Fated To The Alpha Series chapter 267

The lights flickered

A few times before the generator kicked in , and they remained on . Both Jonah's and Kyan's phones start ringing loudly . Kyan snatches his phone off the bedside table and glances at it before chucking it to Jonah .

" Floor Manager , " Kyan says as Jonah catches it before he picks up his own phone that was on charge . " And I get security , " Jonah says before answering it . He rejects the call on Kyan's phone before walking over to the closet and pulling a shirt on .

He talked to whoever was on the phone to him before hanging up and coming out of the closet dressed in black slacks and a button – up shirt . " I'll handle this . Will you be right alone with Mara ? " Jonah says , eyeing me worriedly .

Kyan nods and waves him off before Jonah leaves the room and the apartment . Kyan watched him go before turning back to face me . " You had the visions ? " Kyan asks , biting the corner of his lip , tilting his head to the side , and watching me worriedly .

" I need to speak to Kaif , " I told him , and his brows furrowed in confusion . " I need to speak to him alone , Kyan . I don't want you listening in , " I tell him . " You're not going to reject him , are you ? " Kyan says , his voice trembling .

" What ? No , of course not . Please , I just need to ask him something ? " I tell him , reaching for his hands . I squeeze them gently . " I'm not going anywhere . I saw what Kaif did , but I know he had his reasons .

Kaif . did nothing I wouldn't have done if our roles were reversed , " I reassure him . Kyan's anxiety through the bond was loud and clear ; he feared why I wanted to speak to Kaif , yet also scared Kaif would do something to me now that the darkness had been awoken and given to me . But darkness was a part of me . I was born with it .

It couldn't taint what was already stained and made of darkness . " I can handle Kaif Kyan ; I am not worried about Kaif hurting me . Besides , I will just kick his ass with your father's magic , " I chuckle . Kyan seems to think for a second ; he rubs a hand over his face before nodding and standing up . " And you're not leaving me ?

" Kyan asks . " I swear on the Moon Goddess , " I tell him , and he laughs . " Just try to be quick ; I don't enjoy being in the dark with him , " Kyan tells me before leaning down and gripping my face in his hands ; he kisses me softly .

I answered his kiss instantly , knowing he needed me to , still disbelieving of my intentions with Kaif . He lets me go and stands up . " I want Kaif in his form , " I tell him . " You want me to shift completely ? " Kyan said .

He was a little taken aback . But I knew Kyan could press forward and rein back control in human form . Kaif's form not so much , and I knew Kaif could block him out entirely in that form .

" I will be quick , then I will make him give you control back , " he sighs and reluctantly shifts . I watch as his clothes shred , his skin turning to fur . His bones cracked and elongated until his head was scraping the low roof . He tilts his head , looking down at me .

" Couldn't have picked the living room ? " He says , knocking on the roof with his fist before lowering himself to the ground and sitting with his knees bent . " Sorry , I forgot you're nearly 8 feet tall , " I chuckle . " 7.9 , " Kaif says , leaning back against the bathroom door frame where the wall was strongest .

Kaif watches me , his eyes calculating , like a predator watching its prey , looking for some weakness , some fault . " Are you looking to see if what I saw changed me ? " I ask him , and he nods , looking away guiltily .

" I am not like the rest of them ; I'm aware of your reasons , Kaif ; You don't scare me , and I'm not scared of our future , so you shouldn't be either . " I tell him . " It always repeats , Love . Forgive me if I am a little skeptical , " Kaif says , and I bite the inside of my lip . " We haven't had a baby yet . I'm not looking to be a kiddie killer anytime soon , " I tell him , and his eyes darken , his thoughts turn clouded , and he stares at the floor for a few seconds .

" But the ghosts of my past know you are different . They could try other ways , but I don't believe you would let them win . " " Then why are you worried ? " " I guess I'm worried you would hate me , especially for the last few , " Kaif says . " Because you never even marked them ? You killed them without even trying to break the curse .

Because they weren't tainted yet ? " I ask him , and he nods . " It still would have been the same with them ; I just eliminated the threat before it became one , " he says , his eyes flicking to me again .

The look he gave me made me swallow , and I could feel my heart beating faster at his words before I regained myself . " I have a few theories after everything I have witnessed or envisioned . I picked up a few things , but first , I want to ask you a question ? " " I'm all ears , " he says , wiggling his ears on top of his head . I laughed and shook my head at him . " Kyan can't overhear us , " I ask him , and he nods .

" He can't hear anything , but I am curious why you don't want him to hear what you wanted to talk to me about . " " I don't want to get his hopes up , and until I know for sure it needs to remain between us , not even Jonah is to know . So promise me you will say nothing about it to either of them .

Kyan has enough heartache . I don't want him to suffer anymore ; I think we have all suffered enough , don't you think ? " Kaif sighs and nods . Kora presses forward , getting a feeling for what I wanted to ask him , and I feel the recognition hit her and her reservations about it . " Are you sure ? " she asked me . " I am pretty certain . I am just not a witch , so I don't know if it is possible , " I tell her . " And the other thing ? " she asks . " It's worth a shot . Something tells me not to ignore my intuition about that one .

" I tell her . " Yeah , I got the same feeling the moment you thought it , " Kora agrees . She remained forward to listen , but she was also reeling with this odd sense of clarity we both now shared . " Dominic told me my magic anchored him . That's how I have a connection to him because he gave me his magic , anchoring him to me , " I tell Kaif , who seems to think my words over .

" Is it possible that he isn't dead ? " I asked . " He is dead , Love ; I watched him be buried , " Kaif says . I sigh , trying to figure out what I am asking . " Okay , give me a second , " I tell him , rubbing my temples and remembering what Dominic has told me .

I blow out a breath when a thought occurs to me , making me look back at him . Lycan's need vessels right to come back ? " Kaif nods his head . " Yes , but not just any vessel .

We can't last in a human body . If that makes sense , only a werewolf's body is strong enough , human Lycan hybrid ? " Kaif tells me . " Is that possible for witches ? " I ask him , and he seems to think . " Depends , " he says , and I could tell he was really thinking hard on that one .

" Why ? " he eventually asks . " I don't think Dominic is dead . He keeps saying to break the curse and set him free . The last visions , your past visions , he walked through them with me . He said the same thing he always says , but to get him Celeste's grimoires , he would take care of the rest , " I tell Kaif and he whispers something under his breath .

" But how would he return if his body was dead ? " I ask Kaif . " Easy a Preservation spell . Witches used to do them to remain young , which would be easy without a consciousness . Witch power deteriorates the body and the waking mind faster than humans , " Kaif says . " So it is possible to preserve a body , but how long for ? I'm not sure exactly .

" Kaif adds , then shrugs . " The longest I have seen someone leave their body for was Celeste when she was first forced into the Moon Goddess realm . Her body physically stayed in this realm . It took years before she could break the barrier on the Moon Goddess realm to force it open so she could portal between , but at first , we had guardians that protected her body until she returned to it .

" Kaif tells me . His brows furrow and he growls . " That's where I got the spell to make Jonah my guardian , a blood tie , we couldn't trust just anyone to guard her body , they could have destroyed it so she blood tied them to her , if they killed her body it would kill them , " Kaif explains scratching his chin .

" Dominic said he is my guardian in a sense , that he anchored himself to me with his magic , " " I " Yes , because a witch isn't truly gone if their magic has been set free ... That's why witches can channel power , the essence of their magic remains long after the body is dead , however , they are dead just their magic lives on not the person ,

" Kaif says and he sits up straighter . " What about their life force ? Can that be preserved ? " " I suppose , in theory , but they would need a lot of magic to do that . No one could harness that sort of power alone . It would need a strong- " Kaif pauses and looks at me . " It would need a strong anchor and an infinite power supply ,

" Kaif explains and I could tell he was trying to put this puzzle together as well so it made sense . " So it is possible . It would also explain why he said he wasn't really dead , not here , but not part of the shadow realm .

When I ... " I look at Kaif , who growls . " When I killed myself , I could feel I was dead , but something was holding me still , " I admit . " Yes , we were trying to revive you , " Kaif answers with a growl . " In the shadow realm , I flickered , while the rest of those trapped were ghostly transparent figures . Dominic was the same as me ; we both looked different from the rest of them . Now Dominic said he gave me the shadows and his magic . What if I am the vessel just like Kyan is yours , except instead of a vessel for a Lycan ? I am the vessel for his magic which anchored him to me ? "

" You think he is alive ? " " Is it possible ? " I ask . " Well , yes , but he has no physical body to return to unless he preserved it , and I am not sure a body can be preserved for that long , Marabella .

Then there is also the question of where he would get a power source from that could tether his life force to it ? " " But is it possible ? " " Well , yes , but unlikely , " " Is there any way to know for sure ?

" " Yeah , dig up his body ... wait ... His coffin was spelled shut . We tried to get into it years ago but couldn't . " " What do you mean ? " " The talisman . Kyan dropped it in there when he was a boy .

We tried to get it back ; the talisman in the past has also been used to keep me in line . It can drain me of energy and keep me weak when worn . We thought the talisman spelled it shut , but what if we were wrong ? " Kaif murmurs .

" How so ? "

" We couldn't open it . Usually , only the person who locked it can open it when something is sealed . We couldn't and thought the talisman locked it . But what if it didn't ? " Kaif says , looking at me .

I smiled , figuring out what he was getting a " I have Dominic's magic , " I smile . " You can open it , but that means Dominic had to have spelled it shut before he died , meaning had to have known Kyan would chuck the Talisman in there , " Kaif seemed thoughtful .

" What if the talisman was the key to locking it , like I don't know a timer , waiting for it to be in there with him to seal it ? " I asked him . " That is possible , but we have no idea how he sealed it . Did he tell you the spell ?

" " Wait , you said you thought the Talisman sealed it , meaning it has power that could be channeled ? When Dominic died , where was the talisman ? Could that be enough power to preserve his life force ? " I asked .

" Kyan was wearing it , his father put it on him .... that morning , " Kaif whispers the last part . " Then you have a power source and the tether , " I tell him . " That bloody prick , I bet he is real smug a t pulling that over me , " Kaif laughs . " But we still have no idea what spell he used to seal it , so if he didn't tell you , we may struggle to open it ? " " No , we don't have the spell , but I have a link to him . Just gotta pull him forward , I guess ? "

" But I need that talisman ; it is out of the dagger , isn't it ? " Kaif nods . " And I need that stone and Celeste's grimoires , " Kaif laughs . " Grimoires , I wouldn't know the first place to look for those . Celeste kept them hidden even from the coven , " Kaif laughs . " Moon Goddess realm ? " Kora says , and I had a feeling she was right , only I can't enter the moon goddess realm long enough to look for them .

" But Eziah can o r m um , " Kora says . " Grimoires , I think I know where I can find them , but I need that stone . Dominic keeps saying I need the stones , so I need the one my brother had and the one Kyan tossed in with his father .

" This is why you didn't want Kyan to know , isn't it ? You didn't want to disappoint him if it was all for nothing ? " I nodded . " Okay , but how does this help with the curse ? " Kaif asks . " We have to break the stones , " " I tell him .

" Impossible , nothing will break those stones ; they are indestructible . Believe m e , we have tried for centuries to break that damn talisman , " " Yes , but did you have both of them ? " I ask him , and he seems to think . " Balance , " He whispers . " Everything has a balance , but I don't think that is all there is to the curse , " " No , the stones are only part of it . " Kaif growls .

" Hades cursed you to find your redemption , right ? " " Yes , but Dominic told Kyan I had to forgive myself , which I don't have any reason to hate myself in my opinion that requires forgiving myself for , " Kaif snarled . " What if it wasn't forgiveness or redemption , which leads to the other thing I noticed that I wanted to tell you about ? I wanted to try anyway .

" His claws scratch over the carpet , slicing it as his eyes flickered dangerously . I could feel he was slightly untrusting of my intentions so I explained . " As you said , balance , " I tell him , getting t o my feet . I walk over to him , and he looks up at me when I stop in front of him . " What do you mean ? " he asks , looking confused .

" One thing I noticed in all your past lives , your vessel was never marked ; I marked Kyan . However , they always went crazy before you let them mark your vessel , " " No one did mark my vessel , but she still went mad , " Kaif corrected me . " Okay , " I told him before climbing into his lap . He puts his legs down , and I straddle him . " But did any of them mark you ? " I ask him .

" Why would they mark me ? They mark the human side ; that's what the Lycan's are bound to , ' " " " Yes , but maybe that's where they went wrong ; the others always got Luna's version of events , the anger , the hatred ; they never got yours ; I did because Dominic gave me the shadows . I knew the history behind your actions . But what if the key to that was not you marking them or your vessel ?

You give them your biggest regrets when you mark them . What if they mark you ? What if it gave them Luna's ? " I tell him . " You think if they marked me , they would know why I killed them ? " he asked .

" I don't think your curse had anything to do with your redemption ; I think it had to do with your rejection ; you don't need redemption Kaif , you need acceptance , " I tell him , letting my canines elongate . Kaif cups my face with his huge hand , his thumb brushing over the sharp points of my teeth . " You want to mark me ? " Kaif asks . (Dear Readers Latest Chapters Uploaded Everyday on ) " Yes , because to accept Kyan , I must accept you , and I do accept you , Kaif . I don't hate you for what you did , and I certainly don't believe you are the monster all your other mates thought you were . So yes , I want to mark you , but then I want you to mark me too , " I tell him . If the first part didn't shock him , the last part did because he pulled his face back to stare at me .

His eyes go to the wound he caused the last time he marked me , my skin destroyed and scarred , yet it was his mark , and I loved it anyway , but since the rejection , one thing I had noticed is that it constantly itched , and now I think I know why . Deciding not to give him a chance to fight me on it , Kora shoved forward at blinding speed and I gripped the back of his neck and yanked him to the side before sinking my teeth into his neck . I felt the electricity zapping through me .

A power surge was s o strong it made my entire body heat up like it was being recharged , like a high frequency buzz . My hair stood on end like static . Kaif clutched me to him , his arms wrapping around me firmly .

The darkest parts of him were bleeding into me along with his power , and when I felt the bond slam into me , it was heartbreaking . I could literally feel his soul healing , only now realizing how broken he truly was inside living with ghosts of his past , the demons that haunted him .

It was like all the bad parts left and bled out of him . And when the last remnants left everything shattered , the power surge so strong everything started exploding and I felt him move as the windows burst , shielding me with his body , car alarms blared loudly and the entire building started shaking . I gasped at the power that flooded into me and my teeth pulled from his neck .

The room was in darkness again and Kaif stared down at me before wiping my lips that were stained with his blood with his hand . He looks around and I could feel the cold draft coming from the burst windows ; the curtains flapping in the breeze , and alarms and sirens could be heard outside .

" Would you blame me if I said I am a little hesitant to mark you after that ? " he chuckles , looking around the room before looking back at me . He licks my cheek and I offer him my neck , tugging the neck of my shirt to the side for him . I felt his tongue roll over the spot . " Hopefully we don't bring the place down around us , " He murmurs . " You didn't last time , " I tell him .

" No , I just nearly killed you , which isn't much better , " Kaif says . Yet I knew what he meant , everything was always done in the wrong order , he claimed when he needed to be claimed himself .

" Well , let's bring the building down , " I laugh . " Kyan would kill me , " he chuckles . " Good thing you're indestructible then , " " I tell him offering him my neck again . He hesitated for a second before sinking his teeth into my neck over Jonah's and Kyan's marks .

The moment he did I gasped . His teeth sliced through my flesh and went straight into bone , though I was given something else instead of nearly dying or a power surge . Given a glimpse of who Kaif was before he was made a Lycan . Given a glimpse of his humanity before it was taken from him .

Kyan was the reincarnation of his true self , strong and dominant protector . Power oozed from him . Even then , he was a gentle giant of man before becoming a savage beast when he was just a man , and a warlock .

No power was given . Instead , he gave me something far better . He gave me himself . His entire life flashed before my eyes . Every thought , every memory , everything that made him , he gave to me and no one's soul was as beautifully dark as his . He truly was magnificent , but one thing remained even after his humanity was long gone .

He protected those he loved , even if it meant killing pieces of himself to do it . Tears pricked my eyes at the relief as he let go of the hurt and anguish he carried for all those years before he pulled his teeth from my neck .

" Thank you , " Kaif whispered . Before I could say anything , he shifted and Kyan was suddenly hovering above me . Kyan looks around startled and I could feel Kaif just as clearly as I could feel Kyan and Jonah . " You broke him , " Kyan said , feeling sad for Kaif , but I shook my head and Kyan looked down at me . " No , I set him free , " I tell him . I could feel the wholeness settling through Kaif and I could tell what Kaif was feeling felt foreign to Kyan .

Kyan's eyes go to my neck where Kaif marked me . He brushed his fingers over the mark and it tingled . " You set him free , " he whispered . " I will admit though , that I broke your casino and I am pretty sure the entire main street , " I tell him .

He looks around the room . " You definitely did that , " he said , shocked . I chuckled before pressing my lips into a line . " You think this funny ? " Kyan chuckled . " Just a little , " I tell him .

" I should punish you , the cleanup will be horrendous , " He laughed . " You could try , but I am pretty sure I overpower you now ?

" I tell him . " Is that right ? " he says , leaning down . " I can think of a few other ways to punish you , " he growled , nipping at my lips before kissing me . I wrap my legs around his waist , tugging him flush against me . " Punish away then , Sir , " I giggle . " Sir ? "

" I ain't calling you daddy ? " I laugh . " Ah , sir , it is then , " Kyan laughs before kissing me and forcing his tongue between my lips.
