Fortune Chapter 641

The Golden Knights of the Divine Court, Ye Han had heard about them since he came to the western world, it was a very powerful force in battle, belonging to the mainstay of the Divine Court, and among the several forces of the Divine Court, the Golden Knights had been deployed the most often.

The fact that these five were Golden Knights made Ye Han have to be cautious, and with the addition of Ye He Men, an expert, this would be another tough battle for him.

“Ye He Men, you are really looking up to me more and more.” Ye Han laughed sarcastically at Ye He Men, in order to deal with him, Ye He Men had even sent out the Golden Knights of the Divine Court.

“In order to be able to kill you, not to mention the five Golden Knights, I would not hesitate to send out ten Golden Knights.” Jehovah’s Gate sneered and waved his hand, and then, the five Golden Knights drew their giant swords and spread out with a cold face, encircling towards Ye Han.

“Oriental, dare to humiliate my divine court’s holy maiden, we will punish you on behalf of God and send you to hell to be with Satan.” As the words fell, the five golden knights wielded huge swords and killed one after another towards Ye Han, the terrifying sword light blossomed in all directions of Ye Han, like a cage, those who were enveloped would surely die.

Ye Han was in the middle of it, his expression solemn, the Dragon Spring Sword was held tightly in his hand, feeling the power coming around him, the Dragon Spring Sword was swept out madly by him, cold and matchless sword light streaked across, this clash of power was like a volcanic eruption, the terrifying power was like a wild surge of waves in the sea, the surrounding void was wildly turbulent, the strangling force was extremely powerful, anything that entered the range of this attack Anything that entered the range of this attack would be obliterated.

Ye Han was in the middle of the five Golden Knights’ encirclement, wandering around with the Dragon Spring Sword in his hand, and every time he clashed hard, he felt his body tumbling.

“Worthy of being an Oriental who can step on the Holy Son and Holy Maiden!” This thought flashed through the minds of the five Golden Knights, and immediately, their attacks became even more violent, the fierce wind brought up by the huge swords they wielded causing the void to hunt.

“Come out!”

The moment the sea of fire appeared, a flaming spear immediately shot out from the sea of fire and shot at the five Golden Knights.

When the sea of fire appeared suddenly, the Five Golden Knights did not pay much attention to it, however, when the temperature spread over, the faces of the Five Golden Knights changed, and before they could retreat, the flaming spears burst into the sky and shot at them.

“Damn it, be careful of his flames” Ye He Men, who was watching the battle from the side, noticed the scene and roared with a frantic expression, he had already personally experienced how powerful the flames Ye Han controlled were, they were not ordinary mortal fire.

However, Ye He Men was a little too late to warn, as the five Golden Knights were caught off guard by the Vermilion Bird Holy Fire, Ye Han had already burst inside the sea of fire towards one of the Golden Knights who appeared to be a little frazzled, and then, the Dragon Spring Sword swept across his neck in a lightning-like manner.

Snort!

A stream of blood shot out and a Golden Knight was decapitated by Ye Han.

“Damned orientalist!”

Seeing this, the other four Golden Knights who had already left the sea of fire beyond were furious, holding their swords with both hands and slashing towards Ye Han across the air, four attacks that turned into four amazing white coils to split the sea of fire and blast Ye Han within it.

Within the sea of fire, Ye Han had just killed the golden knight, and then he saw the four white coils coming, and in this instant, Ye Han also swung his sword across the air, and a powerful sword qi erupted from the Dragon Spring Sword to meet him.

Boom!

With the strength of one person to resist the attack of the four golden knights, Ye Han was barely able to cope with it, his body took more than ten steps backwards within the sea of fire before he stopped, his face was flushed red.

“Burial!”

However, after stopping, Ye Han’s mind moved and the Vermilion Bird Holy Flame danced wildly and wildly, forming a waterfall-like waterfall of flames, this waterfall of flames moved quickly and pressed down on the four Golden Knight experts with the force of a collapsing city wall.

“Break!”

The four Golden Knight masters looked at the flaming waterfall that was about to bury them underneath and struck out one after another, four white coils ruthlessly impacted on top of the flaming waterfall.

Amidst the blazing fire, Ye Han and the four golden knights faced each other, both gazing closely at each other with endless battle intent.

At that moment, Ye Heimen strolled in, standing in front of the Four Golden Knights as he looked at Ye Han and said with a cold smile; “It seems that to deal with you, it will be necessary for this Holy Son to personally take action.”

Upon hearing this, a look of disdain crossed Ye Han’s face as he said; “Ye He Men, do you have the ability to do that? What was the result of your personal strike last time? Without these few Golden Knights, I would have killed you as easily as slaughtering a dog.”

“Bastard!” Being poked by Ye Han, Ye He Men’s face released a horrifying killing spirit as he said in an icy voice; “Later I will cut off your flesh piece by piece and let you die of torture.”

“Hmph, that’s exactly what I want to do if I have the chance.” Ye coldly grunted.

“Strike together and kill him!” The four Golden Knights strolled out again and stood together with Ye He Men, this formation was now much stronger than earlier, Ye He Men originally thought that the five Golden Knights could kill Ye Han, but in the end, he lost one Golden Knight and Ye Han was still alive and well, so Ye He Men knew that to deal with Ye Han, he would have to personally He knew that if he wanted to deal with Ye Han, he would have to join forces with the Golden Knight himself.

Seeing this, Ye Han stood with his sword in his hand, there were too many experts chasing him, if there was a chance, it would be better to solve one, and Ye He Men was the person Ye Han wanted to kill the most.

“Oh, brother, how come you have to do it yourself to kill him, how about letting me, my little brother, do it for you?” Suddenly, just as Ye Han and Ye He Men were staring at each other, a light laugh came in, hearing this, a gaze among the houses filled with flames looked towards the entrance, where a handsome western youth had appeared.

One of the Holy Sons of the Divine Court, Jehovah Heaven!

Fortune Chapter 642

At the sight of this man’s appearance, not only did Ye Han’s face change, but even the faces of Ye He Men and those Four Great Golden Knights changed as well.

One of the two Great Saints of the Divine Court, Ye He Tian, was also Ye He Men’s own brother, but from the same father, they both had the same father, the Great Saints, Ye He Deicide, a western man who had been trampled under the feet of the Madman twenty years ago!

“I thought it was someone, but it’s you fellow who has appeared.” Ye He Men looked at Ye He Tian and said indifferently; “There is no need for you to interfere in the matter of killing the Easterners, it has nothing to do with you, it is enough to have me as an elder brother, you just watch from the side.”

At these words, Jehovah Heaven strolled into the room, which was covered with flames, and said with a light smile; “Brother, you are wrong, killing the Oriental is the business of everyone in the Divine Court, how can it have nothing to do with me?”

“Yehetian, I’ll let you go, you don’t need to interfere here.” Hearing these words from Ye He Tian, Ye He Men’s face instantly collapsed, no longer being polite with Ye He Tian, this statement was equivalent to tearing his face off.

However, Ye He Tian’s face still had a smile on it as he said; “Brother, you are too overbearing, the other young experts in the western world can kill the easterners, why can’t I, as a younger brother,? If brother has the ability, he can ask these people not to interfere as well, if brother can do it, I as a younger brother will never interfere, how about that?”

“Jehovah Heaven, you bastard, delaying me from killing the Orientals, can you afford to take the blame for this crime when the Pope blames you?” Naturally, Jehovah’s Gate did not have the ability to make the young experts of the western world stop chasing Ye Han, if he had this ability, he would have already killed Ye Han when he first met with him, so this dilemma of Jehovah’s Sky caused a murderous look to appear on Jehovah’s Gate’s face already, if Jehovah’s Sky did not go, he simply did not dare to make a move against Ye Han, if Jehovah’s Sky took the opportunity to kill Ye Han, then all that he had done would be equivalent to giving If Ye He Tian took the opportunity to kill Ye Han, then what he had done would be tantamount to doing a dowry for Ye He Tian.

Of course, what was more important was that Ye He Men was afraid of death, he was afraid that this brother, who was even stronger than him, would take the opportunity to kill him, and if he died here, the Pope would not even know why, and when the time came, Ye He Tian could just make up an excuse that Ye He Men had been killed by an Oriental to muddle through.

This possibility was not unheard of, once Jehovah's Gate was dead, then the Divine Court would only have one holy son left in Jehovah's Sky, and it was naturally self-evident who the position of Pope would go to in the future.

"Ugh! Brother, do you have to force me?" Jehovah Heaven shrugged helplessly and said; "Killing the Orientals is a matter for the top experts of the young generation in the West, and if you privately send out the Golden Knight if the Pope finds out, what do you think the outcome will be? Not to mention that because of you, the Divine Court has already lost a Golden Knight."

"Ye He Tian, are you threatening me?" Hearing these words from Jehovah Tian, Jehovah's door's face went completely cold.

At these words, the smile on Jehovah Heaven's face slowly tightened as he said; "Brother, you can take this as a warning, I won't leave, killing Orientals is also my business, you have the right to pursue Lina, I also have the right, isn't it good for us to compete fairly?"

"You bastard, I will not give you the chance, the life of the Oriental is mine and Lina is equally mine, kill!" Jehovah's Gate burst out and took the lead in darting towards Ye Han, who killed Ye Han first, that would depend on ability, after Jehovah's Gate made his move, the four Golden Knights naturally followed suit.

Ye He Tian did not make a move, he looked at Ye Han who had already started to fight with Ye He Men with a calm face, for Ye Han, it was the first time he saw him, but Ye Han's strength just now in the dark he had seen clearly, Ye He Men could kill Ye Han he had a clear idea, so he was in no hurry to make a move, Ye He Men was willing to clear the obstacles for him he was happy to see, in the end he just had to make a move to clean up the mess.

Of course, if he had the chance, his ambition would be even greater, and it would not be as simple as just killing Ye Han.

Facing the Four Golden Knights plus a Jehovah's Gate, Ye Han was under tremendous pressure, not to mention that there was a Jehovah's Gate beside him that he was afraid of. His intuition told Ye Han that this Jehovah's Gate would be the most powerful young master he had met in the Western World, and that Jehovah's Gate could not even compare to him, no matter in all aspects, Jehovah's Gate was inferior to this Jehovah's Gate by a large margin.

Ding, ding, ding, ding!

Inside the house, flames were madly filling the air, and the blazing fire had already reached the beams of the house, and the sound of the house about to collapse rang out from time to time around, and under this kind of burning, it would not be long before the house collapsed.

Many people around the slum, seeing the flames and the smoke, had a watching attitude, because they knew that this dilapidated house was not inhabited at all, and it was usually a temporary shelter chosen by the vagrants, and if it was on fire, even if the police were called, those guys on royal food would not necessarily come, because no one would care about the vagrants, not to mention that this was a chaotic slum.

Under the combined attack of Jehovah's Gate and the four Golden Knights, a look of exhaustion appeared on Ye Han's face. Although he could still cope with it for a moment or two, it definitely wouldn't last long, the line-up he faced today was more dangerous than the previous times, the two Great Sons of the Divine Court and the Golden Knights had all appeared, among the young masters of the western world, who could cope with such a powerful line-up?

Snort!

A bloodstain surfaced on Ye Han's arm, Ye Han was in the middle of the encirclement, his entire body was spinning madly, frantically fending off the attacks from all sides, he was like a tireless fighting machine, definitely not going to fall down until the last moment.

"Haha, damn fellow, your time to die has come!" During the battle, Ye He Men saw more and more wounds on Ye Han's body, his face revealed a fierce smile, the trident in his hand attacked Ye Han move after move, in several other directions, the four golden knights' attacks were also swift and fierce, this kind of high-intensity attack by the five of them had almost forced Ye Han to the point where he only had the power to move, not the power to fight back.

But even so, Ye Han's face did not change much, despite the increasing number of wounds on his body, he was still dealing with it calmly. Ye He Tian had his own plans, so did Ye He Men, did Ye Han not?

The formation on Ye He Clan's side was indeed terrifying, however, if Ye He Tian did not intervene, Ye He Clan would not be able to kill him at all.

"Go to hell!" Watching Ye Han being forced backwards, Ye He Men attacked Ye Han like a thundering madness, however, Ye He Men did not notice that under this attack of his, Ye Han had gradually broken away from the attacks of the other four Golden Knights, leading him into a very delicate trap.

"What a clever fellow, it seems that my good brother is in for a bad luck." Ye He Tian, who was watching the battle from the side, noticed this scene, and a cold smile flashed across his face, perhaps, he would have a big harvest here today.

Fortune Chapter 643

"Damned Oriental, you didn't expect this day to come, kill you and Lina will belong to me, no one can snatch her away from me, hahahahaha!"

Watching Ye Han step backwards, Ye He Men laughed madly as he attacked Ye Han.

"Hmph, maybe your Lina will belong to me in the future, Ye He Men, I will have a good sleep with the holy maiden of your heart sometime, the taste of the Holy Maiden of the Divine Court, I think it must be very good." A wicked smile spread across Ye Han's face as he fended off Ye He Men's attack.

“Ah! Death-seeking fellow, dare to insult Lina, go to hell!” Ye Han’s words caused Ye He Men to act like a madman and attack even more ferociously, but this ferocity of his simply fell into the eyes of Ye He Tian, a reckless man who was swayed by his emotions.

“Stupid brother, don’t you see that that guy is deliberately provoking you?” Ye He Tian shook his head with a smile on his face, but there was a touch of disdain and ridicule in that smile, if he changed his position, he would not become as crazy as Ye He Men and be sensible to deal with Ye Han, he would probably receive better results.

Against Ye Han, a wise man, once he lost his senses, he would not be far from death. Even if the current situation seemed to be unfavourable to Ye Han.

“Ye He Men, if you don’t kill me today, another day I will definitely go to the Vatican and personally sleep with your most beloved saint, and then maybe I will tell you how big that stinky woman of the saint’s size is.” Ye Han continued to stimulate Jehovah’s Gate, and when Jehovah’s Gate, who was already in a state of madness, heard these words, that look naturally became even more mad and terrifying, horrifying blood had appeared in his eyes, like a precursor to going mad, and his mad roar was transmitted all around.

“Damn guy, Lina is mine, she is mine”

Looking at Ye He Men, who had fallen into a state of madness, Ye Han’s mouth, who was wandering in the middle of the battle circle, gradually had a cold and murderous look appear at the corner of his mouth, at this moment, only to see Ye Han suddenly give up resisting, allowing the attacks of the two Golden Knight experts to fall on him, while he himself had appeared like lightning in front of the mad-looking Ye He Men, and the Dragon Spring Sword ruthlessly slashed at Ye He Men’s body.

“Ah!”

A miserable cry came out from Ye He Men’s mouth as his entire body was sent flying backwards by Ye Han’s sword, and there was a terrifying sword scar on his chest, the skin of which was split open, and the wound was three or four inches deep.

However, Ye Han had also endured a terrifying attack, as the two Golden Knights’ huge swords landed on his body, causing him to feel a burning pain in his back, as if a piece of flesh had been cut off.

“Holy Son!” Seeing that Ye He Men had been seriously injured by Ye Han, the four Golden Knights were shaken with rage as a new round of attacks enveloped Ye Han once again.

“Oh, it seems that the heavens are helping me!” Ye He Tian, who had been unmoving, smiled faintly as he looked at Ye Han, who was also badly injured, and then at Ye He Men, and then, he strolled towards Ye He Men, who was lying on the ground with a painful face.

“Damn it, Ye He Tian, go and kill that Oriental” When Ye He Men saw Ye He Tian walking towards him, his face changed slightly and he hurriedly spoke, because he had sensed a hint of killing from above Ye He Tian’s hypocritical smile.

Upon hearing this, Jehovah Tin laughed; “Brother, I am very obedient as a younger brother, you won’t let me kill the Oriental, then, I won’t kill him, and now that you are injured, let me help you.”

“No, bastard, you go away, you don’t come over” looking at Jehovah Tian step by step approaching towards himself, Jehovah Gate’s face changed greatly, sitting on the ground and slowly backing up, but the movement was too big and touched the wound, making his face look incomparably hideous and horrible .

“No, no, no, brother is injured, it is only natural that brother should help you.” With a smile on his face, Jehovah Tian squatted down in front of Jehovah’s door, although his eyes were as cold as the biting cold wind.

“Jehovah Tin, I am your brother, don’t mess around, if the Pope finds out, you will not be allowed to die!” At this moment, Jehovah’s Gate felt cold all over, Jehovah Tian was going to kill him, his own brother, and this, Jehovah’s Gate had felt.

Upon hearing this, Jehovah Heaven’s smiling face slowly became expressionless as he said; “Brother, the Pope he will not know, all he knows is the fact that the East killed you and you, caused the Golden Knights to lose a lot of money.”

After saying this, a terrifying murderous look flashed in Jehovah Heaven’s eyes, and with a lightning strike, he squeezed Jehovah Men’s throat, and with a slight force, Jehovah Men was turned into a silent corpse, and before he died, he still maintained that terrified look, and did not even have the time to scream out.

With such a scene, Terror Jehomon never dreamed that he would die at the hands of his own brother, although within the Divine Court, he and Jehovah Heaven were fighting for power, and one day someone would be the loser, and that loser could be him, but Jehohomon did not think that he would be killed by Jehovah Heaven under such circumstances.

“Holy Son of Gate!”

When the four Golden Knights saw Ye He Men who had been killed by Ye He Tian, their faces changed greatly and they stopped their hands, looking at Ye He Tian with an angry face; “Heavenly Sage, you dare to strike and kill the Gate Sage, we will definitely report this matter to the Pope truthfully, and you will pay the price.”

“Who said we should let you guys report it, if we want to report it, it is also up to me to do so.” Jehovah Heaven slowly stood up, at this moment, this Holy Son of God’s Court finally unraveled that hypocritical veil and stared at the four golden knights with a cold and murderous face; “You are so loyal to this good brother of mine, then, go down and keep him company so that he won’t be too lonely down there, and take a message to him for me that I will take good care of Lina. ”

After saying these words, Jehovah Heaven darted out like a gale, the powerful and matchless aura caused the four golden knights’ faces to pale.

“Holy Son of Heaven, you betrayed the Pope, you shall not be allowed to die!”

“Even so, you will all die ahead of me.”

Ye He Tian was so powerful that he still appeared to be comfortable dealing with the four Golden Knights by himself.

Seeing this scene, Ye Han was a little shocked, this Ye He Tian had even personally shot and killed his own brother, this youth was too cold-blooded and heartless! This kind of person was terrifying, even his closest relatives could still do it, when dealing with his enemies, his methods would be even more terrifying.

While Ye He Tian was battling with the Four Golden Knights, Ye Han naturally took advantage of this gap to slip away, continuing to stay to face Ye He Tian when the time came, in his current state, he simply could not defeat this cold-blooded and ruthless fellow, and had to leave this dangerous place in advance.

“Slipping away really fast, but you only get this one chance, next time it will be your turn.”

Outside the dilapidated house, Ye He Tian was wiping his blood-stained palms with a white handkerchief, he smelled the unique smell in the air with a cold smile on his face, in fact, during the battle just now, he had already unknowingly sprinkled medicinal powder on Ye Han’s body, this, even Ye Han did not notice.

Inside the room behind Ye He Tian, there were six corpses lying, the five golden knights and Ye He Men.

With a boom, at that moment, the dilapidated house finally couldn’t withstand the flames and collapsed, the blazing flames surging up four to five metres high.

Jehovah Heaven turned to look at it, his face continued to return to that smile that made it look sincere; “There you go, the evidence is all ruined, Oriental, you’re in big trouble because you killed the Gate Sage of the Divine Court.”

After saying this, Jehovah Tian took out his mobile phone and dialed a number out; “Tell the Pope that the Gate Sage is dead and was killed by the Oriental. There are also five golden knights who died at his hands, spread the news in the West.”

After saying this, Ye He Tian walked out with a smile on his face, to him, killing Ye Han was important, but if he had the chance, killing Ye He Men was even more important, what he got from killing Ye Han was just a woman, but by killing Ye He Men, he would get the position of the Pope, and for the position of the Pope, he would rather give up this woman in Lina.

Of course, once he was in the position of Pope, what kind of woman in the western world could he not get?

He would give up everything for the supreme position of Pope, and even kill his own brother himself.

The news of Jehovah’s Gate’s death was not hidden from any power in the Western world, and by the time the Divine Court got the news, so did others. The death of the Divine Court’s Holy Son was no small matter, but a big event in the West, as the Holy Son would most likely be the next Pope in the future.

In a flash, all the powers in the Western world were shaken, that young man from the East had killed the Holy Son of the Divine Court, plus the five Golden Knights, who in the Western world would dare to do such a crazy act? At least, no one for the time being, killing the Holy Son of the Divine Court, that would receive the wrath of hundreds of millions of believers of the Divine Court, a wrath that even the several great powers in the Western world could not bear.

“Oh, it seems that after twenty years of calm the Western world will see the emergence of another Eastern madman, no, this young man is even more reckless and carefree than the madman of twenty years ago.” The vampire race, within a towering ancient castle, a handsome middle-aged man shook the wine glass with red liquid in his hand with a smile on his face.

“Is this not good, noble patriarch? The Divine Court has always held itself out as a god, treating our noble race of vampires as heathens, and the young man from the East has disgraced them and killed the Divine Court’s holy son, which should be worth rejoicing over for us.” Down below, a vampire gentleman in a tuxedo said.

“Indeed it is something to rejoice about, he killed the Holy Son of the Divine Court, I will leave him alone about Foy, this Oriental is so bold, if the Divine Court does not kill him in the end, I think many in the Western world would be happy to see that.”

“What does the Lord Patriarch mean?”

“Oh, there is a saying in Chinese that the time has not yet come to speak, not to speak

At the same time, the Wolf Clan, the Titan Clan, the Hell’s Angels, the Satanic Legion and many other forces were all discussing this one thing, don’t look at the fact that the offspring of all these forces had gone after Ye Han because of a word from the Holy Son of the Divine Court Lina, that was only if their elders had not intervened, once their respective people behind them had intervened, whether they wanted to go after Ye Han or not was not something that the younger generation of the major forces could decide.

When the Holy Son of the Divine Court was killed, even the hidden forces of the Western countries were shaken when they got the news. The Pope of the Divine Court, the head of many countries had to treat him with courtesy and even groveled, and after knowing the news, several major Western countries offered their help to the Divine Court to catch the young man from the East.

This time, however, the angry Pope would not let anyone else meddle in the affairs of the Divine Court.

At the headquarters of the Vatican’s Divine Court, the Pope’s face was incomparably ugly, and his incomparably majestic face was already covered with murderous intent. Below, nearly a hundred bishops did not speak, and the atmosphere inside the entire hall seemed depressing, so oppressive that people could not kick the air.

“Lina, it seems that it is necessary for this Pope to withdraw that request of yours, the death of Jehovah’s Gate at the hands of the Orientals is a great provocation and insult to our Divine Court, and I will settle it in the Divine Court’s own way.” The Pope looked at the Holy Virgin Lina, who was standing at the bottom of his left, and his voice was low and thick, anyone could hear the anger in his voice.

At these words, Lina was silent, the death of Jehovah’s Gate at the hands of that Oriental had taken her by surprise, and I am afraid that the Pope now had a great deal against her, and if he had not always favoured her, he would have punished her by now. If it were not for her edict, Jehovah’s Gate might not have died, and the Divine Court would not be facing the embarrassing situation of the Holy Son being killed.

The Pope looked down at the nearly 100 bishops who were silent and said in an authoritative voice; “All of you, this Eastern man has killed the Holy Son of the Divine Court, this is a great provocation to us, he is even more abominable than the madman twenty years ago, if we don’t kill him, where is the majesty of the Divine Court? Pass on my order, all the believers in all the western regions to hunt this man down, send out a hundred golden knights, within three days, I want to see the head of that eastern man appear before me.”

Hearing these words, the faces of nearly a hundred bishops shook, all the Western believers went after that Oriental, plus a hundred golden knights, although such a large formation had been seen before, it was more than a hundred years ago, the madman twenty years ago had not even been taken so seriously by the Pope.

But after thinking about what this Oriental had done, nearly a hundred bishops were relieved that this young man from the East had done far more than the Madman of twenty years ago and must be treated with the highest attitude; if too much indulgence was given, another Madman would appear in the Western world.

The Pope’s order soon reached all the regional branches of the Western Divine Court, and in response to this order from the Pope, whether it was the Divine Court or other powers, they could all feel the anger contained in this order.

The Pope was angry, the Divine Court was angry, hundreds of millions of believers were angry. Faced with this anger, no power in the Western world, except Atlantis, could withstand their anger, and the weak Oriental could not bear it even more, for he was facing an anger that had not occurred in the Divine Court for centuries.

On the same day, a hundred golden knights left the Vatican after an order from the Pope, a force that no one dared to ignore.

“This bastard has actually shaded me!”

Inside a certain vacant villa in the Coal Country, Ye Han slowly put down the phone with an incomparably cold expression, having been shaded just like that, Ye Han’s heart was naturally very unhappy, the person he had just spoken to was Fire Phoenix, right now Ye Han naturally knew about the movements on the Divine Court’s side.

He had killed Ye He Men? Naturally not, but Ye Han knew that even if he went to explain, it would be useless, not to mention that the Divine Court would not believe him, and as soon as he showed his face, the Divine Court’s followers would probably appear on the street to attack him.

What’s more, Ye Han didn’t want to explain, he did have this in mind to kill Ye He Men, and since everyone outside now thought that Ye He Men was killed by him, he was sure to take this black pot.

However, the next time he faced the wrath of the Divine Court, Ye Han knew that his situation was even more dangerous, the wrath of hundreds of millions of believers plus a hundred golden knights, who dared to say that he could pass through unharmed?

“This kid, the mess is really getting bigger and bigger!” Inside a certain military base in the Coal Country, Madman hid in a corner and smoked silently, hiding here, the Great Sage of the Divine Court, Ye He Deicide, could not find him for the time being, but Ye Han’s situation was getting more and more dangerous, Madman knew that he could not keep hiding here, if not, this time Ye Han would really be finished, then he would be too much of a failure as an old man, he had to find a way to go out and help Ye Han, help him through this He had to find a way to go out and help Ye Han, to help him through this crisis.

But just then, a munitions vehicle entering the military base caught the attention of the maniac, because the people who got down on top of that munitions vehicle were not ordinary people.

“Peacekeepers, what are these guys doing on this little base?” Madman threw away his cigarette and came as a black light closer to the munitions vehicle, when a cold middle-aged man in a military uniform got out with a suitcase.

“General, the inside has been cleared, the stuff is perfectly safe here.”

Upon hearing this, the cold middle-aged man nodded and said; “The God’s Disk fragment cannot be lost, this is only a temporary storage point, someone will come to take it away in a few days, we must guard it well during this period, once we lose the God’s Disk fragment, you and I will both be court-martialed, understand?”

“The divine disc fragment, so it was brought to this small base by this guy, it seems that this is an unexpected pleasure, it took no time at all to get it.” When Madman heard this, the corners of his mouth split, if he helped Ye Han obtain the God Disc Fragment, then it would not be far from the day when Ye Han would call him ‘Dad’.

However, just as the Madman was about to make his move to take the divine disc fragment, a familiar aura spread through the air, an aura that had been chasing him in the Western World for some days.

“These guys who are dogs, their noses are too good, can’t they come a little later?” The madman looked at the night sky with a cold, sharp gaze and said to himself; “It seems that I have to think of a way to bring this fellow Jehovah’s Murderer to a bit of a hard time, it’s about time that being chased by this fellow for half of the Western World is over!”

As for the fragment of the divine disc that was placed here, he could only inform Ye Han to let the Security Bureau come and do it, being chased by Ye He Deicide, he had no chance to do it.

Inside the villa that had been left vacant, at this time, two black shadows entered the place one after the other, the villa did not have the lights on, one of them burst like lightning towards the youth sitting alone on the sofa.

“Lin Qi, you brat is itching for skin, you dare to fight me.” As the words fell, Ye Han kicked Lin Qi out with a single kick.

“Aiya, boss, you know it was me and still hit so hard, so heartless.” Lin Qi grumbled and got up from the ground, as Silly Ben passed by him, he bristled and said; “You deserved it, you were incapable and still wanted to test the boss’s skills, not letting you break a bone was already being merciful.”

Ye Han lit a cigarette and said; “Okay, don’t be poor, next we will have a tough battle to fight, the Divine Court is an opponent that I think you should know very well, next I want you to destroy the prestige of the Divine Court in the western world, this process I don’t care how you two guys do, in short I want to make the Divine Court’s reputation in the western world stink to high heaven. ”

Lin Qi walked over and grinned, his face full of murderous anger, and said; “Boss, this is easy, just leave it to me and Silly Ben, but can you handle this group of guys by yourself? I’ve heard that the divine court has sent out a hundred golden knights, plus believers from all regions “Give it a try!” Ye Han silently smoked a cigarette.

Upon hearing this, Lin Qi immediately took out a packet from his arms and said; “Boss, this is something that that guy Zhou Lie asked me to give to you before coming to the western world, saying that it would be useful to you.”

Hearing this, Ye Han took it and opened it, immediately, he smiled and said; “It’s still Brother Zhou who is thoughtful, with these two human skin masks, it will be much easier to deal with that group of guys from the Divine Court, big deal, it will take time for this group of guys to find me.”

At this time, a message suddenly came over the top of Ye Han’s mobile phone, this message was sent by Madman with a coordinate signal on it.

“There’s news about the divine disc fragment.” Ye Han’s brow furrowed, right now he had trouble wrapped around him, he really didn’t want to bother with this whole God Disc Fragment thing, but thinking of Fire Phoenix and what he owed Situ Zhentian, Ye Han let out a sigh.

“What’s wrong, Boss?” Lin Qi came over and asked curiously.

Ye Han shook his head and said; “Nothing, all right, you guys go ahead, be careful and don’t be reckless when things go wrong.”

“Boss, you take care too.”

Silly Ben and Lin Qi both left the place, after Ye Han took out a human skin mask and put it on, he instantly changed from a handsome youth to a middle-aged uncle, this way not to mention the people of the Divine Court couldn’t recognize who he was, even if he stood in front of Zhou Yun’er and the girls they would only have difficulty recognizing him, in terms of disguise, Zhou Lie, the divine thief’s skill was undoubtedly top notch.

With Zhou Lie’s human skin mask, he did not have to worry about the Divine Court finding him for the time being. Taking advantage of this time frame, Ye Han wanted to go and snatch the fragment of the Divine Plate.

This time, Ye Han was still alone. The Security Bureau had many people and a large target, so if they acted together, the possibility of being exposed was great, and even if something happened to one person, it would be better to get away in the end.

“Too late?”

Inside the villa after Ye Han had left, Ye He Tian appeared at this time, he had followed the unique smell of Ye Han all the way here, when he had killed Ye He Men, Ye He Tian had already sprinkled the unique medicinal powder of the Divine Court on Ye Han’s body, once this powder was stuck, even washing it could not disperse the smell.

“Lucky fellow, you got away once again.” Ye He Tian opened the wine cabinet and took out a bottle of wine and poured it for himself, right now, he was in no hurry to go after Ye Han, the smell of his medicinal powder left on Ye Han would not dissipate for a week, he had plenty of time to track Ye Han down, as for whether Ye Han would shake out the fact that he had killed Ye He Men, Ye He Tian was not worried at all, because no one would believe Ye Han’s words.

On the streets of the coal country, Ye Han, who had already changed his costume, wandered around the streets with a duck-tongue hat on and a travel bag on his back as if he was a foreign tourist, taking a taxi ride and a little underground ride, and soon left Washington, but on the way, Ye Han also saw the terror of the Divine Court in the western world.

Right now, there were followers of the Divine Court wandering the streets in many streets, tracking down Ye Han, and even things like oppression of Easterners had appeared.

The coordinates given to Ye Han by Madman were in a small town not far from California City, where there was a small military base, very inconspicuous, outsiders would not have thought that the God’s Disk fragment would be inside this small military base which was not heavily guarded, if Madman had not found it by chance, no one would have known about it.

The most dangerous place is the safest place, and the people of the Coal Country have played a not so clever but practical trick on the secret societies of various countries, the Goddess Disc fragment has not been moved out of California City at all, it is still here, just in a more unexpected location.

The people from the Security Bureau were still in California City at the moment, but Ye Han didn’t go looking for them, and after entering California City, Ye Han didn’t immediately go to the coordinate point that Madman had given him, instead, he wandered around California City, drinking coffee, shopping at the mall, eating alone, walking around.

“Quite patient!” At a street, Ye Han took a glance at the passing people around him and smiled coldly, then, he put away the newspaper in his hand and entered a Chinese owned beef restaurant across the street.

“Boss, give me two bowls of beef noodles.” After entering the beef restaurant, Ye Han yelled out in authentic Chinese.

Hearing this, a tall, thin Chinese man came over and said enthusiastically; “Brother, from China?”

Ye Han nodded and smiled; “Boss, two beef noodles, I like to eat meat, put more meat in it.”

“Good, it’s not easy to meet people from the same country abroad, brother, this meal is on me today.” After saying that, the tall and thin boss immediately went in and went to work. The beef restaurant owned by this boss was doing quite good business, only two of the dozen tables inside were unoccupied.

Not long after, the tall skinny boss's beef noodles were served, directly two big bowls were placed in front of Ye Han, smiling; "Brother, say something later if you haven't eaten enough, it's kind of fate that we met abroad, don't be polite with me know?"

"Oh, thanks a lot big brother, I will definitely ask if I need anything." Ye Han grinned, and immediately picked up his chopsticks and ate in big bites, he was now dressed as a middle-aged man, and this tall, thin boss was not wrong to call him brother.

At this time, while Ye Han was eating the noodles, a western man facing plainly with gentle jade-like eyes entered inside the noodle shop, he then sat down opposite Ye Han as a steaming bowl of beef noodles was placed opposite Ye Han.

"Eat up, this is one of the best things in our place, you should be hungry after following me all the way from Washington to California City." Ye Han said without raising his head as he ate the beef noodles, he didn't know who the person sitting across from him was, but he knew that this person had followed him all the way from Washington to here, and Ye Han had ordered this bowl of beef noodles for him.

At those words, the western man with gentle jade-like eyes laughed; "You have good reflexes, after coming to California City from Washington, you have been leading me around in circles inside this city, since you knew I was following you, why didn't you think of a way to find me out?"

"Because I knew that in the end you would appear on your own, in that case, why should I go to this trouble, you didn't make a move on me, this proves that you and I are not enemies." Ye Han picked up his large bowl and took a sip of the noodle soup as he continued; "There are not many people who can follow me without me finding out where I am, and among the young masters in the western world, I don't think there are many, so I am curious about your identity."

Hearing this from Ye Han, the western man laughed; "If it wasn't for the fact that you ordered an extra bowl of beef noodles, I don't think I would have shown up, we are not enemies you are right about that, of course, this is only temporary, I am not sure about the future and you are equally unclear, maybe we can become friends or maybe we will become enemies, don't you think? "

Ye Han nodded his head as he ate and said; "Good point, so do you want to be friends with me if you follow me? Or be an enemy?"

"Both." The western man smiled; "Introduce yourself first, you can call me Tien, as for what I am, I can't tell you for now, maybe you can inquire from somewhere else, but not me here, so now, eastern man, can I know your name? It seems that no one in the Western world knows your name at the moment, do I have that honour to be the first?"

"Ye Han." Ye Han finally looked up at this western man called Tien and smiled; "As for what I am, I can't tell you either, perhaps you can inquire about it from other places, but not from me here."

At that, Tien laughed and said; "You are interesting and to my liking, it seems I should have appeared to meet you sooner, perhaps we could have learned more about each other that way, about the Jehovah's Gate, why don't you tell the truth?"

“Is it useful?” Ye Han shrugged and laughed; “Even if I rushed to the Vatican now and shouted to that old man the Pope that it wasn’t me who killed Jehovah’s Gate, do you think they would believe me on that?”

“No.” Tien responded to Ye Han in a straightforward manner.

“That’s not the end of it, since they won’t believe it, why should I bother explaining it, wouldn’t that make it look like I, Ye Han, am afraid of that fake merciful old man, the Pope.”

“Oh, very interesting answer, but if it were me, I wouldn’t either,” after saying this, the two looked at each other and smiled at each other, Tien stood up and said; “Thank you for the beef noodles, but I should go, by the way, apart from me, you still have a tail that you haven’t got rid of.”

With those words, Tien pushed open the door of the noodle shop and walked out, disappearing without a trace in the blink of an eye.

“Interesting fellow, only a little stronger than Ye He Tian, but yet such a low profile, could he be from there?” Ye Han gazed outside the door of the noodle shop, his eyes narrowed into a slit.

Fortune Chapter 647

Ye Han could feel that this western young man called Tien was very powerful, stronger than the Yeh He Tian he had met, from Washington to California City, Ye Han had tried several times to find out who was following him, but Tien was too well hidden, Ye Han simply could not find his location, such as this powerful young expert, Ye Han was the first time he had encountered.

“Is there still a tail?” Thinking of Tien’s words, Ye Han’s eyes narrowed into a slit, a cold glint in his eyes, who could the other tail be? Apart from Tien, he didn’t feel that another person was following him.

Unable to think clearly, Ye Han did not think about it for the time being and swallowed both bowls of beef noodles, then quickly left the place after putting down a US bill on the table.

Since Tien did not continue to follow him behind him, and since the other tail that Tien had spoken about, Ye Han had not found it either, so Ye Han was not prepared to delay any longer and immediately headed for a small town in California City, the coordinates given by Madman were somewhere in this town.

After some tracing, Ye Han arrived outside the small military base, looking at the laxly guarded military base inside, which was not even installed with monitors, Ye Han’s brow frowned, such a small military base god disc fragment such an important thing coal countryman would put here?

But the madman would not be without a target, immediately, Ye Han began to use the Yin Yang Dharma Eye to see through this military base, this base was not big, inside and out only added up to a few hundred people, and these people were only ordinary soldiers, all the way through, suddenly, Ye Han’s palm gradually clenched into a fist, because inside this military base he found some experts, these experts were hidden inside the secret room under the base.

“Peacekeeping troops!” A cold smile appeared at the corner of Ye Han’s mouth, since the Coal Country’s peacekeeping troops were all here, then the Divine Disc Fragment should also be here, and since these people were hiding so well, they were only protecting the Divine Disc Fragment in secret.

Looking at this military base in front of him, Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “These guys really know how to play, hiding something here, no wonder the group of guys from the Security Bureau have no news at all, who would have thought that there would be a treasure like the God Disc Fragment in this seemingly incomparably dangerous and laxly defended place.”

After saying these words, Ye Han swept through the power grid outside the base, and after a few flashes in the dark night sky like a black wind, he had already entered the base without making a single sound, and the soldiers outside were completely unaware that someone had infiltrated inside the military base at this moment.

Ten minutes later, Ye Han had arrived at the front of the underground chamber, which was occupied by eight experts from the peacekeeping force.

However, the door of the underground chamber was an electronic door that required a password to enter. Seeing this, Ye Han’s palm was placed on the ground where the password was entered and he began to close his eyes, his left and right eyes opened at the same time, and in the next moment, the image of a coal country soldier entering the password here entered Ye Han’s mind.

After knowing the password, the corner of Ye Han’s mouth curled up and pressed the four-digit password on it, and immediately, the electronic door slowly opened.

Seeing this, the eight experts of the peacekeeping forces inside the underground chamber frowned, what were the people from outside doing in the middle of the night?

However, just as the doubts of these peacekeeping troops fell, Ye Han had already dashed into the underground chamber, like a gust of wind emerging from the ground, so fast that the eight experts of the peacekeeping troops did not even have time to react, and in the next moment, a terrifying blade light appeared inside the underground chamber, and the three experts of the peacekeeping troops who had not yet reacted were killed by Ye Han on the spot.

“Not good, there’s an enemy!” A middle-aged Western man with a cold look let out a loud cry, then burst towards Ye Han, this cold Western middle-aged man was the leader of the group, and his strength was considered powerful, similar to that of a domestic middle-ranking governor expert, however, how could this strength resist Ye Han.

“Die!”

After killing the three peacekeepers, Ye Han turned his eyes and saw the cold Western middle-aged man coming towards him.

The eight experts of the peacekeeping force in the underground chamber inside the military base were no match for Ye Han, only a minute after the battle began, all eight experts of the peacekeeping force were killed by Ye Han, but the commotion naturally alerted the officers inside the military base, and then the soldiers of the entire military base came towards the underground chamber.

“Quickly, once the infiltrator is found, he must be killed at all costs” the top officer inside the military base had a shocked look on his face, he knew best what kind of people were in the underground chamber, although he didn’t know what the peacekeeping troops were hiding inside for, but there must be The important mission, once these people appear in his place things, he will definitely be mentioned to the military court.

In the underground chamber, after Ye Han had finished with the eight experts of the peacekeeping force, his gaze swept and he spotted a small coded box placed on a table inside the chamber, which held two pieces of the divine disc fragments.

However, just as Ye Han was about to take the box, a fierce wind suddenly came from behind him and swept over his head as fast as lightning and finally stopped at the location of the box.

“Did you sneak into this base and kill so many people just for this thing?” Ye He Tian slowly turned around on the opposite side of Ye Han, he was holding the code box with a smile on his face as he looked at Ye Han.

“You’ve been following me?” Ye Han’s eyes were cold as he looked at Ye He Tian, how did this guy follow him here? One should know that he was now disguised, so how could Ye He Tian still recognise him?

Smiling at his words, Ye He Tian said; “There is an old saying on your side of the world; the mountain man has a good plan, since you want this thing so badly, I will hold it for you for the time being.”

“Humph, I’m just afraid that you don’t have that ability.” Ye Liang grunted before suddenly running wildly towards Ye He Tian, as a burst of footsteps had now sounded outside the underground chamber, and he had to snatch the divine disc fragment from Ye He Tian’s hand and leave the place.

“Hehe, I’ve long wanted to come and receive a lesson in person, let me see just how powerful you are who can continue to get away with it despite the great pursuit of the young Western experts?” The corner of Ye He Tian’s mouth hung with a cold arc as he killed Ye Han.

Inside the chamber, two figures, like two terrifying hurricanes, madly stormed towards each other, then two fists, fiercely clashed, bang, the sound of collision fell, a ripple of power immediately spread in the surrounding air, the whole underground chamber seemed to shake because of this power.

After one move, neither of their figures faltered, but the initial collision, which was only a test run for each other, snapped, and out of nowhere a silver light killed Yehudi on its own, slashing at the code box Yehudi was carrying in his hand.

“Hmph, the Eastern martial arts are really extraordinary!” Ye He Tian sneered, a terrifying white light erupted around his body, his weapon, like Ye He Men’s, was made of power illusion, seemingly unreal, but the attack was incomparably powerful.

The dragon scale dagger controlled by Ye Han collided with Ye He Tian’s weapon, and the dragon scale dagger was actually bounced out, but Ye Han did not stop, he flew up and kicked down in the air in a furious manner, aiming straight at the code box in Ye He Tian’s hand, with a snap, the code box broke with a sound, and two pieces of iron burst out from it, shooting up into the air.

Seeing this, Ye Han had just landed on the ground, his whole body instantly pulled up and reached out to grab the two pieces of iron in mid-air.

“Roll!”

At this moment, the spear weapon that had manifested in Ye He Tian’s hand suddenly burst towards the mid-air, forcing Ye Han to burst back and seize one of the iron pieces, while the other piece of iron fell into Ye He Tian’s hand at this moment.

This scene seemed to have taken a long time to happen, but in fact it was only a matter of seconds.

After obtaining one of the divine disc fragments, Ye Han immediately put it into the Sumerian Ring, and then looked coldly at Ye He Tian, the other divine disc fragment was in his hands, and he had to find a way to seize it together.

“So it is this thing, I heard that many people in the western world want it, including you easterners.” Ye He Tian held the divine disc fragment in his hand and smiled lightly, then he looked at Ye Han and said; “What, you want to get it?”

“What do you think?” Ye Han said coldly.

“Unless you defeat me and snatch it back from my hands, this item will belong to my divine court.” Ye He Tian laughed coldly.

“I have exactly the same intention.” Holding the Dragon Scale Dagger tightly, he said; “Two of the Divine Court’s great and small saints and a saint’s daughter, two of whom I have already experienced, they are indeed one in ten thousand genius experts, now, let me see how much stronger you are than them?”

“Lina is indeed good, but do you think that Jehovah’s Gate is worthy to be compared to me?”

“You are more powerful than he is, and more ruthless, and more intelligent.”

“Oh, can I take that as a compliment from you?” Ye He Tian smiled faintly, but at that moment, outside the underground chamber, a coal country soldier with a gun arrived, looking at Ye Han and Ye He Tian who appeared inside the chamber, they instantly pulled the trigger and swept frantically towards the inside.

“Orientals, these guys are too annoying, if you have the ability to fight with me outside.” After saying this, Ye He Tian ran wildly towards the outside of the chamber, and all those Coal Country soldiers who appeared on the way were all blown away as if they were swept by a gale, and the scattered gunshots rang out inside the base.

Ye Han also followed behind Ye He Tian. With Ye He Tian in front of him, Ye Han basically escaped from the military base without much effort.

Outside the military base, Ye He Tian turned his head to look at Ye Han before leaving with a cold smile in the night sky.

Seeing this, Ye Han naturally followed closely, there was still a fragment of the divine disc in this fellow’s hands, he had to snatch it, he absolutely could not let the fragment of the divine disc fall into the hands of the divine court, otherwise it would undoubtedly be a fool’s dream to get it in the future.

“Damn bastards, give me chase, catch up with them, make sure to kill them”

Outside the military base, the top officer of this military base's face turned white, the peacekeeping troops were all dead, he felt his life had turned dark, all he could do now was to kill Ye Han and the others, so that he would have an explanation to the above.

In the dark night sky, two figures ran wildly in the night sky, one after the other, ten minutes later, the two arrived at a quiet wooded area, it was a park, but it was already midnight at the moment, there was no one else inside the park except Ye Han and Ye He Tian.

"Surprisingly, you can keep up with me, not bad speed." Looking at Ye Han who was standing opposite to him, Ye He Tian raised the fragment of the divine disc in his hand and said; "Your country must have spent a lot of power to obtain this, now it's up to you if you can snatch this from my hands."

"People who are conceited often die under their own conceit." Ye Han said calmly.

"I am conceited, that's because I have the strength to be conceited, Oriental, no more nonsense, we can start, come on, no one is bothering us here." Ye He Tian placed the divine disc fragment in his arms, the spear weapon manifested from his hand and slowly pointed at Ye Han.

Feeling the endless battle intent emanating from Ye He Tian's body, the Dragon Spring Sword flashed out from the Sumerian Ring and was held tightly in Ye Han's hand. Facing Ye He Tian, a powerful opponent, Ye Han did not dare to underestimate, and whether he could snatch the Divine Disc Fragment from his hand, Ye Han was not even sure in his heart yet.

"God's light, shine universally!"

In the midst of this stare-down, Ye He Tian fiercely shouted, and then, the spear in his hand pierced through the void, bursting like a lightning laser towards Ye Han's body, under the dark night sky, Ye He Tian's move illuminated Ye Han's cold corn face, at the same time, Ye Han held the Dragon Spring General with a shake, and a piece of sword light waved out.

"Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Art!"

The sword light waved out and met Ye He Tian's attack, the two forces of yin and yang intertwined with each other, making the sword light waved out in the void terrifying to the extreme.

"Break!"

Looking at the sword light that greeted him, Ye He Tian's speed did not decrease, and his cold smiling face wore a crazy smile as his spear ruthlessly charged into the sword light, stirring madly, and the surrounding void trembled, as if the entire void would shatter under such an attack from Ye He Tian.

Rumbling vibrations passed out in the void, relentless power, destroying everything within ten metres around in an extremely rampant-like manner, several bowl-sized trees were waist-deep, and fallen leaves flew all over the sky under the night sky.

The terrifying power spread over, Ye Han's palm waved, the destructive power disappeared without a trace in front of him, then the Dragon Spring Sword danced quickly in his hand, a stream of piquant sword qi rushed up to the sky, a harsh aura was released in the night sky, Ye Han's hand seemed to appear a divine weapon that could destroy heaven and earth, cutting down towards Ye He Tian who was standing proudly and frantically.

“Great Free Sword Technique!”

Under the night sky, Ye Han let out a loud shout, and the sword qi that rushed to the sky cut down towards the proudly standing Ye He Tian.

Looking at Ye Han swinging and chopping over the rushing sword qi, Ye He Tian’s smiling face released a cold and stern aura, his spear danced, the terrifying white power converged around him and finally all of it converged on the spear in his hand, at this moment, Ye He Tian’s attack was equally incomparable and terrifying.

The two attacks touched in a frenzy at a speed invisible to the naked eye, and the destructive power came into contact with each other.

On the lawn in the woods, Ye Han and Ye He Tian both retreated at the same time, and the power turned into a fierce wind that blew their clothes.

After exchanging a few moves, Ye Han felt the terror of Ye He Tian, and Ye He Tian also felt the power of Ye Han.

While Ye Han and Ye He Tian were fighting, Foolish Ben and Lin Qi, who had come to the West, were also facing a big chase at the moment.

In just one day’s time, Foolish Ben and Lin Qi had combined their efforts to bring the divine court’s branch in the coal country to an end, and the two of them had slaughtered more than a hundred believers in Jesus, including ordinary believers and silver knights of the divine court. They were able to leave whenever they wanted to.

The Pope even ordered the Golden Knights who had gone to the Coal Country to kill Ye Han to divide half of their forces into two heretics, Foolish Ben and Lin Qi, and to kill them as well as Ye Han, in order to uphold the majesty of the Divine Court. majesty.

Of course, what made the Pope even more furious was that Foolish Ben and Lin Qi had not only attacked the Divine Court’s branch in Coal Country, but had also attacked major shopping centres, shops and even police stations in Coal Country.

This situation is very unfavourable to the Divine Court, the internet opinion is huge, the TV news is all over the air, condemning the Divine Court’s terrorist acts, once the negative news about the Divine Court grows, the Divine Court’s followers will be reduced as a result, moreover, the authorities of the coal country will also have an opinion about the Divine Court, although this opinion is only kept in their hearts.

At this moment, behind Silly Ben and Lin Qi there was a terrifying army of chasers, the Silver Knights of the Divine Court, and the Golden Knights who had been ordered to come to Coal Country to kill Ye Han had also joined in. It could be said that at this time now, Silly Ben and Lin Qi were facing the most powerful crisis ever, and if they could not break through, they would have to leave their lives behind in the Western World.

However, Silly Ben and Lin Qi's potential had no bottom line, the greater the pressure, the greater the potential inside their bodies would be stimulated, and under such a terrifying great chase, their strength would rise wildly, pushing themselves to the limit of their potential.

"Damn it, here we go again!" Inside a dark alleyway, Lin Qi held his blood-dripping Heaven-breaking halberd in his hand, breathing heavily as he looked at the shifting figures inside the alleyway, a monstrous killing intent flickering in his eyes as he said; "Silly Ben, should we continue to flee, or fight?"

At these words, a terrifying battle intent flashed in the eyes of Foolish Ben, who was also leaning against the wall and breathing heavily; "Battle!"

"Haha, fight!" With a loud laugh, Lin Qi met the experts of the Divine Court and stormed over to kill them.

The situation that Foolish Ben and Lin Qi were facing was naturally unknown to Ye Han, but he was not worried about Foolish Ben and Lin Qi, these two guys were not short-lived people, the potential within their bodies would be squeezed out infinitely and turned into their own power.

Inside the woods, the battle between Ye Han and Ye He Tian continued, the terrifying battle clashed with each other, destroying the surrounding area, the grass on the ground was cut off a large piece, the dust flew, at this moment, both Ye Han and Ye He Tian's faces were quite heavy.

Ye Han's hand was trembling and his face was flushed, and so was Ye He Tian's. But as they stared at each other, Ye He Tian slowly raised his spear in his hand and looked at Ye coldly and laughed; "I underestimated you, you bastard. It seems that if I don't kill you tonight, I will have another opponent in this world."

Ye Han looked at Ye He Tian and said indifferently; "I didn't underestimate you, but do you think you can kill me tonight?"

"One has to try, next, I will show you one of my Divine Court's best moves, by then if you still don't die, then I admit that I can't kill you tonight." Saying this, a dazzling light erupted from above the spear that Yehudi had raised flat, and finally, within this cloud of light, Yehudi's weapon split into two, and two into three a full nine spears emitting a terrifying aura were suspended in front of Yehudi.

The terrifying aura around the heaven and earth, at this moment crazy surge, a crisis at this time surged to Ye Han's heart, from the direction of Ye He Tian, Ye Han can feel how terrifying that crisis is, if he does not use the ultimate move, absolutely will not be able to block Ye He Tian this terrifying big move.

After sensing the crisis, Ye Han let out a deep breath, the Dragon Spring Sword was placed in his Sumeru Ring, the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire was summoned by him at this moment, then nine lances emitting flames surfaced around Ye Han, the tips of the lances were aimed at Ye He Tian.

"Hehe, it seems that you and I both have underhanded cards that have not been exposed, now, let's see whose power is fiercer." Looking at the flaming spear under Ye Han's control, Ye He Tian smiled coldly, and then, with a swirl of his palm, the nine spears were like sharp swords, carrying an earth-shattering might towards Ye Han to kill him.

“Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire, go!”

Ye Han shouted, and then, the nine flaming spears suspended around him shot at the nine terrifying spears that came to kill him. Within a twenty-metre radius, it was as if an indescribable explosion had taken place, and a crater two metres deep and ten metres wide had appeared on the ground.

And at this moment, inside that big pit, Ye Han and Ye He Tian fell to the ground on their backs, their mouths wildly vomiting blood, this clash had actually left them both defeated.

Fortune Chapter 650

A terrifying collision was made in the woods, and the force swept through everything within a 20-metre radius, destroying it to the point of chaos.

However, even though they had been badly injured, they still managed to get up, both gazing at each other with a very cold gaze.

“You are the first person who can injure me to this extent.” Ye He Tian looked at Ye Han with an icy expression, when he had fought that demon from Atlantis, it was only point blank, but tonight, he and Ye Han were on a wild collision course.

At those words, Ye Han said with the same icy coldness; “Is that so? It seems I am honoured to be the first to hand over the divine disc fragment to me.”

“Do you think that’s possible?” Ye He Tian laughed coldly and said; “Although my divine Court is not involved in the fight for this, but do you think I will return the treasure that was given to me?”

“It’s possible that you are holding a hot potato, don’t draw fire when the time comes.” Ye Han said coldly.

Ye He Tian sneered; “That’s not for you to worry about, still the same words; if you want to get this thing, unless you defeat me.”

“Stubborn” Ye Han let out a deep breath as the Vermilion Bird Sacred Fire was once again summoned by him, however, just then, a sound of footsteps suddenly rang out from outside the woods, Ye Han and Ye He Tian gazed inside this park, just now the military base The group of coal country soldiers inside appeared.

Seeing this, Ye He Tian said to Ye Han; “It seems that our fight tonight is going to end here, next time, I will come back to you.”

After saying this, Ye He Tian violently shot out inside the woods, and in a few flashes disappeared without a trace in the night sky, Ye Han also did not stay much longer, and immediately left the woods, the battle with Ye He Tian both of them had been seriously injured, and now this situation was a bit tricky to face that group of coal country soldiers armed with guns.

“Looks like we’re a step too late, it should have been Heavenly Sage and that damned Oriental fighting just now.” At this moment, outside the park, a group of western experts clad in golden cloaks and holding huge swords looked coldly at the wretched battlefield inside the woods, there were 40 to 50 of them, many of the Coal Country GI’s were still searching inside the park now, but Ye Han and Ye He Tian had already left long ago.

“Hmph, it doesn’t matter, the damned Oriental he must still be in California City, we can definitely find him out if we contact the Heavenly Sage.”

California City, on top of a roof, in that corner where the night light could not shine, Ye Han undressed and looked at the wounds on his body that were almost turning into rotten flesh, he could not help but take a breath of cold air backwards, he had been badly injured in the battle with Ye He Tian, who had done the same, but this injury was only a day for Ye Han.

Controlling his aura and the Bathing Fire Rebirth Technique, the speed at which Ye Han recovered from his injuries was astonishing, with the help of the Bathing Fire Rebirth Technique, those horrific wounds on Ye Han’s body were slowly healing, his metabolism was extremely fast, and the scars were barely visible after those wounds had healed.

After one night had passed, Ye Han’s wounds had already been mostly healed, and this recovery speed could not be described as amazing.

However, in comparison, Ye He Tian was not as lucky as Ye Han. At this moment, he was quietly recuperating in a church in California City, and the injuries he had sustained would not heal for more than ten days and half a month.

This church was one of the many strongholds of the Divine Court, and a white-clothed bishop was carefully guarding the outside, the Heavenly Saint Son was healing in his place, he had to serve him well, and nothing could go wrong.

“Bishop, the golden knight masters have arrived.” At this moment, a silver knight walked in and whispered.

Upon hearing this, this white bishop’s expression trembled and hurriedly walked out and came outside the church, at this moment, there were five golden knights standing outside the church, as for the other golden knights had been distributed around this church, the Heavenly Saint Son was injured, they naturally knew the news, right now, they had to ensure that this church was absolutely safe.

“All of you, Lord Golden Knights, please come inside.” The white bishop put himself in a very low posture, although they all belonged to the jurisdiction of the nearly one hundred cardinals of the divine court, although the status of the golden knights was clearly a step above that of the white bishop.

“Where is the Heavenly Saint Son?” A golden knight asked indifferently.

At that, the white bishop hurriedly responded; “Lord Golden Knight, the Heavenly Saint Son is inside recuperating and everything is safe.”

“Bring us over.”

Not long after, the white-clothed Bishop led the five Golden Knights to outside a large door, at which point, the door was opened from the inside, and a white-clothed Jehovah Heaven walked out from inside, though his steps were a little weak, and his handsome face had a pale look on it.

“Saint Son of Heaven.” Seeing Jehovah Heaven appear, the five golden knights and the white-clothed bishop immediately saluted and called out.

Ye He Tian waved his hand and said; "The Oriental is still in California City, I have sprinkled tracking powder on his body, he is now at a weak point, this Saint Son is seriously injured, he is equally seriously injured, you guys go and bring him here, remember, I want him alive."

Upon hearing this, a golden knight said; "Saint Son of Heaven, I have enough to deal with that Oriental with twenty golden knights, the rest of you stay here to protect you, right now the western world is in chaos, besides this Oriental, there are two other damned Orientals on the loose."

Jehovah Heaven nodded and said; "Go, remember, I want him alive, and when this Holy Son has recovered from his wounds, he will have to fight him again."

"Yes, Saint Son of Heaven."

On top of the roof, Ye Han's injuries had healed by now, the other divine disc fragment was still in Ye He Tian's hands, he had to find a way to take it over, but at the moment, Ye Han had no idea where Ye He Tian was, to know where Ye He Tian was, he had to rely on the Security Bureau's intelligence system.

Thinking of this, Ye Han immediately dialed Fire Phoenix's number; "Fire Phoenix, find out for me where the Holy Son of God's Court, Ye He Tian, is? Try to be as quick as you can, as the Divine Disc Fragment is in his hands."

On the other side of the phone, after hearing this, Fire Phoenix said; "Little fellow, right now the believers and experts of the Divine Court outside are looking for you all over the streets, I think you should leave the western world when you have the chance, don't meddle in this matter, okay?"

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "Don't worry, I have a plan, you guys be prepared to evacuate at any time, because I have already obtained one of the divine disc fragments, as long as I snatch the one in Ye He Tian's hand it will be a great success."

After saying this, Ye Han did not give Fire Phoenix a chance to continue talking and hung up the phone, Ye He Tian was in the midst of being injured, so Ye Han was a bit reluctant not to take this opportunity to snatch the divine disc fragment from his hand.
