Fortune Chapter 6

“Hey, don’t be complacent, whether the blue and white porcelain you bought for 3,000 yuan is real or not is still up in the air.” Seeing Ye Han’s unperturbed look Zhou Yun’er was slightly offended and opened her mouth to crack down, this teenager was only about 18 or 19 years old, even if her eyesight was better than hers, but appreciating antiques was not a matter of having enough eyesight, even good eyesight had its moments.

“Really? How about we take a bet?” Ye Han smiled lightly, although he did not know much about antiques, he believed in his eyesight, it was his biggest cheat. Zhou Yun’er was happy to hear this, she smiled down towards Ye Han and said; “Sure, if the blue and white porcelain in your hand is real, how much do you sell it for, I’ll give you double the price in addition.”

Ye Han smiled; “It’s a deal.”

Zhou Yun’er looked at Ye Han and said again; “But what if you lose?”

At these words, Ye Han was a bit speechless for a while, because he knew he wouldn’t lose, but what if he lost?

“Then what do you want?” Ye Han looked at Zhou Yun’er and asked, his gaze as calm as water.

“If you lose then you have to work beside me, but it’s the kind without pay, do you dare to agree?” The corners of Zhou Yun’er’s eyes picked at Ye Han with a smile on her face, Ye Han’s eyesight was very good, which Zhou Yun’er really admired, if Ye Han could work for her with Ye Han’s eyesight, coupled with her own strength, it would definitely bring huge gains.

“Okay, I promise.” Ye Han nodded, he would not lose this bet anyway.

As the two spoke, the old man had already looked over the blue and white porcelain, at which point he handed it back to Ye Han and said; “Little brother, I am 60% certain for the time being that this blue and white porcelain should be an authentic piece from the Yongle period, and if my guess is correct, the initial estimate is that its value should not be lower than one million.”

“Sixty percent certain.” When Zhou Yun’er heard the old man’s words, her eyebrows furrowed, 60% certainty was already very high, people who played with antiques usually dared to start with only 40% certainty, not to mention 60%, was this kid’s luck really that good?

Ye Han laughed and said, “With your kind words, if it can really sell for a million, I have picked up a great bargain today.” After saying this, Ye Han even looked at Zhou Yun’er as if provocatively.

When he saw this, Zhou Yun’er puffed up his cheeks and said, “Grandpa, there are times when you have a problem with your eyes, I don’t think the blue and white porcelain in his hand is necessarily the real thing, not far ahead is Mingyue Xuan, why don’t we go there and have someone look at it?”

“That’s fine.” The old man stroked his beard and looked at Ye Han and smiled; “Young man, Mingyue Xuan has a special appraiser, if the blue and white porcelain in your hand is genuine Mingyue Xuan will definitely give you a fair price, do you want to go there and have a look?”

“Naturally, this young lady and I can have a bet that hasn’t been fulfilled yet.” Ye Han skimmed Zhou Yun’er and smiled indifferently, the old man also smiled not bothering about the bet between the two, and then the three of them walked together towards Mingyue Xuan, Mingyue Xuan was quite famous in the antique street of Shanghai City, many customers who played with antiques were regular customers of Mingyue Xuan, very authoritative.

In the process of going to Mingyue Xuan Ye Han also learned the old man’s name, this old man was called Zhou Mingshan and the woman was called Zhou Yun’er, as for the rest Ye Han did not know, not long after, the three arrived at the door of a shop with a low-profile appearance but gorgeous inside, above the door of the shop hung a wooden plaque with the three big words ‘Mingyue Xuan’.

“Oh, Elder Zhou, what brings you here, come on, please come inside.”

The three of them had just arrived at the door of Mingyue Xuan when a young man of twenty-seven or eighteen came out from inside, he smiled towards the three of them and made a gesture of invitation, while smiling at Zhou Yun’er; “Sister Yun’er, long time no see, please come inside.”

Zhou Mingshan laughed; “Lin kid, can’t I come and sit here often in your place, old man? By the way, it’s been a while since I’ve seen your old man, is he well?”

Hearing this, Lin Baimo shook his head and sighed; “On behalf of the old man, I would like to thank Elder Zhou for thinking of me, but my father’s old problem has returned recently and he has been recuperating at the Biquan Villa recently.”

“All gone to the Biquan Villa.” Zhou Mingshan frowned and said; “It seems that your old man has been quite ill this time, sigh! I’m half in the ground like your old man, let’s leave the rest of our lives to fate.”

Lin Baimo let out a bitter smile, if his own old man really collapsed, the huge Lin family would only be facing a scattering crisis!

“By the way, Elder Zhou, this little brother is?” Only then did Lin Baimo notice Ye Han, a new face, and asked rather puzzled. Zhou Mingshan smiled; “This little brother has a good object from the Ming Dynasty in his hands, let me give you a look to see if it is genuine or not.”

“Oh, since you’ve said so, Old Man Zhou, then I’ll have a good look.” Lin Baimo led the three of them into the door and took them to a rest room, after making tea for them he looked at Ye Han and smiled; “Little brother, since you were brought here by Elder Zhou, let’s not beat around the bush, if the item in your hands is genuine, I will definitely give you a fair price for it, if not we will absolutely return the original item, we won’t do anything wrong, this is the rule of our Mingyue Xuan. ”

Ye Han smiled; “Then I’ll trouble Brother Lin.”

He said, Ye Han handed the blue and white porcelain in his hand to Lin Baimo, after Lin Baimo said excuse me he walked out with the blue and white porcelain, he should be looking for someone to appraise it, only three people were left in the rest room quietly drinking tea, drinking tea is also a discipline, there are a lot of precautions, but Ye Han was not so prescriptive, just now outside in the big sun strolled most of the day, he was long thirsty, in one breath gurgled even three cups, put Zhou Yun’er stared straight at him.

“Why is this stuff so bitter, it’s not as good as mineral water.” Ye Han pursed his lips and placed the tea set on the table, no longer able to raise his interest in the expensive tea in front of him.

“Tyrannical!” Zhou Yun’er skimmed at Ye Han and said rather disdainfully, knowing that what this guy was just drinking was a superb Big Red Robe, which was hard to see outside, and was actually being cow-drunk by this guy as if it was mineral water.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

In such a wait, half an hour passed, and Ye Han, who was bored, inadvertently used his yin and yang eyes to take a look at Zhou Yun’er. If you don’t look, you won’t know. Although this woman was a bit repulsive, her figure was really good.

This woman is also a very beautiful beauty, the skin is like a baby, watery and tender, which Ye Han just forgot to carefully observe.

Ye Han shifted his eyes and took a look at Zhou Mingshan’s body. He had felt that there was something wrong with the old man’s body since he saw him just now, and now that he looked at him, it was true that the old man’s heart had problems, many of its functions were failing, and the frequency of his heart beat was very weak.

At this moment, the door of the rest room was opened from outside, and Lin Baimo walked in with a smile on his face, holding the blue and white porcelain bought by Ye Han in his hand, and placed it on the coffee table, saying; “Old man Zhou, your eyes are getting more and more discerning. If this little brother is interested in selling it, we at Mingyue Xuan are willing to buy it for one million dollars.”
