Chapter 2111: Revival List

Feng Wu asked, "What?"

Jun Linyuan said, "Do you think a couple of disciplinary nannies can do anything to me?"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

Just then, they heard a thump.

Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan exchanged a look.

Feng Wu said, "That was loud. I think it came from His Majesty's room."

Emperor Wu lived in the largest courtyard in the center, whereas Jun Linyuan's room was in the east. Therefore, it sounded to them like the thump had come from the west.

Jun Linyuan said, "Go to bed."

Just then, they heard running footsteps as well.

The fairy suddenly stuck her head out and cried out.

Feng Wu patted her head. "Be quiet!"

Luckily, she and the fairy could communicate with their minds. Because Feng Wu's cultivation level wasn't very high, Jun Linyuan couldn't sense the fairy and the 12 trials yet, nor had he noticed her beautiful master.

The fairy looked very anxious.

Feng Wu grew uneasy and asked, "What?"

"Well... the tenth trial was just activated," the fairy stammered.

"The tenth trial?" Feng Wu frowned. "Aren't I still on the ninth trial? Why is there a new one already?"

The ninth trial required Feng Wu to stay within ten steps of Jun Linyuan.

The fairy sounded very helpless. "I have no idea..."

Feng Wu said, "Fine. What's the tenth trial, then?"

The fairy gave her a strange look.

Feng Wu suddenly had a bad feeling. "Tell me."

The fairy said, "Find the Dongsang Kingdom's revival list, and eliminate everyone on it."

Feng Wu was dumbfounded. "First of all, what's a revival list?"

The fairy looked at Feng Wu and shook her head.

Feng Wu was surprised. "You don't know, either?"

The fairy shook her head. "No, I don't."

Feng Wu didn't know what to say. "Is there a time limit, then?"

The fairy shook her head. "No."

Feng Wu rubbed her chin. "That makes sense. A time limit would make it impossible to finish this trial. The Dongsang Kingdom's revival list. Where do I begin?"

"And why was the tenth trial suddenly triggered? I haven't finished the ninth trial yet. Did something happen just then?" Feng Wu racked her brain for an answer. Suddenly, she heard Feng's voice.

"There was an assassination attempt on His Majesty. The attackers were from the Dongsang Kingdom."

What?!

Feng Wu smacked her head.

The Dongsang Kingdom... The revival list... Feng Wu's eyes lit up.

The tenth trial was triggered when the Dongsang Kingdom tried to assassinate Emperor Wu. Was there a connection?

At that thought, Feng Wu rose to her feet.

And she pulled Jun Linyuan up as well.

Jun Linyuan had sat down on the bed, trying to repair Feng Wu's body, but was interrupted. He frowned at her.

Feng Wu chuckled. "Shall we go visit your father?"

Chapter 2112: The Dongsang Kingdom

Jun Linyuan said, "He's protected by so many people. He'll live. I'm not going."

Feng Wu thought, "If you don't go, I can't go. What about my tenth trial?"

Hence, Feng Wu gave Jun Linyuan a pleading look.

Jun Linyuan looked at Feng Wu in resignation. "Do you really want to go so badly?"

Feng Wu said, "Yes!"

Having no other choice, Jun Linyuan had to go with her.

In the middle courtyard where Emperor Wu lived.

Empress Dugu was keeping Emperor Wu company, and the atmosphere was quite subdued.

The floor was covered with broken cups, shattered chairs, and a screen that had been knocked over. It was a mess.

"Father?" Seeing Emperor Wu's dark face, Feng Wu frowned and asked Gongshu Ji, the captain of Emperor Wu's guards, "What happened?"

Gongshu Ji said solemnly, "Ten men in black cloaks were waiting inside the courier station when we arrived. They were very good at hiding, and our men didn't notice them."

His voice was filled with frustration. "We were caught off guard when they attacked. They were so fast that there was little we could do."

Emperor Wu steadied Empress Dugu and said, "I have to thank the empress. If she hadn't warned me and shielded me with her own body..."

It seemed that Empress Dugu was injured. Blood soaked the cloth over her shoulder.

That attack had been aimed at Emperor Wu's heart.

So, Empress Dugu had indeed saved the emperor.

Feng Wu couldn't help but look at Empress Dugu.

She was impressed.

The day before, Empress Dugu had been furious about what happened between Emperor Wu and Ranmil, and she looked like she wanted to run away from her husband.

But it only took her one day to calm down, and now, she was already trying to win Emperor Wu back.

This woman was a chameleon!

Feng Wu glanced at Empress Dugu before asking, "Are you sure that the assassins were from the Dongsang Kingdom?"

Gongshu Ji nodded. "Their great concealment skills are enough to prove that they're ninjas from the Dongsang Kingdom!"

"We checked the calluses on the hands of the dead bodies. It's obvious that they usually wield katanas.

"Therefore, I'm sure that the assassins were from the Dongsang Kingdom."

Emperor Wu said angrily, "Are they going to revolt again?!"

Everyone fell silent.

The entire Junwu Empire knew how savage the Dongsang Kingdom was.

They had committed heinous crimes in the Junwu Empire 13 years ago.

Dongsang Kingdom was less than one-tenth of the size of the Junwu Empire.

However, the Dongsang Kingdom was very powerful.

They had too little land and too many people. They experienced constant natural disasters, and took death more lightly than the people of other countries.

They had a sense of national cohesion that united them and enabled them to fight as one.

No matter how large their population was, if they didn't work together, they wouldn't be able to achieve anything.

However, a few people working together could become a formidable force!

13 years ago, the Dongsang Kingdom was driven by such a force and tore through the defense line of the Junwu Empire. After that, they quickly reached every corner of the empire...

Chapter 2113: Feud

The Dongsang Kingdom's cavalry ran wild in the Junwu Empire and committed many unspeakable crimes.

The entire empire was dragged into the war and was on the verge of a total collapse. Fortunately, a capable hero led the army and chased the men of the Dongsang Kingdom out of the Junwu Empire.

However, it didn't change the fact that it was a humiliating past for the empire.

Emperor Wu forbade anyone from recording this part of history, hoping that the people would forget about it.

Naturally, the imperial censor disagreed.

He killed himself in court in order to try and stop the emperor.

But Emperor Wu was stubborn and refused to listen to anyone. He insisted that the war should be omitted from historical records and never mentioned again. Gradually, everyone forgot about it.

Children younger than 13 had never experienced the war and knew little about it.

For instance, Feng Wu only had a rough idea.

She knew that a great master helped the empire end the war.

But no one ever mentioned who the master was.

After performing such a great achievement, the people shouldn't forget this person.

Feng Wu wanted to ask who the person was, but she was playing Jun Linyuan now.

Of course, Jun Linyuan should know the person's name, so she had to keep the question to herself until she got back to her room.

However, what Emperor Wu said next answered her question. "Back then, Master Linghu single-handedly killed the enemy leader, and the Dongsang army admitted defeat. After that, they signed a treaty that was to our benefit."

Feng Wu was surprised.

Master Linghu? Wasn't he the old monk of Wandering Temple?

Feng Wu was very familiar with that name.

She had to finish the 12 Trials of Love because of that master!

So, it was him...

“That’s why people respect the old monk so much, including Emperor Wu and the empress dowager,” thought Feng Wu. That old man had done so much for the empire.

“But Master Linghu said that he can’t do this forever. He owed my grandfather a favor, and because of that, he killed the enemy leader. Now that we’re even, he won’t do anything if war breaks out again,” said Jun Linyuan casually.

Emperor Wu exploded.

He glared at “Feng Wu” and shouted, “Why do you know that?!”

It was classified information!

No more than ten people knew the secret, and they were all close to Emperor Wu.

If the Dongsang Kingdom knew about this, they would invade the empire again.

“Jun Linyuan, how could you tell her?!” Emperor Wu was furious.

“Are you really going to marry her? Have you forgotten your agreement with Zuo Qingluan?!”

What?

Of all the things Emperor Wu said, Feng Wu only heard the last part.

Jun Linyuan and Zuo Qingluan had an agreement? What was it?

She gave Jun Linyuan a confused look, but Jun Linyuan didn’t seem to want to answer her question.

“Ahem.” He cleared his throat.

Things kept happening after they left the tombs, and he didn’t have time to properly repair Feng Wu’s body. Because of that, he would still cough from time to time.

Luckily, he had repaired 30%, which was enough to keep Feng Wu alive.

Chapter 2114: Untitled

However, at that moment —

A young eunuch came in to serve the tea.

He was called Qiu and had been doing this job for a very long time. After serving the tea, he turned to leave the room.

Something happened when he walked past Jun Linyuan.

He suddenly smashed the teapot onto Jun Linyuan’s back.

Jun Linyuan was using Feng Wu’s body, which he had only repaired by 30%.

No one had expected the young eunuch to be a martial arts practitioner.

Moreover, he was great at hiding his skills.

Jun Linyuan shifted to the side, barely evading the attack. Feng Wu reacted in time and punched the eunuch.

Thump!

Qiu's head was smashed into a pulp!

Wow —

Everyone stared at Feng Wu in disbelief.

Oh god!

That was such terrifying power.

The crown prince was as formidable as rumored.

Seeing the dead body, even Empress Dugu was impressed.

Caught off guard, Feng Wu didn't control her power. While killing Qiu, she almost brought the courier station to the ground.

The ceiling trembled, and rubble fell.

But she couldn't care less about the building.

Where was Jun Linyuan?

Normally, she wouldn't worry about Jun Linyuan, but he was using her body now, and her cultivation level wasn't high enough to protect him.

Looking around, Feng Wu saw that Jun Linyuan was being held by a person that was moving very fast.

It seemed that Jun Linyuan had been knocked out.

"Don't."

Feng Wu was about to go after them, when Emperor Wu stopped her. "Have you lost your mind? Stop right there!

"They're from the Dongsang Kingdom and are great at using tricks. They've taken Feng Wu to lure you out! It's a trap!

"That Feng Wu is just a maid! You can't risk your life for her!"

Of course, Emperor Wu wouldn't want his son to take the risk.

Feng Wu was furious.

Emperor Wu had no idea that "Feng Wu" was his son. No matter how advanced his original level was, he couldn't use any of his skills now.

At that thought, Feng Wu shoved Emperor Wu to the side and said, "I'm going to save her!"

Emperor Wu stumbled. The next second, Feng Wu disappeared from sight.

“That defiant son!” Emperor Wu slapped his hand down on the table.

Did this defiant son think that he could do anything just because he was a capable fighter?

“Protect the crown prince!” Emperor Wu glanced at Gongshu Ji.

Hearing that, Gongshu Ji immediately dashed off with his elite soldiers.

Feng Wu kept her gaze on the man ahead of her and ran as fast as she could.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Because it was Jun Linyuan’s power and Feng Wu wasn’t used to it yet, she was almost flung away several times whenever she turned a corner.

There was a thick forest up ahead.

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes in an intimidating way.

Once inside, her view would be hindered. Moreover, she couldn’t master this power yet, and it would be very disadvantageous for her.

However, to the ninjas of the Dongsang Kingdom, the forest was the best place for them to hide.

Feng Wu was a little frustrated. If it was the real Jun Linyuan, he would have caught the enemy already...

Chapter 2115: Jun Linyuan Was Snatched

Right now, Feng Wu couldn’t control Jun Linyuan’s great power.

It was like owning a great fortune but only being able to use one coin at a time. Feng Wu was so frustrated.

She swore that once this was over, she would use all her time to train herself so that she could master this power.

If the Dongsang Kingdom heard about this weakening of Jun Linyuan’s power, they would try to assassinate him.

That would be dangerous.

Just then, the ninja disappeared.

Where did he go?

On guard, Feng Wu narrowed her eyes.

Right now, she had even forgotten about the ninth trial and the fact that she had to stay within ten steps of Jun Linyuan.

At that moment, she heard a loud explosion.

It was 500 meters to the northeast!

Without thinking, Feng Wu dashed off.

She reached the site in a split second.

Jun Linyuan was leaning against a slope, and opposite him was the ninja, who had been severely injured by the explosion.

“Kill him.”

Jun Linyuan was covered by wounds, and there was blood at the corner of his mouth. However, his tone remained authoritative.

Without thinking, Feng Wu charged at the ninja.

She drew out Sky Destroyer.

The ninja’s pupils contracted.

He was doomed!

The crown prince of the Junwu Empire was said to be the most formidable cultivator on this continent. The ninja knew that he wouldn’t be able to withstand the attack.

However, men of the Dongsang Kingdom never surrendered.

Therefore, the ninja still raised his sword even though he knew that he would be killed.

Seeing the way Feng Wu struck out, Jun Linyuan frowned.

And he was right to do so!

The two swords met in mid-air.

Thump!

The strike sent the ninja flying backward. He smashed into the mountain wall, destroying half of it.

Feng Wu didn’t notice anything different, but Jun Linyuan’s face darkened.

And he was right to do so!

The ninja struggled to his feet and stared at Feng Wu. His eyes were filled with confusion, but he also looked pleasantly surprised.

“Are you really the crown prince?” he asked in a deep voice.

Feng Wu didn’t know what gave her away, but she wouldn’t give in.

She glared at the ninja.

“I see. The crown prince of the Junwu Empire hasn’t even mastered the power of the primary stage yet. Hahahaha —” The ninja sounded happy.

Feng Wu frowned and wondered what had given her away.

But before she could ask anything, the ninja dashed off.

She had a bad feeling and wanted to go after him.

“Stop —”

Jun Linyuan coughed violently and almost spat out blood.

Feng Wu immediately ran back to Jun Linyuan and stuffed some pills into his mouth. She then checked his pulse. “You’re badly injured. That 30% you repaired has gone to waste. How do you feel?”

Jun Linyuan said, “I’ll live.”

Feng Wu asked, “Why didn’t you let me kill him? He’ll be a huge problem for us in the future. He must have...”

Jun Linyuan asked, “He must have what?”

Feng Wu said, “He must have noticed something different about you. Judging by his tone, he was happy about it. Is it possible that I’ll become their target?”

Chapter 2116: Failed the Ninth Trial?

After the war 13 years ago, the Junwu Empire had been keeping a low profile. It was because of Jun Linyuan that the empire gained fame again.

Compared with assassinating Emperor Wu, they would rather kill Jun Linyuan.

“Your body will be in danger.” Feng Wu stared at Jun Linyuan.

The crown prince said, “I know.”

Feng Wu took his hands. “Aren’t you worried?”

Jun Linyuan smiled but didn’t say anything.

Feng Wu asked, “What’s the primary stage? Why did that ninja notice the difference?”

Jun Linyuan said, “You’re too far below that stage now, and it won’t do you any good to know too much. As for why he noticed it...”

He glanced at Feng Wu, but before he could say anything, he was caught in a fit of coughing again.

Feng Wu immediately steadied him. “Your lungs are injured. You shouldn’t be talking.”

The crown prince shook his head. “Because your energy is everywhere when you strike out, but powerful people like me can concentrate their power to a single point. It’s still too early to tell you how to do that.”

Suddenly, white wild geese flew into the sky.

Jun Linyuan looked at the birds and shook his head. “Your worry has just come true.”

Feng Wu asked, “What?”

Jun Linyuan pointed at the wild geese and said, “That’s sign language used by the Dongsang Kingdom. They’re sending a signal.”

Feng Wu had a bad feeling. "What signal?"

Jun Linyuan looked at Feng Wu. "Assassinate the crown prince."

Feng Wu asked, "What?"

Her prediction was right.

Feng Wu said, "I..."

Jun Linyuan waved at her. "I anticipated this when I switched bodies with you. There's no need for you to worry about anything."

Feng Wu looked perplexed.

Feng Wu thought that she was farsighted and prudent, but as it turned out, Jun Linyuan was even more so.

Feng Wu suddenly remembered something, and she cried out.

Jun Linyuan was perplexed.

Feng Wu suddenly remembered the fairy.

Because!

"I was more than ten steps away from Jun Linyuan when I came out to chase the ninja, wasn't I?"

The fairy said, "Yes..."

Feng Wu's eyes widened, and blue veins popped on her forehead. "Have I failed the trial?"

Feng Wu was so frustrated that she spat out a mouthful of blood.

Her broken star piece, her beautiful master... Feng Wu felt that she had been struck by lightning, and she thought that her head was going to explode.

Her ears were buzzing so loudly that she almost passed out.

Jun Linyuan's pupils contracted. What was wrong with her?

Luckily, the fairy said, "Hey! Calm down! You didn't fail!"

Seeing that Feng Wu didn't respond, the fairy raised her voice. "I'm here, aren't I? That means that you haven't failed the 12 Trials of Love! You can still find the broken star piece! Wake up!"

For a moment, the fairy thought that Feng Wu's soul was going to leave her body!

Chapter 2117: The Angry Crown Prince

Feng Wu's question almost made the fairy jump.

Hearing the fairy's reply, Feng Wu gradually returned to herself. "I didn't fail the trial?"

The fairy patted her chest. "Look. I'm still here, aren't I?"

Feng Wu stared at the fairy and saw that she hadn't disappeared.

She was relieved, but not completely.

"Didn't you say that I had to stay within ten steps of Jun Linyuan, otherwise I would fail the trial?"

The fairy lowered her head and wouldn't look at Feng Wu.

Seeing this, Feng Wu knew that something was off, so she said loudly, "Tell me the truth now! Are you deliberately hiding something from me?!"

Her tone almost scared the fairy, but the fairy felt that it was her fault, and didn't dare object.

She quickly looked up at Feng Wu, before lowering her head.

"I didn't try to keep it from you, but... but I forgot to tell you that there's an exception."

"What exception?" asked Feng Wu

"The rules say that you have one chance..."

Feng Wu stared at her. "One chance to do what?"

The fairy said, "You have one chance to stay further than ten steps from him."

Feng Wu asked, "Only once? Are you sure?"

The fairy said, "Yes. Only once. You can see it here."

After that, the fairy showed Feng Wu the task log.

The first line said "Ninth Trial," and the second line was the footnote, which was written in tiny font.

The fairy was right. Feng Wu only had one chance.

Feng Wu patted her chest and let out a breath of relief. She almost had a heart attack just then.

"Feng Wu? Feng Wu?!"

In reality, Feng Wu had fainted. Therefore, the fairy urged her, "You need to wake up now. Otherwise, your crown prince will be so worried."

"What are you talking about? He's not mine," Feng Wu retorted.

The fairy gave her a shove. "Yours or not..."

Feng Wu was then pushed out by the fairy and didn't hear the remainder of the sentence.

The fairy shook her head and smiled wryly. "Haven't you realized? The point of every trial so far has been to try and make you and the crown prince get to know each other better."

From the upsy-daisy to the "no more than ten steps apart," the 12 Trials of Love had been trying to warm things up between the two of them. Otherwise, there would never be any intimate interactions between the two proud teenagers.

Unfortunately, Feng Wu still hadn't realized the purpose of the trials.

"Feng Wu!" Jun Linyuan shook her violently.

"That hurts!" Feng Wu cried out and sat up.

Jun Linyuan stared at her and let out a breath of relief. He leaned back onto the slope and was too tired to even move a finger.

He wanted to scold Feng Wu but didn't have the energy to do it.

Feng Wu realized that she had overreacted, so she scratched her head and said, "Is it because of our body swap? I'm not used to your body yet and can't control your power well. It's too easy to use too much energy."

Chapter 2118: Ninja In Black

That was an excuse good enough to fool Jun Linyuan.

Just then —

Feng Xun and Xuan Yi arrived, bringing a man with them.

"What?"

Feng Wu was surprised to see the man.

"Isn't he..."

Wasn't he the ninja that she had fought earlier?

Feng Xun and Xuan Yi had caught him. Had they become so capable already?

Jun Linyuan snorted. "I planted the seed of the Magic Soul Vine in him before he ran off. There was no way he could escape."

"The seed of the Magic Soul Vine?" Feng Wu was shocked. "Isn't that... poison?"

Jun Linyuan nodded.

That was why Jun Linyuan had been so calm. Although his current body was weak, everything was still under his control.

Feng Wu said, "Isn't the Magic Soul Vine highly poisonous? And what's its seed?"

Jun Linyuan glanced at her. "Do you want to know?"

Feng Wu was very curious.

After all, that the Magic Soul Vine was in her body and for her to use now. Of course she had to figure out what it was.

"Yes, I do!" Feng Wu nodded.

But the crown prince said coldly, "I'm not telling you."

Feng Wu said, "You —"

Just then.

Whoosh!

Feng Xun threw the man onto the ground.

The ninja had been poisoned by the Magic Soul Vine, and the impact made him spit out a mouthful of blood. He felt dizzy and could barely open his eyes.

"Xiao Wu, are you alright?" Feng Xun quickly ran to Jun Linyuan's side, trying to pick him up.

Feng Wu immediately stopped Feng Xun. "Don't move her!"

Feng Xun looked at Feng Wu and said, "Boss Jun, please save Xiao Wu. I know how stubborn she is, but she means well. Please don't be mad at her."

Feng Wu glanced at Feng Xun and wondered when she gave him that impression.

Seeing "Boss Jun's" expressionless face, Feng Xun grew uneasy. "Boss Jun, Feng Wu really likes you. Don't believe what she told you."

Feng Wu said, "What?"

Feng Xun gave Jun Linyuan a little kick and whispered at him, "Say something!"

Jun Linyuan was speechless.

Feng Xun smiled obsequiously and said, "Xiao Wu really likes you. She talks about you a lot when you're not around. That's enough..."

Jun Linyuan's eyes flickered.

Infuriated, Feng Wu stomped on Feng Xun's foot. "Shut up!"

Feng Xun cried out in pain and jumped around on one foot.

Poor Feng Xun.

Meanwhile, the ninja tried to seize the moment to run away. Suddenly, he was out of sight.

The look on Xuan Yi's face changed.

Jun Linyuan smiled a little and flicked out a soybean.

Poof!

The soybean ripped through the air, and the ninja hiding in the branches lost his cover.

Seeing the ninja crouching on the branch like a monkey, Feng Xun forgot about his painful foot and guffawed.

Xuan Yi leaped up. The next second, he threw the ninja onto the ground.

Chapter 2119: Seed of the Magic Soul Vine

Thump!

The ninja spat out another mouthful of blood when he hit the ground.

“You...”

The ninja stared at Jun Linyuan in disbelief. “How did you know...”

Jun Linyuan glanced at Feng Wu, and she quickly helped him to his feet.

“Interrogate him,” said Jun Linyuan.

Feng Xun quickly picked up the ninja, but the next second, he paused and gave “Feng Wu” a strange look.

“Her” tone and demeanor reminded him so much of Boss Jun.

However, Feng Xun still didn’t suspect anything. He had found a perfect excuse for “Feng Wu.”

The two of them had been staying together all the time; they were bound to resemble each other. Just look at how serious “Feng Wu” had become.

At that thought, Feng Xun rolled his eyes at “Boss Jun.” He wanted the old Feng Wu back!

Feng Wu was perplexed by that look.

Soon, Feng Wu saw how Feng Xun carried out an interrogation.

He was usually a silly teenager, but when he was at work, he could become very serious.

The ninja tried to kill himself several times, but Feng Xun stopped him in time.

When he tried to bite down on the poisonous pill hidden in his tooth, Feng Xun dislocated his chin.

When he tried to rip his collar open to get the poison, Feng Xun cut off his right hand.

The ninja glared at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun pushed the ninja’s chin back in place and smirked. “Did you really think you could pull that off in front of me? Don’t you know that I work for the interrogation department of Military Intelligence?”

Feng Wu couldn’t help but glance at Feng Xun. The interrogation department?

She saw that neither Jun Linyuan nor Xuan Yi had any reaction. Did they belong to that department as well?

It was said that the Junwu Empire used to have an interrogation department that was under the command of the Ministry of War. The department then developed into Military Intelligence, which was under the direct command of Emperor Wu and followed his orders only.

Today, Feng Wu finally saw how formidable Feng Xun could be when he put his mind to it.

“Ahhh —

“Ahhh —

“Ahhh —”

The ninja was indeed a tough man. At first, he wouldn't say anything, not even when he was tortured.

But Feng Xun was relentless.

Seeing the blood which splattered and how much the ninja suffered, Feng Wu was impressed.

She should have known. Jun Linyuan's friends couldn't be that simple.

Feng Xun seemed harmless, but that was only because he was nice to Feng Wu. When it came to other people, he could be very intimidating.

“If you want to stay silent, be my guest, but you're going to...” With a flip of his dagger, Feng Xun peeled another thin slice of flesh off the ninja.

Feng Wu felt that Feng Xun would make a great sashimi cook.

The ninja wanted to die but couldn't.

He was tied to a tree and stripped to the waist. Feng Xun was cutting off his flesh one strip at a time. With each cut, the ninja screamed.

Of course it hurt.

Feng Xun's interrogation skills were...

He could peel off a strip of flesh all the way from the ninja's shoulder to his stomach without making him bleed.

“Kill me... Please let me die...”

Chapter 2120: Saturn Revival Team

Under Feng Xun's relentless interrogation, the ninja finally broke.

He gritted his teeth and stared at Feng Xun. Sweat rolled down his forehead and into his eyes.

He looked like he had just been pulled out of the water.

His throat was raw from all the screaming.

Feng Xun patted his chest with the dagger and said teasingly, “You don't have to speak. There's still so much flesh left. I can wait.”

“Stop... I'll tell you...” When Feng Xun raised his dagger again, the ninja shouted, “I'll tell you whatever you want.”

Feng Xun grinned. “Where are you from?”

The ninja said, “The Dongsang Kingdom.”

Feng Xun said, “Your name.”

The ninja said, "Tanimura Ryuichi."

Feng Xun asked, "What's your mission?"

The ninja said, "I'm an undercover agent. I collect information and carry out assassinations."

Feng Xun smiled a little. "When did you come to the Junwu Empire?"

The ninja said, "13 years ago."

That answer surprised a lot of people.

Wasn't that when the war took place? Had this man been here since then?

Feng Wu's stomach lurched.

She was reminded of the tenth trial.

It was to kill everyone on the Dongsang Kingdom's revival list.

Was it possible that this ninja was one of them?

Feng Xun asked, "Did you participate in the war?"

The ninja hesitated, but nodded in the end.

Feng Xun said, "Didn't you sign the letter of surrender, and were chased out of the Junwu Empire by that man?!"

He grabbed the ninja's collar and shouted, "Speak!"

The ninja said, "Before the sacred war..."

"The sacred war? Is that what you call it?" Feng Xun almost broke his neck.

The ninja almost choked, but Feng Xun released him in time and said, "Keep talking!"

The ninja coughed and panted for a while before going on. "Back then, our kingdom sent people here before the war started, and some of them weren't exposed during the war. Therefore, they've stayed hidden since then."

Feng Wu frowned.

"Is that your so-called 'revival project'?" Feng Wu smiled.

The ninja looked up in astonishment and stared at Feng Wu in disbelief. "Why do you know that title?!"

"Hahaha! The crown prince is indeed a capable man. We can't keep anything from you." The ninja laughed, but stopped abruptly.

"You deliberately let me get away so that I could send that message... You!" The ninja glared at Feng Wu. "This is a trap! Curse you!"

Feng Wu didn't say anything.

Nor did Jun Linyuan.

Feng Xun looked at Feng Wu in confusion.

Feng Wu was troubled but couldn't tell anyone else.

She knew what the ninja meant.

When he got away, he had sent a message to say that the crown prince wasn't as capable as he was said to be. After the undercover agents in the Junwu Empire learned this, they would definitely try to assassinate Jun Linyuan.

But now, this ninja thought that this was a trap designed by the crown prince...
