I’ll take a look at this information first, then report this matter to the Lord of the Lodge, and let the Lord of the Lodge make up his own mind on everything.” Saying this, the Daoist nun, who was about thirty years old, opened the file bag, but only after looking at it for a moment, her face changed and she hurriedly walked towards the mountain, a scene that left the lark next to her in a bit of a cloud.

This nunnery is not too big, not too small, and the Daoist nuns inside add up to just a dozen, but there is no shortage of masters here.

Under the Buddha statue inside the nunnery, a Taoist nun with her back to the door is sitting on top of a futon, tapping a wooden fish while chanting sutras, and very few people usually enter this nunnery, because the disciples of Cihangzhai all know that the master likes to be pure and does not like to be disturbed.

At this time, a knock sounded on the door outside this Buddhist hall, followed by a voice coming in; “Master Zhai, disciple Hui Jing requests to see you, there is something to report.”

Hearing this voice, the sound of wooden fish knocking inside the Buddhist Hall stopped; “Come in.”

The light in the hall was dim and there was only one person in the large hall. Looking at the Taoist nun who had her back to them, Hui Jing handed over the information in her hand to the nun and said; “Master Zhai, the Blood Righteousness Sect of the Xiangjiang Association has come to ask for help, saying that a very powerful villain has come from the underground world of Xiangjiang, who is murderous and has killed Thousands of people and wants to ask our Cixihang Zhai to help, here is the information of that person.”

“There is no need to read it, this matter is up to you, I have ignored the mundane affairs of the red world.” The Taoist nun didn’t bother to take that information, and closed her eyes again, and started tapping the wooden fish, her mind like water.

On hearing this, Hui Jing hesitated and said; “Master Zhai, you’d better take a look at this information, that man is the son of a madman.”

Ka!

At the fall of Huijing’s words, the sound of a wooden fish being cracked open suddenly rang out, frightening Lark and Huijing, and at this moment, they both felt a terrifying anger being released from Master Jing Yi’s body.

“It’s the son of that negative man” Master Jing Yi’s body was fiercely filled with rage, after hearing the word maniac, her body was completely devoid of that tranquility, there was only monstrous anger and killing intent, and then, she slowly stood up and met the outside of the gate This was a flawless face, from which no trace of age could be seen at all, just like a young woman with red lips and white teeth, and smooth and elastic skin.

However, such a woman, whose beauty was somewhat subversive, had a cold face at the moment, and a bone-chilling killing intent was being released all over her body.

Fortune Chapter 585

“Negative-hearted man’s son, very good, I couldn’t kill you negative-hearted man back then, today I will kill your son and make you pay!” At this moment, Jing Yi’s face surged with a bone-chilling and fierce aura, so cold that the temperature inside the entire Buddha Hall became much colder because of the change in her body.

In terms of looks, she was not inferior to Yan Qingmu, not to mention that she was a proud girl with outstanding talent, and there were countless suitors for her, but because the madman had wronged her, her heart had died, and she had trapped herself on this Sunshine Mountain for years and years, not seeing the world for more than twenty years.

This hatred had been hidden in her heart for more than 20 years. Now, when she heard the name of the Madman again, especially when she heard that his and Yan Qingmu's son had appeared in Xiangjiang, her first thought was to kill Ye Han in order to relieve her hatred back then and make the Madman taste the pain.

She hated and loved the man who was so arrogant on the mainland back then, but twenty years later, this love has turned to hate.

Under Sunshine Mountain, when Ye Han drove his car all the way here with Li Xinran, who had to follow him, Leng Wufei and the others had already arrived, and it was now noon.

"Sir, how long has Hong Tiansheng been up there?" Ye Han pushed open the car door and got out, he looked at the road that stretched up towards Rizhao Mountain in front of him, a cold intent flickering in his eyes.

Leng Wufei and the others walked up and said; "According to the news given by Tu Zhenxiong, it might have been several hours since they went up."

"We can't wait any longer, let's also go up to Mount Rizhao, if Cihang Zhai really chooses to intervene, then Mount Rizhao will be the battlefield between us and them." After saying this, Ye Han was the first to walk towards Rizhao Mountain, Li Xinran was following him, taking Li Xinran with him, Ye Han was actually reluctant, this trip was a big battle and very dangerous, moreover, Li Xinran had just broken her body, it was also inappropriate to go to Rizhao Mountain.

But Li Xinran insisted, and Ye Han had no choice, was this woman really afraid that he would die in the Cixi Zhai?

Ye Han and his group boarded the road to Cixihang Zhai, Tu Zhenxiong's side was also ready, this time to go to Cixihang Zhai, Ye Han only brought Leng Wufei, Chen family brothers, Sun Buwei, Zhou Lie, Silly Ben and Lin Qi, seven experts, eleven Heavenly Dragon Guards under the leadership of the four Heavenly Dragon Generals, ready to cooperate with Tu Zhenxiong to attack Blood Righteousness Sect.

Of course, Li Xinran was being carried on Ye Han's back, and the mountain was as flat as the ground, and Li Xinran could feel the wind whistling in her ears as she lay on Ye Han's back.

Not even ten minutes had passed before Ye Han and his party had arrived at the top of Rizhao Mountain. What appeared before them was a nunnery, which was very quiet, with pieces of fallen leaves fluttering in the wind, and by this time, Hong Tiansheng and the others had already been invited inside the Cihang Zhai.

The madman's son appeared in Xiangjiang, Jing Yi was out of her mind, she was going to kill Ye Han herself and make the madman suffer for the rest of his life.

"Where is Hong Tiansheng and the others?" Looking at the nunnery, which seemed a little quiet, Leng Wufei and the others frowned.

"Inside." Ye Han's gaze looked coldly ahead of him, and under the perspective, inside a Buddhist hall, Hong Tiansheng and the others were there, however, Ye Han's gaze was currently staring at the beautiful and extraordinary Daoist nun, and the two of them looked as if they were staring at each other across the sky, even through the walls, they could still feel each other.

“As expected of the Madman’s son, these thieving eyes are exactly the same as the Madman back then.” Jing Yi stood up from her position, her icy coldness and killing aura gushing out frantically, and then, her entire person had swept out as if a wind, and seeing this, the disciples of the Cihang Zhai had also come outside.

“It seems that it is Ye Han who has come, humph, let the people of the Cihang Zhai go deal with him now.” Hong Tiansheng sneered and led the people from the Blood Righteousness Sect out from inside, and at this moment, on top of the small square of the Cihang Zhai, the two parties, their eyes locked.

From that Jing Yi’s body, Ye Han and the others could feel a terrifying aura and a crazy killing intent.

“Little beast, you look really similar to your negative father, with a peachy face, I guess, you are even more flirtatious and amorous than that father of yours.” Jing Yi looked at Ye Han with a cold face, not hiding the terrifying murderous intent in her eyes, upon hearing this, Ye Han said; “You must be Jing Yi, I came to Cihang Zhai to talk to you, you should stay out of the affairs of the underground world of Xiangjiang.”

“Hmph, if you were not the son of that negative man of Madman, I might not interfere, but who made you the son of Madman? Today, you must die, and I will make Madman regret the choice he made back then.” A crazed look flashed across Jing Yi’s face, and then, only to see her entire body slowly coming up in the air, her figure was stunningly beautiful, but that terrifying aura was life-threatening.

“What a powerful Jing Yi, let’s go together!”

Feeling the terrifying aura released from Jing Yi, Leng Wufei and the others took a step forward and stood with Ye Han, the woman who could fight against the Sword God back then without losing, no one dared to underestimate her.

“I’ll come and meet her personally.” A terrifying black light sliced through the void, Ye Han’s speed was so fast that it was dazzling, while he was in mid-air, the Dragon Scale Dagger in Ye Han’s hand had already swung out a matchless cold and severe blade, this blade seemed to open up a world, slashing down towards Jing Yi’s position.

“Hmph, at such a young age, you are already at the Middle Rendu realm, you bitch’s talent is really impressive, however, the father’s debt will be repaid by the son, you still won’t survive today.” Jing Yi coldly snorted with a frosty face as the ancient sword in her hand was fiercely sheathed, a shocking sword Qi enveloping the void above the Cihang Zhai.

Snort!

Sword light, like rushing thunder, like lightning, this sword, stunned the eyes of the crowd, it was hard to imagine that with the strength of a mortal, one could wield such a stunning sword.

Ding!

The clash between the sword and the knife, the terrifying sound of gold and iron resounded in the void, dazzling tongues of fire blossomed out, sparks flew in all directions, a violent force radiated from the void in all directions, like a fierce gale sweeping across the whole earth, sensing this force, Leng Wufei and the others immediately blocked Li Xinran’s body, they could still withstand it, but if Li Xinran, an ordinary person, was swept by this force, he would definitely lose his life. they would definitely lose their lives.

“What a terrifying power, the strength of the fast master has become even more powerful than before!” The people of Cihang Zhai were shocked, at this time, Ye Han’s body couldn’t help but retreat madly in the void, his face flushed with a flush of red looking at the frosty Jing Yi, the woman was so powerful that Ye Han felt the Qi and blood in his body tumbling and his body trembling.

Fortune Chapter 586

“Little bastard, to be able to take this sword of mine so hard, it seems your strength is not as simple as it seems, but you will not escape death today after all.” Jing Yi strolled forward with her sword in her hand and a frosty face.

“Old woman, your strength isn’t bad either, but with such a strong fire, it seems that you were played by someone back then and then dumped.” Ye Han’s face flashed with the same icy look, this woman had been calling out a beast on the left and a bitch on the right since she saw him, anyone would have gotten angry.

At these words, Jing Yi’s face became even colder as she said; “Little beast, you are really the same as your heartless father, what the madman owed me back then, I will get it back on you, little beast.”

After saying that, Jing Yi’s slow figure suddenly became like lightning, her grey daoist robe hunting, the compelling sword light blossomed in the void, that harsh aura, as if turning this heaven and earth into a world of swords, this heaven and earth, only this sword of Jing Yi, breaking all laws.

“Old woman, so much fire, I’ll add more fire to you, Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire, come out!”

A loud shout, in an instant, with Ye Han as the centre, a terrifying flame spread in all directions towards heaven and earth, a blazing flame burned in heaven and earth, the area around Ye Han and Jing Yi’s battle had turned into a world of fire, the terrifying temperature spread out, turning the surrounding heaven and earth into a fiery furnace.

“What terrifying flames, retreat!” Feeling the heat of the flames spreading over, sweat fell from their cheeks in an instant as the people of Cihangzhai quickly retreated, looking with shocked faces at Ye Han who looked as if he was in control of the flames of the world in the middle of the sea of fire.

As for Hong Tiansheng and the others, they had dodged far away when Ye Han and Jing Yi were fighting.

“It’s lucky that there is a Cihangzhai, otherwise, we would all have to die at the hands of this kid.” A look of gratitude flashed across Hong Tiansheng’s face, if there was no Cihangzhai, with the people under his hands, how would he be able to stop the terrifying as hell Ye Han.

“It seems that after coming back from the dead, the flames under Little Han’s control have improved in a new way, in this situation right now, even if we went in, we would lose our lives.” Chen Tianxing said with a calm face.

Leng Wufei narrowed his eyes and said; “Although Xiao Han’s flames are powerful, but I’m afraid that they can’t stop this woman Jing Yi yet, if something happens, we will immediately strike and join forces to take down Jing Yi.”

Hearing this, everyone nodded their heads.

"I think you guys can make your move now, my man is taking the risk." Li Xinran said indifferently.

At those words, Leng Wufei and the others gave a bitter laugh, they would like to make a move, but at this moment in time who would dare to run into that sea of fire? Going in like that, not to mention helping Ye Han, would be a direct death sentence.

"Open!"

In the sky and the earth, Jing Yi's terrifying sword had already fallen down brazenly, the dazzling sword light landed in the sea of fire, such a powerful attack caused the ground to shake, as if the entire Sunshine Mountain had shaken, however, such a terrifying sword of Jing Yi did not open up a path out of the sea of fire.

"Hmph, old woman, let you try the power of this flame of mine." Ye Liang coldly laughed, and in the next moment, a flame spear stabbed out from the sea of fire, all shooting towards Jing Yi like a flame lance.

Seeing this scene, Jing Yi's quiet eyes were cold and frosty, her beautiful eyes were filled with a powerful sword light, her sword qi whistled around her, her jade hand moved, her ancient sword waved, a sword light rushed around her, innumerable, Ye Han's flame spears and these sword lights clashed, as if ten thousand armies were rushing to kill each other, the sound of battle resounded in heaven and earth.

In the blink of an eye, she had already wielded hundreds of swords, handling them with ease, so it was clear that her strength had not been fully exerted.

Seeing this, Ye Han's eyebrows gaped as he let out a low shout; "Rise, Bury!"

In the next moment, under the eyes of the surrounding crowd, the sea of fire swept up from both sides like waves, surging up into the sky, before falling, and Jing Yi's body was buried completely in the midst of this wave of fire.

"Lord Chai!" This scene caused Cixi Zhai's heart to flutter in shock.

"Don't worry, the Saison's strength is great, it's definitely not something that kid can deal with." Hui Jing said very calmly, she was the earliest person to follow Jing Yi, back then Jing Yi took her on a tour of the continent, defeating many geniuses and shaking the heavens with fame, for everything about Jing Yi, Hui Jing knew everything about her, including the grudge between her and the madman.

Within the buried sea of fire, Jing Yi's gaze was very calm, right now in the four directions of her heaven and earth, all were terrifying flames surging, but when these flames wanted to devour Jing Yi, there was an amazing power from Jing Yi's body that was blocking these flames from invading.

"The terror of these flames is so great that only a person at the late stage of the Middle Ren Yu would find it difficult to block them, no wonder this little bitch dares to fight me, but it's not even close." With her sword in one hand, suddenly, Jing Yi whipped out a sword on the spot, a sword that even surpassed the might that a mortal could control, surpassing the Mid Ren Du and reaching another level of terror!

Snort!

This sword light tore through the sea of fire as if a haze of light had passed through the clouds, the blinding light caused Ye Han, who was in control of the sea of fire, to struggle a little with his eyes, right now the power of Jing Yi's sword had reached a point where even Ye Han was appalled.

"Not good, this old woman has made a real move!" After feeling the power of this sword, Ye Han's eyes froze and his entire body frantically retreated, if he didn't retreat, he might die under this woman Jing Yi's sword.

"Hmph, only now do you want to leave, little bitch, it's time for you to pay the price." A cold snort came out from the sea of fire, and inside the sea of fire that was torn apart by the sword light, Jing Yi strolled out with her sword in her hand, that seemingly slow pace was strangely fast, catching up with Ye Han in a flash.

"Strike!"

At this time, Leng Wufei and the others also took action, combining the strength of all of them to attack Jing Yi, the endless attacks came rushing in.

Ye Han and the others floated to the ground, gazing intently at Jing Yi who had taken a step back.

"It really is a group of non-human perverts, and only the high ranking people of the Cihang Zhai can deal with them, now, it is time for this group of people to go to the Yellow Spring." Hong Tiansheng smiled coldly, although he didn't know martial arts, he could see that Ye Han and the others couldn't take Jing Yi.

"Back then your father had to scorn me a few times, now just you?" Jing Yi looked at Ye Han with a cold smile and said; "Little bastard, the father's debt is repaid by the son, if you want to blame it, blame it on your unfeeling father, suffer death."

After saying that, Jing Yi strolled towards Ye Han and the others again, the icy cold aura emanating from her body was as if she wanted to freeze the entire void.

"Hehe, it seems that if I don't step in, Jing Yi, you really won't let this brat go!" At this time, a light laugh passed out in the void, and then, on the road coming up from the bottom of the mountain, a man gradually appeared, Madman!

Fortune Chapter 587

Looking at the man who appeared, at this moment, Jing Yi's hand holding the sword trembled, that absolutely beautiful face changed, twenty years had passed, she had not seen that man who made her love and hate him for twenty years, and now, this man appeared in front of her, compared to twenty years ago, this man had aged a lot, less of a youthful frivolity, more of a mature man's stability.

"Madman!"

Upon seeing this place, many people's expressions shook, a man's name is a shadow of a tree, there was basically no one who didn't know Madman in the mixed jianghu, that was a powerful and extraordinary man.

"Well, he's here, it seems that we don't need to make a move, this debt of love should be left to Madman himself to pay." Leng Wufei and the others looked at each other and smiled, Madman had followed him to Xiangjiang, although it was a surprise to them, however, with him appearing, this matter of Cihangzhai was not a crisis anymore.

Ye Han's face didn't change much, holding Li Xinran's hand, very calm, letting people not know what he was thinking.

"Madman, twenty years have passed, have you finally given up to appear to see me?" Jing Yi's face still held a monstrous hatred, and the sword that was originally pointed at Ye Han, also moved to the maniac's body, she hated to use this sword and pierce through that man's heart, to see if that heart was made of stone, so much so that it made him so desperate back then.

Looking at Jing Yi, a complicated look flashed in the eyes of the maniac standing with his arms folded as he said; "Originally, I did not want to appear, and I might have appeared, but if I had not appeared, this brat would only have died by your hand, Jing Yi, twenty years have passed, have you still not let go?"

"Let go?" Jing Yi let out a crazy laugh that resounded through the void, laughing with cold eyes and even more miserable as she said; "You're asking me to let go? Since you wouldn't have chosen me back then, you shouldn't have come to provoke me, I will never let go in my life, unless, I kill you!"

"Fine, I'll let you have a sword, as a return of your love back then." Saying this, the madman strolled forward, approaching Jing Yi step by step, looking at this man walking, Jing Yi's face was full of madness and killing intent, buried for twenty years, she could finally relieve her hatred now.

The eyes of the crowd also looked at the maniac who was approaching Jing Yi step by step. Under such a gaze, the maniac walked up to Jing Yi's body and his chest was pressed against Jing Yi's ancient sword, at this moment, the two were only one metre apart.

"If killing me is the only way to relieve your hatred, you do it." The madman looked at Jing Yi with complicated eyes, back then, it was indeed he who had failed this magnificent woman.

"Do you really think I don't dare to kill you?" Jing Yi looked frantic, the ancient sword in her hand was gently sent forward, and the cold spike pierced into the body of the madman, although it was not much deeper, blood was already flowing out along the wound, falling to the ground drop by drop.

Seeing this, Ye Han's palm instinctively moved, his body tensed, and a cold light flashed in those calm eyes, watching the Berserker being killed by Jing Yi in front of him, could Ye Han he really be indifferent?

"It seems that grandfather was not wrong, blood is unbreakable, it is not that you do not recognize him in your heart." Sensing Ye Han's movement, Li Xinran tightened her grip on his large hand and said.

Ye Han let out a deep breath and said; "I just don't want to owe him."

"Perhaps." Li Xinran gave a light laugh.

The madman lowered his head and looked at the sword that was stabbing him, he laughed bitterly; "You can't lay your hands on him after all, just as I actually haven't forgotten you after all, perhaps, it's time for us both to let go, twenty years, it's not short enough, not being able to let go is torture."

"You don't need to fancy words in front of me, do you think I will believe you again now?" Jing Yi's palm trembled as she gripped her sword, biting her lip tightly, she did hate him, but really when he appeared in front of her, she couldn't lay a hand on him.

“Don’t be fooling yourself, you and I both know that in our hearts.” The madman looked at Jing Yi and said; “You should know that I will not strike at you in this life, even if you have to kill me, but, you stay out of my son’s affairs, this is between you and me, it cannot involve the next generation, if you are willing to stop, I can accompany you here in your fasting hall for a few days to eat fasting, I will give you an account for the love I owe you.”

At these words, Jing Yi’s hand suddenly trembled, she couldn’t lay a hand to kill the madman, and how would the madman lay a hand on her She slowly withdrew her ancient sword and looked at the madman with cold eyes; “Good, that’s what you said, come with me if you have the guts.”

Saying that, Jing Yi turned and floated away, disappearing without a trace in a few blinks of an eye.

Seeing this, Madman’s figure moved and immediately followed him.

“This is an important place for the Buddhist sect, certain people need to keep a hold of it.” Looking at the back of Madman’s departure as well, Ye Han opened his mouth and said indifferently. At these words, the voice of the Madman came from the void; “Bunny, I am doing this to help you, if you dare to say anything to your mother, I will break your legs”

Looking at the father and son talking like this, Leng Wufei and the others grinned, however, when their gaze moved on Hong Tiansheng and the others, the murderous intent in their eyes instantly blossomed out.

Sensing this, Hong Tiansheng and the others’ faces changed in unison, now that Jing Yi had left, was there anyone else here who could stop the terrifying Ye Han?

“Masters, this son is murderous, he must not be left behind.” Hong Tiansheng’s face changed greatly as he slowly retreated towards the back.

“Shut up.” Leng Wufei shouted coldly, and then he looked at the people of Cihang Zhai and said; “Your master has already chosen to stop, is it hard to say that you still want to make a move?”

“Sorry, everyone, you should please go down the mountain.” After Hui Jing spoke to Hong Tiansheng and the others, he turned around and went back to the Buddha Hall with the disciples of Cihang Zhai, and also closed the door into the Buddha Hall.

Seeing this, a look of panic and despair flashed across the face of Hong Tiansheng who originally thought that Ye Han would definitely die today, without the shelter of the Cihang Zhai, it was as easy as slaughtering a dog for Ye Han to destroy him.

However, just as Hong Tiansheng was inwardly terrified and desperate, a knife, pierced through his back and out of his front chest, blood instantly flowed out from his body. Looking at the bright, sharp knife that emerged from his chest, Hong Tiansheng turned his head with great difficulty, and then it was that he saw the face he trusted the most.

Master Yu, the legal advisor of the Blood Righteousness Sect, was also the wise counsel of the Blood Righteousness Sect.

“Since you can’t keep us alive, I’ll just have to kill you and save myself.” With a cold face, Division Yu pushed Hong Tiansheng to the ground with one hand after he spoke in his ear.

“Master Yu, you dare you betray?” When several other Blood Righteousness Sect’s patriarchs saw this, they looked at Yu Shi with shock and anger.

“This is what I call being aware of the times.” Master Yu slowly looked towards Ye Han and said; “Mr. Ye, your side should be lacking a legal advisor, I, Master Yu, would be happy to serve you.”

Fortune Chapter 588

Looking at Yu Shi’s smiling face, Ye Han’s eyes narrowed together, this man was a typical smiling tiger who had directly betrayed him after Hong Tiansheng was no longer useful.

“Good fellow, a really ruthless attack, even his own master dares to kill.” Leng Wufei grinned.

Ye Han looked at Yu Shi, narrowed his eyes and smiled; “When you are in the jianghu, you can’t get along without a ruthless heart and spicy hands, I admire you, but your icing on the cake has no substantial effect on me, if you don’t kill Hong Tiansheng, I will kill him myself, the difference is just that it’s not me doing it myself.”

“What if I said that I could help Mr Ye take control of the Blood Righteousness Sect? I wonder if that would still be considered icing on the cake?” Master Yu said with a confident face; “Mr. Ye, I don’t deny that with your ability, it would be easy to exterminate the Blood Righteousness Sect, but as opposed to getting the Blood Righteousness Sect without much effort, and going to exterminate it yourself, I think Mr. Ye would choose the former.”

At these words, Ye Han looked at Master Yu with some surprise, this guy was able to control the Blood Righteousness Sect, so he had somewhat underestimated him.

Ye Han said; “Good, if you can take control of the Blood Righteousness Sect, I will give you a chance to be the legal advisor beside Tu Zhenxiong, now you can come over.”

“Many thanks Mr. Ye.” Master Yu smiled faintly and pushed his glasses before walking towards Ye Han’s position.

Seeing this, the other bigwigs of the Blood Righteousness Sect’s faces changed dramatically as one scrambled to say; “Mr. Ye, we are also willing to submit”

“Mr. Ye, what Master Yu can do we can also do.”

“Too late.” Ye Han said with a cold face; “Opportunities are reserved for those who are good enough to seize them, if you fail to seize them, you will only be able to accompany Hong Tiansheng to hell together.”

After Ye Han said these words, the two of them, Silly Ben and Lin Qi, walked towards them with a cold face, where these few big brothers of the Blood Righteousness Sect were no match for the two of them, they were all killed and finally their bodies were burnt to ashes by Ye Han with a fire.

“Master Yu, I hope you can do what you say, you should know that you can betray Hong Tiansheng and I won’t fully trust you, so do something to make me believe you out.”

After Ye Han patted Yu Shi’s shoulder, he led a group of people to leave Rizhao Mountain.

Coming to Rizhao Mountain, Ye Han had come for the sake of Cihang Zhai, and right now, the most powerful woman in Cihang Zhai had chosen to put out the fire because of a single word from the madman, this outcome was the best for Ye Han, after all, Jing Yi was a very terrifying woman, and their side would not be able to take much advantage even if they attacked in a group.

What's more, once Jing Yi intervened, the situation would become even more troublesome if her former suitor, who is now a major figure in all walks of life in Hong Kong, also intervened.

Luckily, none of this happened after Madman appeared.

"It seems that the matter on the Xiangjiang side has been solved by you, when are you going back to the mainland?" On top of the Bugatti Veyron sports car, Li Xinran looked out of the car window and said quietly.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "Just in these two days, before I leave, I will go and see Old Master Li again. Xinran, your roots are in Xiangjiang, work hard to run this side, when the time comes I will ask Yun'er to develop her career focus towards this side, if the two of you join forces, I'm afraid not many people in the business world are your rivals."

"Hmph, you want us to work for you as free labour and build a business empire for you, right?" Li Xinran gave Ye Han a blank look.

Ye Han laughed; "What's mine, isn't it yours? When the Xiangjiang community is unified, I will announce that you, Li Xinran, are the master of this underground world and my woman, Ye Han."

"Cut the nice talk, I want you to stay with me for these two days, make me happy and satisfied before you can leave Xiangjiang, otherwise. I'll stir up the rivers and mountains you've built and turn them upside down, so that you can come and clean up the mess yourself." Li Xinran hummed lightly, hearing this, Ye Han grinned and said; "A beautiful woman has an order, how dare I disobey it, don't worry, I will definitely make you happy in the next two days."

Seeing the look of bad smile blossoming out on Ye Han's face, Li Xinran immediately blushed and gave him a fierce glare.

Yu Shi's ability was very good, in one day, just one day he had taken control of the Blood Righteousness Sect, this for him, who looked like a weak scholar on the surface, made Ye Han a little surprised by his ability, after taking control of the Blood Righteousness Sect, Yu Shi naturally announced to the public that he was subservient to Ye Han.

In a flash, all the territories of the societies in the three major districts of Xiangjiang fell into Ye Han's hands.

Inside a teahouse in the New Territories that was not quite upscale, Ye Han, Xiang Xian, Guo Yunjiang, Tu Zhenxiong and Yu Shi were all five present. I heard that many of the bigwigs from this teahouse liked to come here for tea when they had nothing to do, so Ye Han had also arranged for the meeting place to be here.

"Mr. Ye, congratulations." Xiang Xian sat opposite Ye Han and raised his cup of tea at him, Ye Han took a sip of his tea and smiled; "Mr. Xiang, it's right to congratulate me, but we should also congratulate everyone, we are now a family."

Ye Han took out a file bag from his side and placed it in front of Xiang Xian’s body, saying; “Mr. Xiang, I have a gift for you here, but you have to read it gradually, you can’t eat it in one bite, otherwise, it might cause indigestion.”

At these words, Xiang Xian opened the file bag and took a look, immediately he nodded with understanding and said; “Thank you for the gift Mr. Ye, please don’t worry, I know what to do.”

Inside this file bag were the handles of some people on the Xiangjiang side, if Xiang Xian wanted to continue to rise to the top, these things were his bargaining chips, but he could only take one step at a time.

Ye Han nodded, he looked at Guo Yunjiang who did not say a word and asked; “Yunjiang, what about the Guo family?”

Guo Yunjiang said; “Young Ye, please rest assured, everything in the Guo family is now under my control, by the way, Guo Yunxiao is dead.”

“Dead, so be it, it’s just as well that you have one less opponent, with Guo Yunxiao around, it will be a threat to you sooner or later.” Ye Han said indifferently, then he looked at Tu Zhenxiong and Yu Shi and continued; “Mr. Tu, Mr. Yu, I’ll have to thank you guys for this side of the Xiangjiang underground world, how to integrate, I won’t ask questions, you guys handle it yourselves, what I need to see is a big association with an iron barrel, not a scattered sand.”

“Mr Ye, please don’t worry, we will make sure you are satisfied.” Tu Zhenxiong and Yu Shi nodded solemnly.

“Good, everyone, cheers to our future.” The crowd smiled at each other and raised their glasses together. With all the matters on the Xiangjiang side settled, Ye Han had to return to the mainland side, and once he returned to the mainland, there were still many things waiting for him to do.

Fortune Chapter 589

Once the matter of the underground world was settled, Ye Han did not intervene. With the talents of Tu Zhenxiong and Yu Shi, Ye Han believed that they could handle it well, and as for Yu Shi, Ye Han did not have the idea of killing the donkey by unloading it. Such a result, Ye Han was happy to see, if one person was allowed to dominate, sooner or later, dissent would develop, mutual checks and balances were the way to go. As for the Madman’s side, Ye Han did not bother to inquire, his grudge against Jing Yi was not something Ye Han was interested in knowing either. After these matters were taken care of, Ye Han, of course, accompanied Li Xinran at ease and toured the whole of Xiangjiang. Right now, there was no one in the Xiangjiang community who did not know that Miss Li was the master of the Xiangjiang underground world and was the Godfather’s wife. Knowing that Ye Han was leaving, the always subtle Li Xinran also seemed to be very indulgent, for example, on a certain street, asking Ye Han to carry her for a few blocks, when going to the cinema to watch a movie, asking Ye Han to feed her popcorn, etc. Of course, this indulgence was naturally more intense at night, putting aside the woman’s reserve, with the intention of not stopping until Ye Han was drained. However, the person who finally surrendered was naturally not Ye Han. “Jing Yi, I’ve been running away from a lot of things these past twenty years, running away from you as well, if that rabbit hadn't been found, maybe I would still be in the Kunlun Holy Land right now." On the edge of a cliff on Sunshine Mountain, the two of them, Madman and Jing Yi, stood on the edge of the cliff against the rising sun. The morning sun shone on the Sunshine Mountain, making the entire Sunshine Mountain seem to be cloaked in a layer of golden light. Looking from afar, the Sunshine Mountain was completely enveloped by the sunset, appearing sacred and eye-catching, and the name Sunshine Mountain, in fact, was derived from this. Upon hearing this, she, who had already regained that heart like water, but with a certain charm on her face, said; "Twenty years have passed, I thought you would never appear and come to me again, it seems that the heavens are still somewhat favourable to me, a poor person." "What I owe you, I will slowly make up for it back." Looking at the sunset that shone from the east, the madman said; "In fact, when I came to Xiangjiang this time, even if this rabbit thing didn't appear, I still had to come to see you and ask you about one thing, only that I had been hesitant after arriving in Xiangjiang." "It seems I have to thank that son of yours, if it wasn't for him, I'm afraid you wouldn't have shown up." Jing Yi said calmly. "Maybe he would, maybe he wouldn't." The madman shook his head and said; "I could feel it during that great chaos in Yanjing City back then, and you also appeared, only you didn't lay a hand on me and stayed hidden in the shadows." "You knew?" The Madman nodded, sighed and said; "With your hatred for me, that time back then was the best time to kill me, there was no way you wouldn't have appeared, it's just that, you appeared a bit off, what I want to ask you is, apart from the Nalan family, the Iga God Shinobi and the Sacred Sons of the Divine Court, were there any other people you noticed in the shadows involved back then?" At these words, Jing Yi shook her head and said; "Apart from these people, there shouldn't be anyone else. However, I was approached by Jiu Qian back then, only he wasn't involved in that battle." "Jiu Qian, what did he seek you out for?" Hearing that name, the madman's face shook abruptly. "He didn't say anything, except that he told me you were in danger, so that's why I showed up." "You appeared at the right time, but, back then, the entire Yanjing City was sealed off, so you couldn't have appeared inside without a sound, in which, someone was deliberately letting you in." Madman let out a deep breath and gazed into the distance with a calm expression, though his fists were slowly clenched together. "I hope your guess is wrong, otherwise" Jing Yi shook her head and said; "Actually, it's a good thing for you to find him nowadays, your son is very good, back then when you were his age, you weren't he was so capable." "Oh, the son is stronger than the father, I am not jealous of the boy at all, perhaps, it is not a good thing that he was carried away in the chaos back then, at least, he has experienced hardships and sufferings alone and grown up step by step so far, this is a valuable treasure for him, if he spent these years peacefully by my side, I am afraid that his life, will be another story." The madman smiled lightly, for Ye Han, he was satisfied. "You're a smart person, but this chess game stinks, it's not even close to Xinran's chess skills." The Li family manor, still inside that garden, Ye Han was playing chess with Old Master Li, Old Master Li's chess skill was very exquisite, I'm afraid it was not much worse than some chess dao national masters, Ye Han was naturally not a match when he played chess with him. Ye Han laughed and said; "Old Master, we specialise in different areas, so naturally we are not your opponent, this game, I admit defeat." "Oh, playing chess is a philosophy, it allows you to know when to give up, to abandon your pieces and fight for first place, when to never give up, to fight for every inch of land, when to retreat one step to the sea and the sky and one step to the net, when to use defence as an attack, when to use attack as a defence, there are times when one careless move can cause all the games to be lost, if you have time you can go and study it properly." Elder Li smiled faintly after he finished playing the last piece. Ye Han said; "A game of chess is equivalent to a game of life, if you want to win in this game, you can't make a wrong move, one wrong move, one wrong step, the whole game will be lost, old master, I have been taught." Elder Li shook his head and smiled; "In fact, you understand what I am saying, although your chess game is very bad, but every move is very stable, you can come this far, it is enough to see your success, now that the big event in Xiangjiang is over, you are going back to the mainland, right?" Ye Han nodded and said; "It's time to go back, there are some chess pieces that have disturbed the game on the mainland, if we don't clean them up, the game will become even more chaotic." "It's good." Old Master Li said; "After pacifying the southern underworld, your next step is to go north, say hello to old man Yan for me then, alas! I'm getting old, otherwise I'd really like to go around, meet some old friends and play chess." "If there is a chance, I will bring these words to you, old master." Ye Han said calmly, for that old man who cared for him in secret, Ye Han hadn't thought of how to face him yet. Early the next morning, Ye Han left Xiangjiang by plane, Leng Wufei and the others had already returned to the mainland first. At the airport, Li Xinran looked at the airliner that lifted off, wearing sunglasses, she slowly said; "Man, Xiangjiang has me here, the rivers and mountains you have fought for will not be lost, you said that I am its master."

At the airport in Shanghai City, the airliner slowly landed from mid-air, outside the airport, the two women eyed the landing airliner, their beautiful eyes had a burst of expectation, Ye Han had gone to Xiangjiang after not staying in Shanghai City for a few days since he came back from the dead, this trip was half a month. "Zi Han, Ni Shang is already pregnant with this bad guy's child, are you looking forward to it?" Outside the airport, Zhou Yun'er looked at Yan Zihan and asked, now Huang Nishang came to Shanghai City and was checked out to be pregnant, which made the group all up in arms, not only did the people of the compulsion master care for her, hush and warmth, Yan Qingmu was with her all day, afraid that she would bump and touch, and also personally cooked soup to give Huang Nishang tonic. It would be a lie to say that Zhou Yun'er and the girls were not envious of this, but more importantly, this was Ye Han's first child and would also be Ye Han's eldest son in the future, which was of great significance. "Yun'er, what about you, are you looking forward to it?" Yan Zihan asked rhetorically, naturally she was also looking forward to conceiving Ye Han's child, this thought, she was stronger than anyone else, because she was already twenty-eight years old, in two years it would be thirty, this age she should also have her own child, but naive, since coming to Shanghai City, Ye Han had never touched her. The company's business is still in need of me to preside over the big picture, and if I get pregnant with this bad guy's child at this time, he will inevitably give me a break and not let me get involved in the business world again. Now all aspects is the start-up stage, this can not be less I to control the big picture, Zihan, in fact, you can, this bad man in many times is not willing to force, if you put aside your reserve to take the initiative a little, maybe a few months later your belly will be like Neishang." Hearing Zhou Yun'er's words, Yan Zihan's face suddenly turned red, but Zhou Yun'er's words were also like opening a door for her, making her whole heart pound, perhaps, she could really give it a try like this. Because she was looking forward to having a child of her own, a lover, a child, and if there was a wedding in the future, then her life would be perfect. A few moments later, inside the airport, passengers walked out one after another with their luggage. Zhou Yun'er and Yan Zihan saw Ye Han, who looked a bit cranky in the crowd, at a glance outside, and the unique aura on him was very familiar to them. Seeing this, Zhou Yun'er and Yan Zihan walked over, and Ye Han naturally saw the two of them, then stretched out his hands and held the two beautiful women together in his arms amidst the envy of the surrounding crowd. "Why have you two come over?" Ye Han looked at Zhou Yun'er and Yan Zihan and said as he stroked their wind-blown hair. Zhou Yun'er said; "What, you're still not happy to come all the way here to pick you up?" "Not at all." Ye Han smiled, took the two of them by the hand and said; "Let's go, go back, I heard that you have become mothers, I really want to go back soon to see if that little one is well behaved in Ni Shang's tummy." "Hmph, who's the first and who's the second mother in this?" Zhou Yun'er hummed softly and said sourly. "Hehehe, it's all the same, no matter how big or small." Ye Han grinned and said; "If it's easy for you guys to be mothers too, how about we have a big quilt and sleep together at night?" "Fuck you." "Good thinking." Zhou Yun'er and Yan Zihan both gave Ye Han a blank look in unison. "If the idea isn't beautiful, how would one go about achieving this goal anymore?" Ye Han shrugged, then the three of them got into the car together, Zhou Yun'er drove, Ye Han and Yan Zihan sat in the back seat, Ye Han said; "Zihan, is your little aunt still in Shanghai City?" At that, Yan Zihan was a bit speechless, what do you call her sister-in-law? That is clearly your mother, okay? "Still here, since Ni Shang came to Shanghai City, sister-in-law has been with her every day." Yan Zihan glanced at Ye Han, hesitated and said; "Ye Han, in fact, Little Aunt she really wants to make up for what happened back then, why don't you give her a chance?" Hearing these words, Ye Han's heart sighed, this matter, he hadn't made a full decision yet, after his heart had completely quieted down perhaps he could consider this one thing. Seeing that Ye Han was being silent, Yan Zihan opened her mouth, but in the end she didn't say anything, she had the intention to help Yan Qingmu, but naive Ye Han didn't want to talk about this one thing at all. Half an hour later, the car had arrived at the mountain villa above Phoenix Mountain, this place, already considered Ye Han's private quarters, Lin Baimo had given this place to Ye Han, anyway, the Lin family rarely used this place, Ye Han now has a large family, if continue to live in Shanghai City Hai Sha Villa area is simply not enough. The companions are still defending the entire mountain villa, during this period of time, the experts from the stick country as well as Little Japan have come to the south, for them, one has to be on guard. When the car stopped inside the mountain villa, several women also came out from inside the villa of the mountain villa, and the first one who pounced towards Ye Han was a little girl whose body was already in the process of development. "Brother, Qingcheng has missed you to death!" Before this girl could run to Ye Han's body, she had already pounced in the air and finally landed firmly on Ye Han's body, her whole body wrapped around him as if she was an octopus. "Well, you girl don't pay attention to your image, girls should be more ladylike, otherwise how can you get married in the future." Ye Han shook his head speechlessly and put this girl down. "Hmph, stinky brother, I will be your man in life and your ghost in death." Little Qingcheng hummed lightly and said with an unhappy face, hearing this, Zhou Yun'er and the girls all laughed, Ye Han didn't bother to pay attention to this little human girl, his gaze was already looking at a woman with a slightly arched baby belly, beside her stood Yan Qingmu and Zhao Youyou. Ye Han walked over, touched Huang Nishang's cheek and said in a soft voice; "Nishang, I'm back, come, let me listen to our son first." Seeing this, Yan Qing Mu, who originally wanted to call out for her son, chose not to speak, her face had a burst of depression, because Ye Han had not looked at her since he came back, let alone calling her mother. Ye Han squatted down, his ear pressed to the top of Huang Nishang's slightly arched belly, listening intently, this close contact, Ye Han he could feel that inside Huang Nishang's body, there was a beating little life, this little life might have sensed that its future father was prying, and very mischievously kicked Huang Nishang. "You bastard, the moment you come back your son bullies me." Huang Nishang's face was filled with a happy smile that made Zhou Yun'er and the girls envious, being pregnant with Ye Han's child made her feel like her life had become different from before, in the future, she would no longer be the quirky little princess of the compulsion master, but the mother of a child.
