Fortune Chapter 71

The young proprietor of Ning's jewellery was indeed ruthless enough to raise the price to 10 million and then back out, making the kid across the street suffer a big loss.

Ye Han stared at Ning Feng in "anger" and said; "You will pay for playing with me."

Seeing Ye Han like this, Tang Da Shao and Liu Zhiming's hearts stuttered. 10 million was spent for nothing? Then what the hell was the point of playing? Even Zhou Yun'er looked at Ye Han with some uncertainty at this moment, although she had great confidence in Ye Han, Ye Han's current appearance made her a little worried.

"Hmph, pay the price, just by you?" Ning Feng looked at Ye Han and laughed; "If you can't afford to play, don't come and play, what's more, this Young Master has never looked at you as an opponent, with you not being worthy to play with this Young Master."

"You bastard, let's bet again if you dare." Ye Han looked at Ning Feng with his teeth gritted, as if he had already lost his mind from Ning Feng's anger.

Seeing Ye Han like this, Ning Feng's heart was overwhelmed with joy as he laughed and said, "It seems like you haven't had enough fun yet, so I'll make it up to you, so that Miss Zhou can see how unbeatable you are in front of me, Ning Feng."

"So you're agreeing?" Ye Han was still staring at Ning Feng with "anger".

"Of course, today, you dirtbag, I'll play whatever you want, I'll make you nothing." Ning Feng smiled coldly, hearing his surroundings, the people around him all shivered, the young proprietor of Ning's jewellery decided to play someone to death, that would definitely do it, that kid across the street was dead, he and Ning Feng were not at all on the same level, how could they fight?

"Good, then let's see who plays dead who, since I am losing to you on top of this original stone, then let's bet on whether this original stone is worth ten million or not, do you dare to agree?" Ye Han looked at Ning Feng with a look of exasperation, even his eyes were red.

"Hmph, dirtbag, with that kind of mentality you still want to fight with me?" Ning Feng sneered in his heart and said; "Fine, I'll bet with you on whether this raw stone is worth ten million or not, but a bet? This young master's time is very valuable, without a bet, I can't accompany you."

"Bastard, I'll bet you a hundred million, if the original stone is worth more than ten million, I'll give you my entire fortune, if you lose, you have to give me a hundred million, do you dare to agree? If you don't dare to agree then get lost." Ye Han seemed to have fallen into madness at this moment, his eyes were flushed red and sweat was left on his forehead.

Seeing Ye Han like this, everyone knew that he had completely lost his mind because he had just lost that one time, and he was trying to scare Ning Feng away with a high stake so that he could win some face.

"Hmph, you're still too young to scare me away, it's only 100 million, this young master agrees." Ning Feng said with a cold smile.

“Empty words are no proof, I don’t really trust your Young Master Ning’s character, unless you and I both write a cheque for 100 million each and give it to a middleman, the winner can take both cheques away, Young Master Ning, what do you think?” As he spoke, Ye Han’s face had slowly returned to normal.

“Young master, no, there is no need for us to take such a big risk over this matter.” Seeing that Ning Feng had already taken out the cheque and was ready to fill it out, the man beside him immediately spoke out to remind him, hearing this, a look of hesitation flashed across Ning Feng’s face, but at this moment, Ye Han happened to look at him provocatively as if he was provoking him, and also smiled contemptuously, seeing this, Young Master Ning’s heart was furious, and regardless of what he did, he brushed down a hundred million in his cheque book.

“Young master Ning is worthy of being the young proprietor of Ning’s jewellery, this kind of courage is hard to be matched by ordinary people!” Seeing that Ning Feng had already written a cheque for one hundred million, the surrounding spectators sighed with emotion, hearing these words Ning Feng’s heart became even more complacent and said to Ye Han; “Dirtbag, now it’s your turn, you won’t be unable to get one hundred million, right?”

Ye Han took out his ears and smiled lightly, that just now red-eyed look completely disappeared, he inclined his head and looked at Zhou Yun’er and smiled; “Daughter-in-law, first lend me a hundred million to play with, see how my husband can earn you a hundred million back in an hour.”

Zhou Yun’er gave Ye Han a blank look, but out of a woman’s intuition, she still took out her cheque book and wrote down a cheque for one hundred million, of course, taking out one hundred million for Ye Han to gamble with, although Zhou Yun’er was willing, she was still rather apprehensive in her heart, she had brought five hundred million with her when she came to Tengchong this time, all this money could be the future hope of Zhou’s jewellery.

Receiving the 100 million cheque handed over by Zhou Yun’er, Ye Han was so moved in his heart that he directly ignored the crowd present and gave Zhou Yun’er a kiss on her cheek, and also laughed heatedly; “A daughter-in-law is a daughter-in-law, let’s see how hubby will play dead that fool next.”

After saying that, Ye Han raised the cheque in his hand at Ning Feng and said; “Young Master Ning, how about we all give the two cheques to this pretty waitress lady?”

“Hmph, I’ll let you decide, dirtbag, the moment this original stone of yours is unraveled, you should cry and jump off a building.” Ning Feng laughed coldly, and returned the cheque in his hand to the overwhelmed waitress in one go, Ye Han also put his own cheque in, and said to the waitress who had become a little dumb; “Miss, please bear witness to us, don’t worry, after it’s done, I’ll give you a million dollars in payment, no matter if you win or lose.”

The waitress felt at this moment that the two cheques in her hands were heavier than a mountain, that was two hundred million, she had never seen so much money in her life, she could only nod dumbly and stupidly, then took Ye Han’s bank card and swiped ten million and one piece, then called for another stone solving master.

“I wonder how this gentleman would like to solve it?” The stone solving master looked at Ye Han and asked.

“Five centimeters on the left, ten centimeters on the right” Then Ye Han explained to the stone solver while waiting for the stone solver to unravel the original stone, all eyes were fixed on the movements of the stone solver, and as the stone solver began to rub the stone in the hands of the stone solver. A little bit of green light kept coming out.

But it was not unusual for the stone to produce green, the key was to see if the jadeite was worth $10 million.

However, as time passed, the green light emerging from the cut surface of the stone was getting bigger and bigger, as if the whole stone was wrapped with jadeite, the eyes of the surrounding crowd slowly changed, and judging from the situation at this moment, the stone was worth at least six or seven million, and if it was partially solved again, then it was not impossible to be worth ten million.

When he saw this, Ning Feng, who originally looked like he was sure of victory, suddenly tightened his gaze, his fists slowly clenched up, and the expression on his face changed from calm to a little uneasy.

“It’s still coming out green, it’s amazing, this piece of raw stone might be going up, it might not be worth less than 10 million!”

In a short while, the master stone-solver had cut all the way through one face, revealing a basketball-sized piece of green light. Although the rest of the area had not yet been cut off, the value of this piece of raw stone was already more than ten million dollars in terms of the jade revealed.

Fortune Chapter 72

Seeing this, Tang Da Shao and Liu Zhiming also slowly let out a sigh of relief, if Ye Han lost this bet, then he would have lost not as simple as 10 million, but more than 100 million.

Zhou Yun’er’s tense mind was likewise slowly relaxed, with her eyesight she could naturally see that Ye Han’s piece of raw stone was already no less than 10 million, which meant that Ye Han had won this time, but she was curious as to how Ye Han had actually done it? Now anyone with a discerning eye could see that it was Ye Han who had deliberately lured Ning Feng into taking the bait just now, which was why he dared to offer a bet of 100 million, but did Ye Han know the value of the original stone before that?

At this moment, Ning Feng’s face had turned iron blue, or bloodless, as if he was terminally ill.

Now Ning Feng, even if he was stupid, knew that he had been cheated by Ye Han.

He had walked step by step into the trap that Ye Han had set for him, and he was even complacent about it.

“Oh, Young Master Ning, it seems that my luck is good, I will laugh at this 100 million.” At this time, Ye Han looked at Ning Feng and smiled lightly, taking the two cheques from the waitress’s hand in full view of everyone.

One hundred million, just that much time to earn it, everyone present felt a little dreamy and unbelievable!

“Bastard, you’re counting on me?” Ning Feng looked at Ye Han with a fierce face, and a thick fierce aura immediately gushed out from the bodyguards behind him.

Ye coldly laughed and said; “Calculating you, Young Master Ning, I didn’t force you into this bet, we had a mutual agreement, you yourself were too much money and were willing to give me 100 million, how could I let you down?”

“Bastard, you’re looking for death!”

Ning Feng looked at Ye Han with an incomparably cold aura emanating from his body, he had been calculated by the other party and walked inside the trap step by step, now he had not only lost face and become the laughing stock of others, he had also lost a hundred million.

Ye coldly laughed; “Young master Ning, willing to gamble and accept defeat, don’t lose your face as the young proprietor of Ning’s jewellery for a mere 100 million.”

“Hey hey, some people can’t afford to lose and still play, old man is too embarrassed.” The young man Tang had always been unhappy with Ning Feng, he said in a strange voice; “The young proprietor of Ning’s jewellery, I don’t know who just said that, I don’t have much else, just a lot of money, now losing a hundred million is painful, it seems that Ning’s jewellery is not good, can’t afford to play and can’t afford to lose, fuck, if I had known that, I should not have jumped out like a mad dog to bite people in the first place. ”

“Damn fatty, you have the guts to say it again?” Ning Feng was so angry at Tang Da Shao’s words that he would have jumped out and fought with him if the man beside him hadn’t pulled him along.

“Shit, my mouth is on me, I’ll say it, what do you want?” Tang Da Shao looked like he had no fear, he was not afraid of anything with Ye Han around anyway.

“Young man, aren’t your words too much? Our young master didn’t say anything about not admitting defeat, a mere 100 million, consider our young master giving alms to some beggars with ulterior motives.” The man beside Ning Feng looked silent, but his words were very poisonous, directly describing Ye Han as a beggar who wanted food.

When Zhou Yun’er heard this, that look instantly went cold and said; “Sir, please watch your words, don’t make people look down on your Ning’s jewellery, my boyfriend won this 100 million by fair and square means, not a handout from you.”

Ye Han patted Zhou Yun’er’s shoulder and laughed; “What are you bothering with them, the 100 million is already in brother’s hands, but Ning’s Jewelry is so generous, it seems we have to publicize it well, let all the beggar gangs in the country go to their Ning’s Jewelry gate and squat, they have money anyway, haha!”

Once he heard this, the man beside Ning Feng’s eyes were cold, let all the beggar gangs in the country go to the gate of Ning’s jewellery to squat, how can they still be open for business? The surrounding crowd had strange gazes, having beggars go and squat at the gate of Ning’s jewellery, perhaps this was the most advantageous way to combat Ning’s jewellery.

Ye Han gave both cheques in his hand to Zhou Yun’er, then said to the stone solver; “Master, go on, solve all of this raw stone.”

The stone solver smiled and nodded his head, with his years of experience in stone solving, he felt that this piece of raw stone in his hand would definitely rise greatly, so he was also eager to solve it and have a look.

Five minutes later, the master had already unravelled the second side, which revealed a larger area of jadeite, and from the colour inside, it was definitely ice jade. Seeing this, the hearts of many merchants around were on fire, when judging from the area, this piece of ice jadeite was already worth a lot of money.

“Oh, little brother, your luck is really admirable, I am willing to bid 30 million for this original stone of yours, I wonder if you are willing to sell it?” At this time, a merchant smiled at Ye Han and asked.

“Thirty million, this gentleman is joking, right?” Ye Han smiled lightly, then gestured for the stone solver to continue solving the stone.

“Wait, I am willing to pay fifty million, little brother don’t solve this raw stone anymore, sell it to me, right?” A man of about forty years old had a bright light in his eyes, his eyesight was very good, from the colour and shade of the solved jadeite, he knew that there was definitely more material in this stone, so he hastily offered.

But for this, Ye Han didn’t move a muscle, the stone solver could only continue to solve the stone when he saw this, Zhou Yun’er looked at it for a while and then said beside Ye Han; “Initial estimate, your piece of raw stone should be worth around 100 million, are you guy too lucky or do you have perspective eyes, you can come across such an opportunity.”

Ye Han’s heart skipped a beat, see-through eyes, this girl really guessed it, immediately he wrapped his arm around Zhou Yun’er’s small waist and said; “Yun’er, I can only say that your estimate is still too low, this piece of raw stone is definitely worth 200 million, do you believe it?”

“Two hundred million!” Zhou Yun’er looked at Ye Han with shocked eyes, a piece of raw stone was worth two hundred million, such odds were not many.

“Of course.”

“Shit, if it’s really worth two hundred million, you guys definitely slept with that pussy Lady Luck.” Tang Da Shao beamed and continued to look at the original stone with glowing eyes.

Zhou Yun’er lost her smile at this point and said; “If this original stone is really worth two hundred million, then you guy is so bad, not only did you not spend a single penny, but you also earned three hundred million for nothing, later on Ning Feng should be so angry that he will vomit blood.”

In response, Ye Han could only shrug innocently, who let that fellow mess with himself for nothing, he could only say that he deserved to be unlucky.

Fortune Chapter 73

In the middle of their conversation, the crowd around them was already in an uproar, chattering, because at the moment the jadeite revealed by Ye Han’s original stone was already half the size of a washbasin, and an ice jadeite of this size was very hard to see.

Ning Feng had been watching from the side, the more he watched the more ugly his face became, his body was trembling, because this piece of raw stone was the one he let to Ye Han, not only that, but he also lost 100 million because of this piece of raw stone, this was exactly the same as saying that he bought this piece of raw stone for Ye Han, so he was already on the verge of going mad with anger.

“Young master, you have to remain calm.” Seeing Ning Feng’s appearance at this moment, the man beside him said; “This person has unlocked this original stone and will definitely sell it later, the only way we can make up for the loss we just suffered is to take this original stone.”

“Damn it, does that mean I’ll have to give him money again.” Ning Feng growled lowly with resignation.

“Young master, we’ll just have to put up with this for now.” The man comforted him and continued; “There’s still a long way to go, we don’t have to fight for a moment, when this place is over, we can”

Saying that, the man’s eyes were cold as he gestured a neck-wiping motion.

Seeing this, Ning Feng immediately let out a fierce laugh; “You’re right, the road is still long, when this place is over, I want that bastard to spit out everything he ate, it just so happens that the gang from the Horse Gang can also be put to use.”

At this time, Ye Han’s piece of raw stone had been completely unravelled, and a face-basin sized piece of ice jade emerged in front of the crowd, causing the surrounding people’s eyes to glaze over and scramble to get a closer look, but these people were all rudely blown away by Young Tang.

It was worth two hundred million dollars. If these red-eyed guys stole it later, they would lose a lot of money, and it was their own brother’s money.

“Little brother, this is an ice-grain jadeite, I’m willing to bid $150 million.” A middle-aged man with a big belly looked at Ye Han and said firmly. Upon hearing this, Ye Han was a little surprised that this man’s opening bid was 150 million, it seemed that his estimate of 200 million was still a little low.

“I bid one hundred and ninety million.”

These bidders were all wealthy jewellers and were bullish in their bidding for this piece of ice jade.

“We, Ning’s Jewellery, are willing to bid two hundred million for this jadeite.” At this moment, the man beside Ning Feng looked at his mouth and said, but his words did not scare those jewellers away.

“Excuse me, Ning’s friend, I also have my eye on this jadeite, I bid two hundred and ten million dollars.”

“Two hundred and thirty million.”

“Two hundred and fifty million dollars.”

“I, Liu’s Jewellery, am willing to bid two hundred and eighty million dollars for this piece of jadeite.” Just as everyone was scrambling for this jade, an old man on crutches arrived here surrounded by the crowd, he opened his mouth and it was directly two hundred and eighty million dollars, these words instantly made those jewellers around dumbfounded, two hundred and eighty million dollars was already to the limit of what they could afford, after all, they were not that kind of giant level jewellers, not as rich as others.

Ning Feng looked at the old man who had come here and smiled lightly, saying; "I thought it was someone, it turned out to be Grandpa Liu, I heard that there were some problems with Liu's internal capital turnover, $280 million Grandpa Liu should think carefully."

"That's not for Ning to worry about." Liu Guangzong leaned on his cane and said quietly, although the Ba family and the Ruan family were currently united against the Kun family, and Liu and Ning were working with these two respectively, but it did not mean that Liu and Ning could also work together, in the country, Ning was in the north and Liu was in the south, these two had always been a competitive relationship.

At these words, Ning Feng coldly snorted in his heart and said; "It seems that Grandpa Liu is going to compete with me, a junior, but in terms of financial power, I'm afraid that the Liu's will not win, I'll bid 300 million."

Wow!

This was an extremely high price, and only a large consortium like the Ning Clan could shout it out!

Three hundred million! Liu Guangzong's brow furrowed, and all the wrinkles on his face creased together, then he looked at Ye Han and said; "This little brother, I am also willing to bid three hundred million for this piece of jade you have."

Hearing this, Ye Han instantly laughed, they say the more you live, the more refined you become, this old fellow was really an old fox, he had actually kicked the ball to him, the seller. However, the price of three hundred million was already beyond Ye Han's expectation, so he picked up Little Qingcheng and laughed; "Qingcheng ah, who do you think we should sell this broken stone to?"

Broken stone! Upon hearing this, the people around almost vomited blood, you son of a bitch, is that a broken stone? That's 300 fucking million!

The corners of Ning Feng's and Liu Guangzong's mouths twitched when they heard this, "Nima, if this was a broken stone, would they still have spent 300 million on it?"

No matter what others thought, when Little Qingcheng heard this, she cocked her head and thought about it, then looked at Ning Feng and Liu Guangzong again, then stroked her little bald head and said; "Brother Ye Han, that brother is ugly and bad, let's not sell it to him, let's sell it to that old grandpa, he looks like an old monk."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han laughed twice, pinched this little girl's face and said; "Okay, brother listen to you, let's not sell this broken stone to that ugly and bad one."

After saying this, Ye Han looked at Ning Feng again and laughed; "Excuse me young master Ning, you should have heard what this sister of mine said."

Ning Feng blackened his face and sneered; "Very well, but beware of having a life to take but no life to spend, let's go."

Saying that, Young Master Ning left with a belly full of fire, and the jade in Ye Han's hand was sold to Liu's Jewellery.

"This little brother doesn't know how to address you?"

After the transaction was over, Liu Guangzong looked at Ye Han and asked.

"I am Ye Han, Mr. Liu, this jadeite is now yours." Ye Han smiled and pointed at the jadeite on the ground and said.

"Oh, I have to thank little brother Ye Han for being able to obtain this treasure, this is my business card, if little brother Ye Han wants to come to my Liu's to develop, I will welcome you anytime." Liu Guangzong handed his business card to Ye Han, he felt that Ye Han was very talented in gambling stones, so he wanted to recruit him into his Liu Clan.

Before Ye Han could reply, Zhou Yun'er said; "Grandpa Liu, it's a bit bad to dig in front of me, isn't it?"

At these words, Liu Guangzong looked at Zhou Yun'er and his old eyes suddenly lit up as he said; "You're that little granddaughter of old man Zhou?"

"It's rare that Grandpa Liu still remembers me."

Liu Guangzong shook his head with a lost smile and said; "Zhou Mingshan is the king of gambling stones in the south, it's just a pity that he is too enthusiastic and loyal to carving, if he had set foot in the jewellery industry, he would have developed much better than my Liu's as well as Ning's, Zhou girl, it seems that your Zhou family is about to produce another talent."

Said Liu Guangzong as he looked at Ye Han and sighed, why didn't his Liu Clan have such a capable person?

"Grandpa Liu is overpraised, Yun'er is here to wish you a great victory at the gambling festival and let the Liu family continue to be glorious."

Liu Guangzong laughed twice and said; "Girl Zhou, I'm borrowing your good advice, take me to say hello to your grandfather, I'll leave first."

Fortune Chapter 74

Watching Liu Guangzong leave, Ye Han smiled at Zhou Yun'er; "I say Yun'er, just now that old man was trying to poach me to go over there, why don't you just say no back without asking me?"

"Humph, you dare!" Zhou Yun'er glared at Ye Han and said; "From now on, you are my consultant expert of Zhou's jewellery, you are not allowed to go there, you can only work for me for the rest of your life, if you dare to jump to other jewellery houses, I will ignore you for the rest of your life."

"Hey, hey, how dare I." Ye Han laughed sarcastically, then asked Zhou Yun'er to write a cheque for one million and handed it to the waitress, of course Ye Han had to do what he had just said, then this cheque, the waitress's heart beat violently with excitement, if not for Zhou Yun'er's presence, she would have given her body to Ye Han to repay the favour.

However, Ye Han had earned three hundred and ninety million for nothing without spending a single penny, such a swift method of making money made Tang Da Shao, the bastard, get his own little ideas, came over and rubbed Ye Han's shoulders, hooked his shoulders and said; "That, Han Zi, you see my brother's hand is quite tight, there are not many pocket money all year round, why don't you help my brother?"

Being rubbed around like this by Tang Da Shao, Ye Han suddenly felt some bad chills, we are all men, can't we talk properly?

"Get lost, what do you have to say, you kid?" Ye Han laughed and kicked this guy.

Tang Da Shao laughed and said; "It's not a big deal, it's just that you see which piece of broken stone here will rise, tell me I'll also go buy two to play with, and earn some pocket money."

"That's it, okay, no problem." Ye Han readily agreed, his own brother, should help, should help.

Once he heard Ye Han's agreement, Zhou Yun'er was not happy and said; "Fatty Tang, you are helping, what about me? Are you going to help or not?"

Feeling the small hand resting on his waist, Ye Han let out a bitter laugh, can he fucking not say yes to you?

Afterwards, Ye Han and the others wandered around in several other raw stone divisions, Tang Da Shao's entire fortune only added up to three million, and finally Ye Han showed him a raw stone with a price just within this range, and after unraveling it, this guy directly made fifty million, and he was happy to giggle and praise Ye Han for being a brother.

Of course, his own brother helped, his own woman Ye Han naturally more dedicated, the whole process, Ye Han to Zhou Yun'er a total of more than ten pieces of original stones, a total of 200 million, but Ye Han clear, when these original stones back to Shanghai City, made into finished products, Zhou Yun'er at least can earn a billion.

After using the Yin Yang Dharma Eye for a long time, Ye Han's eyes were a little tired when he saw the end.

But since he had come to this place, Ye Han certainly wouldn't let go of the opportunity to make a big profit, four hundred million he wasn't satisfied, if it wasn't for the fact that it was too shocking, Ye Han would want to take all the raw stones with jadeite here, of course, then he would definitely attract the attention of others, once the Yin Yang Dharma Eye was exposed, he was only afraid that it would cause a huge uproar.

"Huh! What is this?"

Suddenly, when Ye Han passed by a partition of raw stones, his steps stopped, because just now, when he swept his gaze, he found that there were two pieces of raw stones in this pile that were very strange and fast, one of them had a "toad with a pearl" design inside the jadeite, and the other one had a flying bird with its wings spread out inside the jadeite. This bird resembles the legendary phoenix with its wings spread high.

Both the toad and the winged phoenix are found inside the two pieces of jadeite, which is just like amber.

Seeing this, Ye Han could not help but sigh at nature's divine workmanship, these two pieces of jadeite formed their own patterns inside, this kind of nature's masterpiece, only not many could be found in the world, it could be called a great rarity.

"What is it?" Zhou Yun'er saw Ye Han standing still and asked curiously.

Ye Han said solemnly; "Yun'er, what do you think this is if there are animal patterns inside the jadeite?"

"What!" Zhou Yun'er exclaimed in shock, but she immediately covered her mouth and said with a shocked expression; "Could it be that you have found this kind of jadeite?"

Ye Han nodded without a trace, this kind of thing couldn't be known to Young Tang and the others, the more people knew about it, the harder it would be to keep his secret.

"Oh, buy karma!" Zhou Yun'er said with a look of amazement; "If there really is this kind of jadeite, it is a great treasure, its value is immeasurable, there was a jewellery company in the United States where this kind of jadeite had appeared, and at that time it was speculated to a sky-high price of five hundred million dollars!"

US$500 million, that's equivalent to RMB3 billion!

Ye Han was also shocked by this figure, now there were two such jadeite right next to him, how much would it be worth?

Thinking of this, Ye Han couldn't sit still and immediately squeezed into the crowd, these two pieces of jade were now being scrambled for, but these people didn't know the real value of these two pieces of jade, they just thought they were just two pieces of raw stones that could rise.

"Seven million."

"Eight million."

"I'll give you nine million."

"I bid ten million for this piece of raw stone." As soon as Ye Han squeezed in, he quoted a price that was one million more than the man who had just offered.

"I bid eleven million." There was still someone who hadn't given up and was continuing to raise the bid.

"I bid fifteen million." Still Ye Han was making an offer, he directly raised the price to fifteen million, at the same time Ye Han was also paying attention to the price of another original stone, that original stone had a phoenix spreading its wings pattern inside, at this moment that original stone had been noisily bid up to twenty million.

"Hmph, I bid sixteen million." On Ye Han's side, someone thought for a moment before continuing to offer.

"Twenty million." Ye Han added an extra four million up without even thinking about it, and as soon as he said this, he instantly made the man who had just made the offer look bad.

But at this moment, the original stone with the phoenix's wings was about to be bought for twenty-five million, and when he saw this, Ye Han, who was always watching the movements over there, could not hold his breath and directly shouted; "I bid thirty million for that original stone."

As soon as he heard this, everyone over there looked over, only to see the merchant who had offered twenty-five million sneering; "Little brother, you're looking for a fight, right? Don't go too far by offering both sides at the same time."

"Oh, sorry, who let me have my eye on that original stone too? So just spend some money and have some fun, just for the thrill of it." Ye Han smiled lightly and made a second-rate appearance. Seeing him like this, the merchant snorted coldly; "Since you like it, then I'll let you play with it, thirty million, I hope you have fun."

"Many thanks." Ye Han arched his hand at the man, he meant what he said.

Seeing Ye Han shooting both ways and still making a substantial offer, Tang Da Shao and the others were a bit baffled, this was a bit out of Ye Han's style, but how could they know the excitement in Ye Han's heart at the moment?

Only Zhou Yun'er's little heart was beating violently, and her two jade hands were clasped together, Ye Han's performance at this moment clearly indicated that he had made a big discovery, most likely the kind of jade he just said!

Fortune Chapter 75

In the end, Ye Han bought the original stone with the toad containing a pearl pattern and the phoenix spreading its wings pattern for $50 million. The merchants around him were a bit curious when they saw Ye Han shooting both sides, as these two stones were a bit high at $50 million, although they could see the possibility of a rise.

The two original stones were bought and Ye Han's nervousness relaxed and he breathed a sigh of relief. The original stone in front of him had a toad containing a pearl pattern and the other one had a phoenix wings pattern, but in comparison, Ye Han felt that the phoenix wings were more colourful and realistic, giving a scene of a divine bird spreading its wings and flying high.

In order to have a look at the design inside the original stone, Ye Han decided to unlock the original stone with the toad containing the pearl design on the spot, so that he could observe it up close with his naked eyes, which might be even more shocking.

So, after Ye Han paid the 50 million, he asked the service staff to find a stone solver, and coincidentally, this stone solver was the same person as the one just now, and when he saw that Ye Han was going to solve the stone again, he said with a smile; "It seems that Mr. Ye is looking at a good stone again."

"Oh, lend me your good advice, please master help me to unravel this raw stone." Ye Han said, and the stone solving master began to move, removing the rough around the raw stone as Ye Han had instructed, and slowly the green light emerged out.

Zhou Yun'er walked over to Ye Han and looked at him and asked; "Is this raw stone inside?"

Ye Han nodded without a trace, and when she saw Ye Han nod in reply, Zhou Yun'er immediately held Ye Han's hand tightly, her beautiful eyes staring at the original stone without even blinking, so she could imagine how excited she was at the moment.

Tang Da Shao and the others also came over curiously, wanting to see what was so special about the stone that Ye Han had to take.

A short while later, as the master stone cutter slowly rubbed off the rough, a part of the jadeite was already revealed, but the people around did not call for a price yet, because this raw stone was bought by Ye Han for 20 million, and it would not be too late to ask for it again when it was not worth that price.

"Huh, why is there a black spot inside this original stone?" A merchant saw that there was a black dot inside the small piece of jade revealed, and was immediately curious, and the people around him also noticed the same, and were immediately puzzled, generally speaking, the colour inside the jade was pure and did not involve impurities, but this fast jade was on the contrary.

"Look guys, there's a foot inside that jadeite!" At this point, someone exclaimed.

"Not bad, there is indeed a foot, similar to the limb of some kind of reptile, this is too strange!"

The stone solving master also noticed this at this moment, the corners of his eyes snapped shut, as if he had thought of something, he immediately sped up his speed so that the rest of the jadeite would be revealed as soon as possible, and as more of the jadeite was exposed, the surrounding area became more and more sensational, talking about this piece of jadeite in all sorts of ways, soon, what was happening over here alarmed many people, even the heads of the four great families here were alarmed and ran over to to watch.

At this moment, the stone had not been completely unravelled, but half of it was already revealed.

And this half was the lower half of the toad, the two legs as well as the buttocks, but with this, no one could yet guess what the black lump inside the original stone was, so everyone was looking on curiously.

"Why do I feel that this thing is a bit like a toad?" Tang Da Shao rubbed his head and said suspiciously, because his favourite thing as a child was to play with toads, so he remembered certain parts of toads very well, and hearing Tang Da Shao say this, the people around him nodded with deep empathy.

However, the jadeite had not been fully unravelled yet, and this conclusion was still only at the guessing stage; if the second half of the jadeite had no pattern, or if nothing could be pieced together at all, then the jadeite would not be of much value.

"It's this bastard again." Ning Feng likewise arrived, and upon seeing Ye Han, his face turned unpleasantly pale.

"Young master, this person really doesn't stop, at this moment with this raw stone, he will most likely pluck out good material again." The man beside Ning Feng narrowed his eyes as he sized up Ye Han's body, he always felt that Ye Han was mysterious and extremely lucky on top of gambling stones, not like an ordinary expert in gambling stones.

"Hmph, so what if he's lucky, sooner or later what's his will belong to me." Ning Feng looked at Ye Han's back and smiled coldly.

At this moment, Ning Feng was not the only one watching Ye Han, Fujiwara Gofu and Inoshita Saburo had also arrived, upon seeing Ye Han, Inoshita Saburo's eyes went a few degrees colder and said; "Fujiwara-kun, it's this abominable Chinaman again, every time I see him I want to kill him."

"Inoshita-kun, you need to calm down, let's see together what this Chinaman is doing?" Fujiwara Gofu's eyes fell on top of Ye Han's piece of jadeite, he, who often studied jadeite, immediately sensed that there was something unusual about this piece of raw stone, it might be an extremely fine piece.

Soon, under the original stone, a large part of the jadeite emerged, inside the jadeite, there was a palm-sized black piece, this black piece was very peculiar, it actually had four limbs, like a lying toad, although the original stone had not been completely unraveled, do not know whether there is a head, but this is already very peculiar, the surrounding area fell into more lively, chattering.

At this moment, Zhou Yun'er held Ye Han's hand tightly, as more parts of the jadeite were solved, the harder she gripped Ye Han's hand, because Ye Han had just said so, so she was even more excited about this piece of jadeite, if this piece of jadeite was really that rare jadeite, then, it would definitely become a rare and precious item.

And under the attention of these people, the stone solver finally unraveled this piece of raw stone completely, then he carefully wiped off the dust on the jadeite, and then, inside that jadeite, a lifelike toad containing a pearl suddenly appeared in the sight of the people at once.

The toad was realistic in form, with limbs and a body, and two black eyes, its mouth open and containing a bead. The scene was as magical as if someone had imprisoned a toad containing jewels inside this emerald!

"Oh my, it's actually a natural jadeite, it's extremely rare!" Seeing the pattern inside the jadeite, a cry of shock that sucked in cold air instantly rang out all around, natural jadeite, this was the name given to certain rare jadeites, the value of such jadeites, generally immeasurable, they were the magical masterpieces of nature, something that could not be accomplished by human hands.

"Natural jadeite, there aren't many of them on the market, I didn't expect one to appear in this edition of the gambling festival!"

Some people looked at the jadeite and a greedy desire appeared in their eyes, natural jadeite, this is a huge attraction for any jeweller to them, if the news of natural jadeite once spread out, it will only immediately stir the whole jewellery world.

Because of the natural jadeite, one can count on two hands the number of rare pieces that can be found on the market, and its collector's value and symbolism is enormous.

Ning's, Liu's, Fujiwara Group, as well as Guo's who had just arrived here at this moment, the fire in their eyes when they looked at this piece of jadeite was no less than seeing a stunning beauty.

A natural jadeite, a toad with a pearl design, if made into a finished product, it would be absolutely priceless!

Fortune Chapter 76

When the jadeite with the toad containing the pearl pattern was released, it caused a strong sensation. The pattern inside this jadeite was naturally formed, a masterpiece of nature, which could never be done by human hands, and was considered a rare treasure.

At this moment, Ye Han himself was extremely greedy for this piece of jadeite, not to mention others. If this piece of jadeite was put up for auction, he would make a fortune!

Thinking of this, Ye Han's heart grew even hotter.

"A toad containing a pearl, a rare and precious item! To see such a magical jadeite in one's lifetime is truly a life well spent!" Liu Guangzong's old eyes were excited, after living most of his life, he had never seen a magical jadeite like this, only some giants of the jewellery industry abroad possessed such things, currently in China even if there were such jadeites, they were collected and would not be easily shown to others.

"Young master, we must get this jadeite, the toad contains the pearl, such a strange piece, if it is made into a finished product, it can definitely become the treasure of the shop, then our Ning's jewellery will become more famous in China, it is not impossible to even crush Liu's jewellery in one breath." The man beside Ning Feng looked at the Toad Containing Pearl Emerald, his eyes flickering with strong ambition and desire.

Although Ning Feng secretly hated Ye Han for having such good luck, he also knew the value of this jadeite. A jewellery house that had a rare piece of jewellery as the treasure of the shop would attract many people to visit, and as long as it was operated properly, his Ning's jewellery would go to the next level.

"My lord, such a rare treasure, we can't miss it."

At this moment, a person in charge of Guo's jewellery said to Guo Yunxiao, hearing these words, Guo Yunxiao smiled lightly, his eyes filled with a powerful confidence and said; "Don't worry, such a precious item can only belong to our Guo's, no one can snatch it away from me, it's just that the person who obtained this item is too lucky!"

As he spoke, Guo Yunxiao's gaze fell on Ye Han's body, narrowing his eyes as he surveyed

Of course, these people were not the only ones who had strong ambitions for this jade, the Fujiwara Group also wanted to obtain this jade, and Fujiwara Gofu was no less ambitious than anyone else for this jade. Although the other jewellers were also very ambitious for this jadeite, it would only take some of them to pour out their fortunes to buy it.

Tang Da Shao came forward, he looked at the jadeite and rubbed his head and said; "Damn, there's really a toad in here, it's really rare, I wonder how much this weird thing is worth?"

Liu Zhiming looked at the jadeite with an excited expression and responded to Tang Da Shao; "The value of such a strange piece is immeasurable, young Ye's luck is really too good to have found such a rare piece."

Hearing Liu Zhiming say this, Tang Da Shao's eyes immediately lit up, but when he saw the pairs of greedy eyes around him, Tang Da Shao gave a disdainful grunt, moved his body and sat on top of the piece of jadeite with one butt.

Seeing this scene, the surrounding people in their hearts cursed Tang Da Shao is not a thing, nerve such a fat body sitting on it, do not sit on that piece of jadeite to break, this is a rare rare treasure for decades.

“A toad containing a pearl, a miraculous piece, little brother Ye, this piece of jadeite of yours we, Liu’s Jewellery, are willing to bid three billion, I wonder if you can bear to part with it?” Just when everyone was thinking about how to get this piece of jade, Liu Guangzong was already looking at Ye Han to make his bid.

Upon hearing this, before Ye Han could even reply, Ning Feng sneered and said; “Three billion, is the titled Liu’s Jewellery so poor that it doesn’t even have the money to buy this piece of jade? My Ning’s is willing to bid three billion two hundred million.”

“Holy shit, so expensive!” Hearing the price quoted by the two, Tang Da Shao stood up on his butt, he was also afraid that he would break the valuable piece, it was something worth at least three billion, Tang Da Shao felt his butt burning, he had just sat on top of three billion!

However, Ye Han’s face did not change in the slightest when it came to the prices quoted by the Liu and Ning Clans.

“We, the Fujiwara Group, are willing to offer three and a half billion dollars for this piece of jade.” After Ning Feng’s offer, Fujiwara looked at Ye Han with a slight smile to show his sincerity, but Ye Han didn’t give him a second thought, he always had a feeling of resistance towards the Japanese.

When Ning Feng heard Fujiwara’s words, he said; “So Mr. Fujiwara also has his eye on this jade, but this jade is a must-have for the Ning Clan, 3.7 billion.”

“Oh, Mr. Ning, there is an old Chinese saying that things are precious by their scarcity, I don’t think anyone would easily give up such a precious object, I, Fujiwara Group, am willing to offer four billion dollars for this piece of jade.” Fujiwara Gofu looked at Ning Feng and said with a smile, with a courteous look.

At those words, the hearts of the people around him were astonished, the Fujiwara Group was worthy of being a large consortium in Southeast Asia, casually exporting four billion without batting an eyebrow, to compete with such a large consortium for that jadeite, there would not be more than one qualified person in this.

After Liu Guangzong heard this, his brow furrowed and he sighed helplessly in his heart, using four billion to buy that piece of jadeite was not worthless, but his Liu’s jewellery’s capital could no longer stand the depletion, today was only the first session of the gambling festival, if too much was consumed here, the next two sessions of his Liu’s could not continue at all.

“Haha, such interesting stuff, I’m quite interested too, how can the two of you forget me?”

Just as the people around were watching Ning Feng and Fujiwara Gofu bidding against each other, outside the crowd, Guo Yunxiao strolled in with his female companion and bodyguard, upon hearing this all eyes fell on them, Guo Yunxiao of the Guo Clan of Xiangjiang, no one here didn’t recognise him, but with Guo’s involvement, this competition would only get more lively.

“Our Guo Clan is willing to offer four and a half billion dollars for this jadeite, I wonder if this brother is willing to sell it?” Guo Yunxiao looked at Ye Han, his handsome and gentle eyes gave people an innate sense of victory, looking into these eyes, many people developed a feeling of inferiority, as if in front of this Guo Yunxiao, they were inferior people.

Everyone was looking at Ye Han, wanting to know how he would answer, to buy this piece of jade at 4.5 billion, this price is already considered on the high side, see the eyes around looking over, Ye Han smiled lightly, was about to speak, suddenly, Zhou Yun'er pinched him, beaming her mouth, a little daughter's family said; “Ye Han, I want. ”

At these words, Ye Han's heart immediately stirred, I want it! If these two words were said on a dark and windy night, then he would have turned into a demon and possessed her like crazy, but at the moment he obviously could not think in that direction, Ye Han patted Zhou Yun'er's hand and gave her a reassuring look, then looked at Guo Yunxiao and said; “Sorry, this piece of jade is not for sale today no matter how much you offer. ”

Not for sale?

When they heard Ye Han's words, the pairs of eyes around them instantly changed and became very odd, did that kid want to wander around with a priceless piece of treasure in Tengchong, a place that was about to get messy? This was not a wise move!

Fortune Chapter 77

Whether it was because Ye Han rejected Guo Yunxiao or his decision, it was not a wise move. Rejecting Guo Yunxiao was tantamount to rejecting the Guo Clan of Xiangjiang, and there was an old saying that a man is not guilty of anything, so if Ye Han held such a priceless treasure, if he did not sell it, then there would be many people who would have crooked intentions towards him.

Of course, for Ye Han, if he didn't sell it, he didn't sell it. Whether he refused Guo's, Ning's or Fujiwara Group, no one could force him to sell what he didn't want.

“Stupid bastard, you're not even selling, but that's good, kill you and that jade will be mine.” Ning Feng sneered in his heart, it was good for him that Ye Han wasn't selling the jadeite, as long as he killed Ye Han, he could get his hands on the jadeite without spending a single penny.

Ning Feng was not the only one who had such thoughts, Fujiwara Gofu did not say anything, his mouth held a smile at the corner as if he was indifferent to Ye Han not selling the jade.

At this moment, Guo Yunxiao let go of the hand holding his female companion and strolled towards Ye Han, his eyes indifferently staring at Ye Han, every step he took would bring a strong pressure to the people around him, living in the top position for a long time, naturally an aura would be formed, and those with a weak aura would be suppressed by the more powerful ones.

Seeing this, many people felt a sigh of relief in their hearts that Guo Yunxiao of the Guo Clan in Xiangjiang was worthy of being the future successor of the Guo Clan, and that this ability could not find many people among the young generation who could match him.

“Have you thought about it and are you sure you don't want to sell?” Guo Yunxiao walked up to Ye Han, his eyes indifferently staring at Ye Han, his tone not allowing him to refuse, their eyes facing each other,

Guo Yunxiao's body suddenly blossomed with a domineering aura, as if Ye Han was a small mole in his eyes, unable to disobey his words.

"Are you deaf? Or are you blind? When I say I won't sell, I won't sell, what? Does the successor of the titled Guo Clan want to buy by force?" At the domineering and unquestionable tone of this Guo Yunxiao in front of him, Ye Han was somewhat unhappy in his heart, so he spoke with a thorn in his side.

Hearing Ye Han's words, a look of consternation appeared on the faces of the people around him, good fellow, how dare you! How dare he talk to Guo's successor like that, with Guo's strength, if he wanted to fix Ye Han, then it would definitely be a matter of minutes, and he could also make him disappear without a trace.

Zhou Yun'er's heart jumped, her jade hand clutched Ye Han's big hand, Ye Han dared to confront Guo's successor, making her heart flutter and beat non-stop, of course, she was not afraid, but a kind of enchanted, at this moment, Ye Han made her feel especially handsome and domineering, such an arrogant man who never bowed down no matter who he faced was the man she liked, Zhou Yun'er.

"Bastard, how dare you speak to young Guo like that, I think you want to seek death." After hearing Ye Han's words, a young man with a gloomy aura behind Guo Yunxiao's eyes flashed with a cold murderous intent, as long as Guo Yunxiao opened his mouth, he could immediately rush up and kill Ye Han.

"Shit, who the fuck are you? My brother is talking to your master, what are you yelling about? Do you have the right to speak here? Get the hell out of my way." When Tang Da Shao saw that this man dared to threaten his own brother, his hot temper immediately flared up, and the foam from his mouth spat in the youth's face.

The youth was furious and stared at Tang Da Shao, saying; "Damn fatty, believe it or not, I'll chop you up and feed you to the dogs."

"Shit, if you have the guts to come towards me, Fat Master, I'll tell you not to leave the mainland." Hearing that someone actually wanted to chop himself up and feed him to the dogs, for the first time, Tang Da Shao had a killing heart for a person, his old man was the mayor of Shanghai City, his second uncle was even the governor of Xijiang Province, with such a strong background support, if someone really moved him, it was not impossible to say that he would not be able to leave the mainland.

"Little knife." Seeing that the gloomy youth still wanted to say something else, Guo Yunxiao interrupted him, then looked at Ye Han and said indifferently; "You have a lot of backbone and like to stick to your principles, good, very good, since that's the case, I, Guo Yunxiao, won't force myself, I think we will see each other again."

After saying that, Guo Yunxiao turned around and left, the gloomy young man called Little Dagger made a neck-wiping gesture at Ye Han and Tang Da Shao, and after a cold smile turned around and left.

In response, Tang Da Shao grunted disdainfully; "Shit, what the hell, it's great that you're from Hong Kong, you're a dragon in the mainland, you'll have to lie down for me."

Ye Han patted Tang Da Shao's shoulder and said; "Come on, don't think so much first, let's go, today is my treat, you guys can eat whatever you want, order whatever you want."

“Really?” Once Tang Da Shao heard about the food, the fire in his heart was mostly gone, rubbing his hands together and laughing; “Anyway, you guys have made a lot of money today, I’ll be ruthless in ripping off the rich, Lao Liu, which hotel is the best in Tengchong, take us there, today’s spending, Han Zi is all inclusive.”

Liu answered with a bitter smile, his heart was thinking of other things on his mind, today Ye Han’s actions not only offended many people, but also carrying that priceless jade, from now on, he was only afraid that he would be in constant trouble!

Before leaving the downtown building, Ye Han took away the jade with the toad containing the pearl, but the phoenix wing was counted on Zhou Yun’er’s head and would be shipped back to Shanghai City after the gambling festival, no one knew the value of this jade, but Ye Han knew that once this phoenix wing was released, it would be even more sensational than the toad containing the pearl.

After leaving the downtown building under the leadership of Liu Zhiming, the crowd came to the best hotel in Tengchong, Tang Da Shao ordered a most luxurious box, large like a villa living room, very luxurious, in order to rip off Ye Han, the thug, Tang Da Shao ordered a full ten minutes this time, all ordered are the most expensive, wine is also the best, in his words, the money is not paid by me, no heartache.

The two beauties scolded Tang Da Shao to the bottom of the table and hid.

Damn it, who did I piss off, Tang Da Shao’s heart wanted to cry, this meal is his heart bitter!

But while Tang Da Shao and Zhou Yun’er were making a scene, Ye Han called Liu Zhiming alone to the balcony of the box, from here, looking down, there were cars and people coming and going, it was only about three in the afternoon, but everyone on the road was walking fast, because, the sky was getting dark, a storm was coming, and Ye Han could smell a storm coming in the air!

“Young Ye, you called me because” Liu Zhiming looked at Ye Han and had already thought of something in his heart.

Ye Han nodded and said; “Brother Liu, you are familiar with this area of Tengchong, I want you to hire a group of experts for me, preferably the ex-soldier kind, I wonder if you have a way?”

Hearing this, Liu Zhiming pondered for a moment and said; “Young Ye, I’m afraid there are only no people of the kind you are talking about over here in Tengchong, but there are many mercenaries in Burma, Tengchong and Burma cross over, if Young Ye needs them, I can contact them now, they will be able to arrive here around dinner time.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han smiled and said; “Good, I’ll trouble Brother Liu on this matter, as for the money you don’t have to worry about it.”

Fortune Chapter 78

The only way to fight against these people is to use external forces.

He also knew that since the jade had not been sold, there would be a lot of people who would be interested in him, and they would be waiting for him to make a move, most likely tonight.

In the end, Ye Han concluded that he seemed to be in a situation where he was in Tengchong.

He had now become a meat and potatoes, and anyone would want to take a bite out of him.

He didn't want to mess with others, but they wanted to mess with him. In this world, power is the hard truth, if Guo or Ning were holding the jade, no one would dare to take any notice.

At this time, footsteps sounded behind Ye Han, the sound of high heels touching the ground, Ye Han did not need to turn around to look to know that it was Zhou Yun'er coming, came behind Ye Han, Zhou Yun'er hugged him from behind, leaned her head on his shoulder and said softly; "I'm sorry, I made it difficult for you, if I did not want that jade, you would not have so many preoccupations, not to mention the impending danger you will face."

As she said that, Zhou Yun'er tightly wrapped her arms around Ye Han's waist, as if she wanted to integrate her body into the man's sturdy body, and two tears slowly flowed down from the corners of her eyes. Zhou Yun'er knew that if she hadn't asked Ye Han for that piece of jade, if Ye Han had sold it at that time, Ye Han wouldn't be in that dangerous whirlpool now.

Feeling the clothes on his back getting wet, Ye Han let out a bitter smile, turned his head to wipe her tear marks and said; "Silly woman, for you, even if I am asked to do anything I am willing to do, what's more, even if you hadn't asked for it today, I wouldn't have sold that piece of jade, I have already thought about it, this piece of jade I will bring back to Shanghai City, and then give it to your Zhou's Jewelry for auction. In that case, I think it will definitely attract many jewellery lovers, and it will also be an opportunity to make a name for Zhou's jewellery and bring it into the eyes of the domestic jewellery market."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Yun'er was touched to the core, Ye Han did not sell that piece of jade, but it was all for her, for her Zhou's jewellery. Zhou Yun'er's heart had been completely intoxicated by Ye Han's words, so she didn't say anything and directly kissed Ye Han's mouth with her own lips, nothing could be more practical than this.

Feeling Zhou Yun'er's fragrant tongue reaching out, the two of them kissed obliviously on top of the rooftop, this time both of them voluntarily, so they were very devoted, trying hard to suck in each other's juices, their tongues intertwining, you and I going back and forth, looking a bit crazy.

At this moment, Ye Han was completely caught up in the fire of lust, forgetting the impending storm, he now only wanted to be entwined with the woman in front of him forever, me in you, you in me.

Zhou Yun'er blushed and did not dare to look at Ye Han, because at this moment she felt her body had already reacted, such a crazy thing was the first time for her, a strong woman in the business world, in the past she only had work in her eyes, but now, she felt that going to be a real woman, that feeling was more perfectly exciting than work.

"There's time in the evening, you can come and see me!"

After lying in Ye Han's arms for a while, Zhou Yun'er said in a voice that only she could hear herself, after saying this, one of her faces turned even redder, like a red apple, making this decision was Zhou Yun'er's deliberate decision, since she loved this man, she might as well give him everything, so that they could love each other even more deeply.

If it wasn't for Ye Han's extremely good ears, he would have almost overlooked such an important sentence, he smiled wickedly and said; "With this word from you, no matter what kind of storm I face at night brother will survive, don't worry, brother never misses an appointment, hehehe!"

At these words, Zhou Yun'er blushed and hammered at Ye Han's chest, burying her head without speaking.

At this time, Ye Han saw a car driving towards the villa from the rooftop, this car was familiar to Ye Han, it was a long version of Hummer from Kunsang, seeing this, Ye Han gave Zhou Yun'er to tidy up her clothes and said; "Let's go, a guest is coming, let's go down to meet."

Zhou Yun'er nodded obediently, then the two of them hand in hand went down to the rooftop and arrived at the living room on the ground floor, where Tang Da Shao was watching cartoons with Little Qingcheng, the two of them were like two living treasures.

When he saw Ye Han, Kun Sang laughed and said, "Hanzi, you've made a splash today, you've found a piece of natural jade with a "toad containing a pearl". It's priceless!"

Hearing this, Ye Han smiled bitterly in his heart, because this piece of jade was now in a very dangerous situation, there were many pairs of eyes watching him outside. .

Seeing this, Ye Han looked at Kunsang somewhat dumbfounded and said; "Brother Kunsang, what are you"

Kun Sang put down the cloth bag, the mouth of the cloth bag just revealed some guns inside, he came over and patted Ye Han's shoulder and said; "Han Zi, nothing to say, is a brother, carry together!"

The two men hugged each other, Ye Han's heart seemed to have a great sense of pride, patting Kun Sang's shoulder and laughing; "Good, brothers, together, how many people are here today, we will kill as many people as we can. "

The arrival of Kunsang made Ye Han's heart feel proud, in Tengchong, a place where he was fighting on all sides, he was not alone, he had brothers who were willing to help him carry the battle together.

Fortune Chapter 79

"Shit, why did you two forget about me." Hearing this at the side, Tang Da Shao's heart heated up and came over and gave both Ye Han and Kun Sang a punch, saying; "Damn it, you think we're easy to bully, right, Han Zi, today we three brothers will have a painful fucking battle, brother also taste what it's like to kill someone?"

At these words, Ye Han pulled Tang Da Shao in and the three big men hugged each other. In this life, he was already content to have such two good brothers with guts, but for the sake of his brothers and for the sake of his woman, he had to pull through tonight like a man.

Seeing this kind of affection between the three, Zhou Yun'er secretly wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes, then hugged the little Qingcheng and went upstairs, tonight will be very uneventful, Zhou Yun'er has felt the kind of stormy things that men have to do, as a woman absolutely can't drag their feet, let that little man bear the things tonight!

But Ye Han faced this crisis, he could not help at all, making Zhou Yun'er ignited a surge of ambition, to make Zhou's jewellery stronger and bigger, have their own voice in the world, to that day, she will use her shoulders to shield that little man from the wind and rain.

The night had just fallen, when the darkness enveloped the earth, outside the villa where Ye Han lived, a large military truck slowly made its way in, in front of this truck leading the way was Liu Zhiming, after the car stopped in the courtyard, one by one, brawny men wearing camouflage uniforms jumped down from the large truck, a total of more than twenty people, and all of these people were holding weapons in their hands, some even carried rocket launchers on their shoulders, giving people a feeling of an anti-terrorist organisation.

Ye Han came into the courtyard, and when he saw these big, brawny men, he immediately smelt an aura of blood and fury from their bodies, which proved that these people had all killed people and lived a life of licking blood from a knife's mouth all year round.

Liu Zhiming then brought a middle-aged man with a cold look to Ye Han's body and said; "Young Ye, I have found you the men you need, they are very strong within the Burmese mercenary army, with them I think it is enough to hold off the incoming enemies, this is their leader, Mr. Deqin Bach."

Ye Han shook hands with the cold man called Dechenbach and said; "My name is Ye Han, I have to trouble you all this time."

"You are welcome Mr. Ye, our Lone Wolf mercenary group takes money from others and does things for them." Deqin Bach said coldly, giving the impression of a soldier, after saying this, Deqin Bach went to set up the defence, he had brought a total of more than twenty people, all armed and well trained, in a short while, the whole villa was protected, if anyone wanted to come here to cause trouble, they had to go through their side first.

"Brother Liu, thanks for what happened this time, you should go back, it's not safe for you to be here tonight." After seeing the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group set up their defence, Ye Han said to Liu Zhiming.

Liu Zhiming smiled and said; "Young Ye, although I am not a big shot, I have experienced many storms, would I be the kind of person who is afraid of death, if there is anything tonight, I will face it together with you."

In a luxurious business hotel in Tengchong City, a handsome young man stood in front of the glass window with a red wine, looking at the night below, at this moment, the night sky had already started to rain, the rain added some demonic beauty to the night, the young man just stood in front of the window and admired the night without speaking.

Seeing this, a gloomy looking youth asked in a sullen voice; "Young Guo, when are we going to make our move?"

"Hmph, why rush to kill him, what I want is that jade, I think there are many people who are after that jade tonight, Little Dagger, remember, no matter what you must get that jade, as for his life or death it doesn't matter, we are not the only ones who want to kill him, even if we don't kill him someone else will do it for us." Guo Yunxiao sneered and said; "Wait for one hour, do it at twelve midnight, this is the mainland, not like the other side of Hong Kong, we can't be too reckless in what we do, do you understand?"

“Little knife knows.”

A bloodthirsty smile hung at the corner of Wang Xiaodao’s mouth, remembering Ye Han and Tang Da Shao’s faces, he was already fantasising about the pleasure he would get from killing them.

Of course, while Guo Yunxiao had this arrangement, Ning Feng was likewise carrying it out. In Tengchong he had the support of the number one gang in Yunnan, the Ma Gang, behind him, so this time, in order to deal with Ye Han and grab the jade, he had already had the Ma Gang send out a group of experts.

Likewise, Fujiwara Gofu had also made preparations.

“Gangmura-kun, are you clear about what I said? We, the Fujiwara Group, must get our hands on that jadeite, it must not fall into the hands of others.” Fujiwara Gofu looked at a young man opposite him who was polishing his long sword and said, this man was about 25 or 26 years old, he heard this from Fujiwara Gofu and said calmly; “Fujiwara-kun, I heard that that Chinaman is very powerful and a master, I will go and meet him for a while, I will also bring you back what you want, but, you should know my character, I like to go alone and don’t like to bring a burden with me.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll leave this time to you alone, you alone can withstand all the experts under my command, please, Gangmura-kun.”

Ichiro Gangmura stood up, took an oil paper umbrella and walked out, slowly disappearing into the rainy night.

At the same time, there were other forces throughout Tengchong who were also planning how to seize the jadeite in Ye Han’s hands, such as the Ruan family, the Ba family, and some of the businessmen who had come here, driven by interest, and who were already red in the eyes.

The night came, the whole villa was dark inside, only a few sparks were flickering inside the hall on the ground floor, Ye Han, Kun Sang, Tang Da Shao, Liu Zhiming, Li Shan and Xu Fei were also there, everyone was smoking quietly at this moment, from the darkness of the night, they could all feel a depressing aura, as soon as the time came, this depressing aura would be completely released.

Outside the villa, on the roof, there were people from the Lone Wolf Mercenary Regiment guarding every corner.

“Here it comes!”

It was twelve o’clock late at night, a time when many people were asleep, inside the living room, Ye Han’s eyes suddenly looked outside, his eyes as sharp as eagles, outside the villa, he could feel a strange rattling approaching towards this place in all directions, which indicated that there was more than one group of people coming here, and they all coincidentally chose to make their move at this time.

With a bang, a gunshot broke the silence inside the villa, outside the villa, the men of the Lone Wolf mercenary group had already started to exchange fire with the incoming enemy, a tongue of fire erupted from all corners of the villa in this rainy night, lighting up the night sky, hearing this commotion, Tang Da Shao copied an AK47 placed on the table and yelled; “Fuck, still waiting for what? What the fuck are you waiting for? Go up to the first floor and kill these motherfuckers.”

After saying that, this guy immediately ran towards the first floor, seeing this, Ye Han said; "Big Brother Li, Big Brother Xu, you two watch him, Big Brother Kunsang, Big Brother Liu, you also go."

"Mm, good, then you take care of yourself." In response to Ye Han's sentence, a bloodthirsty smile appeared on Kunsang's face in the darkness, he picked up his weapon and ran up to the first floor, Ye Han finished his last puff of cigarette and picked up a sniper rifle on the table and headed towards the third floor, this thing had just taught him how to use it, the long range shooting power was extremely strong.

Fortune Chapter 80

Outside the villa, the sound of gunfire filled the air, the burst of gunfire seemed to turn the villa into a battlefield, the enemies who came here also had guns in their hands and were exchanging heavy fire with the people of the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group.

However, Ye Han knew that these first enemies were just a bunch of eager sheep, the real wolves were still behind them, and as the saying goes, eager hearts cannot eat hot tofu.

Ye Han came to an empty room on the third floor and stood at the window and pointed his sniper rifle outside. At the entrance of the villa, there were more than ten people hiding and fighting with the Lone Wolf mercenary group.

Bang!

At this moment, Ye Han pulled the trigger and used the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, the enemy that was hiding in the shadows was like a white sheet of paper in front of Ye Han, completely devoid of any secrets, so the bullet went through the rainy night, Ye Han's shot directly blew one person's head off, even his head was smashed off.

Feeling the power of this shot, the enemies hiding in the shadows and exchanging fire with the Lone Wolf Mercenaries were shocked and hurriedly sought cover, but their actions were destined to be in vain, no matter where they were hiding, even at the root of a corner, the sniper rifle in Ye Han's hand could accurately aim at them, this was the fearsome thing about the Yin Yang Dharma Eye.

Boom, boom, boom, boom!

Ye Han looked indifferent, the sniper rifle in his hand fired four or five shots in a row, each bullet took the life of one person, in the darkness of the night, and it was raining heavily, to have such accurate shooting, causing the enemies outside the villa to be appalled to the core, panicking and firing frantically towards Ye Han's position, their hearts were scared to the core, unknown and unseen enemies often bring infinite fear.

But the chaos of this group of people gave the Lone Wolf Mercenaries an opportunity, and the powerful firepower overwhelmed them so much that they could not raise their heads.

Ye Han saw that the enemies at the villa's main entrance had been suppressed, and then went to another room on the third floor, where he could just see the enemies surrounding him in the west. Without much thought, the sniper rifle in Ye Han's hand was like a scythe in the hand of the god of death, frantically reaping lives, and in front of him, the enemies in the darkness were completely at his mercy.

Only ten minutes had passed and the number of people who had died under Ye Han's sniper rifle had already reached a terrifying eighteen.

But Ye Han's such terrifying marksmanship made the enemies in the dark even more frightened, from the beginning of the attack had now become defensive, they were afraid that they would become the target of the sniper in the darkness as soon as they ventured out, that sniper in the darkness was too terrifying, every shot could take a life, not even a single bullet was wasted.

Just ask, who wouldn't be afraid of someone with such great marksmanship?

Snipers, for war, they are synonymous with death, because you can never guess where they will hide? Yet they will give you a fatal blow at the most crucial time.

Deqin Bach took a look at the position where Ye Han was sniping, a strong shock flashed in those cold eyes, a sniper as powerful as Ye Han, he had never seen one in his more than ten years of living in a gunfight, it wasn't a shot at all, it was a precision instrument, pointing where to hit, there were no false shots.

"This man is truly a born killer!" Deqin Bach sighed as he looked at Ye Han's position, if he had such a powerful sniper inside his mercenary group, then it was entirely possible for the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group to become a large world-class mercenary group.

Around the villa, the gunfire was thunderous, the rain was pouring down, the firefight was still going on, one by one, the figures fell down and turned into cold corpses, the blood flowed along the rain on the ground, staining the ground around the villa, there were also people from the Lone Wolf mercenary group fell down in the courtyard, blood flowed all over the ground, the whole air was filled with the pungent smell of blood.

Although Ye Han's villa was in a relatively remote location in Tengchong City, such a big commotion had not attracted the police, so someone must have been at work, otherwise such a commotion would have caused panic.

One man, one gun, Ye Han killed the enemy on all sides, as long as there was any sign of the enemy breaking out to the inside of the courtyard on any side, the sniper rifle in his hand would meet him mercilessly.

"Damn, I didn't expect that bastard to have hired such a powerful mercenary as a shield." In a hidden location, Wang Xiaodao had a murderous look on his face, he had brought more than ten experts, every time he tried to rush inside the villa he was beaten back by the terrifying sniper in the shadows, these people that Wang Xiaodao had brought were all cold weapon experts, in terms of playing with hot weapons, they were not connoisseurs, of course, without Ye Han suppressing them in the shadows, with their strength they had actually been close to rushing inside the villa on several occasions.

"Brother Little Dagger, that sniper is too powerful, what should we do?"

Hearing this, Wang Xiaodao had a grim look on his face and said coldly; "Get me some corpses to come over, we'll use our human shields to rush inside the villa and kill that bastard, what young Guo wants must not be taken away by anyone else."

On the other side, the experts of the Horse Gang also thought of this solution, the expert leading the Horse Gang was a tall Mongolian, he was holding an iron hammer, his body was as tough as a tiger, at this moment they were already using the "human wall" to charge inside the villa.

Seeing this scene, Ye Han's expression was cold. These people were using dead bodies to block him, so the sniper rifle in his hand was of little use. Ye Han then threw down his sniper rifle and jumped down from the third floor, he must not let these people enter the villa, because once these people entered the villa, not only would they disrupt the deployment of the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group, but they might also hurt Zhou Yun'er and Little Qingcheng, this was something Ye Han could never see.

Ye Han jumped down from the third floor, and while he was in mid-air, the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand was already slashing towards a big man who had rushed into the courtyard.

"Drink!"

This big man shouted violently and smashed the corpse in his hand towards Ye Han, Ye Han's Dragon Scale Dagger was unparalleled in sharpness, and with that slash, the corpse that the big man had thrown over had turned into two pieces, unbearable.

"Good swordsmanship, but you are bound to die today, eat my hammer." At this moment, this big man who attacked Ye Han was an expert of the Horse Gang, the rain had already soaked his whole body, the hammer in his hand smashed over with great force, the sound of breaking air was like thunder shaking, and at the same time, other experts of the Horse Gang also attacked towards Ye Han, these people were agile, all of them were experts who could take on ten with one.

He was surrounded by so many people at the same time, but Ye Han's expression remained unchanged, his Yin Yang Dharma Eye opened, and the attacks of those people around him became much slower, even the rain became slower. All of them were injured by this slash and fell backwards out.

Seeing Ye Han fighting the enemy head on, those people from the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group on Ye Han's side did not shoot at random, waiting for the opportunity to kill the enemy in secret, because if they shot and killed Ye Han, their employer, by mistake, they would have done this deal for nothing.

"Damnable brat, give me death." The Mongolian big man was furious after being forced back by Ye Han's slash and seeing several of his men instantly scrapped, he brought up his hammer and smashed over.

"Hmph, the one who deserves to die is you." Ye Han was fearless and swung his sword to meet him, clang! The two weapons collided, rubbing out a line of white sparks, the big Mongolian man was instantly shaken back two steps, his expression startled, but just as the big Mongolian man's heart was in shock, Ye Han blasted out with a terrifying crashing fist.

Boom!

The collapsing fist was the most lethal of the five elemental fists, and when Ye Han was hit by this fist, his tall and sturdy body flew backwards like a broken kite, spurting blood out of his mouth, as if he had been seriously injured.

"Stop them!" Ye Han shouted, instantly abandoning the big Mongolian man as his body swept past like a sharp sword.
