

G E D 2351

Chapter 2351: Untitled

The door opened.

As it turned out, it was Twelve.

She was the girl Gu Shuyi had scolded earlier, and Gongsun Qing had taken pity on her. Right now, Gongsun Qing was with her as well.

“Xiao Wu —”

Gongsun Qing was about to speak, when Feng Wu shushed her with a gesture.

Gongsun Qing looked inside and saw that Qiuling was cultivating.

Feng Wu said, “Qiuling is cultivating. Let’s not disturb her. We can talk outside.”

Gongsun Qing nodded. “Of course.”

When they were outside, Feng Wu asked, “What can I do for you?”

Gongsun Qing smiled bitterly. “It’s still about Twelve. Xiao Wu, I know that cultivation is a private thing and that each person has their own method, but I feel really sorry for Twelve...”

Seeing Twelve slowly walk away, Gongsun Qing and Feng Wu followed her.

They chatted as they walked.

Gongsun Qing looked at the tiny figure in front of them before she said to Feng Wu, “Do you know why I care so much about her?”

Feng Wu asked, “Why?”

Gongsun Qing said, “Her mother died while saving me, which is a story probably too long for you to listen to. In one word, I owe her my life.”

She then looked into Feng Wu’s eyes and said, “I can give her everything from weapons to resources, but you’re the only one who can do something about her condition. Xiao Wu, can you help her? Just name your terms, and I’ll...”

Before she could finish, they heard a splash.

Both Feng Wu and Gongsun Qing turned around.

They saw Twelve in the river, and she was struggling.

“Help me...”

An invisible current seemed to carry her downstream.

Gongsun Qing ran after Twelve without hesitation.

Thump!

Gongsun Qing jumped into the water.

She had thought that she could easily get Twelve out, but when she got to her, she felt an invisible hand dragging them down.

Both she and Twelve were in danger.

“Help...”

Seeing Gongsun Qing bobbing up and down in the water, Feng Wu shook her head and jumped into the water.

Gongsun Qing was still a Year 1 student and couldn't do anything about the undercurrent, but Feng Wu was already a Spiritual Lord, which was quite rare in the Junwu Empire.

Feng Wu grabbed one person in each hand and jumped out of the water.

Gongsun Qing coughed violently.

Luckily, Feng Wu got her out before she drowned.

“Are you alright?” Feng Wu asked.

Gongsun Qing said, “I'm fine... How is Twelve?”

It was the middle of winter, and it was freezing outside.

“She's barely breathing. I need to treat her first.” Feng Wu shook her head. “I need somewhere warm. We can't stay here. She'll freeze to death.”

“Look! There's a house!” Gongsun Qing pointed at a cabin a few hundred meters away in the woods.

“There's light inside. Someone should be living there. We can get some hot water!”

She then turned to Feng Wu. “There's no kitchen in your courtyard, so hot water will be hard to get. Plus, we're a long way from there...”

“Let's go.” Feng Wu picked up Twelve and headed for the cabin.

She knocked on the door, but no one answered.

Gongsun Qing said, “We can't afford to wait. Let's smash the door open!”

Feng Wu nodded.

Since she was carrying Twelve, she let Gongsun Qing do the job.

Thump!

Gongsun Qing pounded on the door. It wasn't tightly locked, and she easily smashed the door open.

“Huh?”

Gongsun Qing looked around and was confused. "The lights are on, but there's no one here. What's going on?"

Suddenly, a shadow pounced at her.

The lights all went off.

The room became pitch dark.

Feng Wu heard Gongsun Qing cry out in horror before everything went silent.

As for Feng Wu...

She was attacked at the same time.

Level 9 Spiritual Lords?

Feng Wu smiled a little.

She had thought that Lord Mu would send a Spiritual King after her, but they were only Spiritual Lords.

What she didn't know was that someone had set a rule beforehand, forbidding any Spiritual King to take part.

Otherwise, it wouldn't have been just Spiritual Lords.

Feng Wu pretended to be knocked out and fell to the ground.

The two Level 9 Spiritual Lords looked at each other in resignation. Why was their enemy so weak?

Chapter 2352: Untitled

Feng Wu closed her eyes.

If she struck now, she could take down both Spiritual Lords.

Because when she fought Elder Grain earlier, her sudden burst of energy had enabled her to fight like a Level 1 Spiritual King.

Therefore, she was capable of defeating both Spiritual Lords if she could catch them off guard.

But she didn't do that.

She had to pretend to be unconscious if she wanted to find out what Lord Mu was up to.

The two Spiritual Lords ignored Gongsun Qing and Twelve, who were lying unconscious on the ground. Feng Wu was their real target.

One of the Spiritual Lords threw Feng Wu over his shoulder, and the other led the way.

They zigzagged through the garden before they jumped into a low building through the window.

"Can we just put her here?" one of them asked.

The other one said, "That's what we were told to do. Let's get out of here."

They turned around and were about to jump out the window.

But Feng Wu struck at that moment.

"Ground Control! Fire Dragon Rod!"

Thump! Thump! Thump!

It worked perfectly.

The two men wouldn't have lost so easily if they had fought Feng Wu in a normal battle.

But they didn't expect Feng Wu to wake up, let alone fight back.

And the information they received said that she was only a Level 7 Spiritual Lord.

They were both Level 9 Spiritual Lords and didn't think that they should take precautions against a Level 7 Spiritual Lord. Therefore, they let their guard down.

Ground Control could keep someone within a circle.

And the Fire Dragon Rod was inescapable.

Feng Wu moved as fast as a streak of lightning.

Although the only light was from the moon outside, it didn't stop Feng Wu from striking out.

The two Level 9 Spiritual Lords panicked when they were attacked.

They were completely under Feng Wu's control.

And Feng Wu made good use of this opportunity.

She froze the two men with Ground Control and struck out before they realized what was happening.

Until they fell to the ground...

The two men still didn't know what had hit them.

Feng Wu didn't kill them right away.

For one, Level 9 Spiritual Lords weren't that easy to kill. For another, she still needed them as future witnesses.

After knocking them out, Feng Wu finally had time to look around the room.

It was a small building, and she could see the reflection of a pond outside. The place was well-hidden.

She knew that these people had brought her here for a reason.

She quickly searched the entire building.

She saw a lump on the ground.

It was a person.

She walked closer to see the person's face.

And she was shocked.

That was because —

Those people had paid a high price to set her up!

The person lying on the ground was none other than Mrs. Gu!

Lord Gu's wife!

The daughter of the Long family!

Chapter 2353: Untitled

The Long family was also one of the ten major clans, and old Mrs. Long was a guest here as well.

Mrs. Gu was lying on the ground, and she had been stabbed in the stomach.

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

She put a finger under Mrs. Gu's nose, and her eyes widened.

The lady wasn't breathing anymore.

She was dead!

This shouldn't have happened.

Feng Wu remembered that Mrs. Gu had saved old Mrs. Gu from embarrassment earlier in the day.

The old lady should like her.

If this was old Mrs. Gu's play, Mrs. Gu shouldn't have been killed. Was there someone else behind this?

Feng Wu was perplexed.

She then realized that someone was trying to frame her for Mrs. Gu's murder. In that case...

Shortly afterward, she heard footsteps outside.

There were quite a few people.

She frowned and lay down next to Mrs. Gu, pretending to have fainted.

The door opened.

Someone walked in and closed the door.

Feng Wu could feel the person looking her up and down.

In order not to alarm the person, Feng Wu slowed down her breathing and lay completely still.

She felt a hand on her. It moved down from her forehead to her cheeks. She didn't like the touch at all.

She couldn't stand it for much longer.

Luckily, the hand stopped before she lost control. The man then murmured, "Feng Wu, you had it coming. After this, you have to marry me."

That was such a familiar voice.

Hearing the man drink something, Feng Wu opened her eyes a little and saw the face in the moonlight.

It was Jun Linshen!

Was he the person who was setting her up? What was he drinking? It didn't smell right.

Moreover, why did he say that she had to marry him this time?

Feng Wu's face darkened.

Meanwhile, the two Level 9 Spiritual Lords had woken up. They had been tied up, gagged, and hidden behind the bed. They now felt that their master was going to be in trouble.

Because this girl was much more capable than a Level 7 Spiritual Lord!

And she had made a lot of preparations...

Jun Linshen was enjoying his role so much that the two Level 9 Spiritual Lords felt utterly embarrassed.

The prince was even talking to himself. He said, "Now, I have to make sure that I've covered every angle."

He ripped a piece of cloth off Mrs. Gu's clothes, stuffed it in Feng Wu's hand, and murmured, "Xiao Wu, when you wake up, you'll see that your world has changed completely."

He sat down, took Feng Wu's hand, and went on, "How will it change? Let me tell you."

Chapter 2354: Untitled

"If you find this world a kind place, when you wake up again, you'll see that everything has turned against you," said Jun Linshen.

Feng Wu was screaming in her head, "Let go of my hand!"

Thinking that Feng Wu was unconscious, Jun Linshen happily told her everything. "I didn't want to target you, but you're on Jun Linyuan's side, which makes you my enemy."

He suddenly chuckled. "When you wake up, you'll already be my woman. Once you've lost your virginity, my proud brother will never have you. He'll be the first who'll want to kill you!"

The more he spoke, the happier he became. "What are you going to do then? Everyone will be your enemy, and I'll be the only one who's on your side. You'll have to choose me!"

Jun Linshen gloated and rubbed Feng Wu's head. "Soon, you'll be mine!"

Behind the bed, the two men looked at each other in despair.

They were both Jun Linshen's secret guards.

They wished that they were unconscious.

They wouldn't feel so embarrassed if they hadn't seen what Feng Wu had done.

Therefore, they listened to Jun Linshen in utter frustration.

They wanted to warn their master, telling him that Feng Wu could easily outsmart him.

But they couldn't make a sound.

Feng Wu had tied them up and constrained them so that they couldn't move a muscle.

She had also put walnuts in their mouths, and it made their tongues go numb.

Jun Linshen had no idea that his two men were worried about him, and was complaining that they had forgotten to put the piece of cloth in Feng Wu's hand.

If he had known what Feng Wu had done before he arrived, he would be running for his life now.

He touched his face and felt himself turn hotter.

He then reached out for Feng Wu, and frowned. "She's wearing a lot of clothes. Those two men didn't do their job properly! I told them to take off her clothes!"

The two men listened in resignation behind the bed.

They heard footsteps outside at that moment.

The door was pushed open.

Before the prince realized it, someone screamed.

"Feng Wu has killed Mrs. Gu!!!"

Feng Wu didn't know what to say.

These people were horrible actors! They started shouting before they could see what was going on inside!

The two men behind the bed looked at each other, and both despaired.

It was so frustrating to see their master make a fool of himself.

Lady Gu and Mrs. Zuo charged in first, followed by Lady Wang.

"Oh my god!" Lady Gu ran to Mrs. Gu's side, knocking over tables and chairs on her way.

Chapter 2355: Untitled

"Sister-in-law, are you alright?!"

Mrs. Zuo said, "Turn on the light! We need to see what happened!"

Feng Wu thought, “If you don't know what happened, why did you say that I killed Mrs. Gu? Are you a clairvoyant?”

Soon, the candles were lit.

Seeing Mrs. Gu lying in a pool of blood with her stomach stabbed, Lady Gu screamed, "Oh my god!!!"

She turned around and met Feng Wu's gaze.

It felt like she had seen through everything.

Lady Gu's stomach lurched.

According to the original plan, Feng Wu should be lying unconscious on the ground. Now, however, she looked like someone enjoying a show. Lady Gu suddenly felt like a monkey in the circus.

Why was this happening?

It wasn't supposed to be like this!

After the initial shock, Lady Gu shouted.

"Feng Wu! You're a murderer! You killed Mrs. Gu!"

Her face was twisted.

If one looked closely, they could see the hatred and satisfaction in her eyes.

"Feng Wu, what did Mrs. Gu ever do to you? Why did you kill her? You're going to pay for this!"

Mrs. Zuo opened her eyes wide and seemed to be in shock. She rubbed her forehead and sighed, "Feng Wu, how can you do this? You really are in a lot of trouble this time..."

Because Lady Gu had shouted loudly that Feng Wu had killed Mrs. Gu, more people kept gathering around.

"What's going on? I heard you shouting from far away." Lady Wang arrived in a hurry.

And many more people followed.

Old Mrs. Long, Mrs. Tao, Tao Qingqing, and even old Mrs. Gu arrived after her.

Soon, people filled the room.

After word got around, all hell broke loose in the manor.

Soon, half the imperial capital learned that Feng Wu had killed Mrs. Gu.

It would never have spread so fast if someone hadn't done it on purpose.

Of course, it was still known around the more prestigious families. For instance, Emperor Wu received the news almost right away.

He was having dinner with Consort Ranmil when Qingcao came in to tell them the news.

“What?” Emperor Wu almost dropped his chopsticks.

He stared at Qingcao and asked, “What did you just say?”

Qingcao was Ranmil’s maid, so naturally, they loved to hear such news. However, she couldn’t let it show in front of Emperor Wu.

Qingcao fought back her excitement and spoke in a reverent tone.

“Your Majesty, I have news from Her Majesty the Empress. It’s said that Feng Wu killed Lord Gu’s wife.”

“From Her Majesty? Did she say why?” asked the emperor.

Chapter 2356: Untitled

“No.”

Emperor Wu rubbed his forehead. The news was too big to be fake, but it was Mrs. Gu they were talking about.

Both the Gu and Long families were among the ten major clans. Now that they were joined by marriage, even the emperor had to think twice before dealing with them. Luckily, Lord Gu was an obedient subordinate, and the Long family kept a low profile as well.

Why would Feng Wu offend both families at once?

She hasn't asked me for help yet. Why should I care about her?? thought Emperor Wu.

On second thought, he realized that with how much Jun Linyuan cared about Feng Wu, he would never sit this one out. If he tried to defend the girl, he could damage the equilibrium among all the families.

At that thought, Emperor Wu couldn’t sit still anymore. He rose to his feet.

He told Gao as he walked, “Send someone to the Gu family and see what’s going on. Be discreet. Is that understood?”

Gao knew that the emperor had to declare his attitude if the others knew that he was asking around. Therefore, he wanted to remain neutral until he found out what happened.

As soon as Emperor Wu left, Ranmil almost jumped to her feet.

She looked at Qingcao in disbelief. “Is it true? Did Feng Wu really kill Mrs. Gu?”

Qingcao nodded. “I heard it from Caiwen, the chief maid of Her Majesty the empress. She said that Feng Wu is definitely going to die this time.”

Ranmil trembled in excitement. “Gosh! I thought I would never defeat Feng Wu, but there she goes. She’s just ruined herself! This is my happiest day!

“Let’s go.” Ranmil headed for the door.

Qingcao asked, "Where are we going?"

Ranmil said, "His Majesty must have gone to Empress Dugu. When Her Majesty the empress dowager hears about it, she'll want to see Empress Dugu as well. Let's go to Cining Palace to see the old lady!"

She had never felt so happy since she arrived at the palace.

It was like a sunny day that she had been waiting for for ages.

As expected, Empress Dugu and Emperor Wu were both at the empress dowager's palace. Even Princess Jun Wuxia was there. They didn't mind Ranmil joining them.

Caiwen, Empress Dugu's chief maid, was telling the story. "Mrs. Gu is dead, and the killer is the famous Feng Wu. Lord Gu's manor is in a mess at the moment, and everyone is asking for more information."

Gao, the eunuch, had gone to the manor, and would send back information if he found any, but Emperor Wu was still anxious.

"Why did Feng Wu kill Mrs. Gu?" Emperor Wu couldn't understand it.

Caiwen said, "I heard that Mrs. Gu walked in when Miss Feng Wu was with another man... So..."

What?! Emperor Wu jumped to his feet.

Meanwhile, the Gu manor was in a mess.

All the ladies and their daughters had gathered around.

Old Mrs. Long saw her daughter lying in a pool of blood and the open wound on her stomach. When she heard Lady Gu say that Mrs. Gu was dead...

She immediately passed out.

That started a new round of panic.

Chapter 2357: Untitled

After they carried old Mrs. Long out of the room, they all looked at Feng Wu.

"Look!" Lady Gu pointed at Feng Wu's hands. "She has..."

She stopped mid-sentence.

Feng Wu should be holding a piece of cloth that was torn off Mrs. Gu's clothes, but it wasn't there.

Luckily, Lady Gu stopped before she blurted it out. Otherwise, her plan would be exposed.

"What do I have?" Feng Wu rose to her feet and looked calmly at Lady Gu.

Meanwhile, everyone was watching Feng Wu.

Some were furious, and others were confused.

Lady Gu said, "You killed Mrs. Gu!"

Feng Wu showed everyone her hands. "No, I didn't."

Lady Gu said, "Then how did she die? You and she were the only two people here, and she's lying in a pool of blood now!"

Feng Wu smirked and glanced at the bed.

Behind the bed curtain was Jun Linshen.

Feng Wu walked over to the bed and opened the white curtain.

"Why is Prince Jun Linshen here?!" many people cried out.

Things were getting more and more confusing.

Feng Wu kicked Jun Linshen and said, "Hey, get up!"

The crowd was speechless when they saw how rudely Feng Wu treated the prince.

Even if Jun Linshen wasn't as popular as Jun Linyuan, he was still a prince. How could Feng Wu kick him?

Jun Linshen's lashes fluttered, and he opened his eyes.

To be frank, Jun Linshen was a handsome young man. He looked a little delirious when he opened his eyes.

He murmured, "Feng Wu..."

The crowd was shocked.

He sounded drugged!

Prince Jun Linshen and Feng Wu...

Women were very sensitive to such things, especially Tao Qingqing, who was in love with Jun Linshen. She thought she knew what had happened and was furious.

Jun Linshen struggled to sit up. He then grabbed Feng Wu's hand and said, "You sent me a note, asking me to meet you here. What did you feed me? Why do I feel a little dizzy?"

Ssss —

Everyone drew in their breaths.

Did Feng Wu drug the prince?!

"Why are there so many people here?" Jun Linshen wrapped his robe around his shoulders. Suddenly, his eyes widened.

Because he saw Mrs. Gu, who was lying in a pool of blood.

"Isn't that Mrs. Gu? What happened to her?" Jun Linshen stared at Feng Wu. "You told me to go to sleep while you went to take care of something. Was that it? Did you go to kill Mrs. Gu?!"

The crowd was astonished.

They hadn't been convinced that Feng Wu was the killer at first, but after Jun Linshen woke up, everything he said suggested that Feng Wu had killed the lady.

Lady Gu stared at Feng Wu. "What other excuses do you have now?!"

Mrs. Zuo said, "Feng Wu, you're really having an affair with the prince, and you killed Mrs. Gu to silence her!"

Lady Wang seemed panic-stricken.. She grabbed Feng Wu's hands and said nervously, "What should we do now? Xiao Wu, just confess your crime."

Chapter 2358: Untitled

Feng Wu knew what these people wanted.

But even if she had done it, she still wouldn't confess, not to mention that she really hadn't done anything wrong.

Feng Wu's gaze swept over the crowd.

Lady Gu was furious, Lady Wang was gloating, Mrs. Dugu watched in silence, and old Mrs. Gu couldn't wait for her to die.

Feng Wu smiled a little. "I didn't kill Mrs. Gu."

Lady Gu said, "Yes, you did!"

Feng Wu shrugged. "Why would I do that?"

Lady Gu said, "Because she saw what you did with Prince Jun Linshen!"

Feng Wu looked at her. "What did I do with the prince?"

Lady Gu said, "The prince just admitted it! Stop lying!"

She then turned to Jun Linshen. "Your Royal Highness, why are you here?"

Jun Linshen looked from Lady Gu to Feng Wu and hesitated.

Lady Gu glared at him. "Your Royal Highness, if you don't come clean, you'll be a suspect as well."

After some hesitation, Jun Linshen said, "Xiao Wu asked to meet me here..."

Feng Wu denied it. "No, I didn't."

Hearing that, Jun Linshen glared at Feng Wu. "Why would I come here alone?"

As he spoke, he took out a piece of paper and handed it to old Mrs. Gu.

Old Mrs. Gu darted a dirty look at Feng Wu before unfolding the paper.

It was a love letter.

It asked Jun Linshen to come here, and although the handwriting was almost illegible, one could still tell that it was from Feng Wu.

Old Mrs. Gu handed the paper to Mrs. Zuo while she stared at Feng Wu with her cold gaze. "Feng Wu, what do you have to say about this?"

Feng Wu shrugged. "I never asked him to come here."

Old Mrs. Gu smirked. "Who wrote the letter, then?"

Feng Wu said, "It wasn't me!"

Granny Zhu reminded old Mrs. Gu, "My lady, we found a schedule on Miss Feng Wu earlier. It has her handwriting on it."

Old Mrs. Gu nodded. "That's right. We can compare the two!"

Mrs. Zuo pointed at Mrs. Dugu. "Mrs. Dugu knows handwriting well. Even Her Majesty the empress dowager appreciates her talent. She can have a look for us."

Old Mrs. Gu said, "Mrs. Dugu, please help us."

Mrs. Dugu said, "My lady, it'll be my pleasure. I'm glad that I can help find Mrs. Gu's killer."

While Mrs. Dugu compared the handwriting, Lady Gu took out a handkerchief and covered Mrs. Gu's face.

Everyone waited for Mrs. Dugu's conclusion.

She didn't keep the others waiting. In less than five minutes, she was done.

"The two notes are written by the same person," said Mrs. Dugu solemnly. "Look at these strokes. They have to be from the same hand."

Old Mrs. Gu glared at Feng Wu. "Here's your proof!"

Feng Wu was about to say something, when Old Mrs. Gu waved at some guards. "Take her down and lock her up!"

Chapter 2359: Untitled

After they locked her up, they could do whatever they wanted with her.

"Wait." When two guards walked toward Feng Wu, she stopped them. "Even if I did write that letter, it can't prove that I killed Mrs. Gu."

Lady Gu said, "Although it can't prove that you're the killer, it still proves that you're an unchaste woman! You're courting His Royal Highness the crown prince and Prince Jun Linshen at the same time! You're a humiliation to the Feng clan! Do you know how you'll affect your cousins' reputation?"

Tao Qingqing finally had her chance. She bellowed, "Feng Wu! I've finally caught you! You shameless woman!"

Feng Wu ignored her and only asked Jun Linshen, "My prince, what do you think?"

Jun Linshen looked embarrassed. Finally, he took Tao Qingqing's hand and said apologetically, "Xiao Wu, I'm so sorry, but Qingqing is the one I want to marry. I won't accept you no matter what drug you fed me."

Tao Qingqing was greatly satisfied with the public acknowledgement.

She grabbed Jun Linshen's hand and cried, "Did she drug you? With what?!"

Jun Linshen rubbed his forehead and seemed frustrated.

Tao Qingqing checked his pulse. She then cried out, "Feng Wu drugged you with an aphrodisiac!"

Whoosh!

Immediately, all eyes were on Feng Wu.

"How could Feng Wu do such a thing?!"

"Did she do the same to the crown prince?"

"She must have. Otherwise, why would His Royal Highness like her?"

"I didn't know that she was this sort of person. I thought she changed, and I started to like her. How disappointing..."

Tao Qingqing glared at Feng Wu and snorted. "Feng Wu, do you want men so desperately? Do you have to steal other people's fiancées? You just can't spend a night alone, can you?"

Hearing all the discussion, Feng Wu smirked. She asked Jun Linshen, "Aren't you tired?"

Jun Linshen asked, "What are you talking about?"

Feng Wu said, "Aren't you tired of all the acting?"

Jun Linshen's stomach lurched.

Feng Wu shook her head. "I was going to show some respect for His Majesty's sake and not ruin your reputation, but you just won't stop. I can't help you anymore."

Everyone was astonished.

What did that mean?

Shouldn't Feng Wu be in a fluster, after all that was said about her? But she was threatening the prince now.

Was there something behind it?

Somehow, Jun Linshen panicked a little. He bellowed, "What on earth are you talking about? Take this killer..."

Feng Wu then looked at Mrs. Dugu. "Are you so sure that I was the one who wrote that letter?"

Mrs. Dugu also had a bad feeling. She was alarmed..

Chapter 2360: Untitled

Mrs. Dugu was a smart woman. She and Feng Wu weren't archenemies. There was no need for her to drag herself into things.

She gave it some thought and said carefully, "There's no direct evidence to suggest that you were the one who wrote the letter."

Old Mrs. Gu glared at Mrs. Dugu.

Mrs. Dugu said, "But it's certain that the letter was written by the same person who wrote that schedule."

Feng Wu said, "Are you sure?"

Mrs. Dugu said, "Absolutely!"

Feng Wu chuckled. "But I didn't write the schedule."

Feng Wu was incriminated because of the letter.

It was believed that she killed Mrs. Gu because the lady had walked in on her secret meeting with Jun Linshen.

The logic would only work if Feng Wu had really written the letter.

But now, she said calmly, "I didn't write that schedule. Therefore, I couldn't have written the letter."

Jun Linshen snorted. "Of course you would say that. Why should we believe you? Did Qiuling write it, then? You can't blame everything on your maid."

Feng Wu smiled. "No, it wasn't Qiuling."

Jun Linshen said, "Who was it, then?"

Feng Wu grinned. "Your Royal Highness, be careful what you wish for."

Jun Linshen glared at Feng Wu and had a bad feeling. He suddenly felt that he had missed something very important.

Feng Wu said, "Take a closer look at that paper."

The paper?

Jun Linshen picked up the letter and examined it. There was nothing wrong with it.

He then nervously examined the schedule.

Tao Qingqing frowned.

She held Jun Linshen's hand and tried to take away the letter. "Why are you listening to her? Don't believe her!"

Jun Linshen pushed her away.

This wasn't the first time that Jun Linshen had confronted Feng Wu. Apart from Jun Linyuan, she was the person he feared the most.

Every time he thought he was going to win in the past, Feng Wu would humiliate him. Jun Linshen was scared.

The others all thought that Feng Wu was lying, but when they saw how serious Jun Linshen was, they became nervous as well. They all stared at the schedule in Jun Linshen's hands.

"If you can't see it..." Feng Wu crossed her hands behind her back and smiled. "Touch it, then."

Tao Qingqing glared at Jun Linshen.

She thought that Jun Linshen wouldn't listen to Feng Wu...

But Jun Linshen disappointed her.

He started feeling the paper like Feng Wu said. There was nothing at first.

Suddenly, he froze.

His eyes widened.

Everyone saw the change in his expression.

They wondered what had happened.

Jun Linshen glared at Feng Wu as if he was trying to peel her skin off.
