

Fortune Chapter 601

The two kimono-clad Japanese warriors were not weak, they were already top ninja masters and belonged to the ranks of first-class masters, but they were still kicked by Ye Han and fell down in the lobby of the hotel in a great mess.

Looking at the two top ninjas being kicked straight in, inside the lobby, a cold look flashed across the face of a middle-aged man with a white face. At that moment, more than ten Japanese samurai dressed in kimonos came to the front of the hotel's main door and stared at Ye Han and the others outside the door.

"Baka, are you looking for death?"

"Shut up if you can't speak Chinese, why do I feel that our language has become tasteless when it comes to your Japanese mouths?" Under the gaze of one eye inside the hotel lobby, Ye Han and the others slowly walked inside the hotel.

"Who is the manager here? We want to eat, why are we still being blocked by a group of little Japanese, does this hotel of yours belong to a little Japanese family?" Ye Han's gaze swept and immediately landed on a man in a suit in the corner of the lobby, this man looked a bit frightened and uneasy, after hearing Ye Han's words, he immediately jogged over and said; "Gentlemen, today our hotel has already been packed, I can't help you if you want to dine, why don't you come back tomorrow? I'll treat you all, and all your expenses will be free."

Now, the hotel manager only wanted to make a big deal out of a small one, the Japanese were not simple, and with his eyesight, he could naturally see that Ye Han and the others were also not simple, and he could not afford to offend either of them.

"The expenses are all free, do you think we can't even afford to pay you for this meal?" Ye Han said indifferently; "You opened your door for business, and when the guests came, you even told them to leave, what kind of reason is that? Is it possible that Japanese business is done and national business cannot be done?"

At these words, the hotel manager was at a loss for words, customers have no borders, money to pay for expenses is God, but, there must be a first come first served, right?

"I guess this is Mr. Ye?" At this time, the middle-aged man with a white face looked at Ye Han and asked indifferently.

Hearing those words, that hotel manager's body instantly trembled, a look of panic flashed in his eyes, Mr. Ye, how many people in the south would not know his name right now, that was the most powerful person in the south right now, vaguely trending to become the hegemon of the southern underground world.

At these words, Ye Han turned around and looked at the middle-aged man, narrowing his eyes and smiling; "What did you call me for? Do you Japanese want to take care of me even if I come here for a meal? If that's the case, I advise you to take a good look at where you are. This is China, it's not your turn to dictate what you Japanese should do here."

“Baka, arrogant Chinese, your too long for life.” After hearing Ye Han’s words, many Japanese looked at Ye Han with cold eyes, there was already a grudge between them and Ye Han, and now seeing Ye Han being so arrogant, this added fuel to this grudge.

“I’m too long for life?” Ye coldly laughed; “Little Japan, do you know what kind of price you have to pay for saying that? The Southern Underworld is my territory, threatening me in my mu of land, I think you are the ones who think your life is too long, right?”

“No, Mr. Ye, aren’t you exaggerating a bit, as far as I know, the southern part of China is not really unified, right? At least, Mr. Murong of Central China is still the hegemon of the southern underground world.” The middle-aged man with a white face said with a bland expression; “Moreover, if Mr. Ye wants to unify the southern Chinese underground world, the obstacles will only be very great.”

“Hmph, this is none of your Japanese business, our domestic matters are settled behind closed doors, little Japan, China is not a place where you should stay, moreover, it is not a place where you can act recklessly, so, you’d better leave here and don’t make any trouble here, otherwise, whatever happens to the Jin family in the stick country is what will happen to you.” Leng Wufei said with a cold snort.

At these words, the middle-aged man with a white face said; “This must be one of the fierce generals under Mr. Ye, Mr. Leng Wufei of Fast Sword Wufei, Leng Wufei, right, first of all, I would like to state one thing, we are friends with Mr. Ye, we, the Black Dragon Society, have come to South China to look for like-minded friends to do business with, there is no other malicious intent, I think you all will not be so overbearing that you want to drive away anyone who comes to China to do business I don’t think you would be so overbearing as to drive away anyone who comes to China for business, would you?”

“Doing business?” Ye coldly laughed, and then he looked at the several leaders in southern China who were currently lowering their heads and dared not look at him, and continued; “I’m afraid that finding these people to do business is not a business that can be seen, I also have to state that, doing business in China, doing business in the southern underground world, have you asked me Ye Han? Moreover, it seems that you are wrong, Ye Han and I are not friends with your Black Dragon Society, your Black Dragon Society’s expert even died in my hands during the Golden Triangle, do you think we can be friends with each other?”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, an eerie silence spread inside the hotel lobby, the Japanese did not say anything, but the look they gave Ye Han was incomparably cold, the Black Dragon Society had naturally come to China, it was not that simple, killing Ye Han was the aim, but nowadays the situation in the underground world in southern China was unstable and there were endless fights, if the Black Dragon Society took the opportunity to establish their stronghold here, it would be more important than killing Ye Han.

“Oh, Mr. Ye, long time no see, goodbye, I’ve been waiting for Mr. Ye to come to southern China personally, I’ve already considered what Mr. Ye said at the beginning.” At this time, inside the hotel lobby, an old man stood up and said to Ye Han with a smile.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han looked towards him and then smiled; “So it’s Dragon Head Gu, since Dragon Head Gu has thought it over, does he know what to do?”

“Of course.” Leader Gu laughed; “I now declare that the Underground World of Nanhai Province is fully at Mr. Ye’s beck and call, and everything is under Mr. Ye’s control.”

At these words, the faces of several other leaders changed, their hearts were a little apprehensive, Ye Han’s presence here had already made them uncomfortable, and now these words from Leader Gu made them even more overwhelmed, not knowing how to choose, the Japanese’s faces also became even more gloomy at this time, the purpose of their gathering was to enlist these several leaders of the underground world in South China to work for them, if because of Ye Han’s appearance. If this went down the drain because of Ye Han’s appearance, then all their efforts during this period of time would have been in vain.

At this moment, Ye Han looked at the middle-aged man with a white face and said; “You want to seek revenge on me, no need to be so hypocritical, if not, then I’ll give you three days to evacuate China, if not, I’ll have to kick them out myself, remember, you only have three days.”

After saying that, Ye Han turned around and left, Gu Longtou also followed him, since he had already made his attitude clear naturally he could not continue to get involved with the Japanese.

Fortune Chapter 602

Looking at Ye Han’s departure, the Japanese’s faces rolled with murderous intent, Ye Han’s words were clearly giving them an ultimatum, if they did not leave China after three days, then, Ye Han’s meaning was clear, he would definitely make a move against them, to make a move with Ye Han, the Japanese were not afraid, they had come to China originally for this purpose, but, right now, the underground world in southern China had not yet been unified, and there was constant strife, if the Black Dragon Society could establish a stronghold here, then in the future, the Black Dragon Society would have a springboard to invade the underground world in China. If the Black Dragon Society could establish a stronghold here, the Black Dragon Society would have a springboard to invade the underground world of China in the future.

“Inuyasha-kun, it seems that we are bound to have a battle with this Ye Han, the bullying bastard, our Black Dragon Society has not yet formally sought trouble with him, but he himself has threatened us, we cannot just hold our breath, our Black Dragon Society will not be afraid of any enemy.”

Beside the fair-faced middle-aged man, a short man said in a stern voice.

Upon hearing this, Inuyasha Musashi said; “If we don’t provoke this Ye Han, he himself will take the initiative to come to us, it seems we have to implement our second plan, it is necessary to let him know the strength of our Black Dragon Society.”

The short man said; “Inuyasha-kun, I have been waiting for this day for a long time, the death of Mr. Yamamoto Takeo in the Golden Triangle not only brought our Black Dragon Society into disrepute, but also caused us to suffer heavy losses and the wrath of the Emperor, all because of this Ye Han, it is only a matter of time before we meet with him in arms.”

The Japanese are now thinking what, Ye Han do not need to guess all know, under his tight pressure, the Japanese will definitely make a move, this is exactly what Ye Han hope to see, the Japanese have not made a move, in turn, let Ye Han some passive.

“Dragon Head Gu, what is the attitude of the other leaders now?” In the car, Ye Han looked at Dragon Head Gu, who was sitting next to him, and asked.

On hearing this, Dragon Head Gu pondered for a moment and said; “Mr. Ye, it is not that I want to exclude dissidents, to be honest, the other few leaders have always been loyal to Huo Tianzun in the past, and now that you have killed Huo Tianzun, Mr. Ye, these few leaders have quite a lot of grievances in their hearts, but they just dare not speak out in anger, if they were given a choice between Mr. Ye and the Japanese, I think they would most likely choose the latter. ”

“You mean they would me and go against each other?” Ye Liang smiled.

Gu Longtou nodded and said; “Unless you, Mr. Ye, can give them greater benefits, driven by interests, I think they will choose you, Mr. Ye.”

“No need.” Ye Liang said in a cold voice; “I don’t want to force myself on anyone, since they are unwilling and choose to defect to the Japanese as traitors, then don’t blame me for being ruthless, Gu Longtou, you will take care of this part of South China in the future.”

At those words, Gu Longtou’s heart jumped and he froze for a few seconds before reacting and said; “Thank you, Mr. Ye, please don’t worry, I know what to do, I definitely won’t let you down.”

“That’s best.” Ye Han nodded lightly.

After returning to their place of residence, Silly Ben and Lin Qi left, the two of them took the Heavenly Dragon Guards to the provinces of South China, Ye Han had already decided to launch a cleansing operation for the major leaders in South China, there was no need to keep these people and let them stir up trouble with the Japanese if they did not submit, although these people were not enough to worry about, but those who should be eliminated, Ye Han would not keep them, Ye Han’s heart, now was so iron-blooded, chopping the grass to These people may not seem to be in danger now, but no one can say what will happen in the future.

In a short span of one day, the underground world in South China was a bloody place. Under the killing of Foolish Ben and Lin Qi, a total of five leaders’ forces in South China, except for Gu’s, were found to be cleansed, and all their people were destroyed.

Of course, all these things happened in secret, ordinary people simply do not know that in just one day hundreds of people have been killed in South China, among them there are old people and even children.

“Lords essence, fortunately I reacted quickly, otherwise, I am afraid that I would have followed several other dragon heads to report to the netherworld now.” In the South China Sea Province, a look of appreciation and gratitude flashed across the face of Dragon Head Gu, he agreed with Ye Han’s approach, since he was involved in the underground world he could not be merciful, treating his enemies with mercy was to be cruel to himself, everyone understood this truth.

Of course, Gu Longtou was also very fortunate that he had reacted in time and stood on Ye Han's side, otherwise, he would not still be sitting at home drinking tea in peace now.

For these matters, Ye Han did not bother to ask, the current him was not the benevolent Ye Han of the past, for his enemies, his guideline now was to eliminate the grass, would not leave any hope of survival for his enemies, even if there were innocent people in this, he would be ruthless, would rather kill the wrong than let go.

But just when the underground world in South China was almost cleansed and Ye Han was waiting for the Japanese to make their move, a woman came to the place where Ye Han was temporarily staying.

Looking at the woman who walked in from outside, Ye Han looked at her carefully for a few moments before he recognised who she was.

"Ye Han, it's been a long time!" The woman looked at Ye Han who was sitting inside the living room and sizing her up, her expression looked a little rushed, but after a deep breath she still sat down opposite Ye Han.

"So it's Miss Cao, it's indeed been a long time since I've seen you." Ye Han smiled lightly, this woman had once met Ye Han, Ye Han had also raced with her in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, this woman was called Cao Ying, when she was in Jiangsu and Zhejiang she was called big sister by the rich children of the East Canton Province.

"Ye Han, can I talk to you alone for a moment?" Cao Ying looked at Leng Wufei and the others who were also sitting here, and she said with a desire to speak.

At these words, Leng Wufei and the others stood up and laughed; "Little Han, take your time and talk."

After saying this, Leng Wufei and the others walked out, the woman who had come to find Ye Han, Leng Wufei and the others naturally thought that she was related to Ye Han, maybe she was also one of Ye Han's women, they had to talk about something private, it was naturally inconvenient with outsiders around, so after Cao Ying said this, Leng Wufei and the others left very sensibly, leaving the two of them a lot of private space.

Seeing that Leng Wufei and the others had left, Ye Han looked at Cao Ying and said; "Miss Cao, now that no one is around, what do you have to say?"

Cao Ying let out a deep breath as she stared at Ye Han and said; "Ye Han, I want to ask you to spare someone, that person is my father."

Fortune Chapter 603

Inside the living room, when Ye Han heard these words from Cao Ying, his brow furrowed, Cao Ying's father?

Ye Han said; "Miss Cao, I wonder if your father is?"

"His name is Cao Xiang, one of the leaders of the underground world in South China, last night, you had already destroyed all the people under his hands, but I would like to ask you to let him go, I promise you, my father will never go against you again in the future." Looking at Ye Han, Cao Ying said as she bit her own shell teeth.

For Ye Han, Cao Ying knew him better, there was actually no one who could fit into this circle who didn't know Ye Han, nowadays, Ye Han was no longer the one who raced with a group of their rich kids and went to play with his life to earn some wife's money, his status and aura could not be compared to a mere rich kid.

Nowadays, those who could speak to Ye Han were all big names who had shaken the world.

Therefore, it took a lot of courage for Cao Ying to come to see Ye Han today. At first, she thought that Ye Han would not see her, but Ye Han eventually met her and gave her the opportunity to speak.

Hearing Cao Ying's words, Ye Han's brow furrowed, there was indeed a leader in the South China underground world called Cao Xiang, but Ye Han did not know that this Cao Xiang was Cao Ying's father, now Cao Ying begged him, this made Ye Han a bit surprised, also a bit difficult, in fact, let Cao Xiang go is just a matter of his words, but if today let Cao Xiang go, in the future, people who are related to him also come to beg him to let his enemies go, this continues to be This was not possible.

Seeing Ye Han in silence, Cao Ying gritted her teeth and said; "Ye Han, I know this makes it a bit difficult for you, so I can give everything, whether it's money or my people ....."

After saying that, Cao Ying sat opposite Ye Han and gritted her teeth, slowly taking off her jacket with her eyes closed, she was wearing a black jumper underneath, but Ye Han could tell that apart from this jumper, Cao Ying was not wearing anything underneath, which meant that she had sat ready for certain things before she came, including offering her own body.

Looking at Cao Ying who was already taking off her second piece of clothing, Ye Han grabbed her hand and said with a sigh; "Miss Cao, you don't need to be like that, moreover, I, Ye Han, am not the kind of person you think I am."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Cao Ying smiled sadly and said; "In that case, I have nothing else to move you, so, you won't let my father go either, will you?"

At that, Ye Han said; "This is how it is in the underground world, if I don't kill my enemies, it will be fatal if they bite me back later, it's not my intention to be ruthless, but I have to do it, all for the sake of better survival do you understand?"

"What do I have to do before you will let my father and my family go?" Cao Ying said indifferently.

Ye Han said; "Although we are not considered good friends, we have met on one side, moreover, I also admire you, being able to make a group of rich children in Dongguang Province address you as Big Sister, it can be seen that your ability is extraordinary, since you have begged me, Cao Xiang, I can promise you to let him go."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Cao Ying's face was pleased as she said; "Really, you are really willing to let my father go?"

Ye Han smiled; "Since you have begged me, it would be too cold and heartless if I didn't let him off the hook, but I am not without conditions."

“You say it, I’ll agree to whatever conditions you want, including myself.” Cao Ying said this without thinking, this was the truest thought in her heart anyway, when she came to see Ye Han, she was ready to give everything.

Ye Han shook his head with a smile and said; “My condition is not difficult for you, since you can make a group of rich children in Dong Guang Province bow down to you, you must have a wide network of connections, I want to make this network of people in Dong Guang Province pull in to join the Tian Long Clubhouse, I wonder if you can do this?”

“Tian Long Clubhouse, is it the Tian Long Clubhouse established by Xu Qing in Jiangsu and Zhejiang?” Cao Ying asked.

“Not bad.” Ye Han nodded and said; “The Tian Long Clubhouse is my industry, when Murong Tiandu established the Southern Business Alliance within the business world, enlisting most of the southern connections, and my Tian Long Clubhouse is the same in nature, absorbing the southern connections into the Tian Long Clubhouse.”

Hearing these words, although Cao Ying was glad that Ye Han had promised to spare her father, there was a trace of disappointment in her eyes, Ye Han was willing to want the connections in the East Canton Province rather than her as a person, which proved that she did not have any attraction to Ye Han at all.

Now in the south, which rich girl, famous nobleman or star does not want to get involved with this man who is so powerful in the south right now, or even be willing to work for him, but they simply cannot get in touch with Ye Han, Cao Ying, in fact, also has this idea, and now she presents this idea in front of Ye Han bluntly, but is rejected without words and mercilessly.

Cao Ying let out a deep breath as she looked at Ye Han and said; “Thank you for sparing my father, I promise you the conditions you mentioned, the contacts in Dong Guang Province are not a problem for me, but, can I make a small request?”

At those words, Ye Han was a little upset in his heart, he had already promised Cao Ying to spare her father, but Cao Ying was even thinking of making a request, this was a little too much.

“Tell me what you want, I’ll try my best to grant you what I can.” Ye Han lit up a cigarette and said indifferently.

“I want to join the Heavenly Dragon Club.” Cao Ying looked at Ye Han and said.

At that, Ye Han smiled dumbly and said; “Just this request?”

“Just this request.” Cao Ying said; “Business clubs of a nature similar to running the Tian Long Clubhouse are my forte, so I want to join in.”

Ye Han smiled; “Good, I promise you, anyway, you still have to unblock the connections on this side of Dongguang Province, as for the other matters when the time comes, you and Xu Qing will discuss it yourself, I will greet him on his side.”

“Thanks.” Cao Ying said joyfully, although she could not have further relationship with Ye Han, but she was satisfied to be able to stand by his side, there would be a long time to come.

Just after Ye Han and Cao Ying had finished talking, Leng Wufei walked in after knocking on the door, Ye Han found a cold smile on his face.

“Sir, is there something going on?” Ye Han asked.

Leng Wufei said; “Something has indeed happened, but I think this is exactly what you would like to see, Murong Hetu has come to South China with the Murong Family’s Death God, he and the Japanese have already met secretly.”

At this, Ye coldly smiled; “This is indeed what I would like to see, I had wanted to get rid of the Japanese before tackling him, since he is anxious to come to his death, then let’s make him whole, this side of South China, will be Murong Hetu’s Jedi!”

Fortune Chapter 604

Leng Wufei said; “Murong Hetu is now stirring with the Japanese, it seems he has sensed that our next move is him, he can’t deal with us by himself, so he chose to join forces with the Japanese.”

Ye coldly laughed; “Murong Hetu’s move is destined to be useless, that group of Japanese I don’t even put in my eyes, right now it’s the same if Murong Hetu Mu joins in, it will only speed up his own time of death.”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Cao Ying sat aside and did not say anything, the killing in the underground world was not something she should go into, this man was ambitious, his ambition was in the southern underground world, perhaps, after this battle in South China, the southern underground world would be completely in his pocket.

Ye Han said; “Sir, where are Murong Hetu and the Japanese now? It’s time for our side to go and have a good encounter with them.”

Leng Wufei smiled; “According to the news from the Heavenly Dragon Guard, perhaps they will find them without us going to them ourselves, I think we can just wait for them here without fear.”

“That’s very good.” Ye Han smiled; “Sir, withdraw all the people outside and we will wait for them here.”

After saying this, Ye Han looked at Cao Ying and said; “Cao Ying, you go first, and take a message to your father for me; mole crickets regret the tree, that is undoubtedly asking for death, as you are old, you can just peacefully nurture your flowers and enjoy your old age in the future, since you have withdrawn, don’t step in here.”

Cao Ying nodded and said; “I will take your words with me, and I can also assure you that my father will definitely not be meddling in the affairs of the underground world.”

“I trust you.”

Watching Cao Ying leave, Leng Wufei said oddly; “This girl is not your woman?”

“Sir, you’re thinking too much.” Ye Han lost his smile and shook his head; “She is the daughter of Cao Xiang of the South China Underworld, she once met me on one side.”

Leng Wufei nodded and laughed; “So that’s how it is, it seems that even you, a hero, have trouble with beauty!”

“The next time will not be an example.” Ye Han said; “It was already a mistake to let Cao Xiang go, this wind should not be allowed to grow.”

Leng Wufei said; “It’s good that you understand, you can’t be merciful in the underground world.”

The Heavenly Dragon Guards who were watching the Japanese outside had all withdrawn, at the place where Ye Han was temporarily staying, everyone was waiting for Murong Hetu and the Japanese to arrive, under Ye Han’s frequent movements and that invisible pressure, Murong Hetu, the overlord, could not sit still after all, if he did not take the initiative, when Ye Han came to his door, his chances would be even smaller, joining forces with the Japanese was the only way Murong Hetu could think of.

It was during this quiet wait of Ye Han and the others that Murong Hetu and the Japanese made their move.

Murong Hetu had brought all the Death Generals, thirteen in total, all of them were experts who had broken through the Rendu realm, and on the Japanese side, twelve upper ninja and three heavenly ninja experts, this force was powerful, but would the present day Ye Han be afraid of them?

Inside the villa, Ye Han and the others’ eyes looked outside in unison, the air spread over with that invisible oppressive force that anyone could feel, the Heavenly Dragon Guards had appeared the moment Murong Hetu and the Japanese appeared they had already appeared, blocking the front.

“Mr. Ye, we’re here, are you planning to cower inside and not come out to meet?” Inoue Musashi’s voice carried through the air, permeating every corner.

“Someone has come to die, how can I not see them one last time.” Ye Han and the others slowly walked out from inside the villa, in front of them, a terrifying aura was released in the air, the death generals, twelve upper ninjas, three heavenly ninjas, plus Murong Hetu, this aura stirred up the storm clouds, that invisible oppressive power was suffocating.

No one present dared to underestimate Murong Hetu, the Southern Overlord, except for Ye Han, whose might was vivid in the battle at Murong Villa.

“Is it coming to die, Mr. Ye this conclusion is a little too early, perhaps, it is possible that we have come to give Mr. Ye a ride, Mr. Murong, what do you think?” Inuyasha Musashi glanced at Murong Hetu, who was standing next to him, and said this.

At these words, a cold light flashed in Murong Hetu’s eyes and said; “Leave Ye Han to me, the rest of you will deal with them yourselves, whether you succeed or fail will depend on this battle tonight.”

“Good, just like Mr. Murong, he is handed over to you, the rest of us, the Black Dragon Society, will definitely send them to hell.” Inuyasha slowly drew the katana in his hand and clutched it with both hands, Inuyasha was a Tenjutsu, his strength was equivalent to that of a middle Renju expert, and twelve Shangjutsu were equivalent to twelve junior Renju.

Seeing this, Ye Han looked at Murong Hetu and sneered; "Murong Hetu, so eager to come to die, I wanted to let you live for a few more days, but it seems that you are the one who is impatient to live."

At these words, a cruel look flashed across Murong He Tu's face as he said; "Ye Han, I have missed too many opportunities to kill you, but this time I will definitely not miss them again, if you don't die, my Murong family will have no place in the south, killing you, even if the madman seeks revenge on me, then it will be worth it for me."

Ye Han said; "Murong Hetu, whether you can kill me tonight or not, your Murong family will have no place in the south."

After saying that, Ye Han stared at Murong Hetu and strolled out, the Dragon Scale Dagger magically appeared in his hand at this moment, the two of them faced each other, their killing intent and battle intent were endless, the terrifying aura made people from both sides stare at their opponents.

The three Chen brothers and Leng Wufei faced the three heavenly ninjas, Inuyasha Musashi, while Sun Buwei, Zhou Lie, Foolish Ben and Lin Qi had already shot towards the Death God General and the twelve upper ninjas with their Heavenly Dragon Guards, although in terms of numbers, the Death God General and the twelve upper ninjas had the upper hand, but, in terms of combat power, not so much.

On both sides, the sound of battle had already been struck, a terrifying clash low as if thunder rolled, swords and shadows flashed in the night sky, cold and piercing.

Ye Han and Murong Hetu were facing each other, Murong Hetu, who was holding the Overlord Gun, shouted out fiercely at this moment, he leapt, the Overlord Gun slashed down with force, the terrifying power was released down, Murong Hetu was like a magnificent god of war.

Seeing this, Ye Han's expression remained unchanged as his silhouette flashed and the Dragon Scale Dagger waved a dazzling silver light in the air, the next moment, the clash of weapons, a terrifying force scattered in all directions, sweeping in all directions like a gale.

Fortune Chapter 605

Beneath the night sky, sabre light and sword shadows flashed, human shadows streaked across the sky, the killing that belonged to men was being staged, soldier against soldier, general against general, the terrifying clash sounded like thunder, the flashing sabre light and sword shadows seemed like lightning.

In the night sky, after the terrifying clash between the Dragon Scale Dagger in Ye Han's hand and Murong Hetu's Overlord Gun, the commotion, too powerful, the force swept in all directions, destroying everything mercilessly, the whole villa, was becoming shaky.

However, after clashing with Murong Hetu, what was shocking was that Ye Han's body did not move at all, the battle intent in his black eyes illuminated by the sword light was endless, Murong Hetu's expression was frozen, after Ye Han came back from the dead, his strength had become so powerful?

Knowing that Murong Hetu was already a super expert of the late middle Rendu realm, but Ye Han directly fought him hard, yet he did not let go in the slightest. After thinking of this, Murong Hetu bellowed, his entire body spun madly in the void, and that dancing Overlord Spear shook the entire space.

“Three Strikes of Heaven and Earth!”

Looking at Ye Han who was standing in the void, Murong Hetu did not choose to be conservative and unleashed his most powerful stance.

“First Strike!”

Murong Hetu’s first strike had already arrived, the Hegemon was like a stunning thunderbolt descending from the sky, the Hegemon swung out, a fierce wind raged, a terrifying strangling force directly attacked and killed Ye Han’s body, there was a powerful strangling force in the void, nothing could be broken.

Looking at Murong Hetu’s spear killing, Ye Han laughed coldly; “Murong Hetu, in the past, you were the one who oppressed me, today I will let you feel what despair means, I will let you have three moves first.”

After saying that, Ye Han just met it with a slash, simply resisting and not attacking.

Boom!

That strike from Murong Hetu fell, it was truly terrifying to the extreme, and after Ye Han blocked his move, the emptiness around him trembled, as if this strike from Murong Hetu could cause the heavens to collapse and shatter everything.

However, in the void, Ye Han looked indifferent, standing with his hands behind his back and holding his sword with one hand, Murong Hetu’s Overlord Spear then landed on his sword, unable to take another step forward, seeing this, the look of shock on Murong Hetu’s face intensified, as he clutched his Overlord Spear with both hands and once again shouted; “Second strike.”

As his voice fell, the attack followed, Murong Hetu’s second strike once again landed on top of Ye Han’s Dragon Scale Dagger, the clashing sound that erupted was deafening, like thunder rolling, the commotion caused the people in the surrounding battle to look over, seeing that Ye Han could actually block the attack of Murong Hetu, the Southern Overlord, the faces of the Japanese people all showed a look of shock, from the information they had obtained, Ye Han was not so powerful.

But at this moment, Ye Han was able to fight hard against Murong He Tu without losing ground.

Not only were the Japanese people shocked, even Leng Wufei and Chen Tianxing and the others had astonished looks on their faces. They originally thought that if Ye Han wanted to clash with Murong He Tu, he would only be able to do so if he used the Vermillion Bird Sacred Fire.

Ye Han did not tell anyone around him about the strange encounter he had gained inside the cave and his strength had increased by a realm in just half a day.

“Murong Hetu, how does it feel?” Looking at the wildly changing look on Murong Hetu’s face, Ye Liang laughed; “I said that I would make you feel desperate today, and now, you still have one last chance to make a move.”

“Impossible, how can your strength become so strong?”

The strength that Ye Han was showing now was too shocking, originally Murong Hetu thought that coming to South China to kill Ye Han would at most be a little tricky, and ultimately Ye Han would still die by his hand.

However, the current situation was beyond Murong Hetu's expectation. With his power, he could not inflict any damage to Ye Han twice in a row, but the former was dealing with it easily and without any pressure against him.

Ye Han said indifferently; "Murong Hetu, there is nothing impossible in this world, thirty years in the east, thirty years in the west, when you could oppress me, and now, why can't I oppress you? Tonight, you still have one last chance to strike."

At these words, Murong Hetu's face had a crazed and fierce look being released, his hands gripped the Overlord Spear to death, a terrifying aura was released endlessly from his body, if he could not kill Ye Han tonight, then the end that awaited him was to be killed by Ye Han.

"Third Strike!"

Beneath the night sky, Murong Hetu roared up to the sky, his black body was like black lightning, his overlord spear pierced through the void, going forward, that terrifying speed and power combined with each other, all rubbing out little sparks in the void.

Murong Hetu's Three Strikes of Heaven and Earth were indeed terrifying, and an ordinary Late Intermediate Governor expert would not be able to block such a fierce attack from him, but Ye Han was already a Grand Governor, so would he be afraid of Murong Hetu's Late Intermediate Governor attack?

The next moment, a silver mane flashed in his hand and the Dragon Scale Dagger was raised above his head, waiting for Murong He Tu's attack to come, but at that moment, Murong He Tu, who was originally striking down with force, suddenly changed his stance and the lance in his hand burst towards Ye Han's throat.

"Hmph, don't bother, today you are in my eyes as you looked at me back then, nothing more than an ant." After Ye Han grunted, the Dragon Scale Dagger suddenly appeared in front of him, blocking Murong Hetu's terrifying lance just right, the tip of the Overlord Lance just resting against the blade of the Dragon Scale Dagger, no longer able to advance a single bit.

Seeing this, Murong Hetu's eyes flashed with a look of dense panic, three moves had passed and he was unable to shake Ye Han at all!

"Murong Hetu, three moves have passed, now it's your turn to taste my power."

Saying that, Ye Han strolled out in the void, that seemingly slow pace was as fast as lightning, moving like thunder, a terrifying blade light appeared in the void, that burst of light, stinging people's eyes, as if this night sky, had only been left with Ye Han's blade.

Under the light of the blade, the look of horror on Murong Hetu's face grew stronger and stronger, he could already feel the strong aura of death enveloping him, he had come to South China this time, his end was surprisingly like this, to kill Ye Han, but instead he would die in Ye Han's hands.

At this moment, many pairs of eyes looked over to the dazzling and astonishing blade mane, and under such a gaze, the blade mane fell, and the blinding blade light completely engulfed Murong Hetu!

Fortune Chapter 606

Under the night sky, the astonishing blade fell on top of Murong Hetu's body, completely engulfing him, when the blade went out, Murong Hetu stood calmly in the night sky, his face still holding that panic that had not dissipated, to make Murong Hetu, the southern hegemon, feel panic, imagine how terrifying Ye Han's blade was just now!

Murong Hetu was dead, this hegemon who had dominated the south for decades had died under Ye Han's slash, today when he faced Ye Han again, he was no longer able to suppress Ye Han, instead, he was suppressed by Ye Han to death, a slash directly killed him in seconds, very cleanly settled the battle.

This was a situation that I'm afraid no one had ever imagined before this that the Southern Overlord Murong Hetu would die in battle like this!

Thirty years in the east, thirty years in the west, a new generation changes into an old one, Ye Han, who was previously inferior to Murong Hetu, had now become even more powerful than Murong Hetu, killing him with just one slash!

"Retreat!"

At this time, Inuyasha Musashi's face was ugly, his intelligence was wrong, Ye Han's strength was surprisingly so strong, he could not do anything to kill Ye Han at all, if he didn't leave now, he would have no chance.

In fact, Inuyasha Musashi's information was not wrong, but who let Ye Han just had a strange encounter and his own strength had come to a great surge.

Of course, it was naturally impossible for Inuyasha Musashi to leave tonight.

"A bunch of bullies, don't leave if you're here." After seeing the movements of Inuyasha Musashi and the others, Leng Wufei and the others wrapped themselves around these three people in a deadly manner.

Ye Han's gaze swept across the entire battlefield, and then, the corners of his mouth rose as an icy smile hung on his face; "Go!"

In a flash, a blade light burst out in the night sky, bringing up a gust of wind, the Dragon Scale Dagger flew around in the night sky, like a spinning flywheel, constantly piercing back and forth from among the Death Generals, with each flash of silver light, a life was ended, and after a few breaths, the Death Generals had all died under Ye Han's Royal Spirit Technique.

The godlike killing technique was frightening, one didn't even have to get close, standing a few metres away to obliterate a life, a technique that could only be seen in some fictional movies.

"Retreat, retreat!"

A voice of retreat came out of Inuyasha's mouth, the top ninjas he had brought with him had already died several times, now that Ye Han had his hands free, it would not be a problem to destroy them all.

However, Ye Han would not give them a chance, the Dragon Scale Dagger continued to reap lives in the night sky, the strange and unpredictable blade light flew around the crowd, one by one, the upper ninja also fell to the ground, just in less than a minute's time, Ye Han had already killed more than ten experts without having to make a move.

Under the killing of Ye Han, a super expert, the results of those upper ninja could be imagined, naturally, they were all wiped out, the Heavenly Dragon Guards did not even have the chance to strike, in the end, only three Heavenly Ninja experts who were covered in wounds were left.

Under the attacks of Leng Wufei and the three Chen brothers, these three Heavenly Shinobi were powerful, but with Ye Han sitting beside them they had long since panicked and their moves were riddled with flaws.

"Mr. Ye, please stop here, our Black Dragon Society is willing to withdraw from China and never set foot in the underground world of China." During the battle, Inuyasha Musashi's words came out.

At these words, Ye Liang laughed; "Don't you think it's a little too late to say that? I gave you three days of opportunity, but you yourselves don't know how to cherish it, you had to taste the pain before you would stop, that's how people of your nation are, arrogant and cocky, you won't let go until you're scared."

"Ye Han, do you really want to cross our Black Dragon Society?" Inuyasha Musashi said in a stern voice.

"You're really right, I'll kill one of the Black Dragon Society people I meet in the future, don't waste time, send them on their way and give Murong Hetu a companion on the road to Yellow Springs."

After hearing Ye Han's words, Sun Bumin, Zhou Lie, Foolish Ben, Lin Qi and the Heavenly Dragon Guards rose up in a group and attacked them, roiling attacks enveloping Inuyasha Musashi's trio.

"Ye Han, you will regret it, after we die, the experts from my Black Dragon Society will definitely come to China to exterminate you ....."

For this, Ye Han would not even put his mind on it, so what if the experts of the Black Dragon Society came? The Black Dragon Society is already an irreconcilable enemy between him and the Black Dragon Society, and if they are enemies, they must be eliminated one by one.

With all of them joining forces, the three of them died horribly, with wounds all over their bodies, almost being killed alive.

The battle came to an end and the dust had settled.

The Japanese were dead, and Murong Hetu, the hegemon who had dominated the South for decades, was also dead. After this battle tonight, Ye Han had truly pacified the Southern Underworld, and in the future, there would be no more voices against him in the Southern Underworld.

The position of the hegemon of the Southern Underworld had changed hands, and Ye Han was now the new hegemon of the Southern Underworld.

On the battlefield, Leng Wufei, the Chen brothers and the others looked at the young man who was calmly gazing at the night sky, his aura of dominance emanating from his body, their faces looked a little odd and shocked, Ye Han seemed to have become a little different from before, it was not just his shocking perverted strength, but also the aura on his body.

This aura was the aura belonging to a king, once Murong Hetu had died, Ye Han had become the hegemon of the southern underground world.

Perhaps, it was this that had caused this change in Ye Han's body, since he had become the overlord, he should have the aura that an overlord should have.

"It's over!"

Leng Wufei and the others walked up to Ye Han's side, together they looked up at the night sky, the Southern Underworld, after going through heavy trials and hardships, they had finally pacified, all the way through, the process was not easy, but, they all pulled through, and in the end, they had succeeded!

"Yes! It's over! The Southern Underworld is finally in our hands." Ye Han similarly lamented, only they knew how difficult the journey had been, how many people they had killed they only lost track of, and all for the sake of this rivers and mountains that had been piled up with corpses and bones.

At this moment, the people around Ye Han had the urge to get drunk, they could finally let go of the burden they were carrying for a while, long hours of killing and tight nerves had never been put down, anyone would be tired, at the same time, they also wanted to tell those brothers who had died in battle that they had come step by step and succeeded, only, there were less of them around to witness the success of this day together.

"It's the end and the beginning!"

Ye Han looked up at the night sky, the southern underground world was pacified, but there was still the north, and even abroad, his footsteps would not stop there, as long as he was still alive, he would go on step by step, to create one pinnacle after another.

As long as he is still alive, he will go on step by step to create one pinnacle after another. Now that the southern side is over, the next step is to go to the north to open up the battlefield!

Fortune Chapter 607

The battle in the southern underground world came to an end, and soon, the matter spread like wildfire to the northern and southern underground worlds, and those who were following the south they all knew that the southern underground world had been pacified by that youth.

Murong Hetu, the dominant master who had been dominating the South for decades, had died, so naturally, the one who took his place was Ye Han, the newly promoted dominant master, and this was indisputable.

The northern and southern underground worlds were completely abuzz.

Although it was only a matter of time before the Southern Underworld changed hands, when it came, the sensation was no less than an earthquake.

In the south, those who followed Ye Han were celebrating, how Yao Yaozong and others, Xu Qing and others, Tu Zhenxiong and Xiang Xian of Xiangjiang, they were all celebrating, Ye Han had become the hegemon of the southern underground world, they were naturally following the water up.

“O man, you are the best man in this world, it is a pity that you are not in Xiangjiang now, Xinran cannot accompany you to feel this success, this cup of wine, Xinran toasts you to forget the past and go to the top.” Saying this, Li Xinran, who was standing in front of the window looking in the direction of the mainland, drank the wine in her cup in one go.

“This second cup, Xinran wishes you success in the north and to be the king of the north and south.”

After the second cup of wine was drained, Li Xinran continued to pour a third cup and said; “This third cup of wine, instead of toasting you, I would like to make a wish to the heavens that my man will be free from sickness and disasters, and that all will be well in the event of bad luck!”

Three cups of wine had passed, Li Xinran leaned against the window and looked in the direction of the mainland with fascination, at this moment, she wanted to accompany Ye Han, to feel this success together with him, to watch with him the half of the rivers and mountains he had conquered, it would be a beautiful picture!

In the north, the four forces, the Three Kings and the Wolf, were all shaken.

Ye Han had taken down the southern underground world, as they had expected, but after this, Ye Han would definitely extend his hand inside the northern underground world, Ye Han’s ambition, right now there was no one in the world who did not know, going north, he was bound to do so.

“Soon, soon, this storm is about to come!”

In the northwest, the northwest wolf looked at the sudden gale hanging outside, but his expression looked incomparably calm, the fight in the southern underground world had come to an end, Ye Han’s next step would definitely be the northwest, but knowing was one thing, what Ye Han would do was another, right now, all the northwest wolf could do was to quietly wait for Ye Han to start moving, as long as Ye Han acted, only then would he have a way to break it, Ye Han had not moved. He couldn’t possibly go to the south to fight Ye Han, could he?

“Wolf King, our northwest side has been properly deployed, we are just waiting for this Ye Han to take the initiative to come to our door, with our arrangements over here, Ye Han definitely does not have a chance to extend his legs to our northwest region.” Beside the wolf king, the four wolf king masters, Wind, Fire, Thunder and Lightning, had hostile faces, the northwest was their territory, no one would ever want to take it away, not even that newly promoted overlord in the south at the moment.

At these words, Northwest Wolf’s calm face was suddenly flooded with fury as he said; “We are the first hurdle he wants to conquer, he won’t give up easily, but I, Northwest Wolf, won’t let go easily either, no one will be able to take away the great Northwest that I have single-handedly managed, Wind, Fire, Thunder and Lightning, you guys keep an eye on the major thoroughfares into the Northwest, between us and him, there will be a big collision soon. ”

“Don’t worry, Wolf King, we have our men at all the major roads into the Northwest, as soon as he shows his face, we will know the news.”

In the northeast, the northeast tiger sat on his tiger skin coat and said; "That kid got the south so quickly, it seems that the calm northern underground world is about to see a storm, we also need to be ready at all times, let's first see how this guy, the northwest wolf, will come to deal with this kid."

"King Tiger, I don't think we should watch the fire from across the river, the Northwest cannot be lost, once the Northwest is lost, then Ye Han will have a foothold to confront us in the North, this is not a good start for us." Below, the ghostly servant looked very calm.

"You mean for me to help the Northwest Wolves fend off Ye Han?" The Tiger King said indifferently.

The Ghost Servant said; "My subordinate, however, has this meaning, our northern underworld should be united, although this would inevitably seem to place too much importance on Ye Han, but the people around him cannot allow us not to pay attention to them."

Hearing this, Northeast Tiger said; "Well, this is Northwest Wolf's business, it's not our turn to worry about it, if Madman and Xiao Qingshan don't interfere, just one Ye Han, the northern underground world can't be a place where he can jump around."

At these words, Ghost Servant sighed in his heart, the northern underground world's powerful people were ruling separately and were not united with each other, this would be the northern underground world's fatal weakness, once Ye Han caught these weaknesses, then, it was likely that it would become a big problem.

This point, the ghost servant saw very thoroughly, Ye Han was a master who was good at seizing weaknesses and opportunities, and when going into collision with Ye Han, generally conceited people would not end up well.

The ghost servant was very clever and resourceful, but the northeast tiger was very conceited and not willing to rally around anyone, so he would not listen to the ghost servant's advice at all.

"The great wind is rising and the clouds are flying, it's almost the New Year, the southern underworld has been pacified by you, your next move north to stir up the storm is really something to look forward to, it looks like your second match and mine is not far away!" In Yanjing City, Zhuge Banruo was smiling with great anticipation, also a wise man of unparalleled wisdom and strategy, if they have no opponent, they are very lonely, with an opponent, their life has meaning, anyone would like to meet an evenly matched opponent in the same field.

This is true of Zhuge Binruo, and it is equally true of Ye Han.

While the South Underworld was being watched from all over the North and South, a piece of news that made Ye Han's face look a little ugly reached his ears.

Inside the Murong Villa, the building was already empty.

"It's gone, it seems Murong Hetu had arranged everything before he went to South China, otherwise Murong Tiandu's mother and son wouldn't have run away so quickly." Ye Han said with a sullen face, after killing Murong Hetu, he had Foolish Ben and Lin Qi quickly rush to Murong Villa in Central China to kill Murong Tiandu's mother and son and eliminate the roots.

However, when Foolish Ben and Lin Qi reached Murong Villa, it was already empty and there was not even a single ghost inside.

Leng Wufei said; "As expected of Murong Hetu, surprisingly, he has already made preparations, it seems we have to have a big search in the south, Murong Tiandu mother and son absolutely cannot be allowed to live, although Murong Tiandu has been ruined by you to ruin his dantian, Murong Jiu has also been broken by you to break both legs, but, everything will have unexpected circumstances, only by killing them can these circumstances be eliminated."

Ye Han said; "It is necessary to search for their mother and son, it is hard for my heart to be at peace with Murong Tiandu still being alive."

Fortune Chapter 608

"The matter over in the south can finally be considered to have come to an end!"

Although Ye Han had taken down the southern underground world, Master Yan was looking farther than others and did not dwell on Ye Han's impressive achievement.

Once Ye Han pointed his sword at the northern underground world, what awaited him would be an even greater difficulty for him to break through, the risks involved were much more powerful than in the south.

"Old Master, what are you thinking about?" Behind Old Master Yan, Ke Yanke asked this.

"The North." Elder Yan's eyes were cold and sharp as he said; "The North has been a land of great power since ancient times, and today is no exception, the three kings and one wolf each dominate one side, with countless experts under their hands, and their influence is deeply rooted in the North, the little guy wants to take over the Northern Underworld, that is much more difficult than taking over the South."

At these words, Ke Yanke smiled; "Isn't there still you in the north? Moreover, once that little fellow goes north, he must have made all the preparations, the situation of the northern underground world, I think he should see it very clearly, with his wisdom and talent there is no one other than that girl in the north who can match him."

"That girl." Elder Yan laughed; "Unfortunately for that girl she followed the wrong person, if she followed him and the two of them joined forces, then I'm afraid there would be no difficulties in this world that would be difficult for them."

Zhuge Banruo was a wise strategist, so clever that her one head was enough to outweigh a thousand armies and horses, while Ye Han was also brilliant in strategy, and compared to Zhuge Banruo, they were a match for each other, if the two of them joined forces, it would be something that people would both look forward to and be shocked by.

"Forget it, let's not think about these things for now." Old Master Yan slowly stood up and said; "It's almost New Year's Eve in a few days, old man, find a chance, let's go to the south, I heard that my great-grandson is all set, no matter what I have to go and see, whether my old bones can still last until the day this little one is born is a question."

“Old master, you are wrong in saying that, with young master Sun, a sage of the healing arts, it is not a problem for you to live a long life if you want to.” Ke Yanke smiled, and then he said; “Old master, after going to the south, what are you going to do about Zijhan’s girl’s side?”

Old Master Yan naturally knew about Yan Zihan’s matter, and there was nothing he could do about it, it had already happened, did he still want to go and beat up the lovebirds?

“Just let nature take its course!”

Right now, the southern underground world had been settled, the northern and southern underground worlds were talking, Ye Han, the new hegemon had successfully taken the south, and the northern giants, were also on a dark tide, ready to welcome Ye Han north, this situation, let people know, following the curtain falling on the southern underground world, the north would be a beacon of smoke, Ye Han’s next step, would be to point at the northern giants, at that time, all kinds of collision, no doubt will be more exciting!

In the south, Ye Han had already returned to Shanhai City, but on the first day of his return to Shanhai City, a directive was sent to all parts of the south, summoning the leaders of each region to Shanhai City to hold a ceremony for the establishment of the Heavenly Dragon.

This directive was sent out, and all those who followed Ye Han rushed to Shanhai City.

On Phoenix Mountain, inside the mountain villa, Ye Han was currently accompanying Huang Nishang at ease, and of course, the other women were also there, the matter in the south was over and Ye Han finally had some time to spend with them.

However, when he returned to the lodge, Ye Han was almost beaten up by Madman, who had returned from Xiangjiang. If Yan Qingmu had not stopped him, this father-son duo would have staged a father-son battle.

The reason for this is that Ye Han betrayed Madman, who was punished by Yan Qingmu on his knees for half a day on his first day back, and almost broke off his relationship with Madman. .

Therefore, after Ye Han returned to the mountain manor, the Madman could not help but explode, carrying his Xuan Yuan sword to teach this bastard who dared to betray his father a lesson.

Looking at this careful look of Ye Han, although Huang Nishang was happy, she still said; “If you stay with me like this all day, I’m worried that Yun’er and the girls will be jealous, anyway, now that you have a lot of time, you can also spend more time with them.”

“Don’t worry, I know how to handle it, don’t think too much, Yun’er and the girls aren’t that petty.” Ye Han said; “Ni Shang, I’ll go to Emei Mountain in a couple of days to bring my sister back, let the two of you get to know each other then, my sister will be very happy if she knows she has a nephew.”

“I want to meet Sister Ye Qing too, I heard from Yun’er and the girls that you were brought up by Sister Ye Qing, she must be a very great woman!”

“Sister is indeed a very great woman, I wonder how she is doing over at Emei Mountain?”

Looking in the direction of Sichuan Province, Ye Han's eyes naturally showed a touch of longing, without Ye Qing around to care for him and shush him, Ye Han always felt that something was missing.

At this time, a number that had not been displayed above Ye Han's mobile phone for a long time called.

"Congratulations, you have successfully taken the position of the hegemon of the southern underground world." On the other side of the phone, there was a low and unsure voice that didn't know how to go about speaking, and after saying these words there was silence on the other side of the phone.

Ye Han walked to the side and said; "You should not just be calling me to congratulate me, Chief Situ."

The person who called Ye Han was naturally the Director of the Security Bureau, Situ Zhentian, originally the two of them were very good friends and knew everything, but since the battle on Phoenix Mountain, they knew that this relationship was completely broken, and they could never go back to the past.

The reason why I'm calling you today is to tell you that something has happened to Fire Phoenix."

Hearing Situ Zhentian's words, Ye Han my this phone's hand squeezed fiercely, his eyes also instantly became icy cold, said; "What happened to Fire Phoenix? Where is she now?"

"Fire Phoenix is in Europe on a top secret mission, you know this, however, a few days ago came the news, she was caught, locked up in the ninth district of the coal country, I'm afraid it's bad luck!"

"News from a few days ago, you are only telling me now, Situ Zhentian, if anything happens to Fire Phoenix, I will kill you even if I mess up your Security Bureau to the bottom."

Fortune Chapter 609

Since Fire Phoenix left, Ye Han had not contacted her for eight or nine months. Knowing that Fire Phoenix was on a top secret mission, Ye Han did not ask too much, and even if he did, Situ Zhentian refused to reveal more, but now, Ye Han waited for the news of her accident, so how could Ye Han not be angry.

For Fire Phoenix, that woman who had no righteousness all day long, and who also liked to seduce him and tease him, Ye Han actually cared for her in his heart.

"Fire Phoenix was captured, I am also very anxious, right now a rescue operation is being launched over there, the reason why I am telling you is because I want you to have a psychological preparation, because the rescue operation will probably fail, people who are imprisoned in the ninth district of the coal country are not that easy to rescue, going there is basically a dead end, so... .."

"Don't give me this useless retreat, lend me Shadowless, I'll solve what you guys can't solve." Ye Han interrupted Situ Zhentian, watching what happened to Fire Phoenix, Ye Han couldn't sit still, even if the ninth district of the coal country was a hell, he still had to go and break through and free that woman.

At those words, Situ Zhentian fell silent and said; "Good, Shadowless will arrive in Shanghai City tomorrow, I won't ask what you want to do, but our people will help you."

Ye Han was too lazy to listen to Situ Zhentian's further nonsense and hung up the phone in a flash, although he could not wait to fly to the ninth district of the coal country right now, but even Situ Zhentian did not have much hope that this matter must be handled carefully.

After hanging up Situ Zhentian's phone, Ye Han called Zhou Yun'er the first time; "Yun'er, book two tickets for me to go to Coal Country tomorrow, be quick!"

On the other side of the phone, Zhou Yun'er, who was originally in a meeting, didn't ask much as she said; "Okay, I will come over later, you must tell me the reason."

"What?" Looking at Ye Han, whose face was cloudy, Huang Nishang walked over and asked with concern.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han shook his head at her and said; "It's nothing big, it's just that a friend had something happen over in the Coal Country, Neishang, I might have to fly to the Coal Country tomorrow, I can't accompany you, I'm sorry!"

"Don't say that." Huang Nishang shook her head and said; "What you are going to do, must be something big that must be done, I can't help you much, I just hope I didn't hold you back, go, go early and come back early, my son and I are waiting for you at home."

Ye Han nodded and helped Huang Nishang back to the villa. At this time, in the living room of the villa, Madman, Yan Qingmu, Yan Zihan, Zhao Youyou and the quirky little Qingcheng were all there.

Seeing Ye Han helping Huang Nishang walk in from outside, Yan Qingmu was the first to stand up and also go help Huang Nishang sit down, saying; "Nishang, how are you feeling? Do you want to eat something, mum will make it for you."

"No, mum, you've made me fat recently, if I keep eating I'll become a meatball."

"It's good to be fat, you'll be able to give birth to a big fat boy later."

Looking at Yan Qing Mu taking care of Huang Nishang, Ye Han sat down beside Yan Zi Han and said; "Zi Han, I'm going to go to the coal country tomorrow and will be back before the year."

"To the Coal Country?" Yan Zihan looked at Ye Han unexpectedly, and after hearing him say this, even the still angry madman looked at him.

"Kid, that side of the Coal Country is the territory of those bastards from the Divine Court, what are you going there for?" The madman asked in a seemingly careless manner.

"Does it have anything to do with you?" Ye Han said indifferently.

"Brat, I'm concerned about you, Eastern martial artists go to the Western world, these bastards have very thievish eyes, once they set their eyes on them, they are like dog skin plaster that you can't even shake off." The madman glared at Ye Han.

"It seems that there are people in this world that you, Madman, fear." Ye Han gave a sarcastic laugh.

"Bullshit, how could I be afraid of those bastards from the Divine Court, think back when your old man was running through the western world, these bastards still had no way to take me." The madman said with an arrogant face.

"So you are familiar with the western world?" Ye Han asked indifferently.

"Hmph, even the Bishop of the Divine Court has adopted a few lovers old me knows all about it."

“Then, have you heard of this place, District 9?”

“The Ninth District of the Coal Country.” The madman’s brow furrowed as he said; “I’ve heard of this place, it’s known as the most fortified military base in the world, I heard that District 9 is all powerful genetic warriors and psychics, kid, do you want to go to this place? Let me give you a heads up first, the people in District 9 are equally bad to mess with.”

“So what?” Ye Han said in a muddled manner; “Even if District 9 is a hell on earth I’m going to barge in.”

After saying this, Ye Han stood up and left the living room, Leng Wufei and the others still had to be informed, I’m afraid that the Tian Long establishment ceremony would have to be postponed.

“Brat, you think of those guys in Europe too easily!” Madman had a bit of a headache, after knowing Ye Han’s thoughts, he was a bit sitting down.

“I’ll give you a chance to redeem yourself.” Yan Qingmu looked at Madman coldly at this time and said; “My son is going to the coal country, although I don’t know what the reason is, but you must ensure that he returns unharmed, do this well and I can forgive that incident in Xiangjiang, otherwise, humph!”

Hearing this, Madman immediately accompanied with a smile and said; “Don’t worry wife, with me around, that kid won’t even lose a single hair.”

“Hmph, you’d better do what you say, otherwise, you’ll never get me to forgive you in your life.” Yan Qingmu snorted coldly.

In response, the madman could only continue to accompany the smiling face, now in this this family, he, the head of the family, had no status at all, everything his wife was the biggest, and his wife was the biggest with his son, these two had no good consequences no matter who he offended.

“Sir, I’m afraid this matter of the Tianlong establishment ceremony will have to be postponed, tomorrow I’m going abroad to deal with some matters, this side of the south has only just stabilized, after I leave, this side of things will be left to you.”

At these words, a puzzled look flashed across Leng Wufei and the others’ faces; “Xiao Han, is there something abroad that you must go to?”

“Must go.” Ye Han said; “I will have regrets in this life if I don’t go.”

“Then, we will go with you, you are alone, we are not sure if you are going alone.”

Ye Han shook his head and said; “Sir, we still need you to hold the fort in the south, if everyone leaves, other forces will take advantage of the situation and we will have to give away the place we have worked so hard for.”

Fortune Chapter 610

Night came, darkness covered the land, inside the mountain villa, a man and a woman were lying in each other’s arms, lying in Ye Han’s arms, Zhou Yun’er looked a little silent, the reason why Ye Han went to the western world, Zhou Yun’er already knew, Fire Phoenix, that sexy and beautiful woman all in one, Ye Han went to the western world surprisingly for her.

“Yun’er, I’m sorry, there are some things I had to do according to my heart, although I know it’s unfair to you guys, but I’ll have regrets in this life if I don’t do it!”

At these words, Zhou Yun’er sighed and said; “You are good enough, but I know you are not an amorous person, it’s just that you don’t know how to say no, that’s why there are more and more women appearing around you, go ahead and do as you are meant to, I don’t want you to be tied down, but you have to promise me to come back safely, there are more than just me waiting for you inside this home.”

“I promise.”

With that said, the two men embraced each other and slept, and the night was a world that belonged to a passionate man and woman.

After the night had passed, early the next morning, Ye Han went to Shanghai City airport, Zhou Yun’er booked the earliest flight to the coal country, when Ye Han arrived at Shanghai City airport, a woman wearing sunglasses and tight leather clothes and trousers was already leaning on the railing outside the airport waiting for him.

“I thought you’d be late coming over as you couldn’t let go of the tender home inside.” Shadowless glanced at Ye Han indifferently, for the last time Ye Han had yelled her out of Shanghai City she had been upset in her heart, now looking at Ye Han’s face there was not even much expression, of course, afterwards Shadowless also knew that time it was Ye Han who had to yell her out of Shanghai City in the face of a horrible crisis.

Ye Han handed Shadowless the ticket inside his hand and said; “Let’s go, it’s almost time to board the plane, what’s the situation over in the coal country, you can tell me about it later.”

After boarding the plane, Shadowless closed her eyes and started to sleep, not paying any attention to Ye Han, seeing this, Ye Han said; “Come on, don’t be petty, we need to work together in many places to go to Coal Country. Who are the opponents? And where is the ninth district where she is being held? How many people from the state’s hidden services are there over in Coal Country?”

“Hmph, not unless you give me an apology.” Shadowless opened his eyes and hummed softly.

“Fine, I apologise, I was wrong about the last time, is that alright now?”

“Count on you being sensible.” Shadowless glanced at Ye Han and said; “The mission carried out by the Security Bureau is classified, people who are not of sufficient rank simply cannot know about it, this time the several group leaders of the Security Bureau with their experts are acting together for the God Disc Fragment.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; “It’s the triangular iron piece we got last time in the Golden Triangle?”

“Not bad.” Shadowless said; “There are four parts to the God’s Disc Fragment, the one we got last time is only one of them, right now there are two more God’s Disc Fragments in the western world, for this thing, no matter if it is an individual or a country, they all want to get it, it is too tempting, right now in the western world, there are many forces involved in this fight, we are only one of them.”

Ye Han said; "So, there are quite a few opponents, but I don't care about these things, the purpose of me going to the Western World is to save people, not to help you get the God Disc Fragment, tell me about District 9, it seems to be a very dangerous place."

Shadowless said; "District 9 is a heavily guarded military base, which is engaged in all kinds of biochemical research, right now the genetic warriors, bestialized people, and even many supernaturals in the coal country are all from District 9, Ye Han, let me give you a warning, if you want to save someone in District 9, it will undoubtedly be a very difficult thing to do, you might end up getting yourself into it. "

Hearing these words from Shadowless, Ye Han looked at her and said; "In that case, you are prepared to give up on Fire Phoenix being held in District 9?"

"It's possible." Shadowless pondered and said; "As far as I know the people from the Security Bureau are now launching a rescue operation, but if this is too costly, the top will terminate the rescue operation."

"Hmph, someone else was born and died for you, and you're just ready to abandon her like this, isn't that a little too heartless?" Ye coldly grunted and said.

"The greater good is paramount." Shadowless said; "If one day I also fall into this situation, I won't blame anyone, from the day we joined, we were ready to sacrifice, I think the Fire Phoenix team leader thinks the same way."

Ye Han said in disbelief; "I'm not as noble as you guys, where is District 9 located in the Coal Country?"

"Inside a desert." Shadowless said; "There will be someone to show us the way when we get there, what are your thoughts on rescuing the Fire Phoenix leader, tell us."

Ye Han said; "As long as I can enter District 9, and with your cooperation, it shouldn't be difficult for me to rescue Fire Phoenix."

"You're thinking too simply." Shadowless said; "District 9 is said to be the most powerful military base in the world, if the people held inside are rescued so easily, then District 9 is too much of a waste of time, the various barriers inside are using advanced fingerprint technology, retina technology, even if you sneak inside, it will be difficult to get around, not to mention, in District 9 there are many experts, once you are discovered it's simply a dead end."

At these words, Ye Han fell silent, it seemed that he had indeed underestimated this District 9, if he wanted to rescue Fire Phoenix, he only had to think long and hard.

"Have your rescuers over in the Coal Country come up with any countermeasures?" Ye Han asked.

"Yes, hacking into District 9's network system." Shadowless said; "Once this plan succeeds, we will have unhindered access in District 9, but District 9's network system is one of the best in the world, it is hard to say if this plan will work, we will only know everything once we get to Coal Country."

In the process of Ye Han and Shadowless talking, the plane had slowly left the ground and was heading towards the clouds, the destination of this flight was Los Angeles, Coal Country.

Looking at the white clouds outside, Ye Han fell into deep thought. Through talking with Shadowless, Ye Han knew that it would be very difficult to rescue Fire Phoenix in District 9, and he was afraid that the Security Bureau alone would not be enough, otherwise Situ Zhentian would not have called him.

As he thought about it, Ye Han slowly entered his sleep, it would still take some time to get to Los Angeles in the coal country.

When the sweet voice of the announcer sounded inside the cabin, the plane had already landed at the Los Angeles airport, at this time of the day, darkness covered the city, Ye Han had left in the morning, a few hours long flight, it should only be afternoon now, but it was already around ten o'clock at night over here.

After the two of them left the airport, Shadowless immediately started to contact the people who came to pick them up, not long after, two men and a woman appeared, Ye Han looked over towards them, these three people were dressed very ordinary, very inconspicuous in the crowd, but, they were all experts who had passed the Rendu realm.
