Chapter 301: She'll Be Busy Soon

"What is it?" Qiuling asked as she wiped away her tears, her eyes still red from crying. "What were they going to do to Miss Wu?"

Feng Wu unwrapped a palm-sized bundle, revealing an object that resembled a bar of soap.

She gave it a sniff and snorted. "It's Spring Breeze Powder."

"What's that?" Qiuling asked curiously.

Granny Zhao's and Uncle Qiu's faces turned livid at that name!

Feng Wu said, "It's something that'll cause a man and a woman to be consumed by lust."

"Gosh!" Qiuling covered her mouth in astonishment. "It's... that's... oh god!"

Lady Wang wanted them dead!

Feng Wu smiled. "When that lady tries something, it's always in twos or threes. This can't be the only thing."

"What do we do now?"

Feng Wu said nothing. Instead, she took the cub out of her chest pocket. The little thing was eager to try itself.

Feng Tutu had slept on the entire journey, and was now ready for some action. After jumping out of Feng Wu's arms, it headed right for the kitchen.

Everyone followed it curiously.

Feng Tutu hopped onto the stove and began to dig diligently, puffing at the effort.

Before long, a dark green pellet the size of a pigeon egg emerged.

"What's this —"

Everyone turned to Feng Wu for an answer.

Picking up the pellet, Feng Wu smirked after taking just one look. "It's Black Qilin 1 Venom."

Qiuling asked, "What's Black Qilin Venom?"

Feng Wu smiled a little, but her eyes were cold. "As the name suggests, it comes from the venom of the Black Qilin, and creates a colorless and odorless toxic gas when heated. The woman really planned it well. By burying it in the stove, the toxin will get into the food and gradually poison us. Once it accumulates... heh."

Qiuling and the others blanched!

What an insidious scheme!

As if that Spring Breeze Powder wasn't abhorrent enough, she had to top it off with Black Qilin Venom. The woman wanted to make sure that Feng Wu and her family were ruined!

"This is pure evil! Lady Wang is so —" Qiuling clenched her fists and gritted her teeth. "She sounds so nice and caring in front of other people, as if she cares about us so much. Who would have thought that she could be this malicious?! A honey tongue and a heart of gall — that woman is so dreadful!"

Feng Wu nodded.

She had revealed this to everyone not to scare them, but to remind them that they should be aware at all times and remain vigilant.

Looking around, Feng Wu said calmly, "People like Feng Liu with her empty arrogance aren't our most formidable enemies. However, we have to be cautious around someone like Lady Wang, who hides a dagger in her smile. From now on, if Lady Wang summons you or invites my mother over, you know what to do."

"We won't go! Not for all the orders in the world! We'll stall until Miss Wu gets back," Qiuling said earnestly.

Feng Wu chuckled when she saw how alert Qiuling was. "You don't have to be on edge. As long as that lady is busy, she won't have time to bother us."

"But she's not busy..." Qiuling said. "She has servants to run errands for her; all she needs to do is give orders."

"No, she'll be very busy very soon."

That night, a figure leapt out of Fallen Star Yard, nimble as a cat. She jumped around in the dark and quickly made her way into Flower Butterfly Yard.

Having grown up in Flower Butterfly Yard, Feng Wu knew the place like the back of her hand.

Footnotes:

Chapter 302: How Dare She Humiliate Me Like This!

Flower Butterfly Yard consisted of three courtyards and a lot of rooms. At this time of the year, the garden was filled with blossoming flowers and the view was spectacular.

Feng Wu knew exactly which room Feng Liu was in without having to ask around.

Who was the person Feng Liu hated most? Feng Wu, obviously.

She had taken Flower Butterfly Yard away for no reason other than it used to be Feng Wu's home.

Hence, her room would be none other than Feng Wu's old bedchamber.

Feng Wu followed the familiar path that led to her Perching Phoenix Pavilion.

As the name suggested, it was where a phoenix was supposed to perch.

Because Feng Wu had been born with the mysterious, powerful True Phoenix Blood, which hadn't appeared in the Feng clan for a thousand years, everyone in the clan had been thrilled and her living quarters had hence been named "Perching Phoenix Pavilion."

Outside the building, a tall Chinese parasol tree stood upright in the yard.

With the help of the tree trunk, Feng Wu jumped onto the roof of Perching Phoenix Pavilion, as swift as a swallow.

The inside of Perching Phoenix Pavilion was brightly lit.

And Feng Wu could hear people talking.

"Caiyue, remember to wake me up early tomorrow."

"Miss, you've always stayed in bed in the morning. Are you sure..."

"Why do you even ask? Of course I'm sure. You have no idea what fun we'll have tomorrow. Hahahaha —" Feng Liu was so thrilled that she rolled around in bed.

"Miss, what kind of fun will there be? Do you mind giving me a hint?"

Feng Liu was so eager to tell someone and had only paused for effect so that Caiyue would ask. She answered the question promptly. "Hahaha, Feng Wu's reputation will be ruined for good tomorrow! Hahaha —"

"But how is that possible? In this manor..."

"Heh!" Feng Liu snorted. "Too bad that Feng Xiaoqi isn't here. I would have made him part of the farce if he were around. Imagine how much fun that would be. Well, no worries. After Feng Wu is dead, I can easily take care of Feng Xiaoqi on my own."

Outside, Feng Wu heard every word.

She couldn't for the life of her figure out what she had ever done to Feng Liu to make the girl hold such a grudge against her. Why did Feng Liu hate her so much?

"Miss... why do you want Miss Wu dead?" Caiyue asked the question Feng Wu wanted to ask.

"She wanted me dead first!" Feng Liu flared up as she walked down memory lane. "Do you know how she used to treat me? Before, she was this genius that was so superior. She was the future of the Feng clan and she had first claim on all the resources in the family. The other kids like us had a monthly allowance of a measly three spirit stones. Do you know what she did? She acted all sincere and handed me three spirit stones, saying that they were a gift for my cultivation.

"Hahaha! A gift? For me? My father is the eldest son of my grandfather and all the resources of the clan belong to us, the first branch of the clan! How dare she 'bestow a gift' on me? She was using my resources and she was making a gift out of it? Who does she think she is?"

“I told her that I would pay her back after I grew up, and do you know what she said? She told me no need to bother, for they were just some little spirit stones. Hahaha, little spirit stones. She knew perfectly well that those spirit stones were vital for my cultivation and I couldn’t get my hands on them no matter what! She humiliated me like that! How dare she show off in front of me? Who the hell does she think she is? At that moment, I felt like tearing her throat open with my teeth!”

Outside, Feng Wu recalled this incident.

She had only been five and Feng Liu was even younger... She had no idea that Feng Liu would still be bothered by this and that she had been so narrow-minded at that young age...

“Hahahaha! Karma really is a bitch!” Feng Liu said.

Chapter 303: You Tried to Harm My Family First

“We’ve come full circle and my family is finally on top. Feng Wu is a good-for-nothing now! Hahaha! She’s useless! When that happened, everyone in the clan was devastated, but I laughed for three days!”

Feng Liu’s eyes glinted coldly. “The others have no idea who did it to Feng Wu, but I do. I saw it and I didn’t come back to get help. I wanted her dead!

“She survived, but her cultivation was ruined, which pleased me more than seeing her dead. That way, I could humiliate her, laugh at her, and taunt her as much as I want. She’s just a piece of garbage now!

“She got lucky. They banished her to Northern Border City, where she got to live in peace for five years, but I was never going to let her have peace. Hence, we went to Northern Border City just to bring her back. Only that way can I go on abusing her, bullying her, and humiliating her!

“Trying to take His Royal Highness from me was her worst decision ever! His Royal Highness is mine and everyone that competes with me must die! Even Zuo Qingluan!” Feng Liu’s face twisted. “Although, I’ll deal with Zuo Qingluan later. Feng Wu is my top priority now. I’ll show His Royal Highness what a slut Feng Wu is!”

“Miss, you...”

“Haha, Caiyue, remember to go to the clan’s stable before dawn and unleash the spiritual beasts we keep there. They’ll know where to go —”

“Miss —”

“Did you hear me?!”

“Yes.” Caiyue was shaken. She had no idea that Miss Liu could be this malicious...

“But if this gets out, your reputation will be affected as well...” Caiyue tried to talk her out of it.

“Mother won’t let it get out, neither will grandmother. So, the only solution is... Hoho.” The more she thought about it, the more conceited Feng Liu became.

Feng Wu stood right outside the window.

And she heard every word of their conversation.

She knew that Feng Liu wanted her dead, but she had no idea that her hatred stemmed from such petty things.

Feng Liu had been quite adorable when she was little. She used to follow Feng Wu around and call her "Sister Wu." Feng Wu had pitied her, which was why she had given her those spirit stones. Little did she know that Feng Liu was such an ungrateful and vicious girl.

Feng Wu's eyes darkened.

Night had fallen.

Feng Wu smiled a little.

The shut window opened quietly. Instead of going in directly, Feng Wu blew some soporific incense into the room first.

Feng Wu had made the incense herself. It was colorless and odorless, but very potent. In less than a minute, the person inside was breathing slowly and steadily.

Feng Liu had fallen asleep.

Feng Wu jumped into the room, as nimble as a cat. She then threw Feng Liu over her shoulder before heading to where the spiritual beasts were kept.

She didn't want her old room ruined by the spiritual beasts.

The spiritual beast farm.

When the spiritual beasts were mature enough, they would usually be used as personal mounts by members of the clan. There were wolves, bears, cheetahs, and tigers... which one should she pick?

In the end, Feng Wu chose a Fire Wolf.

Looking at Feng Liu, who was fast asleep, Feng Wu took a deep breath.

Feng Liu, you wanted to harm my family first; I'm only doing to you what you were trying to do to me. Even that Spring Breeze Powder was from your mother.

If you can pray, pray that your mother's Spring Breeze Powder isn't too potent. Otherwise, I'm not sure that you will survive this...

Walking into the stable where the Fire Wolf was kept, Feng Wu buried the Spring Breeze Powder there, then looked back at Feng Liu...

Chapter 304: Pay Them Back in Their Own Coin

Once the Spring Breeze Powder was in place, Feng Wu tossed Feng Liu on the ground. Raising her head, she looked right into the Fire Wolf's scarlet eyes.

Fire Wolves were big, strong beasts that were twice the size of a grown man. Their long, flowing fur gave them a majestic look.

Feng Wu patted the Fire Wolf's head. "Sorry about this, buddy —"

She left after that.

Once outside, she carefully closed the door behind her and locked it.

The night wind was chilly on her skin as Feng Wu darted one last grim look at Feng Liu. Your mother was the one who came up with this plan and that Spring Breeze Powder was put in place by her people... So, I feel no qualms about doing this to you.

Feng Wu still had another object in her hand — the Black Qilin Venom the size of a pigeon egg.

Since she was going to pay them back in their own coin, it went without saying that she would use it on Lady Wang.

Something cold glinted in Feng Wu's bright eyes.

Soon, her nimble figure disappeared into the darkness. Shortly afterward, she appeared inside Flying Snow Building, where Lady Wang lived.

Feng Wu jumped around swiftly in the building and was soon outside Lady Wang's bedchamber.

As cautious as ever, Feng Wu didn't use the soporific incense right away, but had a listen first. Someone was snoring loudly inside.

She realized that Lady Wang wasn't the only one inside. Feng Yanfeng, her eldest uncle, was also there.

About this uncle of hers... Well, Feng Wu couldn't be bothered to comment.

Suffice to say, if he had been as kind as he ought to be, Feng Wu's family would never have been driven off into exile.

Feng Wu hadn't come back to the imperial capital for revenge. She wouldn't stir things up herself, but she wouldn't hesitate to fight back either if she became a target.

This soporific incense which Feng Wu had made herself wasn't available anywhere on the market, no matter how much a buyer was willing to pay.

Using a thin straw, Feng Wu blew the incense smoke into the room.

She waited five minutes for the knockout effect to work, then pushed the door open and marched in.

Her uncle and aunt were fast asleep. In a censer a few steps away, some incense was burning.

Feng Wu had thought about burying the poison in Lady Wang's kitchen, but then decided otherwise, fearing that she might harm innocent people. Now, under the dim moonlight coming in through the window, Feng Wu fixed her eyes on that censer.

The censer was quite sizeable, and was only cleaned out every once in a while.

Feng Wu's mouth curled into a smile.

Lady Wang had a habit of burning incense at night, without which she couldn't sleep.

Hence, Feng Wu figured out the perfect way to put this Black Qilin Venom to use — grind it into a powder and sprinkle it into the censer.

Once that was completed, Feng Wu took a look at her aunt, who was still sound asleep, and smiled. After that, Feng Wu disappeared into the dark again.

She was back in Fallen Star Yard in no time.

The lights were still on.

Qiuling heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Feng Wu. "Miss Wu, how did it go?"

The beautiful lady had gone to bed on time like clockwork, and by now, she was already fast asleep. However, Qiuling and Granny Zhao had been worried about Feng Wu and waited up for her.

Feng Wu grinned. "Of course everything went as planned. I wouldn't have it any other way."

Qiuling and Granny Zhao let out breaths of relief.

Feng Wu urged, "Go to bed. We're going to face a tough battle tomorrow."

However, after Feng Wu went to bed —

Little did she know that something very unexpected was about to happen.

Yu Mingye —

That teenager whom Feng Wu had met in Frozen Forest a while ago —

Chapter 305: A Naked Girl

He had finally reached an agreement with his three elders and was given permission to stay in the imperial capital for a while.

The first person Yu Mingye thought of when he arrived at the imperial capital wasn't Jun Linyuan, his lifelong rival, but Feng Wu.

Hence, he began to ask around about the girl.

Since her return from the border city, Feng Wu had become the topic of conversation in the city once more.

She used to be this genius with the most promising future.

However, when she came back this time, her name was connected to slander, rumors, and libel... It was only unfavorable news.

Good-for-nothing, useless, losing her head over love... The people of the city crowned her with all the unpleasant labels they could think of.

Needless to say, the Zuo family and the younger generation of the Feng family had a lot to do with the spread of the rumors.

Yu Mingye found everything so frustrating!

He wouldn't have felt this way if he didn't know Feng Wu, but he did. To him, the girl was smart, wickedly funny, pretty, sharp-tongued, and a free spirit... He simply couldn't bring himself to dislike her.

To Yu Mingye, Feng Wu was a brilliant girl second only to the ugly girl.

"How can these people say such things about little Feng Wu? Do they even know her? I bet Xiao Wu is so upset right now." Yu Mingye's heart went out to Feng Wu.

He couldn't help but let his imagination run wild.

A slim figure wearing a white robe hid herself in a dark corner with her arms around her knees; her eyes were teary as she wept into her lap... Such was the picture Yu Mingye drew in his head.

He clenched his fists in vexation!

No! He had to go to Feng Wu!

Hence, Yu Mingye climbed over the wall of the Feng Manor the first night after Feng Wu came back.

The manor was adequately guarded, but Yu Mingye had three very capable elders. With their help, Yu Mingye entered the manor without breaking a sweat.

At this hour, almost everyone was in bed. Yu Mingye couldn't find a person to ask for directions even if he wanted to.

However, when he focused his attention, he noticed strange noises in the eastern part of the place.

Yu Mingye, the professional pleasure-seeker, couldn't resist his curiosity. He headed in that direction right away.

And what he saw turned out to be an eyesore!

In the centermost part of the spiritual beast farm, an animal was snarling, accompanied by the sound of tearing cloth.

Tearing cloth?

Yu Mingye blushed profusely. It was... shameless. Fornication with a beast in the middle of the night... how thirsty did that person have to be?

However, he didn't want to ruin the person's night. Covering his ears with both hands, Yu Mingye decided to take flight.

The torn clothes then flew over the fence and Yu Mingye saw it under the bright moonlight.

What?!

That dress looked so familiar. He thought he had seen it somewhere before.

But where?

He had only met two girls after leaving his court. One was the ugly girl and the other one was little Feng Wu... Shit!

Yu Mingye suddenly remembered all the stories he had heard earlier today!

Those people called little Feng Wu a good-for-nothing and said that she was crazy in love. They also said that she wouldn't survive much longer in the imperial capital...

Yu Mingye had a sharp nose and he soon recognized the smell of Spring Breeze Powder in the air.

Gosh, was that little Feng Wu in there? Had someone set her up?

Yu Mingye was exasperated!

He rushed in right away, knocking down an entire wall. As soon as he set foot inside, he saw a fair, naked girl under a giant Fire Wolf!

Her face was out of sight, but she had a very slim body!

"Little Feng Wu!" Yu Mingye's eyes widened in astonishment. He charged at the wolf!

Chapter 306: Oh God —

Yu Mingye charged out and swung his fist at the Fire Wolf, sending the animal flying backward. It hit a wall and blood gushed out of its mouth.

Once the wolf was taken care of, Yu Mingye took the girl's hand. "Little Feng Wu! Don't be afraid! I'm here for you!"

After that, he took off his robe and wrapped it around the girl.

Outside, the bright moon was hidden behind thick clouds.

Yu Mingye had taken the girl for Feng Wu without giving it another thought. Throwing her on his back, he dashed off and disappeared from the spiritual beast farm in the blink of an eye.

Right now, all Feng Liu wore was the robe that Yu Mingye had wrapped around her.

Resting on Yu Mingye's back, her firm breasts pressed against the teenager's back. Yu Mingye stiffened right away and his mind went blank!

Shit! Yu Mingye's legs almost gave out and his mouth felt dry. Little Feng Wu was really... seductive tonight.

Did she like him? Yu Mingye had butterflies in his stomach as that thought popped into his head. He smiled like a little kid.

Yu Mingye had no idea that he was carrying Feng Liu on his back.

Feng Liu, on the other hand, had no idea where she was either.

Under the effect of the Spring Breeze Powder, Feng Liu's body felt boneless and extremely aroused.

Leaning on Yu Mingye's back, she rested her head on his nape, and Yu Mingye could feel her hot breath on his ears. It felt so sensual, especially with all the moaning she was doing.

Yu Mingye thought his head was going to explode!

This woman was incredible!

Yu Mingye's muscles stiffened. He looked straight ahead and had to use all his strength to keep his breathing steady. "Little Feng Wu, I'm warning you! Stop doing this! I have someone I like already!"

As soon as Yu Mingye began to speak, Feng Liu sensed his virility, which excited her greatly. The delirious girl trembled all over.

She forgot about everything else. Wrapping her fair, slim arms around Yu Mingye's neck, she began to kiss and lick him!

As a red-blooded virgin, Yu Mingye could never resist such temptation, not to mention that he had taken the girl for Feng Wu, the person that he had been thinking about!

"Hey! Little Feng Wu! I'm warning you! Stop it!" Yu Mingye went completely stiff. Despite his harsh tone, he did nothing to stop her.

Feng Liu had surrendered to this male body already. Her bloodshot eyes glistened and her vision had gone blurry. Staying on his back could no longer satisfy her. Hence, she began to struggle, trying to climb over his shoulder.

"You're impossible!" Yu Mingye cursed, but he was rejoicing inside!

He had never thought that the haughty little Feng Wu could be this passionate. He knew it! He knew that the girl was secretly in love with him! It was just that when he had brought it up earlier, all his elders had shaken their heads in unison!

He was telling the truth!

Yu Mingye let the girl climb over his shoulder —

Just then.

The thick clouds scattered and the moon shone brightly again.

Yu Mingye could now see her face clearly!

And he felt like he had been struck by a thunderbolt!

Oh god!

Yu Mingye thought he was going to lose his mind!

The half-naked girl wrapped in his robe wasn't little Feng Wu at all!!!

Chapter 307: Claim the Credit —

This wasn't little Feng Wu at all!

Moreover, Yu Mingye realized that he had met this girl before!

Yu Mingye let go and Feng Liu dropped to the ground with a loud thump.

But that Spring Breeze Powder was so potent!

It was an aphrodisiac as well as a hallucinogenic drug, so powerful that it could make a person lose their head completely!

As a result, Feng Liu's first reaction was to wrap herself around Yu Mingye's thigh and try to crawl up, regardless of the painful fall.

Yu Mingye was almost driven mad!

This woman!

What was he supposed to do with this woman?!

So, the woman that had kissed him and seduced him wasn't little Feng Wu!

Yu Mingye was disgusted by the thought of this woman's hands on him. He picked up Feng Liu and wrapped his fingers around her neck!

Yu Mingye might look like a goofball around Feng Wu and Jun Linyuan, but he was first and foremost the sacred son of the Dark Court! He was born with violence running through his veins!

A cruel and fierce look filled his eyes, which had been bright and mild a moment ago!

Feng Liu couldn't breathe. In Yu Mingye's hand, her neck felt as brittle as a toy.

Yu Mingye felt like killing her right there and then!

Just then, footsteps came from outside.

Yu Mingye had his own agenda for coming here and he had only chosen paths hidden by the big leafy trees. Hence, no one on the main path of the house would realize that he was only ten meters away from them.

But it was just before dawn and the sun could rise at any moment. The sky was lightening on the horizon.

The Feng manor's lower-ranked servants were already getting up.

Right now, two maids of lower rank were walking along the path.

"Have you heard? Miss Wu is back."

"Of course I have. It's like the biggest news these days. Sigh, poor Miss Wu."

"You don't say. Northern Border City is so much better than here. Why did she have to come back?"

“I heard that Lady Wang had them live in Fallen Star Yard?”

“You mean the one with a giant pagoda tree outside the yard?”

“Yes, that one.”

The two cleaning girls walked away as they talked, but an idea struck Yu Mingye, who had hidden behind some rocks.

After his head cooled down, he recognized the girl in his arms.

It was Feng Liu!

She was Feng Wu’s sister and he had met her in Northern Border City.

Yu Mingye remembered that Feng Wu didn’t look to be on good terms with this sister, but after all, they were family. Feng Wu would be mad at him if he strangled Feng Liu to death.

He just had to rescue her from a giant Fire Wolf. He had saved Feng Wu’s sister and he was going to claim credit for it!

Killing Feng Liu now would do him no good.

However, if he brought Feng Liu to Feng Wu... Well, Feng Wu would owe him a favor.

Hoho —

Yu Mingye was exhilarated!

According to those maids, Feng Wu lived in Fallen Star Yard now, which had a big pagoda tree outside.

Fallen Star Yard wasn’t easy to find, but a yard with a big pagoda tree in the front was easy to spot. Yu Mingye jumped onto the wall, and found the place after a quick look around.

Once he had figured that out, Yu Mingye picked up Feng Liu and headed for Fallen Star Yard right away!

Dawn had yet to break and it was that time of day when everyone was still sound asleep.

Crack —

Chapter 308: Black-Hearted

There was a faint crackling sound.

Feng Wu woke up with a start. She narrowed her eyes in the darkness, and a sharp dagger appeared in her hand!

Who was it? Who would show up at this hour?

It was too early for Lady Wang, for she wanted to ruin the reputation of Feng Wu’s branch of the clan, so she would wait until everyone was up.

So, who could it be?

Feng Wu waited by the door, the dagger in her hand glinting coldly.

Squeak —

The door opened and a figure entered stealthily.

Right at that moment, Feng Wu pressed the blade to the person's throat!

Blood squirted out!

Yu Mingye's stomach lurched!

He hadn't expected such a threat!

Tossing Feng Liu onto the ground, he quickly reached for the dagger with his right hand!

However, Feng Wu was one step ahead of him.

In the dark, she circled around to Yu Mingye's side, using a move from Phoenix Dance, then stabbed down at an acupoint on his waist!

Just then, the moon shone into the room through the open door.

Under the silver moonlight, Feng Wu made out the teenager's face.

"Yu Mingye?!"

Feng Wu cried out in surprise!

"Little Feng Wu!"

Yu Mingye was even more surprised!

Touching the shallow cut on his throat, he couldn't believe that Feng Wu had just given him that wound. This girl really was a little tiger deep down.

However, Yu Mingye wasn't what attracted Feng Wu's attention now, for under the moonlight, she spotted Feng Liu on the ground.

Feng Liu was still wrapped in Yu Mingye's robe. The belt had loosened, exposing most of her breasts, which looked rather fair and tender under the silver moonlight. She couldn't stop moaning.

Feng Wu was baffled.

Her plans always worked perfectly, for she always made sure to consider the tiniest details in advance, but could someone please explain to her: what was Feng Liu doing here?

The girl had been left with the Fire Wolf. Why was she here now?

Feng Wu narrowed her eyes and looked Yu Mingye up and down with an indecipherable expression in her eyes.

Yu Mingye was here to claim credit. Without an invitation, he sat down in a chair, crossed his legs in a conceited manner, raised his chin, and gave Feng Wu a sidelong glance. "Little Feng Wu, see that?"

Feng Wu nodded. "Yup."

Yu Mingye was gloating and failed to notice the conflicted look on Feng Wu's face. He went on flaunting his achievement. "I came to your manor tonight to... well, to take a walk."

Thinking that little Feng Wu would turn cocky if she knew that he was here tonight just for her, Yu Mingye made up a random excuse.

"I see that Young Master Yu is enjoying life," Feng Wu said in a low voice, revealing none of her conflicting emotions.

"Yup." Crossing his legs at the knees, Yu Mingye went on. "I was walking around when I heard something in the spiritual beast farm. I went to have a look and I was shocked! Your family's Fire Wolf was trying to do dirty things to this girl!"

Feng Wu took a deep breath. "... Then?"

Yu Mingye couldn't tell her that he had mistaken Feng Liu for Feng Wu and that the girl had tried to stick her tongue in his mouth, so he said, "I pushed that wolf away and saw that, oh my god, the girl who had almost been ravished was your sister!"

Feng Wu smacked her forehead!

Yu Mingye grew more excited as he went on. "I was astonished! I'm your... friend, I guess? And I couldn't just stand there and let my friend's sister be ruined by an animal! What kind of person would that make me?! Right?"

Chapter 309: Because You're Feng Wu

Gazing at Feng Wu, Yu Mingye pressed for a reply.

Despite her urge to punch him in the face, Feng Wu took a deep breath and squeezed out a smile. "... Thank you, I guess."

"You guessed correctly!" Yu Mingye was thrilled to hear a "thank you" from Feng Wu, but he feigned a displeased tone. "I assume that your sister wouldn't have gone to the Fire Wolf and tried to fornicate with it voluntarily?"

Feng Wu said, "No."

"And that Fire Wolf wouldn't have dragged your sister there by itself either?"

Feng Wu said, "No."

"I recognized the smell of Spring Breeze Powder in the air." Yu Mingye darted an unhurried look at Feng Wu. "Do you know what that is?"

Feng Wu said, "... You do realize that I'm a medicine refiner, right?"

"That's right, you're a medicine refiner. But you know what? I'm pretty sure that someone set your sister up!" Yu Mingye frowned. "Who would do such a horrible thing to a young woman? Making her fornicate with a spiritual beast? That's just... well, your sister would have been ruined if it hadn't been for me!"

Feng Wu clenched her fists. "... Yes."

"How evil is the person behind all this? They're so black-hearted! That person is rotten to the core and I bet they're too toxic inside to have any children of their own!" Yu Mingye said indignantly!

Feng Wu blanched and blushed, not sure what expression she should have on her face. She took a deep breath and said nothing. She felt like punching someone.

"Why are you drawing in your breath all the time?" Yu Mingye looked at her in confusion.

Feng Wu gave him a smile, which was more like a grimace.

Yu Mingye went back to talking about Feng Liu. "I know you and your sister don't get along, but she's still your sister and I saved her. How are you going to thank me for that? Hahahaha —"

Feng Wu was having a hard time controlling her temper and she couldn't do it anymore.

She had never been in the habit of stretching herself thin. Since she couldn't take it anymore, she decided to tell him everything. Hence, she turned her gaze on Yu Mingye and said in a cold voice, "It was me."

Yu Mingye looked bewildered. "What was you?"

"I did it." Feng Wu gave Yu Mingye a half-smile. "That black-hearted person you're talking about was me."

"Ah!"

Yu Mingye had rarely been shocked growing up, but what Feng Wu said made him jump. He shuddered and sat there as his mouth fell open.

Feng Wu gave him an indifferent sidelong glance.

Now that the truth was out, Yu Mingye should be on his way, right? After all, he was so appalled by the person that had plotted the whole thing.

Yu Mingye stared at Feng Wu unblinkingly, then —

He said angrily, "What did she do to you?!"

He didn't ask why and he didn't accuse Feng Wu of being so malicious. Instead, he was furious about whatever Feng Liu had done to Feng Wu.

Feng Wu stared at Yu Mingye. "What?"

"What did she do? Are you hurt? Any losses?" The concern in Yu Mingye's voice was genuine.

That wasn't what Feng Wu had expected and she was very surprised.

From Yu Mingye's tone earlier, the guy found the person behind all this repulsive. However, when she admitted what she had done, he worried about her well-being, instead of condemning her.

“You believe me?” Feng Wu was too bewildered to say anything else.

“Of course I do!” Yu Mingye glared at Feng Wu. “I couldn’t have cared less about her if she wasn’t your sister! That Fire Wolf could eat her whole and I wouldn’t even blink! I only saved her because she’s your sister.”

Chapter 310: Yu Mingye Is Pissed!

Feng Wu would be lying if she said she wasn’t touched.

All the silly things Yu Mingye had done looked very adorable now.

“Don’t you think that I’m a bad person?” Feng Wu kept her gaze on Yu Mingye.

Yu Mingye darted an unconcerned look at Feng Wu. “Since when were you ever a good person?”

Feng Wu was speechless.

Yu Mingye went on. “Good person or bad person, you’re little Feng Wu and I’m always on your side.”

Feng Wu was speechless.

What universe had she saved in her past life to earn such trust from Yu Mingye? They barely knew each other and she had even tricked Yu Mingye multiple times when she was disguised as the ugly girl.

Feng Wu decided that from now on, she would be nicer to Yu Mingye.

Hence, she told Yu Mingye about Feng Liu’s original plan.

Yu Mingye flared up after he heard the whole thing!

WHAT?!

That Spring Breeze Powder was meant for Feng Wu?

And it really could have been Feng Wu under that Fire Wolf?!

Yu Mingye was furious!

He went up to Feng Liu and grabbed her by her neck.

His grip was so tight that Feng Wu could hear the cracking sound Feng Liu’s neck made.

She rushed over in a hurry and took Yu Mingye’s hand. “Stop.”

Yu Mingye glared at Feng Wu. “I’m gonna kill her!”

Feng Wu snapped, “There are a million ways to kill her, but you can’t strangle her, especially not in my room.”

Yu Mingye met Feng Wu’s gaze. “Are you asking me to keep her alive?”

Feng Wu nodded. “For the time being.”

Just then, she heard some noise outside.

Feng Wu was startled, for that meant that Qiuling and Granny Zhao were up.

She would have so much explaining to do if they found Yu Mingye here. Hence, Feng Wu told Yu Mingye, "Take Feng Liu and leave now."

"But..." Yu Mingye was going to say something else when Feng Wu cut him off with a shake of her head. "Get Feng Liu out of here and we'll talk about it later."

Lady Wang would be here soon to search the house, and when that happened —

Get her out of here? Yu Mingye nodded. "Alright. I'll take care of that first and come back to talk to you —"

Feng Wu wanted to tell him not to come back after getting rid of Feng Liu, but before she could say so, Yu Mingye left as quickly as a gust of wind.

Feng Wu was speechless.

Yu Mingye was very pissed as he jumped over the wall of Fallen Star Yard.

He wasn't angry at Feng Wu, but himself.

How could he have been so stupid? Although he meant well, he had ruined Feng Wu's plan. Judging from the look on her face, she must have found him so annoying.

The more he thought about it, the more vexed he became.

So, what should he do with Feng Liu?

Toss her back to that Fire Wolf?

Yu Mingye regretted hurting that wolf so badly.

He had ruined the animal's male parts; sending Feng Liu back there wouldn't change anything.

Hence, Yu Mingye wandered along the corridor in the manor with Feng Liu in one hand.

Wait!

Yu Mingye heard the groaning and moaning of a couple when he walked past a courtyard. So, someone was doing it there... How about leaving Feng Liu here?

At that thought, Yu Mingye jumped into the yard, followed the sounds, and entered a room through a window.

By then, the couple had finished and were fast asleep.

Yu Mingye then saw a face he recognized.

He only knew a handful of people from the Feng clan, and he happened to run into every single one of them tonight.
