

G E D 1081

Chapter 1081 Feng Wu on Stage

Feng Wu was as bold as ever. She snuck up on the girl and knocked the latter unconscious with the side of her palm. She then quietly dragged the girl into the closet, then changed into her clothes, hairpiece...

After that, Feng Wu copied the girl's makeup.

With the feathers that covered her face, Feng Wu was able to achieve the seemingly impossible makeover.

"Quickly, everyone on stage. Now —"

Madam Cui rushed the group of dancers out of the room like a hen ushering out chicks.

"Qi..." Madam Cui looked at Miss Fengqi in a regretful manner, then pulled the latter out of Zuo Qingliu's arms. "Quickly, you're needed downstairs —"

Zuo Qingliu was an ideal choice, but Young Lord Feng had shown up and Madam Cui was completely biased toward Feng Xun, despite the fact that Feng Xun showed no feelings for Miss Fengqi.

Feng Wu hid herself well in the crowd and quickly followed them out.

The sound of musical instruments soon rang out in the main hall on the first floor.

Miss Fengqi was dancing in the center of the stage, and was surrounded by the others like the moon among the stars.

This was Feng Wu's first time dancing this piece, but luckily, she was a backup dancer and one of many among the crowd. It didn't take her long to catch up with the others.

Meanwhile, Feng Xun was searching room after room for Feng Wu on the second floor.

He couldn't understand it!

That girl had to be here in Perching Phoenix, but why couldn't he find her? It was as if she had vanished into thin air.

Frustrated, Feng Xun smacked the banister, making a loud bang.

On stage, Feng Wu stole a glance at Feng Xun as she moved along with the music. She was secretly elated when she saw how vexed he was.

The last place Feng Xun could imagine she would hide herself was on stage!

Just then, Feng Wu sensed a cold gaze on her!

To be more precise, the gaze was directed at the center of the stage.

It was Xuan Yi.

Feng Wu noticed that Xuan Yi was leaning against a column with his sword between his crossed arms and a cold look in his eyes.

She felt a chill run down her spine. Involuntarily, she danced more properly than before. Otherwise, Xuan Yi's sharp eyes would pick her out in no time.

Feng Xun came down the stairs, looking infuriated.

Seeing him like that, Mu the Sixth rose to his feet in a hurry. "Brother, please have a seat."

Because of Feng Xun and Xuan Yi's arrival, two more seats had been added to the first row.

Feng Xun sat down in frustration, then grabbed a cup of tea and gulped it down.

Mu the Sixth followed Miss Fengqi's dancing with an infatuated look on his face, while making an effort to talk to Feng Xun. "Brother, did you not find the girl you were looking for?"

Feng Xun only snorted.

Mu the Sixth said, "Brother, don't be mad. We have more than enough girls here in Perching Phoenix. Look at those on stage. They come in all shapes and sizes. Brother, all you need to do is name one and I'll bring her to you."

Feng Xun gave him a "you idiot" look and couldn't be bothered to reply.

Those girls on stage were nothing compared with that ugly girl. She might not be pretty, but she had the most amazing eyes. One would never forget them after they saw those eyes. All the girls on stage were just commonplace women.

Meanwhile, Feng Wu wanted to jump for joy on stage.

Good. Xuan Yi was going to stay here in the main hall. After this dance, she could jump over the wall and get herself out of this mess...

Feng Wu was a little anxious, for this piece was quite long.

Seeing that Feng Xun was staring blankly at the stage while his mind had wandered off, Feng Wu —

Chapter 1082 Slightly Nervous

And Feng Wu grew anxious.

She desperately wanted the dance to end, so that she could make the great escape before Feng Xun showed up in front of her.

Before long, the music slowly came to an end with the last note lingering in the air.

Finally... it was over.

Standing in place, Feng Wu let out a breath of relief.

Because of the curtain call, Feng Wu stood in the second row until the very last moment.

Mu the Sixth grinned. "Brother, look. With all the feathers covering half their faces, the girls all look so mysterious. What do you think?"

Feng Xun was in an impatient mood and had no interest in any of the girls.

After knowing someone as beautiful as Feng Wu, even Miss Fengqi was an ordinary woman in Feng Xun's eyes, not to mention those girls around her...

He couldn't even be bothered to glance at them. Feng Xun then rose to his feet.

Feng Wu was secretly relieved. Finally, he was leaving.

However, Feng Xun paused as soon as he stood up. He spun around and stared at the girls on the stage.

"What did you just say?" Feng Xun stared at Mu the Sixth.

Mu the Sixth was dumbfounded. "What did I say?"

Feng Xun said, "Repeat it!"

Mu the Sixth said, "I said the girls came in all shapes and sizes..."

"The next sentence!"

"If you like any of them..."

"The one before that!"

"Half of their faces are covered with feathers..."

Feng Xun snapped his fingers. "That's it."

After that, he stared at the girls on the stage with a grin, then walked toward them.

Seeing Feng Xun get onto the stage, everyone's eyes shone curiously. Was Young Lord Feng really interested in Miss Fengqi?

Zuo Qingliu's face was livid!

Feng Xun had said only just then that he wasn't interested in Miss Fengqi, but why did he suddenly...

Damn it!

Clenching his fists, Zuo Qingliu stiffened!

If Feng Xun really wanted to use his power to take the girl away, there was nothing Zuo Qingliu could do!

He was getting closer and closer...

Feng Xun had gone up to Miss Fengqi and was reaching out —

Thrilled, Miss Fengqi shivered and blushed in expectation.

If Young Lord Feng really had his eye on her, she would be much better off with him than becoming Zuo Qingliu's woman.

Feng Xun had indeed reached out, but —

He only pushed Miss Fengqi aside. "Out of my way."

WHAT?!

Miss Fengqi stood there, baffled. Her face turned so red that her cheeks seemed to be bleeding.

Damn it!

Meanwhile, Feng Wu grew nervous.

It was obvious that Feng Xun had grown suspicious of the girls on the stage. Feng Wu still smelled faintly of that bug, and she would be easily spotted if Feng Xun got too close.

What should she do now?

Feng Wu's heart raced.

She was in the second row, and right now, Feng Xun was standing in front of them with his hands behind his back and a bone-chilling look in his eyes.

"Take your feathers off!" Feng Xun stared at them with a grim look on his face.

The title of Young Lord Feng alone was enough to intimidate them.

Although the girls had no idea why the young lord gave that order, they still removed the feathers from their faces as told.

Because of her tight schedule, Feng Wu had been a little hasty with her makeup. She could make it work with the feathers on, but without them, she had a 70% resemblance to the girl she had been disguised as before.

They stood in two slanted lines. When Feng Xun walked past them, he could see all their faces in one go.

Feng Wu —

Chapter 1083 Couldn't Get Any More Dangerous

Feng Wu was a little on edge, but the more nervous she was, the calmer she looked.

No one could tell how agitated she was deep down.

Luckily —

Feng Wu had put on her makeup, mimicking the dancer she had replaced. Otherwise, she would have been found out already.

After searching the group, Feng Xun frowned.

Because he couldn't smell the cream which the ugly girl had used to disguise herself. That was to say, that girl wasn't wearing it at the moment.

What Feng Xun didn't know was that with the right skills, even ordinary makeup could be used to disguise one's face; it was just that it wouldn't last as long.

Feng Xun didn't see the familiar face at first glance, nor did he catch the scent. He frowned.

Could it be —

Could it be that he had been mistaken?

Was the girl not among the dancers?

Feng Xun looked at the faces again.

“Your names!” Feng Xun snorted.

The others didn’t think much of it, but Feng Wu was dumbfounded.

That was because —

She didn’t know the name of the girl she was impersonating.

And she couldn’t make up one, for everyone on stage knew the girl’s name.

What should she do?

She would be exposed.

By then, the others were already giving out their names.

From the left to the right in the first row...

“Chang Xin, Fan Yuefeng, Zhang Danlan...”

The girls in the first row soon finished giving their names, and it was the second row’s turn. However, Feng Wu still didn’t know who she was supposed to be. Her back was already soaked with sweat under her clothes.

Feng Wu wanted to ask around to find out the girl’s name, but she couldn’t do it when Feng Xun’s attention was fixed on them.

An idea struck her when it was going to be her turn soon. She stepped on the foot of the girl in front of her!

“Yu Xueke, what did you do that for?!”

The girl in the front turned around and glared at Feng Wu.

She realized that “Yu Xueke” seemed to have a smaller face tonight, and wondered if she was seeing things.

The girl in front of Feng Wu was called You Yue, and she was a little curious. However, with Young Lord Feng still around, she didn’t dare ask further questions. She quickly turned back around and resumed her position.

“What were you talking about?” Feng Xun stared at You Yue.

You Yue was so nervous that she stammered. “I – I... She stepped on my foot... so...”

If Feng Xun had pressed You Yue and asked her if she felt something was out of place, You Yue would’ve told him...

But he didn’t. He only stared at those in the second row.

Soon, it was Feng Wu’s turn.

Feng Wu stuck out her chest. “Yu Xueke!”

She didn’t know what the real Yu Xueke sounded like, so she deliberately made her voice husky.

Feng Wu was able to keep her cover and she felt like giving herself a thumbs up.

Her identity had stayed hidden and Feng Wu was able to make another narrow escape.

“Brother, what’s wrong?” Mu the Sixth looked at Feng Xun in bewilderment. “Why do you look like you’re looking for a fugitive?”

Feng Xun smirked. “That’s exactly what I’m looking for. When I find her, I’ll skin her alive and drink her blood!”

Feng Wu’s stomach lurched!

Luckily, after another look around, Feng Xun still couldn’t find Feng Wu. In the end, he had no choice but to leave the stage.

Feng Wu heaved a sigh of relief.

If one were to look closer, they would see that Feng Wu had sweat all over her back, which had almost soaked through her clothes.

Just when Feng Wu thought she was out of the woods, there was the sound of a dog barking from the front door!

All heads turned to the door!

Those were some fierce growls!

Feng Wu stared at the dog that had just entered the door,

Chapter 1084 Hahahaha —

One look and Feng Wu narrowed her eyes dangerously! It didn’t look good. The dog was covered in glossy, fine black fur and was as tall as two meters. Its appearance was very intimidating!

It was a type of detection dog, which was highly sensitive to scents.

Feng Wu was immediately alarmed!

She was going to be discovered...

She was sure of it...

Since she was standing in the back row, Feng Wu was able to stealthily move backward when all eyes were on the front door.

She might never get a better opportunity than this one.

After backing away ten steps, Feng Wu turned to run.

The dog had made such a grand entrance that no one noticed that Feng Wu had gone. Ohly that —

Arf! Arf! Arf!

The giant dog exploded in a fit of barking!

It had been on a leash, but at that moment, it charged out, as fast as a streak of lightning.

Following the dog's direction, Feng Xun saw the back of someone wearing a light pink dress.

He remembered that person. She was the fifth girl in the second row on stage.

He grabbed You Yue. "That person behind you, what did you tell her?!"

Frightened by Feng Xun, You Yue shivered. Even her voice trembled. "She... I didn't tell her anything..."

"Speak!"

"She... she just accidentally stepped on my foot, so I asked Fu Xueke what she did that for."

Hearing that, Feng Xun looked like he had just been slapped hard. He could almost feel the pain in his cheek!

It had to be her!

The girl knew how to change her face and she could easily pretend to be someone else, but she didn't know the name of the girl she was impersonating...

The thought of him being so close to catching the girl just then made Feng Xun want to punch someone.

By then, Xuan Yi had dashed out like a shooting arrow.

"Go!"

Feng Xun roared, then charged out!

He was cursing loudly in his head.

That girl was so smart. She was able to hide herself among the dancers, and she danced so well. She danced as well as the others and one couldn't tell the difference.

Did she really not practice beforehand?

At the same moment, Feng Wu —

Her face had never looked this grim and dark before!

Xuan Yi was already running after her. If he was by himself, Feng Wu still had the confidence to evade him the way she had evaded Feng Xun.

However, that sharp-nosed dog was really making things impossible!

Feng Wu had studied the area when she was up on the building, and knew that there was a river just outside the east wall.

She didn't like the idea of jumping into a river in such a cold season, but she was out of ideas.

“Plop —”

Feng Wu jumped onto the 20-meter wall, then flew down like an eagle with its wings spread out.

Feng Xun arrived to see the person that he was chasing jump into the water. He smirked.

“Out of all the paths, you just chose the one that would lead to your doom. I got you, ugly girl!”

Standing high up on the wall and looking at the dark river, Feng Xun laughed loudly with his hands on his waist.

Yes, there was a river on this side and there were no guards.

But Feng Xun had made it that way deliberately.

It was like closing up the three sides of a square and leaving a single side open... And that side was the trap.

That was why Feng Xun laughed when he saw the ugly girl jump into the water. The dog was going to jump in after her, but Feng Xun stopped it.

Chapter 1085 Catch Her!!!

“Don’t worry. I’ve got a net charged with thunder energy in the river. She’s not going anywhere.”

Xuan Yi darted a look at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun didn’t feel like laughing anymore. That look Xuan Yi gave him made him feel like an idiot.

“I don’t see anything.” Xuan Yi glanced at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun said, “The thunder net can stun a person unconscious. The girl jumped in on her own, and should have been stunned by now. It’s only normal that you don’t hear anything.”

Xuan Yi asked, “Really?”

Feng Xun said earnestly, “Yes! Yes!”

Xuan Yi rubbed his chin. “What if I told you that she’s already gotten away?”

Feng Xun looked baffled. “I begged Boss Jun to give me that net, and you know how resilient it is. It’s as precious as Immortal-Restraining Rope. How is she supposed to have gotten away?”

Xuan Yi narrowed his eyes.

But he really couldn’t sense the girl anywhere.

Feng Xun said grumpily, “If that’s the case, get her out of there already. I can’t wait to see her real face.”

After having been tricked by the girl so many times, Feng Xun felt so satisfied at finally catching her.

The net had been laid out all over the bottom of the river. When it was gathered together, it was no bigger than an adult’s fist. However, when spread out, it could cover as large an area as one wanted!

Its greatest advantage was that it could be spread out or compressed according to the width of the river.

Feng Xun didn't let other people do it, but drew the net in himself.

He looked increasingly pleased as more of the net was drawn out of the water. "Ugly girl, I'd like to see what you can do once you're in my hands!"

But soon, the smile vanished from Feng Xun's face.

The net was out of the water and plenty of small fish were hopping around on the finger-thin threads. However —

Where was she?

The smile froze on Feng Xun's face.

Where was she?

"Where is she?!"

After gathering the net, Feng Xun saw that a hole big enough for a teenage girl to pass through had been opened up in the net.

Feng Xun and Xuan Yi exchanged surprised looks.

Feng Xun stamped about in a frenzy. "How's that even possible?! That's a thunder net, and it's as capable as Immortal-Restraining Rope! How can someone break out of it? Is she a loach or something? How can she be so slippery?!"

Xuan Yi glanced at Feng Xun, wanting to tell the latter that he had told him so. The guy just wouldn't listen, and had missed his best chance.

"That's not right!" Feng Xun took Xuan Yi's hand. "The net is unbreakable and it's charged. How did she break it?"

"That's not the most important question now. You should really focus on finding her." Xuan Yi gave Feng Xun a sympathetic look.

Back in Frozen Forest, Feng Xun had been deceived the worst, which was why Xuan Yi could understand his grudge.

Feng Xun gritted his teeth, but had to accept the truth!

He clenched his fists in frustration. "She had to have escaped by water. You lot, follow the river downstream and catch her!"

That ugly girl couldn't stay in the water forever. When she hit the shore, she was bound to leave traces.

Feng Xun had the dog sniff the air and find the direction that the ugly girl had fled in.

But the dog only shook its head. It dove into the river, stayed for a long while at the bottom, then resurfaced and ran in the opposite direction!

"That girl!" Feng Xun snorted.

Luckily, he had the dog with him. Otherwise, the girl would have tricked him again.

Feng Xun swore that when he caught the girl, he would teach her a lesson. He would tie her up so that she wouldn't be able to go anywhere.

Chapter 1086 Smart Little Feng Wu

The dog swam fast in the water. Feng Xun and Xuan Yi were running fast along both banks of the river!

At the same moment, Feng Wu —

She had sensed the thunder net the moment she dove in, but there was no way out and she could only move forward.

Because turning around would surely get her caught, but she might have a chance if she kept moving forward.

At that thought, Feng Wu dashed forward at full speed —

In the process, Feng Wu realized that although the thunder net was called a "net," it was made from the same material as Immortal-Restraining Rope.

Before, Chang San had tied Feng Wu up with Immortal-Restraining Rope and Feng Wu had thrown a tantrum at Jun Linyuan for that.

But Feng Wu had also asked Jun Linyuan how to untie the rope, for she didn't want to be trapped in such a passive and hopeless situation again.

Maybe Jun Linyuan had sympathized with her, for he actually taught her. At that thought, Feng Wu smiled.

Feng Wu had the ice and fire attributes, and ice and water shared a common origin. Therefore, she was at home in the water.

With the method Jun Linyuan taught her, she made a hole in the thunder net, then turned around and waved Feng Xun goodbye. At that moment, Feng Xun was guffawing at the water with his hands on his waist.

Swimming as swiftly as a fish, Feng Wu fled through the hole to her freedom. She went on swimming fast underwater.

She only resurfaced several hundreds of meters away, when she heaved a sigh of relief.

At that moment, she turned around to find Feng Xun pulling the net out.

No —

Feng Wu's stomach lurched.

After Feng Xun took the net in, he would soon realize that she was gone. Soon, they would start another round of pursuit, and she had only bought herself less than five minutes.

Run!

The water would slow Feng Wu down greatly. Therefore, Feng Wu jumped ashore after seeing some thick grass. She quickly washed the makeup off her face, then changed into a teenage boy's outfit.

Having been in the water for a while, the smell on Feng Wu had become even fainter. Even that sharp-nosed dog would have a difficult time sniffing Feng Wu out, not to mention Feng Xun himself.

After putting on boy's clothes, Feng Wu erased all traces, then headed for the city's busy area.

After that entire drama, morning had already arrived.

Common people in the imperial capital got up early. The sun had just risen, but the farmers from the outskirts were already filing into the city, carrying loads of vegetables on their shoulders.

Feng Wu wore an outfit made from coarse cloth. She handed an old farmer some silver when she spotted the latter. "Grandpa, how about this silver for all your vegetables?"

Feng Wu had deliberately deepened her voice so that she sounded like a teenage boy whose voice was changing.

The old man was more than happy to oblige.

He wouldn't be able to sell all these vegetables for 100 bronze coins, but was now getting silver, which was worth 2000 bronze coins, for them; what a sweet deal.

The old man nodded repeatedly. "Sure, sure —"

Carrying the load on her shoulders, Feng Wu hid herself among the rest of the vegetable sellers, then followed them to the market.

After blending in, she was a lost target to Feng Xun, who had finally arrived.

Feng Xun could only stare at his dog. "Your turn!"

The dog gave him an aggrieved look.

More and more people were pouring into the street, and that special scent was getting fainter...

The dog looked around in bewilderment.

Feng Xun was so anxious!

He had gotten unbelievably lucky this time. If the girl changed the way she looked again, he wouldn't know how to find her next time.

Where was Boss Jun anyway? Why hadn't he arrived? If he were here —

Chapter 1087 Catching Feng Wu

Feng Xun stomped his foot in frustration. Just then —

The dog charged out in another direction at an incredible speed.

It headed for the food market.

Feng Wu had thought that the dog wouldn't be able to pick up the scent anymore, but as it turned out, she was wrong. She frowned.

Meanwhile, the running dog had already frightened a lot of people.

“Out of the way! Everyone out of the way —”

The dog forced its way through, not caring about the crowd at all. It ended up knocking a lot of people off their feet.

Its eyes were flickering red, and it kept its gaze on Feng Wu, as if it was going to jump her the next moment.

Meanwhile, Feng Xun and Xuan Yi were right behind the dog.

Feng Wu looked over her shoulder —

Further ahead was the food market, where the crowd was even denser. Without thinking, she threw her baskets at the dog, then took off.

Only after Feng Wu fled did Feng Xun realize who the dog had been chasing.

He had never expected that the ugly girl could...

Was she a born actress? How did she become a teenage vegetable vendor in such a short time?

Feng Xun said to Xuan Yi, “If I hadn't thrown that stink bug at her, we might have never found her.”

Xuan Yi nodded in agreement.

That was a very impressive girl.

With their current capabilities and power, together with their guards and a sharp-nosed dog, they were still unable to catch her. That was proof enough of how stealthy she was.

“I have to catch her this time!” Feng Xun made up his mind.

Feng Wu made her way through the crowd like a nimble fish, checking herself for the remaining scent as she ran.

Without the scent, Feng Xun would never be able to find her.

Feng Wu sniffed and found that the scent was almost gone. In less than an hour, it would disappear completely; all she had to do now was evade Feng Xun for the next hour.

Everything was fine in the beginning. The street was packed with people and Feng Wu kept changing directions, making it impossible for the dog or Feng Xun to catch her.

But Feng Xun wasn't dumb. He bellowed at the crowd, telling them to leave the street. Otherwise, they would be considered to have offended Northern Feng Mansion!

Northern Feng Mansion...

No one could afford such an accusation.

Hence, everyone moved toward the sides, creating a passageway wide enough for three people to walk shoulder to shoulder.

Feng Wu was left alone on the street and was spotted right away.

“Go!”

Feng Xun and Xuan Yi dashed off at top speed.

Feng Wu turned around to see that those two were almost upon her. She took off right away, as if she was sliding on ice.

However, the next second, Feng Xun leapt up and struck Feng Wu in the back with his fist.

“Pfft —”

Feng Wu stumbled forward, blood spurting out of her mouth. She couldn’t stop coughing.

Immediately after that, Feng Xun put a foot on her back. “Ugly girl, there you are. You won’t get away this time!”

Feng Wu felt like screaming.

Feng Xun had stomped on her so hard that she almost fainted.

Seeing that Feng Wu wasn’t speaking, Feng Xun snorted. He then picked Feng Wu up so that she could face him. His usually handsome face had a bone-chilling look on it.

He stared at Feng Wu with a malicious grin on his face. “I’d like to see you run now!”

Chapter 1088 Young Lord Feng Has Snatched a Teenage Boy —

Feng Xun picked Feng Wu up and their faces were only inches apart. Feng Xun glared at the ugly girl. There were so many questions he wanted to ask her and he desperately wanted to teach her a lesson.

However, he turned around to find a large crowd around them. Moreover, they were all watching the two of them curiously.

Feng Xun didn’t want to make a scene in public, and he snorted. “Let’s go back!”

He would wait until he was back at Northern Feng Mansion.

By then, Feng Wuyi had already brought Feng Xun’s horse over.

It was a tall, mighty-looking horse that was taller than Feng Wu.

Feng Wuyi had thought that Feng Xun would leave her to one of his underlings. As a matter of fact, that was what Feng Wuyi suggested.

“My lord, how about I take this ugly girl...”

Feng Xun only snorted at him. “Are you going to take responsibility if she goes missing?”

Feng Wuyi was rendered speechless. He bowed, then backed away.

Feng Wu was sorry to hear that. If Feng Wuyi had stood his ground... She would stand a much better chance of escaping if she was handed over to Feng Wuyi.

Turning his head, Feng Xun saw the look on the ugly girl's face, and he smacked her on the head. "Are you thinking of running away? You'll never get the chance as long as you're alive! Heh!"

Feng Xun then recalled all the painstaking effort he had gone through to catch this girl. He hadn't gotten any sleep the night before.

As he spoke, Feng Xun lifted Feng Wu onto the back of his big horse.

"Hya —"

The horse ran so fast that the wind blew into Feng Wu's mouth. She couldn't help but cough, and went on coughing.

This Feng Xun!

Feng Wu was never the type to eat humble pie. She still held a grudge toward Feng Xun for stepping on her back. Hence —

"Ah — help me — Young Lord Feng is taking me, an innocent boy, against my will —"

"Pffft!"

Xuan Yi was on a horse behind Feng Xun and heard everything.

Even someone as stern as him couldn't help but crack, to say nothing of Feng Xun, the man in question.

Right now, Feng Xun's face had gone purple!

Taking an innocent boy against his will?

That was as bad as snatching a woman off the street!

This abominable girl!

Feng Xun wanted to smack the girl's head into a pancake.

To make it worse, there were so many people here, and everywhere he turned, he saw a large crowd.

They didn't dare to look up at him, but stole glances out of the corners of their eyes, as if he wouldn't notice.

Feng Xun could imagine what they would say after he was gone...

Infuriated, Feng Xun threatened them, "Spread baseless rumors and I'll cut your heads off!"

Feng Wu was about to start acting again, when Feng Xun threw a dirty look at her. "One more word and I'll strangle you right here!"

Seeing that Feng Xun meant it, Feng Wu cringed and swallowed the rest of her sentence as she stared at Feng Xun.

"Hya —"

The tall horses disappeared at the other end of the street.

Feng Wu turned back to look at the gossiping commoners, finding it quite amusing.

“Smile again and I’ll strangle you!” Feng Xun warned her in a threatening voice.

Feng Wu asked in bewilderment, “My lord, you do know what they’re talking about, don’t you?”

Feng Xun said, “Shut up!”

Feng Wu said, “You know, you could have explained yourself to them just then. Why didn’t you?”

Feng Xun said, “Heh!”

Feng Wu said, “I mean it. They were so shocked because they thought I was a boy. You could have taken my hat off. That way, I would’ve been a girl again.”

Chapter 1089 The Young Lord Likes Boys!

Feng Xun looked shocked. She was right! Why didn’t he think of that just then? Those people had to be gossiping behind his back now, saying that he was into boys!

“So, you worry about what other people say about you, too. Do you want to take me back there and explain yourself?”

Feng Wu spoke quietly behind his back.

Feng Xun: !!!

He wondered where this annoying girl came from. Why could she set him off as soon as she opened her mouth? He was so mad!

Seeing that Feng Xun had really lost his temper, Feng Wu was pleased.

However, realizing that after he took her to Northern Feng Mansion, he would soon uncover her real identity... Feng Wu was conflicted again.

What was she supposed to do now?

Just then, the tiger cub, who had been staying in her ring space, stuck its head out of her sleeve, then jumped into her chest pocket.

As a beast that had signed a contract with Feng Wu, the cub could communicate with Feng Wu telepathically.

“What? You can...” Feng Wu cried out inwardly.

The cub nodded. “Yes!”

Feng Wu’s eyes darted around as she tried to figure out a way to escape.

Feng Xun desperately wanted to know the real identity of the ugly girl, so he rode as fast as he could.

Before long, they arrived at Northern Feng Mansion.

The guards outside saw that it was their young lord, and opened the gate wide to let him in.

Jumping off his horse, Feng Xun walked in with Feng Wu in one hand. He was going to go back to his No Mercy Yard —

As Feng Xun carried Feng Wu toward No Mercy Yard, Feng Wu was trying to figure out a way to escape.

Looking over her shoulder, she saw that because Feng Xun was walking very fast, the two of them were all alone here.

No Mercy Yard was right ahead of them!

What happened was quicker than words could describe!

Stuffing some spicy powder into her mouth, Feng Wu bit Feng Xun's wrist hard!

"Ah!"

Feng Xun screamed in pain.

Involuntarily, he dropped Feng Wu.

Had this ugly girl gone nuts? She had bitten him!

As soon as Feng Xun let go of her, Feng Wu moved backward as nimbly as a loach!

Feng Xun yelled angrily, "Stop right there! Stop!"

Feng Wu made a face at him. Like hell she was going to stop.

Feng Xun smirked. "Do you think you can run away like that? Stop!"

Feng Wu ignored him and ran even faster!

Feng Xun was about to run after Feng Wu, when he realized in surprise that he couldn't move!

He looked down at his wrist!

Feng Wu's teeth had left marks on him, and the wound was bleeding. A white liquid was also oozing out... What was that?

Feng Xun was terrified!

His head was spinning and he could see stars. He then swayed from side to side, feeling awful.

That stinky girl!

"Feng Xun!"

Just then, Xuan Yi rushed in with his sword over his shoulder.

"What's wrong?" Xuan Yi steadied Feng Xun.

He had thought that nothing would go wrong after they got the girl back to Northern Feng Mansion. How could something like this happen?

“Go get her! Go catch that ugly girl! I’m gonna kill her! Ahhhh —” Feng Xun took a deep breath. Luckily, the dizzy feeling gradually faded and was almost gone.

Looking up, Xuan Yi saw the dog disappear into the distance.

Hence, Xuan Yi dashed off after the dog!

Meanwhile!

Feng Wu was headed for the wall. She wanted to get out of Northern Feng Mansion.

But the dog wouldn’t leave her alone!

Chapter 1090 The Critical Moment!

But she just couldn’t get rid of it! At that critical moment, the tiger cub jumped out of Feng Wu’s chest pocket and rushed toward the dog.

Then, to Feng Wu’s surprise, the palm-sized cub smashed the dog on its head with one front paw, which reminded her of a boy master disciplining his servant.

That smack baffled the dog right away.

Moreover, the cub had also stuck something on the dog’s nose.

The dog tried to bite the cub after it came back to itself.

However, the cub showed its teeth at the dog and made a threatening sound!

The dog had been very intimidating, but the cub was more intimidating and powerful.

One had no idea what kind of heritage the cub had, but the dog was losing ground as one watched.

Feng Wu looked up to find Xuan Yi running in her direction.

An idea struck her all of a sudden.

Hence, she jumped onto the wall and landed on the other side. However, she then hid herself in the branches and jumped back in.

But Xuan Yi only saw Feng Wu jumping out and not coming back in. Therefore, when he got to the wall, he patted the dog on the head. “Go get her!”

The dog nodded, barked, then jumped over the wall.

By then, Feng Xun had finally regained his mobility and hurried over.

Feng Xun, Xuan Yi, and the dog jumped over the wall, then began to run down the wide street.

Feng Xun smacked his own head in frustration as he ran. “How can I be so stupid? Why did I let my guard down? That girl is so cunning!”

Xuan Yi didn’t know what to say.

For he had been careless as well, thinking that nothing could go wrong after they got her back to Northern Feng Mansion. But they had underestimated the girl's brain. She had escaped even in this situation.

They ran for a while before they realized that something was wrong, for the dog stood in the middle of the street and looked around in bewilderment. It looked exhausted.

Feng Xun was flustered when he saw the state the dog was in.

"Oh god! My dear dog, you can't be ill now! I need you more than ever!" Taking the dog's head in his hands, Feng Xun tried to cheer it up.

"You're going to break its head." Xuan Yi couldn't watch anymore, and pulled the dumbfounded dog away from Feng Xun.

"What's the matter with my dog..." Feng Xun was almost in tears.

The bug's scent was only temporary, and after everything the girl had done, it was barely detectable. If something happened to the dog now... Oh god, Feng Xun wanted to slap himself.

Xuan Yi rubbed the dog's nose. "It's been drugged."

Feng Xun: !!!

Blue veins popped on the corner of his forehead and he looked like he was going to explode!

"That girl drugged me as well as the dog! How could she do that?! She... Ah —"

Feng Xun almost lost his mind.

Xuan Yi was also at a loss as to what to do. That girl was impossible to catch.

He turned to Feng Xun. "The most important thing now is to fix the dog as soon as possible. That way, we may still have a chance of catching that ugly girl. Otherwise, we'll lose her forever."

Feng Xun smacked her head. "You're right. Let's go —"

Xuan Yi asked, "Where to?"

Feng Xun said, "Go find little Feng Wu! Isn't she a great doctor? I bet she can help my dog. Come. Let's go to the Feng clan."