

G E D 1681

Chapter 1681: Critical Moment (3)

Little Phoenix didn't know what to say. "Turn an enemy into a friend? You're so naive! Don't you know how vindictive a chimpanzee can be? Why would it become your friend? Because you're pretty?"

Feng Wu asked, "Why not?"

Little Phoenix was speechless.

Feng Wu asked, "The direction?"

Little Phoenix had no choice but to tell Feng Wu, "It's in the northwest."

Seeing Feng Wu run off in that direction without hesitation, Little Phoenix wanted to kill itself.

It regretted its words, for it had only made things more complicated...

The Demon Chimpanzee's cave was located in the core of the mountain, and it wasn't very close.

But Feng Wu was all about saving the horse, so she moved very swiftly.

In 15 minutes, she was almost at the cave.

"Is it here?" she asked Little Phoenix.

Little Phoenix was frustrated to see Feng Wu endanger her own life, but there was nothing it could do apart from give her a grumpy look.

Feng Wu beamed at it. "What's with that look on your face? Why do you think that I'll definitely lose?"

"You're not just one or two levels weaker. That thing is an entire stage stronger than you. Plus, magical beasts are always stronger than humans at the same level. You can't even withstand that man's strike; this chimpanzee really will kill you! You're going to die!"

Feng Wu smiled. "You've been with me for so long and we've gone through so much danger together; didn't everything turn out alright even though it seemed impossible at first?"

Little Phoenix said, "But... my master told me to protect you. If I don't do my job properly, I'll, I'll..."

Feng Wu asked curiously, "What will happen to you? Will you be skinned alive?"

Little Phoenix snorted. "You have no imagination at all. Skinning is nothing in comparison."

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Little Phoenix said, "Fine, I know I can't stop you. If you die, I'll die with you!"

Feng Wu chuckled. "I'm like a cat; I have nine lives. It won't be that easy to kill me. Plus, even if I have to die, I need to bring my beautiful master back first. Therefore, I cherish my life a lot more than you can imagine. I wouldn't be doing this if I wasn't confident about it."

Little Phoenix said, "I hope so."

Feng Wu and Little Phoenix lay in wait outside the cave. The two of them searched the surrounding area, and Feng Wu came to a conclusion. "This cave has two openings, one in the front and one at the back."

She then said solemnly, "I'll find a way to lure the Demon Chimpanzee away. You'll then take the opportunity to run inside, grab the little chimpanzee, and run away through the other opening."

Little Phoenix frowned. "Why am I stealing the little one?"

Feng Wu snapped her fingers. "I have a plan. Just do it."

Little Phoenix frowned and said, "How about I lure the big one away, and you go steal the baby?"

Seeing that Feng Wu wanted to say no, it went on. "For one, I can fly, so the Demon Chimpanzee can't do anything to me. For another, the Demon Chimpanzee holds a grudge against me, so it'll be easier for me to get its attention."

Furthermore, I can die, but you can't! thought the bird.

After some hesitation and consideration, Feng Wu finally said yes.

As expected —

Little Phoenix only showed its face and made a tiny noise before the Demon Chimpanzee crawled out of its cave.

Feng Wu hid among the thick leaves and didn't dare make a sound.

Little Phoenix threw a stone at it.

"Ahhh —"

Chapter 1682: Face-slapping, Round 4 (1)

The Demon Chimpanzee had always been very erratic, and it was immediately set off by Little Phoenix's provocation.

"Hahaha, you dumbass! Chase me, I dare you!" Little Phoenix threw another stone at the Demon Chimpanzee.

The chimpanzee was furious!

It was a Spiritual Lord, but it had just been challenged by a petty flying thing that was a mere Spiritual Elder!

This was unacceptable!

Then, with a whooshing sound —

Little Phoenix took off, flying as fast as it could.

The Demon Chimpanzee smirked and ran after the bird.

It was so furious that it didn't notice that a human teenage girl was hiding in the grass.

Magical beasts were territorial animals, and the more powerful a beast was, the keener it was to guard its territory.

The area within a 10km radius was all its territory, and no other magical beasts would dare come close. Therefore, the Demon Chimpanzee considered this cave to be quite safe.

However —

As soon as the chimpanzee dashed off —

Feng Wu rushed into the cave as quickly as she could.

Inside, a small Demon Chimpanzee studied Feng Wu with big black eyes that were filled with curiosity.

“Hi —” Feng Wu greeted it with a smile.

The small Demon Chimpanzee smiled like a little angel. However, the look on its face changed when Feng Wu was close enough, and it tried to rip Feng Wu’s throat open with its sharp claws!

“Mom! Mom! Food!”

It then attacked Feng Wu, moving as fast as a streak of lightning. It was accurate and ferocious.

Feng Wu had never expected a cub to be capable of doing such a thing.

She slid away, dodging the small Demon Chimpanzee. She then moved to a spot behind it.

Thump!

She thought she could punch the cub in the head, but the cub was more capable than she had anticipated.

It smiled maliciously.

“Trap her!” Staring at a corner of the cave, the small Demon Chimpanzee gave the command.

Feng Wu looked up, and her pupils contracted.

On the ceiling of the cave was a giant spider web. The strings were resilient, shiny, and as sharp as blades!

Hearing the small Demon Chimpanzee’s command, the spider web fell down toward Feng Wu.

“Hahaha —”

The small Demon Chimpanzee smirked.

The look on Feng Wu’s face turned serious.

The Bloodsea Horse had lured Seven away, and Little Phoenix had caught the attention of the Demon Chimpanzee. Both of them were in grave danger, and their lives might be hanging in the balance. The least she could do was take care of this little chimpanzee!

One of her sleeves suddenly stretched out. It then wrapped around the chimpanzee’s ankle and dragged it toward the entrance.

The cub was used to doing whatever it wanted in its mother's territory. It would eat whatever magical beasts it wanted and destroy anything it felt like.

Its good days were over, now that it had met Feng Wu.

As Feng Wu was dragging it toward the opening of the cave, the spider web fell down toward her.

"Catch her!"

Infuriated, the cub yelled at the Demon Spider.

"No problem, young master!" said the Demon Spider in excitement.

Unfortunately —

They had underestimated Feng Wu's speed.

The moment the spider web fell, Feng Wu dashed forward as fast as she could.

Whoosh —

The spider web just happened to miss her.

Chapter 1683: Face-slapping, Round 4 (2)

"You idiot!" The small chimpanzee rolled around on the ground in frustration.

Fearing that it may cause more trouble, Feng Wu struck and stuffed the Demon Spider into the cub's mouth.

"Argh —"

The small chimpanzee shook from head to toe in rage. The spider was so disgusting that it wanted to puke!

This abominable human girl would pay for this!

"My mom will eat you when she gets back! Ahhh —"

The cub jumped around and screamed furiously.

Feng Wu frowned. The cub had to have some special way to contact its mother. If its cries really could bring the Demon Chimpanzee back, she would be in a lot of trouble.

So she picked up a stone and smashed it down on the cub's head.

Thump!

Poor little demon. The impact immediately rendered it unconscious...

Finally, everything was quiet again.

Feng Wu let out a breath of relief before she contacted Little Phoenix.

"Ahh —"

As soon as she called it, she heard the bird's scream.

"How are you doing over there?" Feng Wu asked anxiously.

Little Phoenix said, "Ahhhh — this Demon Chimpanzee is the worst! Although it can't fly, it's really good at throwing things! It's been throwing all sorts of things at me! Ahhhh! When it can't find anything to throw, it pulls off its hair to hurl at me!

"And they're like needles! Ouch! That hurts! It's anything but stupid! It's been shooting at my wings! Gosh, I can't hold on for much longer —"

Little Phoenix complained loudly.

Feng Wu was a little relieved, for the bird wasn't severely injured.

She immediately asked, "Where's the horse?"

Because she didn't have a bond with the horse yet, she couldn't sense its presence. Little Phoenix, on the other hand, had an ability to sense other animals.

"It's in the northwest! Just head for the west! Argh! My wing! The hair stabbed me again!"

The poor bird whined, and it seemed to be in grave danger.

After all, it was only a Spiritual Elder, and the magical beast was a Spiritual Lord. No matter how talented the bird was, it wouldn't be able to get away.

"I've already caught the chimpanzee cub. Lead the big one in my direction."

Luckily, they weren't too far apart, so Feng Wu and Little Phoenix could communicate with their minds.

Little Phoenix had indeed almost been cornered by the Demon Chimpanzee, who was now sneering at the bird.

Countless hairs were stuck to Little Phoenix's wings, and it was covered in blood.

It landed on a tree branch and panted, and felt like it would collapse at any moment.

The beast cornered Little Phoenix in a valley before it smirked and slowly approached the bird.

"Hahaha —" The Demon Chimpanzee laughed. "You're a mere Spiritual Elder, but you showed so much strength. I see that you're from a special bloodline. Maybe you're even one of the sacred magical beasts!"

Little Phoenix snorted inwardly. A sacred magical beast? I'm a divine one!

"I bet you're very nutritious! I may have a breakthrough after I eat you. Hahaha —" The Demon Chimpanzee looked excited as it walked toward Little Phoenix.

One step, two steps, three steps...

Little Phoenix counted in its head.

Chapter 1684: Face-slapping, Round 4 (3)

The bird didn't forget about the small Demon Chimpanzee, but it had to time it correctly. If it told the Demon Chimpanzee too early, the latter would go after Feng Wu and might catch up with her.

So, the bird decided that it had to stall...

Little Phoenix looked panic-stricken as it said, "Hey, I'm not some sacred beast! I'm a stinky one! Eat me, and you'll become very stinky! Not only will you lose all your cultivation ability, you'll be cursed as well!"

The Demon Chimpanzee laughed. "Really? What curse would that be?"

It was standing in front of Little Phoenix now, and its giant shadow covered Little Phoenix completely.

It then picked Little Phoenix up and opened its mouth.

It was going to eat the bird whole.

Little Phoenix realized that it couldn't stall any longer.

"Hey, aren't you worried about your baby?" Little Phoenix gave it a half-smile.

The Demon Chimpanzee suddenly froze.

Little Phoenix smirked. "Did you never wonder why I provoked you out of the blue?"

The Demon Chimpanzee stiffened.

Little Phoenix said, "I have to have a death wish to simply challenge you when I know that I'm not your match."

The Demon Chimpanzee was speechless.

Little Phoenix said, "So, you really didn't notice that human hidden in the bushes when I lured you out?"

The Demon Chimpanzee's face twisted, and it glared at Little Phoenix. "I'm going to eat you!"

Little Phoenix said, "Go ahead, but I have a special farting ability. Ha, did you think I was making up that stinky smell? After you eat me, you'll have a stomachache. Who will save your baby then? Someone might be skinning it alive even as we speak!"

The Demon Chimpanzee was shocked!

It tossed Little Phoenix away like a piece of garbage. After that, it ran back toward its cave as fast as it could.

It realized that something had gone terribly wrong when it arrived.

There were signs of fighting!

And even the Demon Spider, which it had brought back for the baby's cradle, was gone!

Roarrrr —

It pounded its chest in frustration.

"My baby, where are you?!"

Luckily, it didn't lose its head. Immediately, it dashed off to look for its baby.

The small Demon Chimpanzee was still nursing, so the Demon Chimpanzee was able to follow the scent of the milk.

After narrowly escaping death, Little Phoenix lay on a rock and was too exhausted to move a muscle.

"Little Feng Wu, I've done everything I can. You have to stay alive..."

Little Phoenix had no confidence in Feng Wu's survival at all.

After all, Feng Wu was being chased by a Spiritual Lord assassin and a Spiritual Lord Demon Chimpanzee at the same time. How could she possibly survive that?

Meanwhile, Feng Wu was running as fast as she could.

She knew that she was facing an impossible situation, but that only made her want to fight harder!

She would become an amazing cultivator, but she just needed more time!

The wind howled in her ears as she flitted past the trees, stones, bushes, and creeks...

Chapter 1685: Face-slapping, Round 4 (4)

Obstacles kept appearing in Feng Wu's path, but she didn't change her route and made a beeline for Seven.

The Bloodsea Horse wouldn't last much longer...

Thump! Thump! Thump!

The ground shook.

Feng Wu turned around and almost froze.

It was the Demon Chimpanzee!

It was so fast!

The beast charged at her like a cannonball.

It was a small black dot at first, but in a matter of seconds, she could see that it was the Demon Chimpanzee.

Shit!

Run!

She could clearly sense the beast's murderous intent.

Its baby had just been snatched; as a mother, it was only natural that it was furious.

Feng Wu picked up speed.

When she saw the Demon Chimpanzee, it saw her as well.

It even spotted the small Demon Chimpanzee on Feng Wu's shoulder.

Its baby!

Right now, the cub was curled up and not moving at all. The Demon Chimpanzee didn't know if its baby was still alive.

"Damn you, human! Damn you!" The Demon Chimpanzee almost exploded.

How dare she touch its baby?!

It swore that when it caught the human girl, it would skin her and roast her meat!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The Demon Chimpanzee yelled in frustration. The angrier it was, the faster it moved.

Argh —

Feng Wu grew anxious.

The Demon Chimpanzee was moving even faster than she had anticipated. This wouldn't do!

Feng Wu then found a mountain blocking her way.

It had a stunning cliff that was perpendicular to the ground. It looked as if a giant blade had slashed the mountain open, and the wall was as smooth as a mirror.

There was no time to run around it!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Feng Wu picked up a handful of small stones.

And she threw them at the cliff.

She did so as she ran toward the cliff.

She made sure that there was a stone buried in the wall every dozen meters or so.

Stepping onto the protruding stones, she ran all the way up the cliff.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

When the stones were used up, she was standing on the top of the cliff.

Turning around, she saw that the Demon Chimpanzee was already down below.

"Roarrrr!"

It bellowed at Feng Wu.

That abominable human!

Feng Wu made faces at the Demon Chimpanzee. "Haha, catch me if you can!"

She knew that with the Demon Chimpanzee's size, there was no way that it could climb up using her stones. It was just too huge.

"Don't you want your baby? It's right here. Come and get it!" Resting her hands on her waist, Feng Wu jumped around.

"Damn it!"

Looking up, the Demon Chimpanzee saw the small stones and was frustrated.

It indeed couldn't climb up.

But it could try something else.

Although it wasn't as nimble as Feng Wu, it was physically much stronger.

At that thought, the Demon Chimpanzee retreated several hundred meters away.

Standing on the cliff, Feng Wu looked confused.

What was the Demon Chimpanzee doing?

Soon, she knew the answer.

The Demon Chimpanzee stopped when it was 300 meters away before it charged forward again, picking up speed as it ran.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Wait, was that even possible?

That Demon Chimpanzee wanted to knock down the cliff!

It indeed wasn't attached to the rest of the mountain, but that was such a stupid choice...

Rumble!

Chapter 1686: Face-slapping, Round 4 (5)

Feng Wu was still wondering, when the Demon Chimpanzee's giant body smashed into the cliff.

The cliff was 1000 meters tall, while the Demon Chimpanzee was only 30 meters tall.

That was a huge difference.

However!

Boom!

Feng Wu felt a tremor throughout her body when the beast smashed into the cliff. Her blood seemed to boil, and she almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

How terrifying this power was!

Was this the true capability of a Spiritual Lord?

It seemed that she had underestimated the beast's terrifying power!

The impact created a huge crack in the cliff.

Feng Wu saw it and knew that this was bad news.

If she had been down there, she could have climbed up along that crack, which would be an easy feat

However, the Demon Chimpanzee didn't realize that it had created a path up the cliff. It backed away again before it charged forward.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Although the cliff was quite sturdy, it wouldn't be able to withstand repeated smashing.

Two more times, and the cliff would collapse.

How terrifying!

How terrifying a Spiritual Lord could be!

Feng Wu knew that if it caught up with her, she would be dead!

At that thought, Feng Wu ran down the other side of the cliff.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

She gritted her teeth and kept running.

Run, run, run!

QUICKLY!

This was more dangerous than any situation she had ever faced before!

She hadn't run very far before she heard a loud smashing sound behind her.

Turning around, she saw the tall cliff collapse.

That Demon Chimpanzee was so terrifying!

It had crushed a cliff with sheer force!

How frightening!

Rocks fell down, covering the Demon Chimpanzee.

But the beast soon crawled out from under them.

It was covered with dust and had many scratches. Its glossy black fur was also filthy, but its eyes were bloodshot red with hatred!

"Damn you, human!"

After knocking the cliff over with its sheer strength, the Demon Chimpanzee bellowed angrily.

It ran after Feng Wu.

Despite the wounds, it ran even faster.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Just then, the small Demon Chimpanzee that was on Feng Wu's shoulder woke up and opened its eyes. When it saw its mother running after them, it was thrilled.

The small Demon Chimpanzee shouted, "Roar!"

The Demon Chimpanzee replied with a roar.

The small Demon Chimpanzee said, "Awww!"

The Demon Chimpanzee replied with a roar.

—

Hearing how excitedly the mother and son howled at each other, Feng Wu was speechless.

She smacked the small Demon Chimpanzee.

The small Demon Chimpanzee tried to bite Feng Wu.

Feng Wu said, "Can you stop yelling?"

The small Demon Chimpanzee only grunted.

Feng Wu said, "Here's something yummy. Eat it and stop yelling. Make another sound and I'll smack you until you're unconscious!"

She then gave the small Demon Chimpanzee some moon fish which she had put away.

On their way here to the Senal Grassland, Feng Wu happened to catch quite a few of the fish. She had planned to sell them here, but had never gotten around to it.

She could only hope that the chimpanzee ate fish.

Chapter 1687: Face-slapping, Round 4 (6)

To Feng Wu's satisfaction, the cub stopped howling after she gave it the fish. It then ate quietly.

While the Demon Chimpanzee was still bellowing, the small Demon Chimpanzee was all about eating the moon fish.

Up ahead!

A wide river blocked her way.

The current was very fast, and there was no sign of any living creatures.

One look and Feng Wu knew that it was bad news.

This could only suggest one thing.

There were undercurrents and a whirlpool in the water. Otherwise, the river would have some living creatures in it.

However...

Turning around, Feng Wu saw that the Demon Chimpanzee was closing in and was only 200 meters away. She would be doomed if she didn't jump into the river.

Without thinking, Feng Wu jumped into the river.

"Hm —"

The small Demon Chimpanzee didn't know how to swim, so it started struggling as soon as it hit the water.

Feng Wu was a great swimmer, but even she was almost carried into the black whirlpool by the undercurrents.

The Demon Chimpanzee saw the human jump into the water and was furious.

Immediately, it bellowed in frustration.

"Roarr —"

Crying, the small Demon Chimpanzee reached out toward the Demon Chimpanzee for help.

The Demon Chimpanzee didn't know what to do.

It had always lived on land and had never gone into the water.

But if it didn't go after the human, what about its baby?

Driven by its motherly instinct, the Demon Chimpanzee stepped into the water.

Feng Wu had thought that the undercurrents and whirlpool would hinder the beast for a while, but she had forgotten something.

The river was only 20 meters deep.

But the Demon Chimpanzee was 30 meters tall!

When it stepped into the river, the water only reached its waist.

The Demon Chimpanzee had thought that it was doomed, but it was baffled when it saw that the water only reached its waist. It was then elated.

Only Feng Wu could describe how frustrated she was.

Swim!

Faster!

She had tied the cub to her waist while she swam as fast as she could.

With her keen senses, she was able to dodge the black whirlpools and undercurrents. Even so, she had visibly slowed down.

But the Demon Chimpanzee didn't have any of those problems.

Undercurrents?

How could they possibly affect a creature that had just knocked down a cliff?

Whirlpool?

It was too small to suck in the 30-meter-tall Demon Chimpanzee.

The Demon Chimpanzee flattened the whirlpool with one foot.

It was unstoppable.

It would stop at nothing.

It would walk across the river.

That was what the giant chimpanzee was doing.

Feng Wu was shocked!

Seeing that the Demon Chimpanzee was catching up with her, she was almost in tears.

300 meters.

200 meters.

100 meters.

50 meters.

—

The distance between them grew smaller and smaller.

Feng Wu knew that if she didn't come up with an idea in the next 30 seconds, she would be caught.

She knew very well how much the Demon Chimpanzee hated her.

So, what should we do?

Feng Wu was worried sick, but at that moment —

She saw a layer of something black over the surface of the river ahead of her, and it gave her the creeps.

Chapter 1688: Face-slapping, Round 4 (7)

What the hell was that?

Feng Wu moved closer and saw that they were river wasps.

What were river wasps?

Other people might not know, but Feng Wu was an avid reader with a very good memory, so she recognized them.

The only difference between river wasps and regular ones was that they lived in rivers. Otherwise, the two of them were pretty much the same.

Feng Wu's eyes lit up.

She had figured out a way to handle the Demon Chimpanzee!

Luck was indeed on her side!

But where was the river wasps' hive? For her plan to work, she had to find it first!

Generally speaking, the hive was the most important thing to the river wasps, and it was also where their queen lived. Therefore, it should be located in the most ideal spot.

Feng Wu then looked to the southeast.

A willow tree stood there, and on it, a black ball the size of a hat swayed in the wind.

Feng Wu smiled.

Great!

Her luck was finally going to turn around!

"Roar!" The Demon Chimpanzee moved closer and closer!

50 meters, 30 meters...

It opened its mouth and was ready to bite Feng Wu.

What happened next was quicker than words could describe!

Grabbing the spider web with the small Demon Chimpanzee in it, Feng Wu hurled it at the river wasps' hive!

Before the cub knew what was happening, the hive was flying back toward Feng Wu.

When the hive flew past Feng Wu's head, she made her move.

Her fingers twitched, and there was a tiny flame.

Meanwhile, she spun around and kicked the hive.

It then flew into the Demon Chimpanzee's mouth!

It might sound like a lot, but the whole thing took less than a second!

Thus, apart from Feng Wu, no one else realized what had happened.

When they did, the hive was already in the Demon Chimpanzee's mouth!

The Demon Chimpanzee didn't know what to say, because it had just swallowed a burning wasp hive.

The cub was too busy eating the fish to care about anything else.

The wasps were astonished, because their queen had just been eaten!

Oh no —

This was where the river wasps lived.

And there were tens or even hundreds of thousands of river wasps here.

There were no undercurrents or whirlpools in this part of the river, which was why the wasps had settled down here. It had never occurred to them that such a thing would happen.

Rumble —

The river wasps shrieked.

Feng Wu realized that something was about to happen.

Shit!

They were about to get their revenge!

Feng Wu was in front of the Demon Chimpanzee, so she would become the river wasps' first target.

However, she wouldn't just stand there and let the wasps sting her.

Therefore, when the swarm of wasps charged at her, Feng Wu dove into the river until she was fully submerged.

Water gushed into the small Demon Chimpanzee's mouth, but Feng Wu couldn't help it right now.

She swam as fast as she could.

Disaster befell the Demon Chimpanzee.

It was completely baffled.

With its giant mouth, swallowing a wasp hive wasn't a problem for it at all.

Chapter 1689: Face-slapping, Round 4 (8)

It had swallowed the hive as soon as it was in its mouth. It was as easy as a human swallowing a pill, and the hive was only a little hotter than was normal. The chimpanzee didn't think much of it at all.

However!!!

When hundreds of thousands of wasps flew toward it, the Demon Chimpanzee finally panicked.

It finally realized that the abominable human had just fed the hive to it.

Damn it!

Its eyes went bloodshot red, and it wanted to catch Feng Wu and skin her alive!

It finally understood why that human girl dove into the river. She had it all planned out!

But it couldn't tell the river wasps that this was the human girl's plan, and have the wasps get their revenge on the girl.

The river wasps would never believe it.

The Demon Chimpanzee was so frustrated that it almost lost his mind.

It also wanted to dive into the river like that human girl, but...

It realized in frustration that even if it lay down on its back, its belly was still above the surface, because it was simply too enormous!

Feng Wu swam as hard as she could and only resurfaced after she was a few hundred meters away.

She could hold her breath for longer, but the small Demon Chimpanzee couldn't. It was almost unconscious by now.

When Feng Wu picked up the small Demon Chimpanzee from her belt, the cub was barely breathing.

Luckily, they weren't very far away from the bank.

Grabbing the cub, Feng Wu swam as fast as she could.

She was almost exhausted when she reached the shore, but she still tossed the cub onto the bank first before she slowly climbed out of the river.

Feng Wu looked back when she was ashore and saw that the Demon Chimpanzee was indeed surrounded by the river wasps.

The Demon Chimpanzee was indeed an invincible Spiritual Lord.

But the river wasps were numerous and everywhere.

Feng Wu believed that the Demon Chimpanzee would rather fight another Spiritual Lord than be surrounded by the river wasps.

It couldn't chase them away, nor could it escape. It was trapped, and the wasps were stinging it all over its body. The feeling was unbearable.

Feng Wu looked back at the small Demon Chimpanzee. It had drunk too much water, and its belly was very plump. It seemed to be in grave condition.

She then looked at the Demon Chimpanzee, who was looking at its cub anxiously. It was a mother's natural instinct.

Despite its rage, it gave Feng Wu a pleading look.

It was begging Feng Wu to save its child.

Feng Wu heaved a sigh.

Although she didn't have much time, the cub was innocent, and Feng Wu had never meant to hurt the little guy.

Fine, she would save the cub.

She quickly pressed the small Demon Chimpanzee's plump belly. One, two, three times...

Pffft!

The small Demon Chimpanzee spat out a large mouthful of water.

Turning around, Feng Wu saw that the Demon Chimpanzee was swallowing the river wasps.

Since it could neither chase them away nor escape, it simply opened its mouth and started eating them.

Feng Wu admired it for its courage.

Seeing that the Demon Chimpanzee would catch up with her soon, Feng Wu picked up the cub and started running!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

QUICKLY!

Chapter 1690: Face-slapping, Round 4 (9)

She talked to Little Phoenix as she ran.

After getting some rest on the rock, Little Phoenix's wounds had healed a little. It panted as it said, "I'm still alive, but if you want to save that horse, you need to move faster. It's been forced onto a cliff. I'm headed there myself. Hurry up!"

It then sent Feng Wu a map with a flickering red dot on it through its mind.

It was where the horse was trapped.

Taking a deep breath, Feng Wu nodded. "I'm only five minutes away! I'll be there soon!"

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

She then dashed off.

With the small Demon Chimpanzee, the Demon Chimpanzee would definitely follow her.

She ran past trees, rocks, bushes, and rivers...

She didn't try to hide her tracks since there was no need to. She simply ran as fast as she could.

The tracks she left behind would give the chimpanzee the direction to follow.

Meanwhile, the Demon Chimpanzee —

After it devoured about half of the river wasps, the rest were finally scared off by its imposing manner.

The river wasps liked to pick on those that were weaker than them and were good at fighting as a group, but they couldn't withstand something as terrifying as the Demon Chimpanzee!

Other creatures could become very frantic during a fight.

But the Demon Chimpanzee was even worse. It ate its opponents!

How horrible...

Although the remaining river wasps fled in fear, the Demon Chimpanzee didn't exactly win the battle.

The wasps had surrounded it earlier...

They shouldn't have broken through its defense, but...

The Demon Chimpanzee was too proud!

It had pulled its hair off earlier to shoot at Little Phoenix.

Sure, the hair would grow back, but it would still hurt the hair follicles.

The Demon Chimpanzee's defense had been as seamless as steel armor before. Although the river wasps were numerous, they wouldn't be able to harm it if they couldn't breach its defense.

But because of the damaged hair follicles, the Demon Chimpanzee was miserable.

These river wasps were everywhere!

They all crawled into its hair follicles!

They then stung it together, and the Demon Chimpanzee didn't ever want to experience that prickly feeling again.

Luckily, the river wasps finally retreated when the Demon Chimpanzee went berserk.

"Damn you! Damn you, human!!!"

The Demon Chimpanzee bellowed and rushed toward the riverbank.

But Feng Wu and its child were nowhere to be found when it got there. "Damn it!" it roared.

Infuriated, the Demon Chimpanzee lashed out.

All the trees and stones by the river were smashed to pieces.

But what choice did it have apart from going after Feng Wu?

"I'll cut you into little pieces and roast you when I catch you! I'll eat you piece by piece!" the Demon Chimpanzee swore.

What it didn't know was that the girl it wanted to grill had already set a trap for it to jump into.

Feng Wu ran as fast as she could.

The horse was very close. If she didn't get to it in time, everything would fall apart.

QUICKLY!

Feng Wu could see in her head that she was getting closer and closer to the red dot.