

G DOCTOR 2750

Chapter 2750: A Crushing Blow

More than a dozen cold sword intents were woven together into a massive net that enveloped Feng Jiu. The powerful sword intents began to roar and their vital energy blades slashed across the air, instantly chopping down the trees that were surrounding her. The branches and leaves of the trees within 50 metres were fluttering in the air, and the lush forest looked like it was levelled in an instant.

The luxuriant trees fell to one side, exposing the azure sky and the rising sun. When the sun's rays were refracted by the cold light of the sword, it became even more difficult to see the light radiating from the interwoven sword.

But, the powerful sword net, where a dozen or so sharp swords were aimed at the red-clad Feng Jiu and emitting great pressures surrounding her, spirit energy breath emanated from her body, encircling her like a vortex and blocking the sword intents so they couldn't hurt her at all.

In the midst of the airflow, the red dress emitted a whirling sound and her black hair flew through the air. She raised the long sword she was holding in her hand. The powerful airflow erupted from the Blue Edge Sword like a violent wave churning the sea; then, after uttering a chilling cry, she slashed the sword downward, breaking the intertwined sword net.

"Hiss!"

"Bang!"

The fierce air burst forth like a soaring dragon, turning the encircling sword intent upside down and scattering around her. The slash of the sword released the momentum of the strong exponent on her body.

It was no longer the pressure and breath of the Immortal Emperor, but the pressure and momentum of those who were at the Deity level. More than a dozen cultivators felt as if Mount Tai was pressing them as soon as this pressure and momentum erupted. They were knocked to the ground with a deafening bang, and unable to get to their feet.

"Hiss!"

"Aah!"

At this moment, cries of agony and bloodcurdling screams were heard. More than a dozen cultivators clung to the ground as if attracted by a powerful magnet, preventing their bodies from leaving the ground. It would have been fine if only that happened, but it was accompanied by a powerful pressure, like a mountain pressing down on them, crushing every part of their bodies and causing them to scream incessantly.

...

"Pfft!"

Some of them, who were unable to bear it any longer, spat out mouthfuls of blood. Their internal organs seemed to have been crushed. The blood and vital energy in their bodies were boiling, but they couldn't break free from the mighty pressure and breath.

They looked at Feng Jiu with astonishment and shock in their eyes. They couldn't believe it if they hadn't seen it with their own eyes that Feng Jiu, who some time ago had been promoted to the level of Immortal Emperor was already at the Celestial level!

This level of strength was sufficient to make them look up. With a glance, that pressure was enough to crush them and condemn them to eternal damnation!

If they had known that she already possessed such strength, they would not have dared to ambush her in this manner, even if they had brought twice as many reinforcements.

It was a contrast to their surprise and shock. Feng Jiu ambled ahead indifferently, stopped in front of the two Immortal Venerable Strong Exponents, and watched as they were subdued by the powerful pressure and breath. She spoke, with her eyes narrowed, "You've been following me the entire time. I'm curious, where did you come from?"

Those cultivators gritted their teeth. "Just kill us if that's what you want to do. Don't expect to get the news you want from us!"
