

Chapter 529

Snort

A large amount of irritating gas spewed out from several pipes inside the factory.

This kidnapper is also a person who knows how to use his brain, knows that force will not work, change to wisdom, the group did not expect the other party to release poisonous gas, nothing is defensive.

The group didn't have to guess that it was toxic gas.

Li Xinghong, who was arrogant and unbeatable just now, took two puffs and fell to the ground, his legs going weak.

Although his minions urgently did closed air, but inevitably inhaled some gas, gas once inhaled into the body, dizziness and weakness, body weakness.

"Cough Qin Ming you go quickly." Sun Changxi choked and also felt discomfort, but was worried that Qin Ming was implicated and just told him to hurry up and leave.

But Ah Long's side, surprisingly, directly pulled out a small mask, a snap on the mouth, and gave one to Qin Ming.

Qin Ming breathed through the mask and could not smell the smell at all.

Qin Ming was surprised that Ah Long was worthy of being his personal bodyguard and carried such things with him.

Qin Ming held his breath and shoved the mask to Sun Changxi before carrying him to the side.

"Tch!" Fang Min, who was also wearing a gas mask in front of him, was really stunned to see that the duo had this hand, after all, no one could have thought of his deployment, right?

"Ho! Woof woof woof" But a dozen wolf dogs swarmed onto the standing duo.

With his hands in his pockets, Ah Long looked at the dozen or so wolf dogs that had pounced on him and smiled disdainfully as he kicked a small dog that fell straight to the ground and died.

Don't look at the slippers that Ah Long was wearing, kicking at the huge-bodied wolf dogs, killing them outright, those dogs looked scary, but not enough for Ah Long to warm up.

"How is that possible?" That Fang Min was so shocked that he immediately picked up Auntie Yang and ran towards the back.

After Qin Ming gave the anti-poison mask to Sun Changxi, who was also gradually regaining her strength, she saw that Fang Min was leaving and immediately followed him out too.

Ah Long tackled the dozen of frantic wolf dogs and asked curiously, "Young Master, you can hold your breath for so long?"

Qin Ming was stunned, he hadn't noticed just now either, he had been holding his breath the whole time.

In fact, since Qin Ming had practised the breathing techniques in the martial arts book given by Zhang Quanzhen, Qin Ming had found that apart from his muscles becoming stronger, his lung capacity had also increased greatly, and he was confident that even a national level swimmer would not be able to match his breath-holding skills.

Qin Ming pointed to his hand and immediately chased after him.

Here at the factory, Li Xinghong lifted his head with difficulty as he looked at Qin Ming's distant back, holding his breath in his heart.

He had thought of doing well in front of Sun Changxi, but ended up making a fool of himself and not helping.

Li Xinghong cursed in his heart, "Damn, what's that kid called, who the hell is he? Brother Wu Long seems to be his follower? I'm not mistaken, am I? What the hell. This is big news, I'll have to tell my brother about it."

A junior next to him said, "Second young master, this poisonous gas doesn't seem to be fatal, but it will make people lose their strength."

Li Xinghong cursed breathlessly, "You still need to tell me? Why didn't you guys know how to wear a gas mask? No wonder my future wife had to call on that kid. You guys, when you go back, give me a good investigation, what is the origin of that kid? He could be my love interest."

The conversation was split into two, two speedboats outside the shipyard, one carrying a man and one carrying a dog.

Fang Min's plan had failed and he no longer cared about his long-trained wolf dog, he dragged Auntie Yang, who kept resisting, onto the speedboat and quickly left.

Sun Changxi shouted after him, "Fang Min, let my mother go, you can't get away."

Boom!

The result responded to her with the sound of a gunshot.

Pouncing, Qin Ming didn't care, when he saw Fang Min raise his hand in front, he immediately pounced on Sun Changxi, the bullet whizzed past his back shoulder.

"Ah!" Sun Changxi was startled and subconsciously touched the sidearm on her waist before she remembered that she was off duty and did not have her sidearm with her.

Fang Min laughed arrogantly, "Hmph hahahaha, I became a sacrificial lamb when your gentry fought, and your Sun family abandoned me like a piece of cake. I hate you all. Do you know what kind of life I have been living in Southeast Asia all these years?

Hahahaha, hiding all day, being scared and not having a peaceful sleep.
I'm not going to lie to you guys, someone helped me come back, the other side wanted to mess with your Sun family and that's why they approached me. Although I am a pawn, I am also a pawn with ambition.
If you guys don't let me live in peace, I'll help that person mess with your Sun family."

"Shameless!" Sun Changxi cursed angrily.

"If people don't do it for themselves, they will die, you all go to hell." Fang Min raised his hand to shoot again.

Seeing the black muzzle of the gun pointed at Qin Ming, the distance was only a dozen steps, Qin Ming swallowed his saliva, this was a big game, why hadn't the reinforcements arrived yet?

Sun Changxi also had a look of fear in her eyes, but her body suddenly took a piece and rolled over Qin Ming, pressing him underneath her and using her back to point the pistol behind her.

Qin Ming was shocked, yet inexplicably moved that Sun Changxi was willing to take the bullet for him, he hurriedly said, "Sister Changxi!"

But Sun Changxi covered Qin Ming's mouth with one hand and said forcefully, "You shut up."

But it was too late, as Ah Long, who was coming from behind, saw the opportunity quickly, he grabbed a stone, his wrist exploded with amazing strength and flung it straight away.

Phew!

The stone hit Fang Min's hand with unerring accuracy, and with a 'bang', the bullet hit the sky, and then the gun fell straight to the ground, while painfully tearing Fang Min's wrist and bleeding all over the place.

Fang Min looked at Ah Long in horror, a stone, some twenty paces away, knocked the gun from his hand to the ground, was this still a human being?

Ah Long's performance was so powerful that he felt that once he was approached by him, he would be completely defeated.

Ah Long's face was expressionless as he caught up with him, as if he was an emotionless killer.

Ta-da Fang Min picked up his gun, operated the speedboat motor to start and tied up Auntie Yang to escape quickly.

After peacefully dodging a bullet, Qin Ming pressed Sun Changxi and said, "Sister Changxi, it's too dangerous, don't follow us, leave it to us."

Instead of listening, Sun Changxi pressed Qin Ming's shoulder and said, "Are you stupid? I'm much more professional than you, you stay here, I'll go."

Qin Ming said with a strong attitude, "I am a man, you are at least half a woman to me, listen to me. I promise to bring your mother back, alive."

When Sun Changxi heard this, she was inexplicably touched in her heart, but she knew very well that this was a matter of importance and relationship, and she said, "Don't you fool around, that night was an accident. And I'll have a bad conscience if something happens to you."

Da da da da Ah Long steered the second speedboat, looked at the distant Fang Min and said, "I say, if you guys don't come up, I won't be able to find the tracking target ah. With me around, you guys can just take care of watching the fun, what's the point of fighting?"

Qin Ming and Sun Changxi shut up at once, and the three of them immediately followed suit, chasing after them in the second speedboat.

The two speedboats, one chasing the other, ran along the river current and quickly towards the sea.

The more the crowd chased, the more they frowned, did the other side have support? Or did they run into the sea to die together?

Qin Ming spat out in bewilderment, "Sister Changxi, how come everyone who is involved with you is so crazy?"

Sun Changxi said breathlessly, "Yeah, you're scared?"

Chapter 530

The three of them were chased by the speedboat behind them all the way, because it was dark and it was dark when they chased out to sea, once they pulled away, they could not see each other's position at all.

Boom!

When he was about to catch up, Fang Min suddenly turned back and fired a shot.

Sun Changxi moved skillfully to press down Qin Ming's head, as if Qin Ming was the person she was on a mission to protect, tightly protecting.

Qin Ming was a little upset and said, "Sister Changxi, don't underestimate me, I'm not a pussy."

Sun Changxi didn't feel good, "Don't be too confident, bullets don't grow eyes, if anything happens to you Qin Ming, I'll be too sorry for you. You came here to help me, and I've got you involved instead."

Qin Ming's heart warmed as he listened to Sun Changxi's self-condemnation.

Sun Changxi looked ahead and said worriedly again, "What should we do? We can't catch up."

Ah Long said calmly, "Don't worry, he can't get away, the waves are quite strong tonight and he's not as good a driver as I am, I'll catch up after a while."

Qin Ming also said calmly, "Sister Changxi, don't worry, I've been watching the stars at night and I can tell by my fingers that he will be finished tonight."

Sun Changxi said, "Qin Ming, what time is it that you are still trying to make me happy? Do you think that if you dance with the Cao family, a powerful family in Guangzhou, you are really a god? That's a godly man."

Qin Ming smacked his lips and said with a smile, "Okay, I confess, the other party about in the shipyard I left an eye out that the kidnappers would flee out to sea, cooperate and have a pick-up person. So, I called other friends early to help. Now I should have come across them, hey, look ahead, that big yacht is it."

Sun Changxi followed Qin Ming's finger and indeed saw a four-storey high yacht with a yacht.

She immediately smiled at Qin Ming and gave him a thumbs up, saying, "Good for you, thoughtful and amazing, if my mum is saved, our family will owe you a huge favor."

Qin Ming took his mobile phone and said, "Bi Yuan, stop the speedboat directly in front of you, don't crash into it, there are hostages, pay attention to their safety."

Sun Changxi listened on the sidelines, did this look like a friend shouting for help? It was more like Qin Ming was giving orders.

Although she had doubts about Qin Ming's identity, she was desperate to save her family, so she didn't think too much about it.

Several small speedboats came down from the large yacht in front of them, forming a circle around Fang Min.

Fang Min was also desperate, thinking of escaping from the sea and going back around, but it turned out that Qin Ming was still able to make the big yacht move and surrounded him directly.

When he saw that there was no hope of escape, he turned his head and rammed into Qin Ming, meaning to die together.

The two speedboats were not too far away from each other, but Fang Min was madly jumping over and fired several shots, emptying the bullets and breaking the motor of the small speedboat.

Seeing that it was about to crash into him, Ah Long immediately shielded Qin Ming and shouted, "Jump."

Boom!

In the blink of an eye, the two speedboats collided directly with each other, and all five of them fell into the sea with the impact.

Qin Ming only felt that his five senses were turning over like a sea, the sky was spinning and he was choking on seawater at once.

The sea floor was so dark at night that it was as if he had fallen into an abyss, and Qin Ming could not see the direction or any person or object at all.

It took a while before Qin Ming's thoughts returned to his body. Although choking on the water made it very uncomfortable, in the nick of time, Qin Ming took out the Huawei thousand dollar phone in his pocket, although it was a thousand dollar phone, it was waterproof.

After some tossing and turning under the water, Qin Ming turned on the "torch" function, but it didn't help, he couldn't see anything.

However, with the faint light, Qin Ming noticed a figure behind him, so he reached out and grabbed it, but he found someone blindly.

Qin Ming grabbed his hand up and down and confirmed that it was a woman, because a part of her body was soft, and Qin Ming felt it in his heart.

Because there was no tying on the other person, it could not be Sun Changxi's mother.

Qin Ming tugged Sun Changxi a few times and found that she had fainted and a huge force was pulling her hand's downwards.

Qin Ming fumbled around and found that her arm was being held by a rope from the sinking speedboat, and Qin Ming was forced to follow it down.

In this situation, Qin Ming's mind was blank, he had no idea what to do, he just kept tugging at Sun Changxi to prevent her from sinking, the more anxious he was, the more he couldn't think of a way out.

If he hadn't started practising Tiger Dragon Mountain's Exhalation Martial Arts, his lung capacity would have increased greatly, and he wouldn't have been able to hold on.

But Qin Ming tugged and tugged, but luckily for him, he yanked off the lasso of the speedboat and Sun Changxi got free. He held Sun Changxi against the water pressure and floated all the way up to the surface following the light on the water.

At this point, above the water, Ah Long had already caught the instigator, Fang Min, and fished up Sun Changxi's mother. Bi Yuan and the other assassination squad were on the yacht driving high watt incandescent lights to illuminate the nearby waters, and a dozen people took turns going down to look for someone.

If something happened to Qin Ming, he couldn't afford to be responsible for it, so they were all anxious.

But after a while, Qin Ming came up on his own, holding Sun Changxi in his arms as he surfaced.

"Cough" Qin Ming was helped onto the yacht by his minions, and Sun Changxi breathed in the air, choking out a few mouthfuls of seawater in pain, muttering, "Qin Ming, you're okay, it's okay"

Sun Changxi sat up violently, saw Qin Ming who was looking at her from the side, and looked at her mother who had to be saved from unconsciousness.

Qin Ming grinned, "I'm not"

But Sun Changxi did not wait for Qin Ming to finish, a hug him, excitedly cried out: "You are okay, good, good, scared me to death."

Qin Ming was stunned, he didn't know why, seeing that the first thing Sun Changxi did when she woke up was to worry about his well-being, he was a little touched in his heart.

He gently stroked Sun Changxi's back and said, "I'm fine, it's fine. I told you, I was prepared for this, so many friends are here, isn't this all settled?"

"Oooh" Sun Changxi didn't say anything, she just hugged Qin Ming, hugged him tighter and whispered more gulps.

She whimpered in Qin Ming's ear, "It was too dangerous just now, if something were to happen to you, what would I do."

Qin Ming laughed and said, "I've told my fortune, I'll live a long life and be blessed with good fortune."

Ah Long and Bi Yuan and the other boys looked at him, "The young master has picked up another beautiful woman, right? They quickly slipped away, so as not to be a light bulb and make the young man unhappy.

After a while, Sun Changxi's emotions gradually calmed down.

Seeing no one around, she asked, "Where's my mother?"

Qin Ming said, "My friend said, your mother has woken up now, ate something, put an IV to sleep, wait for the second yacht to come over, send your mother back to the city hospital to recuperate."

Sun Changxi rushed to visit her mother again and was relieved to see that she was all right.

"Thank you Qin Ming, thanks to you this time." Sun Changxi said gratefully again, "This is entirely our family's business, yet you put yourself at risk."

Qin Ming said, "Sister Changxi, how can we say that we are also comrades in arms who have shared the hardships, there is no need to say such polite words. Maybe I will need your help in the future."

Sun Changxi patted Qin Ming and assured him, "I will go to you even if I have to go to the mountains of sword and the seas of fire."

Qin Ming looked at Sun Changxi with a smile, feeling that this promise carried quite a lot of weight, he asked curiously, "Sister Changxi, I found out that you are not an ordinary policewoman, what exactly are you?"

Sun Changxi similarly looked at Qin Ming and asked in return, "Qin Ming, I also found out that you are not an ordinary college student either, who are you really?"

Chapter 531

"Ahem" Faced with Sun Changxi's soul torture, Qin Ming cleared his throat and said, "Am I not Qin Ming? Who else could I be? If I had to add one more identity, I am the disciple of the Taoist heir of Tiger Dragon Mountain, Zhang Zhen Zhen, Master Qin. I've made a small name for myself in Guang City now."

Sun Changxi laughed, stretched out her long fingers to poke Qin Ming's shoulder and said, "Look at you, you're so deceitful. Pretending to be a godly man and deceiving Cao's family, you still think you're very powerful?"

Qin Ming laughed and asked, "What do you want to do with that Fang Min?"

Sun Changxi said, "Hand him over to the police of course, he's a wanted criminal on the No. 1 red head document, tsk, you've done me a great service again. Qin Ming, you're really my lucky star."

Qin Ming laughed, "Then how are you going to repay me?"

Sun Changxi suddenly blushed and bit her lip as she hummed, "How about giving you a monkey to repay you?"

Qin Ming was stunned and hurriedly said, "This, this gives birth to a monkey?"

Sun Changxi whirled around and laughed, "Hahahaha, what are you nervous about? I'm teasing you, look at your nervous look, just like a monkey."

Qin Ming secretly breathed a sigh of relief while also glaring at her speechlessly, which scared Qin Ming enough to think that Sun Changxi had implied that they were pregnant after having sex last time.

But since it was meant as a joke, Qin Ming was relieved.

Not long after, Bi Yuan sailed a second boat to send Fang Min and Auntie Yang back to Guang City first.

Seeing this, Qin Ming asked, "Are you going back too? Or should we rest here tonight, it's already twelve o'clock too, it will be very late to go back."

Sun Changxi hugged her legs and said, "Can I stay on this boat for the night? Qin Ming, you are really rich, a yacht of this class, you can't get off the sea without a few hundred million."

Qin Ming smiled, "It's not too bad."

Sun Changxi sighed and said gloomily, "Do you know? I'll be leaving Guangzhou City soon."

Qin Ming said, "Why? Didn't you just get promoted? You're only in your twenties, and you have a bright future. You are not the kind of person who has to struggle and work hard to prove yourself in order to resist your family's arrangement. And come to a strange place alone and fight from scratch?"

Sun Changxi said, "But my family all want me to go back, because our family has an enemy, the other party is very powerful and an outlaw, and now they are making a comeback, and my family is not at ease when I am out there alone. That Fang Min, as you have seen, was arranged by the enemy to come back. The original Fang Min, my grandfather's student, had a bright future, but unfortunately, he made a mistake and became a wanted criminal, and has been roaming around Southeast Asia, so if no one helps him, he won't be able to return."

"Fang Min doesn't say, the person behind the kidnapping of my mother this time, I actually know who did it, I can't just be away and let my family worry, at the same time I want to help my family solve this trouble, I have to go back too."

Qin Ming's heart twitched, he didn't expect that tonight would involve these family matters of Sun Changxi.

Her family's background was so complicated, so Qin Ming could not ask more questions.

Qin Ming said, "It doesn't matter, with your abilities, you'll be back in the capital city to work in the police force anyway. It doesn't matter where you are, it's all about catching thieves and serving the people."

Sun Changxi smiled bitterly and shook her head, "If I go back, I won't be so free, I won't be able to do what I want to do, and I won't be able to accomplish my ambitions."

Qin Ming said discontentedly, "This is the 21st century, but there are still such parents who control other people's freedom? Your parents are too much, you want to work and they won't let you go."

Sun Changxi said, "You don't understand, when you are in that capacity. Even if you don't want to, you still have to do it. There are some things that just need to be done by someone, and I happen to be that person."

"Eh." Qin Ming was impressed by this, since he had become the richest man in the world, he had indeed become "free", but he had also lost his "freedom", it was really the variety of life in different circumstances.

Qin Ming found that he and Sun Changxi were very much alike in one respect. Both of them longed for and pursued a kind of freedom, an unrestrained freedom to choose their own life, but they both had certain factors that affected them.

Qin Ming lamented, "I don't like a life of settling for less, that's a life of a loser. Even if it's not a good life, as long as it's not a life that you will live, it's a life that you live."

Sun Changxi pursed her lips, and a great resonance arose within her, she looked at Qin Ming with a smile, as if she had found a soulmate.

But she didn't seem to want to take up this deep topic, she added, "I'm going back to Beijing with my mother in a couple of days, and my mother is coming to Guangzhou personally. We may not see each other in the future."

Qin Ming muttered, "Not necessarily, there are many opportunities to meet in the future, I will be able to meet in the future when my business reaches the capital city."

Sun Changxi smiled and said, "You are putting me on hold pretending to be confused, how about you don't go back tonight either, stay with me for a chat and sit until dawn?"

Qin Ming was stunned and asked in confusion, "Do, until dawn? Here? That's too much, isn't it?"

He looked around the yacht, the sea was vast and dark, there was only a full moon overhead, and there were only a few servants inside the yacht, but they were all on standby in the cabin and would never come up to the top deck without orders.

He would have to stay here until dawn? Then he'd have to replenish his strength.

No, despite the gracious invitation of a great beauty like Sun Changxi, Qin Ming felt that a man had to guard his lower half.

Last time? The last time was an accident, the abstinence was too long, and the practice of kung fu "went off the rails", it was all Zhang Quanzhen's fault, we can't be blamed, right? Qin Ming thought with certainty in his heart.

Sun Changxi hugged her arms in discontent and said, "Tsk, we have lived and died together, I'm leaving Guangzhou, you can't even sit with me for one night? Actually, I want to watch the sunrise tomorrow, watching the sunrise in the ocean, blowing the sea breeze and chatting, it feels so romantic."

Qin Ming's legs were a bit weak, it was still seven to eight hours before sunrise.

How could he bear to do that for one night? The prostate was going to dry up.

Sun Changxi lowered her head shyly and murmured, "I don't have many friends in Guangcheng, you are the first one, I have a lot of things in my heart and want to talk to someone, but I don't have anyone to talk to. It's a pity that I met Miss Liao too late, otherwise I would have another good friend. Will you keep me company tonight?"

Qin Ming was hesitating as to whether to stay till dawn or not, when he was suddenly questioned by Sun Changxi if she would stay with her till dawn.

"Tch, this request" Qin Ming clenched his fist in pain and entanglement, because Sun Changxi would leave Guangcheng in two days and might really not see each other again in the future, it seemed that this kind of one-night relationship, occasionally for that matter, was not considered giving his feelings to other women, and he had not broken his promise.

Qin Ming asked sheepishly, "Do you really have to do it until dawn? Can't you do it until three or four?"

Sun Changxi said, "Three or four o'clock is no fun, you can't stand it? You're going to leave me alone to go to bed and let me sit here by myself until dawn?"

Qin Ming's eyes rolled up and his heart churned, he didn't expect the normally serious Sun Changxi to have such a side, to have a brainstorm and do it until sunrise? He really couldn't stand it.

After all, Qin Ming was still a man, and after being single for a long time, it was inevitable that his heart would go ape.

He was silent for a while and said, "Then you take a shower first, I'll make the arrangements."

Sun Changxi said, "Right oh, get some food, get some wine."

Qin Ming was speechless, don't actually want to get some condoms?

"Aiya, what should we do?" Qin Ming was so worried that he was holding onto the staircase railing of the yacht and walking with a little weakness in his legs.

Chapter 532

Inside the cabin, two top chefs are preparing various foods and a maid is on the cutlery.

Long in the cockpit was talking to his wife, swearing that he really had a mission tonight and really hadn't gone out to fool around.

Qin Ming looked at the crowd, in fact it was a bit hard to say, he had sent everyone away, wasn't it just a case of no silver bullet here and there? It is clear to tell his own boys, you young master I want to do tonight until dawn, you numbly go away.

Aigoo, Qin Ming was a bit thin-skinned.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

He gathered everyone together and said, "Ahem, I have important business to discuss with my guests tonight, you are not in a position to stay, so all of you should go back."

The workers didn't have any comments, but Ah Long's expression lit up, with a look of "Boss, you are really good".

Qin Ming gave Ah Long a speechless "get the hell out of here" look.

Before he left, Ah Long said, "I have a weapon in the yacht's study, and another box of sets for the young master to use in case of danger. According to the observatory's report, the waters around here will be calm tonight. I will also clear the nearby waters with Bi Yuan tonight and keep an eye on the yacht's positioning to ensure that no one disturbs your rest, Young Master."

Qin Ming said awkwardly, "Ahem, got it, Ah Long, you should go back early too. Save your wife from misunderstanding you."

Qin Ming chased away a group of his men and went up to the deck with some food and drinks.

He only saw that Sun Changxi had already finished her bath, wearing a white bathrobe and revealing a pair of long legs, sitting on a soft sofa on the deck of the yacht, blowing the sea breeze and gazing at the full moon in the night sky.

Out of guilt, Qin Ming still couldn't help but say, "Your mother seems to have woken up and asked where you were, do you want to go back and give her a look?"

Annoyed, Sun Changxi opened a bottle of wine and said, "As long as she's safe, I'm not going back tonight. My mum is the one who loves to control me, and she has always held me to her 'motherly standards' since I was little. I liked sports, she made me learn piano, I liked to play with guns, she made me play golf. I fled to Canton alone to join the workforce, half because my mother asked me to learn to cook, saying that a woman has to make good food to be a good wife, ah I was driven crazy."

".....," Qin Ming scratched his chin, he did not expect Sun Changxi used to live so depressingly.

"You drink with me and listen to me." Sun Changxi tossed the bottle she had finished drinking and grabbed the one Qin Ming was holding, pouring out while niking it, "Qin Ming, you don't know, my biggest wish before was that I was a child of an ordinary family. Not to have to think about my identity, to be able to do what I like to do without so much pressure."

"Oh" Qin Ming looked at Sun Changxi's lips touching the mouth of the bottle, that he had drunk, which indirectly kissed, and Sun Changxi didn't seem to take it seriously.

Sun Changxi took a big gulp of wine, the wine slid down the corner of her mouth, slid all the way across her neck, then went down her throat, and finally fell under her collarbone and disappeared along that career line.

"Ha~! Qin Ming, you drink too!" Sun Changxi said.

"Oh, oh, I'll drink, I'll drink." Qin Ming licked his lips and shook his head secretly, feeling that Sun Changxi had too much on her mind and had been suppressing it in her heart, with no one to talk to, so she came to him to talk about it.

"Could it be that he sat until dawn, instead of making it to dawn?" Qin Ming couldn't help but mutter in his heart.

Reasonably speaking, if it was until dawn, shouldn't Sun Changxi take the initiative? And at the surface of all the signs right now, it seemed to be just a misunderstanding.

The two of them relaxed and chatted on the sofa on the deck.

As they chatted, Qin Ming got a general idea of Sun Changxi's family background and what had been bothering her.

Although the Sun family was not a wealthy and powerful family in Beijing, the elder Sun was an important national cadre who had been a local hand and had also made outstanding contributions to the country's economic development, and was a well-known veteran leader in China, while Sun Changxi's father was now a national vice-ministerial-level leader as well.

This is indeed a very status family, and money is a very difficult existence to measure.

Therefore, the family also had high expectations of Sun Changxi, hoping that she would marry well, to a prestigious family of the right family.

But Sun Changxi is not interested in this, being the wife of a future state dignitary? She only wants to fulfil her own goals and aspirations in life, which is why she keeps avoiding her family's arrangements.

The more the Sun family pushed, the more Sun Changxi fled, until now when her mother moved to come to her, informing her that an enemy of the Sun family from long ago wanted revenge and asked her to return.

After three rounds of wine, Sun Changxi burped and reached out to hook Qin Ming, saying, "Do you know, Qin Ming? When was the most satisfying time for me? It was the first case I solved, it was a murder case that had been deposited for more than ten years, when I caught the murderer and the family of the deceased thanked me, I felt that I was born to do this in my life."

"But the family, they all felt, I shouldn't do this, said it was dangerous, we felt these had grassroots cadres doing well, I was the apple of their eye, to be treated differently."

"What's so different about that? I do not also have two eyes and two legs? I think I'm just an ordinary person, I want to do what I want to do, protect the common people, isn't that also a very noble cause?"

"But they don't understand me. Now my father's former enemies have come back to take revenge on our Sun family, and it seems my uncle has been hospitalised with a bomb injury. Tonight my mother was kidnapped again, so I can't go back without it."

Qin Ming clinked his glass with her and said, "All right, stop it, drink. If you get drunk, you won't remember anything."

Sun Changxi giggled, "Humph, humph, it's still you, helping me catch thieves all the time."

Qin Ming smiled sarcastically, "That's right, I'll always support you. I'm your little fanboy, Officer Sun."

Sun Changxi smiled sweetly and beautifully as she reached out to touch Qin Ming's face and said, "You are my blue friend."

"Gulp, gulp~!" Sun Changxi poured herself another mouthful of wine, seemingly washing away all her sorrows with wine, as she said, "After tonight, I will have to give up my past self."

After saying this Sun Changxi looked a little overwhelmed with wine and fell head first against Qin Ming's shoulder.

She slowly reached out and hooked her arm around Qin Ming's shoulder again and said in a daze, "You say, what's the point of living if you can't be free in life? Even if there is no compulsion for me, but I am my parents' daughter, I can't be selfish and leave them behind, I have to give up my ideals for the sake of my family."

Qin Ming swallowed hard and looked down to see a patch of snow-white skin, his brain was completely deaf to Sun Changxi's complaints.

The thin bathrobe Sun Changxi was wearing had an open collar, and the hidden skin inside was full of deadly temptation.

Suddenly, Sun Changxi reached out and pulled the dress to cover it up then narrowed her eyes and looked at Qin Ming meaningfully, like she was angry, like she was shy, and more like a kind of tenderness.

Qin Ming was embarrassed to be caught peeping, he hurriedly shifted his eyes and looked at the bright moon overhead and said, "Sister Changxi, look, the moonlight is good hmhhh?"

Before the words left his mouth, Sun Changxi suddenly overwhelmed Qin Ming and kissed him with a mouthful.
