Chapter 311 Let's Go Shopping Together

The rest of the people began to try to get familiar with Carlisle by striking up a conversation.

She once again felt the feeling of being admired and paid attention to. Therefore, Carlisle's mood was indescribably good.

If Krista was really with Lance, would Catherine still be so good to Carlisle?

She was living a better life after so much trouble, and she did not want to go back to her poor life like before.

She only hoped that Krista could be sensible and not disturb her plans.

However, Krista didn't react at all. She only gave a faint smile, looking kind and soft.

Carlisle was even angrier. She hadn't expected that Krista didn't pay attention to her at all.

"Did you listen to what I said?"

"Mrs. Lamb, I know what you said, but the decision is not made by me. You should go to talk with Lance."

"If it was useful for me to talk with him, why would I come to you?"

Carlisle was so unhappy.

"Forget it. Let's go."

Krista was very confused. Carlisle was actually very rich, but she didn't want to spend a penny on Krista.

How could such a woman be kind enough to buy golden jewelry for Krista?

Krista guessed that Carlisle must have ulterior motives. Sure enough, not long after they entered the mall, they saw Catherine walking towards them.

"Mrs. Lamb."

"Catherine, what a coincidence to see you here! Are you here to buy things too? Tell me if you like anything. I'll buy it for you."

Carlisle was very attentive when she saw Princess Catherine. She even treated Catherine as her own daughter.

"Mrs. Lamb, you are welcome. We can just buy our own things. Let's go. I have just arrived. Let's walk around together."

"Alright, alright."

Carlisle kept nodding. She saw that Catherine had brought a lot of things, and there was no one around to carry them for her.

Carlisle immediately took them all and threw them into Krista's arms.

"How slow you are! Can't you see that Princess Catherine has taken so many things and is so tired?"

"But it doesn't seem good."

Catherine said with a smile. Although she said that it was not good, she had no intention of taking these things back.

“There is nothing wrong with her. She is just a servant. How can she be compared to you? She often does this kind of thing. There is no problem.”

“Thank you, Ms. Compton.”

Catherine looked at Krista proudly. In her eyes, Krista was not worthy of Lance.

Since she was young, there was nothing Catherine could not get.

The more she could not get it, the more she wanted it, at all costs.

Only then did Krista understand Carlisle’s goal. She was using Krista to please Catherine.

There were not many things, and it was not difficult for her to carry them, so Krista did not say anything.

However, these two people’s shopping desire was too strong. Catherine bought only a few things, while Carlisle bought a lot.

Then, these things were all handed to Krista alone.

“Mrs. Lamb, why don’t we call the driver over and send the things back?”

Krista could not help but make this suggestion.

Carlisle instantly glared at her. “Are there many things? Why can’t you just carry them? Don’t be so delicate, OK? You are now raised by my son, and you are spending the money from our family.”

“I know it, but there are really too many things. I can’t carry them anymore.”

“You...”

Carlisle was just about to get angry when Catherine stopped her.

“That’s true. There are a lot of things we bought. Why don’t we take a break? Ms. Compton, your brand shop is up ahead, right? I also want to buy some clothes. Let’s just go and take a look.”

Krista frowned slightly when she heard this. She did not want them to go over, but before she could say anything to refuse, Carlisle had already started walking forward. “Catherine, if you like anything, you can just take it. You know what? This shop was bought by my son. Otherwise, how could Krista open such a shop after just graduating from university so soon?” Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 312

Chapter 312 The Needle

They would arrive at the store soon, and she also had a chance to catch her breath and drank a large cup of water.

“Boss Lamb, what happened?”

“What are you all waiting for? Serve the Princess.”

Carlisle yelled.

“Be careful, everyone. It’s more difficult to deal with.”

She warned.

Catherine disgustedly looked at the clothes, picked one, and went to the dressing room. Soon there was a scream from inside.

“What’s the matter? Are you alright, Princess?”

Catherine opened the door with her face full of pain. There was a bloody mark on her arm.

“How could this be?”

“There is a needle on my cloth. I didn’t check when I was wearing the cloth...” Catherine said in a pitiful tone.

“How could this be? Every piece of our clothes will be checked. How could there be a needle left?” Krista said.

“Do you mean that I framed you? Do you mean that I brought the needle?”

Catherine said in a wronged tone, “Forget it, it’s not a big deal. It’s just a small injury. Mrs. Lamb, I can’t go shopping with you. I have to go.”

Carlisle panicked when she heard this. This was a perfect opportunity to show off in front of Catherine. How could she miss it?

“You are the Princess. How can you just let this matter pass? These employees will be punished if they are not careful. However, the culprit is Krista!”

“That’s right. Luckily, it’s just a small injury. I know that Ms. Compton didn’t mean it. It’s because of my good temper. If you hurt other clients and they cause you trouble, what would you do?”

Catherine pretended to be gentle and kind as she looked at Krista.

Krista was so angry that her whole body trembled, her face was pale, and her small hands were clenched tightly.

Catherine knew that there could not be surveillance in the dressing room, so she planned to frame Krista.

Krista would not make this low-level mistake, and the employees would not make it too!

“Miss Catherine, are you going to my studio to take a look at what style of needles we are using? You are not professional, so you don’t know that there is a difference between needles. We have never used such a needle on the cloth.”

“There are differences in color and size between the needles, but it’s not difficult to understand.

The reason why she said this was only because she was certain that Catherine did not understand. She knew that Catherine would feel guilty because this was her self-directed act!

Sure enough, Catherine became embarrassed. How could she confront?

She blinked her eyes and looked at Carlisle with a bitter expression, “Forget it. Just treat it as my fault.”

“Mrs. Lamb, I can’t accompany you anymore. I’ll be leaving first...”

Carlisle panicked when she heard that. She went forward to slap Krista.

The sound resounded through the entire store.

Krista’s face turned to the other side, and her cheeks quickly swelled up.

“Boss Lamb!”

“How could you hit Krista?”

The employee could not bear this anymore.

“Why not? How could she hurt Princess? Princess is benevolent and forgave you. But, you are still aggressive. I have to teach you a lesson today, or you will be a scourge sooner or later!”

Carlisle said in a domineering tone.

She thought that a slap was not enough to vent her anger, so she wanted to continue to slap Krista again.

“Stop!”

Right at this moment, a gloomy and cold voice sounded out. Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx
Chapter 313

Chapter 313 Too Considerate

Lance quickly stepped forward and grabbed Carlisle’s hand, “Mrs. Lamb, what are you doing?”

Carlisle looked at Lance guiltily. She averted her eyes and said with a stammer, “I am...teaching her how to do things.”

“You? Who do you think you are?”

Lance was angry. He shook Carlisle off hard.

Carlisle retreated a few steps awkwardly before holding steady. She couldn’t do whatever she wants. After all, she was his adoptive mother. All the appearance of friendliness was fake.

“Lance, you’re coming...”

Princess Catherine widened her eyes when she saw Lance and just couldn’t look away.

Lance didn't even look at her. He lovingly caressed Krista and said with self-blame, "I'm sorry for making you suffer. Don't worry if she comes to you again. If she wants to mess with you, let her do it. I will help you solve it."

"She is not my birth mother. I have no blood relationship with her. The Lamb family belongs to Carlisle, but those who left my father will not be as glorious as they are now."

"Mrs. Lamb, I warn you, don't push it. If you interfere with us, then I will leave the Lamb Family forever and Ryan can continue as an inheritor. Krista and I will go somewhere far away as you wish."

"No, you won't! Your father hasn't returned yet. We must wait for him to come back. You can't leave..."

Carlisle panicked.

"If you want me to stay, then do what I say. Stay away from my people."

"Do you lose your mind? A loathsome girl with nothing and a Princess with everything. You know it, right?"

Princess Catherine looked at Lance expectantly when she heard this.

Princess Catherine was a beauty with a good figure. What's more, she was a Princess.

She thought, "He knows how to choose, right?"

However, all she got was his cold gaze, "If I knew the price of saving her life would be her admiration, then I would never have done it."

Catherine quivered after hearing this.

She sneaked out to drink a year ago and didn't bring anyone with her. She was dead drunk and was almost humiliated by others.

It was Lance who helped to chase away those people and arranged a hotel for her like a gentleman.

At that time, she felt that Lance was different and began to try to get him.

But now, she was disappointed.

"You...how dare to say this to me. Let's wait and see!"

Princess Catherine left crying.

"Princess Catherine, that's not what he meant..."

Carlisle was in a hurry to catch up with her.

As soon as they left, it was much quieter. Lance held Krista in his arms.

"I'm sorry for all of this. I came late."

I'm sorry, too. I've caused trouble again. I must have distracted you from work, right? I'm fine. I'll apply some medicine to this wound. You should go."

She shoved his arms.

When Lance heard this, he didn't know what to say.

If it was someone else, they would cry and complain about being wronged. But she was too calm. She was even considerate enough to let him go.

“Krista, don’t you have anything else to say to me?”

“What could I say? I know your situation, and I also know that all of this was that Mrs. Lamb doesn’t like me. This is not your fault. You have already done well. You are also working hard for our future. What I can do is to be more considerate and try not to make trouble.”

Hearing this, his face turned gloomy.

He did not say a word. His eyes were cold. Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 314

Chapter 314 Meet Danny Again

Krista froze. Seeing that Lance was fuming, Krista was somehow bewildered.

“What’s ... What’s the matter? Did I say something wrong?”

“Aren’t you mad at me for being late? Carlisle slapped you, but you didn’t cry or complain? And you didn’t blame me? Catherine is into me, but you are not jealous, nor do you stop us from meeting each other. Aren’t you worried that I will mess around with Catherine?”

“I... I know you got here as fast as you could. I do feel wronged, but it can’t be helped ... Do I have to fight Mrs. Lamb? I know that the Princess is crushing on you, but ... I think you don’t like her. So what do I care?”

“You’re meeting Catherine because you work with the royal family. I don’t know anything about your work. There’s nothing I can do for you. I just want to save you some trouble. Am I not doing right?”

Krista looked at Lance blankly. She got to look out for Lance in everything.

When there was a problem, Krista would solve it on her own so as not to disturb Lance, no matter how hard it was. Lance was tired from having to deal with so many things every day, so Krista should think more about him.

Krista wanted to make enough money to cover the expenses of the shop and prove herself.

“Krista...”

Lance held Krista tightly by the shoulders and said through clenched teeth.

“It hurts ... You’re hurting me..”

Krista frowned slightly, feeling uncomfortable being held tightly on her shoulder.

“Krista, you are incorrigible.”

With that, Lance left in a huff.

“Mr. Hamm...”

Krista was anxious. What did Lance mean by this?

Krista raced after him, but Lance walked fast and soon disappeared into the elevator entrance.

Krista sighed. “Forget it. I’d better wait until Mr. Hamm cools off.”

Krista tidied up the shop and had someone send Carlisle all her purchases.

Krista was too upset to go back. She was afraid that Aracely and Luck would see the bruises on her face and take up the cudgel for her.

She decided not to go back until her face was no longer swollen.

Krista was busy in the shop until it was dark.

Suddenly, Krista felt something was wrong. There was a rustling sound behind Krista as if someone was following her.

Krista quickened her pace, and the man following her hurried to follow, and when she slowed, so did the man.

Krista looked over her shoulder. He was a scruffy tramp and was so dirty that Krista could not make out his face.

Frightened, Krista began to run, and the man who was following her quickly followed.

However, there seemed to be something wrong with his legs, and he ran about as fast as Krista did.

Krista panicked and actually ran into a dead end.

“You can’t escape.”

The man behind Krista gasped and gave a spooky laugh.

“Who ... Who are you? Do we know each other?”

Krista asked in a trembling voice.

“Of course, we know each other. And I have animosity towards you! You seem to be doing well, but I’m living a miserable life because of you.”

He pushed back his messy and greasy hair and his terrible face was revealed.

Krista thought he looked familiar, but she couldn't really remember where she had met him.

"It seems that you really don't remember. I'll help you recall it!" He said gloomily, "Danny, do you still remember Danny?"

"Is ... is it you?"

Krista nearly jumped out of her skin. Of course, she remembered Danny. When Krista interned at Lance's studio, she ended up being accused of leaking designs, which was related to Danny. However, the truth was no longer pursued when Danny admitted that he teamed up with Keely to get Lance into trouble because he was jealous of Lance. And Krista was innocent. Chapter 315 I Don't Remember

At that time, Krista was wondering why Danny confessed without being pressed. She thought that he had found his conscience. Was there something else?

She felt that she had forgotten something...but felt that it was impossible.

She remembered a lot of things clearly from the past, but sometimes she felt that her brain was terrifying, as if she had lost the most important part.

She had completely forgotten all of her love and memory with Kingston.

She only remembered Kingston, this person, but didn't remember what had happened between the two of them.

"Looks like you have remembered." Danny smiled evilly.

At first, he thought that he was mistaken because Krista had died four years ago.

He followed her with uncertainty and was sure in the end.

He was in such a miserable situation all because Kingston stood up for Krista.

He didn't understand at that time. He simply thought that the clothes Lance had designed were for Kingston, so Kingston stood up.

It wasn't until later when Krista became Kingston's sister that he realized that they had had a connection a long time ago. Krista was the woman Kingston stood up for.

He couldn't revenge on Kingston or Lance, so he put all his hate on Krista.

"Do you know how miserable I have been all these years? It's all because of you! No one is willing to cooperate with me because of my bad reputation. I can only be a knockoff designer and copy others' work. And my leg was even broken!"

"I am now as poor as a church mouse and have nowhere to go. This is because of you. Now you are alive. This is unfair. The one who should die is you!"

"What nonsense are you talking about? I...I didn't hurt you at all. It was you and Keely who planned all these to trap Mr. Hamm. Why are you blaming me? It is nobody's fault but your own. I didn't do anything to you. It was you who hurt me back then!"

"Yes, you didn't do anything to me. But Kingston stood up for you. If it wasn't for his pressure, how could I admit I had plagiarized? I was about to beat Lance. It was all Kingston's fault. It was all your fault!"

He could only vent his anger on Krista.

Danny looked at Krista evilly, his eyes burning with raging flames as if he was to tear Krista apart.

He limped as he approached her.

“You... Stay back...” Krista said,

“Help! Anyone there? Stay back!”

No one was around her. She even couldn't find anything to protect herself.

Denny smiled evilly, “You are heading for your doom. There are so many roads but you chose to walk into this dead end. I am more familiar with this area than anyone else. No one will come to save you. I didn't expect to meet you in this foreign country. God bless me!”

“Look at you. Look at your white skin. Your life went along well enough from the past four years. Tsk. What does it feel like? You bitch, you will die in my hands today!”

He looked at Krista lustfully. “I had been in the worst state for the past few years, begging for a living. I even didn't have a chance to sleep with a woman.” He thought,

“Now, I can revenge and sleep with this woman at the same time. It's worth even if I died!”

He slowly got closer and appreciated the terrified expression from Krista.

Krista thought, “I don't remember what he said!”

“Did Kingston stand up for me in the past?”

“I don't know. I don't remember. It seems that I have a little impression, but I can't remember. What's wrong with my head?”

“My head hurts...” Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 316

Chapter 316 You Shouldn't Have Coveted Her

It was as if something was trying to break free from the cage, causing her to feel pain in her nerves.

She clutched her head, struggling in pain.

“You ... Don’t come over, or I’ll fight you to the death, don’t come over...”

Danny was getting closer and closer, and she could smell the disgusting smell on his body, which made her want to vomit.

*Let me kiss you and hug you ... Let me spoil you. Don’t worry, you are such a beautiful woman, how can I bear to be cruel to you... I will let you die at the most tender time...”

Before he could finish speaking, he suddenly screamed.

“Who ... who kicked me?”

Danny looked flustered, lying on the ground awkwardly.

Krista struggled to open her eyes and saw a blurry outline in front of her.

Was it ... Kingston?

She froze, unable to believe that she would see him here.

This scene was somewhat familiar to her as if she had encountered it before.

It was just that she could not remember, and her head hurt even more.

“It hurts...”

She hugged her head in pain and her face turned pale.

Kingston’s heart trembled. He immediately stepped forward and pulled her into his arms. His large hands gently caressed her head.

“So familiar ... Why is this scene so familiar ... Danny said that you helped me before, but why can’t I remember it ... I, did I miss something...”

She murmured in pain.

“Krista, don’t think about things that you can’t remember. It’s all in the past anyway. The most important thing is the present and the future, isn’t it? Krista, wake up.”

His voice seemed to have special magic that gradually soothed the pain in her nerves.

Seeing that she had calmed down, he heaved a sign of relief and looked at Danny.

“I didn’t expect that you were still alive.”

His words were gloomy without a trace of warmth as if coming from the abyss of hell.

Kingston looked at him as if looking at a dead person, causing Danny to tremble in fear.

“You ... What do you want to do? Killing is illegal!”

These words said by him were a little ridiculous, but he had no choice but to save himself.

If he wanted to die, he would have committed suicide long ago. Why did he have to struggle to survive until now, living such a terrible life?

“I want you to disappear forever.”

He said word by word, his cold eyes freezing.

“I ... I’ll fight it out with you!”

Knowing that he can’t escape, Danny suddenly pulled out a fruit knife from his pocket and stabbed it straight at Krista.

Danny had also weighed the pros and cons. Krista nestled in Kingston’s embrace, her back facing him, making it easier for him to make a move.

Anyway, he had to get some back.

But...

He looked at Kingston in shock. He actually used his hand to hold the knife tightly and he could not pull out the strength of an adult man.

The knife seemed to be embedded in his palm.

The blood was bright red and dripped down drop by drop, suffused with an unusually enchanting luster in the dim light.

“You ... you...”

“You shouldn’t have coveted her. You’re courting death.”

Kingston mustered all his strength and ruthlessly kicked him in the abdomen, getting him far away. This time, Danny did not have the strength to get up. He lay on the ground, dying.

“Your hand...”

She eased up and her head did not hurt as much.

“I’m fine. As for you, were you scared? Be good, it’s all over.”

A moment ago, he spoke coldly, but now his tone was as gentle as water, like coaxing a child.

Krista looked at his injured hand, her eyes turning red.

“Let’s go to the hospital!” Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 317

Chapter 317 You Can Cure All My Sufferings

Krista forcibly took Kingston to the hospital. The doctor quickly sutured and bandaged his wound. The wound was very deep and one even could vaguely see the white bone. It was a shocking sight.

Krista also noticed the gunshot wound on Kingston’s temple. The bullet brushed past it, leaving a very deep blood mark. It had not healed yet and the ugly scars were still there.

When he reached the light, Krista noticed that his complexion was not good and his lips were bloodless.

Kingston also coughed, and every sound was very heart-wrenching.

If it was just a hand injury, how could this be?

She could tell something wrong, and the doctor surely had noticed it much earlier.

“Your health condition is very bad. Do you want to have a comprehensive examination?”

“It’s fine. Just treat my hand.”

Kingston flatly refused, and the doctor did not say much.

“It’s better to check your whole body. I see that your complexion is very bad. Wait here for me. I’ll pay the registration fee...”

After saying that, Krista was about to leave in a hurry, but Kingston held her back.

“You...”

“The last time I fell down the hill, my internal organs were shaken, and they haven’t recovered yet. I have been taking medicine all the time, so I don’t need to check again.”

When Krista heard this, she instantly felt distressed.

“Since you haven’t recovered yet, why are you in Phelan City? You should be resting well now.”

“I said I came to see you. Don’t you believe me?” he said lightly.

“I don’t believe it...” Krista said awkwardly. She didn’t expect that at this time, Kingston was still talking nonsense.

He smiled and said, “I came because of some business matters.”

“You don’t even care about your life for the sake of making money.”

"I can't help it. After locking you up for so many days, Lance almost broke my branch company in a fit of anger. This mess must be dealt with in time."

"What? Is there such a thing?"

Krista was stunned. She had no idea.

She understood the importance of a branch company to Kingston. When they had just gotten the marriage certificate, he went abroad to set up a branch company. Now, all this would be in vain?

Krista had thought that Lance's revenge was just to buy a killer to hurt Kingston. She did not expect Lance to do so much.

"This... This is not his fault. After all, it's you who locked me up! You... You deliberately let him misunderstand us and almost broke our relationship! Today, you also saved me. Therefore, we can be considered even. I will make him stop."

"Almost? What a pity!"

"Hey! How can you say such words? I don't want to care about you anymore. Just call Quincy and ask her to come over."

Krista turned around and was about to leave when she heard his painful cough.

She was a little soft-hearted, but she felt that Kingston was pretending.

"Don't think that I will be soft-hearted just because of this. I don't believe it..."

She turned around and saw Kingston coughing up blood.

“Oh my God...”

“Stay by my side, okay?”

Kingston smiled weakly. His thin lips were so pale, and the dark red blood dots on his lips were unusually obvious.

He was too weak, but his back was still straight, like a tree trunk that had been rotten inside.

Krista’s heart trembled, and she returned to Kingston’s side as fast as she could.

“How could you be like this? Why did you vomit blood?”

Krista panicked and used her hands to carelessly wipe the corners of his mouth. For a moment, she was lost in thought.

“I’ll call the doctor. Wait for me...”

Before she could leave, Kingston held Krista into his arms again.

“Don’t you understand it? What I need is not a doctor, but you! You are my best medicine. You can cure all my sufferings in the world.”

His voice was very soft, but every word was powerful enough to be heard by Krista. Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 318

Chapter 318 Help Him Again

Her heart was beating fast, like throwing a large stone into the calm lake.

She knew that she should not be so close to Kingston and should immediately break away from his embrace.

However, he leaned on her tightly. If she broke away, he would fall down in embarrassment.

So she could not

“Kingston...” She murmured.

“I am tired. Can you rest with me for a while?”

He could hardly stand. Because he had lost too much blood and hadn't been completely cured before. Everything in front of him became blurry.

“Kingston, Kingston...”

She kept calling him, but he was already unconscious.

Fortunately, Quincy arrived in time. His residence was nearby, and he soon sent Kingston there.

“Is he alright? He vomited blood!”

She asked hurriedly, a little incoherent.

“The medicine is already brewing. We have to let Mr. Irwin drink it.”

Then, Quincy stared at her.

“Why do you stare at me?”

Her heart beat rapidly.

“Do you think Mr. Irwin can drink medicine in this situation?”

Krista shook her head.

“And do you think I can feed Mr. Irwin with my mouth?”

Krista felt speechless.

“So what do you think?”

She blinked her big eyes and was at a loss. “But I can’t feed him too. I have a boyfriend. I can’t betray Lance. You can employ a woman. I think many people are willing to do this thing.”

“Ms. Compton, a person should have a conscience. Mr. Irwin was hurt for you. Don’t you care about him?”

“You’re exaggerating. Kingston just hurt his hand. It has nothing to do with vomiting blood.”

“But the traffic accident is related to you, isn’t it?”

“That was also because he kidnapped me first. If someone you love was kidnapped and imprisoned for more than ten days, can you stand it?”

“That’s fine. It’s understandable. However, Mr. Irwin’s hematopoietic function in the liver has decreased, and the injuries on his body are always related to you.”

“What do you mean?”

“You should know that when you fell into the sea, Mr. Irwin was the first to jump down to find you. Even the rescue team wasn't so fast. He was afraid you would die.”

“At that time, Sandra was also fell. He just went to save Sandra.”

“You...”

Quincy was so angry that his face even turned black. What a heartless girl.

“Alright, I'll do it.”

During the conversation, the servant had already prepared the medicine with an appropriate temperature. If Kingston drank it later, the effect would be greatly reduced.

Whatever Quincy said, he couldn't convince Krista, so he had to feed Kingston himself.

He took a mouthful of medicine and was going to feed Kingston. Krista's heart was shaking and she quickly stopped him.

“Calm down, please.”

It was inconvenient for Quincy to speak with the medicine in his mouth, and his eyes kept suggesting his embarrassment.

There were just some middle-aged aunts in the house. If they helped, Kingston would want to die when he woke up.

“Let me do it. I’ll think of a way to feed him the medicine. Don’t be so scary.”

Hearing this, Quincy spat out the medicine.

“Then sorry to trouble you, Ms. Compton, I’ll leave first.”

Quincy went out and closed the door.

“Mr. Irwin, I help you again!”

Krista was embarrassed to take the medicine. It was impossible for her to give Kingston medicine by mouth.

She tried to pinch his mouth and poured some medicine, but most of it spilled out.

Was there no other choice? Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 319

Chapter 319 Male Fatale

If they waited any longer, traditional Chinese medicine would have no effect.

Kingston was also pitiful.

He fell in love with a bad woman and cause the death of his grandma. He must be upset.

He took care of the child alone as a single father. He hadn’t had any scandals with anyone in the past four years, which meant that he kept his integrity.

He must be in pain, but he could endure it more than others and would not easily reveal himself.

Actually ... she felt that Kingston was living his life like an ordinary person.

He was better than in four years ago.

Four years ago, Kingston followed the rules and acted like a puppet.

At the very least, he was real and following his will, which was not a bad thing.

She had a faint sigh and said, "I can't let Mr. Hamm down, and I can't leave you to die. How about I take a straw to feed

you?"

"It's not only perfect to avoid our physical contact but also to save you!"

Krista thought that she was smart, and then she asked the servant to bring a straw. She was going to feed Kingston bit by bit.

When Quincy saw the straw, he glared fiercely at the insensible servant.

After not seeing Krista for four years, she became smarter!

Krista found that it was already late, so it was not suitable for her to stay any longer.

"Quincy, I have to leave."

"It's already so late. Ms. Compton, please stay here. Moreover, Mr. Kingston is still not awake. We don't know what's going on in the mid of the night. The doctor said that he has a low fever now. I don't know if it will go worse." Quincy said.

"There are servants and doctors here. It is useless for me to stay here. I should not stay in another man's house..." Krista replied.

At this moment, there was a sudden sound in the room. A glass cup was broken on the ground.

Krista immediately rushed in. She did not expect that Kingston had already woken up. He wanted to drink water, but he was too powerless to take the cup, which caused the cup to fall.

"You're awake."

"Yes."

Kingston replied with his bloodless lip. The moment he saw Krista, he felt at ease. It was as if all the pain had disappeared without a trace.

Krista took a cup of water and fed it to him.

She didn't think too much about it but poked his forehead. As expected, it was burning, and it was getting hotter.

"How can this be? I'll get you a wet towel to cold down."

She quickly went to get a towel. However, Quincy could not help but stand.

In Quincy's opinion, there was no need to call for a doctor. He left accordingly, which Krista did not even notice.

She even forgot that she was going to leave. She only knew that Kingston had woken up and was having a high fever. She had to take care of him and could not leave for a while.

She began to clean the fragments. Accidentally, her finger was hurt and bled.

“Why are you so careless?”

Kingston was anxious and held her hand tightly. The next second, he put her hand in his mouth to help her stop the bleeding.

“You...”

She was stunned as if she had been struck by lightning. Her mind was blank.

He looked up at her. Although he was very weak, he was handsome.

She felt that he was catching her attention.

Gosh, he was the Male Fatale!

She recovered and quickly pulled back her fingers.

“I can handle it myself. No... no need to trouble you.”

Her face was red and hot as if all the blood in her body rushed to her head.

Kingston looked at her embarrassed face with interest.

“Be careful, don’t hurt yourself.”

"I know..."

She stuttered. Found Pregnant After Divorce by Emiissmx Chapter 320

Chapter 320 Internal and External Worries

"Well, why are you there?" She asked curiously.

"Passing by," he said calmly.

He would never tell her that he had followed her for a long time.

"Danny said you helped me before. Is that true? Why didn't I know?"

"It's fine if you don't know. It's not a big deal."

"No, I must express my gratitude to you." She only remembered that Lance was very protective of her and trusted her. She was still grateful.

Unexpectedly, Kingston played a key role in proving her innocence.

She also didn't expect Kingston to do good deeds silently. It is quite admirable.

In fact, Kingston didn't mention it back then. It was Quincy who couldn't bear the misunderstanding and told the truth.

"How are you going to thank me?" He raised his eyebrows and asked.

She was immediately embarrassed because she didn't seem to have any other advantages.

“How about making a suit for you? Of course, what I make may not be as exquisite as advanced customization, but I don’t have any other strengths. Do you want it?”

“Alright.”

What she sent was always good.

“Is there anything else wrong with you?”

“My chest hurts a lot. Maybe the wound on my hand affected the heart. Can you rub it for me?”

“Will it affect your heart?”

“Yes, it hurts.”

He deliberately pretended to be in pain and gasped. She was kind, thus she massaged his chest with her soft hand. Because of a layer of clothes, she didn’t touch him directly. So she didn’t reject him very much.

“Kingston, actually we can be friends.”

She hesitated, “Everything passes away. Don’t always be obsessed with it. I am going to marry Lance. I also hope that you can find your happiness. You kidnapped me and deliberately let Lance misunderstand. And Lance also almost killed you and seriously injured you. So you are even, okay?”

“In the past, I received the favor from grandma. So I have always been grateful for the Irwin family and hope the Irwin family can prosper because I know grandma put a lot of effort into it. And grandma does not want anything bad to happen to you and the Irwin family. Grandma treats me as a granddaughter when she lives. I can also be your sister.”

“Can you bless us like an elder brother? I am alive, but Sandra is dead. I know you feel unbalanced, but we cannot change this result. A dead man can’t be alive. Her death has offset all grievances. Can’t we continue to live a good life?”

Then, she looked at Kingston nervously, hoping that he could be free of the past grudges.

But she didn’t know that all these years he couldn’t put these down only because of himself. It had nothing to do with Sandra

His expression was cold, and his eyes became deep as if he was considering something.

For a moment, she could figure out what he was thinking.

“Will you be happy with him?”

His voice was cold.

“Of course, Lance loves me very much.”

“Marriage is not a matter of two people, but two families. His families don’t like you, and you will be difficult in the future.”

He gently stroked her face. There was still a shallow mark, so how heavy was that slap!

He sent someone to spy on her. So he knew what she did every day.

Carlisle and Catherine were fierce. On the contrary, Krista was gentle, kind, and used to enduring and thinking for others. She would only be torn to pieces by those people.
