Chapter 1871: Her Bright Future (1)

Looking from the dagger in her hand to the gushing wound on the back of Zuo Qingxian's head, Feng Wu gradually could think as usual again.

After giving Feng Wu a final malicious look, Zuo Qingxian fell to the ground with a thump.

He closed his eyes for good.

"Xiao Wu —" Duan Chaoge tried to crawl toward Feng Wu.

Feng Wu stumbled toward Chaoge, took a pill out of her pocket, and stuffed it into Chaoge's mouth.

Chaoge had been barely breathing before this, but the coagulant improved her condition a little.

Phew —

Relieved, Feng Wu felt like a broken wagon and couldn't even sit up.

Her bones hurt, her muscles hurt, and her head hurt the most.

She touched her forehead, and tears filled her eyes when she found the size of the wound.

"Ssss —" She drew in a pained breath.

She was so badly wounded that if she didn't take care of her wound quickly enough, the damage would be permanent.

After taking care of Chaoge's injuries, Feng Wu sat down cross-legged and started cultivating right away.

The white fairy watched this with wide open eyes.

She looked from Feng Wu to the bird.

"Did... did she just cure most of Chaoge's injuries?" the white fairy asked in disbelief.

Little Phoenix looked at Feng Wu sympathetically.

The master would be so sad if he saw his little girl so badly wounded.

"She's a Supreme Level physician. These external injuries aren't a problem for her at all," Little Phoenix said grumpily.

The white fairy was the princess of an ancient dynasty and had seen her fair share of capable cultivators. However, Little Phoenix's indifferent tone still shocked her.

"A Supreme Level Physician? Her? A girl?!" The white fairy opened her eyes wide and stared at Little Phoenix in disbelief.

Little Phoenix rolled its eyes at the white fairy. "What's so strange about that?"

The white fairy didn't know what to say.

What was so strange about that? It was very strange! She wasn't just a junior or intermediate physician, but a Supreme Level one!

There were only a handful of Supreme Level physicians on this continent!

At her young age, she was already a Supreme Level one. Once she grew up...

The white fairy's astonishment finally turned into an amazed remark. "What a bright future she has..."

Little Phoenix thought, "You don't need to tell me that. She has the greatest master ever."

Maybe the girl is only halfway there, and Master Phoenix is exaggerating. The white fairy tried to persuade herself.

She couldn't accept the fact that Feng Wu was a Supreme Level physician, because —

She was also a spiritual physician, but after so many years, she was only a Master Level physician. Whereas Feng Wu... Not only was she better at learning the Guardian of the Earth, she was also a much better spiritual physician as well.

The white fairy realized that she wasn't on the same level as Feng Wu in so many aspects...

If Feng Wu really was a Supreme Level spiritual physician, Duan Chaoqe's injuries would heal in two hours. So...

If the injuries didn't heal two hours later, it would mean that the bird was bragging...

15 minutes, 30 minutes, 45 minutes...

Chapter 1872: Her Bright Future (2)

The white fairy studied Duan Chaoqe carefully, trying to prove that the phoenix had been bragging.

Although she didn't dare retort, she still wanted to prove that she was right...

Before the two hours ran out —

"Hm —"

Chaoqe suddenly woke up from her coma.

Her unfocused eyes now looked so clear that they seemed to have been washed with spiritual water.

The white fairy didn't know what to say.

She couldn't believe it!

Things just refused to go the way she wanted.

Little Phoenix rolled its eyes at the white fairy.

The white fairy returned to herself and smiled awkwardly. "So, she really is a Supreme Level spiritual physician..."

Little Phoenix rolled its eyes at her again. “Do you know who her master is? Of course she’s a Supreme Level spiritual physician.”

The white fairy didn’t know what to say.

She had never heard that Master Phoenix was an impressive spiritual physician. On the other hand, its master, the great master who could not be named... He was the real legendary spiritual physician.

But the white fairy didn’t even dare mention him, because that would only defile that sacred name.

Just then, after circulating her spiritual essence three times over in her body, Feng Wu also slowly opened her eyes.

Thump —

Her head had been covered with blood and looked a mess. However, as her injuries healed, the lumps of coagulated blood began to fall to the ground.

Supreme Level spiritual physicians were indeed as powerful as they were said to be. Feng Wu’s medicine was very effective.

She had been in such a miserable state just then.

Zuo Qingxian had knocked her head into the wall until there was a saucer-sized wound, but now, the scab had fallen off and new flesh had developed. It was slightly pinker than the skin around it, but soon, it would become the same color.

“Xiao Wu —”

Seeing that Feng Wu had woken up, Chaoge was over the moon. She immediately ran to Feng Wu’s side.

Although her wounds had healed a little, she had been weakened by how severe they were, and she almost fell right back down when she stood up.

“Be careful.” Feng Wu caught her by the right arm.

“Xiao Wu —”

Recalling what had happened, Chaoge burst into tears.

She had been snatched by Master Jue first and frightened by Zuo Qingxian afterward, but only now did she feel the fear.

Duan Chaoge said, “Xiao Wu, I’m so glad that you’re here. I could have died...”

Feng Wu patted her head. “What do you mean you could have died? Duan Chaoge, you need to remember something!”

Duan Chaoge asked with teary eyes, “What is it?”

Feng Wu said, “Stay alive, no matter what happens. If you die, everything will be over. As long as you’re alive, there’s always hope. Remember?”

Chaoge stared at Feng Wu in bewilderment and didn’t know what to say.

Feng Wu said, "From now on, no matter what happens, no matter how humiliating life gets, you must stay alive, because I'll come to save you. Remember?"

To Chaoge, Feng Wu's words meant everything.

"Yes!" Chaoge nodded.

"By the way, Xiao Wu, did you make a lot of progress?" Chaoge seemed to remember something. "That bastard Zuo Qingxian was a Spiritual Lord."

Feng Wu asked curiously, "How do you know that?"

Chapter 1873: Feng Wu Playing Nice (1)

Duan Chaoge said, "Because when he became a Spiritual Lord, the Zuo family made such a big fuss about it. They held a feast for three days straight, just to announce the good news to the imperial capital."

Feng Wu said, "I see."

Chaoge said, "And that was years ago. Zuo Qingxian has to be a Level 3 Spiritual Lord at least. Xiao Wu, you've just killed him, so..."

Feng Wu smiled wryly. "I'm only a Level 7 Spiritual Elder."

Duan Chaoge couldn't believe her ears. "That's impossible! You killed him..."

Killing someone who was one level higher was already hard enough, let alone so many levels...

Feng Wu smiled self-mockingly. "That's because Zuo Qingxian underestimated me. I tried to fool him, and he bought it, letting his guard down. Only then did I have a chance to stab him with the dagger. In a normal situation, I wouldn't even be able to breach his defense, let alone kill him."

Chaoge recalled what happened earlier and realized that Feng Wu was right.

"Xiao Wu, you're already amazing. You're making breakthroughs at an unbelievable speed." Chaoge's eyes twinkled. "It's only been half a year since you came back to the imperial capital, and you've already risen from a Level 1 Spiritual Master to a Level 7 Spiritual Elder!"

"But I..." Chaoge lowered her head when she thought about herself. "I'm still only a Level 8 Spiritual Grandmaster... I'm so far behind you that I don't know if I'll ever catch up with you... Is there going to be a day when I can't even see you anymore..."

Chaoge had always been very tough-minded, but the idea of not seeing Feng Wu made her burst into tears. She cried so hard that she almost had a breakdown.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

The crying gave the white fairy a headache. "Does she have to cry so loud? She's going to bring the ceiling down."

Feng Wu smiled wryly. "She's just too frustrated. Let her cry. It'll ease the pressure. Although, I'm concerned about the same problem..."

She had been advancing so fast that none of her friends or family could keep up with her speed... That was a little awkward.

All of a sudden, Feng Wu's eyes lit up, and she turned to look at the white fairy.

Alarmed, the white fairy said, "Hey, what do you want now?"

Feng Wu grinned. "Dear fairy, I know you're the best. You've always doted on me, haven't you?"

"Hey, what are you getting at?"

The white fairy jabbed a finger in Feng Wu's forehead. "Are you fawning on me now?"

Feng Wu made no effort to deny it and went on, her demeanor reminding one of a puppy wagging its tail. "Yes, I am. Dear fairy, please help me —"

She grabbed the fairy's wide sleeve and swayed it back and forth.

The white fairy didn't know what to say.

She was a woman, so why was the girl trying to do this with her?

However...

She really enjoyed it.

She then glanced at Feng Wu. "So, what do you want?"

Feng Wu didn't try to hide her intention at all. Pointing at Chaoge, she said, "Dear fairy, you saw what that man almost did to Chaoge."

The white fairy rolled her eyes. Of course she had.

Only moments ago, Feng Wu had been holding her sword, trying to kill someone, but once she got what she wanted, she switched back to her girly demeanor again. What a magnificent transformation.

Chapter 1874: Feng Wu Playing Nice (2)

The white fairy poked Feng Wu's smooth forehead. "You just can't wait to get your revenge, can you?"

Feng Wu raised her chin. "Of course. I never wait when there's a chance."

She was telling the truth. The white fairy nodded.

Taking the fairy's hand, Feng Wu said, "Dear fairy, if you don't help us, someone will try to pick on Chaoge again. Dear fairy —"

The white fairy was speechless. "Are you holding me responsible now? How does it have anything to do with me?"

Feng Wu's voice was unbelievably soft. "The able ones are expected to be capable of more, right? You own this place. With a flick of your fingers, Feng Xun and Xuan Yi found such nice prizes. Qiuling is cultivating as well, and Chaoge is the only one who still hasn't gotten anything. I feel so sorry for her..."

"Fine, fine." The white fairy squeezed Feng Wu's smooth cheeks. "What do you want her to learn?"

Feng Wu's eyes lit up. "Chaoge practices the Homage to Phoenix technique, which was something I created specially for her, but it's no longer enough for her..."

Feng Wu was furious when she recalled how Zuo Qingxian had been hitting Chaoge when she used the stances from the Homage to Phoenix.

"So, dear fairy, can you teach her something more impressive? It'll be wonderful if it comes with movement techniques as well. Wait, she also needs a weapon. If you can find a suitable weapon for Chaoge..."

Feng Wu grew more and more excited, but the white fairy only wanted to roll her eyes.

"Stop right there," said the fairy.

She glanced at Feng Wu and said impatiently, "Why do you have so many requests?"

Feng Wu looked at the white fairy with a pleading look on her face. Her eyes were so bright and limpid that they could melt the white fairy's heart. However, the fairy would never admit it.

"Alright. Alright." The white fairy feigned an annoyed tone. "I know where you can find everything in this place, from the techniques to the weapon you need."

Feng Wu kept her gaze on the white fairy.

"Xiao Wu, I don't want to learn other people's skills! I only want yours!" Chaoge tugged at Feng Wu's sleeve.

Feng Wu covered her mouth. "Silence!"

Chaoge lowered her head and kicked at a little rock on the ground. "Alright..."

Feng Wu smiled awkwardly at the white fairy. "My sister doesn't know what she's talking about, so don't mind her. She hasn't seen much of the world and has no idea how many capable people there are."

But the white fairy only said, "That's very impressive. At your young age, you can already create something like the Homage to Phoenix. But that technique can only take her as far as the Spiritual Grandmaster stage. Once she becomes a Spiritual Elder, the technique won't be enough. You also have to take care of your own cultivation. Where will you find the time and energy to look after her?"

"Have you heard of the name Unflower?" the white fairy suddenly asked.

Feng Wu's eyes flickered. "Are you referring to Miss Unflower, the one who killed people in the middle of the street?!"

The white fairy seemed surprised. "You know her?"

Feng Wu nodded. "Yes. Unflower was the daughter of the Flower Affection race and was known for her red outfit. She was like a relentless rose, and together with Red March, they were known as the Two Flowers. The two of them had roughly the same cultivation level."

Chapter 1875: Unflower?

“Rumour is that her maid was raped and killed by the captain of Emperor Wu’s guards. This was when Emperor Wu was still the crown prince.

“When the then-crown prince marched down the main street with his dozens of guards, she landed in the middle of the street and questioned the crown prince, asking him what he would do to the culprit.

“Embarrassed, Emperor Wu lost his temper. He then told the others to take Unflower down.

“Unflower was infuriated, and Relentless Flower, her weapon, blossomed in midair. It was only a small flower, but when activated, it expanded endlessly and almost covered the sky above the imperial capital.

“It’s said that this was Unflower’s most lethal stance, The World of Flower!

“The bright red petals showered down, and it was a spectacular scene.

“But each petal was a secret weapon as sharp as a blade.

“In a matter of seconds, all of the crown prince’s guards had fallen to the ground. In the end, the only one left was the crown prince and Meng Ling, his most capable soldier.

“Unflower then stared at the crown prince and asked the question again: What would he do to the culprit?”

Feng Wu grew more and more excited as she spoke. “The crown prince was both frightened and embarrassed. She was practically slapping him in the face!

“Unflower then asked the question one more time. What would he do to the culprit?”

“He was surrounded by the petals. It seemed that if he dared to say no, he would be killed at once.

“It’s said that the crown prince was infuriated, but there was nothing he could do but say, ‘The rapist and murderer shall pay with his life.’

“As soon as he said that, the petals surrounded Meng Ling and took him apart piece by piece!”

Feng Wu’s eyes looked like twinkling stars as she said in amazement, “Senior Unflower was already so terrifyingly capable back then!”

“What do you think was the most terrifying thing about her?” asked the white fairy.

Clenching her fists, Feng Wu said in excitement, “Her courage! She wasn’t threatened by either the great number of enemies or authority! She was brave enough to question the future emperor in the middle of the street!”

Feng Wu kept repeating that story in her head.

“I’m looking forward to becoming someone like her!” Feng Wu nodded solemnly.

The white fairy nodded. “Do you know where Unflower learned her skills?”

Feng Wu looked up at the white fairy with twinkling eyes. “Could it be... Could it be...”

“That’s right.” The white fairy nodded.

Feng Wu's eyes widened. "Dear fairy! You're so amazing! I admire you so much!"

At first, Chaoge could follow their conversation, but soon, she became confused.

Feng Wu tugged at Chaoge and said excitedly, "This is Miss Grand Sister!"

Miss... Grand Sister? Duan Chaoge looked dumbfounded. What was she talking about?

Feng Wu then gave her a wink.

Chaoge might not be the sharpest tool in the box, but she always listened to Feng Wu.

She might not have understood what Feng Wu was hinting at, but she still dropped to her knees, prostrated on the ground, and addressed the fairy as Miss Grand Sister.

The white fairy didn't know what to say.

She wasn't very happy with Chaoge, because she found her somewhat dumb. However, Miss Grand Sister wasn't a bad name. It made her feel young.

Chapter 1876: So Amazing?

The white fairy glanced at Duan Chaoge and said grumpily, "To be honest, with your current natural endowments, you're just not good enough to be my disciple. There's no way I'll teach you myself."

Chaoge looked at Feng Wu in bewilderment.

Feng Wu smiled. "Of course, of course. It'll be a waste of your talent at this stage. There's no need to do that."

The white fairy nodded. "After Unflower died, her soul was sealed in this place. I taught her a few things once, and she always wanted to be my disciple, but I never gave her the chance."

Wow —

Only then did Duan Chaoge realize how capable the pretty white fairy was.

She counted on her fingers.

If she were to call Unflower her master, and the white fairy was the master Unflower never got to have... So, the white fairy really was quite senior in her ranking!

How impressive this white fairy had to be!

"I, I..." Duan Chaoge didn't know what to say, so she turned to look at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu nodded at Chaoge, calming her down.

She then turned to the white fairy and said, "Dear fairy, please help us with Senior Unflower."

The white fairy mumbled grumpily, "Sure, I will."

Because the phoenix was still staring at her.

Feng Wu looked at the white fairy in bewilderment.

The white fairy waved her hand. "Don't worry about it. If we don't take care of this girl, you'll never settle your mind and concentrate on your cultivation. If you can't concentrate, I'll be the one who gets the blame.

"Unflower is a tricky matter. I'll talk to her myself. As for you —"

She checked the time and told Feng Wu, "Your dantian is still too fragile. Inheriting the seed of the spirit source now will kill you. So, your top priority now is to enhance your dantian.

"The second chapter of the Guardian of the Earth isn't the only thing in Universe Hall. Something else is hidden there. Come closer."

Feng Wu's eyes lit up and she happily moved closer to the fairy.

The white fairy then whispered something in her ear. "Got it?"

Feng Wu's eyes were like twinkling stars.

"Yes!" She clenched her fists in excitement.

The fairy then said, "I'll take the girl to Unflower. It may take anywhere from a few hours to a few days. During this time, you'll be on your own. Stay alive!"

"Yes. Dear fairy, I know you care about me." Feng Wu beamed at her.

The white fairy glanced at Feng Wu.

Before, she couldn't care less about Feng Wu's life. But now, if Feng Wu died, the phoenix would definitely hold her responsible.

Moreover, it occurred to her that she now didn't want the girl to die.

Of course, the proud white fairy would never admit it.

The next second, she picked up Chaoge like she was picking up a chicken, and was soon out of sight.

With them gone, Feng Wu suddenly felt rather lonely.

She had already gotten used to spending time with the white fairy.

Chapter 1877: Take Her Away

"I won't see her again after I leave here." Feng Wu sighed.

"You can take her with you," someone said matter-of-factly behind her.

Feng Wu turned around and saw that it was Little Phoenix.

Frustrated, she rubbed Little Phoenix's head before walking away.

"Hey, little Feng Wu, I mean it! You can take her away!" Seeing that Feng Wu was going to ignore what it said, Little Phoenix jumped around her shoulders, trying to catch Feng Wu's attention.

Feng Wu rolled her eyes at the bird. "Don't be so naive!"

Little Phoenix stared at her in disbelief.

“Did you just call me naive?” The bird didn’t like the sound of that.

Feng Wu glanced at it again before completely ignoring its opinion once more.

“Hey, little Feng Wu! Little Feng Wu! What’s that look on your face? I’m talking to you!” Frustrated, Little Phoenix sat down on Feng Wu’s shoulder and tried to scratch her face.

Feng Wu sighed. “Fine, fine. I’m listening. Cut it out.”

Cut it out? Little Phoenix didn’t like that tone at all. She was treating it like a spoiled child! The bird was very mad.

To everyone else, it was Master Phoenix, a creature that even the white fairy feared, but little Feng Wu here seemed to find it querulous!

Little Phoenix poked Feng Wu’s head. “Hey, little Feng Wu, haven’t you noticed? I’m very capable!”

Feng Wu gave it a look that seemed to say, “You’re exaggerating again.”

Resting its wings on its waist and raising its chin, Little Phoenix said proudly, “Hmph! Haven’t you noticed that the white fairy is afraid of me?”

Feng Wu didn’t know what to say.

She gave Little Phoenix a “you idiot” look.

Little Phoenix wanted to see an astonished look, but Feng Wu’s reaction didn’t meet its expectations at all.

Displeased, it kicked Feng Wu’s neck. “Hey, why are you looking at me like that?”

Feng Wu heaved a long sigh. “I’m trying to think. Can you be quiet for a minute?”

Little Phoenix was shocked!

It stared at Feng Wu and said, “I’m the famous Master Phoenix! I’m so famous that the entire continent...”

“Fine, fine. You’re the famous Master Phoenix that the entire continent reveres. Everyone will kneel down in your presence...”

Although that was the truth, the way Feng Wu put it made it sound like Little Phoenix was bragging.

Whatever!

Little Phoenix emphasized once more, “You really can take the white fairy away with you. Although she’s short-tempered and not all that capable, at your current stage, she can be helpful to you.”

Feng Wu gave Little Phoenix an indescribable look.

Short-tempered? Not all that capable? Can be helpful?

She was the white fairy! She used to be one of the top masters on this continent. Why was the bird saying that she wasn't all that capable?

She said in amazement, "Do you know an expression?"

Little Phoenix asked, "What expression?"

Feng Wu said, "A heart loftier than the sky. That's what you have. You just called a powerful being like the white fairy mediocre. Master Phoenix, do you realize that you're only a Spiritual Elder?"

Chapter 1878: Imminent Danger!

Little Phoenix said, "Well..." Yes, it was only a Spiritual Elder, but once upon a time, it was...

It then decided not to argue with Feng Wu, for the little fool didn't know what the world outside was like. Arguing with her would only make it angry.

Ignoring the problem, Little Phoenix went back to the original topic. "Fine, let's say that she's capable enough. Do you remember how you've been worried about the safety of your beautiful mother and your brother?"

Feng Wu nodded.

She hadn't cared much about her family in her previous life, but after coming here, she was gradually moved by her beautiful mother's sincere love for her and started to care about her family.

"Once you take the white fairy out of here, she can protect your family for you. That way, you can work on your own cultivation without having to worry about your family."

Little Phoenix grew more excited as it went on, "Whereas now, you have to constantly worry about your family while you're away on the Senal Grassland."

Feng Wu agreed with Little Phoenix, but —

She shrugged and asked, "But how are we going to do that? The white fairy isn't just anybody. Will she come with us?"

Little Phoenix said proudly, "Don't worry. Leave it to me."

Feng Wu rolled her eyes. She didn't for a minute believe that Little Phoenix could do it.

Little Phoenix immediately saw what Feng Wu was thinking.

Hmph! Little Phoenix snorted in its head. It decided that it would show Feng Wu what it could do and make her respect it.

"Come. Let's go to Universe Hall."

As much as Feng Wu wanted to take the white fairy away, she knew that the possibility was next to zero.

Standing in front of Universe Hall, Feng Wu looked up and was amazed.

It was such a vast hall.

Feng Wu had thought that it would be just another big palace, but as she stood outside the front doors, she realized how wrong she was.

Like its name suggested, Universe Hall was as magnificent and grand as the universe itself.

Standing at the entrance, Feng Wu felt as tiny as an ant.

The hall had a peaked roof, which went high up into the clouds.

It was grand, majestic, and luxurious!

That was Feng Wu's first impression of the hall.

Squeak —

The ancient bronze doors slowly opened.

They were hundreds of meters tall.

In comparison, Feng Wu was as tiny as a mite.

She was the first to arrive here, because the floor was covered by a thin layer of dust, without any footprints in it.

Feng Wu had gotten used to following the white fairy's instructions, but from this moment on, she was on her own.

She clenched her fists and slowly opened her eyes. They were as clear as two limpid pools.

The floor was paved with white jade and seemed to stretch on and on.

Feng Wu looked around the hall, memorizing everything she saw.

Earlier, the white fairy told Feng Wu that Universe Hall was filled with opportunities and treasures, but it was also the most dangerous place. One wrong step and she might be killed, and wind up as another ghost among the tombs.

Many famous heroes had died here like that, and became ghosts which guarded this place, like Master Purple Sun and Master Blowing Snow.

After scanning the hall with her sharp eyes, Feng Wu smiled a little.

Chapter 1879: Master Jue's Animosity

She knew it. The formation activated the moment she entered the hall.

Universe Hall was indeed as formidable as the white fairy said!

Luckily, Feng Wu knew formations and was an excellent formation master. Otherwise, she wouldn't even be able to walk forward.

After some deduction, Feng Wu quickly made her way across the hall.

But when she was halfway in —

A figure entered the front doors.

Hearing the sound, Feng Wu looked over her shoulder.

Their eyes met.

Feng Wu frowned, while the other person had a murderous look in his eyes after the initial shock passed.

It was none other than Master Jue himself!

Feng Wu recalled what Qiuling said earlier.

She said —

It was Master Jue who brought her and Chaoge into this place.

She said —

Master Jue and Sefiro had been chatting happily. Sefiro then told him something. Afterward, Master Jue grabbed his sword and tried to kill Qiuling and Chaoge.

There was only one thing that would change Master Jue's attitude so suddenly: Catnine's death!

That was to say, Master Jue already knew that Feng Wu had killed Catnine...

If he also realized that she had pretended to be Catnine in front of him, he would be furious.

Before Feng Wu could react, Master Jue was already glowering at her.

Whoosh!

Master Jue threw his sword at Feng Wu.

But to his surprise, the sword turned around and flew back to his hand.

He frowned.

"It's a formation. To kill me, you have to get close enough." Feng Wu waved at Master Jue with a smile.

She felt no regret at killing Catnine.

He had tried to kill her first, and she had been merciful enough to give him a quick death.

Master Jue stared at Feng Wu with eyes filled with hatred and cruelty.

Someone less fearless would have been scared to death!

Feng Wu's eyes blazed with hate at the sight of her old enemy.

She thought that Master Jue would never be able to calm down and try to solve the formation in this situation, so it would be impossible for him to come after her.

However —

To her surprise, Master Jue was able to calm down.

He didn't look at Feng Wu again, as if she wasn't there.

He closed his eyes every now and then, mumbling to himself. After that, he would walk a few steps before he stopped.

OMG!

Feng Wu cried out inwardly.

She had always thought that she was peerless in formation skills among her contemporaries, but when she saw how quickly Master Jue was solving the formation... she frowned!

That was why Ranmil had been able to solve the formations so quickly. Master Jue had been helping her!

The two of them were 500 steps away at first, but with Master Jue's efficiency, he was getting closer very quickly.

400 steps.

300 steps.

200 steps.

...

Feng Wu's stomach lurched!

He was so fast!

"Solve the formation now!" Little Phoenix yelled in Feng Wu's ears. "You haven't gotten the seed of the spirit source yet, so he's much better than you! He's much stronger than Zuo Qingxian! Without the white fairy around, you'll be dead if you let him catch you!"

Feng Wu already knew how capable Master Jue was when she infiltrated Master Jue's camp as Catnine.

And he didn't show all that he was capable of when there were people around.

If...

Chapter 1880: He's Catching Up!

Feng Wu also knew that the most important thing for her now was to solve the formation, but.. .

"By Junwu Empire standards, this is a Level 4 formation," said Little Phoenix, "and that's also the maximum level you can solve. That man has been studying all the formations here for years, whereas you've only just got here. It's understandable that you can't solve it as fast as he can.

"It may be a good thing for you!

"Because you've never met your match in formations before; this can be a wakeup call to remind you that there are more capable people out there!"

Feng Wu almost burst into tears!

Didn't Little Phoenix see how worried she was? Why wouldn't it hurry up?

Feng Wu said, "You sound more master-ish than my beautiful master. Hey, Little Phoenix, when are you going to stop acting like some senior master?"

Acting like one? Little Phoenix glanced at Feng Wu. It was behaving exactly as it was supposed to. It was Master Phoenix. At least, it used to be.

"It's all because of you!" The bird glanced at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu was confused? "What did I do?"

Little Phoenix crossed its wings. Had it not been for the girl, it would never have to start cultivating from scratch. It was the famous Master Phoenix!

"He's only 50 steps away," Little Phoenix reminded Feng Wu.

Feng Wu looked over her shoulder —

Gosh! He really was!

Master Jue was solving the formation at an impossible speed.

While she was talking to Little Phoenix, Master Jue had been working nonstop. Feng Wu was sure that if she stayed where she was, Master Feng would reach her in two minutes.

She looked into Master Jue's eyes.

What a pair of eyes!

They were filled with rage, frenzy, and murderous intent.

"Wood is in the south. The Wound Door matches the four azure dragons. Metal is in the west. The Surprise Door matches two white tigers..." Little Phoenix started reciting.

Feng Wu was already slower than Master Jue, so she immediately followed Little Phoenix's instructions.

Whoosh —

She picked up speed right away.

They were only ten steps apart before this, and Master Jue could almost reach Feng Wu with his sword.

But at that critical moment, Little Phoenix's instructions changed.

Feng Wu's greatest ability was to learn and comprehend things very quickly.

She put the instructions to use as she listened.

"Are these the Level 5 formation instructions?" Feng Wu gradually realized what they were.

Little Phoenix nodded.

Feng Wu cried out, "Why do you know them? Aren't you just an ignorant little bird?"

Little Phoenix felt offended.

An ignorant little bird? It was the all-knowing Master Phoenix!

“From now on, call me Boss Phoenix!” Little Phoenix said proudly.

Feng Wu chuckled.

But it was true. As soon as she followed the instructions, Feng Wu worked faster than Master Jue, to the point of making him desperate.

When she looked over her shoulder, she saw that the distance between them was increasing again.

10 steps, 20 steps, 30 steps... In a matter of seconds, they were 50 steps away!

Feng Wu was relieved. It seemed that Master Jue wouldn't catch up with her for a while.

But at that moment —
