

G DOCTOR 2751

Chapter 2751: Which Path Should I Go On?

“Is that so?”

Feng Jiu’s lips curled into a smile, and she crouched down suddenly. Her fingers moved slightly, and a silver needle shone coldly in the sunlight. Everyone was chilled to the bone.

“What are you going to do?”

The cultivator shouted when he saw that the situation was getting from bad to worse. As he gritted his teeth, he thought about escaping with his soul. But who would have known that when the silver needle fell on him, that the spirit energy on his body would disappear in an instant. His whole body softened and the breath of his spirit energy also vanished.

After the silver needle had fallen, Feng Jiu didn’t rush to question him, but looked at the other cultivators.

The hairs of the other cultivators stood up immediately when her gaze swept over them. The killing intent in her eyes was so clear that it made everyone feel like they were in extreme danger.

“You have all taken the poison?” Feng Jiu said slowly, with a bit of indifference in her voice: “So you’ve decided to sacrifice your lives for your Master? He can’t be a good Master if he can poison you.”

When they heard her words, the other cultivators’ eyes flickered slightly. They didn’t say anything, but they were shocked when they heard what she said next.

“What if I tell you that I can detoxify the poison in your body? Will you still be loyal to your Master?” She asked in a soft tone.

Feng Jiu looked at their shocked and disbelieving gazes: “You don’t have to doubt my ability, you should know that I am the Ghost Doctor. As long as I am willing, there is no poison in this world that I cannot detoxify.”

There was no doubt that her words did move their hearts slightly, if they could...

As soon as this thought came to their minds, the clouds rolled in the sky and thunder struck down one after another. For a time, screams spread through the forest, and the smell of burning filled the breeze.

This scene caused Feng Jiu, who was retreating, to frown slightly: “Heavenly execution?” She looked at the dozens of charred corpses and whispered suddenly: “So I see.”

Even if those people were controlled by the poison, they had also made a heavenly oath. Once the thought of betrayal entered their minds, the heavenly execution would kill them.

She had been cultivating for such a long time, but this was the first time she had witnessed the heavenly execution from the betrayal of the heavenly oath. No wonder, no wonder when some people pledged their allegiance, they wanted them to make the heavenly oath.

Such an oath, it didn't matter where they were, as long as they had any thought of betrayal, even if their Master didn't kill them, they would not be able to escape death.

"It seems that if I want to get any information out of these people, I will have to find another way." She murmured softly and felt a little sorry for them.

It wasn't easy to lead those people to target her and keep the danger away from her family and friends. If she were to return now, she was afraid that those people would seek her out again and thus implicate them.

When she thought of this, she couldn't help but sigh. She stepped forward and picked up the space rings of those people and walked away.

As she walked through the forest, she couldn't help but think, it's been a while since her elder brother had taken Feng Ye and the others back, so they should be home soon? She wondered how happy her Grandfather and the others would be when they saw Feng Ye coming home.

When she thought of this, she couldn't help but pursed her lips and smiled. There was nothing like a family reunion. She thought that her family would be very happy, but unfortunately, she was unable to return. Otherwise, she would have loved to share in their joy.

She stopped for a rest every so often as she walked through the forest, and it took her ten days or so to get out of the forest. When she came out of the forest, she looked at the road ahead and didn't know where she should go.

Chapter 2752: Return Quietly

She stood still and thought carefully. As she looked at the unfamiliar place around her, a place without her family and friends, she felt the sudden urge to return to their side.

After standing still for a long time, she took out the teleportation device from space. There was no record of Penglai Immortal Island on the teleportation device that she had fooled and obtained from the old man. That was why she was unable to use the teleportation device to come here from Hundred Rivers City. However, she could use the teleportation device to return to Hundred Rivers City.

She lowered her head and raised her hand. She looked at her conspicuous red clothes on her body and thought to herself: Even if she did go back, she couldn't go back in such a conspicuous manner. So, she went into space and changed her appearance and attire from top to toe.

In space, she wore a tattered beggar's clothing, and her face had been disguised to make herself look ordinary and inconspicuous. Her whole body looked dirty and there were a few small holes under the soles of her shoes exposing two little toes.

She looked at her outfit and smiled inexplicably. Back then, it was this disguise that had caught the eye of Mo Ze. She had also used this disguise to move about quite often. Now, she felt that this disguise was the most inconspicuous and most suitable for her to move around in.

However, if she left like this, those people would no doubt go there to look for her again. She had to find a way to blur their vision.

Therefore, she thought of puppets.

She walked to the corner where a wooden box was placed and found a book on the art of puppets. She sat down on her knees and perused the book earnestly, learning the art of puppets from the book...

Three days later

She tied up ten scarecrows and wrapped a piece of her hair around each scarecrow and injected a strand of spirit intent into each of them.

“Phantom take shape, change!”

With the sound of her clear shout, she saw a flash of light on one of the scarecrows. Next, a young man in red robes who looked exactly like her appeared in front of her and blinked, watching her

She couldn't help but was stunned for a while at the first time she saw herself transformed by the puppet technique. It felt very similar to her, and she was afraid that even Mo Ze and the others wouldn't recognise this was a puppet, an illusion.

“Say something.” Feng Jiu smiled and said to the person in front of her.

“What do you want me to say? Is it interesting to talk to yourself?” The red-clothed puppet rebutted Feng Jiu, almost instinctively.

Feng Jiu was stunned for a moment, then she chuckled softly: “It's fine. This is good, just like that.” With these puppets transformed from her original shape, those people would think that she was still here on Penglai Immortal Island. She could do whatever she wanted.

So, she set up all her puppets, and because her hair and spirit intent was on all their bodies, she was able to control their actions and words, and deeds. After she had finished arranging everything, she took out her teleportation device and thought silently about a forest outside of Hundred Rivers City.

With the thought in her mind, the light flashed and her whole body disappeared from the spot...

In the afternoon, there was a slight breeze blowing through the woods. As she walked through the woods, there was a little less heat and a little cooler because the trees covered her overhead.

The breeze blew, and the birds chirped. It seemed quiet and comfortable.

Feng Jiu, dressed as a beggar, picked up a twig from the forest, and a large bowl that was missing a section from somewhere, and walked leisurely into the city...

Chapter 2753: Jealous

After she entered the city gate, Feng Jiu thought: I wonder what they are doing now? Is Mo Ze in the Manor? Or is he at the Tower? Would he be surprised to see her all of a sudden?

No, in her current disguise, it was not easy for any of them to recognise her.

However, just as she walked in the direction of Heavenly Pill Tower, she saw a familiar figure unexpectedly.

Gray Wolf? What was he doing here?

Her footsteps paused and she looked at Gray Wolf, who came out with a few boxes after he had entered the pastry shop. She was slightly surprised and thought to herself: Could it be that Mo Ze wanted to eat pastries?

She thought about it and found it unlikely. Mo Ze didn't like sweet things very much, at the very most, he would eat one or two pieces occasionally, and not a few boxes.

So, she followed him unhurriedly, thinking that Gray Wolf would return to Heavenly Pill Tower or the Manor. But she didn't expect to see Gray Wolf entering a restaurant.

She was slightly stunned, and walked to a corner across from the restaurant diagonally and sat down. She looked towards the second floor of the restaurant at the same time and saw two people sitting on the second floor. When she saw those two people, she couldn't help but be startled, and didn't know what to think of it for a while.

There were two people who were sitting by the window, one of whom was dressed in luxurious low-key black robes, who no doubt was Xuanyuan Mo Ze. Opposite him was a woman dressed in white. She stared blankly at the woman in white, she was extremely beautiful and the breath around her body was soft and elegant.

The woman was saying something with a faint smile on her face as her eyes stared at Xuanyuan Mo Ze, who was in front of her, while Xuanyuan Mo Ze nodded occasionally. He didn't seem to say much, and only sipped his wine.

When she saw the two of them sitting there chatting and eating, she lowered her head involuntarily. She looked at the beggar's clothes on her body and couldn't help but smile wryly.

She really knew how to pick her clothes, she had picked the dirtiest and most worn set of clothes. In normal circumstances, when you return to surprise your loved one, you should show your most beautiful side, but she has made herself look dirty and ugly. If Mo Ze was alone, it would have been fine, but the woman in white had appeared out of nowhere and any notion of her stepping forward had disappeared.

Knowing the depth of Mo Ze's affection for her, she wasn't worried that he would fall in love with other women. However, seeing him sitting and talking to another woman upon her return made her feel uncomfortable.

Well, she was jealous. Although this feeling of jealousy was inexplicable, she still felt jealous.

She wished that there were no other women besides her by his side. In her opinion, a man shouldn't have too many confidantes. Love will come in time, even if he didn't have the intention, but he was so appealing, who knew if his confidantes would be interested in him or not?

Though when she thought about it, she felt that she was overthinking things.

She didn't have many female friends by her side, whether they were subordinates or friends, they were mostly men. She had never deliberately kept her distance from them, and when Mo Ze wasn't around, she would drink with the people who followed her and chat till dawn.

There were many admirers by her side, but Mo Ze had never expressed displeasure or dislike, nor had he ever said a word to her, he only got jealous occasionally. Now that she thought about it, her thoughts were quite inappropriate.

Chapter 2754: Staring At Each Other

At this time upstairs, Gray Wolf placed the few boxes of pastries on the table and said with a smile: "Young Miss Yun, this is from the best pastry shop in the city. When the Ghost Doctor is here, she likes to eat the pastries from this shop with her family. Try some."

Mo Ze, who was drinking, paused for a moment when he heard the Ghost Doctor being mentioned by Gray Wolf, and he glanced at the pastries. Yes, Ah Jiu loved to eat the pastries from this shop. He wondered how she was doing over there.

She said that she would send some news back to him to let him know that she was safe after she left. But she seemed to have disappeared after she left, and there was no news of her at all.

Mo Ze's absent-mindedness caught the attention of the woman in white. The eyes of the beautiful woman looked at Mo Ze with a smile, then she opened the box of pastries and picked one up to eat. The cake melted in her mouth with a hint of coldness, she smiled slightly and

"It's mung bean flavour. There seems to be some mint in it as it has a cooling taste, and is very suitable for eating in hot weather."

The woman in white said warmly and tasted another flavour, then she said to Gray Wolf: "Gray Wolf, these are for you to eat, I will take the other boxes home and give them to Leng Shuang and the others to eat when I go back." She handed him the open box of pastries.

"This..." Gray Wolf looked at his Master, and when he didn't speak, he took the box and said: "Thank you Young Miss Yun."

"I should be thanking you." The woman in white said with a smile. She looked at Xuanyuan Mo Ze and said: "Senior Brother, let's go back! I am afraid of delaying our business if we are out too long."

Xuanyuan Mo Ze nodded and stood up. When he inadvertently looked at the street downstairs, a figure made him inexplicably unable to take his eyes away.

The woman in white and Gray Wolf followed his gaze and saw a little beggar sitting diagonally across the restaurant. The woman in white didn't understand why, so she asked: "Senior Brother, what's the matter?"

Gray Wolf knew what was going on at a glance. His Master missed the Ghost Doctor. After all, the Ghost Doctor had been gone for so long with no news, it was no wonder his Master missed her.

"It's nothing, let's go!" She was in Penglai Immortal Island now, how could she appear here? Besides, not every beggar was his Ah Jiu.

When she saw him going downstairs, the woman in white and Gray Wolf followed him. After the three of them left the restaurant, they should have gone to another street, but Mo Ze, who was walking in front, looked at the little beggar again and walked over.

“Clang!”

A gold coin fell into the broken bowl in front of her. She was stunned for a moment, then she looked up and saw Mo Ze’s deep eyes looking at her. The two of them looked at each other for a while, as they stared at each other, but neither of them moved away.

Chapter 2755: Cannot Recognise

“Master, this little beggar is crazy, he doesn’t even know how to thank you for giving him a gold coin.” Gray Wolf who was beside him smiled when he saw the little beggar staring at his Master.

The little beggar was very lucky, it was a rare occurrence that his Master would be so kind. In normal circumstances, his Master wouldn’t have even noticed this little beggar. He probably thought of the Ghost Doctor when he saw the little beggar.

“Master, did you think of the Ghost Doctor when you saw the little beggar?” Gray Wolf beside him asked.

Upon hearing this, the woman in white looked at the little beggar seriously and asked: “Does the Ghost Doctor look very similar to this little beggar?” I heard that the Ghost Doctor is very beautiful. Why did my Senior Brother think of the Ghost Doctor when he saw the little beggar? Do they have any similarities?”

When Gray Wolf heard the words of the woman in white, he grinned. He looked at the little beggar staring at his Master blankly and said: “The little beggar’s eyes are dull, like the eyes of a dead fish. How can he be similar to the Ghost Doctor? My Master just remembered...”

“Shut up!”

Xuanyuan Mo Ze glanced at him with his eyebrows furrowed, no longer looking at the little beggar sitting on the ground. Then he turned around and left.

He knew that Feng Jiu wouldn’t appear here, let alone appear in such a disguise. He had only walked over involuntarily because he recalled the first time he met Feng Jiu.

When he had first seen the little beggar sitting in the corner of the street, and threw the gold coin from his waist, he would never forget those stunned and clever eyes that raised up and looked back at him.

Although the little beggar today was thin and small like her, but as Gray Wolf had said, her eyes were blank. Her eyes were only stunned because she saw the piece of gold coin. He couldn’t find the familiar look in those eyes, so naturally the little beggar wasn’t his Ah Jiu.

Most importantly, he knew that Ah Jiu was at Penglai Immortal Island at this moment, and it was impossible for her to appear here.

As she watched the three of them walk away, Feng Jiu's mouth twitched. Dead fish's eyes? Was Gray Wolf itching for a beating?

She looked at the gold coin in the broken bowl and couldn't help but smile wryly. He gave her money again? Only this time, he didn't recognise her. Why? Was it because her disguise as a beggar was too realistic?

When they looked at each other, he was unable to recognise her. She had to admit that this made her feel a little uncomfortable.

Even if she had deliberately hid the look in her eyes, even if she had pretended to not know him, she still hoped that he would be able to recognise her. A woman's heart was such a contradiction, always getting herself into trouble.

She sighed lightly, then picked up the gold coin and played with it in her hand. Suddenly, she saw a few beggars coming over to her holding sticks in their hands, looking at her fiercely.

"What do you want?" She leaned against the wall lazily. She was feeling depressed and had no mood to care about those people.

"Kid, do you know this is our territory?" One of the beggars asked, staring at the gold coin in Feng Jiu's hand.

Upon hearing this, she sneered: "This is a street, and if I remember correctly, this street belongs to the Yang Family. So how did the Yang Family's place become your territory?"

"Kid, you're courting death!" One of the beggars shouted angrily and swung his fist at Feng Jiu.

Chapter 2756: Dressed in White

She saw that Mo Ze and the others had gone some distance away, so Feng Jiu picked up the broken bowl and branch and ran into the alley. When the beggars saw this, they chased after her immediately: "Brat! Don't run away!"

They shouted and chased after her into the alley but saw that the little beggar hadn't run away and was leaning against the wall waiting for them. Upon seeing this, the beggars snorted coldly: "Why aren't you running away? Try running again if you dare!"

Feng Jiu held the branch in her hand and tapped her hands lightly. She watched them approach her and chuckled lightly: "How can I break your dog legs if I run away?"

"You brat!"

The beggars cursed and rushed up. However, Feng Jiu, who had been leaning against the wall, also moved forward at this time. The branch in her hand struck their legs, and their bones could be heard snapping. One of the beggars fell down and screamed.

How can you be a beggar when your hands and feet are fine? Since you want to be a beggar, then I will help you."

“Crack!”

“Arghhhhhhh!”

The screams and sounds of bones breaking came out at the same time, but in the next moment, Feng Jiu took out her silver needles and stuck them in their voice acupuncture point. Those people opened their mouths but were unable to make a sound anymore.

She put away her silver needles and held her broken bowl in one hand, and her branch in her other hand. Without even taking another look at the beggars on the floor, she walked out of the alley leaving the terrified beggars behind...

Back out on the street, she looked at the bustling street and thought about it, then she decided that she wasn't going to go home yet. First, she was going to find someone to inquire about who the woman in white was.

So, she wandered around the city and planned to return to Heavenly Pill Tower in a few days to ask Leng Shuang about the situation.

On the other side, Xuanyuan Mo Ze went into Heavenly Pill Tower, while Gray Wolf sent the woman in white back to Feng Manor. While the two of them were walking back to Feng Manor, the woman in white asked casually: “Gray Wolf, why did you say earlier that Senior Brother thought of the Ghost Doctor when he saw the little beggar? Are there some similarities between the both of them?”

“Hehe, it's not that they have similarities, it's...” Gray Wolf said, then he stopped and said in embarrassment: “Young Miss Yun, I'm sorry! I can't say anything else about my Master and the Ghost Doctor. Master doesn't like me talking too much.”

Upon hearing this, the woman in white smiled gently: “It doesn't matter, I should be so nosey.”

When she saw that she was in front of Feng Manor, she said to Gray Wolf: “I've arrived at the front of the Manor, you can return to Senior Brother! I'll go in by myself.”

“Very well, Young Miss Yun should go back inside to rest first! I will go back to my Master.” Gray Wolf said, then he turned around and left.

After the woman in white watched him leave, she stepped forward to knock on the door. She stepped inside only after the person inside the Manor opened the door for her. She didn't go directly to the courtyard where she resided, but asked: “Where is Leng Shuang?”

Upon hearing this, the woman in white went to the backyard. When she came to the backyard where Leng Shuang was, she saw Leng Shuang and Bai Qingcheng looking after the children. So, she walked in.

“You are all here!”

She walked inside slowly and said with a smile: “My Senior Brother took me to a restaurant earlier for something to eat. When he heard I wanted to eat pastries, Gray Wolf went and bought some for me. He said that it's from the best pastry shop in the city and that the Ghost Doctor liked to eat the pastries from there, so I brought some back for you too."

As she spoke, she stepped forward slowly and came to the table in the courtyard.

Chapter 2757: Please Go Back

When she saw the well-behaved baby sleeping on the low bed, she smiled as she looked at the delicate, innocent and cute sleeping face: "The child is so adorable."

Leng Shuang blocked her sight and said coldly: "Since Young Miss Yun is a guest, it's better not to wander around the Manor. After all, this is the Feng Manor, not every place can be visited by guests."

"We won't eat the pastries, please go back Young Miss Yun!" Bai Qingcheng who was beside her also spoke. Her expression was indifferent, just like Leng Shuang, she obviously didn't like this person who was living in the Feng Manor.

Upon hearing this, the woman in white smiled slightly, as if she wasn't bothered: "That's fine, I will go back first." She didn't stay, but turned and left.

After watching her leave, Bai Qingcheng hesitated, then asked: "Leng Shuang, Master isn't back yet, and this Young Miss Yun keeps following Hell's Lord, will something happen?"

Ever since Young Miss Yun arrived, they had been treating her coldly, but she always appeared gentle and indifferent. Although this person didn't seem to show the slightest hint of danger, she still made her feel a little uneasy sometimes.

"Are you worried that Hell's Lord will take a fancy to her?"

Leng Shuang asked blankly. She looked at Bai Qingcheng and said: "Hell's Lord only has Master in his eyes, other women have no chance at all. Although she had often been around Hell's Lord, she never dared to have any thoughts, because as long as there was a hint of any thoughts in her mind, Hell's Lord would send her away even if Master hadn't returned.

She didn't like this woman because she seemed to be wearing a perfect mask all the time. She always appeared indifferent, even when they treated her coldly, she always maintained a smile and look of indifference.

She thought about her Master not being in the Manor, and this woman not staying in the Ling Manor but came to their Feng Manor instead, without the slightest self-consciousness as a guest.

Upon hearing this, Bai Qingcheng was relieved and said: "Then I will go and take a look at the front. Since the Young Master is asleep, why don't you take him into his room to sleep?"

"Sure." Leng Shuang responded, and after she watched her leave, she carried the sleeping little child into his room. After she put him on the bed, she sat down and started to cultivate.

Master wasn't home, and she looked after the Young Master. Hell's Lord would come to visit the child occasionally, but he would leave soon after. As for that Young Miss Yun, she would never let someone like her near the child.

As she walked all the way through the courtyard to return to her small courtyard where she stayed, the woman in white maintained her smile, until the door of her room closed. The smile on her face disappeared as she sat down at the table and drank tea. Her eyes were cold and sharp, there was no hint of her kind and gentle look.

At the other side, in Heavenly Pill Tower.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze sat on the low bed in the attic and closed his eyes to rest. When he heard a knock on the door, he called out: "Come in."

"Hell's Lord." Leng Hua walked in.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze opened his eyes and looked at Leng Hua and asked: "Has your Master sent any news back?"

Leng Hua shook his head: "Not yet." This wasn't the first time Hell's Lord had asked, but there was still no news.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze appeared to have expected the reply. His expression remained the same, and he didn't show any disappointment. He closed his eyes slowly and asked: "Is the recent operation of Heavenly Pill Tower normal?" Feng Jiu was not around, so naturally he had to look after her property.

Chapter 2758: Practice

"Don't worry, Hell's Lord. Everything is fine." Leng Shuang stood with his eyes lowered and replied in a warm voice.

"Go and get about your jobs! If there is anything in the Tower that can't be resolved, tell me as soon as possible." He said in a deep voice.

"Yes, I will go down first." Leng Hua bowed. Just as he was about to take his leave, he heard his voice again.

"If there is any news about your Master, be sure to tell me." Xuanyuan Mo Ze opened his eyes and looked at him. His low voice and deep gaze caused Leng Hua to lower his head involuntarily.

"Yes." He replied, then turned to leave.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze lay there for a while. It wasn't until evening when he left for Feng Manor. On the street, he saw a rattle for children being sold at a small store, so he told Gray Wolf to buy it. After he entered Feng Manor, he walked to the main hall and said to Gray Wolf behind him: "Tell Leng Shuang to bring the child here."

"Yes." Gray Wolf responded, then walked towards Leng Shuang's courtyard.

In the back courtyard, the woman in white was sitting quietly reading a book when she heard that Xuanyuan Mo Ze had returned. She didn't go to see him even though he had returned to the Manor, nor did she think of constantly being in his sight, as she knew that it wouldn't take long for someone like Xuanyuan Mo Ze to get annoyed if she did that.

By which point, he wouldn't have cared whether she was his Junior Sister or not and keep her here.

Leng Shuang carried the child into the hall, and Gray Wolf followed. When she got to the front, she bowed: "Greetings, Hell's Lord."

"Well, bring the child here!" Xuanyuan Mo Ze said, his eyes fell on the child in Leng Shuang's arms.

"Yes." Leng Shuang responded, and carried the soft child forward. She handed the child to him and stood aside.

Xuanyuan Mo Ze took the child from her and held him in his arms carefully. He thought in his heart: In the future, their children would also be this small and soft. Now that they already had this child to bring up, it would be easier to bring up their own children in the future.

When he thought of this, the corners of his lips twitched slightly and revealed a smile. As he looked at the child's delicate face, he thought that his and Ah Jiu's child would definitely look better than this child. But would their children resemble him more? Or Ah Jiu more?

"Little thing, look, what is this?"

He took out the small rattle and turned it gently in his hand. The two beads that hung down swayed gently as the rattle turned and slapped down onto the surface of the drum making a crisp thumping sound.

The child was attracted by the sound, and his black eyes couldn't help but stare at the rattle that was turning in front of him. Suddenly, he grinned and danced.

The child's joy amused Xuanyuan Mo Ze, and he laughed softly while he teased and played with the child. He asked: "Has this little thing eaten?"

"Hell's Lord, Young Master has just woken up and was just about to eat." Leng Shuang replied.

"Well, bring his food here and I will feed this little thing!" He said without raising his head. Little did he know that both Gray Wolf and Leng Shuang were stunned by his words.

After all, in the past, Master had never done such a thing before, let alone feed a child. Did he even know how to?

However, Leng Shuang only froze for a moment, then she responded and walked out.

On the other side, the sky was getting dark, and Feng Jiu had jumped over the wall into the Heavenly Pill Tower back courtyard. As she crossed through the back courtyard, she heard a cold shout.

"Who's there?!"

Chapter 2759: Yun Xuexin

As the cold voice called out, a dozen people surrounded her instantly. Feng Jiu was startled for a moment, then she chuckled: "You're quite vigilant, I was hoping to return quietly!"

Upon hearing this, the dozen people were stunned. They looked at the little beggar in front of them hesitantly and asked: "Master?"

"Yes, it's me." Feng Jiu said. She looked at their stunned faces with a smile and asked: "Where are Du Fan and Leng Hua?"

When they heard her voice, they knew that it belonged to their Master. They put away their swords immediately and bowed respectfully: "Subordinate greets Master. We are sorry to have offended you Master. Please forgive us Master."

"It's fine." Feng Jiu waved her hand. It was a good thing to be vigilant.

One of them said: "Du Fan and Leng Hua are inside doing the accounts. Subordinate will tell them to come over."

"No need." Feng Jiu said. She stepped forward and instructed: "Give the order, the news of my return cannot be spread out of Heavenly Pill Tower."

The dozen people were surprised and couldn't help but ask: "What about Hell's Lord and the others? Hell's Lord came over this afternoon."

Feng Jiu paused and said: "I'll decide after I have spoken to Du Fan and Leng Hua."

"Yes." They responded and watched her walk forward before they retreated into the shadows.

Du Fan and Leng Hua who were at the front of the Tower doing the accounts were startled when the dark guard told them that their Master had returned. When they walked out to the back courtyard, they saw a little beggar walking in. After the two of them looked at the little beggar, they hesitated: "Master?"

The disguise looked so familiar, but the appearance...

"Well, come to the attic. I have something to ask you." Feng Jiu said. Her eyes swept across the building. As they were doing the accounts, the main door was shut and only their own people were in the building at this time.

When they heard this, they looked at each other and smiled: "Yes." They followed behind her as they went up to the attic.

Feng Jiu sat at the table in the attic and poured herself a cup of tea to drink. She asked: "What's the origin of the woman with Mo Ze? Why is she by his side?"

Upon hearing this, the two of them were slightly surprised: "Has Master seen her?"

"I met them on my way back." She said, and took a sip of her tea.

When they heard this, Du Fan and Leng Hua looked at each other and thought to themselves: Judging by the situation, their Master was probably jealous? That's why she didn't tell Hell's Lord she had returned?

"You tell her." Du Fan elbowed Leng Hua and gestured.

Leng Hua glanced at him, then said to Feng Jiu: "Master, this woman's surname is Yun, her name is Xuexin. She arrived at Hundred Rivers City about a month ago. At that time, she came directly to Heavenly Pill Tower to look for Hell's Lord. She said that she is his Junior Sister."

"I heard Gray Wolf mention that Yun Xuexin had given a handwritten letter to Hell's Lord from Hell's Lord's Master which asked him to look after her. Originally, Hell's Lord had wanted her to stay at Ling Manor, but she said that she heard of Feng Manor on her way here and that Feng Manor was more lively, so she wanted to stay there. Hell's Lord agreed, and so she is now living in our Manor."

"Afterwards, I sent someone to investigate her background, but I couldn't find any information on her. So we have deduced that she is either a member of a reclusive family or someone from an overseas region. However, Yue Xuexin has never mentioned where she's from."

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu nodded: "I see."

She wondered where the woman had come from and why she was by Mo Ze's side! So she was his Junior Sister. But why did she feel so uncomfortable even after hearing that their relationship was only of Senior Brother and Junior Sister?

Chapter 2760: Can't Find Out Anything

"She's staying at our home and yet you can't find out anything about her background? Your intelligence information is not good enough!" She tapped her hand lightly on the table and made a knocking sound. Her clear eyes fell on the pair of them.

"Master, forgive us." The two of them lowered their heads slightly: "We will continue to investigate and find out her background."

After he had spoken, Leng Hua paused slightly and said: "Master, Hell's Lord came over this afternoon. He asked if there has been any news about Master, and he also instructed that if there was any news about Master, we must tell him as soon as possible."

"Don't worry, I will handle this matter. Just go about your usual jobs and pretend I haven't come back." Feng Jiu said, then she said again: "I didn't want anyone to know about my return this time. The people who made a move against me are still watching me. If those people know that I am back, they will probably follow me here again."

Upon hearing this, the two of them were slightly startled: "So Master doesn't plan to reveal her identity and return to the Manor?"

There were many people in the Manor, and also the unknown Yue Xuexin, so if she openly returned to the Manor, the news of her return would spread easily.

However, if she didn't reveal her identity, what identity should she use to return to the Manor?

"I wanted to come back quietly, but now there is Yue Xuexin in the house, it seems I have to make another plan. Let me think about it!" She sighed softly with a helpless look on her face.

Upon seeing this, the two of them smiled, and Du Fan asked: "Master, why did you return so soon? We thought that it would take you at least half a year to journey back and forth."

"The round trip there and back may take half a year, but I have the teleportation device from the old man which allows me to go back and forth freely. That saves a lot of time." She said, as she rested her cheek on one hand.

"Master, what is Penglai Immortal Island like? Are the people there strong? Have you climbed the Immortal Ascension Ladder?" Leng Hua asked curiously.

"They all have a pair of eyes and a mouth. As for their strength, they aren't mostly advanced step by step. So generally speaking, their strength is higher than this side. But as for combat power, that's hard to say."

She spoke softly, her voice paused for a bit before she continued: "As for the Immortal Ascension Ladder, it was nothing much. I went up and reached the top. I was one step from stepping through the door and not coming back."

Their eyes flashed slightly when they heard this: "Door? There is a door above the Immortal Ascension Ladder?"

"Yes! It leads to another world, but I didn't see it clearly. When I got up there, there were a few old monsters on the other side of the door. They could even tell that I was a girl in a glance and easily saw through my disguise. They even asked me to go over." When she spoke about this, Feng Jiu laughed: "Fortunately, I didn't go through, otherwise I don't know when I will come back."

The two of them were surprised. They knew that the universe was full of wonders, but they didn't know that in the sky above, at the top of the Immortal road was a door leading to another world.

"Master, if you can go to such a place, why didn't you go? Maybe if you went over to the other side, those people won't be able to find you." Du Fan couldn't help but say this as such an opportunity was actually wasted.

Feng Jiu smiled and said indifferently: "So what if the place is good? My family and friends, and all the people I care about are here. What's the point in going there?"
