Chapter 641

It broke Genevieve's reverie when she seemed to hear Landon calling out to her. "What did you say?"

"I advise you not to dwell on the past since Armand is already gone, a beautiful and intelligent woman like you should look ahead. If you don't have a boyfriend, how about considering my son?" Landon suggested eagerly.

"Huh?" Genevieve was stunned.

Landon opened his photo album to show her his son's picture. "Isn't Timothy Jensen your friend? My son was from the same medical university as him. He's good-looking and works in the cardiac surgery department here."

Staring at the dignified and venter-looking man in the picture, Genevieve twitched her lips. "Ah! Dr. Sitler! I know him."

It never crossed her mind that Jermaine was Landon's son.

Landon patted his thigh and responded jubilantly, "Oh! Do you know him? It's a small world!"

"Your son's birthday party" Genevieve explained. Even so, it was already a few years ago. She could Genevieve took over his phone and read Jane's mail.

It said: Coop, by the time you receive this email, I might already be gone forever. Don't be sad. I've been on medication since young. It's already a blessing for me to be able to stay alive till now. If you truly love me, I hope you can keep me in your heart. It's good enough if you can think about me at times. Didn't you ask me why I was overjoyed after stepping out of the hospital with Genev that day? Dr. Sirler told me he had performed surgeries for other patients like me before and could help me with that too. However, it's high-risk surgery. Even if I'm able to survive it, I can only live for four more years at most. I told him I wanted to have this surgery. It's because I yearn to be together with you. The world is beyond imagination, and there are countless picturesque sceneries for us to explore. I wish to have some memorable moments of pleasure with you everywhere. At the same time, I can't help but think how nice it would be if we could meet a few years earlier. Nevertheless, I'm well aware that you might not belong to me even if we got to know each other earlier. Coop, don't you think that time is something incredible? Because of it, we might come across someone we wish to love deeply for our lifetime at any moment.

center. However, I knew Xavier had escaped from prison even before she updated me on any findings. I understand that you've been keeping it from me, fearing I'll be worried about it. But don't you know that I'm worried sick about you too? I'm clueless about who's backing Xavier up in the shadows. He got my phone number and sent me a message, telling me he escaped from prison and is targeting you. On top of that, he claims that someone is helping him, and it's as easy as snapping his fingers for him to lay a finger on you. No words can describe how terrified I am. Armand is gone forever. If anything happens to you too, what is Genev going to do? Since I only have a fifty percent chance of survival during the surgery, I think I should do something more meaningful. Coop. I'm thankful to be by your side all this while. It's such a shame that I can't accompany

"It must be Sylvie Clasen. I suppose she found out about it. Doesn't she realize she will only trigger our suspicion that she's not Old Mr. Zeigler's granddaughter by doing so?" Genevieve pointed out confidently with a look of sheer somberness. If she has the gut to impersonate Old Mr. Zeigler's granddaughter; the Zeigler family surely would let her off the hook!

Cooper massaged his temples that started to throb and reminded her grimly, "All the bodyguards by Sylvie Clasen's side are retired special forces. Hence, it's no easy feat to obtain her hair with follicles or blood."

“There will always be a way. Since she’s an actress, she’ll have to enter the filming site despite anything.” Genevieve stated matter-of-factly.

Right that instant, Genevieve’s phone rang.

It was a ‘call from Jermaine. Startled, she answered it right away. “Dr. Sitler?”

Jermaine cut to the chase on the other end. “Sylvie Clasen is not Old Mr. Zeigler’s granddaughter. I’m supposed to have told you long ago, but...”

There was intense agony amid guilt in his tone as he added, “She even demanded me to fake an accident so Jane could meet her end during her surgery. It never occurred to me that she would meet her tragic fate before her surgery.”

Afraid Timothy would grow suspicious, Genevieve added, “I came to the hospital in the morning to visit Jojo and ran into Mr. Lebon. That was when I discovered that Dr. Sitler’s father is Landon, who was previously one of the largest shareholders in Central Group. Not long after I arrived home, I received a call from Dr. Sitler. We chatted briefly. I didn’t know this would happen to him.”

Timothy told her, “Mr. Lebon has two sons. He sent his biological sons overseas a few years ago, and Jermaine is his adopted son. He was the one who brought Jermaine up.”

Surprise flitted across Genevieve’s face. However, she couldn’t help but feel sad for him.

Through the brief conversation she had with Jermaine, Genevieve found out that he had been working for Sylvie. Alas, he ended up dying in Sylvie's hands.

On the other hand, Sylvie received the news when she had just arrived at the film set. She could barely hide her shock.

Gripping her phone, she hurried into her personal dressing room and demanded in a low voice, "How did Jermaine die?"

The man on the other end of the line reported. "A deranged man killed him accidentally. I wiretapped Jermaine's phone and realized he was talking to Genevieve. After I interrupted his phone signal, he came out of the restroom and ran into the lunatic. The man stabbed him a few times, and he died on the spot."

Lucian was sensitive enough to realize that both men were at odds.

He pulled the door to the car open to clear the tension in the air. "It's freezing. Mr. Valentine, let's get into the car. Uncle Cooper, you should join us, too."

Cooper didn't want Amanda to freeze, so he waited until Lucian crawled into the car before he entered the car with Amanda in his arms.

After placing the luggage in the trunk, Genevieve was about to get into the car when Cooper said, "Genev, you have a cold. Tell Mr. Valentine to drive the car. He slept over ten hours in the plane and needs to loosen up."

"My nose is stuffy, that's all." Jack was used to being waited upon, so there was no way Genevieve would let him drive the car.

In response, Cooper whipped his head around to stare at Jack. "Mr. Valentine, is this how you dote on my sister? She has a cold. Can't you drive the car?"

Instead of starting a fight with Cooper, Jack told Genevieve to sit in the passenger seat.

Lucian's brows snapped together as he glanced at the crowd behind them.

He was observant enough to think that the person following them wasn't one of their bodyguards. The person kept a distance from them and didn't seem to harbor any ill intention toward them.

Lucian didn't want Genevieve to worry and didn't reveal his thoughts to her.

A few steps later, they arrived at the hospital.

Timothy had a surgery that day. The nurse told them that he had been in the operating room since morning. Thus, Genevieve brought the kids to Johanna's ward.

Amanda had never heard about Johanna. The latter was lying in bed peacefully with a protruding belly.

Unwilling to disturb her, Amanda asked softly, "Mommy, is Aunt Jojo sleeping?"

Genevieve led the twins to the bed and responded gently, "Yes. Aunt Jojo is weak, so she has been sleeping here for some time. She's going to give birth to a baby soon."

"Does that mean I can try the dessert made by the owner?" Amanda tilted her head. "Mommy, my wish came true!"

The waitress led Genevieve into the shop and gave her the menu.

Genevieve remembered that the matcha mille crepe that she tried last time was delicious, so she ordered the same thing and handed the menu to Amanda.

“Lucian, what do you want?” Amanda asked.

“I’m not eating.” Lucian wasn’t interested in desserts, so he sat on the couch and played a game on his phone.

The table wasn’t tall, so Genevieve poked her head over and realized he was playing the checkers game. She was both speechless and amused.

“You’ve been addicted to this game for quite a while, huh?” she commented.

Two months ago, Lucian was playing this game when she paid them a visit at Dartan. He was still playing this game stubbornly.

Amanda inched nearer to take a look at his phone. Smugly, she declared, “Lucian developed this game, but he isn’t Daddy’s match. Daddy’s the best!”

The sight of the Lego reminded Genevieve of the day she spent with Bruce previously.

As her heart clenched, her gaze turned icy. "No. My friend joined an event during Christmas and won the Lego set as the first prize."

Amanda lifted her head to stare at Genevieve. "That's amazing! Mommy, who is this friend of yours?"

"Oh, just an ordinary friend." As Lucian was happily unboxing the Lego, Genevieve brought Amanda to the bathroom to wash up.

The next day, Genevieve woke up early to prepare breakfast for the kids.

Patting Amanda’s soft cheek, Bruce responded gently: “Mandy, you shouldn’t trust me just because I’m your uncle’s friend. I might be a bad guy. You need to put your guard up before your mommy and uncle’s friends, understand?”

Amanda nodded obediently. She shot Bruce a stumped look. “Are you a bad guy, Mr. Gable? Can I still talk to you?”

Bruce chuckled. “Of course, you can.”

Beaming, Amanda climbed onto a seat and told Bruce to sit next to her. She pulled out a piece of palmier from her bag and gave it to him.

“The owner of a dessert shop baked these for me. They are delicious!”

Before going to bed last night, Amanda ate one in secret. She also stuffed a few in her bag this morning.

Amanda stared at the palmier in Bruce’s hand reluctantly and consoled herself, “It’s so delicious that I don’t want to share it with you. But you gave me a cute doll previously, and you’re handsome. I can give you one, for there are still plenty back home.”

Bruce took the pastry he baked, unsure of what he should feel right now. He didn’t forget to thank Amanda, though.

"Yes. You're smart, Mandy." Steven nodded and brought them into the house.

Amanda observed the pretty and cozy house carefully. She also ran upstairs to look around. A while later, she ran back down.

Standing beside Lucian, she whispered solemnly, "Lucian, I think Daddy's still alive."

"You said that twice back in Dartan." Lucian wasn't surprised at all to hear that.

"Daddy isn't around anymore. If you see something that belongs to Daddy or Mommy in the room, the housekeeper must've just kept them instead of throwing them away. Daddy's dead," he added.

He read the news of how Armand perished in a plane crash. His body was found on the spot.

Amanda pouted unhappily and muttered under her breath, "I'm telling the truth. Daddy often appears in my dreams to tell me he misses me. Besides, I'm not sad when I'm at his house."

In fact, her heart was filled with warmth. In the future, Lucian, Mommy, and I will move into this house with Daddy. Well cat together, and Daddy will read me stories to cheer me up.

"That's because you miss Daddy too much." Lucian ruffled her hair to comfort her. "You can't accept the fact that he's dead."
