

G E D 2081

Chapter 2081: Untitled

However, Ranmil said decisively, "If I can't marry Jun Linyuan, I'd rather die! Go, now!"

No matter what Qingcao said, Ranmil wouldn't change her mind.

Finally, Qingcao had no choice but to take the letter.

"Princess, there's no turning back when I leave with this letter..."

"Just go!" said Ranmil coldly.

Qingcao was filled with despair, but since her princess had made up her mind, she had to follow her order.

She took a breath and stepped out of the door.

"Come back!" Ranmil suddenly said.

Qingcao was delighted and quickly ran back to her.

While she thought that her princess was going to change her mind, Ranmil only took back the letter, unfolded it, and put a red leaf inside.

"It's a red-heart leaf. Make sure that His Royal Highness gets it," Ranmil stressed.

Qingcao didn't let her emotions show and only said, "Yes."

Outside Jun Linyuan's tent.

Baiye was on duty tonight, so she couldn't leave.

However, when she saw Qingcao again, she almost walked away.

"Baiye —" Qingcao smiled.

"Go away —" Baiye gestured at her to go away.

Qingcao walked up to her with a smile. "Don't worry. I won't trouble you."

But Baiye didn't believe her. "You should go away. Otherwise, I'll have you removed."

Qingcao smiled. "You'll be in trouble if you disturb the crown prince."

Baiye said, "You!"

Qingcao smiled. "Don't worry. I won't tell Granny Gong that you took a lot of money from me and told me information about His Royal Highness."

"You!!!" Baiye glared at Qingcao.

Qingcao smiled.

Baiye lowered her voice. "Are you threatening me?"

Qingcao said, "Sister Baiye, I'm only asking you for a little favor. It won't cost you anything, nor will it threaten your safety."

"What on earth do you want?!" Baiye grew impatient.

Qingcao laughed inwardly.

She said, "You said it yourself just now. His Royal Highness was intrigued and only said no because Miss Feng Wu stopped him. So —"

Qingcao took the letter out of her sleeve. "Just take this letter to His Royal Highness."

Baiye wanted to say something, but Qingcao went on. "What His Royal Highness wants to do after that will be his choice, and you'll be off the hook."

Baiye took the letter and hesitated.

Although the crown prince usually stayed out of household affairs, he wouldn't allow such things.

Qingcao said, "If I'm guessing correctly, in five minutes, you'll change shifts with Xiangcao, right?"

She was trying to hurry her up.

Baiye gritted her teeth. "I just need to give His Royal Highness this letter and nothing more?"

Qingcao said, "Yes."

Baiye said, "Do you mean it?"

Qingcao said, "Of course."

Baiye couldn't run into the tent just like this. If the crown prince was offended, she might be killed.

Chapter 2082: Untitled

But Baiye became more hopeful.

Was it possible that His Royal Highness actually liked Princess Ranmil?

Baiye went in with two cups of hot tea. When she walked past "His Royal Highness," she swayed a little and dropped the letter that was in her sleeve.

The envelope had Jun Linyuan's name on it.

Feng Wu looked from Baiye to the letter.

Baiye squatted down and tried to grab the letter. "Your Royal Highness, please forgive me..."

Feng Wu gave her a half-smile. "Why? What did you do?"

What? Baiye was perplexed.

Wasn't the crown prince supposed to be indifferent and didn't care about anything? Why...

Baiye tensed up and said gingerly, "Your Royal Highness, the letter is from Qingcao... She's Princess Ranmil's maid. She stuffed it in my sleeve. I tried to turn her down, but she put it in my sleeve when I wasn't looking. It's all my fault! Please forgive me!"

Feng Wu looked at the maid and knew that she was full of lies.

She was a good actress, but she had seen all kinds of good actors in her previous life, and Baiye was only an amateur in comparison.

"Hand it over." Feng Wu reached out her hand.

She was just curious what Ranmil would do as a last resort.

If she ignored Ranmil, that girl would keep trying something new. Feng Wu would rather learn her purpose now.

Baiye handed the letter to the "crown prince."

She secretly rejoiced, wondering if His Royal Highness actually liked Ranmil.

"What's that?" Jun Linyuan had been reading. Seeing this, he walked over to Feng Wu and sat down next to her.

Feng Wu was opening the letter.

"It's a letter from Ranmil." She looked up at Jun Linyuan.

Jun Linyuan frowned.

Feng Wu said, "Don't be mad. I'm just reading it. It's not like I'm going to do anything."

Jun Linyuan glanced at Feng Wu and didn't seem pleased.

Baiye's heart raced when she saw their interaction. She held her breath, but she thought she had discovered the truth.

She believed that His Royal Highness was really interested in Ranmil, but Feng Wu was interfering.

Miss Feng Wu had crossed the line! Baiye clenched her fists.

"Leave us." Feng Wu glanced at Baiye. The girl's thoughts were written all over her face.

"Yes." Baiye bowed and left the tent.

Back in the tent.

"What's this?" Seeing the red leaf in the letter, Feng Wu was curious, so she gave it to Jun Linyuan.

Jun Linyuan hadn't seen it before either.

Feng Wu was even more curious. "Even you don't know what it is?"

The crown prince said, "Why should I know?"

Feng Wu said, "Because you're Jun Linyuan."

Jun Linyuan murmured, "But even Jun Linyuan doesn't know what you're thinking."

His tone was quite aggrieved when he said this, and his voice was so low that Feng Wu didn't hear him.

"What was that?" Feng Wu asked.

Jun Linyuan only glanced at her.

Amused, Feng Wu called his name. "Jun Linyuan."

The crown prince looked at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu's eyes twinkled. "My princess."

Chapter 2083: Out In the Open (1)

Jun Linyuan glared at Feng Wu. "What did you say?"

Feng Wu thought, "What else should I call you? You're like a three-year-old grumpy princess."

Of course, she wouldn't say that out loud.

She looked down at the letter.

Then, she was furious.

"I've been wondering what she would do. This is out of line!" Feng Wu was infuriated.

It was rare for Feng Wu to be so angry, so Jun Linyuan took the letter from her and read it.

He immediately frowned.

It was indeed an outrageous letter.

The letter was addressed to Jun Linyuan, and Ranmil was doing everything she could to smear Feng Wu's name.

Ranmil said in the letter that she knew that Feng Wu was no longer a virgin and that she had had indecent dealings with a man. She claimed that Feng Wu had betrayed the crown prince's trust.

She insisted that she had a Spiritual Fossil Stone, which had recorded the evidence of Feng Wu's deeds.

At the end of the letter, she asked to see the crown prince in the maple woods behind the hill, where she would hand the crown prince the evidence.

"I can't stand this!" Feng Wu snapped. "What man? I'm the most decent girl! What affairs? Evidence? I'd like to see what evidence she has!"

She walked toward the door.

A warm hand caught her.

"I believe you."

Those three words meant all the world to her.

Feng Wu's heart skipped a beat, but she was still angry.

"This is outright slander! I'd like to see what evidence she can show me! Hmph!" Feng Wu was about to storm off.

Jun Linyuan didn't look too happy either.

He followed Feng Wu without saying a word.

As they walked toward the woods, Feng Wu said to Jun Linyuan, "Why is Ranmil so evil? A girl's reputation is everything to her. She's trying to kill me!"

The crown prince nodded.

Feng Wu said, "I know she's trying to set you off and lure you into the woods. Who knows what's waiting for you there? Maybe she'll strip and yell that you want to rape her."

Jun Linyuan was speechless.

"It's so hot!" Feng Wu suddenly realized that something wasn't right.

She suddenly knew what was going on. "This isn't right!"

She took Jun Linyuan's hand. "No. Something's very wrong."

Jun Linyuan looked at her.

Feng Wu said, "I don't usually lose my temper like this. What's happening to me today? I shouldn't have lashed out. It's not like me. It's so childish."

Jun Linyuan was speechless.

Feng Wu touched her forehead. "I'm sweating."

She then put a hand on her chest. "My heart is beating fast."

After that, she checked her pulse. "And my pulse has quickened as well."

Feng Wu shook her head. "This isn't right. I think I've been drugged."

Jun Linyuan stared at her.

Feng Wu gritted her teeth. "It's the letter! No, it's not that..."

She took out the red leaf, sniffed it, and smirked. "I was right! Ranmil has tampered with this leaf. It has a lurid smell about it."

Chapter 2084: Out In the Open (2)

"Luckily, I'm also a girl, so it doesn't really affect me. The only effect is to quicken my heartbeat. That's all." Hearing this, Jun Linyuan asked, "Are you sure you're alright?"

Feng Wu waved her hands. "I just feel a little hot. Luckily, your body is strong enough, so this poison doesn't work on me."

Something seemed to occur to Jun Linyuan, and he looked at Feng Wu without saying a word.

That made Feng Wu fidget. "Why are you looking at me like this?"

Jun Linyuan looked at Feng Wu's hands before looking away.

Feng Wu found that look on his face strange.

So she pressed, "Hey, tell me what's wrong. You're giving me the creeps. What's the problem? Don't blame me if something happens to your body."

Jun Linyuan's face darkened when he heard Feng Wu's reminder.

"Go! Wash your hands!" He stared at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu asked, "What? I didn't touch anything dirty. Why..."

Before she could finish, Jun Linyuan pulled her away.

They were headed for a creek on the east.

Feng Wu didn't notice, but when Jun Linyuan pulled her away, the red leaf dropped to the ground.

"Jun Linyuan, you —"

What Jun Linyuan said next shocked her.

"That's the scent of an Enchanting Body. Don't you know what part of her body it comes from?" Jun Linyuan stared at Feng Wu's hands. "You just touched that thing with my hands. Are you stupid?!"

Jun Linyuan wanted to sever Feng Wu's hands with his eyes.

Feng Wu suddenly paled before she blushed. "I... Holy crap! Are you saying that... Damn that Ranmil! I'm gonna kill her!"

Jun Linyuan pushed Feng Wu toward the creek. "Wash your hands!"

Even if he didn't tell her, Feng Wu would still wash her hands. She wished that she could chop them off!

She felt like screaming.

She had touched Ranmil's body fluid!

That woman was nuts!

Ranmil had no idea that Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan were both furious. Right now, she was walking in the woods.

"Princess —" Qingcao looked concerned.

Ranmil stared at her. "Are you sure that His Royal Highness received the letter himself?"

Qingcao nodded.

Ranmil said, "Are you sure that His Royal Highness touched the leaf?"

Qingcao nodded again.

Ranmil smirked.

“Jun Linyuan, I don’t care if you like me or not. From now on, you’re mine!”

“Princess, shall I lure His Royal Highness here?” Since they had done it, Qingcao decided to help Ranmil to the end.

“The smell of that leaf will lure him here.” Ranmil was very confident. “I need to prepare now. Go back to your own business.”

Qingcao nodded. “Yes.”

After Qingcao left, Ranmil changed into a see-through dress made of thin gauze.

It showed a lot of skin.

Chapter 2085: Out In the Open (3)

Ranmil had a great body. She was curvaceous with a tiny waist and long legs. She was hot enough to give any man a nosebleed.

Moreover, she had an Enchanting Body.

“Jun Linyuan, it’s about time you show up.” Ranmil smirked and began to dance the last part of Fierce Face, which was very seductive.

No man could resist the temptation.

At the same time.

In Emperor Wu’s tent.

The emperor and empress sat side by side on the bed.

Empress Dugu took Emperor Wu’s hand and spoke in a piteous voice. “Your Majesty, I meant everything I just said. I genuinely feel sorry for Princess Ranmil.”

Emperor Wu shook his head in resignation.

Empress Dugu said, “His Royal Highness was being very inconsiderate. In that situation, even if he had to reject her, he should have been more tactful. That way, he won’t affect the relationship between the empire and the grassland.”

Emperor Wu nodded.

Seeing that Emperor Wu agreed with her, Empress Dugu went on. “But His Royal Highness simply said ‘no,’ which must have humiliated the princess. How will the chieftain feel about this? The crown prince might have made us a new enemy!”

Emperor Wu didn’t object, which was a sign that he thought the same.

Empress Dugu knew that she couldn't keep blaming the crown prince, for overdoing it would only counter what she was trying to achieve. She had to seem objective, so she changed the subject.

She sighed and said, "Of course, the Junwu Empire is so powerful that the grassland will never pose any threat to us. The crown prince has been proud since he was little. It'll be very hard to change him.

"It's just that..."

"Poor Princess Ranmil. She's just a teenage girl; it's only natural that she would fall in love with a capable teenager. That was a very brave thing to do, confessing her love in front of everyone. There's nothing wrong with that."

Empress Dugu said sympathetically, "But His Royal Highness really crossed the line this time. His outright rejection must have hurt the princess."

Emperor Wu's face darkened.

Empress Dugu then said, "The princess won't try to hurt herself, will she..."

Emperor Wu frowned. "Don't you think that's a bit of an exaggeration?"

Empress Dugu immediately knelt on the ground. "Your Majesty, I'm so sorry. I shouldn't have said such things..."

Emperor Wu emptied his glass and waved her off. "You're not wrong. What Jun Linyuan did was outrageous."

Empress Dugu immediately said, "Maybe His Royal Highness isn't as heartless as he seems. He probably did what he did to please Miss Feng Wu."

"To please Feng Wu? Has he lost his mind? He's the crown prince. Why should he please that girl? She's nobody!" Emperor Wu's face turned livid.

Why was he angry? Because that was what worried him the most!

He didn't want to see the extraordinary boy become lost in his love for a girl. What an awful idea!

At that thought, Emperor Wu rose to his feet.

"Your Majesty, it's in the middle of the night —" Empress Dugu tried to stop Emperor Wu.

Emperor Wu snorted. "I need to teach him a lesson before he forgets who he is!"

Chapter 2086: Out In the Open (4)

After that, Emperor Wu walked away.

His servant quickly lifted the door curtain for him.

Seeing Emperor Wu leave, Empress Dugu smirked.

She would make sure that the father and son didn't see eye to eye.

After Emperor Wu left, another person entered the tent.

There was the sound of someone clapping.

Empress Dugu knew who it was before she turned around.

“That was amazing, Mother. You set Father off with a few simple words. He’s off to scold Jun Linyuan, and they’ll get into a row again,” said the second prince in a pleased tone. “Their relationship will keep worsening until they become real enemies!”

Empress Dugu looked affectionately at her son. “And the throne will be yours.”

The second prince nodded. He then said in a pleading tone, “Mother, I want to marry Ranmil.”

Empress Dugu frowned.

The second prince went on. “Mother, what do you think I should look for in a wife?”

Empress Dugu said, “The power of her maternal family.”

The second prince shook his head. “That’s important, but not the most important thing. Look at Jun Linyuan. He doesn’t have that sort of power at all.”

Empress Dugu had nothing to say to that.

The second prince said, “Mother, the most important thing is her capability. With Jun Linyuan’s capability, he can do whatever he wants. He has always ignored me.”

Empress Dugu felt sorry for her son.

The second prince gritted his teeth. “He won’t dare to ignore me if I’m a powerful man! Mother, no matter how many powerful friends I have, the power is still theirs! I need to have power of my own!

“Ranmil knows the Fierce Face dance and has an Enchanting Body!” the second prince said excitedly. “After marrying her, I’ll become so much more powerful!”

Empress Dugu asked, “Are you sure of that?”

“Mother, I haven’t made much progress mainly because I love women and I’m too lazy! But once I have Ranmil, things will be different. I can make progress lying down!

“Mother, that’s the most suitable way for me! There’s only one Ranmil in the whole continent! I have to have her!” the second prince pleaded.

“Didn’t you hear her? She’s in love with Jun Linyuan!” said Empress Dugu.

“Mother, a woman will settle down after she’s married! Once she’s my wife, she’ll have to obey me! If she so much as glances at Jun Linyuan, I’ll break her legs!”

Empress Dugu didn’t like the idea, but if the second prince’s capability really could improve...

“Alright. I’ll help you!”

Empress Dugu was then lost in thought as she tried to think of a way to marry Ranmil to her son.

The cool wind outside cleared Emperor Wu’s head.

Should he go to Jun Linyuan and scold him?

He shook his head. That defiant son wouldn't just stand there and listen to him.

If scolding him worked, that boy wouldn't have become so unruly.

But he had stormed out of the tent...

Chapter 2087: Out In the Open (5)

Wang, the eunuch who had come out with him, was good at reading his master's mind. He saw that Emperor Wu was in an awkward situation, so he said, "Your Majesty, it's a beautiful night."

Emperor Wu looked up and saw the bright moon and twinkling stars.

It wasn't cold; the wind felt cool on his skin.

"Come. Let's take a walk in the mountains." Emperor Wu suddenly became interested, and he headed for the mountain up ahead.

Wang followed him.

"Stay here. Don't follow me!" Emperor Wu told his guards.

Too many people would only annoy him.

Hence, only Wang followed him.

The walk indeed took the edge off his annoyance.

"What's that smell?" Emperor Wu caught a strange fragrance when he was ready to return to the camp.

Because he had been drinking, he was especially sensitive to the smell.

Hearing that, Wang also sniffed.

But he was confused. "Your Majesty, I don't smell anything."

"That's not possible!" The alcohol had mostly worn off, and Emperor Wu said stubbornly, "I can smell it! It's a very nice smell... It's here. No, it's there!"

Emperor Wu looked around, and his gaze landed on a red leaf by his feet.

Wang immediately picked it up and handed it to Emperor Wu. "Your Majesty, is this what you're looking for?"

Emperor Wu picked it up and took a big sniff of it. "Yes! What a strange smell!"

Suddenly, Emperor Wu was aroused.

"Your Majesty..."

Wang wanted to say something, but the emperor suddenly turned right and headed for the maple woods.

Of course, Wang couldn't let him go alone.

Emperor Wu listened and seemed to pick up a special tune. It was sometimes smooth and sometimes quick. Then, it became rather seductive...

For some unknown reason, Emperor Wu's breathing quickened and his eyes turned red.

He couldn't look away when he saw the dancing figure in the woods.

Was that a fairy in the woods? Why was she so attractive?

Emperor Wu seemed to be in a trance-like state, and his mind had gone blank.

When he finally saw her face, his senses seemed to return to him for a brief moment.

It was Ranmil!

Emperor Wu immediately turned away.

This was inappropriate!

Ranmil liked Jun Linyuan and was going to be his future daughter-in-law, but now, he was watching her when she was half-naked... That was...

In fact, Ranmil had noticed that a man was around.

However, the person was hiding behind a bush, and she could only see his eyes.

To seduce Jun Linyuan, Ranmil had drunk a whole bottle of potent aphrodisiac!

That was the only way for Fierce Face to display its maximum effect.

She had to seduce Jun Linyuan. It was a now-or-never thing.

Ranmil's head was clouded, and she had begun to stumble. As she danced, she gradually approached the bush.

Chapter 2088: Out In the Open (6)

The woods were dim in the moonlight.

Because Emperor Wu wore his casual robe and had his back to Ranmil, he resembled Jun Linyuan a lot.

Ranmil was exhilarated.

There was a frantic look in her eyes.

Without thinking, Ranmil put her arms around Emperor Wu's waist from behind, pressed herself to his back, and breathed on his ear.

Boom!

Immediately, Emperor Wu lost control, and his head went blank.

Ranmil was under the influence of the aphrodisiac, while Emperor Wu had stopped thinking altogether.

With the girl's seduction...

They abandoned all moral concerns and fell together on the ground.

The moon seemed to feel abashed, and hid behind the clouds.

Their heavy panting filled the air.

Wang slowly backed away...

Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan had no idea what was going on in the woods. Right now, they were sitting by the creek.

Fang Wu was rubbing her hands as hard as she could.

She had almost rubbed her fingers raw.

She sighed. "Luckily, they're not my hands. Otherwise, I'd be crying so hard."

The crown prince's face darkened.

"I've washed them ten times. Isn't that enough?" Feng Wu asked.

"Again!" Jun Linyuan stared at Feng Wu and said sternly.

Left with no other choice, Feng Wu had to wash her hands again.

"Fifteen times already."

"Again!"

Feng Wu was speechless. This guy was so inconsiderate!

She glanced at Jun Linyuan and complained, "You were laughing at me at first because you didn't realize that this was your body, right?"

Jun Linyuan stared at Feng Wu. "You don't need to talk while washing your hands!"

Feng Wu made a face.

By the time she washed her hands twenty times, they were red and swollen. She stopped and said, "My skin is peeling. I guess that's enough to wash any dirt away."

Jun Linyuan snorted and tossed a dagger to Feng Wu.

Feng Wu looked at him in confusion.

"Do you know how to kill a person?" Jun Linyuan asked arrogantly.

"Kill a person. Who? Ranmil?" Feng Wu asked.

Jun Linyuan smirked and turned to leave.

Feng Wu ran after him and asked, "Hey, Jun Linyuan, do you mean it? Are you going to kill her just because of that disgusting red leaf?"

Jun Linyuan's face was very dark, and he was obviously in a bad mood.

Feng Wu said, "Yes, what Ranmil did was outrageous, but that was probably because she thought it would work on you."

Jun Linyuan found her suggestion idiotic. "Are you saying that I'm stupid?!"

Feng Wu said, "Of course not! You're much cleverer than that!"

Jun Linyuan wanted to grab her arm, but Feng Wu ran off before he could catch her.

However, given what Jun Linyuan had just said, she knew that it was only a matter of time before he had Ranmil killed.

"Wait. What's that sound?" Feng Wu suddenly stopped Jun Linyuan, and pricked up her ears.

Since Feng Wu was using Jun Linyuan's body now, her eyes and ears were much sharper. Nothing could escape her hearing.

Jun Linyuan frowned at her. "Your body is too weak." He couldn't hear a thing.

Feng Wu cleared her throat and led Jun Linyuan away.

Chapter 2089: Out In the Open (7)

"I really heard something. It's on the east side. Something's happening now. Come! Let's have a look!"

When Feng Wu dragged Jun Linyuan into the maple woods, they saw the two entangled bodies on the ground, and both of them were astonished.

Before Feng Wu could make a sound, someone stepped out and shushed her.

It was none other than Wang, the eunuch.

He looked embarrassed to see "Jun Linyuan."

Everyone knew that just two hours ago, Ranmil had begged the crown prince to love her...

But now, she was with the emperor...

That was...

Feng Wu pointed at the man and woman that were lost in their passion, her eyes wide with astonishment. "They... they really are..."

Despite his embarrassment, Wang nodded with a serious look on his face.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Jun Linyuan was speechless.

"Let's go." Feng Wu quickly led Jun Linyuan away.

The crown prince had never faced such a ridiculous situation either, and was perplexed. He didn't resist when Feng Wu dragged him away.

Wang let out a breath of relief.

He had been really worried just then, fearing that the crown prince would kill Ranmil on the spot.

After all, the princess had sounded too affectionate and sincere when she confessed her love for him. But now... No man would endure such humiliation!

However, the smile immediately froze on his face.

Because Empress Dugu had arrived!

And she wasn't alone. A team of officials was with her!

The wives of the officials as well!

Even the chieftain and the princes of the grassland had been invited!

This was Ranmil's plan.

She was certain that she could seduce Jun Linyuan, but she was worried that the crown prince would go back on his word, so she sent Qingcao to let Empress Dugu know.

The empress didn't like the idea of her son marrying Ranmil; she didn't want such a woman as her daughter-in-law. However, if Jun Linyuan were to marry her...

Empress Dugu had enough power to ruin his reputation!

Therefore, as soon as she heard about it from Qingcao, she gathered the wives. Feeling that just the wives wouldn't be enough, she gathered the officials as well.

When they marched toward the woods, they ran into the men of the grassland...

Why did they just happen to show up there? Of course, it was because of Qingcao as well.

Hence, the two groups of people headed for the woods together.

The excuse they gave was that Ranmil was so devastated after Jun Linyuan turned her down that she had gone missing. What if she jumped off a cliff?

With that excuse, Empress Dugu walked very fast.

Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan were about to leave, when they heard footsteps.

They looked at each other and felt that something was wrong.

This was a trap!

Without thinking, they jumped up into a tree.

They both chose the thickest old tree with heavy branches nearby.

Chapter 2090: Out In the Open (8)

As soon as they hid in the leaves, Empress Dugu arrived with the group of people.

Feng Wu gave Jun Linyuan a strange look.

“Is she here to catch your father in the act?” She rubbed her chin.

An idea seemed to strike Jun Linyuan, and his face turned livid.

Feng Wu realized it as well.

“Wait! That letter was for you... That is to say, you were Ranmil’s target tonight!

“But for some unknown reason, she ended up with your father. That doesn’t make sense. The moon is bright, and the air is quite clear. Ranmil couldn’t have mistaken him for you, right?”

That was true.

Only fifteen minutes ago, the moon had been behind thick clouds. Now, however, moonlight pierced the clouds, and the silver light was as clear as water. One could see everything.

While they were still talking, Empress Dugu arrived.

“OMG!”

Granny Cheng, who was Empress Dugu’s servant, cried out, “Isn’t that the crown prince?!

“And is that Princess Ranmil...”

Everyone was astonished.

The crown prince and Princess Ranmil?!

They had been rolling around naked in the woods, and there were red leaves in their hair...

“Didn’t the crown prince say that he didn’t like the princess?”

“Didn’t His Royal Highness turn her down?”

“I thought that the crown prince was into Feng Wu.”

“His Royal Highness...”

By then, Emperor Wu and Ranmil had woken up from their passion.

They saw each other’s faces.

Emperor Wu remained calm because he had known who she was from the beginning.

Ranmil felt as if she had been struck by lightning, and her head went blank.

Emperor Wu...

It was him...

How was this possible...

God!!!

After everything she had tried, she had lost her virginity to Emperor Wu!

Argh —

She felt like she was having a breakdown.

When she turned around and saw the crowd, she fainted.

Emperor Wu was embarrassed.

So many officials were watching, and even his wife was here...

Things wouldn't be so awkward if Ranmil hadn't confessed her love for Jun Linyuan, but now, it looked like he had taken his son's woman deliberately!

Hence, Emperor Wu kept giving Wang warning glances, telling him to get rid of the crowd.

Since these people were so sure that the man who had slept with Ranmil was Jun Linyuan, so be it!

Wang gritted his teeth and was about to intervene —

“What's going on?”

Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan jumped down from the tree and walked toward the crowd.

Everyone was surprised to see them.

“Wait. His Royal Highness is here!”

“Then, who's with Princess Ranmil?”

“Who has done such a thing?!”

Emperess Dugu was dumbfounded.

Yes. If that man wasn't Jun Linyuan, who was he?