Fortune Chapter 81

In fact, Ye Han did not need to say that the men of the Lone Wolf Mercenaries were already firing at the group of enemies who had rushed into the courtyard.

The group had just been disrupted by Kunsang's shooting and were about to find cover when a blade appeared in the night sky, and the two men at the front died under Ye Han's blade in an instant. high hand.

"Hmph, let me do it."

When Wang Xiaodao saw how powerful Ye Han was, he instantly pounced on Ye Han as he was shocked, his weapon was two small knives, using both hands interchangeably, he slashed towards Ye Han's neck, if he was hit by these two knives, Ye Han's head would definitely be separated from his body.

"Guo's people." Seeing the killing Wang Xiaodao, Ye Han's heart increased in murderousness, the internal energy within his body surged out, all of it converging on top of the Dragon Scale Dagger, that slash cut away, the rain falling from the night sky seemed to be cut off by this slash of his.

Clang, clang, clang! The two men exchanged blows, both using short swords, and this kind of close range combat was extremely dangerous.

Ye Han held the Dragon Scale Dagger tightly and did not move a muscle, still letting the rain fall on him, the rain flowing down his cheeks from his head like a small stream. There were eight men on Wang Xiaodao's side, all with sharp weapons, a group of cold weapon experts.

The Mongolian and Wang Xiaodao looked at each other as if both sides had reached some kind of tacit agreement at this moment, the might of Ye Han, they had felt it from the encounter just now, one on one, none of them was Ye Han's opponent, right now for them solving Ye Han was the first priority.

"Shit, damn it, bullying the young with the many." Seeing the situation inside the courtyard, Tang Da Shao, who was ambushed on the first floor, cursed and raised his AK47 in his hand and was ready to fire, when Kunsang saw this, he was startled and hurriedly pulled him back, saying; "Don't you do anything rash, be careful of hurting Han Zi."

"Malgobi, then what do you think? There are so many of them, can Hanzi handle it alone?" Tang Da Shao said angrily.

Kunsang glanced at Li Shan and Xu Fei and said; "Two brothers, your marksmanship is very good, the three of us will help Hanzi take care of the enemy together later, but we must not hurt Hanzi."

Li Shan and Xu Fei nodded their heads and said coldly; "Don't worry, our two brothers' marksmanship is one of the best in the army, we definitely won't hurt young Ye."

"Shit, you guys are helping Hanzi, so what are Old Liu and I doing?"

"Forget about you two, don't hurt your own people instead of hitting the enemy later, just pay attention to the movement around you, I feel that there are still experts outside who haven't appeared yet." Kunsang took a look at the night sky outside the villa where it was pouring with rain, he had a strong intuition that there were still masters who had not appeared in the rainy night where he could not see his fingers.

“Kill!”

At this moment, Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian big man moved with tacit understanding, both of them lunged towards Ye Han, and the experts under their hands did the same, a hammer and two sharp knives, instantly attacked Ye Han’s chest and thighs, seeing this, Ye Han’s legs stomped on the ground fiercely, the whole person suddenly left the ground more than two meters high, crossing over the heads of Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian big man, but when the person was in mid-air, Ye Han’s body suddenly The Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand stabbed Wang Xiaodao in the back, and his left fist attacked the Mongolian big man’s body.

There was a bang! Ye Han’s fist hit the Mongolian big man’s body solidly, but Ye Han’s slash was dodged by Wang Xiaodao, the Mongolian big man was sent flying by Ye Han’s punch, but after Wang Xiaodao dodged Ye Han’s slash, he reacted extremely fast and kicked out in the air, towards Ye Han who had not yet landed.

When he felt Wang Xiaodao’s kick coming, he didn’t have time to think about it, so he used the Diamond Fist of the Five Elements Fist and collided with Wang Xiaodao’s leg.

But Ye Han also took a few steps back, caught in the middle of a siege, with terrifyingly sharp weapons coming towards his body on all sides to kill him.

Boom, boom, boom!

At the critical moment, the three Kunsang aimed for their chance to fire, the three closest to Ye Han were shot in the head before they could touch Ye Han’s clothes, taking advantage of this gap, Ye Han’s body turned like a wolf into a flock of sheep and launched a massacre against the experts of the Horse Gang and Guo Clan, the rain splashed and fell in torrents, the light of their swords flashed mercilessly in the darkness, the experts of the Horse Gang and Guo Clan fell one after another, the rain fell on their bodies and instantly It turned into blood red and flowed in the courtyard.

With Ye Han’s powerful killings, and with Kun Sang, Li Shan and Xu Fei shooting in the dark, the experts of the Horse Gang and Guo Clan had pretty much died in a short period of time.

“Bastard!” When Wang Xiaodao stopped at this moment, he saw that Ye Han had almost finished killing the people he had brought with him, his heart was suddenly filled with hatred and he hurriedly killed Ye Han, while at this moment the Mongolian big man who had been badly wounded also struggled to get up, lifted the hammer in his hand and smashed it at Ye Han.

Ye Han felt the wind coming from both sides and rolled on the ground, instantly dodging the combined strike of these two men.

However, just as Ye Han dodged the Mongolian man and Wang Xiaodao’s attack, a strong sense of danger descended on him, and out of the corner of his eye, a cold light sped like a meteor in the dark night sky outside the villa.

“Not good, expert!” Ye Han’s heart was startled as he roared out, then he met that cold light and slashed at the cold light that was about to fall with all his might.

Ding!

The sound of gold and iron rang out in the rainy night as the Dragon Scale Dagger clashed with the long blade, and the terrifying invisible force immediately radiated out, knocking the falling rain off its trajectory, a single raindrop exploded in mid-air, and Ye Han's body was violently knocked back by the powerful force, taking a dozen steps back before stopping at the bottom of the steps in front of the villa door.

On the opposite side of Ye Han, a black shadow was also retreating out at this moment, this person was wearing a black kimono, holding a snowy katana in his hand, his feet were stepping on wooden clogs, he had long flowing hair, and that look in his eyes gave a feeling of indifference to life.

"A ninja master!" On the first floor of the villa, after Kunsang saw this Japanese man, his eyebrows suddenly wrinkled, this man gave him a sense of extreme danger, similarly, Ye Han also felt danger in this Japanese man, Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian big man joined hands, they were still within his response range, but if this highly powerful Japanese man was added, then, his situation would become extremely dangerous.

Fortune Chapter 82

"Your Excellency is a good fighter, I have heard that there are many talented people in China, and it is true." Ichiro Gangmura looked at Ye Han and said indifferently; "It's just that these two gentlemen around me have not been able to take down your Excellency even when they joined forces, so it's really disappointing, so I, Ichiro Gangmura, have come to receive a lesson."

Hearing these words, Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian big man immediately snorted coldly, the meaning in this Japanese's words was clearly looking down on them.

Ye Han stared at Gangmura Ichiro, touched a handful of rainwater on his face and said in an icy voice; "Fujiwara Gofu sent you here, right, if my guess is correct you should be a middle-grade ninja master, Fujiwara Gofu really looks up to me, Fujiwara Group, Guo's, Ning's, very well, if you have the guts the three of you will come together."

"Sorry, I am not used to joining forces with people, these two gentlemen please go back." Ichiro Gangmura gave Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian big man a look, the meaning was clear, I'm here and you have nothing to do with me, hitting Jadeite's attention is not even something to think about.

"Hmph, little Japanese, don't be too wild, whoever kills this man today, the jadeite will be his." Wang Xiaodao sneered, and after a glance with the Mongolian man, they both pounced on Ye Han, who was guarding the gate at the moment, and only by killing him could they enter the villa and get the jade.

Seeing this, Ichiro Gangmura's mouth hung a cold smile, then, his right foot stomped on the ground, he immediately flew up, holding his katana with both hands, he directly overtook Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian man, and approached Ye Han first, that slash came like a meteor falling from the sky, fast, accurate and ruthless, it was a sure kill slash.

"Roll!"

Ye Han was undaunted by the slash of Ichiro Gang's sword, his body exploded with unprecedented strength, his hands gripped the Dragon Scale Dagger and slashed out fiercely, with a clanging sound, Ichiro Gang's katana landed on top of Ye Han's Dragon Scale Dagger, in an instant, he saw the steps underneath his feet cracked, Ichiro Gang's powerful slash made Ye Han feel that his hand holding the sword was numb, his body's qi and blood tumbled. He almost spurted out a mouthful of blood.

However, after Ichiro and Ye Han clashed, he was also shaken away by the force coming from Ye Han's Dragon Scale Dagger. However, just as Ye Han had forced back Ichiro Gangura, the attacks of Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian man also arrived, their attacks approaching Ye Han's body like thunder.

Ye Han had not yet recovered his breath, and when faced with the attacks of Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian man, he instinctively met them. Cold sweat was pouring from his forehead, and it was visible that blood was flowing out of his belly like a stream, which was shocking to the eyes.

However, Ye Han did not get a bargain either, he had just fought with these two, he had taken a hammer from the Mongolian man and spat out blood, at this moment he only felt that his body was about to explode, his internal energy was running around his dantian, sometimes violent, sometimes calm, making him extremely uncomfortable.

"Fuck you!"

Seeing Ye Han injured, Tang Da Shao was red-eyed, picking up his AK47 and strafing towards Wang Xiaodao and Mongolian Big Man, but although the power of the firearm was huge, it was not much of a threat to these cold weapon experts with quick reflexes, even if Mongolian Big Man and Wang Xiaodao were wounded, they were not something Tang Da Shao could take out.

Kunsang was also very anxious at the moment. In terms of fighting ability, he could not deal with either Wang Xiaodao or the Mongolian big man, and as for Gangmura Ichiro, it was even less so.

"Two brothers, let's go down and help Hanzi, with the strength of the three of us taking out that Mongolian should not be a problem."

Hearing Kunsang say this, Li Shan and Xu Fei, who had this idea for a long time, both immediately jumped down from the first floor in one step, followed by Kunsang, and the three of them immediately came to Ye Han's side, looking at the three experts opposite them with a tiger's eye.

"Hanzi, what's the matter?" Kunsang touched a handful of rainwater on his face and instantly noticed that Ye Han's face was pale to the point of pallor, causing his heart to sink violently.

"It's not dead yet, Brother Kunsang, you three help me finish off that Mongolian." Ye Han let out a deep breath, trying to make the tumbling internal energy in his body stop, Ichiro Gangura, Wang Xiaodao, the Mongolian, of these three the Mongolian was the most seriously injured, with the strength of the three Kunsang to finish off that Mongolian, it would not be a big problem.

"Good, kill him son of a bitch." The three Kunsang looked at each other and rushed directly towards the Mongol. And Ye Han locked onto Gang Village Ichiro and Wang Xiaodao, his eyes calm and cold, since the tumbling internal energy in his body could not be suppressed, let it explode, no one would be able to enter this villa today, because not only were his brothers inside, but also his woman.

"Hmph, the end of the strong arm." Wang Xiaodao coldly snorted, but he didn't make a move, he was waiting for Gangmura Ichiro to make a move, it would be best if Ye Han and Gangmura Ichiro fought to a standstill, then Emerald would be in the end

“Crossflow Chop!”

Gangmura Ichiro took a step forward, then his figure flashed, cutting down a terrifying blade shadow from mid-air like a silver lightning bolt. Facing this slash from Ichiro Gangmura, Ye Han did not move at all, but a crazy power was erupting in those calm eyes, the internal energy in his body surging like a tide, desperately needing an outlet.

In a flash, Ye Han met him with a slash, and their weapons clashed in mid-air. This time, Ichiro Gangmura did not hold back, and the Crossflow Slash was one of his three most powerful sword techniques, so powerful that even an opponent as powerful as Ichiro Gangmura would not dare to take his move. Ye Han, who had already been badly injured, took this slash and the consequences could be imagined. His body was directly shaken and he stepped backwards, spurting out three mouthfuls of blood in quick succession before falling to his knees.

Seeing that Ye Han had been injured again, Ichiro Gangmura took a step forward and said; “I am really impressed that you have been able to fight with me for so long without losing, but from now on, it is time for me to end your life.”

Wang Xiaodao frowned at the side, Ye Han had died just like that, the remaining Gangmura Ichiro was so powerful, he could not deal with him alone, but just as Wang Xiaodao’s thought fell, he saw Ye Han, who was half-kneeling on the ground, slowly raised his head, his face covered with rain and dew smiled strangely; “Little Japan, thank you for helping me break through, now, it’s time to end it.”

The moment this power was released, Ye Han’s body was like a frenzied beast shooting towards Gangmura Ichiro, the speed was faster than the wind, so fast that Wang Xiaodao could not even see clearly how Ye Han moved.

In the next moment, Ichiro Gangmura changed his expression and lashed out with his sword. In an instant, he had already wielded three consecutive slashes, however, as soon as he passed these three slashes, his body seemed to be hit by a train, and Ye Han slashed him away with one slash.

Seeing this, Wang Xiaodao’s heart tightened and his eyes instantly became frightened and appalled!

Fortune Chapter 83

Under the pressure of Wang Xiaodao, the Mongolian big man, and the three of them, Ichiro Gangmura, who appeared at the end, Ye Han broke through. Ye Han, who was already only one step away from reaching the Peiyuan realm by the old monk’s transmission, broke through the fetters at this critical moment and became a young expert of the Peiyuan realm.

At the peak of the Qi Sense Realm, if Wang Xiaodao and the Mongolian man had not been around to interfere, Ye Han would have been able to fight Ichiro Gamura with complete confidence.

When he was in the Qi Sense Realm, he was able to fight Wang Xiaodao, the Mongolian man and Gangmura Ichiro without defeat.

“Haha, good, Hanzi, chop that son of a bitch to death!” Tang Da Shao laughed wildly when he saw Ye Han slash away Gangmura Ichiro on the first floor, although Ye Han had suddenly gained the upper hand and Tang Haibin didn’t know what the reason was, his hanging heart finally let go.

When Wang Xiaodao saw this scene, his heart snapped, at this moment, from Ye Han's body he felt a full aura of danger, Ye Han's aura had become more than twice as strong compared to just now. Feeling this, Wang Xiaodao's heart sprang back, even the powerful Gangmura Ichiro could not block Ye Han's slash, Wang Xiaodao was not so foolish that he could block it himself.

At this moment, Ichiro Gangmura felt the change in Ye Han's body, his face became very ugly, from the power of Ye Han's slash just now, he felt that a great disparity had occurred between himself and Ye Han.

"Gangmura Ichiro, try to receive a slash from me."

With a breakthrough in strength, Ye Han once again killed towards Gangmura Ichiro, wielding a thunderous strike that directly cut off all the rain falling down.

"Cross Slash!"

Seeing Ye Han kill with another slash, Gangmura Ichiro looked indifferent, holding his sword with both hands, he instantly swung two slashes in front of him, trying to block Ye Han's strike, however, Ye Han's thunderous slash, Gangmura Ichiro could not block it at all, his body was once again forced backwards and forwards.

"Gangmura Ichiro, it's time to end it!"

Looking at the retreating Gangmura Ichiro, Ye Han's heart fiercely emerged with murderous intent, the power in his body surged out and gathered on the Dragon Scale Dagger, this power made the Dragon Scale Dagger even more dazzling. He found that Ichiro had already run a hundred meters away from the villa.

Seeing this, Ye Han's expression was cold. One day he would take his revenge, he would remember the enemies who came tonight, he almost lost his life tonight, revenge was necessary.

At that moment, the three of them killed the Mongolian man, who was already wounded and would not survive the night with the three of them working together. Around the villa, the enemies were also dead and fleeing, and the fierce gunfire was slowly diminishing.

Finally, Ye Han and Kun Sang dragged their tired bodies back inside the villa, the two of them directly lay down on the floor and rested, Li Shan and Xu Fei also sat aside to rest, they were too tired for them tonight, the enemies from all sides came here tonight, there were only 60 to 70 people, the villa's surroundings were basically full of corpses, blood flowed into rivers, very few people could return alive.

Tang Da Shao and Liu Zhiming also came down from the first floor at this time, throwing the gun in their hands, both of them also found a seat, tonight for them, that is, exciting and dangerous; "Han Zi, with you is too damn exciting, killing is really cool, by the way, are you kids okay?"

"If you're alright, how can I be alright?" Ye Han responded with a smile as he lay on the ground, but after lying down for a while, the smell of blood from a few big men was too much for him to bear, then Ye Han let Liu Zhiming take care of the rest, he himself dragged his tired body back to his room.

Ye Han opened the door to his room, after turning on the light, he immediately found Zhou Yun'er sitting right on his bed with tear marks on her pretty face, beside her, Little Qingcheng, the girl, was even asleep, so much noise that she could fall asleep, making Ye Han very speechless.

When she saw Ye Han open his mouth and come back, Zhou Yun'er pounced on him at once, not caring that he was wet, hugged him tightly and cried, the gunfire outside the villa just now lasted for an hour, her heart was also followed by an hour of fear, the fierce battle outside, she was afraid that Ye Han would not be able to come back.

"Ye Han, hold me tight, I'm scared!" Zhou Yun'er's sobbing voice rang out in Ye Han's ears.

Feeling the strength of this woman's hug, Ye Han heartily touched her three thousand green silk, that big battle outside tonight, Ye Han knew, Zhou Yun'er must be very worried, let his woman for his own fear, Ye Han heart some self-reproach; "Well, it's already fine, I said, I will not miss the appointment, Yun'er, tonight you are my"

After saying that, Ye Han picked up Zhou Yun'er and walked into the bathroom. Zhou Yun'er buried her head in Ye Han's arms with a shy red face, secretly wiping away the tears on her face, but she did not resist and let Ye Han carry her and entered the bathroom. After Ye Han put on the bath water, he stripped himself naked directly in front of Zhou Yun'er and then stepped into the bathtub to wash away the smell of blood.

Because of the fierce battle just now, although Zhou Yun'er appeared to be fine, Ye Han knew that this woman was actually terrified, but only disguised herself so strongly in order not to let herself see her vulnerable side.

So, in order to let her relax her tense nerves, Ye Han inevitably did something inside the bathroom to let her relax her mood. It was just that this woman's look of letting the king pick and step on her that Ye Han could barely stand, if he wasn't too tired from that battle just now, Ye Han would have had to do it.

"How is it, are you feeling better?" Ye Han asked as he looked at Zhou Yun'er who was in his arms.

"Mm, Ye Han, let's go back to our room." Zhou Yun'er hung her entire body in Ye Han's arms, her beautiful eyes looking at him in ecstasy.

Ye Han nodded his head and finally picked up Zhou Yun'er and walked out of the bathroom after putting on a bath towel.

Last night, Ye Han did not do anything, although he knew that even if he wanted to do something, Zhou Yun'er would not resist, but Ye Han did not, that last night a big fight made Zhou Yun'er scared.

All night long, Ye Han slept with Zhou Yun'er in his arms, and Little Qingcheng slept next to them, the relationship between the two of them was only short of that last step, a step Ye Han was in no hurry, with their current relationship, whenever Ye Han wanted, Zhou Yun'er would give.

What's more, after that big battle, Ye Han was also tired and desperately needed a steady sleep to recover.

After a night of heavy rain, the sun rose from the horizon the next day and enveloped the sky, but the air was clearer after the rain, but, around Ye Han and their villa, although all those corpses and bloodstains had disappeared, the smell of blood could still be smelt in the air.

In Tengchong was a luxurious business hotel, Guo Yunxiao was sitting on the sofa looking calmly at Wang Xiaodao who was standing opposite him, he had already learned from Wang Xiaodao's mouth last night that Ye Han was actually a master, and was even more powerful than Wang Xiaodao which made Guo Yunxiao very surprised.

"Sorry, young Guo, it is Little Dagger who has let you down." Wang Xiaodao lowered his head not daring to look at Guo Yunxiao.

"Forget it, I didn't expect him to be an expert in martial arts, according to what you said, the Japanese expert who was even more powerful than you couldn't even kill him, you can't be blamed for this, but for that jade, I think whether it's the Ning family, that trash, or the Japanese, they are all determined to get it, you immediately contact the Xiangjiang side, this jade must not fall into their hands, understand? Do you understand?" Guo Yunxiao looked at Wang Xiaodao and said with a cold expression.

"Yes, young Guo, I'll contact the main altar right away."

When Ye Han woke up the next day, Zhou Yun'er was still lying beside him, wearing only a bathrobe, and was looking at him with big eyes that were unblinking, but the little ninny Qingcheng had already been blown away by her.

"Awake." Zhou Yun'er's jade hand turned twice on top of Ye Han's chest and looked at Ye Han who had opened his eyes and said.

Men who had just woken up in the morning were restless, Ye Han blinked before picking the woman up and making her lie on his body with a smile; "Yun'er, did we both forget to do something last night?"

Hearing this, Zhou Yun'er's face flushed when she remembered what happened last night.

"Hmph, who let some people sleep like a dead cow last night." Zhou Yun'er's pair of eyes stared at Ye Han with a sultry look.

Looking at those eyes, Ye Han smiled sarcastically, but in the next moment, he pinned Zhou Yun'er underneath him with a big flip and said with an evil smile; "What you didn't do last night, you can make up for it now."

However, just as the two were about to have a big fuck, the door to their room was opened and Little Qingcheng came in through the doorway revealing a little bald head, blinking her big eyes curiously as she watched Ye Han press Zhou Yun'er underneath her and said; "Brother Ye Han, how are you bullying Sister Yun'er? If you press down on Sister Yun'er like this, you'll crush her so much that she won't be able to breathe."

Hearing this voice, Ye Han and Zhou Yun'er were both startled and the two hurriedly separated, they were so involved just now that they didn't even notice that Little Qingcheng had left the door open.

Ye Han smiled sarcastically and said without a blush on his face; “Qingcheng, why are you up here? Brother didn’t bully sister Yun’er just now, we were doing exercise, getting up in the morning and doing exercise is good for your body.”

At these words, Zhou Yun’er blushed and gave Ye Han a white look, pulling the blanket to cover herself tighter.

Little Qingcheng nodded as if she understood, then said to Ye Han; “It’s fat brother who came up to let me see if you guys are ready, hurry up and go down when you are.”

After saying that, this nee-san left without even closing the door.

“It’s all your fault, this is great, this girl Qingcheng saw it, if she tells Tang Haibin and the others later, I’ll see what you do?” Zhou Yun’er beamed and glared at Ye Han, then got out of bed and went to find a set of clothes to put on, and by the way, found a set for Ye Han.

“Hey, if you see it, you can see it, we are in a proper relationship anyway, sooner or later we will have that day.”

Ye Han grinned, then in his heart he cursed Tang Da Shao for being such a wimp and not being able to pick the right time to encourage Little Qingcheng to bother him at this time. After getting dressed, the two of them walked hand in hand towards the stairs, at this time, Kunsang, Tang Da Shao, Liu Zhiming and Deqin Bach were all there.

“Hey hey, Chill, this is some energy you have, kid!” Saying that, Tang Da Shao gave Ye Han an ambiguous look, Ye Han was too lazy to care about this no decent goods, he pulled Zhou Yun’er to sit down on the sofa, little Qingcheng jumped on his lap at once and sat up, looking at him and Zhou Yun’er with a curious face.

After Ye Han hugged Little Qingcheng, he looked at Dechenbach and said; “Mr. Dechenbach, thanks to the Lone Wolf Mercenaries for their help last night, I would like to thank you in advance, don’t worry, I will pay for the losses of the Lone Wolf Mercenaries last night.”

“Thank you Mr. Ye for your generosity.” Deqin Bach stood up and gave Ye Han a solemn bow, of the twenty or so brothers he had brought with him, there were still only a dozen left, a loss of half, which was already a heavy blow to the Lone Wolf Mercenary Regiment.

In the end, Ye Han asked Zhou Yun’er to write a cheque for 10 million and handed it to Dechenbach. The original price agreed was 5 million, but last night, without the help of the Lone Wolf Mercenaries, he could not support himself alone, so Ye Han paid an extra 5 million.

After receiving the cheque for 10 million, DeChenbach looked at Ye Han with a hint of gratitude, as a mercenary, he was making money with his life, but few people treated them as human beings, and even fewer treated them as Ye Han did.

After dealing with this matter of Deqin Bach, Ye Han looked at Kunsang and said, “Brother Kunsang, I would like to trouble you to use the strength of the Kun family to help me find out which forces were involved last night.

As he spoke, Ye Han's eyes carried a strong killing spirit, he would not let go of any of those people last night, at least, he could not let those people live too comfortably.

"Hehehe, I knew you would say this, I have already given you a clear investigation, here is the list, take a look." Saying that, Kunsang gave Ye Han a list, on top of that list, there were the Fujiwara Group, Guo's, Ning's, Ruan's, Ba's, Zhenxing Jewellery House, Dahua Jewellery House, Zhengyu Jewellery House, Da Xing Jewellery House and so on, large and small jewellery houses.

Ye Han glanced at it, he sneered, then took out a pen to remove the Fujiwara Group, Guo's, Ning's, Ruan's and Ba's, and finally handed the remaining people on the list to Dechenbach and said; "Mr. Dechenbach, I want to trouble you with one thing, the remaining people on this list, you help me to do it, five million each, I wonder if you dare to take it next?"

Hearing these words from Ye Han, everyone here was shocked, Ye Han, this is the start of revenge!

Deqin Bach smiled coldly and said; "Mr. Ye, I, Bach, make my living from this line of work, although my Lone Wolf Mercenary Regiment suffered losses after last night's battle, completing the men on this will not be a problem, what's more, you are offering such a high price, I really find it hard to refuse."

"Oh, good, then I'll be waiting for good news here." Watching Deqin Bach leave, the corner of Ye Han's mouth hung a cold smile, let the Lone Wolf mercenary group kill these people, think they will be very panic, those who kill, should be prepared to be killed, that account last night, Ye Han will slowly find them to settle it.

Fortune Chapter 85

Of course, Ye Han did not include the Fujiwara Group, Guo's, Ning's and the Ruan and Ba families, these people were too strong, with the strength of the Lone Wolf Mercenary Corps could not deal with them yet, these people he would have to deal with slowly on his own.

Seeing the decision Ye Han made, Zhou Yun'er did not say anything, wanting to kill her man, then, her man's revenge they must be able to withstand, can't bear, die deservedly.

But just as Ye Han made this decision, his mobile phone rang, picked up the phone and saw that the caller ID was unexpectedly from Shanghai City. In Shanghai City, apart from his sister Ye Qing, Lin Baimo, Zhou Lao and Yan Lingjiao, who else would be calling him?

Looking at the unfamiliar number displayed on the phone, Ye Han pressed the answer button; "Hello, hello, who is this?"

"Oh, what, it's only been a few days since you've seen me and you've forgotten my sister?" Inside the phone came Fire Phoenix's charming voice, even through the phone, that charming voice could crisp to one's bones, after hearing this, Ye Han slapped his forehead, how had he forgotten about this woman, it was just that Ye Han had not saved Fire Phoenix's phone number.

"I say, big beauty Fire Phoenix, why are you calling me this far away?" Ye Han said with a smile as he crossed his legs.

But as soon as she heard that it was Fire Phoenix who was talking to Ye Han, Zhou Yun'er gave a light hum, obviously a little upset, for Fire Phoenix, Zhou Yun'er felt a threat in her body, that woman was too enchanting, she was only afraid that no man could stop her charm.

"Of course I miss you, what? Have you not missed me, sister, after being apart for so long?"

Hearing that seductive voice coming from inside the phone, Ye Han stole a glance at Zhou Yun'er, it wouldn't be good if she heard this.

"What, your little lover is around? Am I disturbing you?" Seeing that Ye Han didn't say anything, Fire Phoenix gave a charming smile and said; "Little fellow, wouldn't this be better, don't you men all like to cheat on each other? To make out with other women in front of your own woman, wouldn't that be more exciting."

Ye Han's heart swung, cursing that this woman was really a demon, such words could be said.

"Alright, I know you won't look for me if you have nothing to do, tell me, what's the matter with calling for me?" Ye Han was afraid that Fire Phoenix would say other titillating words, so he hurriedly changed the topic, and he knew that this woman, Fire Phoenix, would not usually look for him if she was fine.

"Alright, I won't tease you." Fire Phoenix organized her language and said to Ye Han; "Little fellow, the fact that you can still answer my call now proves that you have gotten through that crisis last night, but what I want to tell you is that the danger you are facing is just beginning."

At that, Ye Han frowned and said; "How do you know about last night?"

"Oh, I only found out this morning too, don't forget what I do." Fire Phoenix smiled and said; "You made a lot of noise in Tengchong, although it was suppressed by the local authorities, but secretly it still aroused the attention of the top, as far as we know from our investigation, there are experts from Xiangjiang heading to Tengchong, and the Yunnan Horse Gang is also gathering experts to move. I don't know what's going on in your head?"

Hearing this, Ye Han rubbed his forehead and said; "You think I want to, forget it, let's not talk about this after it has already happened, how much do you know about them?"

Fire Phoenix said; "The people from Xiangjiang are very difficult for you to deal with, and the Ma Gang is the number one gang in Yunnan, there are also many experts in it, but little guy, the danger you face is not only that, I got the news that the Golden Triangle has sent its experts into Yunnan territory, I don't need to tell you what they are doing in Yunnan, you should know clearly, besides them, the Ruan family and the Ba family who dealt with you last night are not to be underestimated. The Ruan family and the Ba family that dealt with you last night should not be underestimated either.

After hearing what Fire Phoenix had said, Ye Han's brow furrowed even more, the battle had just ended last night, and these people had made new moves so quickly, it seemed that they really had a thief's heart for him!

Moreover, after that jungle killing under the Wolverine Temple last time, the Machete Killer Organisation had actually made a new move as well, the Machete's killers had come to Yunnan, Ye Han didn't need to guess to think of their intentions.

“Apart from them, you seem to have forgotten to mention one other person, right?” Ye Han hadn’t heard anything about the Japanese from Fire Phoenix’s mouth since the beginning, which made him a little strange.

Fire Phoenix gave a light laugh and continued; “This is exactly what I am going to talk to you about next, little fellow, you are currently isolated on all sides over in Yunnan, if you are willing I can find you a helper.”

“Tell me first what kind of helper.”

Fire Phoenix said; “It happens that our organization is recently hunting for a traitor, that traitor is carrying confidential documents of our Security Bureau, at present this traitor has escaped to Tengchong and is preparing to meet with the forces he has defected to, I want you to help our people to catch this traitor and retrieve the documents, as a condition, our people can help you to survive the crisis in Tengchong.”

“People from the Security Bureau.” Ye Han frowned and said after a moment of contemplation; “If my guess is correct, the force that traitor you are talking about is going to defect to is the Japanese, right?”

“Smart, in fact we both have a common enemy, it’s just that that traitor is very powerful, and there are also masters among the Japanese that the Negative is meeting, our people are very passive over there at the moment, I know what you are capable of, so I hope you can step in and work with us, it won’t be a loss for you.”

On the phone, Ye Han was silent, but Fire Phoenix was in no hurry, she knew Ye Han would definitely say yes, who let that little guy get into too many enemies this time?

After a while, Ye Han murmured; “Okay, I can promise you to cooperate with you, but I hope that you keep your promise, but do not do anything to unload on me.”

“Hehe, don’t worry about that, we can’t wait to recruit a talent like you, moreover, do you think sister will let something happen to you over there?” Fire Phoenix laughed lightly, then continued; “But for safety’s sake, your little mistress must return first, having her over there is too much of a hindrance for you, and it’s also very dangerous for her, you must be mindful in order to get through this crisis safely.”

“It’s only difficult to go back now.” Ye Han said; “According to what you said since those people have made new moves, I am only afraid that my place is already being watched, and any movement will be known to them.”

“Don’t worry about this, since you agreed to cooperate, our people will arrange for your little lover to return to Shanghai City safely, our people will come to you in an hour, he will discuss the details with you at that time, well, I won’t disturb you to chat with your little lover.” After saying this, Fire Phoenix hung up the phone.

Listening to the busy tone coming from the phone, Ye Han put the phone away, but his frown was never stretched, because next he was going to face an even more dangerous challenge, the Japanese, Guo’s, Ning’s, Ruan’s and Ba’s, these powerful enemies were still not dead to him.

“What did that woman say to you?” Zhou Yun’er asked as she took Ye Han’s hand, her beautiful eyes staring at him unblinkingly.

“Nothing.” Ye Han smiled, stroked Zhou Yun’er’s hair and said; “Yun’er, maybe you will be leaving Tengchong soon, you don’t need to participate in the rest of the gambling festival, I will go for you then, you will go back to Shanghai City today, take Qingcheng with you, and Hai Bin you will also go back.”

“Why?” Zhou Yun’er and Tang Da Shao looked at Ye Han at the same time and asked.

“There is no reason, someone will come to take you away later, if you believe me then do as I say.” It was rare for Ye Han to put on a hard face in front of Zhou Yun’er and Tang Da Shao, his attitude was raw, seeing Ye Han like this, Tang Da Shao wanted to say something and swallowed his words back.

“Ye Han, you must tell me what is going on? Otherwise I won’t leave here, is it something to do with that woman? What did you all talk about just now? Tell me.”

With these words, Ye Han made Zhou Yun’er feel an unusual aura, an aura that made the whole villa inside feel very oppressive, a phone call made Ye Han become so solemn, this tense atmosphere was even more kick-ass than before that big battle came last night.

“Holy shit, Hanzi, you should say something, we won’t leave until you make it clear.” Seeing Ye Han’s silence, Tang Da Shao was the first to speak up; “Are those bastards from last night still not dead, damn it, if that’s the case I can’t leave even more, the two of us who came together have to go back together, I absolutely can’t leave you alone on this side.”

Hearing these words, Ye Han felt very much in his heart, he sighed and said; “You staying will only bring me more trouble, you are right, that gang last night is indeed not dead yet, but more than that, there is movement on the side of the Machete Killer Organization, Guo has even sent his experts from the Xiangjiang side, the Ma Gang is also on the move, and there are also the Japanese, if you stay If you continue here, I will be distracted.”

Hearing these words, the people inside the villa frowned, Guo’s movements were surprisingly fast, and the Machete Killer Organisation was also involved, Ye Han would face an even greater crisis.

“No.” Zhou Yun’er shook her head firmly and said; “Such a dangerous scene, I can’t let you stay in Tengchong alone, let’s go back to Shanghai City together, as long as we return to Shanghai City these people won’t dare to do anything to us, Ye Han, let’s go back to Shanghai City together, we won’t participate in the Stone Gambling Festival, okay?”

“Right, Hanzi, all these bastards are stirring together, it’s too dangerous for you to be alone, let’s go back to Shanghai City, in my old man’s territory I’ll see who they dare to mess around.” Great Shao Tang said with a fierce face, leaving Ye Han alone on this side he was really uneasy because the enemies Ye Han had to face this time were even stronger than last night.

Ye Han shook his head and said; “Since the enemy has already come to my door, it is useless to retreat, and bringing the enemy into Shanghai City will give me more worries then, settling it over here is the best battlefield, but don’t worry guys, I am not alone over here, that woman Fire Phoenix has already found me a group of experts, with them, it is enough to deal with these people. ”

“Experts, where are they? Why don’t I see them?” Tang Da Shao stammered, obviously a bit unconvinced by Ye Han’s words, but at that moment, the villa’s doorbell rang, the people inside the villa heard the sound, their eyes looked at the door at the same time, under Ye Han's gesture, Li Shan went to open the door, then, a group of men and women in suits walked inside the villa.

There were five people in the group, four men and one woman, and they were carrying briefcases in their hands, so people who didn't know would think they were white-collar businessmen from some company. Ye Han's gaze fell on the man in the forefront who appeared to be a bit sturdy, in this man's body Ye Han felt the same aura as him, this man, was an expert of the Peiyuan realm.

"Shit, who are you guys? Don't you know this is a private villa?" Young Tang was furious when he saw this group of people who walked in.

"Oh, hello guys, we're here to find Mr. Ye, may I ask which one is Mr. Ye Han?" The leading stout man asked as he looked at the people inside the villa, but his gaze had fallen on Ye Han, who stood up and said; "I am, are you the people that Fire Phoenix said?"

The stout man nodded and said; "Hello Mr. Ye, I am Cheng Jun, these are my colleagues, I don't know if you are ready Mr. Ye? We have already booked tickets for you, there will be our people over at the airport to escort you all back to Shanghai City safely."

Hearing these words, Tang Da Shao instantly sprang up; "Wait, shit, after half a day you guys are the experts that Han Zi said, why didn't I see that, looking at all of you, have you ever killed anyone? What are you staring at, girl? Believe it or not, I can pick you up with one hand?"

Seeing that the only girl in the group was glaring at him, Tang Da Shao grunted in displeasure, however, his words had only just fallen when he saw the young girl suddenly strike out, followed by a beautiful over-the-shoulder drop that knocked Tang Da Shao's two-hundred-plus pound body to its knees.

"Ouch, fuck me!" Tang Da Shao's buttocks came into close contact with the ground, causing him to jump up in a flash, rubbing his buttocks and hastily hiding behind Ye Han, his eyes fiercely glaring at the girl, he could never have imagined that such a delicate little girl would be so strong, dropping his two-hundred-plus pound body just like a game.

Ye Han didn't bother about Tang Da Shao, he looked at Cheng Jun and said; "Brother Cheng please wait a moment, we can prepare our side and then we can head to the airport, we will trouble you all then."

"Oh, it's no trouble, Mr. Ye's name is actually something I've heard of a month ago, when I see it today, Mr. Ye is really extraordinary, at such a young age, he has such great strength, I'm impressed." Cheng Jun looked at Ye Han and sighed with emotion, Ye Han's strength was actually something he had felt from the moment he entered the door, it was on par with him, this talent, not many could be found within the Security Bureau that could match him.

In response, Ye Han only smiled, after greeting Cheng Jun and others to sit down, he pulled Zhou Yun'er upstairs, and at the same time dragged Tang Da Shao the bastard up, half an hour later, Ye Han only carried Little Qingcheng and walked downstairs with Zhou Yun'er and Tang Da Shao.

"Brother Cheng, I'll trouble you guys next." After coming to the living room, Ye Han shook hands with Cheng Jun, he still trusted this group of people from the Security Bureau of the country.

“Brother Ye, you’re welcome.” Cheng Jun smiled brightly, then said to the three Security Bureau officers; “Night Cat, Mouse, Crazy Horse, the three of you escort Miss Zhou and the others to the airport, and keep me informed of any situation on the way.”

The three Security Bureau officers nodded their heads.

Tang Haibin walked over and slapped Ye Han’s shoulder fiercely; “Hanzi, you kid better get back to Shanghai City alive for me, or I’ll pick that flower of your sister and make you kid regret it.”

After saying that, this guy walked out of the villa in a flash, making Ye Han cry and laugh a little, Zhou Yun’er came to Ye Han’s body with her sunglasses, tidied up Ye Han’s clothes for him and said; “I know I will be a burden to you over here, so I won’t interfere with you, but remember what you promised me.”

Saying that, Zhou Yun’er picked up little Qingcheng and likewise walked out of the villa, Li Shan and Xu Fei both followed behind her, all the way came the little one’s voice; “Brother Ye Han, you have to come to me quickly, without you, Qingcheng will not be able to sleep

“Don’t worry, I’ll go back even if it’s a big crisis, wait for me.” Ye Han silently recited in his heart, watching the people from the Security Bureau send off Zhou Yun’er’s group, Ye Han came to sit opposite Cheng Jun, at this moment, only Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming and the Security Bureau’s group were left inside the villa.

“Brother Cheng, tell us what the situation is, what should we do next?” Ye Han asked after sitting down and looking at Cheng Jun.

Upon hearing this, Cheng Jun glanced at Kunsang and Liu Zhiming, seeing this, Kunsang and Liu stood up at the same time and said; “Hanzi, Old Liu and I will go first, remember to call me if anything happens, remember, in Tengchong, I am your brother.”

Ye Han nodded heavily and said; “Brother Kunsang, I will, I won’t go to the second session of the gambling festival today, I’ll go when the third session starts.”

“Hmm, good, Old Liu and I will accompany you then.” After saying this, Kunsang and Liu left the villa.

Seeing Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming leave, Cheng Jun said; “Brother Ye, I won’t go into the details, the Fire Phoenix team leader should have mentioned to you that the person we are going to deal with is a person with extremely high martial arts skills, after all our chasing during this period of time he has escaped to Tengchong and is preparing to meet with the hostile forces tonight, so we must take him down tonight and at the same time retrieve his hands the confidential documents.”

Ye Han pondered and asked; “Have you found out where he is now?”

Cheng Jun shook his head and said; “This person has been specially trained and has extremely strong anti-surveillance abilities, but our people have already locked on to the forces he wants to connect with, just follow them and we will be able to find the traitor.”

“Good, I’ll accompany you guys tonight.”

On the villa side Ye Han had not gone back to stay, after the battle last night, the whole villa had become riddled with holes, moreover, there were also many people around the villa who were secretly watching, it was simply not suitable to continue staying there, then Ye Han and Cheng Jun raced most of the way around Tengchong City, losing all those stalkers before arriving at an abandoned factory, which was a temporary landing place for the Security Bureau officers, very secretive.

“Lieutenant, Huang Ying, you’re back.” Walking inside the factory, an ordinary looking youth came over and said.

Cheng Jun nodded and asked; “Mountain Chicken, this is Brother Ye Han Ye, he will be operating with us tonight, tell us, what’s the situation over there?”

The plain young man called Mountain Chicken nodded at Ye Han, then said; “Vice team, the earth dogs are keeping an eye on it over there, but that group of Japanese are already starting to prepare, as soon as there is any new news the earth dogs will report back.”

“That’s good, when Night Cat and the others return we’ll go and meet up with Earth Dog, tonight we must kill that traitor Falcon and get the documents back.” Cheng Jun said fiercely, then introduced Ye Han; “Brother Ye, this is Mountain Chicken, the girl beside you is called Huang Ying, don’t look at her young age, her strength is very good, she is a genius of our seventh group, I hope we can serve our country together in the future.”

“Brother Ye, welcome to join us.” Huang Ying said as she extended her hand to Ye Han.

“Let’s talk about it.” Ye Han shook hands with Huang Ying and then nodded with Chicken Yi, not long after, the three Security Bureau officers who had just gone to escort Zhou Yun’er and the others returned, Cheng Jun who was discussing with Ye Han how to strike at night saw this and stood up and asked; “Night Cat, Mouse, Crazy Horse, how is Miss Zhou and the others? Nothing happened on the way to the airport, right?”

“Lieutenant, with the three of us, there’s nothing we can’t handle, those people who were following them were all plucked out by us, Miss Zhou and the others have safely boarded the plane and will arrive in Shanghai City tonight.” The rat came over and grinned, he could see that he was a very cheerful person.

Hearing this, Ye Han breathed a sigh of relief in his heart, as long as Zhou Yun’er and the others left safely, he would be able to do a great job in Tengchong without any fear, and he would be able to retreat peacefully in the face of any enemy even if he was outmatched.

“Well, good, Brother Ye, now you can rest assured.” Cheng Jun smiled towards Ye Han, then he looked at his watch and said; “There are still a few hours left before it gets dark, everyone prepare your equipment, we will go and meet up with the earth dog before it gets dark, by the way, Brother Ye, what weapons do you need?”

At that, Ye Han thought for a moment and said; “Can we get a sniper rifle?”

The sniper rifle, an extremely powerful weapon after last night’s practice Ye Han already liked it, having a sniper rifle, he could take out any enemy within range.

Hearing this from Ye Han, a look of disdain flashed in Night Cat's eyes, although all of them in the Security Bureau were experts at playing with guns, they preferred to use cold weapons in combat, as hot weapons were not very lethal to people like them.

"Thought you were an expert, but it turns out you can only play with guns." Night Cat laughed disdainfully, and the other Security Bureau people's gaze at Ye Han also changed a little, if they could only play with guns it would only be of little use to them in tonight's operation.

"Night Cat, what did you say? Hurry up and apologize to Brother Ye." When Cheng Jun heard Night Cat's words, his eyebrows immediately furrowed, Ye Han's strength could not be felt by the rest of the Security Bureau, but he could clearly feel it, only that it was not even weaker than him.

"Hmph, deputy team, I, Night Cat, never apologize to the weak." Night Cat hummed lightly, turned his head and walked out of the factory.

Seeing this, Cheng Jun gave a bitter smile and said to Ye Han; "Brother Ye, sorry, you don't mind, Night Cat, he has this personality, but he doesn't mean any harm, I will get you the sniper rifle you need."

Ye Han shook his head and said; "Brother Cheng there is no need for that, call me when the action is on, I will rest first."

After saying this, Ye Han went to a corner and rested his eyes, several people from the Security Bureau glanced at each other, Mouse asked Cheng Jun; "Deputy team, is this guy reliable? The grade is too young, only not older than two years old than Little Yellowing."

"Humph, you guys have no eyesight, what's wrong with being young? Huang Ying isn't also young, but she's still the elite of our seventh group." Cheng Jun waved his hand; "Alright, go get Night Cat back, we'll get ready and leave in a bit."

At five o'clock in the afternoon, Ye Han followed Cheng Jun's group and left the factory, driving on the road in a nondescript van, Ye Han was holding a sniper rifle in his arms, this rifle was even more powerful than the one he used last night, with a longer range, within five hundred meters, even a leaf could be shot through with precision.

"Lieutenant, it's not good, the Japanese have made their move, Tu Dog sent a message saying that the Japanese are now secretly heading towards the western outskirts of Tengchong, he is now following them." At this time, a message was sent on Chicken's mobile phone, causing the faces of the Security Bureau to change.

Cheng Jun frowned and said; "I didn't expect the Japanese to act so quickly, Night Cat, drive faster, make sure you get there when the Japanese and that traitor meet, that document must not be obtained by the Japanese, otherwise it will have incalculable consequences."

"Yes, Lieutenant." Night Cat answered and at once drove the van as fast as it could, weaving through the many vehicles on the highway.

Fortune Chapter 88

Ten minutes later, the van had arrived at Tengchong in the suburbs, through the surveillance of the earth dog's phone, Cheng Jun quickly locked a location, just on the outskirts of Tengchong city not far from a hill, where is an abandoned temple, came to the temple's surroundings, Ye Han found many black small cars already parked here.

Suddenly, a black shadow scurried over from a short distance away, this person was athletic and arrived in front of Ye Han and them in a few breaths, when Cheng Jun saw this person, he immediately asked in a deep voice; "Tu Dog, what is the situation?"

"Lieutenant, the Japanese have already entered inside the temple, but that traitor Falcon hasn't appeared yet." Earth Dog kicked in his breath and continued; "But this time the Japanese have brought over twenty ninja masters, including a middle ninja."

"Never mind that much, we must kill Falcon and retrieve the documents, Brother Ye, I hope you'll give us your full help." Cheng Jun looked at Ye Han with a heavy voice, more than twenty ninjas and a middle ninja, if in addition to Falcon, an expert of the Pei Yuan realm, he alone was not sure of defeating, the only way to rely on Ye Han.

"Don't worry, I'll go look for the sniper spot, you guys be careful yourselves." After saying that, Ye Han rushed towards the west side of the temple, not long after that Ye Han had arrived on top of a dilapidated roof in the temple, below him was a courtyard, at this moment, more than twenty Japanese ninjas had already guarded this courtyard tightly, in the middle of that courtyard were two people sitting on a stone bench, and both of them were old acquaintances of Ye Han.

They were the ones who were here to meet with the Security Bureau traitors. Seeing this scene through the binoculars, Ye Han let out a cold smile, what a place to meet, if we could take out Ichiro Gang here, then the Japanese force in Tengchong would be nothing to fear.

However, Ye Han did not move yet, the traitor from the Security Bureau had not yet appeared, and only when he did could he make his move.

Not long had passed, three minutes later, outside the temple, a dirty and hunchbacked beggar walked in with a broken bowl on crutches, this beggar's hair was scattered, at first glance, he thought he was a vagrant, but that steady pace indicated that he was not an ordinary person.

When he saw the hunchbacked beggar walk in, Sanshiro Inoue stood up and walked over and smiled; "Falcon-kun, I've been waiting for you for a long time, you're finally here, don't worry, it's just you and me here tonight, no need to pretend anymore."

Hearing these words, the beggar who was hunchbacked a moment ago slowly straightened his back and threw the broken bowl in his hand, revealing a pair of sharp eyes, those eyes were as terrifying as a hungry wolf, filled with a burst of killing aura, he spoke indifferently; "Saburo Inoshita, you are early, but I advise you not to underestimate the people of the Security Bureau, how about it, did you bring the money? "

Inoshita Saburo smiled broadly; "Falcon-kun, please don't worry, I have the money ready, and your identity has also been prepared, after our deal, you will be a member of our Great Japanese Empire, at that time even the people of the Chinese Security Bureau cannot do anything to you."

“That’s good.” A look of greed flashed in Falcon’s terrifying eyes, and then he took out a small black box from his arms and said; “Lest the night is too long, let’s make the deal now, then you send me out of China, I don’t want to be chased by that group of people from the Security Bureau like a street rat.”

“Haha, good, Falcon-kun, from now on you can live the free life you want for yourself.” Saburo Inoue burst out laughing and walked towards Falcon.

“Hmph, a life of leisure, dream your springtime dreams.”

Suddenly, as Sanjuro Inoue was about to walk in front of Falcon, several grenades fell from the sky and landed in the middle of the courtyard with a shockingly large explosion.

The grenade’s terrifying blast shattered the calm of the night, and in the middle of the dilapidated temple, flames burst into the sky, killing five or six Japanese ninjas who had not been able to defend themselves.

Falcon was extremely skilled, he had jumped away before the grenade had exploded, moving like a thunderbolt, agile, not at all like a vagrant beggar, and at that moment, Cheng Jun and the others had taken advantage of the confusion to jump into the temple, Cheng Jun’s target was Falcon, and the other experts of the Security Bureau took on the Japanese ninja.

“Falcon, you traitor, hand over the documents quickly and follow me back to headquarters to accept the sanctions.”

“Hmph, Cheng Jun, you really look like a dog that won’t let go of its prey when it bites, chasing me all the way from Yanjing side to here, if you want me to hand over the documents, it depends on whether you Cheng Jun has that ability or not.” With that, Falcon’s arm trembled and the walking stick in his hand cracked open to reveal a silver glittering sword, the blade of which flashed like a stream of light to kill Cheng Jun.

Cheng Jun’s weapon was a specially made steel sword with incomparable sharpness. The two fought with a sound like a flood of bells, making people feel their eardrums faintly painful with every clash, and that kind of powerful force, which could reach 700 to 800 pounds with a single blow, was terrifying to the extreme.

After Cheng Jun and Falcon began to fight, the Security Bureau’s men also battled with the ninjas, but the ninjas had the upper hand in numbers, and the Security Bureau’s men could only remain in a stalking manner, and only when Cheng Jun’s side was finished could they unite together to deal with this group of ninjas.

“Gangmura-kun, quick, help Falcon-san kill that Chinaman, we in the Great Japanese Empire must get our hands on that document, it must not be snatched back by the Chinese Security Bureau’s men.” Seeing Falcon and Cheng Jun start a battle, an anxious look flashed in Inoshita Saburo’s eyes, he knew the importance of that document, if he could not complete the mission given to him by the organization and get that document, he would definitely not end up well.

Ichiro Gamura smiled coldly, holding his katana with both hands around his chest, and said; “Inoshita-kun, calm down a little, why don’t we let the two of them fight through both defeats, so that we can get the document and also get rid of this group of Chinese Security Bureau people, not to mention not having to pay 100 million dollars, wouldn't that be better."

When he heard this, Inoshita Saburo's anxious eyes lit up, and then he said with a cold smile; "You are the one who has the foresight, not only do we get the documents without spending a penny, but we can also get rid of this group of Chinamen.

"It seems Inoshita-kun has learnt Chinese well, they are in a nest, let's watch the good show now." Ichiro Gomura glanced down at the Security Bureau experts surrounded by many ninjas, a glint of disdain flashed in his eyes, the Security Bureau people were no better than that, this broken temple would be their burial place today.

On the roof, Ye Han's sniper rifle moved away from Falcon's body, this man's body is extremely powerful, reaction and speed is first-class, the sniper rifle is not much of a threat to him, so Ye Han's sniper rifle in his hand aimed at the group of Japanese ninjas, without the slightest hesitation, he pulled the trigger.

A bang sounded, and a Japanese ninja's head was directly blown off, and even his brains were splattered out.

Fortune Chapter 89

In less than a few seconds, Ye Han had already killed four or five Japanese ninjas in a row, and the accuracy of his shots had caused the Japanese ninjas surrounding the Security Bureau to be terrified, as the sniper bullets came from the darkness, leaving them no time to react. The sniper bullets came in the dark, leaving them no time to react.

But this was not the end, Ye Han saw from the binoculars that Huang Ying of the Security Bureau was in a bitter battle, the sniper rifle in his hand shot four bullets in a row, killing the four ninjas surrounding Huang Ying on the spot, seeing this, Huang Ying's heart shook with shock, when did the sniper rifle have such a powerful threat to their group of cold weapon experts?

After helping Huang Ying out, Ye Han helped the other experts of the Security Bureau, the two sides were one bright and one dark, Ye Han's accurate shooting, in addition to the cold weapon kills in the hands of Night Cat and the others, in just one minute, the Japanese ninjas were just dead and wounded.

"What a powerful shooting skill! I'm afraid that he can even compete with Luo Chen, who is known as the number one marksman in China." Night Cat and the others were greatly shaken, they had only seen such powerful gunplay like this on one person, that person was known as the number one marksman in China, among the millions of armies, no one could compare to him in terms of gunplay.

But just after Ye Han had killed these ninjas, before he could continue shooting, a dark weapon in the darkness had already shot towards his position, Ye Han had shot and killed so many ninjas in a row, of course, Ichiro Gangmura would not let Ye Han continue.

The dark weapon hit Ye Han where he was just now, even the tiles were shattered by the powerful force, Ye Han picked up his sniper rifle and leapt down from the roof, landing in the temple, looking at Gangmura Ichiro who had already drawn his sword and was ready to face the enemy, he smiled playfully and said; "Gangmura Ichiro, we meet again, last night you ran fast, but tonight you won't be so lucky. "

When Ichiro Gangmura saw Ye Han, his brow furrowed, he had a battle with Ye Han last night, the other party was even stronger than him after his breakthrough.

“Gangmura-kun, kill this Chinaman.” Inoshita Saburo growled when he saw Ye Han, a resentful light shot out from his eyes, he could be said to hate Ye Han very much.

“With a defeated man like him, do you think it’s possible?” Ye coldly laughed, pulling out the Dragon Scale Dagger from his waist, looking at Gangmura Ichiro his eyes rose with battle intent; “Gangmura Ichiro, take your dog’s life tonight.”

He was as fast as the wind and arrived in front of Gangmura Ichiro in the blink of an eye, and the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand cut fiercely, like a blinding white mane, and when Gangmura Ichiro saw this, the katana in his hand also met him. If he had known that there was such a master as Ye Han in the shadows, he would have joined forces with Falcon to kill Cheng Jun.

The speed of his katana was so fast that it seemed to cut through the air, but while Ichiro’s sword was fast, Ye Han’s Dragon Scale Dagger was not slow either. After ten moves, Ichiro Gangmura had been completely suppressed and could only passively resist Ye Han’s powerful attack.

Poof!

At this moment, Ye Han aimed at an opening for Gangmura Ichiro, and his Dragon Line Fist was as domineering as a mountain, landing fiercely on Gangmura Ichiro’s body like an iron fist, this fist instantly knocked Gangmura Ichiro back, spitting out blood, with this fist, Gangmura Ichiro had already suffered considerable trauma, he felt that his internal organs had shifted under Ye Han’s fist.

Ye Han smiled coldly as his body once again stormed out, his dragon scale dagger and fist attacking Ichiro Gangmura once again in a frenzy.

In the temple, Ye Han had already killed many Japanese ninjas because of his sniping in the dark, and now Night Cat and the others had no trouble facing the group of ninjas.

Ichiro Gangmura was a middle-grade ninja, equivalent to a Chinese expert of the Peiyuan realm, that is, on the same level as Cheng Jun, and such a powerful expert did not have the strength to fight back under Ye Han’s attack. The same could be said of the man who was fighting with Cheng at the moment.

The same way, Falcon, who was fighting with Cheng Jun at the moment, also saw Ye Han’s strength, his heart sank, Ye Han was a new face to him, but this teenager was so powerful, if Ye Han defeated Gangmura Ichiro and joined forces with Cheng Jun, then it would be the end for him.

“Inoue-kun, retreat!”

At this moment, under Ye Han’s powerful pressure, Ichiro Gangmura’s defeat was becoming more and more obvious, even though he still looked brave and his swords were as fast as lightning, it was only a matter of time before he was defeated by Ye Han.

Although he knew from Ichiro’s mouth that Ye Han was indeed more powerful and had let last night’s plan fall through, Ichiro didn’t care at all, and now when he saw that Ye Han was able to suppress Ichiro, he was so scared that his eyes were filled with panic.

The ninjas who were fighting with Night Cat and the others heard the order for Ichiro Gamura to retreat and immediately retreated like a tidal wave, guarding Sanjuro Inoue as he fended off the attacks of Night Cat and the others while exiting the temple.

“Ichiro Gangmura, you won’t be able to leave tonight.” Seeing that the Japanese ninja was retreating, Ye Han would not let Ichiro Gang have a chance to escape, the sword technique on his hand became even more severe and swift, in terms of strength, after the breakthrough, Ye Han’s combat power was already more powerful than Ichiro Gang’s, at this moment, under his full attack, a bloody wound gradually appeared on Ichiro Gang’s body, his combat power dropped to an extreme point.

“Baka! Gangmura-kun, you go first.” At this moment, four or five ninjas joined the battle circle between Ye Han and Gangmura Ichiro, and several harsh long swords attacked Ye Han’s vital points around his body, causing Ye Han to be caught in a siege.

“Humph, Ichiro Gamura, so that’s all you can do, if you want to leave, take a slash from me.” Ye Han’s body leapt and flew directly over the heads of the ninjas who were attacking him, then he slashed at Ichiro Gamura with a brazen slash, when Ichiro Gamura saw this, he instinctively raised his sword to meet the attack.

Clang!

The katana in Ichiro’s hand was cut off, Ye Han’s blade seemed to be faster and fiercer than lightning, and it was so powerful that Ichiro’s katana was unable to resist it.

Fortune Chapter 90

“Ah, bastard” his right arm was chopped off, Ichiro Gangmura covered his broken arm and screamed out miserably, his face was pale as his body backed away repeatedly.

The ninjas were brave enough to lunge towards him. It had to be said that the Japanese Bushido spirit had brainwashed these ninjas very thoroughly.

Ye Han’s body moved and slashed around these ninjas like a loach, the Dragon Scale Dagger swung out four or five slashes in a row, these ninjas were already killed before they could touch Ye Han’s body, however, by the time Ye Han had killed these ninjas, Ichiro Gangmura who had a broken arm had already disappeared, the whole battlefield was devoid of him.

“Falcon, where to go, accept your life.”

At this time, Falcon saw the situation was not good, after forcing back Cheng Jun with a sword, he swiftly swept up to the roof and fled towards the boundless darkness, Cheng Jun likewise followed and chased out, Night Cat and the others saw this and abandoned those Japanese ninjas and chased out one after the other, for them Falcon was the goal.

Ye Han sighed in his heart, he had missed another chance to kill Ichiro Gamura tonight, then, Ye Han also followed behind Night Cat and the others towards the darkness outside the temple, not long after, Ye Han caught up with Night Cat and the others, Cheng Jun was also there, they looked at the endless darkness ahead, their faces looked very ugly.

“What about it, where is that person?” Ye Han asked as he came beside them.

“It’s disappeared.” Cheng Jun said with a gloomy face; “Falcon is an expert at camouflage sneaking and tracking, although the earth dog’s detection ability is not weak, it is not as good as Falcon’s, damn it, just for a moment he was allowed to get away.”

Ye Han looked around, the place was dark and full of trees and jungles, if the falcon was hiding here it would be hard to find him with just a few of them, but just as Ye Han was looking around, a wonderful phenomenon appeared in his sight, not far to his left, there was a broken piece of cloth hanging on top of a tree branch, after seeing this piece of cloth, a miraculous scene appeared in Ye Han’s sight, only to see a handy Agile tramp burrowed into the jungle from that position and soon disappeared.

Seeing this, Ye Han’s expression moved, he remembered that this situation had also occurred when he first went to the antique market in Shanghai City and saw that piece of blue and white porcelain, through a certain object he could see what had happened in the past, at this moment, Ye Han saw through that piece of cloth the direction in which the falcon had fled.

“It’s over here, you guys come with me.” Ye Han greeted him and immediately went into the jungle, Cheng Jun did not doubt him and led the Security Bureau people into the jungle, but the jungle was dark, Cheng Jun and the others could not find any trace of the falcon, they could only follow behind Ye Han, inside the jungle, Ye Han’s speed did not decrease, the Yin Yang Dharma Eye opened, in his sight the falcon kept fleeing in this direction, the feeling it was as if Falcon himself was leading the way and Ye Han was following behind him.

“Deputy team, is the falcon really fleeing in this direction? How come I didn’t find anything at all.” The earth dog had been paying attention to the path they had come from, but with his years of scouting experience he didn’t see any clues.

“Don’t say anything, follow Brother Ye, he must have found something of his own since he brought us in.” Cheng Jun responded and followed closely behind Ye Han, like a ghost in the dark, the eight of them traced the path through the jungle for half an hour, then they came to a small hill, below this hill, there was a small village, at this moment, only a few families in this village still had their lights on.

“Brother Ye, have you found anything?” Cheng Jun came to Ye Han’s side and asked.

Ye Han pointed to the village below and said; “The falcon is hiding inside this village, we can take him down when we enter the village later.”

Hearing this, although Cheng Jun believed Ye Han, he still had some doubts in his heart, how on earth did Ye Han find out that the falcon was hiding here? On the way here, there was no trace of the falcon.

This doubt was not only shared by Cheng Jun, but also by the rest of the Security Bureau. They were all elite agents, and their abilities in all aspects were considered top-notch, so even they had not found the clues, but Ye Han could easily find them and track them all the way here.

In response, Ye Han didn’t bother to explain anything, and he couldn’t explain it clearly either, as he himself couldn’t even figure out what was going on.

“Humph, this bastard really knows how to hide, so he is hiding in this small village, no wonder we have not been able to find him some time ago, let’s go, let’s go into the village to catch this traitor and get the documents back.” With that said, a group of eight people started to sneak towards the inside of the village.

It was already around 9:30 pm, most of the villagers had already gone to bed after a long day’s work, and only a few houses still had their lights on, making the village very silent.

Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye outside the house to take a look inside the house, his sight passed through the wall, Ye Han saw Falcon sitting cross-legged on a bed at the moment, his eyes tightly closed, but Falcon’s sense of danger was extremely keen, Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to peek, Falcon immediately opened his eyes, those dark eyes were as sharp and frightening as a hawk’s eye, although Falcon did not see anything unusual, but years of Although Falcon did not see anything unusual, his years of experience told him that he was being watched from the shadows.

At the same time, Ye Han found that he was holding something like a detonator in his left hand. Seeing this, Ye Han was shocked and hurriedly held down Cheng Jun and the others who wanted to rush in; “Wait first, something is wrong.”

Hearing this, Cheng Jun and the others squatted down, looking at Ye Han with suspicion, they didn’t find anything wrong here, Ye Han used his Yin Yang magic eye to look around the house, soon, Ye Han found several military bombs in several hidden corners around the house, these bombs were commanded by remote control and had an amazing killing power.

Seeing this, Ye Han’s fist couldn’t help but clench, his palms were sweating, if he wasn’t cautious, if they rushed in at this moment, if Falcon pressed the detonator, it would be difficult for them to survive.

“How’s it going brother Ye, did you find anything?” Cheng Jun looked at Ye Han and asked.

Ye Han let out a deep breath and said to Cheng Jun; “Brother Cheng, this bastard has planted bombs around the house, we must defuse these bombs without alerting him before we can.”
