Chapter 1941: Untitled

Feng Sang said, "I didn't say that she couldn't do it."

Dugu Yamo said, "That's right. We were just worried..."

Feng Sang and Dugu Yamo looked at each other. Feng Wu had saved their skin at the last moment twice already, and they had no reason to doubt her anymore.

"Now, let's go to the next floor. We'll live once we get all the way up to the seventh floor!" Feng Xun was quite excited.

Feng Wu was about to throw away the flower, but –

"Hey? What are you doing?!"

The fairy stared at Feng Wu and snapped, "That's good stuff! How can you throw it away?!"

Feng Wu was confused. "Isn't it a mutated flower?"

The fairy asked, "What do you think of the abnormal flame?"

Feng Wu said, "Good, of course."

The fairy asked, "What about a mutated flower?"

Feng Wu said, "Are you saying that it's useful?"

"Do you know how that old tree procreates?" asked the fairy.

"How?"

"It doesn't have any seeds! It uses flowers!"

"And of the millions of flowers..."

The fairy looked at Feng Wu in resignation. "Only the three-leaf flower is the seed, and the rest are all ordinary flowers."

Feng Wu: !!!

The fairy said, "Even the Black Robe Ghost King doesn't know that. Plant it in the ring space before it dies."

Feng Wu said, "What's in it for me?"

The fairy stared at her in disbelief.

Feng Wu asked, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

The fairy said, "Do you want to bring back your beautiful master or not?"

Feng Wu said, "Of course I do! I would trade my life for my master's in a heartbeat!"

The fairy asked, "Do you know what this tree can do, then?"

Feng Wu said, "What can it do? It's an ancient tung tree, and there are few records of it because it has almost become extinct on the continent. Come to think of it, there's something about the plant in the Anecdotes of the Continent. Yes!"

Her eyes suddenly lit up. "I remember! It can prolong life! It has the Taiyi Wood spirit, which can prolong life!"

The fairy nodded. "That's right. It can do that. Your beautiful master has been unconscious for ages. He's weak. If you have an ancient tung tree which can provide him with constant Taiyi Wood spiritual energy..."

"I'll plant it! I'll plant it now!" Feng Wu was over the moon.

She would stop at nothing to help her beautiful master.

Little Phoenix, who had been silent until now, said excitedly, "I never knew that there was still an ancient tung tree on the continent. The only one that's over 10,000 years old can procreate and have three-leaf flowers. We hit the jackpot this time!"

Just then, Feng Xun, who was climbing the stairs, turned to look at Feng Wu.

"Xiao Wu, let's go. We don't have much time left."

"Alright! I'll be right there!"

Feng Wu waved at Feng Xun. She then asked the fairy, "So, I just plant it. Is that it?"

"Of course not!" The fairy rolled her eyes at Feng Wu. "It requires a lot of preparation. Otherwise, why would people call it the last resort to save one's life?"

Feng Wu asked, "What do I need to prepare?"

Chapter 1942: Untitled

"You'll need a Water Dragon Ball and Fire Dragon Ball to build a foundation, and for endless energy flow, you'll need the Essence of Earth. With the support of the Taiyi Wood spirit, the next time your beautiful master wakes up, it'll be for much longer..."

"I'll do it!" Feng Wu clenched her fists. "Of course, I'll do it!"

"But what are Water Dragon Ball, Fire Dragon Ball, and the Essence of Earth?" Feng Wu was confused.

"I don't know about other places, but since there's an ancient tung tree on the second floor, it means that you must be able to find those three on the next few floors, because they always come together."

Little Phoenix looked at Feng Wu in excitement. "You have to pass the next few trials! We have to find those things!"

Feng Wu said, "Alright! If they're not there, I'll make that Black Robe Ghost King spit them out."

The thought of having her beautiful master awake all the time and by her side made Feng Wu fearless.

“Xiao Wu? Xiao Wu?”

Feng Xun called her anxiously.

Feng Wu said, “I’m coming!”

The third floor.

When everyone left the last step, whoosh —

The scene changed so fast that it made them dizzy. When they looked up, they saw that they were on a beach.

The sky was as blue as the sea below.

The beach had fine sand, and the air smelled of coconut.

The coastline seemed to stretch endlessly into the distance.

Wait —

Feng Wu’s eyes widened. It was a white beach...

Were they here on vacation?

If there were some benches and shade on the beach, it really would be a vacation.

“Are we at the seaside now?” Dugu Yamo was amazed.

Feng Sang stared at Feng Wu. “You said earlier that the trials would be in the sequence of the five elements. The first two were metal and wood, and now we have water... You were right!”

She couldn’t understand how Feng Wu could guess it when they were on the first floor, and she herself only realized it now. How could Feng Wu be so much better?

“What are we supposed to do for this level?” Feng Xun looked around curiously.

But apart from a boat, there was nothing.

Just then —

Roarr!

A terrifying roar made all of them jump.

It was a gigantic sea dragon!

The creature was hundreds of meters long, and it looked down at them with cold eyes. There was no emotion in them, and the temperature plummeted.

Whoosh —

A shadow came down from above and landed on the dragon.

They let out a breath of relief when they saw the face, because it was a familiar one.

“It’s the Black Robe Ghost King!”

They were worried that he wouldn’t show up.

“Kiddo, you’re very bold to come here. I bet that you’ll lose this one!” The ghost king seemed to get along better with them by quarreling.

If one were to take a closer look —

At first, the ghost king was indifferent and even hostile toward Feng Wu.

Because he knew that Feng Wu was on the white fairy’s side.

And he wasn’t on friendly terms with the white fairy.

But after the first two floors, the ghost king’s impression of Feng Wu had changed, and even he didn’t notice that he was appearing more and more often.

Chapter 1943: Untitled

“No, I’m going to win.” Feng Wu was as confident as ever.

“Hahaha, I like how confident you are. Good!” said the ghost king. “The trial for this floor is easy. Do you see this little guy?”

He pointed at the huge sea dragon that was hundreds of meters long.

“The little guy doesn’t want to take lives on its own, but it has a great appetite. What should we do?”

He smiled at the others. “So, you’re going to feed it today.”

Feng Wu: !!!

Gosh. The sea dragon was hundreds of meters long. How much could it eat?!

Feng Wu said, “To what extent?”

The ghost king smiled at Feng Wu. “Until it doesn’t want to eat anymore.”

Feng Wu said, “How much time do we have?”

The Black Robe Ghost King said, “The same as the first two floors.”

Feng Wu said, “It eats anything, does it?”

The Black Robe Ghost King rubbed his chin and chuckled. “Of course not. Come to think of it, my little dragon is very picky. Aren’t you?”

He patted the sea dragon’s head.

The sea dragon rubbed its head against the ghost king in an affectionate way.

Feng Wu asked, “What does it like to eat?”

The ghost king pointed at the sea below. "It eats most seafood, but for shellfish, you need to remove the shell before feeding it. My little guy's stomach has been weak recently, and can't take anything hard."

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Feng Wu said, "Shellfish has very little edible parts."

The ghost king gave her a teasing look. "I trust you can do it, kiddo."

Feng Wu said, "It's doable, as long as you promise me something."

"It's doable?!"

Feng Xun and the others all gave Feng Wu strange looks.

How could it be doable?

The sea dragon was hundreds of meters long! How big an appetite would it have? They still didn't know how much food they could find in the sea, but she had already agreed!

The ghost king was curious. "What do you want?"

"The Water Dragon Ball," Feng Wu said matter-of-factly. "Without it, we can't catch that much seafood, and we won't be able to finish the task. If that happens, we'll die, but —"

Feng Wu smiled at the sea dragon. "But this pregnant sea dragon will also have a very difficult time."

The sea dragon stared at Feng Wu.

The Black Robe Ghost King narrowed his eyes as well.

Feng Xun and the others stared at Feng Wu in amazement.

"Are you saying that the dragon is pregnant?"

"Is it storing food for the labor?"

"Is it going to need a lot of seafood?"

"I heard that sea dragons can eat a lot of things and digest them slowly..."

"That means... we'll be filling a bottomless pit!"

Everyone's mouths fell open.

Feng Wu was the only one who was still smiling. "With the Water Dragon Ball, I can promise you that I'll get the food for you."

The sea dragon stared at Feng Wu.

It had a Water Dragon Ball, but that was the essence of its life. It couldn't just give it away.

Feng Wu chuckled.. "If we fail, you'll still have the Water Dragon Ball."

Chapter 1944: Untitled

Feng Wu then turned to the Black Robe Ghost King. "What do you think?"

Before, the ghost king wouldn't even consider the request. He wouldn't have even looked at her, because he thought too little of her.

After the two trials, his attitude toward Feng Wu had changed a little.

He patted the dragon's head. "Give it to her."

The sea dragon stared at him in astonishment.

Was its master taking sides?

He no longer indulged it like he used to!

"Master..."

The sea dragon was about to speak, when the ghost king gave it a stern look.

The dragon knew very well that its master never took no for an answer.

Despite its unwillingness, the sea dragon had to spit out the translucent Water Dragon Ball, and the ball shot toward Feng Wu.

Feng Wu caught it and held it in her hand.

The ghost king reminded her, "Kiddo, if you can't finish the task, not only do you have to return the ball, all of you will die!"

Feng Wu nodded. "I know."

The sea dragon threw a dirty look at Feng Wu, patted its stomach, and left with the ghost king.

Feng Xun and the others ran to her side as soon as the pair left.

Feng Xun sounded distressed when he said, "Xiao Wu, this is an impossible task. How could you agree to it?"

Dugu Yamo chimed in, "If the sea dragon wasn't pregnant, we might be able to fill its stomach if we tried, but it's pregnant!"

Feng Yiran said, "Feng Wu, do you know how big a pregnant sea dragon's appetite is? There's a reason that they're called 'devouring sea beasts!'"

Feng Sang said, "Have you forgotten who you are just because we praised you a little? We can't fill the stomach of a hungry, pregnant sea dragon! It's impossible!"

Jun Linyun was worried as well. "And it's so picky. We need to remove the shells! What are they thinking?"

Feng Sang said, "You took the task, you finish it. I won't be a part of it."

Feng Wu had been a hero a moment ago, but everyone seemed to have turned their backs on her.

Feng Wu glanced at Feng Sang. "I took the task, I finish it, and you won't be a part of it? Fine. Go tell the ghost king that you want a different task. Go ahead."

Feng Sang immediately recoiled.

She couldn't even look up when the ghost king showed up; of course she didn't dare to negotiate with him. She didn't have a death wish.

Feng Wu glanced at them. "Do you think that the ghost king came up with that task on the spot?"

She smirked. "No! In fact, all the past Survival Teams have done these tasks before. It's like having the students take the same test every year. You're so naive if you think you can just change the questions. Who do you think you are? You don't get to pick your tasks with the Black Robe Ghost King!"

The crowd was speechless.

Up on the clouds —

The Black Robe Ghost King sat on the sea dragon's back and looked very relaxed.

"She's good, isn't she?" He smiled at the sea dragon.

The dragon gritted its teeth. No, she wasn't good at all!

"Well, she's alright, I guess," said the dragon.

The Black Robe Ghost King said, "She's very interesting. She's wise, whimsical, and can think about and solve problems in unique ways. And she knows how to go with the flow. She's so young, but her thinking is more comprehensive than anyone else's. Isn't she amazing?"

Chapter 1945: Untitled

The sea dragon gritted its teeth. She didn't sound interesting at all! It wanted to kill everyone who tried to steal its master away!

"Hahaha. She's so interesting."

The Black Robe Ghost King gloated. "If she really can lead the Survival Team to victory... Well, that'll be a first. Come. Let's have a look at the Chosen Team."

...

After Feng Wu scolded them, Feng Xun and the others lowered their heads without saying a word.

Feng Wu said, "Time is of the essence here. Let's start fishing.."

Feng Sang and the others didn't like the idea, but they had to admit that Feng Wu was right.

"We still have some hope if we work hard, but if we don't, we'll all die!" Feng Wu said decisively.

They had no choice but to depend on the little hope that they had.

They sailed out.

The fishing boat was a hundred meters long, and they looked at one another in bewilderment.

Seeing the hopeless looks on their faces, Feng Wu sighed in resignation. "You guys catch as many as you can, and I'll make up the rest of it. Okay?"

Everyone looked at Feng Wu in disbelief.

Feng Sang said, "You'll make up the rest of it? With what?"

Dugu Yamo took Feng Wu's hand and sounded pleasantly surprised. "You know what to do, don't you? Feng Wu, you've figured it out!"

Feng Wu didn't speak.

Dugu Yamo said excitedly, "Feng Sang, have you forgotten? It was the same with the first two floors. She was always very confident, and in fact, she was always correct! So this time —"

Dugu Yamo smiled at Feng Wu. "I know you're the best! I believe you!"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Dugu Yamo said, "I have the water attribute, so I'll go in first!"

After that, she swiftly jumped into the water.

Feng Sang looked suspiciously at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu said, "Stop looking at me. Even if I have cards up my sleeves, I won't tell you."

Feng Sang was amazed. "So, Dugu Yamo was right! You figured it out!"

If that was the case, no one would die!

Feng Wu shrugged and didn't give any answer.

Feng Sang said, "Alright. It's like what you said. We'll do what we can, and you'll make up the rest!"

After that, she jumped into the water as well.

Feng Xun looked at Feng Wu and hesitated.

He didn't have the water attribute and naturally was intimidated by the sea.

"Xiao Wu, you really..."

Before Feng Xun could ask the question, Feng Wu chuckled. "I know what to do, so just trust me, okay?"

"Alright —" Jun Linyun jumped out of nowhere and patted Feng Wu's shoulder. "No matter what you do, I'll always trust you!"

Feng Xun narrowed his eyes and kept his gaze on Jun Linyun.

The look gave Jun Linyun the creeps. Before he could ask, Feng Xun was dragging him away. "Hey! Feng Xun! What are you doing?"

“Get over here!” Feng Xun pulled Jun Linyun to the side.

Jun Linyun looked innocently at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun asked, “Do you have a crush on her?”

Jun Linyun nodded repeatedly. “Of course. She’s my goddess and the only woman I want to marry!”

Feng Xun asked, “You’re still thinking that way when you know about her relationship with Boss Jun?”

Jun Linyun asked innocently, “Are Boss Jun and Miss Feng Wu really what you say they are? Why don’t I see it?”

Feng Xun asked, “Why do you say that?”

Chapter 1946: Untitled

Jun Linyun said, “Look, when we talked about it earlier, Boss Jun said that Feng Wu had disappointed him. He didn’t acknowledge his relationship with her.”

Feng Xun was rendered speechless.

Jun Linyun said, “So, he denied it. That is to say, Miss Feng Wu is single now. Why can’t I court her?”

Feng Xun clenched his fists.

Boss Jun really was the one to be blamed here. He just wouldn’t give up on his ego and acknowledge her. As a result, Jun Linyun had the wrong impression.

“That’s their relationship! You’re not allowed to like Xiao Wu!”

“Why do you say that?”

“Because she’s my sister!”

Jun Linyun raised his eyebrows. “Hey, future brother-in-law, can I tell you something?”

Feng Xun stared at Jun Linyun. “What future brother-in-law? Shut up already.”

Jun Linyun lowered his voice. “What if... What if she’s the only woman I’ll marry for as long as I live? There will be no concubines, no maids, and no women on the side. Miss Feng Wu will be the only woman I’ll ever have. Will you marry her to me?”

1

Feng Xun didn’t know what to say. That did sound nice.

Jun Linyun said, “Boss Jun is so popular, and everyone likes him. Zuo Qingluan is on the other end of the world, but Ranmil is right here.”

He then lowered his voice. "Ranmil may look like she's so pure and indifferent to Boss Jun, but from the way she behaves, she must be jealous of Feng Wu, don't you think?"

Feng Xun gave it some thought and nodded.

Jun Linyun said, "You see. Wherever Boss Jun goes, trouble follows, and they're all directed at little Feng Wu. It's only just the beginning. Imagine doing it for a lifetime."

Feng Xun didn't know what to say.

Jun Linyun went on, "But look at me. I can swear to you that Xiao Wu is the only one I'll ever marry. If I look at another woman, you can chop this off!"

Jun Linyun pointed at his private part.

Feng Xun cleared his throat.

Jun Linyun put up three fingers to make an oath. "I'll let her take charge of everything, from the property to the household affairs. After she marries me, she'll be the boss, and I'll be her subordinate. I'll do whatever she says."

Feng Xun bit his lower lip. It just sounded more and more pleasant.

Jun Linyun added, "If Boss Jun ever does something to upset Xiao Wu, do you think you can settle accounts for her? No, you can't. But you can with me!"

"You've always pushed me around anyway, and if you want, you can punch me anytime. Brother Feng, you're more capable than me, and you can discipline me whenever you want. But with Boss Jun..."

Feng Xun stared at Jun Linyun.

Jun Linyun said, "So, future brother-in-law, you'll help me, right?"

"No, I won't!" Feng Xun smacked Jun Linyun on the head. "Stop trying to sabotage your brother's marriage! Do you have a death wish?!"

Rubbing his forehead, Jun Linyun mumbled, "But my brother doesn't like Xiao Wu."

What?!

Feng Xun threw a dirty look at Jun Linyun. If Boss Jun didn't like her, he would never have done so many unusual things.

"He just doesn't show it." Feng Xun told the truth.

"Feng Xun, Jun Linyun, what are you doing there? We don't have much time left!" Feng Wu stared at them.

Chapter 1947: Untitled

Both of them had the fire attribute and couldn't go into the sea, so Feng Wu prepared three fishing rods for them.

That included Xuan Yi.

“I’m coming —”

Feng Xun ran over happily and saw the three rods. “Wait. Are those fishing rods?”

Feng Wu said, “Yes. Since you can’t go in, you might as well fish from up here.”

“Ahem —” Feng Xun rubbed his chin and cleared his throat.

Feng Wu asked, “What’s with that look on your face?”

Jun Linyun said, “Haha, Brother Feng has had issues with water since he was little.. Anything aquatic will avoid him. He’s never been able to catch anything with a fishing rod. You got him this for nothing.”

Feng Xun stared at him. “As if you can catch anything.”

Xuan Yi said, “Shut up.”

Feng Wu asked, “Are the three of you all that bad?”

Feng Xun and Xuan Yi cleared their throats while Jun Linyun gloated. “I’m an expert at fishing. I’m great at it, hoho.”

Feng Wu handed him a fishing rod. “Get over there and start fishing, then.”

Jun Linyun looked at Feng Wu affectionately. “My goddess, if I catch a lot of fish, will you be nicer to me?”

Feng Wu rolled her eyes at him.

Jun Linyun said, “Alright, alright. I’ll stop talking. I’ll get on with my work.”

As soon as he walked away, Feng Xun frowned. “That boy and his tongue.”

Feng Wu nodded. “You don’t say.”

Feng Xun glanced at Feng Wu as he played with the fishing rod.

Feng Wu asked, “What?”

Feng Xun bit his lower lip and hesitated.

Feng Wu said, “If you have something to say, say it. Plus, if we lose on this floor, you’ll never have a chance to say it.”

That made sense. Feng Xun said, “I’ll ask, then.”

Feng Wu attached bait to the fishing rod, tossed the fishing line into the water, and said, “Ask away.”

Feng Xun said, “Tell me the truth, then. Are you fond of Boss Jun or not?”

Feng Wu’s hand jolted, and she nearly dropped the fishing rod.

She turned around and gave Feng Xun a strange look.

Feng Xun said, "What's that look on your face? I'll change the question. Between Boss Jun and Jun Linyun, who would you choose?"

Feng Wu went on staring at him and found the question ridiculous.

Feng Xun wiped his face. "That's right. How can I ask such a question? Boss Jun is obviously so much better, and Jun Linyun is nothing in comparison. Of course you won't choose him."

In fact, Feng Xun liked what Jun Linyun had said earlier.

Feng Wu said, "Why do you think I'll choose Jun Linyuan?"

Feng Xun said, "What? Are you choosing Jun Linyun?"

Feng Wu was speechless. "Why do I have to choose from that family?"

Feng Xun said, "What do you mean?"

Feng Wu said, "Can't I like someone else? I'm not bound to the Jun family."

Feng Xun jumped to his feet. "Xiao Wu, are you in love with someone else? Have you changed your mind? Boss Jun likes you so much!"

Feng Wu said, "What are you talking about? Since when does Jun Linyuan like me? If he really likes me, he would have acknowledged our marriage engagement, and the others wouldn't have laughed at me."

Feng Xun said, "That's because of his personality..."

Feng Wu said, "I don't care if he likes me or not. It doesn't matter now, because I've just realized that I'm fond of someone else."

Chapter 1948: Untitled

"What?!" Feng Xun jumped up and stared at Feng Wu. "What did you just say?"

Feng Wu grinned at Feng Xun, leapt over the rail, and jumped into the sea. She didn't even cause a splash.

Feng Xun was anxious. By the looks of it, the one she was fond of wasn't Boss Jun!

But if not him, who? Yu Mingye? No, it couldn't be him. But who else...

"Can it be Jun Linyun?!"

Feng Xun paled.

Hearing this, Jun Linyun ran happily to Feng Xun and asked in bewilderment, "What happened?"

Feng Xun looked Jun Linyun up and down, then shook his head.

This guy was too silly compared with Boss Jun. Why would Feng Wu choose him over Boss Jun? That was just stupid.

But Feng Xun couldn't figure it out no matter what.

By then, Feng Wu had reached the bottom of the ocean.

In this little world under the sea, the resources were similar to those in her old world, but not exactly the same.

In her old world, the sea was full of fish. After that, there were other sea creatures such as shrimps, crabs, and other shellfish. But it wasn't like that here.

Feng Wu didn't see any fish here, but there were a lot of crabs and shellfish.

However —

Feng Wu smiled bitterly. It seemed that Jun Linyun wouldn't catch any fish after all. What a pity.

Just then, Feng Sang and Dugu Yamo came back up together with Feng Wu.

Feng Wu didn't want to, but the other two insisted.

"Feng Wu, I know you're smart." Dugu Yamo had to recognize Feng Wu's capability now. "Tell me, how many kilograms of food do we have to feed that sea dragon to fill its stomach?"

Feng Sang looked at her as well.

Feng Wu had done the calculations, and she answered as soon as Dugu Yamo asked. "If it's not pregnant, 50,000 kg would do, but it's storing food for its pregnancy now, so... 250,000 kg."

"250,000 kg?!"

When the others all came back to the boat and heard the news, they almost slipped back into the water.

Feng Xun stared at Feng Wu. "Do we need that much?"

Feng Wu nodded. "That's only the minimum."

Feng Xun said, "If that's the case, let's get some fish, then. If we can catch something as big as a shark, it won't be so hard. I remember that you can lure a shark with blood, so let's use mine."

Feng Xun rolled up his sleeve and exposed his strong arm.

Feng Sang and Dugu Yamo both gave Feng Xun strange looks.

Feng Xun said, "I mean it! I grew up eating all kinds of tonic, and I have yummy blood. It'll draw the shark here. Just wait and see."

Feng Xun was about to cut his own wrist, when Feng Wu stopped him.

Feng Wu shook her head. "Forget it. It won't work."

Feng Xun said, "Why won't it work? My blood —"

“There’s no shark!” Dugu Yamo couldn’t take it anymore. She looked from Feng Xun to the sea and said angrily, “There’s no fish in the sea!”

Feng Xun chuckled. “Are you kidding me? What kind of sea doesn’t have fish?”

Chapter 1949: Untitled

Feng Sang was about to speak, when Feng Wu shook her head. She then said to Feng Xun in a serious tone, “It’s true. There’s no fish in this sea.”

Feng Xun was rendered speechless.

Xuan Yi was speechless.

So was Jun Linyun.

Feng Xun said, “So...”

“There’s nothing large either, only shrimps, crabs, and shellfish.” Feng Wu heaved a sigh. “They’re neither too small nor too big, but do you remember what the ghost king said?”

All eyes were on Feng Wu..

She said, “I now see what he meant when he said that the sea dragon only ate shellfish without the shell. The shell is heavy, and without it, the flesh inside only weighs so little.”

“250,000 kg?” Dugu Yamo looked like she was about to cry. “How are we ever going to make up that amount?!”

She counted with her fingers. “We can hold our breaths longer than normal people, but not indefinitely. We can go without breathing for three minutes at most, but how many things can we catch in that time?”

Dugu Yamo removed a sack from her back and poured out the crabs and shellfish inside. It was true. There was no fish at all.

Everyone fell silent when they saw this.

Dugu Yamo shook her head at Feng Wu. “It’s an impossible task. We can’t do it...”

Feng Sang was almost crying. “If there’s hope, we’ll do our best, but the problem is... How are we going to find 250,000 kg of shellfish flesh in 15 minutes?!”

Feng Yiran looked up at the sky. “We worked so hard to come from the first floor to the third one... The ghost king is doing this on purpose! How are we going to find so much food?”

They had to take a breath every three minutes. How much food could they fit into those sacks in 15 minutes?

Jun Linyun scratched his head. “There has to be a way, right?”

Feng Yiran said, "No, there isn't. Your Royal Highness, we have no hope left. Do you have any suggestions?"

Jun Linyun didn't know what to say, because he couldn't think of anything.

Feng Xun said, "Too bad that we aren't of the water attribute. If we can go in with you guys, it'll be a lot faster."

Feng Wu smiled and opened her right hand. "Have you forgotten about this?"

Everyone looked at her hand.

A pearl the size of a pigeon's egg lay there, and it was glowing brightly.

"The Water Dragon Ball!" Jun Linyun cried out.

Feng Wu nodded. "This is what I borrowed from the sea dragon. Let's see what it can do."

Feng Wu injected her spiritual essence into the Water Dragon Ball. Immediately, it shone even brighter.

Feng Wu yelled, "Part the sea for me!"

With that, the Water Dragon Ball created a gust of wind, which was aimed at the sea surface.

The wind was like a sharp blade, which split the sea open.

"Part!"

Feng Wu bellowed.

With that, the wind sank into the sea and pushed the seawater to either side.

Thump —

Chapter 1950: Untitled

One inch, two inches, three inches...

The sea really parted!

"Oh my god!"

Everyone watched this in astonishment.

Dugu Yamo covered her mouth with her hands and couldn't believe what she was seeing.

One meter, two meters, three meters...

Soon, there was a ten-meter gap, as if invisible walls were keeping the two sides apart. In the space between the two sides, countless shrimps, crabs, and shellfish lay at the bottom of the sea.

Feng Wu said, "The Water Dragon Ball won't keep the water apart forever. Let's start gathering food."

"Wow!" Feng Xun cried out with wide open eyes.

The Water Dragon Ball almost seemed to be tailor-made for the three of them who couldn't swim.

Did Feng Wu plan this when she borrowed the Water Dragon Ball from the sea dragon? That was so incredible.

“You and Boss Jun are so similar. Both of you can think five, six, or seven steps ahead of you.” Feng Xun patted Feng Wu’s shoulder. The next second, he jumped into the sea which had opened up.

How amazing. The Water Dragon Ball could open up the sea without leaving a drop of water behind.

Seeing this, Xuan Yi jumped in after Feng Xun.

Jun Linyun looked at Feng Wu with shiny eyes and clenched his fists in excitement. “My goddess, you’re so amazing. I promise that I’ll never give up on you!”

“I would prefer that you do...”

Before Feng Wu could say that, Jun Linyun had jumped into the sea.

Dugu Yamo looked at Feng Wu and wanted to say something to thank her, but she had been Feng Wu’s enemy for so long that she couldn’t bring herself to say such things.

At that thought, Dugu Yamo put on a stern face and jumped in without giving Feng Wu another look.

Feng Sang felt the same way as Dugu Yamo, and so did Feng Yiran.

Hence –

The three of them jumped into the sea one after another, leaving Feng Wu behind on the boat alone.

Feng Wu rubbed her nose.

At the bottom of the sea –

Everyone was busy working.

But someone indeed needed to stay behind to give the others a hand.

For instance, Feng Xun was in trouble now.

There were so many shrimps, crabs, and shellfish at the bottom of the sea, and all they needed to do was stuff them into their sacks.

Whoosh –

They moved so fast that it was impossible to follow the movements of their hands.

But now, they ran into some trouble.

Feng Xun was the first to realize it.

He looked behind and saw over a dozen sacks, but how were they going to get them back to the boat?

The bottom of the sea was 500m below the boat...

“It’s not that easy to fly up there. Without the water, how are we going to get up there?” Feng Xun scratched his head.

Jun Linyun said, "There's seawater on both sides of us, isn't there? We can swim up."

Feng Xun rolled his eyes at Jun Linyun. "Use your head. The sea has been parted, which means that there are invisible walls on both sides. We won't be able to get through."

Jun Linyun realized that as well.

Feng Xun smacked his head. "I remember I saw some rope on the deck."

The others all looked at him.
