Chapter 181: You Just Can't Do Anything Right...

Had she... been brought back from the dead?

Only then did Yan Yan notice that three golden needles were stuck in Mrs Ning's chest, still trembling.

"I..." Mrs Ning was so weak that her voice was barely audible. She gave Feng Wu a wry smile. "I had this dream that I was dead... I was on this bridge and was going to take the oblivion potion from Meng Po when you woke me up..."

Mrs Yan held Mrs Ning's hand tight and burst into tears. That was exactly what had happened. Young Master Ba had declared her dead a moment ago...

Feng Wu said, "Mrs Ning, you need to save your energy. Please close your eyes and get some rest. I'll take care of everything."

Outside, Ning Chenxi and General Wu heard Mrs Ning's voice, and they thought that it was the most wonderful sound they had ever heard!

She had really been brought back from the dead?!

Young Master Ba's eyes widened in disbelief. "That can't be! She wasn't breathing and had no pulse... she was dead... she really was..."

Meanwhile, Mrs Ning grabbed Feng Wu's hand and said, "... If it's possible... please save my babies... please promise me..."

Feng Wu shook her head. "Your babies aren't the only ones I'm going to save. I'm going to save you as well. Please don't worry."

After that, Feng Wu slit Mrs Ning's chest open with her dagger!

Whoosh —

Blood splashed out all over Yan Yan's face!

You did that on purpose! Yan Yan glared at Feng Wu! She was going to say something when Mrs Yan covered Yan Yan's mouth and warned the latter with her eyes!

Right now, Feng Wu's nimble fingers had reached Mrs Ning's heart and a faint green light glowed on her fingertips. That was the healing light particular to medicine refiners!

Mrs Ning's punctured heart grew back as she watched.

At the moment, time was of the essence for Feng Wu. Hence, before the ribs fully recovered, Feng Wu sewed Mrs Ning back up, and the entire process took less than a minute.

"Is that all?" Mrs Yan frowned at Feng Wu.

All she saw was Feng Wu moving her hands around inside Mrs Ning's chest, and before Mrs Yan could see anything clearly, it was over.

Feng Wu didn't answer her. The dagger in her hand was aimed at Mrs Ning's bulging belly now.

"What do you think you're doing?!" Mrs Yan cried out. Was this girl trying to kill someone?!

Feng Wu ignored her. She slid the thin blade across Mrs Ning's belly and made a small cut before handing the dagger to Qiuling.

She then stuck her hands into Mrs Ning's belly.

"Ahhh —" Yan Yan was shocked. That was so brutal!

She couldn't take it anymore and turned around to throw up.

Mrs Yan kept her unblinking gaze on Feng Wu. Was she going to take the baby out just like that? She must have lost her mind!

Mrs Yan had guessed right.

The next second —

Feng Wu took out a chubby male baby with both hands. She glanced at Mrs Yan and said, "The baby basket."

"Oh, right —" Mrs Yan's head had gone blank at all the things Feng Wu was doing. Only then did she come back to herself and take out the baby basket they had prepared. The baby with purplish skin was then put inside.

"But, why isn't he crying?" Mrs Yan put a finger to the baby's nose, but didn't feel any breathing!

Shocked, she felt the baby's pulse!

There was none either!

"He's dead! It's a stillborn!" Frightened, Mrs Yan lost her balance and nearly dropped the baby.

She just couldn't do anything right... Taking a deep breath, Feng Wu cast a stern look at Mrs Yan. "Drop him and you'll really have a dead baby!"

Chapter 182: Is She That Good A Doctor?

Keeping her eyes on Mrs Yan, Feng Wu went back to working on Mrs Ning and soon took the other baby out of Mrs Ning's belly.

Mrs Yan had been following Feng Wu with her eyes and she cried out when she saw the baby in Feng Wu's hands. "There really is a baby girl. It's true... and the umbilical cord is around her neck... you —"

The girl had barely felt her sister's pulse before reaching that conclusion. So far, everything was turning out just as the girl said. Could all that be ascribed to coincidence alone?

After putting the baby girl, who was the size of a kitten, into the baby basket, Feng Wu quickly sutured the wound on Mrs Ning's belly.

"Neither of the babies are crying..." Having being scared stiff by Mrs Ning's condition first and petrified by Feng Wu's treatment methods afterward, Mrs Yan could no longer think straight. She turned to Feng Wu with pleading eyes. "What are we going to do now? The babies..."

Even Mrs Yan herself didn't realize that she had grown to trust Feng Wu a lot...

Feng Wu took out five golden needles, and in a split second, they were all in the baby girl.

There was one needle each in the baby's head, throat, heart, stomach, and navel... then, with a wave of Feng Wu's hand, all five needles began to vibrate!

The next second —

"Waa —" The baby girl wailed.

It was just that she was very weak to begin with, so her wails were more like the hums of a kitten.

Feng Wu then took the baby boy from Mrs Yan, and with the help of two golden needles, the baby began to cry loudly as well.

"My children... my babies..." Mrs Ning's hands reached out to Feng Wu.

Taking the two babies to Mrs Ning, Feng Wu let out a breath of relief and smiled. "I'm glad that I didn't disappoint you, Mrs Ning. Both of your babies have come through —"

"That's impossible!" When Young Master Ba heard the babies' cries, he was dumbfounded! How could that have happened? He didn't understand!

When Young Master Ba rushed into the tent, he went straight to Mrs Ning.

Seeing the weak but conscious Mrs Ning and the crying babies, Young Master Ba felt that his head had gone blank. With a bewildered look on his face, he felt Mrs Ning's pulse.

"The ribs are fixed, the punctured heart is repaired, the bleeding has stopped, and the two babies were successfully delivered. That's..." Young Master Ba stared at Feng Wu, as if he had seen a ghost. "That's impossible! Even my grandfather couldn't have done it! Who on earth are you?!"

Mrs Yan and Yan Yan also stared at Feng Wu in amazement. Who was this girl?

Outside, Feng Yiran and Feng Liu stood there dazed when they heard the news...

"That can't be! How can she... Is she really that good a doctor?" Feng Liu clenched her fists, disbelief written all over her face. She would never admit that Feng Wu was an expert in medicine!

Feng Yiran frowned as well. "I heard that she had had a few precious pills with her back then..."

"That's it!" Feng Liu jumped at the first excuse she could find to deceive herself. She smirked. "No wonder she could cure Mrs Ning. It was all thanks to those pills. She did nothing herself!"

Feng Yiran nodded, but wasn't fully convinced.

Just then, there was a rumble and the ground shook violently.

Feng Wu's face darkened right away and she rushed out of the tent!

She knew something like this was going to happen —

As they watched, the houses in Wanping Town collapsed one after another —

Chapter 183: Her Name

As the houses crumbled, screams filled the air. Judging by the sounds, one could imagine how many people must have been buried by the earthquake!

“We need to help them! Where is everyone?!” Feng Wu cried out.

General Wu rubbed his forehead. “The wave of magical beasts is trying to break into the town and we’re in grave danger. All the soldiers are guarding the gate now. We don’t have any spare hands now to help the people.”

Ning Chenxi immediately instructed his guards to help the townsfolk dig the others out from under the ruins. However, those they saved were all covered in injuries and were barely breathing. It seemed that they were going to lose them after all...

The head of the town watched this in distress. “All the medicine refiners in town were assigned to the gate to treat the soldiers in need. The people here...”

Everyone despaired at the current situation.

They had ferocious magical beasts outside the gate.

And the aftershocks from the earthquake kept coming.

Numerous soldiers and civilians were injured and they had neither enough medicine refiners nor the adequate medicine. Was Wanping Town going to be destroyed today?

“Have you sent people out for help?”

While everyone else was on edge, Feng Wu remained level-headed and composed.

“We’ve sent several groups out already, but because of the magical beasts out there, they... were all killed...” General Wu clenched his fists, his eyes bloodshot red. “The authorities still have no idea of the level of casualties we’ve suffered here. If we can deliver the message to Anping City, we’ll be able to get some reinforcements!”

“I’ll go!” Ning Chenxi rose to his feet.

“No!” General Wu rejected that right away!

“Why?”

“... Young Master Ning, it’s not for someone of your noble status to undertake. The chance of dying is too great for you to take that risk!”

“I’m the son of the governor; that’s exactly why I should go! Everyone here will be killed if I don’t! But if I go, there’s still a chance for us. Moreover, the mayor of Anping City knows me. I’m the most suitable candidate for the job!”

General Wu was rendered speechless.

Ning Chenxi turned to Feng Wu. “Thank you for saving my mother. I’ll thank you properly after I get back!”

After that, Ning Chenxi turned to leave.

“Wait.” Feng Wu stopped Ning Chenxi and tossed him a bottle of repellent when he turned around. She said calmly, “That’s some repellent. I can’t promise that it’ll keep you absolutely safe, but it’ll buy you some time.”

Repellent... that was a very precious potion! Especially when so many magical beasts were laying siege to the city, a potion like that could save lives! Ning Chenxi looked at Feng Wu with tears in his eyes. “I...”

Feng Wu nodded at him, then turned round and busied herself with helping the wounded!

When Ning Chenxi came out of his sentimental mood, the girl was nowhere to be seen.

Ning Chenxi frowned. He might not survive this trip, but he still hadn’t found out his beloved girl’s name... he didn’t want to die with such regrets!

He spotted Feng Yiran a few steps away and his eyes lit up. If he was guessing right, the guy was connected to the girl somehow. So —

“Her name is —” Ning Chenxi asked.

Feng Liu had been observing them on the side this whole time, and naturally, she knew who Ning Chenxi was asking about. She would be lying if she said that she wasn’t jealous!

Feng Wu had saved both Mrs Ning and her babies. And it was obvious that Ning Chenxi had a thing for her...

Hence, before Feng Yiran could reply, Feng Liu blurted out without a second thought, “Feng Liu!”

Chapter 184: Her Name Is Feng Liu

“Hm?” Ning Chenxi frowned.

“Her name is Feng Liu.” Once the hardest part was over, Feng Liu had no problem sticking to her lie. “She’s Feng Liu, the sixth daughter of the Feng family in the imperial capital.”

“Thank you.” Ning Chenxi cupped his fists at Feng Liu, then turned around and left.

Feng Liu... Feng Liu... what a nice name. After this was over, he would ask his mother to propose a marriage to her family. Ning Chenxi grinned.

Once Ning Chenxi was out of sight, Feng Yiran’s face darkened!

“Feng Liu!” Feng Yiran glowered at Feng Liu. “Who are you trying to fool with such a lousy lie?! How long do you think you can fool him for?!”

“As long as it takes. The Ning family will have to come to me if they want to thank Feng Wu later, and I’ll just turn them down. I’m not going to let Feng Wu take the credit!” Feng Liu said carelessly.

Feng Yiran didn’t know what to say to that...

Completely absorbed in saving the wounded, Feng Wu had no idea that Feng Liu had taken the credit in her place...

Standing on top of the city wall, Ning Chenxi downed the repellent potion. The next second, he jumped into the densely-packed horde of magical beasts!

As he ran past them, for a split second, the beasts forgot about attacking him!

And that one moment was all Ning Chenxi needed!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Ning Chenxi ran at his top speed and wove through the crowd despite the great danger!

Once they began to realize what was going on, the magical beasts chased him frantically while Ning Chenxi rode off as fast as he could on horseback!

As he fled past numerous old trees, the magical beasts kept getting closer and closer!

They were almost on him —

At that critical moment —

“Why, Boss Jun, you were right. There really is a wave of magical beasts —”

If Feng Wu was here, she would recognize that voice right away.

It belonged to none other than Feng Xun, the young lord of the Feng family, himself!

High up on a mountain slope, Feng Xun, Xuan Yi and Jun Linyuan were sitting on horses as they watched the person gallop off on horseback with all the beasts chasing him.

Feng Xun chuckled. “This must be the worst day of that guy’s life. Look at all those magical beasts! If I’m guessing right, he’ll be surrounded in less than a minute...”

Jun Linyuan darted a casual look at Feng Xun. “It’s time for you to save him now.”

Feng Xun rubbed his nose. “Boss Jun, I can’t fight all those magical beasts down there. It’ll be too risky. I don’t want to get myself killed to save him...”

“You’ll regret it,” said Jun Linyuan indifferently.

“Regret? Why? Wait, why does that guy look so familiar?” Feng Xun craned his neck.

Xuan Yi frowned a little. “He looks familiar to me, too...”

“Shit!”

Feng Xun cried out when the teenager was close enough. No wonder he found the guy familiar! It was his cousin, whom he had met just a while ago! No wonder Boss Jun told him to save the guy before he regretted it!

“Chenxi! Ning Chenxi!” Feng Xun dashed off on horseback down the mountain slope!

Ning Chenxi was overwhelmed with consternation at that moment. Who wouldn’t be, chased by so many magical beasts? The closer the beasts got, the more perturbed he became.

Ning Chenxi found that familiar voice the most pleasant sound he had ever heard. Was despair giving him hallucinations now?

Chapter 185: She’s the Only Girl I’ll Marry!

“Ning Chenxi!” Feng Xun got to him in no time. “What are you thinking, messing with so many magical beasts? Are you trying to get yourself killed?”

Ning Chenxi looked to his right and saw a familiar figure rushing toward him!

“Ahh!!!” Ning Chenxi almost burst into excited tears. “Cousin! Cousin Feng! Help! Ahhh —”

Heaven hadn’t forsaken him after all!

Ning Chenxi had been wondering if Feng Xun and the others could still be in Anping City, when they showed up in front of him!

Since Feng Xun had run out to help, Xuan Yi couldn’t sit by and watch.

Seeing the hard battle down below, Jun Linyuan grew impatient. Somehow, he felt a little restless...

Right away, his fingers moved, making a complicated pattern. The next moment —

Rumble!

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled. Numerous streaks of lightning fell like a downpour and struck the magical beasts!

The rampaging wave of magical beasts that had been so sure of themselves a moment ago was instantly cut down by a third!

That successfully baffled the beasts. They looked up involuntarily at the teenager in the black robe up on the mountain slope!

“Crushing Thunderbolt!”

Another one of Jun Linyuan’s killing stances followed!

Rumble!

Countless streaks of lightning filled the space between heaven and earth like silver snakes!

All the magical beasts looked terrified. This was too much! They turned around and fled at once!

Apart from the charred bodies on the ground, there were no magical beasts in sight!

Ning Chenxi watched this in astonishment.

The same wave of magical beasts that had almost killed him several times over had been taken care of by His Royal Highness with just two stances...

They were teenagers of the same age!

How big a disparity could there be?!

Seeing the baffled look on Ning Chenxi's face, Feng Xun patted him on the shoulder. "Dummy, stop gawking and be polite!"

"Boss Jun!"

Jun Linyuan waved him off. "What happened?"

Seeing that Jun Linyuan was addressing him directly, Ning Chenxi was over the moon. The more excited he was, the faster he talked. In less than two minutes, he told them everything.

"The girl that saved your mother..."

"Her name is Feng Liu!" Ning Chenxi said in exhilaration. "Brothers! I've found my dream girl!"

At that thought, Ning Chenxi was suddenly on the alert. "Feng Liu is mine. Brothers, she's off limits now!"

Feng Xun stuck a finger in his ear, took it out, then asked in a strange voice, "What did you say... her name was?"

"I've got it all figured out. Her name is Feng Liu and she's the sixth daughter of the Feng family in the imperial capital!" Ning Chenxi couldn't control his excited voice. "She's beautiful, kind, elegant, level-headed, and wise... I've never met a girl so perfect!"

"Feng Liu..." Feng Xun looked up and gave Xuan Yi and Jun Linyuan a strange look in turn. In the end, he stared at Ning Chenxi and asked tentatively, "Are you sure the girl you're talking about is called Feng Liu?"

"That's right! The sixth daughter of the Feng family!" Ning Chenxi's fair cheeks flushed in excitement. "Once we're settled back at home, I'll ask my mother to propose a marriage to the Feng family."

"Propose a marriage?!" Feng Xun thought his eyeballs were going to fall out.

"Yes!" Ning Chenxi clenched his fists. "Feng Liu is my dream girl and she's the only one I want to marry!"

Jun Linyuan said, "What is said —"

"Can't be retracted!!!"

Chapter 186: Oh God!

Feng Xun darted a bemused look at Jun Linyuan.

Boss Jun had never given a damn about anyone or anything; why was he suddenly in the mood to tease Ning Chenxi now?

But Feng Xun didn't give it much thought, for he was busy persuading Ning Chenxi at the moment.

"Ning Chenxi, have you gone bonkers? You'll marry no one but Feng Liu? Do you even know what kind of girl she is? What are you thinking?" Frowning, Feng Xun found Ning Chenxi's decision unbelievable.

"Feng Liu is the worst. She's snobbish, unkind, arrogant, and vicious..."

Ning Chenxi, who had looked rather shy only a moment ago, jumped to his feet at those words and glared at Feng Xun. "Cousin! How can you say such things about her behind her back? I guarantee you that Feng Liu is nothing like that! I've seen it with my own eyes. She's the best!"

That almost gave Feng Xun a heart attack. Jabbing Ning Chenxi in the head with a finger, he said, "Are you blind or something? You've seen it with your own eyes? Feng Liu is the sixth daughter of the Feng family and used to run after Feng Wu. But once Feng Wu was crippled, not only did Feng Liu twist the knife, she even tried to kill Feng Wu. You call someone that evil 'the best'? Are you nuts?!"

"Cousin!" Ning Chenxi's eyes were bloodshot red as he said solemnly, "I respect you as a cousin. But, if you say one more bad thing about Feng Liu, you won't be my buddy anymore!"

"You —" Feng Xun was so frustrated that he felt like choking his idiotic young cousin. "You've lost your mind!"

"I haven't! She's the best! She is! No one can say anything bad about her when I'm around! I'm going to marry her and no one can stop me! Cousin, even if you can't offer me your blessing, the least you can do is respect my decision!" Ning Chenxi said with a straight face.

Feng Xun fumed like an erupting volcano.

Jun Linyuan darted a nonchalant glance at Feng Xun. "Mind your own business."

Feng Xun was vexed to begin with, and Jun Linyuan's comment nearly made him choke on his own breath.

Glaring at Ning Chenxi, Feng Xun said, "Fine, fine. I stuck my nose into your business. You want to marry Feng Liu? Marry away! Go ahead! I'll wait to see how long it'll take you to regret it!"

Ning Chenxi glowered at Feng Xun. "We'll be very happy together!"

Feng Xun waved him off. "Aren't you supposed to be getting reinforcements from Anping City? Go, go now —"

"But cousin, with you guys here, what other reinforcements do I need?"

"I don't want to see you now! Get lost!" Feng Xun kicked Ning Chenxi in the butt.

Ning Chenxi jumped onto his horse and promptly set out, yelling over his shoulder, "Cousin, you guys go help the people of Wanping Town first. My mum and Feng Liuliu are both there. Promise me you'll keep them safe for me —"

“Feng Liuli? I’m gonna throw up!” Feng Xun swore he was getting a headache as he watched Ning Chenxi dash off. Turning around, he asked his buddies, “Tell me now. Is it me, or there’s really something seriously wrong with him?!”

Jun Linyuan darted Feng Xun a glance without saying anything. He then flicked the reins and dashed off first on his snowy white horse.

Concerned about the current situation in Wanping Town, Feng Xun pulled the reins on his horse and charged out after Jun Linyuan!

An idea suddenly struck him and his stomach lurched. “Oh god!”

Xuan Yi gave Feng Xun a bewildered look. “Why are you so jumpy today?”

“If Feng Liu is in Wanping Town, what about Feng Wu? We tricked her brother and sent him to the imperial capital in secret. Feng Wu will definitely go after him, and she’s very likely traveling with Feng Liu!”

“So?” Jun Linyuan asked unhurriedly.

Chapter 187: Razed to the Ground

“So —” Feng Xun scratched his head. “What are we gonna do... if we run into Feng Wu?”

The faintest smile emerged on Jun Linyuan’s well-sculpted face. “Are you afraid of her?”

Feng Xun said grumpily, “We abducted her brother, for heaven’s sake! And we did it behind her back! I bet she can’t wait to strangle me...”

He pulled his neck in as he said that.

Xuan Yi gave Feng Xun a look. “Young Lord Feng, are you frightened of a girl?”

“You don’t understand!” Feng Xun glared at Xuan Yi. “When Feng Wu stares at you with her big black eyes without saying a word, don’t you feel terrified?”

Xuan Yi rubbed his chin and gave Jun Linyuan a glance, then said, “That’s called an ‘aura.’”

Same as Boss Jun, Feng Wu’s gaze was sharper than a cold blade that threatened to kill any stranger who came too close without permission.

Feng Xun nodded immediately. “That’s so true. Anyway, my stomach turns whenever Feng Wu looks at me like that.”

“‘We’ abducted his brother?” Jun Linyuan looked casually in Feng Xun’s direction.

Puckering up his face, Feng Xun said, “Me, it was all me. I came up with the idea... Gosh, will Feng Wu kill me when she sees me next time?”

Jun Linyuan gave him the slightest smile and murmured, “If she owes you her life...”

That immediately cheered Feng Xun up. “That’s right. Exactly! She won’t do anything to me if I save her life! Let’s go now! I have to save her this time!”

“I’ll go first.” Jun Linyuan was unbelievably fast. He was out of sight almost immediately after that.

“Boss Jun is so nice to me,” Feng Xun mumbled gratefully as he watched Jun Linyuan turn into a tiny black dot on the horizon.

Xuan Yi gave him a questioning look.

Feng Xun was so touched and his tone was full of emotion. “Boss Jun hurried off just to help me make Feng Wu owe me her life. He would never try to save anyone if it wasn’t for me, not to mention that he doesn’t even like Feng Wu. Sigh. I owe Boss Jun so much —”

A suspicious look flickered in Xuan Yi’s brooding eyes. “... But...”

Feng Xun looked at him in bewilderment.

Rubbing his nose, Xuan Yi shook his head with a wry smile on his face. Somehow, he was understanding the whole thing differently from Feng Xun. But was he supposed to believe that Boss Jun actually cared about Feng Wu? Xuan Yi shook his head. There was no way that Boss Jun would go for a useless girl like that.

As they rushed toward Wanping Town, the town itself was surrounded on all sides by magical beasts!

Although Ning Chenxi had lured away some of the magical beasts, more were coming out of the mountains in endless waves. Hence, Wanping Town had been under constant attack this whole time!

The town might be able to hold on for a while if it was only attacked by land beasts outside the gate. However, magical beasts were coming down from the sky as well!

Thud, thud, thud —

There were magical eagles, bats, and all kinds of other birds... Countless flying beasts batted their wings, covering the sky as they attacked the town with their abilities.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Streaks of lightning flashed in the air, lighting up the sky as if it was daytime!

The look on General Wu’s face was very grim!

Because of its strategic importance, not only were there many soldiers stationed at Wanping Town, a defense formation had been set up in the town as well. However, if the attack from the flying magical beasts continued, that formation wouldn’t be able to last much longer... If that happened, the entire Wanping Town would be razed to the ground!

What to do? Everyone looked extremely anxious!

Chapter 188: Get Them Out of Here!

Everyone looked extremely anxious!

If the town was breached, no one here would survive the day!

Because of the earthquake, more than half the houses in Wanping Town had collapsed. Fortunately, most of the villagers had run out in time and only some of them had been buried under the ruins.

The people of Wanping Town were used to such situations. The young and the strong were sent to the gate tower to help with defense, and the middle-aged men began to dig for those buried under the collapsed houses, while the women and children took care of the wounded.

All the sick and wounded were taken to a spacious makeshift army tent.

Jiang Yuan was a mid-level medicine refiner and a medical officer who had been stationed in Wanping Town for a while. Right now, as he led a team of junior medicine refiners, he was busy saving lives.

He looked pained as he watched all the wounded being taken out of the ruins.

“We still have so many wounded soldiers to treat out there on the city walls. With all the wounded civilians here, how are we going to treat everyone in time...” Jiang Yuan was worried sick as he looked around the tent, disconsolate.

“Doctor Jiang... I say we focus on the soldiers first,” Li, a junior medicine refiner working under Jiang Yuan, whispered in his ear. “We need to set our priorities. We’ll be safe here if they can guard the gate. Otherwise... we’ll all be dead. If that happens, all these people that we save here will still die in the end. So, how about we...”

“Young Master Ba is out there at the gate; I’m sure he’s more than capable of helping the soldiers. Since he sent us here, the most important thing for us now is to treat the townspeople. Moreover, these people have been living here in Wanping Town for generations, and help guard the border. They’re the real unsung heroes!”

Doctor Li said in a low voice, “I saw Young Master Ba rushing toward the gate angrily just then. I wonder what happened...”

Jiang Yuan snapped, “Save your spit! Get on with helping the patients already!”

The common folk of Wanping Town were indeed well-trained. The team consisted of middle-aged men who stayed silent and composed. None of them uttered any unnecessary words even when those buried were their next of kin. They only fought back their tears and carried the wounded toward the army tent.

“Wait —” Doctor Li looked at the severely wounded townsfolk and was going to start treating them when he saw that all those lying on stretchers had notes stuck to their chests.

Picking up the notes, Doctor Li read in a low voice, “Intracranial hemorrhage, stopped with a silver needle. Ruptured spleen, repaired, needs immediate suture. Torn ankle tendon and comminuted fracture, already treated, only needs recovery ointment...”

Doctor Li laughed as he read on. "Is this supposed to be a joke? How can anyone stop an intracranial hemorrhage like that? And no one can repair a ruptured spleen without opening up the patient! And that ankle, that requires an amputation! This is ridiculous! It's interfering with our normal procedures!"

"Zhao Qian!" Doctor Li scolded the leader of the middle-aged team doing the digging. "Who on earth did this? This is monkey business! Whoever did this, get them out of here!"

"Is it monkey business?" Zhao Qian looked troubled.

He had seen with his own eyes that with a wave of her hand and a flicker of golden needles, that beautiful young lady straightaway stopped Zhao Wu from bleeding out...

And it wasn't just Zhao Wu. It was the same with Zhao Liu, Zhao Qi, Zhao Ba...

"Of course it is! We're working our asses off here and someone is still trying to make fun of us! That's just abominable!" Doctor Li reprimanded loudly.

Chapter 189: No One Died!

Just then, the look on Jiang Yuan's face changed a little. Staring at Zhao Wu, he told Zhao Qian, "Put Zhao Wu down on the bunk! Quickly!"

"Yes." Zhao Qian did as told right away.

"Doctor Jiang..."

Doctor Li looked at Jiang Yuan in confusion, but the latter was closely examining Zhao Wu, who was still unconscious.

Taking Zhao Wu's wrist, Jiang Yuan felt his pulse carefully... the look on Jiang Yuan's face turned ineffable when he realized what he was looking at.

To avoid making any possible mistakes, Jiang Yuan took out some specific medical tools and ran a more thorough examination. He then drew in his breath.

He wouldn't have been as surprised if Zhao Wu was the only case.

But after him, everyone that was carried in all had notes stuck to their chests, which stated their injuries, what treatment they had been given, and what procedures should be carried out from thereon.

"This..." Doctor Li looked at Jiang Yuan in bewilderment. "Captain Jiang, this..."

All the other junior medicine refiners were all staring at Jiang Yuan in disbelief.

They knew that there were amazing medicine refiners out there, but they never expected one to be this good!

With an operation like this, they had expected to be all over the place, working their asses off...

And usually, it would take them at least two hours to treat one patient...

Usually...

However, now that the mysterious medicine refiner was on the team, all they needed to do was follow the instructions on the notes, and they were able to finish up with a patient in under 15 minutes. The increase in efficiency was unbelievable!

Before they knew it, they had gone through almost all of the hundreds of patients in the tent!

Jiang Yuan grabbed Zhao Qian right away. "Where is this person? Take me to them!"

Naturally, Zhao Qian had no objections to that. He took Jiang Yuan to that amazing young lady.

Despite having prepared himself for what he might find, when Jiang Yuan learned that the remarkable medicine refiner was a young woman, he was still baffled when he saw Feng Wu!

"Was it you? Were you the one who saved all those townsfolk back there?"

Jiang Yuan found Feng Wu at the wall.

Feng Wu was crouching down and sewing the severed hand back onto the arm of a teenager.

"You —" Seeing that Feng Wu was calmly reconnecting a hand to an arm, Jiang Yuan's eyes widened. "Will that work? Can it be sewed back on just like that?"

If he hadn't seen those precise instructions on the notes and the excellent treatment methods for himself, Jiang Yuan would never believe that one could reattach a severed limb with catgut alone.

Feng Wu darted a glance at him.

Knowing that Jiang Yuan had been completely convinced by Feng Wu's medical skills, Zhao Qian made the introduction immediately. "This is Doctor Jiang, Jiang Yuan. Doctor Jiang here is in charge of treating all the wounded folk."

"You're a mid-level medicine refiner?" Feng Wu asked casually.

"Yes. And may I ask what your level is?"

Jiang Yuan had his conjecture about the level of the young medicine refiner here.

According to Jiang Yuan's original estimates, at least 200 out of those 300 wounded townsfolk would have died while being treated. However, after the initial treatment by the young woman here, all of them survived!

None of them died!

It was beyond imagination!

But, that was exactly what had happened.

Jiang Yuan did the comparisons in his head. Even Young Master Ba himself might be outshone by this young lady here.

No, Young Master Ba definitely wouldn't be able to achieve something like this. For if he could, given his personality, he would have done it already...

Feng Wu darted a confused look at Jiang Yuan. "Doctor Jiang?"

Chapter 190: Astounded!

“Doctor Jiang?” Feng Wu called his name again.

“What? Oh —” Jiang Yuan came back to himself. Looking at Feng Wu, he asked, “May I call you Miss Feng?”

Feng Wu gave him a nod. Even when she wasn’t looking, her hands were still sewing steadily.

“Miss Feng, what medicine refiner level are you?” Jiang Yuan sounded bewildered.

As much as he trusted this Miss Feng’s capability, she still looked too young to be...

“The medicine refiner level?” Feng Wu shook her head. “I’ve never taken a test, so I don’t know for sure.”

Although... it was very likely that she had reached the grandmaster level, Feng Wu added in her head.

Doctor Jiang fell silent.

“So...” Jiang Yuan couldn’t help but ask, “After you sew the hand back on, he can use it? As good as new?”

“What else? Do you think I’m doing this for fun?” Feng Wu rolled her eyes at Jiang Yuan. “You finish this up.”

To be honest, Feng Wu had the natural prestige of an august leader when she turned serious.

Jiang Yuan was the most superior medicine refiner after Young Master Ba and a commanding figure here in Wanping Town. However, he obeyed Feng Wu as soon as her stern gaze turned his way. It just came so naturally...

He took over the job and Feng Wu gave him the instructions. “Make sure you seal off his Quze Acupoint first when you do the suture. The spiritual essence should go into the Tianquan Acupoint through the needle and out through Quze after flushing his meridians...”

Jiang Yuan did as told.

He only realized after making five stitches that he was here to investigate this mysterious medicine refiner, yet he was doing her bidding now. This wasn’t like him at all.

Jiang Yuan wasn’t the only one feeling that way. His junior medicine refiners were also eyeing one another in bewilderment.

Since he had started, Jiang Yuan thought that he might as well stick to it to the end.

Sparing Jiang Yuan a fraction of her attention, Feng Wu focused on the rest of the other wounded soldiers.

The soldiers had severed limbs, crushed chests, or ruptured abdomens... some were even suffering head wounds from the flying magical beasts. There was blood everywhere.

After Jiang Yuan finally finished sewing up that hand, he examined the patient closely. What he found astounded him!

What?!

The meridians in the entire arm were working!

Anyone could sew a severed limb back on like putting two pieces of cloth together. The flesh could be put back together easily, but the problem was with the meridians. That had always been an unsolved problem until now —

Jiang Yuan's eyes widened in disbelief!

He still couldn't believe his eyes. Holding the arm tentatively and almost wrapping himself around the soldier, he examined it again.

"This is real. This is happening. It's really been reattached... and the meridians are all working. If everything goes as planned, the arm will be as good as new once the wound is healed... OMG!" Jiang Yuan then gave Feng Wu another look in bewilderment.

However, what he saw astounded him further!

While he was sewing up the arm of that wounded man, the young Miss Feng had finished treating a row of wounded soldiers...

Seeing the bemused look in Jiang Yuan's eyes, Doctor Li nodded. "Captain, while you were helping that one, Miss Feng treated twenty already..."
