

G E D 331

Chapter 331: How About Making Xiao Wu the Crown Prince's Concubine?

That was exactly what Feng Yanfeng had been lamenting! He had never hated Feng Wu so much!

The royal family would never have broken off the engagement if she hadn't become crippled. And if that hadn't happened, the Feng clan wouldn't have declined so significantly until it lost its status as one of the nine major clans and become one of the nobodies.

"I was told that the crippled girl of your clan has come back to the imperial capital?" Yan asked in passing.

"Sir Yan, you know about that as well?"

Yan gave him a half-smile. "After all, she was engaged to His Royal Highness once and she'll always get unwanted attention for it. Poor kid. I can't imagine what family would want her as a daughter-in-law."

Feng Yanfeng couldn't get those words out of his head on his way back home.

No family would want Feng Wu as their daughter-in-law?

Who would dare marry a girl who had been the crown prince's fiancée once?

Flying Snow Building.

Lady Wang had calmed down since talking to Feng Wu, and her head had spun the entire afternoon. She was trying to figure out a way to get rid of Feng Wu without raising an alarm.

She set that task aside when Feng Yanfeng came back.

Feng Yanfeng had taken several concubines over the years, but thanks to her perfect superficial charms, Lady Wang had never fallen out of favor.

Seeing that Feng Yanfeng was frowning, she asked, "My lord, what's bothering you?"

Feng Yanfeng sighed. "I met the crown prince today."

Lady Wang's eyes lit up. Had her husband somehow gotten into the crown prince's circle?

Feng Yanfeng said, "I saw with my own eyes His Royal Highness come out with a girl hanging over his shoulder. After all these years, this is the first time the crown prince has shown up with a girl. It's finally the time."

Lady Wang nodded. "I see. Well, he's 18 now."

Feng Yanfeng sighed. "Xiao Wu is without cultivation and crippled now, not to mention that His Royal Highness has canceled their engagement. I can't imagine that anyone would want to marry her."

Lady Wang laughed inwardly. It was a great pleasure for her to see Feng Wu in dire straits.

“So, here’s what I’ve been thinking. How about we give Xiao Wu to His Royal Highness as a concubine?” Feng Yanfeng asked. “I’m not being boastful, but Xiao Wu is really a good-looking girl! If she puts her mind to it, there’s no reason that His Royal Highness wouldn’t like her.”

Lady Wang’s heart sank!

Even as a woman, Lady Wang had to admit that Feng Wu was a rare beauty, which was why she would never let Feng Wu go to court!

She and Feng Wu had shed all pretense of cordiality, and once Feng Wu was in the crown prince’s good graces, she might give some thought to helping the Feng clan, but Lady Wang was sure that the girl wouldn’t even blink before ruining her!

A murderous look flickered in Lady Wang’s eyes, but she still beamed at Feng Yanfeng. “My lord, I’m not sure that would be appropriate...”

“Why?” Feng Yanfeng’s eyes widened. “If His Royal Highness really likes Xiao Wu, I won’t have to beg around for a same-level transfer from the Ministry of Rites to the Ministry of Official Personnel! His Royal Highness can make it happen with a flick of his finger! What do you have to lose if His Royal Highness doesn’t like her? She’s an abandoned pawn anyway.”

Having dealt with Feng Wu herself, Lady Wang knew how tough an enemy Feng Wu was and she wasn’t going to give Feng Wu more opportunities!

However, Feng Yanfeng was really stubborn at the moment... trying to persuade him would only push him further away from Lady Wang.

The longer he thought about it, the more excited Feng Yanfeng became. He smacked the table and rose to his feet. “You know what? I need to tell Xiao Wu this great news now! Oh, and start working on Xiao Wu’s new clothes and jewelry.”

Feng Yanfeng hurried off after that.

Chapter 332: That’s Biting, Not Kissing!

Lady Wang almost snapped as she watched her husband hurry off.

Was he in a rush to tell Feng Wu, or was he too eager to see someone else?!!!

Meanwhile, Feng Wu was hanging over Jun Linyuan’s shoulder.

An excited voice was ringing in her head.

It was Little Phoenix, who was shouting at her. “Can you feel it? Can you feel it?”

“What?” Feng Wu was bewildered and replied in her head.

Little Phoenix was squeaking in excitement. “That man that showed up just then, he had something spectacular on him!”

“So?” Feng Wu wasn’t very interested.

“It was one of the key pieces to waking up your master! Do you want to save him or not?”

“What?!” Feng Wu almost jumped to her feet. “Yes! Yes, I do!”

Feng Wu got carried away and cried out loudly.

By now, Jun Linyuan had stuffed Feng Wu into the carriage and was bending down toward her when Feng Wu cried out, “I do.”

Jun Linyuan smirked and caressed Feng Wu’s smooth cheek with his calloused fingertips, his voice husky. “You do?”

Feng Wu was startled by Jun Linyuan’s hot breath on her cheeks!

When she came back to herself, she realized that Jun Linyuan was way too close. His face was right in front of hers, to the point that she could accidentally kiss him —

“Kiss him! Kiss! Now!!!” Little Phoenix squeaked. It would be shoving on the back of Feng Wu’s head if it was outside now!

However, Feng Wu pushed Jun Linyuan away and dashed diagonally to the corner on the other side of the carriage.

It was as far away as she could get inside this carriage.

Little Phoenix felt like crying!

“Gosh! It’s not like you haven’t kissed him before! You’ve done it three times already! What difference will it make to do it again?” Little Phoenix cried out.

“Kiss him and I can get out of here! I’ll be able to protect you and fly you around! Just kiss him! I’m begging you!”

Feng Wu pursed her lips and shook her head repeatedly. “He kissed me just then in Beyond World. Why are you still not out?”

“Geeze! You call that a kiss? You were biting him! Your tongue has to touch his to lure that abnormal flame to your side when his guard is down! Pull yourself together!”

Feng Wu wanted to cry!

She didn’t want to pull anything!

Jun Linyuan raised his thick, straight eyebrows and stared at Feng Wu with his brooding eyes. He then smiled and beckoned at Feng Wu with a finger. “Get over here.”

“No!” Feng Wu held onto the wall of the carriage and refused adamantly.

“I’ll go to you, then.” Jun Linyuan rose to his feet.

Seeing this, Feng Wu turned around and tried to jump out of the carriage!

However, she didn’t stand a chance when Jun Linyuan was around.

No one knew what happened, but before Feng Wu realized it, she was lying flat on her back. The next second, Jun Linyuan fell on top of her.

“Hm —”

Feng Wu grunted and grabbed onto Jun Linyuan’s arms involuntarily.

His impeccable face was right in front of her.

His straight eyebrows were full and dark.

His eyelashes were dense and curly.

His bright eyes were mesmerizing, and right now, they were staring at her, which reminded her of a cheetah looking at its prey!

Feng Wu’s stomach lurched!

Little Phoenix had lost hope already!

It was venting its grudges inwardly about how cowardly its master was, when the crown prince took the initiative and pinned Feng Wu down.

“Kiss! Kiss! Kiss!” Little Phoenix hooted like a cheerleader.

“You tripped me on purpose.” Jun Linyuan blamed his victim first.

Feng Wu blinked. How she missed that old Jun Linyuan, who was aloof, detached, and treated her as if she didn’t exist...

Chapter 333: Feng Wu, You Wild Thing

Jun Linyuan’s stunning face moved closer and closer and Feng Wu could feel his hot breath on her face.

Their lips almost touched when —

Feng Wu put her hand over her mouth.

And Jun Linyuan’s lips landed on the back of her hand.

The skin on her hand was so fair that her fingertips seemed transparent. He had an impulse to take them into his mouth.

Feng Wu glared at Jun Linyuan. He had completely overpowered her and there was nothing she could do about it!

It was more than the difference in physical strength between men and women, but the demonstration of the chasm between their capabilities!

Feng Wu had never hated Zuo Qingluan like she did now!

She had been of the same cultivation level as Jun Linyuan back then. Had it not been for Zuo Qingluan, who had destroyed Feng Wu's True Phoenix Blood, Feng Wu would never be this helpless. The thought frustrated Feng Wu greatly and she glared at Jun Linyuan with her limpid bright eyes.

The teenage girl was an unparalleled beauty to begin with. Right now, her flushed cheeks and the aggrieved look on her face could soften the toughest heart.

Jun Linyuan's slender fingers moved into action and he began to undo Feng Wu's clothes.

Feng Wu's back stiffened right away!

Angry and scared, she caught Jun Linyuan's hands involuntarily and cried out, "Jun Linyuan! What do you think — hm —"

Before she could finish her sentence, Jun Linyuan had lowered his head and covered her mouth with his.

Feng Wu's eyes widened and her pupils contracted!

It was a distraction!

Jun Linyuan was so... evil! How could he do that?!

Feng Wu was almost in tears and the rims of her eyes turned red.

However, Little Phoenix was flailing its wings in the ring frantically as it prompted Feng Wu, "It's already happening, so make full use of it! Otherwise, you'll be wasting the opportunity!"

Feng Wu could no longer think straight. Blood rushed to her head and she was overwhelmed with her rage!

He was kissing her anyway so the hell with it! She would make something out of it!

At that thought, Feng Wu put a slim arm around Jun Linyuan's neck and pressed the back of his head down with the other hand. She pulled Jun Linyuan down toward her with all her strength!

If this was a contest, she wasn't going to let him win!

No longer holding herself back, Feng Wu wrapped herself around Jun Linyuan and gnawed on his mouth!

Jun Linyuan stiffened and blood rushed to his head.

He had never seen Feng Wu as wild as this... and it was, well, a pleasant surprise.

Jun Linyuan gloated after the initial shock.

Feng Xun was right. Little Feng Wu was crazy about him. Despite her repeated refusals, her body had betrayed her.

Somewhere deep in Feng Wu's mind, where Jun Linyuan couldn't see —

"Kiss him! Yes! 50% now! 55%! 60%... Yes! Almost there! Just a little bit longer! Hold on there and keep breathing. Yes, breathe in —"

Little Phoenix was so nervous and excited at the same time!

Soon, that little flame in Feng Wu's mind was going to grow into a complete abnormal flame and with that, Little Phoenix would be able to leave this place, hahaha —

This was so unnerving! Little Phoenix's heart pounded, fearing that something would happen to intrude on them.

“80%, 85%, 90% —”

Little Phoenix's exhilarated voice kept ringing in Feng Wu's head!

Chapter 334: Feng Wu Was... So Crazy About Him!

Feng Wu was trembling all over. She was completely absorbed in the kiss and had forgotten all about herself and where she was... All she knew was that she had to keep sucking that fire out of Jun Linyuan and she wouldn't let go of his tongue!

Jun Linyuan tried to stop several times, but Feng Wu wouldn't allow it!

Before they realized it, Feng Wu was on the top and straddling Jun Linyuan!

The crown prince was completely baffled...

He knew that Feng Wu liked him, but he had no idea that Feng Wu was so... crazy about him!

It was as if... she wanted to eat him whole. How wild...

“97%! 98%! 99%! 100%! Ahhh —”

As soon as Little Phoenix cried out that last syllable —

Feng Wu felt as if a fireball had exploded in her head.

Rumble —

Feng Wu, who had lost herself in the kiss, slumped back all of a sudden. She let go of Jun Linyuan and almost fell over.

The crown prince was going to taunt Feng Wu, but he immediately realized that something wasn't right.

“Feng Wu! Little Feng Wu! Wake up —”

Feng Wu lay still on the floor with her eyes shut and her face pale. She was barely breathing!

The crown prince, who had always been able to keep his composure no matter what, was flustered for the first time!

Lifting the curtain of his carriage, he cried out, “We're going back! Now!”

Chang San was the one driving the carriage.

He was deeply perturbed by the fear in the crown prince's voice!

Fear? The crown prince that could terrorize his victims with just the sound of his name was actually capable of expressing fear? Chang San couldn't imagine it!

He had only just been able to turn the horses around when he felt the carriage become lighter. Looking back, he saw that Jun Linyuan and Feng Wu were no longer inside.

"Your Royal Highness!" Chang San cried out in surprise!

However, with Feng Wu in his arms, Jun Linyuan had already jumped onto the roof!

The streets of the imperial capital were planned in such a way that they all led in one direction. The eastern main street could lead one straight to the Forbidden City!

Right now, a figure skimmed over the roofs along the eastern main road at lightning speed, so fast that those who spotted it thought that they were hallucinating.

Jun Linyuan had wrapped Feng Wu in his thick cape as he ran along the edges of the roofs, so as to keep her from the cold rain.

The royal palace, the bureau of physicians.

It was safe to say that the best medicine refiners of all in the imperial capital, if not the entire Junwu Empire, worked here.

The most junior ones here were Senior Medicine Refiners and the majority were of the Master level. As for the head of the bureau, he was a Master Refiner.

Right now, the medicine refiners were discussing the Empress Dowager's malady.

"Her Majesty caught a cold, that's all. You're overdoing it with your prescription." Master Bai frowned.

"A cold? That's just the superficial symptoms. Her Majesty has long been suffering from a hidden disease that this cold is going to set off. If I've guessed correctly, a series of symptoms will follow —" Master Hei frowned.

The heated discussion continued when —

"Bang!"

Someone kicked the door hard.

The bureau was a well-equipped institute, but the thick door plate came off at that kick!

"Who is that?!"

"How dare you act wildly in this place? Do you have a death wish?!"

—

However, they saw the crown prince when they turned to look. He stood there like a fiend, giving off a bone-chilling air.

WTF!

Everyone blanched, especially Masters Bai and Hei, who had scolded the intruder. Both fell to their knees.

Chapter 335: Jun Linyuan the Bully

“Your – Your Royal Highness...”

Fear of Jun Linyuan had never stemmed from his prestigious status, but his unfathomable capability, his intimidating demeanor, and his unpredictable temper.

Bathed in light from behind, Jun Linyuan looked stunning.

His stood there towering over the others in his luxurious cape.

In his arms, Feng Wu looked as tiny as a child.

“Master Chu!” Jun Linyuan called out in an authoritative tone and scanned the room with his piercing eyes. The look on his face was resolute and emotionless.

Right now, no one could tell how frightened he actually was, for they were all too scared to even look up at him.

Master Bai smiled bitterly. They would rather treat the emperor himself than the terrifying crown prince.

However, as the most senior medicine refiner in the room, Master Bai had no choice but to force himself to step out. “Your Royal Highness, to what do we owe this pleasure —”

“Get me Chu Bai! You can all start looking for new jobs if he’s not here in fifteen minutes.” It was very rare for the reticent Jun Linyuan to say that much in one sentence.

However, to the others, the words were like bullets hitting their chests.

Master Bai and the others grimaced. Medicine refiners were supposed to enjoy a higher status than cultivators. However, even Master Chu, their head, had to bend to the crown prince’s will.

“Of course. I’ll go get Master Chu now —”

Master Bai rushed out, fleeing from the crown prince’s piercing gaze.

The rest of the medicine refiners tried to excuse themselves from the room as well when Jun Linyuan pointed at Master Hei. “You, come here. Treat her.”

Master Hei’s forehead was covered with sweat. It was too late to run away now and his only option was to do as told. “Your Royal Highness, please lay the young lady on the bed so that I can feel her pulse.”

“You can’t do it when I’m carrying her?” Jun Linyuan darted a grim look at Master Hei.

“Yes... of course I can!” Master Hei shuddered and stood at attention!

The others exchanged looks of bewilderment...

Who on earth was this young woman, whose face was buried in the crown prince's cape?

Didn't the crown prince hate it when other women touched him?

But he was willing to go through all this trouble now just for her?

Immediately, everyone was intrigued by this girl half-hidden in the cape, but they kept their curiosity to themselves and would only steal glances at her out of the corners of their eyes.

Master Bai ran as fast as he could!

Meanwhile, Master Chu was treating his patient elsewhere.

"Congratulations, Your Majesty. You're with child," Master Chu said in an impassive voice.

The empress, on the other hand, burst into joyful tears. "I'm pregnant... I'm giving the emperor a son..."

"Mother, please don't get too excited. We need to watch out for your mood now." A pretty teenage girl with rosy lips and white teeth stood beside Empress Gao. She was the third daughter of the emperor.

The princess had always been a willful girl. But now, she was all smiles and kind-looking, which was very rare for her.

Just then, Empress Gao's servant hurried in. "Your Majesty, Master Bai is outside —"

Before he could finish, Master Bai had rushed into the room like a gust of wind. He grabbed Master Chu by the arm and dragged the latter away, yelling, "Master Chu! Hurry up! The crown prince is tearing the bureau apart!"

Master Chu's unperturbed face turned grim right away. "His Royal Highness?"

"Yes! That's right! His Royal Highness is angry and there will be consequences! Come quickly!" Master Bai was almost in tears!

The crown prince was a man of his word, especially when it came to the promises he made. His words were sometimes more credible than an imperial edict!

He wasn't joking about taking the bureau apart.

Chapter 336: It's Driving Little Phoenix Crazy!

Master Chu knew too well to defy the crown prince's order. He didn't even ask for permission to leave before dashing out. "Come, quickly —"

Master Bai and Master Chu were out of sight in the blink of an eye, leaving Empress Gao and the princess behind, who eyed each other in bewilderment.

The excited look on Empress Gao's face was immediately replaced by rage!

"Jun Linyuan! Him again!" Empress Gao clenched her fists so tightly that her fingernails dug into her palms. "Was he born into this world just to annoy me?!"

The princess was equally infuriated. "He's doing it on purpose! I'm sure of it! He took the imperial physician away as soon as he heard about your pregnancy! Mother, he's abominable!"

However, talking about Jun Linyuan behind his back was all that Third Princess was bold enough to do. She was like a kitten when the crown prince was around.

"What on earth is going on?" Empress Gao darted a piercing look at the chief steward.

The chief steward replied with a bow, "According to Master Bai, His Royal Highness arrived at the bureau of physicians with a young woman —"

A young woman?!

The princess's pupils contracted and she rose to her feet. "I'll go have a look!"

Master Chu ran as fast as he could and was finally able to reach the bureau within the time limit.

"Your Royal Highness —"

He was still panting when Jun Linyuan glanced at him with his emotionless eyes. "Need some rest?"

"No, of course not. One minute. I'll be right there —"

Master Chu wouldn't act so timidly even around the emperor himself. However, one cold look from Jun Linyuan and he felt frozen to the core. How could anyone say no to this teenager?

After taking a deep breath to calm himself down, Master Chu felt Feng Wu's pulse.

His eyebrows knitted tighter and tighter.

"What do you see?" Jun Linyuan's eyes seemed to spit fire and Master Chu feared that the crown prince would explode as soon as he said something the latter didn't like.

Avoiding Jun Linyuan's eyes and keeping his gaze on the latter's nose, Master Chu said, "The young lady has a fire poison in her head and it's spreading... If we don't do something to stop it, I'm afraid..."

"What?!"

Little poisonous arrows were shooting out of the crown prince's eyes now!

Despite how flustered he was, Master Chu managed to finish the sentence. "If we let the fire poison spread... even if the young lady can survive it, she'll become... a retard."

The next second!

A pair of strong hands wrapped around Master Chu's neck and a cold voice rang out. "Anything happens to her, you're all going down with her! I'm not going to repeat it."

And the crown prince always meant what he said.

Everyone knew that, which was why all the physicians in the room dropped to their knees!

They wanted to cry, but no tears would come. Even His Majesty wouldn't have such scarce regard for human life!

The thought of going to His Majesty for help crossed their minds, but they then remembered that when the crown prince was enraged, even the emperor himself would back off... For a moment, everyone despaired.

Master Chu said in a hurry, "I can do it! I can! We'll just eradicate the fire poison!"

"Do it," the crown prince said with an impassive face.

Poor Feng Wu. She had passed out and had no idea what they were going to do to her hard-earned achievement...

The eradication of the fire poison needed to be carried out with great care!

Little Phoenix thought that it was going to lose its mind!

After everything Feng Wu had done at the cost of using herself as bait, they were finally able to get enough of that external energy to complete the little abnormal flame —

Little Phoenix was going to consume that abnormal flame when —

It realized in frustration that someone was trying to take it away!

Chapter 337: Why Is Life So Hard

Taking the flame away? Not in a million years! Little Phoenix turned the abnormal flame into the shape of a rope and wrapped it around itself. It held tightly onto the rope and wouldn't let go no matter what!

Master Chu's forehead was covered with sweat. His face went pale and he had a bitter taste in his mouth.

Jun Linyuan stared at him grimly. "Can you do it or not?!"

Master Chu was almost in tears and he said in a trembling voice, "Your Royal Highness, there's something strange about the fire poison... It seems to have taken root and I can't get it out —"

He was able to loosen it a little at first, but soon, it was like having a tug of war. He couldn't pull it out no matter how hard he tried.

After asking Master Chu exactly what he had to do to remove the poison, Jun Linyuan put a palm on Feng Wu's forehead.

No one had any idea how he did it, but when he lifted his hand away from her forehead, there was a string of golden flame between his index and middle fingers.

Master Chu waved his fists in excitement. "Yes! Yes, that's it! That's the fire poison!"

Meanwhile, Little Phoenix was almost in tears!

It had no idea what was happening, but it couldn't stop spinning as the rope of flame was drawn away. It felt like an unraveled sweater.

The spinning made the bird nauseated, but there was nothing it could do. That formidable power took control of the flame and it went on spinning —

What a frightening teenager!

How terrifying his power was!

He was able to penetrate Feng Wu's mind and take control of the flame!

Little Phoenix wasn't Jun Linyuan's match at all and the flame disappeared completely in a matter of seconds.

"My abnormal flame —"

Little Phoenix was really in tears now!

It had no idea why life was so hard.

It was supposed to have that first abnormal flame after the volcano erupted, but Feng Tutu and Jun Rex ended up taking it.

Then, it had managed to gather enough pieces to put together this abnormal flame, but somehow, it was sabotaged again!

Thud!

Little Phoenix passed out from all the grievances.

Jun Linyuan looked surprised when he took the fire poison out. Wasn't that flame his own fire energy? How come it was in Feng Wu's head?

He didn't think much of it, but only kneaded the string into a ball.

"The fire poison is eradicated and the young lady should wake up in two hours —"

Master Chu wiped the sweat off his forehead and heaved a sigh of relief.

He felt as if he had just narrowly escaped death.

Jun Linyuan darted one last look at him before turning to leave, carrying Feng Wu in his arms.

Master Chu and the others were all so relieved to see him leave —

However, right at that moment.

"Brother —"

A sweet voice rang out and Third Princess walked into the room. Smiling brightly, she kept her gaze on Feng Wu.

"Brother, why are you here in the bureau of physicians? Who is this young lady? Do I know her? Why —"

Jun Linyuan didn't even look at her. Still holding Feng Wu, he walked out of the bureau and disappeared out of sight in no time.

The princess, the most favored daughter of the emperor, had been completely ignored.

That was Jun Linyuan's most honest response.

The princess's face turned livid and she felt utterly humiliated!

"What are you all looking at?!" Infuriated, the princess vented on the physicians of the bureau.

They were lambs around Jun Linyuan, but the princess was a different story.

Especially Master Chu, who needed to vent his anger somewhere, and the princess seemed the perfect target.

Chapter 338: How Can He Do That?!

Master Chu smirked. "Very impressive, Your Royal Highness. I see that Ma'am won't need our assistance from now on!"

Master Chu spoke in a taunting voice.

Physicians were quite prestigious figures in court, and even as the favorite daughter of the emperor, the princess wouldn't be able to justify her attitude if the emperor asked about this incident.

Master Chu wasn't the only one. The rest of the physicians all threw dirty looks at the princess.

Other people might be intimidated by her, but not the bureau of physicians!

"You, you people — how dare you talk to me like that —"

Feeling aggrieved, the princess stomped her foot and ran away, crying.

Master Bai spat on the floor. "Does she think she's the same as the crown prince?"

Jun Linyuan had a hall of his own in the royal palace as well as an individual residence outside.

The crown prince was supposed to live in the palace and not move out like the other princes even if he was old enough. However, the name Jun Linyuan meant that he wasn't going to be treated like everyone else.

Others lived by the rules. As for him, well, rules didn't apply to him.

Hence, the crown prince had a manor outside.

And it was where he usually stayed.

Feng Wu opened her eyes as soon as Jun Linyuan put her down on the bed.

Actually, Feng Wu was woken up by Little Phoenix's cries!

Poor little bird.

It had been looking forward to this day, and when it finally happened... that little abnormal flame was recognized as fire poison and was removed. Just like that!

“Waa —”

Little Phoenix sat on the ground, kicked around, and cried at the top of its lungs in Feng Wu’s mind. The sound was ear-splitting!

It gave Feng Wu a headache and she had a hard time focusing!

“You’re awake?”

Night had set in and the room was lit up by candles. In the dim light, Jun Linyuan’s stunning face looked unbelievably attractive.

Feng Wu stared at Jun Linyuan, confused. Her bright eyes looked almost glassy.

For right now, Little Phoenix was venting its grievances in her head!

“Ahhh — How could he do that?! How could he?! Ahhh —” Little Phoenix rolled around in frustration and curled into a ball. It pounded the floor as it cried. “I was so close to consuming it! So close! He then took it away from me! He took it! Ahhh —”

Little Phoenix didn’t try to keep its voice down at all. To Feng Wu, it was as loud as rumbling thunder.

WHAT?!

Feng Wu was genuinely baffled after she learned what had happened.

They had removed it?!

After everything she had done — she had kissed Jun Linyuan for it, for Christ’s sake — they had removed that abnormal flame from her mind?!

Feng Wu was wide awake and she bolted upright!

Thud!

Jun Linyuan was bending over when Feng Wu sat up and her smooth forehead smashed into Jun Linyuan’s nose.

Anyone else would have covered their nose and cried out in pain.

However, Jun Linyuan acted as if nothing happened. Feng Wu, on the other hand, was disoriented from the impact and she could see stars.

Seeing that Feng Wu was going to fall out of bed, Jun Linyuan steadied her.

Feng Wu grabbed Jun Linyuan’s hands and glared at him. “Jun Linyuan! Why did you have to do that?!”

Jun Linyuan had zero idea what she was talking about. He stared at Feng Wu with unblinking eyes.

Chapter 339: What Did I Do?!

Feng Wu glared at Jun Linyuan. “Why did you do that to me?! Do you know how much it cost me? And you just took it away like that!”

Jun Linyuan was anything but good-natured.

Growing up, no one had ever dared snap at him.

In other words, he had never been wronged.

He didn't know what that felt like.

The crown prince narrowed his eyes and stared at Feng Wu.

Feng Wu was even more exasperated by his silence. "Speak! Why did you do it? Why me? Are you so proud of yourself for playing me like this? Are you happy now? Satisfied?"

Jun Linyuan had lived an indulgent life growing up. For as long as he could remember, even his own father, the emperor, had never made him do anything against his will.

He kept his brooding gaze on Feng Wu and said in a husky, warning voice, "Feng Wu, you're pushing it."

Feng Wu broke into angry laughter. "Me? Pushing it? After everything you've done to me, I'm pushing it? Jun Linyuan, you're unbelievable. Do you think everyone has to obey everything you say and you can do whatever you like to everyone else?"

"What did I do?" Jun Linyuan glared at Feng Wu, his voice intimidating.

"You know perfectly well what you did after I fainted!" Throwing Jun Linyuan's hands off, Feng Wu stormed off. After a few steps, she took a deep breath, turned around, and looked into Jun Linyuan's eyes. "I don't ever want to see you again! You disgust me!!!"

Thud!

Feng Wu slammed the door behind her!

She then marched off furiously!

Outside, a group of men stood in the corridor and they were all astonished!

Especially Chang San, the captain of the crown prince's guards, who was dumbfounded. He thought that his brain had stopped working...

His Royal Highness had just been shouted at... Someone had shouted at him...

And that person had slammed the crown prince's door...

What was more frightening was that the person was able to leave the prince's residence alive...

How incredible!

Meanwhile, Jun Linyuan was seething with anger and a draught seemed to sweep through the manor.

Everyone shivered.

Jun Linyuan was furious!

The door that Feng Wu had slammed shut exploded all of a sudden!

Chang San felt as if his heart had been blasted into pieces as well...

The crown prince seldom lost his temper, but when he did, it would make everyone shiver with fear.

“Mr. Feng, that’s...” Chang San tugged Feng’s sleeve. “Is His Royal Highness going to be alright?”

Given how reserved and taciturn Jun Linyuan was, he would sulk rather than give vent to his anger. Even if he had to lash out, he would find some remote corner to do it...

And it was indeed a habit worth worrying about.

Rubbing his forehead, Feng went up to his master in resignation. “Your Royal Highness...”

Jun Linyuan glared at Feng and exploded. “What did I do? I saved her!”

Feng nodded repeatedly. “Yes. Yes, of course...”

“If I hadn’t taken her to the royal palace, and I let the fire poison take effect, she would be a retard now!”

Feng nodded repeatedly. “Yes. Yes, of course...”

“And she blamed me for it? That woman doesn’t make any sense!”

Feng nodded repeatedly. “Yes. Yes, of course...”

“She said she doesn’t ever want to see me again? Do I look like I want to see her?!”

Feng nodded repeatedly. “Yes. Yes, of course...”

Chang San was dumbfounded once more!

No! No, this wasn’t happening!

Chapter 340: This Crown Prince...

The crown prince was supposed to watch the world fall apart without so much as turning a hair. What did His Majesty used to say about his son?

The emperor had concluded that the crown prince would frown even if the emperor himself died in front of him. However, he was now acting like a grumpy kid...

Yes, and he was complaining as well.

That was something that had never happened before!

Just when Chang San thought that hearing Jun Linyuan complaining was shocking enough —

Thud!

There was a loud thump!

Chang San watched as his master kicked a table to pieces.

OMG!

Was he seeing things? What happened to their crown prince? He didn't act so childish or willfully even when he was three years old... But now, he was venting on a table?

Chang San couldn't help but follow Miss Wu with his eyes.

Feng came out soon.

Taking Feng's arm, Chang San asked in amazement, "Mr. Feng, His Royal Highness... is acting so strangely today."

Feng darted a glance at him. "What are you getting at?"

"Mr. Feng, here's what I think." Chang San offered his opinion. "Since His Royal Highness is so mad at Miss Wu, how about I cut her head off to cheer him up?"

Instantly!

Chang San's muscles stiffened and he felt as if his blood had curdled!

Feng's indifferent gaze suddenly turned very solemn and intense!

Staring at Chang San, he stressed each word with a voice that wasn't loud, but was terrifying.

"You're welcome to try if you want to get yourself, your family, and your entire clan killed."

Feng left after that, leaving Chang San behind, transfixed.

He kept replaying Feng's words in his head...

In other words, if he killed Miss Wu, he would die, together with his family and the whole clan?!

Feng Wu had no idea of what happened after she left.

She was mad, really mad.

After all her efforts, she had just been one step short of success.

Jun Linyuan had robbed her of the abnormal flame she had painstakingly gathered and had given her that attitude of "I'm doing it for your own good." It couldn't be any more frustrating!

Feng Wu was so furious that she still looked pissed when she jumped over the wall into her own yard.

Granny Zhao was startled by the look on Feng Wu's face. "Miss, you heard as well?"

"What?" Feng Wu was bewildered. "Where's mum?"

Granny Zhao looked upset. "She's been crying since she heard the news and I was finally able to put her to sleep after she got exhausted."

Feng Wu's heart sank. Something had happened.

"What's wrong? Did someone come this afternoon? Was it Lady Wang?" Feng Wu drew out a chair and let Granny Zhao sit down.

With a grim face, Granny Zhao told her about Feng Yanfeng's visit. "... Your uncle said that we need to get you prepared. He'll find a chance to get you close to the crown prince so that you can offer yourself to him as a concubine."

Feng Wu shook with anger!

How dare he!

"Miss Wu, where are you going?" Granny Zhao feared that Feng Wu would get told off if she went to Feng Yanfeng to argue with him.

Feng Wu took a deep breath. "I'm going to take a walk."

She wasn't going to shout at Feng Yanfeng, for she knew her sycophantic uncle too well. To him, his personal gain was more important than anything else.

What she needed to figure out now was whether Feng Yanfeng had come up with this on his own or whether Jun Linyuan was behind it.