Fortune Chapter 91

“What, bombs!” Cheng Jun’s face changed as soon as he heard that; “This bastard is so sinister, he is trying to get us killed, Brother Ye what is the location of those bombs?”

“You guys come with me.” Ye Han then led Cheng Jun and the others to the location where the bombs were installed, seeing the bombs that had already been installed, cold sweat ran down the faces of the Security Bureau people, these bombs were military bombs with an incredible explosive power, if Ye Han had not stopped them just now, as a result, even if they caught Falcon, they would only be buried with him.

Thinking of this, the Security Bureau people looked at Ye Han with a hint of gratitude in their eyes, and at the same time, there was also a touch of admiration that was hard to hide. Although Ye Han was younger than them, he was much stronger than them, the elites, in terms of strength and other aspects.

A total of three bombs had been planted around the house, but fortunately they were all outside the house, so ten minutes later, Cheng Jun and the others had already defused the three bombs. The moment the bombs were defused, Ye Han and Cheng Jun both rushed into the house, one after the other, while Night Cat and the others were outside to prevent the falcon from escaping.

With a crash and a jolt, Ye Han and Cheng Jun broke through the window and entered.

“Cheng Jun, it really is you guys, your noses are simply as good as dogs.” When Falcon saw Ye Han and Cheng Jun rushing in, his expression changed and he drew his sword and jumped up violently, a cold light flashed with a merciless sword splash, this sword completely enveloped Cheng Jun with a murderous aura, Cheng Jun held his steel sword with one hand and shouted, a burst of sword aura tore through the sword aura, the two of them engaged in a fierce exchange inside this small room.

But Ye Han didn’t stay idle either, aiming for an opportunity, he slashed at Falcon’s back, this slash was fast and vicious, Falcon felt Ye Han attacking behind him, his sweat hairs stood up, after taking a hard slash from Cheng Jun, he rolled on the ground and dodged Ye Han’s slash in a great mess.

“At a young age, you are already at the Peiyuan realm, when did the Security Bureau have such an expert as you?” The Falcon stood up and looked at Ye Han and Cheng Jun who surrounded him left and right, his face looked very ugly.

Ye coldly said; “I am not a member of your Security Bureau, but I hate people like you who collaborate with the enemy and betray the country, suffer death.”

After saying that, Ye Han lunged at Falcon with his sword, the sword in his hand was suddenly going up and down, attacking Falcon backwards and forwards, that brave attack was like a general in the midst of ten thousand armies, invincible, Cheng Jun shouted at this time, his body rose up to the ground, the steel sword in his hand cut down bravely; “Falcon, look at the sword!”

The Falcon, who was fighting with Ye Han, was startled and hurriedly turned around to resist Cheng Jun’s cutting blade, the two of them retreated after clashing with each other.

“Stop.” Seeing that Ye Han and Cheng Jun were ready to kill again, Falcon was greatly alarmed and hastily flashed the detonator in his hand, saying coldly; “I have placed bombs around the house, if you don’t want to die with me you better let me live, otherwise you will have to be buried with me.”

At these words, Ye Han and Cheng Jun laughed coldly and without any scruples, they pounced towards Falcon again, seeing this, a fierce look flashed across Falcon’s face; “This is what you forced me to do, since this is the case, let’s all die together!”

However, after Falcon pressed the detonator in his hand, there was no earth-shattering explosion that he had imagined, this scene made his heart tremble, a bad premonition came to his mind, but at this moment, the terrifying attack of Ye Han and Cheng Jun had already arrived, Cheng Jun slashed away the sword in Falcon’s hand, shaking him backwards.

With a whoosh, Ye Han’s body flashed and he had already reached behind Falcon, then Ye Han waved the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand, the blade was as fast as lightning running through Falcon’s neck, the next moment, Falcon’s head and body were separated, a column of blood rose to the sky!

Looking at Falcon’s corpse, Cheng Jun gave a heavy cold snort and said; “It’s a waste of the country to cultivate you for so many years, but in the end, you even betrayed state secrets, and you shouldn’t blame me for ending up like this.”

After saying that, Cheng Jun squatted down and searched Falcon’s body, and finally took out a flash drive, which made him breathe a sigh of relief, Ye Han walked over and asked; “This is the state secrets?”

Cheng Jun nodded and said; “This contains the list of our secret service agents infiltrated, once leaked out the consequences will be unimaginable, Brother Ye, without you today, I’m afraid it would be very difficult to retrieve this document.”

Without Ye Han’s participation in today’s situation, Cheng Jun could have imagined the consequences, a Falcon, a middle ninja and a group of subordinate ninjas, there was no hope for them to complete the mission.

“Brother Cheng, there is no need to be polite, I will need your help next.” Ye Han smiled and said this.

“Haha, no problem, Brother Ye, the Fire Phoenix team leader has already spoken to me, we will cooperate with you completely.” After saying this, Cheng Jun took out a small bottle from his arms, which contained some kind of potion, then Cheng Jun poured these potions on Falcon’s body, and Ye Han immediately found that Falcon’s corpse was melting away a little.

After doing all this, Ye Han and Cheng Jun walked out of the house and took the people from the Security Bureau with them to leave the village. The fight with the falcon just now had already attracted the attention of several families around, and it was only two hours later that the group returned to the abandoned factory, after which Cheng Jun arranged for Mountain Chicken to go out and buy some food to come back, and the eight people gathered around drinking beer and eating delicious kebabs.

“Come on, Brother Ye, let’s have a drink, I, Night Cat, apologise to you for what happened during the day, I hope you won’t take it personally.” At this time, Night Cat picked up a bottle of wine and clinked it with Ye Han, then drained the bottle of beer in one gulp.

“Brother Night Cat is serious, since fate has brought us together to fight side by side, we are comrades and brothers.” Ye Han also drank down the bottle of beer.

“Haha, good, brother Ye, in our seven groups besides the group leader and the deputy team, I, Crazy Horse, have not served anyone, today in adding you one more, I hope we can continue to fight together in the future, cheers.”

With Night Cat and Crazy Horse both starting, the remaining earth dogs, mountain chickens, rats, even Huang Ying all approached Ye Han to compete with each other in drinking, after today’s joint battle, they were all very convinced of Ye Han, just ask, who could do as outstanding as Ye Han at the age of eighteen, a genius like Ye Han, could not be found in their Security Bureau for the time being.

“Big brother Ye Han, you’re only eighteen years old and you’re already an expert at the Peiyuan realm, have you been cultivating for many years?” Huang Ying drank some wine and stared at Ye Han with a scarlet face as she said somewhat depressedly; “In the organization, they all said I was a genius, but now when compared to you, I’m afraid that this genius of mine can only carry your shoes.”

“Haha, little Huang Ying, don’t be discouraged, you are a year younger than brother Ye, work harder, maybe you will be an expert at the Peiyuan realm by the time you are eighteen.” Cheng Jun said with a big smile from the side.

“Hey, little Huang Ying, I think you’ve found the wrong person to compare with Brother Ye, there are not many talents like him in the ten sects, but you and Brother Ye are close in age, so you can ask Brother Ye more questions if you don’t understand anything, it’s better to pull Brother Ye into our seven groups, so you’ll have more opportunities to communicate.” Mouse said with a wink at Huang Ying from the side, hearing this from him, the few remaining older men inside the room, except for Ye Han, all laughed.

“Brother rat, I think you have itchy skin, be careful I go back and tell sister Yanzi, humph, when the time comes, you will suffer.” Huang Ying made a big blush and glared fiercely at the rat.

At that, the mouse’s face immediately fell and he didn’t dare to say another word.

After some fuss, everyone went to rest, Ye Han lay on the bed and took out his mobile phone to see that it was dead and switched off, finally Ye Han charged the phone and turned it on, the screen showed two missed calls, they were from Zhou Yun’er and Tang Da Shao, seeing this, Ye Han knew that they had safely returned to Shanghai City, after sending a text message back to the two, Ye Han fell into a deep sleep.

The next day very early in the morning Ye Han woke up and came to the open space outside the factory to fight a set of Five Elemental Fists, and also practiced the Twelve Forms of Form of Yi, in terms of power, his fists were his big move, although he had a famous Chinese weapon like the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand, he didn’t know the sword technique, so he couldn’t compare to the fist technique in terms of power.

“Good fist technique, Brother Ye you practice Shuyi Quan, right? Amongst the many fist techniques, it has the fierce name of being a killing fist technique.” Cheng Jun walked out from inside the factory at this time, he laughed; “But I see that you are using a sword, Brother Ye, if you learn a powerful sword technique, your current combat power will rise again.”

Ye Han paused and laughed; “I have never learnt a sword technique, for one thing there is no one to teach it to, and for another there is no sword manual, so if I had the chance I should indeed learn a powerful set of sword techniques to try.”

Hearing this, Cheng Jun’s heart moved and he smiled; “Brother Ye, in fact, as long as you join our Security Bureau, you can pick any sword technique you want to learn, in our Security Bureau there is a martial arts library which collects kung fu from all the major schools, I think it will be very useful for you to improve your strength if you go there.”

Cheng Jun knew that although Ye Han had helped them complete their mission, he was not a member of the Security Bureau, and the Director also held Ye Han in high regard, if he could pull Ye Han into the Security Bureau, it would add a fierce general to the Security Bureau, and a genius level fierce general at that.

Hearing Cheng Jun’s words, Ye Han’s heart was indeed somewhat moved, with the big tree of the country behind him, he could get any cultivation resources he needed, but joining the Security Bureau, Ye Han had not thought about it yet, maybe one day he would, but not now.

Today was the last part of the Festival, so Ye Han naturally wouldn’t miss it. Therefore, before the Festival started, Ye Han had already arrived at the Tengchong City Centre Building with Cheng Jun and Huang Ying, and Night Cat and the others didn’t come, as too many people would attract the attention of others. After arriving at the downtown building, Ye Han was still in the car when he saw Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming standing in front of a Hummer, smoking a cigarette in boredom.

When he got out of the car, Ye Han led Cheng Jun and Huang Ying towards them. Seeing Ye Han coming, Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming both burst into laughter and came over and laughed; “I thought you guys weren’t coming? Let’s go, let’s go up, the last session is about to start.”

As they spoke, the two Kunsang nodded at Cheng Jun and Huang Ying, who they had already met yesterday.

“Oh good, I heard that the final winner today will get $100 million, I won’t miss such a lucrative opportunity, when we win, I’ll treat you guys to a big meal.” With that said, the group entered inside the building and took the lift directly to the topmost floor, as the last part of the gambling festival was unfolding on the topmost floor.

After they arrived at the top floor of the downtown building and stepped out of the lift, Ye Han and his group were stopped in their tracks and a unsmiling, hard-faced man looked at Ye Han and his group and said indifferently; “Sir, if you want to participate in the final session of the Festival, you must pay an entrance fee of fifty million dollars, you should be clear about this.”

“Hmph, with me around, do you need to teach this point?” Kunsang walked out with a cold face, and the man didn’t show much enthusiasm when he saw it was Kunsang, he just nodded lightly.

“Let’s go, Hanzi, I’ll take you there.” Kun Sang led Ye Han as they walked and said; “The Ruan family is hosting this session today, I get annoyed when I see this group of guys, but the next test is a bit difficult to win the championship, because the method used is the explicit code and secret bidding, using this method even if the raw stone you fancy is not necessarily yours, unless you secretly bid a higher price than the others.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han asked; “Open and secret bidding, what is this all about and how exactly does it work?”

Kunsang responded; “To put it simply, you can increase the price of a stone you like without any limit on the price already marked, then write your own offer on a piece of paper and put it inside the concealed bidding box, if other people participate in the concealed bidding of the same stone, but the price does not exceed your offer, then the stone is yours, if there are other people who offer more than you, the highest bidder wins.”

This way, it was difficult enough to write the offer on a piece of paper and put it in the box, so that you never knew if the price offered by others was higher than yours, so in this part of the game, it was not only a matter of luck, but also a matter of guts, because the stone you liked was not necessarily yours, so you had to write the offer higher, but then if the stone you liked turned out to be nothing, then you’ve lost out completely.

But this is only for ordinary people, with the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, Ye Han can see through everything, a small dark cast box would not be difficult for him.

Not long after, Kunsang led Ye Han to a counter, and after swiping 50 million, they entered a scene somewhat similar to a cinema, in which rows of trapezoidal seats formed a semi-circle that surrounded a lectern, and at this moment, there were already many people sitting in it, although the entrance fee was expensive, the merchants who came to Tengchong still chose to attend one after another, and the preliminary estimate was that today Although the entrance fee was very expensive, the merchants who came to Tengchong still chose to participate.

Of course, not everyone paid the entrance fee, only half of them did, the rest were bodyguards, but even so, this session brought in a considerable amount of money for the four families.

Fortune Chapter 93

Ye Han chose to sit down at the back of the room, where the ground was a bit high and they could see the whole scene clearly. Ye Han looked around the venue and he found that all the old acquaintances he had dealt with in the previous days were actually here.

Fujiwara Gofu, Guo and Ning, they were all sitting quietly inside the venue at the moment, quietly waiting for the third session to begin, but Fujiwara Gofu was missing Inoue Saburo by his side, and Guo Yunxiao had an old man and a very cold woman by his side, in addition to Wang Xiaodao.

As for Ning Feng’s side, there were likewise a few more experts, one of whom was most noteworthy; this man’s hair was messy and long, and he was actually wearing a long cloak on such a hot day, hiding his entire person under it.

After observing these people, Ye Han looked at the lectern at the front. At this moment, the lectern was covered by a red cloth, so that people could not see what was behind the cloth, but under Ye Han’s Yin

Yang magic eye, the red cloth was as if it was empty, and behind the cloth there were nine original stones, each of which had a price marked on the front and a hidden box.

He found that only three of the nine stones had jade inside them, while the rest were green on the surface but stone on the inside.

However, Ye Han found a basketball-sized piece of ice-grown violet inside the stone, which was worth at least hundreds of millions of dollars.

So, if he wanted to win the championship in this session, he had to get the ninth original stone.

Just as everyone inside the venue was whispering, the third session officially began, only to see a very handsome young man walk up to the podium, wearing a white suit, with his hair combed smoothly, he looked at the people inside the venue and said into the microphone; "I am Ruan Hong, welcome to the last session of the Festival, the winner of this session today will have a $100 million prize. The winner of today's session will have a prize of US$100 million, and will also receive a joint gift of a vein from our four clans, which I believe we are all very much looking forward to.

After Ruan Hong said this, a burst of applause rang out inside the venue, and the red cloth on the lectern was pulled up, revealing the true faces of the nine original stones hidden behind.

Seeing this, many people's eyes were shining with a fiery glow as they walked up to the lectern to take a closer look at the nine stones, and some were already eager to make offers.

"Come on, let's go up and have a look too." Ye Han said to Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming, then the three of them walked towards the lectern, Cheng Jun and Huang Ying did not follow, killing was something they were good at, as for gambling stones, they knew nothing about it, there was no need to go and join in that fun.

After Ye Han arrived at the lectern, he didn't pay attention to the ninth original stone at first, for him, it was best if he made his move near the end of time, at that time, the price he quoted with his Yin Yang Dharma Eye would be higher than everyone else.

"Hanzi, which of these original stones do you think has the highest chance of going up?" Although Kun Sang was born into a jadeite family, he knew nothing about gambling stones, so he looked at these raw stones and asked Ye Han.

Ye Han was about to answer when he suddenly noticed that Ning Feng was actually walking towards him with his men. With a sneer in his heart, he looked at one of the original stones in front of him and said; "This one is not bad, the texture is upper layer, and the colour of the opening is excellent, it should be ice jade, if you buy it, you can at least earn tens of millions, maybe this one is the best among these nine original stones, wait I must buy it, Lao Liu, what do you think?"

As he said that, Ye Han gave Liu Zhiming an unobtrusive glance.

Liu Zhiming was an old man, he already understood what Ye Han meant before Kunsang did, he said with a smile; "Good, Hanzi's vision is good, I have been in the jadeite business for many years, from my experience, this piece of stone may be the best among the nine pieces of stones, but unfortunately, just now I saw someone put in an offer of 50 million, we would have to offer between fifty million and one hundred million at least to buy it."

“So expensive?” Kunsang still didn’t understand the meaning of Ye Han and Liu Zhiming’s words, so he foolishly asked.

Ye Han sighed and said; “It’s a bit expensive, but this raw stone is better than the others, if you buy it and win the jackpot, not only will you get a prize of 100 million dollars, you’ll also get a vein, so even if you spend 100 million it’s worth it.”

Ning Feng was standing only two meters away from Ye Han listening to their conversation, after hearing this, his eyes lit up, according to his understanding of Ye Han, Ye Han was an expert in gambling stones, and his moves were always right, since he said this, then that piece of raw stone would definitely go up, maybe the best raw stone among these nine pieces of raw stones was this one.

Looking at the original stone that Ye Han and the others were discussing, Ning Feng sneered without a trace, he wanted this original stone for sure.

“Old Liu, let’s try to offer 80 million for this raw stone first, 80 million is already considered high for other offerors.” At this time, Ye Han passed a wink to Liu Zhiming, who immediately understood and took out his book and wrote a price of eighty million dollars, and also wrote Ye Han’s name on it.

But before Liu Zhiming could throw the $80 million offer into the hidden box, Ning Feng quickly walked over and threw a $100 million offer into the hidden box first, then he turned around and looked at Ye Han with a cold smile and said; “What, do you fancy this raw stone? Sorry, this young master also has his eye on it, you have the ability to throw an offer of 100 million into it too?”

“Ning Feng, it’s you.” When Ye Han saw this, he looked at Ning Feng with “anger”.

“What, you’re not convinced?” Ning Feng snorted lightly; “Dirtbag, let me tell you, how much you throw in, this young master will double you, do you dare to try it with me?”

“Hmph, what’s not to dare, Old Liu, offer one hundred and one million into it, I’ll take this raw stone.” Ye Han grunted heavily, looking furious, seeing Ye Han like this, Ning Feng was secretly pleased.

Liu Zhiming looked at Ye Han with some “difficulty” and said; “Hanzi, I think it’s better to forget it, we only have 300 million in our hands, we can’t afford to compete with the Ning’s, you throw 100 million and 1 million, they dare to throw 150 million, we can’t compete with them, let’s forget it, maybe there are better stones in the other raw stones, we can go again. Maybe there are better ones in the other stones, we can go and have a good look again.”

“No, I believe in my own judgment, this raw stone is definitely the best of the nine raw stones, I must get it, having this raw stone is the same as having 100 million dollars and a valuable vein, if you don’t write it, I will.” Saying that, Ye Han brushed a price of two hundred million dollars without hesitation and threw it inside the concealed bid box.

After writing it down, Ye Han gave Ning Feng a provocative glance; “Young Master Ning, you didn’t even win me last time, this time you are even less likely to win me, this raw stone is two hundred million, I want it for sure.”

“Humph, to compete with me for financial power, ten of you are not enough, don’t you only have 300 million, fine, then I will write 400 million, I will see what you can compete with me?” Ning Feng smiled coldly and without hesitation, he wrote an offer of 400 million and threw it into the hidden bid box.

Seeing this, Ye Han's face turned red with anger as he gritted his teeth and said; "Good, Ning Feng, you're ruthless enough, I'll let you have this raw stone."

After saying that, Ye Han turned around and walked away in anger.

Fortune Chapter 94

"Playing with me, just a bumpkin like you is worthy of it?" Ning Feng looked at Ye Han's back and laughed disdainfully, except that when the black-clad man in the cloak beside him looked at Ye Han, there was a glint of venom in his eyes beneath that messy hair, was this the man who had killed so many of his Horse Gang's experts?

"Holy shit, I almost didn't even see it just now, so you two are punking that stupid bastard." Kun Sang looked at Ye Han and Liu Zhiming who couldn't help but be laughing for a second, and instantly rolled his eyes, these two guys had almost fooled him just now, but once he thought of Ning Feng being pitched 400 million, he couldn't help but laugh as well.

"Hey, hey, if you don't pit him against who, who let that kid send someone to kill Hanzi last time and ruin that villa of mine, but it was worth it to let him lose four hundred million against that villa of mine." Liu laughed, in a particularly good mood.

Kunsang laughed; "I really want to see what kind of expression he'll have when the event is over and he unravels that broken stone of his? Losing four hundred million for nothing should be enough to give him a flesh wound."

Ye Han then went around the lectern and many of the merchants had almost finished making their offers, Ye Han opened his Yin Yang Dharma Eye and looked inside each of the concealed ballot boxes, which were piled with notes, some offering tens of millions, others offering hundreds of millions, some even offered inside several concealed ballot boxes in a row, everyone was very hopeful for that final top prize. After all, the lure of winning the jackpot was too strong.

He was not as stupid as Ning Feng, and it was impossible for him to be punked.

However, Ye Han noticed that the cold woman beside Guo Yunxiao looked at him with a cold intent, or even a killing intent, and similarly, the old man who was observing the original stone also had an unkind look in his eyes.

These two were both experts, Ye Han came to a conclusion in his mind and did not bother with them, Ye Han brought Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming to the ninth original stone, the event was about to end, in the dark cast box in front of the ninth original stone, Ye Han took a look and found that there were very few people offering for this stone, only four or five, and their offers were all very low, the highest offer was only ten million, then Ye Han wrote a Eleven million into it.

And at this time, the time for the event was up, everyone left the lectern, that Ruan Hong who had just given a speech came to the lectern with a master stone solver, he looked at the four sides with a slight smile and said; "Half an hour has passed, the time for the event is up, next is the process of us opening the dark cast box to solve the stone, I think everyone is very confident in their own vision, so, next everyone Let's wait and see, now, we open the first concealed box, the highest bidder here is Mr. Li of Hongyuan Jewellery, now we will unlock the piece of raw stone that Mr. Li has chosen."

After Ruan Hong said this, the master stone cutter on the lectern lifted the machine and started to cut the stone, but when the stone was cut, there was nothing in it, and when they saw this, people inside the venue were sighing and worrying if the stone they were looking at would be the same.

Half an hour passed and the master on the lectern unlocked three stones in a row, all three of which were also empty, and the merchants who bought them all turned green.

“Oh, it seems that the previous three gentlemen were unlucky, now let’s take a look at the winner of the fourth original stone.” Ruan Hong smiled at the microphone, then selected the highest bidder from inside the concealed bidding box; “This fourth piece of raw stone was won by Ning Shao of Ning’s Jewellery at a price of 400 million, it seems that Ning Shao is determined to win this piece of raw stone, I believe that with Ning Shao’s vision this piece of raw stone will also open up jade.”

Hearing Ruan Hong’s words, everyone inside the venue glanced at Ning Feng and smacked their lips in their hearts, the price was 400 million, it seemed that Ning had found a treasure this time, otherwise he would not have quoted such a high price.

Ning Feng’s heart was also filled with anticipation for this piece of raw stone, and his eyes were glued to the movements of the stone solver on the lectern.

Seeing Ning Feng’s overwhelmingly expectant look at this moment, Kun Sang laughed heatedly and said to Ye Han and the others; “When this raw stone is solved, that fool Ning Feng is only going to be so angry that he’ll vomit blood, four hundred million just went down the drain, Han Zi, you and Old Liu are damaging enough.”

“Who let that kid mess with us?” A few people looked at each other and laughed, poor young Ning was destined to be miserable next!

As the stone-solving master on the lectern made a few cuts, the stone still didn’t turn out green, Ning Feng’s expectant face slowly changed, he suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart, this feeling was just like the last time Ye Han designed to trap him, similarly, when the surrounding crowd saw this, they all looked at young Ning sympathetically, now as long as a connoisseur knows, young Ning spent 400 million to buy the stone lost, and it was a big loss, a loss of 400 million for nothing!

Finally, when the master unraveled the entire stone, Ning Feng couldn’t hold back and spurted out a mouthful of blood, his face turned pale to the extreme, and then he stood up and stared at Ye Han with a murderous look on his face, saying in a hostile voice; “Bastard, you’re the one who screwed me?”

“Oh, Young Master Ning, you can eat your food and wear your clothes indiscriminately, but you can’t speak indiscriminately, I didn’t force you to buy this piece of broken stone, it was you who was willing to spend 400 million yuan to buy this stone because you were too rich, what does it have to do with me?” Ye Han laughed and shrugged his shoulders with an innocent face, but his look made it clear that “I’m just screwing you over”, who told you to be stupid?

When he heard Ye Han’s words, Mr. Ning couldn’t hold back and spurted out a mouthful of blood again, his body trembling with anger as if he was having a sheep’s fit, scaring the businessmen around him away from him.

But Ye Han really did not have the Ruan family in his eyes, a person who wanted to kill him and take away his treasures, why should he give face to the other party?

“Stupid, the Ning Clan is doomed to perish if they let such a person inherit the family business.” Guo Yunxiao looked at Ning Feng and smiled contemptuously, being the heir to the same jewellery industry, Ning Feng was nothing to him, but as for Ye Han, he was already paying more and more attention in his heart, not only was this person’s force value high, his intelligence and tactics could not be ignored, he was a rival.

The people inside the meeting hall could not help but tremble in their hearts when they saw Ye Han’s tactics like this, especially some of the merchants who had participated in killing Ye Han the night before, their hearts were throbbing even more, although this youngster was young, he was very sophisticated and poisonous in his actions, several jewellery merchants had died last night for no reason, and these were all merchants who had participated in killing Ye Han, thinking about this, certain people’s hearts were throbbing The thought of this made certain people’s hearts beat even harder, and they were already looking at Ye Han with a tinge of fear in their gaze.

The fifth stone finally opened up a jadeite, a fist-sized piece of glass, valued at around ten million.

After the sixth and seventh stones were unravelled, again with no green, only the eighth and ninth stones remained.

If these two stones also failed to produce green, the top prize would be awarded to the merchant of the fifth stone.

Fortune Chapter 95

Some of the merchants who had voted for the eighth original stone and the ninth original stone all dropped their eyes on these two original stones, and it was up to them to decide what to do next.

“Hanzi, I remember that Guo’s people voted for the concealed box for the eighth original stone, will they have a chance to win?” Kunsang looked at the last two unresolved original stones on the lectern and asked towards Ye Han. Ye Han responded; “The original Guo’s fancy piece is good and the price of the concealed box voted for is also very high, there is a good chance of it coming out green.”

“Brother Ye, then that original stone you have your eye on, is there a good chance of it coming out green?” Cheng Jun asked Ye Han at this time, he didn’t know much about gambling stones, but the excitement of the process attracted him, so he wanted to know if Ye Han had a good chance of winning in the end, but he had a hunch that this final lottery might fall on Ye Han’s head.

At that, Ye Han smiled and responded; “Brother Cheng just keep watching and you’ll see, gambling on stones is all about excitement, if I tell you the result first, what’s the point of the process?”

“That’s true, but I have a feeling you’ll pull out the final prize.” Cheng Jun grinned and said.

“Hehe, then I’ll borrow your good advice, Brother Cheng.” Ye Han smiled, his eyes continued to fall on the lectern, at this time, the stone solver was already starting to unlock the eighth raw stone, his movements attracted the attention of the whole room, even Guo Yunxiao was watching closely, this raw stone was his.

“There’s no need to be nervous for young Guo, if there are no surprises, we’ll take this lottery.” The old man beside Guo Yunxiao said quite confidently, he was a connoisseur of gambling stones over in Xiangjiang, and in terms of eyesight, there were not many people in the whole of Xiangjiang who could match him.

Hearing the old man’s words, Guo Yunxiao’s nervous mood relaxed a little.

In a short while, Guo Yunxiao’s original stone had already been unravelled from the outer rough, revealing a small patch of green, moreover, the colour of the exposed jadeite was light on the outside and dark on the inside, indicating that there was still jadeite inside the original stone.

“It’s up, it’s an old pit ice variety, the initial estimate should be two fist sizes, it could be worth tens of millions.”

“Yes, I didn’t expect the jadeite inside this original stone to get better the further back you go, this Old Pit ice variety is worth more than that glass variety just now, I should have known I would have defected to the back of the dark box.”

“A dark box? I think it’s better to forget about it, only this eighth stone has a treasure hidden in it, the ninth stone is not good material, even if you win it, it’s still a loss.”

“That’s true”

Finally, after the original stone was completely unraveled, Guo Yunxiao bought down the original stone inside is indeed a piece of old pit ice seed, the price is around 30 million, see here, Guo Yunxiao finally completely put down his heart, the final lottery will fall on his Guo’s head, as for that last original stone even with his eyesight can see there is not much chance of a big rise.

“Oh, it seems that Ruan Hong is here to congratulate young Guo first.” Seeing what happened after this raw stone was solved, Ruan Hong smiled at Guo Yunxiao’s position, and the merchants sitting around Guo Yunxiao also opened their mouths to congratulate him one after another; right now, anyone with a discerning eye could see that the final lottery winner should undoubtedly be Guo.

“Oh, thank you all for your congratulations.” Hearing the congratulatory voices around him, Guo Yunxiao said with a smile on his face as he returned the congratulations.

“What the hell, there is still one more original stone to be solved, it’s not certain who the final winner will be.” Seeing everyone congratulating Guo Yunxiao, Kunsang directly stood up and said loudly, hearing his words, Ruan Hong directly looked at him, then sneered and said; “So it’s young master Kunsang, what, do you think this last original stone will still have a big rise in it?”

“Hmph, is Ruan Hong determined that this stone can’t go up? I think it’s better to cut the crap and solve this last raw stone.”

“Oh, it seems that Young Master Kunsang is quite confident, then I will do as you wish.” Ruan Hong sneered and opened the last concealed box, then he signalled for the stone solver to start solving the stone. Seeing this, the merchants in the venue all secretly shook their heads, they were all in this business, the chances of that last stone coming out green were pitifully low, and even if it did, the cracks on the outside of the stone would only destroy the jade inside.

As the master began to solve the stone, he cut four or five centimetres in a row, but the stone still showed no sign of green, and if he continued to cut down, he would soon reach the very centre of the stone.

When Ruan Hong noticed this, he gave a smile towards Ye Han's position; "Mr. Ye, I heard that you plucked a natural jadeite in the first session with a toad containing a pearl design, which is worth a lot of money, but it seems that your luck has run out, this jackpot should belong to Guo Shao today."

At these words, Ye Han stood up, he smiled lightly and responded; "Is that so? If Ruan Shao doesn't mind you can turn around and see who the jackpot really belongs to today?"

Hearing these words, Ruan Hong's brow furrowed and he immediately looked backwards, and when the merchants within the venue heard this, their eyes, which had not been very interested, had to look towards the lectern once again, and just as they watched, they only saw a bit of colour that did not contain any impurities slowly emerge from within the original stone, this jadeite was of a purer colour, as if it did not contain any impurities and was transparent and shiny.

Seeing this, many people's hearts astonished, this colour of jadeite is more senior, but just when the people within the venue's heart surprised, a piece of like purple hazy violet flowers slowly emerged.

"This is ice violet!"

A nervous cry rang out slowly, and immediately, the whole venue exploded, ice violet, this is one of the rare jadeite, the market price is very high, no one can imagine that this last piece of unobtrusive original stone has solved this high grade jadeite.

Even a small piece of ice violet could fetch tens of millions of dollars, but as the master unravelled the whole stone, a basketball-sized piece of ice violet appeared in front of everyone in the room, and a basketball-sized piece of ice violet could fetch hundreds of millions of dollars!

Ruan Hong's face was completely dumbfounded as he looked at the ice violet in front of him. The grand finale had turned out to be the last piece of the unassuming original stone, which he had never expected. Likewise, Guo Yunxiao's face had also become very ugly at this moment, as the duck that was about to be in his hand had just flown away.

"Oh, it seems that my luck is still intact, sorry, this head lottery is mine." Ye Han stood up and looked at Ruan Hong and Guo Yunxiao with a faint laugh, but his laugh felt very harsh to both of their ears.

Fortune Chapter 96

Who would have thought that the ninth stone would contain a heavenly treasure?

Everyone in the room bemoaned the fact that Guo Yunxiao had originally thought that the old pit ice variety was already the best jadeite, but in the end, it was outclassed by an ice variety violet.

"Haha, old brother Ruan Hong, I wonder who owns this head lottery now?" Kunsang looked at Ruan Hong who had a morose face on the lectern and burst out laughing. Hearing his words, everyone inside the venue turned their eyes towards Ye Han, who was the one who was going to win big in this edition of the gambling festival, it was undoubtedly Ye Han.

Not only did he find a natural jadeite with a sky-high price, but he also won the third session of the festival, so he was able to reap both fame and fortune.

“Oh, it seems that Mr. Ye must have been favoured by the goddess of luck, excellent luck.” Ruan Hong looked at Ye Han and smiled lightly, then looked into the microphone at the whole room and said; “Everyone, I now announce that the winner of the last part of the Festival is Mr. Ye Han Ye, here is Mr. Ye to come up to the stage to receive his prize.”

Amidst the applause of the crowd, Ye Han walked onto the podium with a straight face, always keeping a smile on his face, this look on his face made Ning Feng, who had just woken up, want to kill him, likewise, Guo Yunxiao’s face was also covered with killing intent, he felt that Ye Han had taken away what belonged to him.

In front of everyone at the venue, Ruan Hong reluctantly took out a cheque for US$100 million and handed it to Ye Han. To be honest, he hated to see Ye Han win the final prize, as the Ruan family and Ye Han were secretly in a hostile relationship and this was well known to everyone.

But even though he was reluctant, Ruan Hong could not break the rules for this reason, and besides, he was not the only one to pay the 100 million dollars, the other three families also had a share.

Seeing Ye Han accept the cheque for 100 million dollars, Ruan Hong said; “Mr Ye, you have already got the first reward, but the second reward requires you to go to the Ruan family in person tomorrow, when the four families will personally present the second reward for you, you can ask Young Master Kunsang about this and it will be clear.”

Ye Han nodded and smiled; “Then thank you, Young Master Ruan, we will see you tomorrow at the Ruan Family.”

After saying that, Ye Han walked off the lectern, the session after that was the auction of the jadeite opened inside the nine original stones, Ye Han’s piece of ice violet was acquired by Guo Yunxiao for 200 million, when the cheque for 200 million was delivered to Ye Han, although Guo Yunxiao was smiling, his heart was already furious, he just didn’t show it.

“Oh, Young Guo, let’s meet again sometime.” Ye Han said with a smile on his face as he raised the cheque inside his hand at Guo Yunxiao.

“I will see you again, the gambling festival is over, I hope Mr. Ye will take care of himself.” Guo Yunxiao smiled lightly and hid a needle in his words.

After the words were said, the two sides went their separate ways, and Ye Han paid the eleven million dollars before the group left the Downtown Mansion, and finally Ye Han gave all the cheques he had on him to Kunsang and asked him to credit the money into his bank account, so that after the official end of the Festival, Ye Han had made close to twelve billion dollars within just a few days of coming to Tengchong.

After leaving the downtown building, Ye Han treated himself to a meal at a hotel, and also had Cheng Jun call out Night Cat and the others, and together they celebrated Ye Han’s big win at the Stone Gambling Festival, and at the dinner table, Ye Han asked Kun Sang; “Brother Kun Sang, has the gambling game between your Kun family and the Ruan family started yet?”

Hearing this, Kun Sang sullenly drank a glass of wine and shook his head; “The day after tomorrow is the day our Kun Family and the Ruan Family’s gambling game begins, but facing this game, I’m afraid our Kun Family only has no hope of winning.”

“Does it mean that your Kun Clan hasn’t found a gambling expert yet?”

Kun Sang gave a bitter laugh and said; “The famous gambling experts in Southeast Asia have all been bought by the Ruan and Ba families, and Rong Fan Sheng is one of the seven great gambling kings in Southeast Asia, in terms of gambling skills, one can count on one hand the number of people who can beat him in Southeast Asia, who would be willing to help us?”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han patted Kunsang’s shoulder and laughed; “Brother Kunsang, if you trust me, I will play this bet instead of your Kun family, it just so happens that I also want to see how powerful that Southeast Asian gambling king really is.”

“Hanzi, could it be that you are still a gambling expert?” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Kun Sang’s eyes lit up, and then looked at him in confusion. Ye Han smiled; “I’ve learnt a few days, how about this, when I get the vein tomorrow, I’ll find a chance to talk to your old man.”

“Okay, no problem, I’ll arrange this.” Kun Sang didn’t think much about Ye Han replacing their Kun family in the battle against Rong Fan Sheng, but Ye Han wanted to meet his old man, so of course Kun Sang would be obliged to make the arrangements.

But right at the end of the meal, Kun Sang received a phone call, and after he answered the call, he smiled at Ye Han and said; “There are a few unlucky guys who have been forced into a corner and have now found their way to my place, saying that they want to meet with you to talk about it.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han smiled and asked; “It should be those people on the list, right?”

Kunsang nodded and said; “The Lone Wolf mercenary group is really sharp enough, just yesterday, they got rid of three people on the list, such a big movement that the remaining people can’t sit still anymore, it seems that they want to talk to you for peace, how about it, do you want to go and meet them?”

“Sure, but it’s not that easy to negotiate peace, where are they?” Ye coldly smiled.

“Inside a tea club.”

Hearing this, Ye Han told Cheng Jun and the others to go back first, he took Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming with him to that tea house, half an hour later, they arrived at a tea house called Huixin Teahouse, at this moment, in front of the gate of that tea house, there were four men waiting with uneasy expressions, then when they saw Ye Han and the three of them arrive, their expressions were happy and they hurriedly welcomed them; “Young Ye, please come in. .”

Ye Han did not say anything with a sullen face, then the group arrived at an elegant room, Ye Han sat down and looked at the four men sitting across from him who were anxious and said; “What, did the four of you call me over just to see you play dumb? My time is precious, if you guys have nothing to do, then I have to go.”

“Young Ye, hold on.” Seeing Ye Han really ready to stand up and leave, those four people’s expressions were all tightened and they hurriedly said; “Young Ye, let’s not speak in secret, I don’t know what Young Ye wants to do about that matter before he will stop?”

“I don’t quite understand what you all are referring to?” Ye Han smiled lightly and shrugged his shoulders.

Seeing Ye Han like this, those four people cursed in their hearts, and one of them said with a smile; “Young Ye, we all know how Old Chen of Zhenxing Jewellery Company, Old Li of Dahua Jewellery Company and the rest of them died, Young Ye was able to survive that last crisis unscathed, we admit that we are no match for Young Ye in a hard fight, but we in business talk about no permanent enemies, only permanent benefits. So the four of us would like to settle this dispute with Young Ye, I wonder what Young Ye would like to do?”

“Resolve?” Ye coldly laughed; “If one day someone wanted to kill you and almost got away with it, and then ended up running to say that it was a misunderstanding and wanted to reconcile and be friends with you, do you think you would agree?”

At those words, the four men’s faces changed, the pressure brought by the Lone Wolf Mercenary Group was so heavy that they couldn’t kick up, if they couldn’t reconcile today, they might have already given up their lives here before they could leave Tengchong.

“Then I wonder what Young Ye wants to do to settle this dispute?”

Ye Han smiled lightly, tapping his fingers on the table slowly, and said; “That depends on whether you all have sincerity, that last crisis cost me a lot, shouldn’t you all take out some moral damage fee?”

“Oh, what Young Ye said is, you should, you should.” Hearing that there was a possibility of a settlement, all four of their faces were happy, only to see one of them take out his cheque book, swiping down ten million, handing it to Ye Han and saying; “Younger Ye, we are deeply sorry for the trouble that that incident caused you last time, we hope that we can be friends from now on.”

Seeing the cheque for ten million handed over, Ye Han didn’t bother to take it, Kunsang sneered at the side; “Ten million, you’re just sending off a caller, do you think my brother’s life is only worth ten million?”

“Brother Kunsang, I think we have come to the wrong place, let’s go, by the way, Old Liu, inform the Lone Wolf mercenary group side, tell them to move faster, I want to see the result before tonight.” Saying that, Ye Han stood up, Liu Zhi Ming cooperated and took out his phone, ready to contact the Lone Wolf mercenary group.

Seeing this, the four people opposite Ye Han were startled and stood up one after another and said fearfully; “Young Ye, please wait, the four of us are willing to take out fifty million dollars each, I hope Young Ye will be generous.”

“Fifty million?” Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “How much do the few of you think your lives are worth?”

At those words, those four people's hearts sank, Ye Han was taking advantage of the opportunity to extort them, and it was impossible to settle this matter without their bloodshed, so the four of them looked at Ye Han in unison; "Then I wonder how much Young Master Ye thinks is appropriate?"

"I'm not greedy, just this amount." Saying that, Ye Han sat down again and gestured a finger.

Seeing this, the four people's faces turned green, of course they knew what the finger Ye Han drew stood for, it was not 10 million, but 100 million each. This is like a vampire who won't let go of the smell of blood!

"How's that? How's it going, you four? We don't have time to spend with you here, so give us a quick word. But let me remind you, you should know very well the efficiency of the Lone Wolf Mercenaries, so you better know the trade-offs if you want to see the sun tomorrow." Kunsang said in a timely manner.

Upon hearing this, those four nodded with difficulty; "Okay, we give."

"Oh, that's right, but getting to this point today is entirely because you all are too greedy, don't ever think of having something that isn't yours, lest you end up being blamed for it." After Ye Han finished, he instructed Liu Zhiming to make a phone call to Deqin Bach and ask him to give up the remaining people on the assassination list.

Taking the 400 million cheque, Ye Han and the three of them walked out of the tea house, leaving only the four jewellery merchants inside to slam their cups to vent their hatred, 400 million, they did not expect Ye Han to be so greedy, if they had the choice they would rather take out 400 million to hire a powerful assassin to finish off Ye Han, but they had no chance, if they did not take out 400 million, they were only afraid that they would not live to see the sun tomorrow.

"Miss Yun, you've already met that person today, are you sure?"

At this moment, inside the hotel where Guo Yunxiao lived, he looked at the cold woman sitting opposite him and asked.

"It's not difficult to kill him." Yun Que said calmly; "But there are still experts around him."

"Don't worry about this Miss Yun, although I don't know where he found a group of experts, but these people, Mo Lao, will take care of it, you just need to kill him, you absolutely can't let him live until tomorrow, if he gets the map of the mine vein in the hands of the four great clans, it will be a considerable resistance for us to take control of that mine vein." Guo Yunxiao stood up, looking at the night sky that had gradually darkened his eyes flashed with a cold murderous intent.

"Young Guo, why don't we let him get the map before killing him and then snatching it away?" Wang Xiaodao looked at Guo Yunxiao and asked in disbelief.

Upon hearing this, Guo Yunxiao sneered and said; "With our partnership with the Yan Family, it is naturally not difficult for me to get that map, but we must not let him see the map in its entirety, one more person knowing the location of the vein will be one more point of danger for us, so he absolutely cannot live to see tomorrow, Mo Lao, contact the Yan Family for me and ask them to get the map ready for me."

The old man called Mo Lao nodded and said; "But the price that the Yan Family wants is not low."

“Promise them first, I will make them spit out all that they have eaten for me later.”

“Young Guo, what about the Ning family? We can get the map from the Yan family’s hand, the Ning family can definitely get it from the Ruan family’s hand as well, should we also take out that guy from the Ning family?” Wang Xiaodao looked at Guo Yunxiao and asked.

Guo Yunxiao smiled disdainfully and said; “That fool is not much of a threat to me, if he gets the map let him scout for us first, I’ve heard that the four great clans have lost a lot of power over that vein, what I’m worried about now is that Ye Han, this person has courage and strategy, we must take care of him first.”

“Good, we will go do it now.” Saying that, Lark and Mo Lao left the hotel.

Getting this 400 million cheque was a complete windfall for Ye Han, but with the chance to get rich, Ye Han of course had to extort a fierce amount, who let them once send someone to kill themselves, extorting them, Ye Han extorted with peace of mind and no psychological burden at all.

On the way back, Ye Han still gave the 400 million cheque to Kunsang and asked him to deposit it in his bank account.

In the evening, Ye Han made a phone call to Cheng Jun, he did not return to the factory side, tomorrow to go to the Ruan family so Ye Han took a room in a hotel and stayed there, after taking a shower Ye Han made a few phone calls to the Shanghai City side, the first call was to his sister Ye Qing, and then successively lingered with Zhou Yun’er for an hour of telephone porridge.

Finally, Ye Han made a phone call to Tang Da Shao and Lin Baimo. Tang Da Shao complained about Ye Han for half an hour on the phone, but Ye Han was too lazy to listen to his nagging and hung up the phone directly.

Fortune Chapter 98

Lying alone on the hotel bed, Ye Han turned on the television and after changing a few channels, he found that the local television station in Tengchong was broadcasting the events of the Festival, saying that the final winner of the Festival was a mysterious Mr. Ye, but the station knew very little about this “Mr. Ye”.

Seeing this, Ye Han grinned, turned off the TV and sat cross-legged on his bed, slowly entering a state of cultivation. As Ye Han began to cultivate, it was as if a stream of invisible air flowed towards his body and then entered his dantian, strengthening the power within his dantian.

At present, Ye Han was at the early stage of the Peiyuan realm, but his actual combat power was more than that, Ye Han was cultivating Spiritual Qi, which was the highest power among cultivators.

In the bright room, while Ye Han was cultivating, a black shadow flickered outside his window and a few seconds later a man appeared in front of Ye Han’s bed, this man was about thirty years old and had a hideous looking scar on his cold face.

The moment he appeared in front of Ye Han’s bed, a sharp weapon instantly appeared in his hand and stabbed directly towards Ye Han’s throat.

“Humph!”

Suddenly, Ye Han's tightly closed eyes opened, and his entire body leapt up from the bed, kicking at the scarred man with a swift, thunderous leg. above the man's wrist.

Boom!

With his wrist kicked, the scarred man took a few steps back, and the Mitsubishi spike in his hand was almost kicked away.

Ye Han landed on the ground and looked at the scarred man with an indifferent face, this man was an expert, the kick he had just given this man had not broken his hand.

"Who are you?" Ye Han looked at the scarred man and spoke.

"You can call me Number Nine." No. 9 looked cold, his feet stomped on the floor, the powerful force caused the tiles around him to crack, and then he only saw him leap up high, the Mitsubishi military spike in his hand cut out several to cold light to kill Ye Han, only attacking but not defending, this kind of fight was completely the style of a desperate killer, they didn't care about themselves, they only cared about whether they could kill their target.

"Machete's killer." Ye Han's eyes flashed with a cold light, his body moved and he lunged towards the attacking Number Nine, instantly avoiding the Mitsubishi military spike in Number Nine's hand, the Five Elements Fist was cast out, the tiger's fist was overbearing, the two of them went back and forth, Ye Han was able to accurately avoid Number Nine's attack every time, but his fist was difficult for Number Nine to avoid, after a few dozen moves between the two hands, Number Nine was suddenly struck by Ye Han's fist, then fell backwards But in the next moment, No.9's body landed on the ground with a flip and continued his attack towards Ye Han.

Ye Han had seen many killers, but this was the first time he had seen a killer as desperate as No. 9, such an opponent was very difficult to deal with even though the opponent was not as strong as you, and if he was not careful, he might be killed in one blow.

"Dragon Walk Fist!"

Seeing No. 9 attacking again, Ye Han's arms shook, his athletic body was like a fierce dragon, his two fists swung out in unison, as if a fierce dragon was coming out of the sea, unstoppable, suddenly, the Mitsubishi military spike in No. 9's hand cut through Ye Han's clothes, but his body took Ye Han's punch hard, after that punch, a dull sound of bones breaking resounded inside No. 9's body, causing him to step backwards out.

However, before Ye Han could reach him, a black dot outside the window lurched towards him. Sensing this crisis, Ye Han immediately stopped and pulled out his Dragon Scale Dagger and chopped towards the black dot.

Snort!

A burst of corrosive smoke rose from the floor, Ye Han's gaze looked and he found that what he had just chopped off was actually a black worm the size of a fingernail, but this worm was so poisonous that it had corroded the ground.

Then, a person appeared on the balcony, this person was cloaked and wearing a long cloak, it was clearly the person who had followed Ning Feng during the day, he looked at the worm that had been destroyed by Ye Han, a shocking murderous aura was immediately released from his body.

“How dare you destroy my parasite, tonight I will make you beg for your life and die.” The long-haired man’s gaze stared at Ye Han, as terrifying as a poisonous snake and fierce beast, Ye Han’s expression changed slightly, this man was actually a compulsion master, good at killing people with compulsions.

A powerful killer and a compulsion master who made people defensive, being attacked by these two together was too dangerous, of course, the killer was not very dangerous to Ye Han, but the compulsion master who appeared now had to be defended against.

Raising companions, this generally appeared in Hunan, Sichuan and this area of Yunnan, but this was the first time Ye Han had encountered this kind of person, he had to play it safe, the methods of the companions were insidious and unpredictable.

“Ning Feng.” Ye Han looked at the companions who appeared, his eyes flashed with a surprising hostility, the arrival of the companions must be at the behest of Ning Feng, next time if there was an opportunity, he would definitely do away with this vengeful fellow.

“Destroying my companions and killing my Ma Clan experts, I will let you taste what life is like today.” The compulsion master’s voice was incomparably cold, and immediately, he only saw his robe waving, and a dark weapon sticky with poison shot towards Ye Han, while at the same time, he had already flashed into a black shadow floating towards Ye Han as if he was a ghost.

The dagger was a very good choice for a person who wants to be a part of the team.

The two black shadows were attacking each other in the hotel room as if they were in a martial arts movie, but the two of them were so strong that they destroyed the entire room. He would not hesitate to kill Ye Han and complete his mission as soon as he had the chance.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the long cloak of the parasite master waved, and a centipede suddenly shot over, the pair of tentacles shocking to the eyes.

“Get back!”

Ye Han let out a loud shout, the spiritual qi in his body surged like a tide, with a slap, it was as if there was an invisible force in the air that wrapped those centipedes, then a tiny chirping sound emitted from the centipedes’ bodies, these centipedes retreated like a tide, as if Ye Han’s body had something that made them fearful, and no longer dared to take a step forward.

Seeing this, Ye Han’s eyes moved as a strong aura fluctuation rippled out from his body.

“Damnable fellow, to be able to block my poisonous centipede.” When the compounder saw this scene, his arms shook, and immediately a strangely shaped compulsion fell from his body, hundreds of them in total, densely arranged on the ground, crawling rapidly towards Ye Han’s position.

When Nine saw this, a look of fright flashed across his calm eyes, those parasites would make one's scalp feel numb even at a glance, and if one were to let these insects fit inside one's body, it would be a very frightening thing to think about.

When Ye Han saw these parasites moving rapidly towards his position, his expression remained unchanged, the spiritual qi in his dantian converged on his legs, then he stomped on the ground, the converging spiritual qi whistled out, like a fierce force sweeping towards the parasites.

"You want to block my hundred compulsions, you are dreaming!" The compulsion master sneered, but in the next moment, when those compulsion insects came into contact with the aura released by Ye Han, they also retreated in fear like the centipede at the beginning, chattering non-stop.

"How is that possible? My hundred compulsions of water and fire are not afraid!"

Ye coldly laughed; "It seems that your compulsions are useless against me, next it is time for you to pay the price."

The companions were shocked and hurriedly retreated, his most powerful means were companions and poison, now he had none of these against Ye Han, he was generally no match for Ye Han in terms of physical skills, thinking of this, the companions' robes suddenly shot out some colorful powder floating in the air, Ye Han just inhaled a little and immediately felt his mind become dizzy.

"It's poisonous." Ye Han's heart was shocked and he hurriedly gave up attacking the companions and retreated backwards, but No. 9, who had been watching the battle, seized the opportunity and came behind Ye Han in one step, and the Mitsubishi spike in his hand stabbed him violently. He suddenly changed from backward to forward, narrowly avoiding the deadly move.

The Mitsubishi spikes in his hands were slashing or stabbing at Ye Han's vital points, and on several occasions, they almost made holes in Ye Han's body.

Seeing that Ye Han was being forced into a mess by Number Nine, the compounder sneered before similarly approaching towards Ye Han, his hand already had a packet of poison powder ready, just a little bit of it could cause one's body to slowly corrode, but just as the compounder was approaching Ye Han, he only saw Ye Han turn his head and smile brightly at him, revealing a row of white teeth; "Just what you're waiting for, you sinister family friend, suffer death!"

At such a close distance, the parasite master did not even have time to make a move before the five major acupuncture points on his body were pierced by the golden needles, and all five golden needles penetrated his body.

"Now it's your turn." Without the threat of the compulsion master, Ye Han was focused on dealing with No. 9, and the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand swung out slash after slash, with streaks of residual shadows and an overwhelming attack, No. 9 was soon completely overpowered by Ye Han, and the Mitsubishi Spike in his hand had broken into three sections under Ye Han's continuous attacks.

The companions were not afraid of the companions, he had no way to kill Ye Han, if he continued to stay, he was afraid that he would leave his life here.

Inside the room, without worries Ye Han was under his fierce killing attack, No. 9 had not lasted more than a hundred moves before his throat was slit by Ye Han. In terms of combat power, No. 9's strength was only a little more powerful than a peak Qi Sense Realm expert, if the compulsion master had not appeared just now, Ye Han could have killed him long ago.

With a bang, just after Ye Han had killed No. 9, the door of his room was broken open with force, followed by a gun-wielding explosion-proof armed police entering the room.

Ye Han's room inside such a big commotion, the relevant personnel of the hotel has called the police, one explosion-proof armed police broke into the door, looking at the fallen body of No. 9 on the ground, they immediately armed with guns aimed at Ye Han; "Do not move, hold your head and crouch down, or we shoot"

Ye Han saw the group of special police who rushed in and sighed in his heart, he could only honestly hold his head and squat down, a special police officer immediately came over and handcuffed Ye Han, leaving some people at the hotel to investigate the scene, while Ye Han was taken out of the hotel in custody, got into a bomb-proof car and whizzed off towards the police station.

But outside the hotel, inside a black car, dressed in a tight black leather jacket, the skylark was watching the explosion-proof car go away, she was a step too late, Ye Han had already been taken away by the police.

She was too late, Ye Han had already been taken away by the police.

When he arrived at the police station, Ye Han was immediately treated with the strictest treatment, not only handcuffed, but also ankle-cuffed, and was locked up in an iron room, waiting for the police officers to come and interrogate him.

Ye Han looked at his situation, he frowned, murder is a serious crime in China, and the evidence was overwhelming, only Kun Sang and Liu Zhiming could not help him in Tengchong, only Cheng Jun's identity in the Security Bureau could bring him out of here, but his mobile phone and weapons were seized, it was impossible to contact Cheng Jun for the time being.

With a bang, while Ye Han was thinking about these things, the door of the interrogation room was roughly pushed open, then a hot female police officer and a male police officer walked in, then the female police officer threw the folder she was holding onto the table fiercely, pointed the desk lamp on the table at Ye Han's face and viciously said; "Say, what is your name? Where are you from? What kind of grudge did the deceased have against you? I advise you to tell me everything, otherwise, my grandmother will make you go to jail, dare to kill someone in Tengchong, I think you are too long for life."

"That, Yu Lu, be gentle, be gentle" The male police officer's face immediately darkened when he saw the female officer's pugnacious appearance, then patted her shoulder and told her to sit down, then he himself sat down and looked at Ye Han and said. "Buddy, enough ruthless ah, a knife to seal the throat, practiced it, the identity of the deceased we have found out clearly, is the Golden Triangle over the scimitar killer organization members, code name is 'nine', very powerful, our police force in Yunnan Province repeatedly siege were he escaped, now, say after it. "

“Look at me, give an account of all of it, if you dare to make a false statement, this aunt will let you taste what it is like to find your teeth all over the ground.” Before Ye Han could answer the male police officer’s words, the female police officer named Yu Lu had already slapped the table and screamed, seeing her like this, the male police officer’s face suddenly had a black line.

Fortune Chapter 100

Hearing this, Ye Han said somewhat speechlessly; “I said officer, if you want me to watch you give an account, you should at least take this broken lamp away first.”

“Hmph, how dare you talk back, I’ll smack you to death you murderer.” When she heard that Ye Han did not answer her question, Wang Yulu became furious and picked up her sleeve and came over and punched Ye Han’s face hard.

The poor young master Ye, who had not bled a drop under the siege of the two experts, was now bleeding, and the nosebleed was coming out in drops, a pitiful and wretched look.

“Hey hey hey, my ancestor, okay okay, it’s not good to be seen later, stop” the male police officer saw this, a bitter laugh, immediately came over and pulled Wang Yulu.

“Chen Xiaotian, let go of me, he won’t give an honest explanation until he teaches this bastard a lesson.” Wang Yulu struggled in the male police officer’s arms and still wanted to go teach Ye Han a lesson, but in the end she was forced to sit down on the chair by Chen Xiaotian.

Chen Xiaotian laughed bitterly; “My little ancestor alas, how can you handle a case like this, assaulting a prisoner, when the bureau will give you a disciplinary action, then not to mention the chance of promotion, you may also be transferred back to the second line as a clerk, all right, this guy killed someone is not a good thing, he is also considered to have eliminated harm for the people, next I will interrogate, you just watch from the side. ”

“Hmph, giving the prisoner a dismount at the beginning, isn’t that how movies play out?” Hearing Chen Xiaotian’s words, Wang Yulu clasped her hands to her chest and said with a beak.

Chen Xiaotian’s face is black, nima reality can go with the movie to compare? He shook his head and sat down on the chair, then he put the desk lamp right and looked at Ye Han who had an iron face at the moment and said; “Okay, next we’ll talk about the process of you killing number nine, talk about it.”

Ye Han pooh-poohed and spat out the nosebleed that was running inside his mouth, he looked at Chen Xiaotian and sneered; “Want me to explain, fine, tell her to wipe my face clean and pour me a glass of water over.”

“Bang, bastard, I see you haven’t been taught enough, have you? Are you trying to get a taste of auntie’s fist?” When Wang Yulu heard that Ye Han wanted to wipe his face and pour water for him, that fire immediately sprang up again, slapping the table and glaring at Ye Han with a face full of anger, her anger made those two great peaks on her body vibrate on a vast scale!

Ye Han glanced at her and said with an evil smile on his face; “You can choose to do it, or not.”

Looking at the evil smile on Ye Han’s face, Wang Yulu’s lungs exploded with anger and she cursed; “I’ll do it, I’ll do it, damn it, Chen Xiaotian, this bastard’s two thieving eyes are staring at your wife’s breasts, why are you still sitting there? Hurry up and teach him a lesson, or you won't be able to get into my bed at night."

With these words, not only did Chen Xiaotian's face turn black, even the corners of Ye Han's mouth twitched twice, was this a fucking cop? Or was she a female rogue?

"This, Yu Lu ah, you sit down first, I'll do it." Chen Xiaotian wiped the sweat from his forehead and coaxed Wang Yulu to sit down like an ancestor, having married such a tough daughter-in-law, he could only admit it.

Just after Ye Han entered the police station, Skylark had already returned to the hotel to tell Guo Yunxiao about Ye Han, after hearing Skylark finish, Guo Yunxiao smiled lightly and said; "It seems that this guy's life is really big, since he entered the police station, then the matter of getting rid of him will be put aside for the time being, the charge of murder is enough for this guy to stay inside for a while, but in order to prevent someone steps in to bail him out, Little Dagger, you contact the people at the Yunnan Provincial Department and tell them to keep this guy in jail for a while longer, or at least not let him come out and grab food from me."

"Yes, Young Guo."

"Right, Miss Yun, is it still going well over at Mo Lao's side?" Guo Yunxiao asked as he looked at Yun Quarrel.

Upon hearing this, Yun Quack shook her head, Mo Lao had gone to deal with the group of experts around Ye Han, while she had gone to kill Ye Han, so she was not sure what Mo Lao's current situation was.

At the same time, Ning Feng, who was discussing cooperation matters with the Ruan family, also received the news that Ye Han had been arrested and taken into the police station, after hanging up the phone, Ning Feng burst out laughing; "I didn't expect this bastard to have this day, although my men didn't finish him off, but he killed someone, on this side of Tengchong I see who else can protect him?"

Hearing Ning Feng's words, a man in his forties or fifties laughed; "What Ning Xian nephew is talking about should be that youngster called Ye Han, this kid has made a big splash in Tengchong City for a while, gaining both fame and fortune, but now that he has killed someone, no one dares to protect him in Tengchong, although that youngster from the Kun family is close to him, that fox Kun Xian will not necessarily step in because of this."

"Hmph, that's better without the bastard in the way, Uncle Ruan, then we have a deal."

Ruan Shanhe nodded, and then said; "But Yin Nephew Ning, let's be ugly and say it up front, although I gave you the map, it's still up to you to get that vein, our four great clans have lost a lot to get that vein."

"That's not for Uncle Ruan to worry about, a mineral vein, is it still a dragon's den?"

Inside the interrogation room, Wang Yulu had a furious look on her face, she wanted to put on a good show for the first time as a police officer, but she had met such a tricky guy like Ye Han, who had killed someone, and didn't even have a bit of fear on her face.

At this time, Chen Xiaotian lit a cigarette and sent it to Ye Han's mouth, then he lit one himself and looked at Ye Han and said; "Buddy, I actually admire you, even a killer like No. 9 can be killed by you, you are also considered to have eliminated harm for the people, now let's have a good chat, if someone paid for the murder, we won't do anything to you, at most you will be sentenced to a If someone paid for the murder, we won't do anything to you, at most we'll sentence you to an over-defense, in the end nothing will happen, so why carry on like this?"

Ye Han took a puff of his cigarette and said indifferently; "Nice cigarette, the taste is quite pure, but before I give an account, I need to make a phone call first, if you agree, I don't mind having a chat with you."

"Okay, I agree, I'll go and fetch your phone over right away." Chen Xiaotian nodded, but just as Chen Xiaotian was about to go get Ye Han's phone, the door to the interrogation room was opened, then a police officer walked in and said; "Team Chen, the provincial hall has called, saying that the murderer we caught tonight will be temporarily supervised for now, and that someone from inside the provincial hall will be sent down to take over the case."

"Provincial Hall, how will they know that we caught a murderer?" When Chen Xiaotian heard this, his brow furrowed, the provincial hall was hundreds of kilometres away from here, unless someone had reported to the provincial hall about what happened here, the provincial hall would not know about it, much less give such an order.

The constable also shook his head with a bewildered expression.

"Alright, I get it, go ahead and get busy." Chen Xiaotian sat down again as he looked at Ye Han and shrugged, saying; "As you heard, the conversation between us is over, someone from inside the provincial hall will come down to personally interrogate you, so I can't grant you the request you called."

At those words, Ye Han's brows tightened, there must be something fishy behind this matter, he had killed Number Nine, someone must have wanted to make an issue out of this matter, so that he could stay inside the police station and not get out, the only people who could do that were Ning Feng and Guo Yunxiao, as for the Ruan family it was unlikely, but now that he couldn't contact Cheng Jun, he was only afraid that it would be difficult to get out of here for the time being.

"Hmph, bastard, let you talk tough, next you'll be waiting to squat in a small black room." Seeing Ye Han's frown, Wang Yulu felt relieved, Ye Han looked up at her and said to Chen Xiaotian; "Officer Chen, is this woman of yours on her period and so hot?"

Upon hearing this, Chen Xiaotian secretly said something bad

"You bastard! Your period is the one that came, your whole family's period has come." Wang Yulu opened her mouth and cursed at Ye Han, rolling up her sleeves and still wanted to go teach him a lesson.
