Chapter 2131: Untitled

“Did you just call him an unwise ruler?” Jun Linyuan glanced at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu said, “Well... I didn’t say that.”

Jun Linyuan said, “You’re right. He’s not wise at all.”

Feng Wu said, “Well...”

Jun Linyuan said, “The thing that you’re worried about, it won’t happen.”

Feng Wu asked, “What thing?”

Jun Linyuan said, “About losing the right to the throne.”

Feng Wu said, “Jun Linyuan, aren’t you too confident in yourself?”

Jun Linyuan smiled. “I’m not confident in myself. It’s Master Linghu whom I have faith in.”

“Master Linghu? As in the monk of Wandering Temple in the mountain behind Imperial College?” Feng Wu looked at Jun Linyuan suspiciously.

Jun Linyuan nodded. “Yes. Do you know why I became the crown prince?”

Feng Wu asked, “Weren’t you born to be the crown prince?”

Jun Linyuan looked at her in resignation.

Feng Wu asked, “Was it because of Master Linghu?”

Jun Linyuan nodded. “Master Linghu forced the general of the Dongsang Kingdom to commit suicide. When he chased the army out of our empire, he told my father something.

“He said that he had repaid the favor to the Junwu Empire and owed us nothing after that. If the empire and the Dongsang Kingdom went to war again, only Jun Linyuan would be able to bring back peace.”

Jun Linyuan then glanced at Feng Wu. “I became the crown prince on that day.”

Feng Wu said, “So, Master Linghu is your patron. That explains it.”

The crown prince nodded. “Master Linghu has taught me a few things. He’s like half a master to me.”

Feng Wu was curious. “Master Linghu doesn’t seem to like anyone except you. Even Feng Xun isn’t allowed to enter his place.”

Jun Linyuan nodded. “I’ve been there a couple of times in the past decade, but Feng Xun could only wait in the gatehouse.”

Feng Wu asked, “Has Master Linghu never agreed to see him?”

Jun Linyuan nodded.

Feng Wu scratched her head and wondered why Master Linghu had agreed to see her last time. Moreover, he had been very nice to her.

The crown prince then added, "Master Linghu never meets people he doesn't know."

Feng Wu asked, "Is that true? Does he never meet strangers?"

The crown prince nodded. "Even my grandmother can't see him just because she wants to. She'll be lucky if she can meet him once every three or five years."

Feng Wu asked curiously, "Why does the empress dowager want to meet Master Linghu?"

Jun Linyuan looked at Feng Wu in confusion.

That look made Feng Wu even more confused. "Did I ask the wrong question?"

Jun Linyuan asked, "Do you not know?"

Feng Wu asked, "Know what?"

Jun Linyuan asked, "Don't you know that Master Linghu has a blessing power?"

Feng Wu asked, "What's that?"

Jun Linyuan was perplexed, but he still answered, "He can give all sorts of blessings, from longevity and health to virility and romance."

"Wait!" Feng Wu suddenly had a bad feeling. She cut Jun Linyuan off and asked, "What did you say? What do you mean by romance?"

The crown prince said, "I've never asked for one. How should I know?"

Feng Wu said, "By the sound of it, does it have something to do with one's romantic relationship?"

The crown prince said, "Something like that."

Feng Wu was astonished!

Romance... She clenched her fists.

Was it possible that she hadn't picked the 12 Trials of Love by accident? Had Master Linghu tricked her into picking it?

The more she thought about it, the more frustrated she became. She almost wanted to go to Master Linghu now and get an answer from him.

Chapter 2132: Untitled

"Why are you upset?" Jun Linyuan gave Feng Wu a suspicious look.

"I... I'm not telling you!" Feng Wu snorted.

Jun Linyuan didn't press her.

Feng Wu asked, "What should I do now?"

The crown prince asked, "What do you mean?"

Feng Wu said, "About the case. What do you think we should do about the undercover agents of the Dongsang Kingdom?"

Jun Linyuan said, "If you don't want to do anything, just forget about it."

Feng Wu said, "Of course I can't do that!"

That was her tenth trial. If she couldn't finish it, what about her beautiful master? She needed to finish the 12 Trials of Love to obtain the broken star piece!

Jun Linyuan gave Feng Wu a perplexed look. "Do you want to find out who they are?"

Feng Wu didn't say anything.

Jun Linyuan said, "Why bother? It's none of your business."

Feng Wu didn't say anything.

He was right. It really wasn't her business.

"But it's yours. If the second prince uncovers the truth first, he'll have the ring and become a more powerful rival. I don't think you want that to happen."

Jun Linyuan glanced at Feng Wu and said casually, "It's none of my business."

Feng Wu said, "But I'm you now, and God knows when our bodies will swap back. It'll be me who will be humiliated!"

Jun Linyuan said, "If you want to investigate, go ahead."

Feng Wu said, "But I don't know where to begin. The only lead we had was killed by your father. What should I do now?"

Jun Linyuan looked at her. "Do you not have a clue at all?"

Feng Wu said, "No!"

Jun Linyuan glanced at her before he went back to repairing her body.

Having worked on her body for half the night, he had repaired 25% of it. It wouldn't take him much longer to fix everything.

Seeing how calm Jun Linyuan was, Feng Wu knew that he must have a lead.

But what was it?

Rubbing her chin, Feng Wu recalled the details of Feng Xun's interrogation, but she couldn't find anything useful.

There was no way that Jun Linyuan could see it when she couldn't.

Leaning against the wall, Feng Wu closed her eyes and searched her memory.

What was the lead?

Her gaze then landed on the book.

Could it be in the book?

Feng Wu flipped through the book from the first page to the last, then in reverse.

But there was nothing.

She then picked up the interrogation record which Feng Xun had left behind and checked it carefully.

She suddenly asked Feng, "Did you hear from His Majesty?"

Feng said, "They've searched the camp. No one is missing."

That was what Feng Wu had expected.

All those seven ninjas were assassins that hadn't been hiding among the soldiers. Otherwise, someone would have noticed that seven men were missing.

Feng Wu checked the log in her mind.

It said that 70% of the Saturn Team was gone, but why was there a thick red bar behind it? What did that mean?

Was that some kind of red alert?

Was that a warning that the remaining three were different from the seven dead ones? Were they more dangerous?

"If the surviving members are on the same team as the seven, why didn't they take action together?"

Chapter 2133: Untitled

"If ten people take action together, they'll have a much bigger chance of succeeding. Why didn't they do that?"

"The signal which the Saturn Team leader sent was obviously for the other three.

"But the three people aren't together. Where can they be hiding?"

Feng Xun entered the room and was dumbfounded to see Feng Wu.

Feng Wu was lost in her own world. She murmured, "No one went in or out of these mountains. Therefore, the only possible place... is..."

"This courier station!"

Feng Wu stared at Feng Xun and said coldly, "The other three men are all here in the courier station!"

Feng Xun asked, "Are you sure?"

Feng Wu said, "If we eliminate the impossible, then no matter how incredible the remaining option looks, it has to be the right answer. Yes, they're hiding in this place!"

Feng Xun frowned. "That's tricky. His Majesty has a large entourage. Although some families have gone back in advance, most of them are still here. How are we going to screen them all?"

Feng Wu said, "We can rule out the common soldiers. Those men are part of the revival plan, and after 13 years, they can't remain at such a low level."

Feng Xun nodded.

Feng Wu said, "They'll try to gain power. Focus on the key divisions that are related to intelligence."

Feng Xun nodded again.

Feng Wu went on, "They will be very careful as well, and they may look a little sneaky. Keep that in mind!

"Since they've settled down, they would want to climb higher and gather more information. Pay attention to the wives. Don't limit yourself to the daughters of famous families. See whose father-in-law or brother-in-law has real power!"

Feng Xun nodded.

He was amazed by how perceptive "Boss Jun" was.

Feng Wu nodded and said, "People of the Dongsang Kingdom are known for their small stature, and they have unique personalities and cultivation skills as well. They won't be using special skills, because it'll draw too much attention to them. The ninjas are expert assassins. They aren't very strong, but they're very fast."

Feng Xun said happily, "Boss Jun, don't worry. With so many hints, we'll soon uncover them."

Feng Xun looked at "Feng Wu," who was sitting in the corner and repairing her body. He clenched his fists and said, "They injured Xiao Wu! I'll find them all!"

He then turned to leave.

Feng Wu said, "Don't alert them!"

Feng Xun waved at her without looking back.

He thought he was smart enough for such an easy task.

But soon, he was frustrated.

Because...

"Boss Jun..." Feng Xun came back with a long face. "Things have gotten a bit tricky."

Feng Wu was perplexed. "What? Couldn't you find them?"

Feng Xun said, "I found them, but too many people fit the description... There are 15 of them. Can we have that many undercover agents in our team?"

Feng Wu asked, "Are all of them members of the guard?"

Chapter 2134: Untitled

“Are all of them members of the guards?” Feng Wu asked.

Feng Xun said, “Yes. I found all 15 of them among the guards. What should we do now?”

Feng Wu gave it some thought and raised her eyebrows. “There’s a way.”

Feng Xun’s eyes lit up.

He knew that he could always count on “Boss Jun”!

So he asked, “What should we do?”

Feng Wu said, “Since they’re all part of the revival plan, they have to be from the Dongsang Kingdom, right?”

Feng Xun said, “Of course.”

Feng Wu asked, “What are they known for?”

Feng Xun asked, “Their pettiness?”

Feng Wu said in resignation, “Their patriotism.”

Feng Xun thought about it and realized that she was right.

“The Dongsang Kingdom is a small place. They comprise a single ethnic group. They love their kingdom to a fault and won’t allow anyone to say bad things about it.”

Feng Xun smacked his forehead, and his eyes sparkled. “I see! I see! You’re saying that we should insult the Dongsang Kingdom in front of these 15 people and watch their reactions, right?”

Feng Wu glanced at him.

That look gave Feng Xun the creeps.

He suddenly felt silly.

“Am I not right?” He didn’t sound as confident this time.

Feng Wu shook her head in resignation. “You can write some insulting words about the Dongsang Kingdom and have them take turns reading it out loud. Observe their reactions.”

Feng Xun smacked his thigh. “That’s right! They’ll have to say those words on their own! Haha! Their cover will be blown!”

Feng Wu glanced at him and went on, “They can fake their facial expressions, but they can’t fake their heartbeats.

“Therefore, monitor their heartbeats. If it speeds up, you’ve found your man.”

“That’s right! Why didn’t I think of that? Boss Jun, you’re so smart! This is a brilliant idea! I’ll go uncover the spies!” said Feng Xun.

He quickly went to interrogate the suspects.

Feng Wu shook her head. She hadn't finished speaking yet. Feng Xun might not succeed in one go.

Jun Linyuan had been sitting in the corner and repairing Feng Wu's body.

He was also refining the Seed of the Spirit Source for her.

The seed was like an onion that contained ten layers.

One would rise to the next cultivation level when they refined each layer of the seed.

However...

Every time Jun Linyuan was about to rise to the next level, he would suppress it. Instead of making a breakthrough, he went on enhancing the body.

Even Feng Wu didn't notice what he was doing.

15 minutes later.

Feng Xun rushed back holding a man.

The man was a lord and an advanced cultivator. Now, however, he was covered with wounds, especially his head, which was a bloody mess. He was already unconscious.

Thump!

Feng Xun tossed the man to the ground.

"He's a spy of the Dongsang Kingdom!" Feng Xun gloated. "Boss Jun, you're amazing."

Feng Wu gave him a suspicious look.

Feng Xun said, "I didn't believe you at first and thought that my way would work as well, so I insulted the Dongsang Kingdom in front of them."

Chapter 2135: He's Dead!

Feng Xun pointed at the lord on the floor and smirked. "Lord Wu here is playing dead. He did a pretty good job back there. He didn't let his face betray him, and it almost fooled me.

"I looked at all 15 of them, but no one seemed affected. How was that possible?"

"Therefore, I had to use your way, but I didn't write it down for them. I just told them to improvise and curse the Dongsang Kingdom however they wanted.

"The Dongsang Kingdom is our archenemy. They've killed so many of our people, and no one can forgive them for that. Therefore, it's only natural that we should hate them!"

"Once one starts cursing them, they can go on and on," said Feng Xun. "That was what everyone did, but Lord Wu here tried to bluff his way through it. It was so obvious!"

Feng Wu nodded. "Yes."

Feng Xun said, "So, I picked him out and told him to curse the Dongsang Kingdom. Not only wouldn't he do it, he also tried to change the subject. In the end, he was forced to start cursing, but I recognized the look in his eyes too well. They were filled with hatred, and I heard his heartbeat. It was very fast. So —

"He has to be a spy of the Dongsang Kingdom," Feng Xun said affirmatively.

But Feng Wu frowned a little.

Feng Xun was perplexed. "Boss Jun, don't you believe me?"

Feng Wu looked at him in resignation.

The look made Feng Xun uneasy. "What's wrong?"

Just then, footsteps came from outside.

They were quite loud.

It was none other than the second prince.

"Why are you here?" Feng Xun wasn't happy to see the second prince here.

The prince had been asking questions nonstop when he brought the spy here, which was very annoying.

Putting his hands behind his back, the second prince smiled. "I heard that you caught a spy, so I thought I should pop in. Brother, you don't mind, do you?"

Jun Linyuan usually just ignored the second prince.

But Feng Wu glanced at the second prince and casually said, "Actually, I do."

What?

That greatly embarrassed the second prince.

Feng Xun threw a dirty look at the second prince and said, "Hear that? His Royal Highness doesn't like it. Are you still going to stay here?"

That wasn't very polite.

And the second prince felt even more embarrassed.

Master Dugu had arrived with him, and stepped forward to mediate.

He smiled and said, "We were taking a walk after lunch and just happened to pass by. We heard that Miss Feng Wu was sick, so we thought we should visit her."

After saying that, he felt that "Jun Linyuan" couldn't tell them to leave anymore.

Feng Wu ignored him and only asked Feng Xun, "Why did you bring the dead man here? Are you trying to ruin my floor with blood?"

"Dead?" Feng Xun stared at Feng Wu in disbelief.

Feng Wu glanced at the man on the floor and said, "See for yourself."

Feng Xun grew anxious. Yes, he had beaten up the man, but why was he dead?

At that thought, he checked his pulse.

And it was a good thing he did!

There was no pulse.

Chapter 2136: Untitled

“What...” Feng Xun’s eyes widened. “How can this have happened? I didn’t even use that much force!”

He knew the man was a spy, so he had kept him alive and brought him here. But why...

“Did you kill Lord Wu?”

The second prince stared at Feng Xun in disbelief. “You killed Lord Wu for no reason!”

Feng Xun glared at him. “He’s a spy from the Dongsang Kingdom!”

The second prince smirked. “Do you have any proof of that?”

Feng Xun said, “I...”

In fact, he hadn’t found any yet.

He had spotted the man by using Feng Wu’s method.

However, it would only work when Lord Wu was alive. Now that he was dead, Feng Xun couldn’t prove that his heartbeat had been abnormal.

On guard, Feng Wu narrowed her eyes.

So, this was what the second prince was waiting for.

Feng Wu checked the task log,

The 70% for the Saturn Team had become 80%. That was to say, the dead man was indeed a spy of the Dongsang Kingdom.

The question rendered Feng Xun speechless.

“He was a spy, no matter what you say!” Feng Xun said angrily.

The second prince smirked and asked Master Dugu, “What’s the punishment for killing a military officer?”

“It’s punishable by death,” Master Dugu said indifferently.

Feng Xun was so frustrated. He couldn’t understand what was happening.

Feng Wu said indifferently, “My brother wants to compete with me because the first one to catch the spy will obtain my father’s Inheritance Jade Ring.”

Feng Xun realized what this was about!

He stared at the second prince and said, "That was why you kept following me! This is what you want! Lord Wu's death was your doing!"

The second prince smirked. "Young Lord Feng, that's a reckless thing to say."

Feng Xun said, "Lord Wu was alive until you came around and walked up next to him! How bold! You killed a man in broad daylight!"

The second prince ignored Feng Xun's accusation and only asked Master Dugu, "What's the punishment for slandering a prince?"

Master Dugu's reply remained unchanged. "It's punishable by death!"

The second prince glanced at Feng Xun and said, "I don't need him to die, but he'll probably lose his job."

What a threat!

It was obviously a threat.

The second prince made it clear that if Feng Xun didn't resign from his post as the leader of the execution team, he would tell the public that Feng Xun had killed Lord Wu.

Frustrated, Feng Xun shouted at the second prince, "Damn you!"

But he didn't have any proof...

Feng Wu looked at Feng Xun in resignation. "You idiot."

Feng Xun said, "Huh?"

Feng Wu beckoned him over and whispered something in his ear.

Feng Xun's eyes immediately lit up.

"That's right! Why didn't I think of that?" He smacked his own head.

When he turned to leave, Feng Wu shook her head and said, "Let Xuan Yi do it."

"Sure." The next second, Feng Xun dashed off.

The second prince was dumbfounded.

What had "Jun Linyuan" said to Feng Xun? He suddenly had a bad feeling.

Chapter 2137: Untitled

"Your Royal Highness, are you covering for Young Lord Feng, the murderer?" The second prince narrowed his eyes.

Feng Wu gave the second prince a half-smile.

Her eyes were cold and piercing, and the look she gave him reminded him of a sharp blade.

It made the second prince uneasy.

By then, Feng Xun had come back. He stood behind Feng Wu with his chin raised. He gave the second prince a contemptuous glance.

With “Boss Jun” behind him, there was nothing the second prince could do!

The second prince smirked. “If you don’t have any proof, Young Lord Feng, you’ll have to come with me!”

Feng Xun looked at “Boss Jun.”

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes. “No proof? Says who?”

“Really? Then, my dear brother, where is your proof?” The second prince gloated.

He had indeed been the culprit behind Lord Wu’s death, but the wound was so small that no one would ever spot it. He was sure that his “brother” was only bluffing.

Feng Wu ignored the second prince and only told Feng Xun, “Bring the other 14 men here.”

Although Feng Xun was perplexed, he still did as he was told.

The second prince stared at Feng Wu and wondered how “Jun Linyuan” would prove it.

The 14 men were soon brought in.

Feng Wu looked from one face to the next, and her piercing eyes gave them the creeps.

She tried to figure out what to do next as she studied the 14 men.

There were two more spies among them, but since the previous method didn’t work, the only possibility was —

The remaining two spies were men of the Junwu Empire who had defected to the other side.

That thought made Feng Wu’s face darken.

She flipped through the files in her hands.

The 14 files were from Feng Xun, and they included everything about these men, from their family backgrounds to their connections.

Nice job, Feng Xun.

Feng Xun looked at Feng Wu in confusion.

The second prince was equally perplexed.

Even Jun Linyuan, who was sitting in the corner, couldn’t help but glance at Feng Wu, but he soon closed his eyes and went back to his cultivation.

He didn’t know if Feng Wu could really find the spies. If she could, he would acknowledge her intelligence.

If not, that would mean that she wasn’t as smart as she looked.

The first of the 14 men was Xi Lie, the second son of the Minister of Public Works.

The second man was Mo Haolin, an officer who had started off as just a common soldier only.

The third was Zuo Ziyang, a distant relative of the Zuo family

The fourth was...

Suddenly, Feng Wu's gaze landed on Zuo Ziyang.

A member of the Zuo family. How interesting.

She glanced at Zuo Ziyang and saw the jade pendant at his waist. Her eyes glinted, but she didn't say anything. She walked past Zuo Ziyang and stopped in front of Mo Haolin.

"I smell Cherry Flower on him," said the fairy.

Feng Wu raised her eyebrows. "I didn't know you could smell that."

The fairy said, "I'm a Peach Blossom Fairy, and I can detect the energy of a Cherry Flower Fairy! It's very faint, but it can't escape my nose!"

Chapter 2138: Untitled.

The Cherry Flower was the national flower of the Dongsang Kingdom. So, Mo Haolin...

Feng Wu frowned. "Is it possible that someone smeared it on him on purpose?"

The fairy shook her head. "It's been there for a very long time. That's the only way that it'll smell like that..."

Feng Wu frowned.

Her eyes met Mo Haolin's.

The next second, Mo Haolin bolted.

He was unbelievably fast!

Before Feng Wu said anything, Feng Xun dashed off like a cheetah.

Thump!

He threw a punch at Mo Haolin and knocked him to the ground.

Mo Haolin didn't dare linger. He climbed back up and continued running.

Feng Xun shouted, "I told you not to run! Stop!"

The second prince's face darkened.

Even an idiot could tell that there was something wrong with Mo Haolin.

He was impressed. "Jun Linyuan" only glanced at those men, and "he" spotted the spy right away. The second prince himself had no clue at all.

He knew that he would be at a disadvantage if Mo Haolin was caught.

At that moment, Mo Haolin charged at him.

Feng Xun shouted, "Stop him!"

However, the second prince and Master Dugu exchanged a look, and both men stepped aside. Master Dugu shouted, "Guard the prince!"

Whoosh!

All the guards of the second prince gathered around him, separating Feng Xun from Mo Haolin.

Feng Xun couldn't believe it!

He had made a mistake already when he let Lord Wu die. If Mo Haolin got away, he wouldn't know what to do!

Feng Xun threw a dirty look at the second prince and jumped over their heads.

However, when he looked again, Mo Haolin was nowhere to be found.

He looked around, but no one knew where Mo Haolin had gone.

Feng Xun turned around and glared at the second prince. "You did that on purpose!"

Master Dugu frowned. "Young Lord Feng, what do you mean? Are you saying that a common officer's life is more important than the second prince's?"

The second prince gloated. Yes, he had done it on purpose, but there was nothing Feng Xun could do.

Feng Xun shouted, "I'll make you answer for it after I find Mo Haolin!"

The second prince smirked. "Young Lord Feng, are you trying to run away?"

His guards then surrounded Feng Xun.

Feng Xun glared at him.

"You're still a suspect in Lord Wu's death. Murder is punishable by death." The second prince sounded very pleased.

Feng Xun was furious.

Just then, they heard a thump, and something dropped on the ground.

Everyone looked in that direction, and the second prince was dumbfounded. Feng Xun, on the other hand, laughed loudly.

It was Jun Linyun, the prince who had a crush on Feng Wu. He was also the son of Empress Dugu.

As for the thump... He had just tossed Mo Haolin onto the ground.

Jun Linyun then turned to Feng Xun. "You were shouting about stopping someone. Who? Let me help you."

Feng Xun was rendered speechless.

The second prince was speechless.

Jun Linyun was perplexed. "Why are you looking at me like that?"

Chapter 2139: Untitled

Feng Xun pointed at Mo Haolin.

Jun Linyun nodded. "Right, him. He was running wildly and bumped into me, which was unbelievable. So, I dragged him here for you guys to see. Who's this man? He needs to be punished for what he did!"

Feng Xun was rendered speechless.

The second prince was speechless.

Mo Haolin suddenly tried to jump to his feet.

However, Feng Xun struck him down before he could get up.

Mo Haolin crumpled and almost passed out.

Feng Xun grabbed his chin and dislocated his jaw.

Jun Linyun watched in astonishment. "Brother Feng, you care about me so much..."

The second prince threw a dirty look at his younger brother.

If he could, he wanted to slap Jun Linyun.

Feng Xun stuck his hand into Mo Haolin's mouth and took out a small white pill. "You're not getting out of it that easily!"

Jun Linyun had to be a real idiot if he still didn't realize what was going on.

"Brother Feng, he..."

Feng Xun rose to his feet. He kept his gaze on Mo Haolin while talking to Jun Linyun. "He's the one I was trying to catch."

"Holy crap!" Jun Linyun cried out. "I'm amazing!"

Feng Xun rolled his eyes at him and was amazed by his dumb luck.

He then turned all his attention to Mo Haolin.

"Who are you? Answer me!" Feng Xun started the interrogation.

Mo Haolin snorted and looked away.

Feng Xun smirked. "Fine. Keep your silence. I have a hundred ways to make you talk."

After that, a dagger appeared in his hand.

Mo Haolin snorted.

He had never been afraid of death.

Feng Xun snorted. “Do you think I’m going to kill you? No. It won’t be that easy!”

After that, Feng Xun tied him up and started with his face.

By the time Mo Haolin realized it, a slice of flesh had been peeled off his face.

It was a very thin piece, but it was so painful that he almost passed out.

Mo Haolin’s forehead was covered with cold sweat, and he glared at Feng Xun.

Feng Xun only smiled at him. “I know you can take it. I’d like to see how long you can last.”

With that, he sliced another piece off his face.

“Ah —” Mo Haolin almost burst into tears.

Feng Xun said, “I’m just getting started. I have all the time in the world. It’s not like I’m in pain, right?”

After that, he sliced off another piece of flesh.

Mo Haolin was in tears now.

He had been trained to endure pain, but this pain seemed never-ending.

He would be able to stand it if he knew when it would stop, but Feng Xun had made it clear that if he kept his silence, this would go on and on.

Mo Haolin was about to break.

While everyone was watching Mo Haolin, Feng Wu was observing the other 13 men.

Chapter 2140: Untitled

This was why Feng Wu had let Feng Xun carry out the interrogation in public.

No one could stay calm when their companions were being tortured.

They would feel enraged, and they would feel fear. It was human nature.

Even if they could keep their faces straight, they wouldn’t be able to control their heartbeats.

With one glance, Feng Wu found what she was looking for.

The pain seemed to go on and on.

Mo Haolin began to break.

In the end —

“Stop...”

He panted and said, “I... I’ll confess...”

Someone in the crowd stiffened.

The second prince also stared at Mo Haolin.

Mo Haolin started talking.

He admitted that he was a spy that had been stealing information about the Junwu Empire.

“You’re all going to die! My kingdom has gathered a lot more information than you can imagine! The war will soon break out, and you’re all going to die!”

“How many of you are out there?” Feng Xun grabbed him by the neck.

“How many? Hahaha, you’ve killed off my team, but don’t worry. My friends from the other teams are still safe. You’ll never find them!”

He was already in a frantic state.

Mo Haolin stiffened and glared at Feng Wu. The next second, he charged at her like a bull.

However, his real target was the second prince.

He took out his weapon as he ran at the prince.

“How dare you?!”

The second prince pointed his sword at Mo Haolin.

Poof!

To his surprise, Mo Haolin ran right into the blade.

It seemed that he was trying to get himself killed!

The blade went right through him.

The second prince was astonished.

So was Master Dugu.

Jun Linyun was the first to react. He stared at the second prince and said, “Brother, that man is a spy. How could you kill him? Why did you do that?!”

The second prince was dumbfounded.

“No... I didn’t...” The second prince tried to explain, but he couldn’t find anything to say. “I... I thought he wanted to kill me! It was self-defense! Self-defense!”

Feng Xun was furious. “That was what he wanted, and you gave it to him! Are you their leader?!”

That was a serious crime!

Of course, the second prince wouldn’t admit it.

He pointed at Feng Xun in frustration. “You’re the spy! You killed Lord Wu!”

Feng Wu looked at the second prince silently, but there was no warmth in her eyes.

“No! It’s not me! Jun Linyuan, I’m warning you! You can’t incriminate me just because I’m your rival!

“I’m telling you, Feng Xun is still a suspect in Lord Wu’s murder!”

Feng Wu suddenly smiled. She moved closer and whispered something in his ear.

The second prince’s face paled.
