Chapter 1851: Feng Wu's Super Patron (2)

Little Phoenix really was the one who was known as Boss Phoenix!

The white fairy remembered that Chu Tianxiao used to have an invincible master, and that mysterious master, who used to rule the continent, had a proud phoenix.

She found the bird quite pretty back then, but when she said something that offended it, Boss Phoenix punished her by making her reflect upon her faults by the Black Pond in Phoenix Mountain for three years!

She lived those three years in hell and wanted to kill herself all the time. Hence, she had always been deeply frightened of Boss Phoenix.

Back then, Chu Tianxiao wouldn't help her either. He even told her that Boss Phoenix represented his master, and offending the bird was the same as offending his master... Chu Tianxiao admired his master blindly.

Chu Tianxiao had some rules.

Everything his master said was correct.

If his master told him to do something, he would rather die than see it unfinished.

He would never ask any questions, and he firmly believed in his master.

And that war...

The memory made the white fairy's head ache terribly.

She couldn't bring herself to think of that slaughter. It was so miserable.

Right now, Boss Phoenix, whom she thought was dead, was following Feng Wu around. What did that mean?

"You —" The white fairy felt her knees buckle.

Little Phoenix threw a dirty look at her. "Say nothing, and just be yourself!"

The white fairy looked intimidated. She nodded, but vented her sarcasm in her head.

She now knew who the bird really was, so how was she supposed to be herself? Around the bird, she was just a little girl.

She wanted to ask what happened to the stunning white-robed figure.

Although she had continually stressed how amazing Chu Tianxiao was, compared with that man, Chu Tianxiao was a mere servant.

Feng Wu sensed the change in mood as she walked, and she suddenly turned her head.

The white fairy jumped when their eyes met.

Feng Wu was dumbfounded. “Dear fairy, what’s wrong? You don’t look too well.”

“No, I’m fine. What can possibly be wrong? Haha —” The white fairy waved her hand.

Feng Wu sounded concerned when she said, “Did you spend too much energy to help me, and injured yourself? Please let me give you some spiritual essence.”

The white fairy would have said yes in any other situation.

Because Feng Wu’s spiritual essence was very pure and dense, it would help the white fairy greatly.

But now —

The white fairy stole a glance at the bird.

The bird smirked.

The white fairy’s stomach lurched, and she waved at Feng Wu. “No, there’s no need! Please don’t bother!”

Feng Wu gave the white fairy a suspicious look. “What happened to you?”

She felt like a different person.

The white fairy said, “No one here is capable enough to defeat me, so what can possibly go wrong? By the way, don’t you still want your Fallen Star Sword?”

“Gosh!” Feng Wu suddenly remembered.

When she first entered this place, the white fairy had put her Fallen Star Sword somewhere so that it could absorb spiritual essence.

Then with what happened with Qiuling and the lucky draw, she almost forgot about her sword.

“But won’t it be too much trouble if we double back now?” asked Feng Wu.

Chapter 1852: Feng Wu’s Super Patron (3)

The white fairy wasn’t exactly famous for her good temper. She was proud and aloof, and Feng Wu often had to beg or coax her for help.

But the fairy was being awfully nice now. “No, of course it’s no bother. If you like, I’ll take you there through a shortcut.”

Feng Wu looked at her in amazement.

This didn’t feel right. This white fairy felt like a different person, as if she was possessed by something. No matter how hard Feng Wu pressed her, however, the white fairy wouldn’t give her an explanation.

Because just like Boss Phoenix said, it wasn’t time yet.

Little Phoenix shot an arrogant glance at the white fairy and thought, “This girl only knows that I’m with Feng Wu now, but if she knows who Feng Wu used to be...

“She’ll lose her mind!”

Of course, Little Phoenix would never reveal such a big secret.

The white fairy remained exceedingly enthusiastic on their way back.

“This way, please. There’s a shortcut that can take us there in no time.

“Miss Feng Wu, please look at the frescoes on the wall. They’ll show up randomly every once in a while.

“Please don’t underestimate the frescoes. If you can learn the knowledge hidden in them, you’ll find it very useful later when you have to fight against the super puppet soldiers.”

Feng Wu couldn’t help but glance at the white fairy. Even the dullest person could see that the white fairy was trying to fawn on her.

That didn’t make sense. The fairy used to be the princess of an ancient dynasty, and she was once one of the top cultivators on the continent. Why did she need to ingratiate herself with Feng Wu?

“Did you betray me in some way?” Feng Wu eyed the white fairy suspiciously, feeling uneasy.

“Nonsense!” the white fairy said grumpily. “I want you to find the seed of the spirit source, okay?”

Feng Wu asked, “Why?”

The white fairy said, “Because I’m the one teaching you. That way, I’ll be able to show off to the other two guys. Hahaha.”

Feng Wu asked, “Is that it?”

The white fairy said, “And it’s also because of Chu Tianxiao. Who else am I supposed to help? Speaking of which, do you want to learn the Guardian of the Earth skill or not? It’s a group attack technique.”

Feng Wu’s eyes lit up!

She had only learned individual attack skills and had mostly engaged in one-on-one battles. If she could learn this one, even if she was surrounded in the future, she could attack her enemies all at once and escape.

Feng Wu nodded solemnly. “Yes, I want to learn it!”

With a wave of the white fairy’s hand, the flickering frescoes were suddenly fixed on the wall.

Without hesitation, Feng Wu sat down cross-legged and studied the Guardian of the Earth.

Behind her, the white fairy glanced at Boss Phoenix, as if looking for approval.

Little Phoenix nodded in an arrogant manner.

The recognition made the white fairy want to jump around in excitement.

Looking at Feng Wu, who had little idea of what was going on, the white fairy was amazed by how lucky the girl was.

She had only casually mentioned the Guardian of the Earth to Feng Wu just then, but was it just another common skill?

If one had to compare, it was more valuable than all the treasures in the treasure hall put together.

Chapter 1853: Untitled

The frescoes flickered in and out of view, so why did they appear now? Because the white fairy controlled them so that Feng Wu could learn the skill.

Seeing that Boss Phoenix was pleased, the white fairy was over the moon.

But she was a little worried.

The Guardian of the Earth wasn't exactly easy to understand, especially the sanskrit part, which no normal person could read.

But Feng Wu read the words aloud when she got to that part.

"The earth cracks open, and the sky falls..."

She went on smoothly.

"Does she actually understand the ancient language?!" The white fairy was shocked.

She herself could only understand half of it.

Little Phoenix glanced at the white fairy and said grumpily, "Of course she does. You have no idea how much stuff she has learned since she was little."

The white fairy sighed in amazement. "With you around, I'm sure Miss Feng Wu can master anything. She's such a lucky girl."

Little Phoenix glanced at the white fairy and thought, "I wasn't the one who taught Xiao Wu. If this fairy knows Xiao Wu was taught by my master himself, she would faint."

However, that would expose its master as well.

Therefore, Little Phoenix raised its chin, neither admitting nor denying the claim.

The white fairy thought that she had guessed correctly and envied Feng Wu greatly.

Feng Wu closed her eyes. Suddenly, golden light shone from inside her body, and dots of golden light danced around her like little elves.

Pointing somewhere ahead of her, Feng Wu suddenly shouted, "The ground opens!"

About ten meters away, a round hole about 10 square meters in size appeared on the ground.

Everything within the circle crumbled.

The white fairy cried out, "She's mastered the first stance already!"

She was so surprised because the Guardian of the Earth was a technique that required the earth attribute. Gaping Ground, the first stance, was a powerful AoE skill that had taken her three years to learn.

Little Phoenix glanced at the white fairy proudly.

Of course Xiao Wu had learned it quickly; she was Feng Wu.

The white fairy said, “The first stance is relatively easy, but the second one, Cracking Ground, is very difficult. One can’t possibly master it without three or five years of practice. So, we have to wait until this place opens next time —”

However, before she could finish —

“Rumble —”

There was a loud noise.

The white fairy looked in the direction of the noise.

One look, and her eyes popped.

That was because —

“The ground cracked! Seriously?! Feng Wu has already mastered the second stance! How’s that possible?!”

The white fairy had always been very calm.

After all these years, she herself had only mastered up to the third stance. However, it took Feng Wu next to no time to master the second stance.

“Did she learn this before?” The white fairy looked at Little Phoenix in astonishment.

Crossing its wings, the bird said proudly, “Wouldn’t you have noticed if she had?”

The white fairy agreed, because there was something that only those who had practiced the Guardian of the Earth knew, which was that once one learned the essence of the Guardian of the Earth, they would be shrouded in a golden glow. Even their hair and eyes would turn a golden brown shade...

Chapter 1854: Untitled

Once a person mastered the circulation of the spiritual essence of the Guardian of the Earth, they could control how they looked.

“I didn’t expect her to be able to master two stances in a row. That’s very impressive, and I’m amazed. But at the end of the day, it’s all because of your great taste.”

As it turned out, the white fairy knew how to fawn on people, which was what she was doing to the bird.

Little Phoenix said proudly, “You still haven’t seen the best of her! Ha!”

The white fairy wondered what more potential the girl could have.

Right at that moment!

Whoosh!

There was a loud noise!

That sound and the surge of spiritual essence astonished the white fairy. She stared at Feng Wu so hard that her eyes popped.

That was because —

“Ground Control! She’s mastered the third stance!” The white fairy stared at Feng Wu in disbelief and didn’t know what else to say.

“She... she...” She pointed at Feng Wu.

The white fairy used to be a top cultivator on the continent. Although she wasn’t Chu Tianxiao, she wasn’t much weaker either.

After all the things she had experienced, she wasn’t easily excited anymore. But now, she couldn’t hold back her excitement.

This only meant one thing.

And that was...

Feng Wu was simply too impressive.

“It’s only been a few hours, and she’s mastered the third stance! She...” The white fairy had to take a few deep breaths to calm herself down.

Because!

It had taken the white fairy as long as ten years to master the third stance, and she was considered to be a very talented pupil!

Little Phoenix gave the white fairy a proud look. “Of course she’s amazing. Have you forgotten whose pupil she is?”

Seeing the look on the bird’s face, the white fairy snorted inwardly. Right, complimenting your pupil and yourself all at once...

In fact, she had guessed wrong. The bird wasn’t Feng Wu’s master. Her real master was the bird’s master, who was an utterly unreachable figure.

“You did well.” Little Phoenix glanced at the white fairy.

Elated, the fairy beamed at the bird.

Unable to control her excitement, the white fairy went on saying, “The third stance is a control skill. All enemies within its range will be rendered immobile for 0.01 second.”

Since a capable cultivator like the white fairy was showing Little Phoenix so much respect, one could only imagine how terrifying Mu Jiuzhou himself was, since he used to rule the continent.

Little Phoenix nodded and said, “There are still seven more stances.”

The white fairy said, “But they’re not here.”

“Where are they?” Little Phoenix frowned.

The white fairy said, "The clues to their whereabouts are here, but the other two ghost kings also control this place..."

Little Phoenix frowned.

It used to be the superior Immortal Phoenix, but now, it was still way too weak.

There was no way it could handle two ghost kings.

Just then, Feng Wu opened her eyes.

Her eyes had always been pretty, but now, they were so clear and bright that one couldn't find the right word to describe them.

Chapter 1855: Untitled

"Finally, the third stance," said Feng Wu as she stretched. "I have a feeling that the third one will be very useful. Too bad that there are only three of them. Otherwise —"

The white fairy stared at Feng Wu with a strange look in her eyes.

Feng Wu stopped stretching halfway.

She looked perplexed. "Dear fairy, why are you staring at me like that? What did I say wrong?"

The white fairy took a deep breath and looked away.

She didn't want to talk at that moment!

Feng Wu asked, "What's going on? Sister Fairy, you've been acting oddly for a while."

The white fairy stared at Feng Wu. "No, you're the odd one!"

Feng Wu looked innocent and confused.

The white fairy stared at Feng Wu. "Do you know how annoying you are? You've mastered three stances in a row! You — I'm so mad!"

Feng Wu looked even more innocent. "What did I do?"

The white fairy said, "You're so annoying! Do you know? Do you know how I learned my Guardian of the Earth? Do you know how long it took me to master the third stance? Ten years! It took me as long as ten years to finally be able to do it! And you?! You... you took six hours! Feng Wu, are you even human? This is insane!"

As the white fairy pressed forward, Feng Wu fell back.

In the end, she stood there with her back pressed against the wall.

The white fairy was so angry that her eyes went red.

Feng Wu said, "Well..."

What else could she say?

If she were in the white fairy's position, she would be wildly jealous as well.

"Tell me! How did you do it?!" the white fairy pressed.

Feng Wu said, "I... I don't know. I just understood all the words in the Guardian of the Earth and knew all the moves. I even..."

"Even what?!" asked the white fairy.

Feng Wu said, "I even felt like I was the one who created the Guardian of the Earth..."

"Hahahaha —"

The white fairy was angry at first, but she laughed when she heard those words.

Pressing a hand to her stomach and supporting herself with her other hand on the wall, she laughed so hard that she was in tears.

At the same time.

What she didn't notice was the look Little Phoenix gave her. There was a mysterious and indescribable look in its eyes.

Nor did Feng Wu notice it.

She seemed to realize that she had said something unreasonable, and she scratched her head and said, "Well, I'm just making things up. Please don't laugh at me like that. I feel so embarrassed."

The white fairy pointed at Feng Wu and kept laughing.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Just then, footsteps came from outside.

With her sharp ears, Feng Wu immediately realized who they belonged to.

They were Feng Xun, Xuan Yi, Ranmil, Master Jue, and Sefiro. Why were the five of them together?

Feng Wu was still frowning, when she heard Feng Xun's voice.

"Princess —" Feng Xun grinned. "I told you, didn't I? I said I would give you the Turtle Diagram, and I have. I always keep my word."

Chapter 1856: Are You Fond of Jun Linyuan? (1)

Feng Wu frowned when she heard Feng Xun's voice.

"Well, I see that the boy gave the Turtle Diagram to the girl." The white fairy smiled. "Finally, she got what she wanted. How very rewarding for her."

Feng Wu's face darkened.

As if Feng Wu wasn't annoyed enough, the white fairy added, "And she's your rival in love."

“No, she’s not.” Feng Wu denied it. “I have nothing to do with Jun Linyuan.”

“Well, well, do I hear jealousy? Is that what I hear? How interesting.”

Feng Wu didn’t know what she could say to talk her way out of this.

But she really was very angry at Feng Xun.

Before she left the room, she had put things in perfect order so that he would win and Ranmil would lose the bet. He shouldn’t have lost the Turtle Diagram to Ranmil, but then...

Feng Wu clenched her fists in frustration.

Just then, she heard them talking again.

Judging by the voices, Ranmil and Feng Xun were walking side by side, and her soft, pleasant voice reminded Feng Wu of a chirping bird.

Feng Xun couldn’t help but compliment her voice. “My princess, you sound a lot like another person.”

Ranmil asked curiously, “Who?”

“Little Feng Wu, my sister.” Feng Xun glanced at Ranmil and went on, “The two of you are equally innocent and kind; it’s only that you’re quieter, and she’s more active and talkative.”

Ranmil’s eyes flashed imperceptibly when Feng Xun mentioned Feng Wu’s name.

However, it was too subtle for Feng Xun to notice.

But that meaningful look didn’t escape Feng Wu.

Ranmil feigned an indifferent tone and said, “I heard from the maids that Miss Feng Wu and His Royal Highness are...”

Feng Xun loved this topic!

He had been trying to talk to someone about it. Since Ranmil asked, he was happy to elaborate.

“Well, you’ve asked the right person! No one knows better than I do!”

Ranmil raised her eyebrows a little, and her clear, bright eyes looked very innocent. “You?”

Feng Xun said, “Of course! So, what have you heard?”

Ranmil pretended to hesitate, before she said, “People are saying that His Royal Highness only sees Miss Feng Wu as a bed-warming maid... I only heard it from other people, and I scolded them for spreading such a rumor.”

Feng Xun chuckled. “So, that’s what people are saying. Well, I knew it. One day, Boss Jun’s pride will get little Feng Wu in trouble.”

What...

Ranmil suddenly had a very bad feeling, and her face stiffened. But she soon recovered and was that curious, innocent girl again.

“So, what they’re saying isn’t true, then?” asked Ranmil.

Crossing his hands behind his back, Feng Xun said proudly, “Of course not! The truth is exactly the opposite!”

Ranmil didn’t know what to say.

The others turned to look at Feng Xun as well.

Even Master Jue was curious.

It wasn’t common for a capable man like him to be interested in other people’s affairs.

But because the famous Jun Linyuan was involved, even Master Jue was intrigued.

Chapter 1857: Are You Fond of Jun Linyuan? (2)

Feng Xun loved the attention and felt immensely satisfied. After making everyone wait for a long while, he said in a smug tone, “Well, Boss Jun might seem very bossy and arrogant around Feng Wu, but that’s not how he actually feels about her. In fact —”

Everyone stared at him.

Feng Xun said, “In fact, Boss Jun really likes little Feng Wu!”

Ranmil’s face immediately stiffened.

Feng Xun didn’t notice, and he went on talking. “But His Royal Highness is too proud to admit his affection for Feng Wu, because he’ll feel humiliated. Therefore, when there are other people around, he’s always very impatient with Xiao Wu.”

Ranmil clenched her fists in her long sleeves, and her nails dug into her palms.

She bit her lower lip so hard that she could taste blood.

“Bullsh*t!” Feng Wu stared at Feng Xun as she cried out inwardly. What did he mean by saying that Jun Linyuan liked her a lot? And since when was Jun Linyuan only impatient with her when other people were around?

That arrogant teenager was just as impatient with her when they were alone.

The white fairy glanced at Feng Wu, and seemed intrigued.

Feng Wu didn’t know what to say. “Don’t overthink it. It’s not like what Feng Xun is saying.”

The white fairy only smiled at her.

Feng Wu was speechless.

The figures on the wall were still demonstrating the Guardian of the Earth, and she was still wrapping up the third stance she had just learned. Therefore, she couldn’t just stand up and leave yet.

What intrigued her was that since she was only in an ordinary room now, why didn’t Feng Xun and the others come in?

She then asked the question.

The white fairy gave her a strange look.

Feng Wu asked, "Did I say something wrong?"

The white fairy said, "Do you really think that everyone can simply walk into this room? And did you think you just stumbled upon the Guardian of the Earth because you were lucky?"

Feng Wu was really curious now.

Having learned the stances, she knew very well how destructive the Guardian of the Earth could be and how rare a technique it was.

However...

"It wasn't all that difficult to find at all. I walked past it, so I just sat down and practiced it... Wasn't that what happened? Wasn't it luck?"

The white fairy looked from Feng Wu to the bird.

If she hadn't been trying to fawn on Boss Phoenix, she would never have given away something like the Guardian of the Earth. No, Feng Wu didn't just "walk past it" and "sit down to practice it"! What was she thinking?

But the white fairy couldn't say those things.

Because the bird wasn't ready to reveal its identity yet.

"Yes, it's because you're lucky. No one is as lucky as you." The white fairy sighed with resignation. She then looked Feng Wu in the eye and said, "Because you're lucky, you randomly stumbled upon a hidden dungeon in this place and entered it without breaking a sweat. And you easily gained the recognition of the Guardian of the Earth, and..."

Feng Wu realized what was going on from her tone.

So, this was a hidden dungeon that the others couldn't see.

That was why Feng Xun and the others had been walking around this place without ever setting foot in here.

Meanwhile, Feng Xun and the others were still chatting.

Ranmil looked at Feng Xun and asked, "So, does His Royal Highness really like Feng Wu very much?"

Chapter 1858: The Secret Behind It (1)

After some thought, she said, "It makes sense, because Feng Wu is so beautiful."

Feng Xun said, "That's right. Don't let other people mislead you into thinking that Boss Jun doesn't like Feng Wu. You really shouldn't assume... Wait, Your Highness, you're not interested in Boss Jun, are you?"

“Pffft —” The white fairy guffawed when she saw the frozen smile on Ranmil’s face. “Gosh, this is so funny. That boy is so adorable! Hahahaha!”

Feng Wu rubbed her forehead in resignation.

Ranmil had to take a deep breath to control herself.

“Of course not. How can I possibly think of His Royal Highness in that way? Young Lord Feng, please don’t make fun of me, haha —” Her smile was so miserable that she might as well be crying.

The white fairy said, “She should have just admitted it. All the denying only makes her a hypocrite! I don’t like her at all!”

Feng Xun said happily, “Wow, I see you really aren’t in love with Boss Jun. Hahaha! Good! Good! I see that not every girl is infatuated with him! I’m so happy!”

He then patted Ranmil’s shoulder in an approving manner. “That quality alone makes you my best buddy! From now on, if you need any help, just tell me!”

Ranmil now really felt like crying, and she immediately changed the subject.

“Have you found the door to the hidden dungeon?”

That immediately distracted Feng Xun, and he shook his head in resignation. “So, this is the hidden dungeon. It’s so hard to find a way in.”

Ranmil closed her eyes and tried to remember what her master said before.

Red March, her master, was highly revered by people on this continent, but she was such a mysterious figure that she would disappear for years on end.

Ranmil still remembered how serious Red March was before she left the last time. She told Ranmil that she had to find the Guardian of the Earth in the secret dungeon.

Moreover, Red March had also left Ranmil with some notes on the Guardian of the Earth.

Red March had been searching for the Guardian of the Earth for years without any success, which only proved how formidable the technique was.

Ranmil remembered something Red March once said. If one could find all the pieces of the Guardian of the Earth, the complete set would almost be as precious as the seed of the spirit source.

That was why Ranmil wasn’t jealous when Feng Xun found the Purple Sun Swordplay and Blowing Snow Swordplay.

Compared with the Guardian of the Earth, those two manuals were nothing.

Ranmil closed her eyes and searched her memory. Her eyes then lit up.

“Found it!”

All eyes were on Ranmil.

Ranmil walked to one of the walls and tapped it with her fingers.

After nine taps, there was a creaking sound.

The wall slid open, revealing a small door that was wide enough for one person to walk through.

Everyone else now stared at Ranmil in amazement and showered her with compliments.

Ranmil still looked as innocent as ever. She waved her hands repeatedly, telling the others that she hadn't done anything.

But when they weren't looking, Ranmil grinned maliciously.

Chapter 1859: The Secret Behind It (2)

Why would Ranmil bring Feng Xun and the others here at the risk of losing the Guardian of the Earth?

Because according to Red March's notes, to enter the hidden dungeon, she would have to pass nine trials, all of which were riddled with danger.

She had brought all the others here as human shields, but she let them think that they were all working together in searching for the treasure.

"Are they going to go through trials?" Perplexed, Feng Wu looked up at the white fairy.

The white fairy nodded. "Of course."

Feng Wu said, "But I entered this place just like that."

The white fairy said matter-of-factly, "If I can bring you here, why should you go through the trials? It would be a waste of time, right?"

Feng Wu agreed, but...

"Wouldn't that be too strange? People would think that I got special treatment," said Feng Wu.

The white fairy rolled her eyes, glanced at Little Phoenix, and mumbled, "You've always been lucky and always had special treatment, okay?"

Her voice was so low that Feng Wu didn't hear her clearly.

"What?" she asked curiously.

The white fairy rolled her eyes at Feng Wu. "I don't want to talk to you. I'm sure you're blessed by the goddess of good luck."

Feng Wu cleared her throat.

"Let's search this room. The clue to the second chapter of the Guardian of the Earth is here. We'll leave after we find it," the white fairy reminded Feng Wu.

"I see." Feng Wu knew that she had only just learned the first chapter and that the second chapter was somewhere among the tombs. As for exactly where it was, the clue was right here in front of her.

"That Ranmil is determined to find the Guardian of the Earth. I think it was on her master's order," the white fairy said.

“Really?” Feng Wu asked curiously.

The white fairy nodded. “The Guardian of the Earth is the most powerful existing earth attribute technique, especially from the third stance onward. Red March herself is an earth attribute master. If we let her find it, her cultivation level will rise again.”

“Didn’t you say earlier that Red March is one of the most powerful cultivators on this continent?” asked Feng Wu.

“Back in my day, Red March was already in the top 100. After all these years, most of the top cultivators have aged, suffer from injuries, or have faded away. If she’s still around, she’ll be much higher on the list now. I think she’s at least in the top 20 now,” said the white fairy.

“That’s already very impressive!” Feng Wu was amazed.

One had to realize that the Junwu Empire and the Senal Grassland weren’t the only kingdoms on this continent.

The white fairy then said, “Even Red March, a famous cultivator, is determined to find the Guardian of the Earth. Do you realize how precious it is?”

Feng Wu cleared her throat. “Yes, of course it’s precious.”

Earlier, because of how easily she had obtained it, Feng Wu hadn’t thought much of the technique. Now that the white fairy put it that way, Feng Wu finally realized how rare it was.

The white fairy said proudly, “If you give the manual to the emperor of your empire, he’ll make you a knight or something at least. And it won’t be just an empty title. It’ll come with dozens of cities.”

“With this manual alone?”

The white fairy said proudly, “Yes, with the first chapter alone.”

Feng Wu’s eyes lit up.

She hadn’t seen the importance of the Guardian of the Earth when the white fairy told her that Red March wanted it. When its value was compared with titles and cities of the Junwu Empire, however, Feng Wu finally understood its importance.

Chapter 1860: The Secret Behind It (3)

“My dear fairy...” Feng Wu was very touched.

The look in her eyes made the white fairy uneasy, and she said, “Let’s look for the clue, quickly.”

“Alright.” Feng Wu nodded.

She decided that if she ever had the chance to meet Chu Tianxiao, her Senior Brother, she would say some very nice things about the dear fairy. Yes! She clenched her fists.

She then looked around, searching for anything that would lead her to the second chapter.

They were right in the middle of a stone arch bridge made from white jade.

A pair of stone lions sat on either end of the bridge. They were all very life-like sculptures, down to every single hair.

Under the bridge flowed a bottomless river. Green lotus leaves covered the water, and the sound was quite pleasant.

Where was the clue to the second chapter of the Guardian of the Earth?

Before Feng Wu could even start searching —

“It’s under the seventh lotus leaf opposite the third brick on the right end of the bridge,” someone said in a proud voice.

Feng Wu looked perplexed.

She looked up at Little Phoenix.

“Go get it.” Crossing its wings, Little Phoenix raised its head.

“Really?” Feng Wu sounded suspicious.

The white fairy looked from the bird to Feng Wu before looking away.

What universe did this girl save in her last life? With the great bird with her, she would be able to do anything!

The fairy couldn’t understand the bird. It was so merciless toward other people, but it would give the girl whatever she wanted.

On their way here, the bird had complained, saying that this place was great, but it just took so long to find the Guardian of the Earth.

That obvious hint had made the fairy bring Little Feng Wu here directly. This was against the rules, and she would be punished if she was found out.

“Is that true?” Feng Wu glanced at Little Phoenix. “How did you find it so quickly? I didn’t have a clue at all.”

The white fairy pushed her a little. “Quickly, Mas...”

Little Phoenix cast a stern look at the white fairy.

“Ahem —” The white fairy coughed to cover her slip of the tongue. “Didn’t Little Phoenix tell you already? It’s under the seventh lotus leaf opposite the third brick on the right end of the bridge!”

Feng Wu smiled at the white fairy. “What does that lousy bird know? I’m sure it’s all made up.”

That lousy bird? She called Master Phoenix a lousy bird?! She, she...

The white fairy’s eyes widened, and she stared at Feng Wu in disbelief.

Feng Wu was confused. “What?”

The white fairy looked at the bird, whom she deemed to be a supreme figure.

Why didn't the defiant Master Phoenix get angry when it was called a lousy bird?!

Little Phoenix glanced at Feng Wu without saying another word.

How could it be angry? This girl was the dearest to its master!

Seeing that the white fairy only stood there and looked stunned, the embarrassed Little Phoenix lashed out at the white fairy. "What are you waiting for? Look under that leaf!"

There was something very authoritative in its tone.

Feng Wu nearly jumped.

Seeing the white fairy just standing there, Feng Wu thought that the bird had offended her, so she apologized to the fairy. "Dear fairy, please don't be mad. The lousy bird is grumpy for some unknown reason. It didn't mean to yell at you. Please don't kill it, for my sake..."
