

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 104

The battle here was earth-shattering. A casual strike from a Paragon expert could easily flatten a mountain. That astonishing power erupted wantonly.

A trace of excitement flashed across Ye Qiu's eyes as he felt the power from the Paragon. During this period of time, the opponents he had encountered had never made him feel the pressure multiply.

The two people in front of him could be said to be worthy of being supreme beings.

Ye Qiu entered the battlefield alone after entering the void. He saw a white-clothed woman standing in the sky above the Heavenly Abyss.

Her fair and slender fingers moved slightly, and in an instant, a powerful force slapped over, turning the wasteland into ruins. She was like the Goddess of the Nine Heavens, holy and inviolable. She had the aura of a king.

Staring at her, Ye Qiu couldn't help but think of that poem. There was a beauty in the north, peerless and independent.

She was very beautiful, even more beautiful than all the beauties Ye Qiu had met in the past. However, she was also very cold. She was so cold that it made one shiver. Even though it was far away, one could still feel the cold. Even Lin Qingzhu, who had the Mystical Ice Bone, was not as cold as her.

From the strength she displayed, he could roughly determine that her cultivation was at least at the mid-stage Paragon realm.

Very strong. Ye Qiu could feel that her strength was extremely domineering. He thought for a while. It seemed that there was no such expert in the Eastern Wasteland.

“Strange, who is this person?” Ye Qiu didn’t understand. He came to the other side and stood on a Fusang Divine Tree, watching the battle above.

The person fighting that woman was a sage-like old man. He was as thin as a matchstick and raised a four-legged statue. The wind from his fist caused the void to tremble. His cultivation was also in the mid-stage Paragon realm, and he was very powerful.

“Which immortal mountain is this elder from? Why haven’t I heard Master mention it before...”

Ye Qiu was very confused. He knew that Daoist Xuantian had mentioned most of the Paragon experts in the Eastern Wasteland to Ye Qiu. However, he was very sure that these two people were not among the experts that Daoist Xuantian mentioned. It could be seen from the secret technique they used.

The white-clothed woman in the sky pushed the old man back with a palm and looked down coldly as if she had discovered Ye Qiu’s intrusion. She cast a puzzled gaze at Ye Qiu, as if she wanted to see through his cultivation. However, she was surprised to discover that there was an extremely powerful sword intent around Ye Qiu. Her divine sense was actually unable to take a step forward.

“Who are you?” The woman let out a clear and pleasant voice.

Only Paragons could enter this world. Since Ye Qiu could enter, he must be a Paragon expert.

Lian Feng had fought with this old man for many days and had yet to determine a victor, so she questioned this expert who had suddenly barged in.

Facing Lian Feng’s question, Ye Qiu stretched his back and leaned against the tree stump. He casually said, “Ye Qiu!”

“Ye Qiu?” Lian Feng was stunned for a moment. She searched her mind quickly and shook her head. “I don’t know you. Are you a cultivator from my Heaven Domain?”

“Heaven Domain?” Ye Qiu was stunned. This was the first time he had heard someone mention this word.

In the ancient books of the Heaven Mending Sect, there seemed to be records of another world outside the Eastern Wasteland.

The Great Desolate World was divided into eight domains. They were the Northern, Southern, Eastern, and Western Wastelands, the Heaven, Earth, Extreme and Mystic Domains.

Every domain had a boundary, and the Eastern Wasteland was the Eastern Wasteland of the Four Wastelands.

Lian Feng mentioned the Heaven Domain. She must be a cultivator from the Heaven Domain.

Shaking his head, Ye Qiu said, “No, I’m not a cultivator of your Heaven Domain, but from the Eastern Wasteland.”

“Eastern Wasteland?” Lian Feng was stunned and said, “There are also Paragon experts in the Eastern Wasteland?”

In her impression, the Eastern Wasteland should be one of the weakest among the eight great domains.

Moreover, the luck and bloodline of the Eastern Wastelands could not compare to the other regions. There were even fewer King-ranked descendants and Monarch descendants. To be able to reach the Cardinal realm was already considered an expert who could dominate an area.

Paragon... It didn't seem like a simple matter. Lian Feng looked at Ye Qiu curiously after taking a deep look at him. She was very curious. How did Ye Qiu cultivate to the Paragon realm in the Eastern Wasteland, where spirit meridians were exhausted and there were few people?

Moreover, looking at his bone age, he seemed to be younger than her. Didn't that mean that his talent was higher than hers?

Lian Feng couldn't believe it. In the Heaven Domain, she had the title of peerless beauty, suppressing everyone of her generation. Even the experts of the older generation didn't dare to anger her. Ever since she started cultivating, she had never met anyone who could truly be her opponent, because no matter how talented the other party was, they were not as talented as her.

Lian Feng carefully sensed Ye Qiu's faintly discernible sword intent and immediately judged that this person was very strong, and his cultivation was unknown. He was very dangerous.

"Haha, so it's a fellow Daoist from the Eastern Wasteland. Nice to meet you..." At this moment, an old man walked over with a smile. It seemed like he wanted to get close to Ye Qiu.

Gongsun Yang knew very well that Ye Qiu's existence was the key to this battle. If he could get close to him and get his help, he would definitely be able to defeat Lian Feng. Previously, they had already fought here for several days and were still in a stalemate.

"I am Gongsun Yang, the holy land of the Immortal Mountain from the Southern Wasteland. May I ask which orthodoxy you come from and which immortal mountain you cultivate on?"

As soon as these words were spoken, Ye Qiu had a strange expression as he narrowed his eyes at Gongsun Yang.

"Immortal Mountain?" He was stunned. There was also an Immortal Mountain in the Southern Wasteland?

Ye Qiu said with a strange expression, "You're from the Southern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain. Is there any connection with the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain?"

Gongsun Yang was delighted when he heard this. Ye Qiu specially mentioned the Immortal Mountain. Could it be that he had a relationship with the Immortal Mountain in the Eastern Wasteland? Wasn't that just fine? Since they were friends, there was no need for him to get close to him. He could just use the ready-made helper.

Immediately, Gongsun Yang was overjoyed and hurriedly explained, "Haha, of course there's a connection. Before the ancient times, the world was not divided by Chaotic Calamity. My Southern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain comes from the same orthodoxy as the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain. Our ancestors came from the same origin, and the techniques we inherited are very similar. It's not an exaggeration to say that we are from the same sect."

After hearing this, Ye Qiu smiled brightly.

Gongsun Yang was delighted to see him laugh. This kid really has a relationship with the Immortal Mountain of the Eastern Wasteland. Looks like this is a sure bet.

Although he was from the Southern Wasteland, he came from the same source as the Immortal Mountain in the Eastern Wasteland. Since Ye Qiu had a relationship with the Immortal Mountain Holy Land in the Eastern Wasteland, the probability of him helping him was very high.

"Hmph, one after another, what's the difference! Come at me together..." Lian Feng replied coldly. She had already regarded Ye Qiu as an enemy when she saw him and Gongsun Yang chatting so happily. She entered the sky alone and raised her hands slightly. A terrifying power instantly erupted, forming a huge array with the surrounding sky.

In the huge vortex, Lian Feng was like a fairy that had ascended to the heavens. She stood proudly under the sky, holy and inviolable.

“This is... the Heaven Mending Technique.”

Ye Qiu was shocked when he saw this. His eyes were filled with shock. How could Ye Qiu not recognize the supreme inheritance of the Heaven Mending Sect as the successor of the Heaven Mending Sect and the head of a peak?

The secret technique that Lian Feng used was the supreme inheritance of the Heaven Mending Sect, the Heaven Mending Technique.

The Heaven Domain actually had a Heaven Mending Sect?

Ye Qiu was completely dumbfounded. Why hadn't he heard his senior brother mention it? Perhaps he didn't know either.

The Heaven Mending Sect's orthodoxy had been passed down since ancient times. Later on, after the Chaotic Calamity, the world was divided into eight domains, and many orthodoxies also split apart.

Ye Qiu didn't expect to meet another Heaven Mending Sect here today. Yes, there's a need to mention this to the Sect Master when I return.

He had to pay attention to matters related to orthodoxies. Even though the other party was in the Heaven Domain, their inheritances came from the same source. It could be said that they were from the same sect.

In that case, Lian Feng and Ye Qiu were martial siblings? Yes, I want to be a senior brother this time.

In an instant, the world seemed to have lost its luster. Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled in the void, and a hole seemed to have opened in the sky.

Lian Feng seemed to have become a different person under the eruption of her powerful strength. Her aura increased greatly.

Gongsun Yang's expression changed slightly. As if he was facing a great enemy, he said, "Fellow Daoist, this person is the Goddess of Heaven Mending Sect in the Heaven Domain, Lian Feng. Her cultivation is at the mid-stage Paragon realm. Furthermore, she has inherited the Heaven Mending Goddess' inheritance. Her strength is extremely shocking.

"However, Fellow Daoist, don't worry. Although that Heaven Mending Technique is powerful, as long as the two of us join forces, we might be able to crack it."

Gongsun Yang had already begun to plan how to join forces with Ye Qiu to break the Heaven Mending Technique.

At this moment, Ye Qiu suddenly turned around and looked at him. "Who wants to join forces with you? Am I very familiar with you?"

"Hmm?"

"Hmm?"

Two question marks were sent out at the same time.

Gongsun Yang was dumbfounded, and Lian Feng was even more confused. Could it be that this person was not in cahoots with Gongsun Yang?

Gongsun Yang's expression changed. "Fellow Daoist, what do you mean?"

Ye Qiu smiled and said, "It would have been fine if you didn't mention the Immortal Mountain. I might not have bothered to interfere in your battle. But you're the only one to blame. You just had to mention it. I have some unfortunate news to tell you. I just killed the First Elder of the Immortal Mountain in the Eastern Wasteland..."

"What..." Gongsun Yang's expression changed as soon as these words were spoken. It was worse than eating feces.

Ye Qiu actually had a conflict with the Immortal Mountain. Moreover, he even killed the First Elder of the Eastern Wastelands??Damn it, why didn't you say so earlier? If you had said so earlier, I wouldn't have mentioned it.

Gongsun Yang was dumbfounded. At first, he thought that Ye Qiu had a relationship with the Immortal Mountain. Who would have thought that it would be good enough if he didn't kill him?

Hearing these words, even the cold Lian Feng couldn't hold it in anymore. She wanted to laugh when she looked at Gongsun Yang's expression, but she couldn't.

This old man was probably dumbfounded.

Gongsun Yang suddenly changed his expression and said, "Fellow Daoist, although my Southern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain has the same origin as the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain's ancestor, the two lineages had been separated for many years and were no longer related. Fellow Daoist, if you have any conflict with the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain, feel free to settle it. I have no objections."

It had to be said that Gongsun Yang was quite thick-skinned. Just now, he acted like they were very familiar with each other, but in the blink of an eye, they didn't know each other.

Ye Qiu narrowed his eyes at him and smiled. "What you said makes sense. However, I have another piece of bad news. Do you want to hear it?"

Gongsun Yang's heart trembled. Was there any news worse than this? He had already cut ties with the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain. He didn't ask Ye Qiu to help him as long as he could remain neutral. But why did his words give him the creeps?

Ye Qiu revealed a meaningful smile. Suddenly, he raised his right hand slightly and a purple light flickered. The patterns of his secret technique gradually appeared.

In the sky, Lian Feng was stunned when she saw this scene. "This is... the Violet Cloud Treasure Tome!"

Gongsun Yang's expression changed and turned ugly.

Just like the Heaven Mending Technique, this Violet Cloud Treasured Tome was also one of the inheritances of the Heaven Mending Sect. Although the two sects had split up, their core inheritances had not changed much.

"Unfortunately, I'm also from the Heaven Mending Sect."

Gongsun Yang was in complete despair when he heard Ye Qiu's words. The Heaven Mending Sect. He was actually from the Eastern Wasteland's Heaven Mending Sect. Didn't that mean that he was from the same sect as Lian Feng?

At this moment, even the cold Lian Feng revealed a surprised expression. It was difficult to see any other expression on her face. She was very surprised. She didn't expect Ye Qiu to be from the Heaven Mending Sect.

At first, she thought that Ye Qiu and Gongsun Yang were in cahoots. Now, it seemed like they were in cahoots.

Lian Feng's expression was strange. She put away the Heaven Mending Technique and slowly descended from the sky, seriously sizing up Ye Qiu. This man was very handsome. He had an immortal aura and extraordinary strength. He was younger than her. He should be considered her junior brother, right?

After struggling for a while, Lian Feng thought to herself, "I'm the youngest in the sect, and now I've met someone younger than me. The two lineages share the same origin, so their seniority should be about the same. I'll consider him my junior brother for now. This way, I can also be a senior sister."

Thinking of this, Lian Feng suddenly felt a little happy. In the Heaven Mending Sect, although she had inherited the legacy of the Heaven Mending Goddess, she was the youngest in front of her senior brothers. She felt very uncomfortable because of this. She was clearly so strong, so why should she be a junior?

Now, she finally saw someone younger than her. So, she happily decided on it.

Thinking of this, Lian Feng looked at Ye Qiu and said seriously, "Heaven Mending Sect of the Eastern Wasteland, Violet Cloud Peak. Hmm... Junior Brother, hello."

Ye Qiu frowned and said, "What junior brother? This junior sister is a little naughty. How can you joke with your Senior Brother like this?"

Lian Feng's expression turned cold. "I'm older than you. I'm your senior sister, not your junior sister."

"How are you older than me?" Ye Qiu refused to accept this. He raised his head and puffed out his chest, unwilling to fall behind.

Gongsun Yang, who was beside them, was ignored by the two of them.

Lian Feng was very angry. It was not easy for her to meet someone younger than her. How could she be his junior sister again??No matter what, I will definitely be the Senior Sister today.?Driven by a strong desire to win, Lian Feng puffed out her chest and said coldly, "I'm bigger than you in every aspect."

"I don't believe..." Ye Qiu secretly laughed. This Lian Feng had a cold temperament and was powerful. She felt like she didn't belong to the mortal world. But why did she have the mentality of a young lady? It was as if she had a deep obsession with people calling her Senior Sister.

Isn't it good to be a junior sister? I'll pamper her. If she don't like anyone, she could tell me and I'll f*ck with them. How nice was that. Why should she fight to be the senior sister? Please, let me be a senior brother for once. I've never been one before.

Lian Feng knew at a glance that she did not have much experience in bickering. For a moment, she did not know how to refute. She simply turned her head and said coldly, "I don't care. In any case, I'm older than you. I'm older than everything."

"I say, can the two of you take care of my feelings?" Gongsun Yang's face turned green as he gritted his teeth. He was actually being ignored. No one cared about him, so he was very unhappy.

As soon as these words were spoken, the two of them instantly looked at him with murderous gazes. Gongsun Yang's heart trembled when he saw this. Alright, you guys are ruthless.

For a moment, the atmosphere was in a deadlock. No one wanted to take a step back and be the junior. This was because they were the youngest of the various factions and deeply understood how uncomfortable it was to be the youngest. So how could they back down now?

Ye Qiu looked at Lian Feng. This couldn't go on. After a moment of hesitation, he said, "Then why don't we each take a step back and call what we want? I call you Senior Sister, and you call me Senior Brother?"

Lian Feng's eyes flickered when she heard this suggestion. "What we want? Was this some new way of playing?"

Lian Feng was stunned for a moment. She thought about it carefully and said, "Yes, sure." It was fine as long as she could hear him call her Senior Sister. As for the rest, Lian Feng didn't care.

In any case, the two lineages were far apart and there was a natural chasm as the boundary. If not for the opening of the Monarch's tomb this time, they would probably not have met. They might never see each other again after the Monarch's tomb closes. Why should they care about the so-called addresses?

The two of them immediately reached a consensus. Ye Qiu smiled and called out, "Senior Sister."

Lian Feng revealed a satisfied smile. Although it was only for a moment, Ye Qiu still caught it. For a moment, he was stunned. He quickly came back to his senses and thought to himself, "This woman is very dangerous. I can't look at her too much. One would be easily charmed."

Lian Feng said, "Hello, Senior Brother."

Gongsun Yang was stunned. This was the first time he had seen someone play like this after living for so many years. How could they do this? Could this be one of the Heaven Mending Sect's inheritances?

These two were both strange! Each was stranger than the other. Together, they looked quite compatible.

Gongsun Yang couldn't help but praise. At this moment, the two of them actually looked at him at the same time.

Gongsun Yang's heart turned cold. "Oh no..." He had been so focused on watching the show that he had forgotten that he was in danger.

Ye Qiu was from the Heaven Mending Sect, and Lian Feng was also from the Heaven Mending Sect. The two of them came from the same source and had reached a consensus. If they joined forces, he would definitely not be able to withstand them.

Lian Feng slowly walked over and said coldly, "Gongsun Yang, if you know what's good for you, hand over the Four Symbols Cauldron. Otherwise, don't blame me for being ruthless..."

"Hmph... This cauldron has already fallen into my hands. Don't even think about snatching it back."

The Four Symbols Cauldron was a Martial Monarch Realm treasure. How could Gongsun Yang give it up?

The cause of the matter came from the fact that Lian Feng had discovered this monarch artifact in the other side's cave abode. The Heaven Swallowing Sparrow suddenly barged in and forced her back before heading towards the void. By the time Lian Feng reacted, Gongsun Yang, who was hiding in the dark, had already seized the opportunity to snatch the cauldron.

Lian Feng was furious because of this, and this battle completely erupted.
