

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 110

The atmosphere instantly froze.

On one side, Hua Feiyu had a ferocious expression and killing intent hidden in his heart as he glared at Ye Qiu.

On the other side, Yun Shengzi, Butcher, and the others were greedily looking at the Longevity pill on the giant turtle's back.

The Heaven Swallowing Sparrow suddenly spread its wings and soared into the sky, leaving the battlefield. Suddenly, it opened its mouth, wanting to suck everyone present into its stomach.

"Haha..." The butcher carried a huge knife and smiled unkindly.

Hua Feiyu was even more disdainful. He was already in a bad mood, so he only said, "Ant, you dare to wag your lips and puff your tongue in front of me?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he slowly drew a sword and slashed over. In an instant, a shocking sword energy crossed the sky and struck the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow. With a loud bang, everyone looked again and saw that the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow had been cut in half.

Everyone was shocked.

"This guy's strength is actually so terrifying?"

That was a great ferocious beast, the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow. He killed it with one strike?

Hua Feiyu felt the surprised gazes of everyone present and was delighted. It really has to be me. I'm the only one worthy of this scene.

Suddenly, the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow that had been cut in half was reconstructed again. Not only that, its strength had increased again.

The Heaven Swallowing Sparrow seemed to be a little excited. It looked at Hua Feiyu provocatively as if it was saying, "Yo, kid, not bad. Send me more energy."

Hua Feiyu was instantly furious. He had thought that he could take the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's life with a light strike. Unexpectedly, not only did he not kill it, but it also swallowed his sword energy and its strength increased greatly.

"Haha..." Ye Qiu couldn't help but laugh.

This guy originally wanted to show off, but who would have thought that he would fail and even help the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow increase its strength? He had shot himself in the foot and embarrassed himself.

Hua Feiyu's face darkened and he said angrily, "What are you laughing at?"

"I'm sorry, I suddenly remembered something happy..." Ye Qiu apologized. He really couldn't help it.

Showing off is a skill. Not everyone could master it.

Hua Feiyu could hear the sarcasm in Ye Qiu's words. He was actually shamed in front of his goddess. He had lost his reputation. He was extremely angry. His eyes darted around as he suppressed the anger in his heart.

With a provocative expression, he said, "It seems like Brother Ye is very confident in your strength? Then why don't you show everyone how powerful you are?"

Everyone's interest was piqued.

There was a hint of competition between these words. They all knew about Hua Feiyu. He was the Deity of Mount Yao, a genius who was born to be the center of attention. No matter where he went, he would always have his own glow. His innate pride had never lost to anyone.

As for Ye Qiu...

Other than the experts in the Chaos, most of them didn't know him. They could not help but be interested now that they had met.

Ye Qiu slowly walked out and slowly said, "Alright! Since Young Master Hua is so free, I can only embarrass myself..."

Seeing that he had finally fallen for it, Hua Feiyu was delighted. He thought to himself, "Hmph, ignorant fool, keep laughing. I'll see who's the embarrassing one later. I don't believe that you can kill Heaven Swallowing Sparrow with one strike.

Hua Feiyu naturally didn't believe that Ye Qiu could do it. This was because the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's astonishing precious technique talent had an extremely strong recovery effect. Even his sword strike was unable to take it down.

So how could Ye Qiu do it?

He was waiting to humiliate Ye Qiu after he embarrassed himself. He would let Lian Feng see who was better.

Just as he was thinking to himself...

Ye Qiu had already slowly walked out and slowly stretched out his right hand towards the sky.

“Hmph, you’re deliberately mystifying things. After all this time, you don’t even have a sword.” Hua Feiyu said disdainfully. Suddenly... Ye Qiu’s fingers emitted a strong light.

In an instant, a cold sword intent swept across the surroundings and continuously gathered. In just a moment, a huge sword condensed from a hundred miles of wild grass had already locked onto the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow.

Seeing this scene, the fear from the bottom of the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s heart was deeply imprinted in its mind.

It didn’t forget that Ye Qiu had heavily injured it with this sword back then. And now it saw this sword again, which was hundreds of times stronger than before in terms of power.

“How... how is this possible?” For a moment, Hua Feiyu’s face trembled as he stared blankly at the huge sword above his head.

His aura was countless times stronger than his previous strike. Moreover, this shocking pressure was not something his sword intent could compare to.

“God-grade sword technique?” In an instant, he understood something. His face turned pale and he felt indignant. Ye Qiu actually knew a god-grade sword technique and was actually so powerful.

“Young Master Hua, watch carefully! This... is called sword energy.” Ye Qiu had a faint smile on his face. His right hand gently slid down. His movements were smooth and without any fancy moves. It was very simple.

The finger slid down, and in an instant, the huge sword above the Nine Heavens smashed down.

The Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s eyes were filled with fear as it roared crazily, wanting to escape this domain. Seeing that it could not escape, it used the devouring technique again, but it failed. This was the dimensional reduction attack brought by a divine technique. If it could be absorbed so easily, would it still be considered a divine technique?

Boom...

The huge sword smashed down, and the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s body was instantly scattered by thousands of sword energies. The blood mist dyed the sky red.

For a moment, the entire place was silent. It was only after a long time that everyone reacted.

“Oh my f*cking god...”

“Is this kid still human?”

“Such a casual strike actually has such power. If it erupts with all its might, wouldn’t it suppress all of us?”

At this point, everyone gasped. Even the Butcher revealed a vigilant gaze. From the moment Ye Qiu displayed his strength, he had already regarded him as his greatest opponent.

Hua Feiyu's face was pale and filled with despair.

Ye Qiu's strength wasn't as bad as he had imagined. In other words, the person Lian Feng liked wasn't completely useless. Instead, he was very strong, so strong that even he did not have the confidence to defeat him. If that was the case, would he still have a chance?

What made him feel even worse was that just now, he was just like Ye Qiu. Not only did he not kill the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow, but he also helped it increase its strength. When they were being compared, wouldn't he be telling everyone that he was inferior to Ye Qiu?

This feeling of being slapped in the face made Hua Feiyu feel ashamed and his face turned ashen.

Ye Qiu slowly put away his sword and stroked his chin. He looked at Hua Feiyu and said thoughtfully, "Heaven Swallowing Sparrow? Hmm... It doesn't seem that strong. It died before I could even do anything. Hmm... Young Master Hua should have gone easy on it just now. Otherwise, how could he not kill it with a single strike and instead increase its strength?"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone couldn't help but laugh.

"Haha, what a killer." Yun Shengzi laughed unkindly, and the others also suppressed their laughter.

Ye Qiu's words were extremely insulting. It was the same casual strike, but two completely different results. It was obvious who would win.

"You..." Hua Feiyu flew into a rage out of humiliation. He almost spat out a mouthful of blood. He originally wanted to see Ye Qiu make a fool of himself, but now, he was the joke.

Ye Qiu smiled faintly and didn't care about his murderous gaze. He did not care about a mere Hua Feiyu. He turned around and said to Lian Feng earnestly, "Lian'er, remember not to spread rumors when you go out. What kind of person was Young Master Hua? He was known as the genius of Mount Yao. He was nurtured by countless heavenly treasures in the Holy Land. He was given such great expectations, if word got out, people would think, oh, so this is the Deity of Mount Yao? Ah... this is it? The Holy Land still cared about their reputation."

Hearing Ye Qiu's serious expression, Lian Feng's cold face couldn't hold it in anymore. "Haha..."

This guy was too funny. Who would mock others in such a serious manner? He is too cunning.

She had thought that she was already quite cunning. She did not expect this guy to be even more cunning than her. This guy almost made Hua Feiyu vomit blood with just a few words. That handsome face was already hideous and ugly.

Too cunning, but I like it...

"Hmm... okay." Lian Feng slowed down and finally held back her laughter. She continued to say to Hua Feiyu seriously, "I definitely won't spread rumors when I go out. Young Master Hua, don't worry."

"You..."

"Pfft..."

Hua Feiyu was instantly enraged and spat out a mouthful of blood.

If Ye Qiu's words weren't lethal enough, then Lian Feng's words had already caused Hua Feiyu to completely collapse.

Everything he did was to make Lian Feng look at him in a different light. Who would have thought that he would fail to show off and instead be humiliated in front of his goddess?

“Damn it... I’m so angry... Ye Qiu, just you wait. One day, I will make you pay the price.” Hua Feiyu looked coldly at Ye Qiu and said gloomily.

Killing intent was already brewing in his heart. If not for the fact that there were many people here and the Longevity pill was about to appear, he would have attacked long ago.

On this side, Ye Qiu successfully showed off. With a light touch of his right hand, a precious bone floated out from the remains of the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s corpse and quickly flew towards Ye Qiu.

“Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s precious bone.”

Seeing this precious bone, everyone’s eyes revealed greed.

This was a rare treasure. It was from a supreme ferocious beast and a primordial descendant. It was extremely rare. However, that great ferocious beast was too powerful. Ordinary people did not dare to touch such a supreme treasure. Once they failed the challenge, there was a risk of death.

Moreover, after the great ferocious beast died, the drop of his precious rune bone was also random. It did not drop 100%.

Therefore, very few people challenged these great ferocious beasts. After all, the risk was too great, and there was a possibility of returning empty-handed.

Everyone revealed envious gazes when they saw Ye Qiu slowly summoning the precious bone.

Ye Qiu weighed the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's bone in his hand and frowned. "Hmm? Why is it the Speed Treasure Bone..."

Ye Qiu was stunned for a moment. He originally thought that it was the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's powerful heaven-devouring precious technique. He didn't expect that it was only a precious bone of speed. Although its grade was also very strong, it was still a little inferior to the heaven-devouring precious technique.

"Forget it. Coincidentally, I still lack a speed-type divine skill. Maybe I can use this thing to fish for a few benefits. Perhaps I can trigger a ten-thousand-fold return."

Ye Qiu smiled and had an idea.

Currently, the powerful secret techniques he had grasped included the Cursive Sword Art, Infinite Universe Palm, and the defensive True Dragon Rune. It seemed like he could add another speed type today.

A perfect hexagonal warrior.

Holding the precious bone in his hand, Ye Qiu suddenly turned around and tried his best to integrate himself into his emotions. He looked at Lian Feng sincerely.

Lian Feng's heart trembled. What was this guy doing? Lian Feng's heart raced when she saw his sincere gaze. She was nervous and did not dare to look at him.

Ye Qiu gently opened her hand and placed the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's bone in her hand.

He said gently, "Lian'er, this precious bone is for you..."

“You...” Lian Feng’s heart trembled. She stared blankly at the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s bone in her hand and then at Ye Qiu, who was revealing his true feelings. She was instantly extremely touched.

He actually gave this precious bone to me? This...

This was the precious bone of the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow. It was extremely helpful even to Paragon cultivators. It was a true rare treasure. He actually gave it to me without hesitation? Could it be that I’m so important to him that even this precious bone can’t compare to me?

For a moment, Lian Feng was touched. She looked at Ye Qiu’s gentle gaze and blushed.

Ah... Oh no, oh no.?

I am in love. This damned man has me in his grasp. Damn it...

Lian Feng felt guilty, nervous, and touched, but her expression was abnormally cold.

Lian Feng was stunned. Although she really wanted it, she still asked in confusion, “Why did you give it to me?”

Ye Qiu smiled gently and said, “Because you are my entire world. I want to give you all the best things in the world...”

Lian Feng: “...”

Ah, damn it...

This electric shock.

She felt her body go limp. Her heart raced.

Am I really going to fall? Damn it, I, the dignified Heaven Mending Goddess, don't even have this bit of endurance. Could this guy really be my natural nemesis?

"O-okay."

Lian Feng blushed slightly. She lowered her head and carefully put away the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's bone. With this precious bone, she could break through to the late-stage Paragon realm even without the Longevity pill.

She was naturally very grateful. Ye Qiu clearly needed this precious bone more, but he didn't want it and chose to give it to her.

Especially when he said that she was his world. In an instant, Lian Feng felt as if she had been electrocuted and her heart melted.

Lian Feng did not know what to say for a moment. She had already made up her mind. I want this man...

Although she still didn't admit it verbally, she began to tacitly agree in her heart.

"No..." Hua Feiyu completely collapsed when he saw Lian Feng gradually falling for Ye Qiu.

It seemed to be snowing. That day, the goddess left with someone else.

“Damn it...” After coming back to his senses, Hua Feiyu gritted his teeth. He didn’t believe that Ye Qiu would be willing to give a supreme precious bone just to pick up girls. Was he really willing to do it, or was he deliberately pretending for others to see?

“Oh my god, he gave away a supreme precious bone just like that. This guy is really generous.”

At this moment, even Yun Shengzi and the others were shocked.

However, when he thought about the Storm Pear Blossom Needles that Ye Qiu had given her previously, this mere Heaven Swallowing Sparrow’s precious bone was nothing.

However, on second thought, “Yes, this guy is too devoted. He is selfless to his loved ones. His character is quite genuine. Perhaps he really likes her. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have been able to take out so many treasures in a row.”

Everyone couldn’t help but envy Lian Feng for meeting someone who only had eyes for her.

Lian Feng could feel it herself. There was a sweet and warm feeling in her heart. She seemed to be filled with anticipation for the future. She really wanted to rush over and kiss him when she looked at Ye Qiu’s handsome face. However, the shyness in her heart made her not dare to do so.

Let’s just wait for a while.

At this moment.

Ye Qiu was already starting to get excited.

“System...”

[Ding...]

[You gave Lian Feng a Supreme Precious Bone, triggering a Critical Hit Return.]

[Activate?]

Ye Qiu smiled. "Activate..."

[Congratulations, you have triggered 5,000 fold return and obtained a piece of Kun Peng bone.]

"Hiss..."

"Kun Peng Treasure Technique?"

Ye Qiu was shocked. The Heaven Swallowing Sparrow's precious bone was a speed type. Therefore, the return would definitely be speed-type. Although he was already mentally prepared, Ye Qiu couldn't remain calm when he heard the words Kun Peng.

This was the fastest existence in the world. If he cultivated this Kun Peng precious technique, wouldn't he become... The fastest man?

Hmm? Why did this sound so strange?

Sigh, forget it. In any case, he had profited greatly this time.

[Do you want to learn?]

“Yes...”

As soon as he finished speaking, a red rune fused into Ye Qiu’s mind.

In an instant, the Kun Peng Secret Technique appeared in his mind.

With Ye Qiu’s current teleportation speed, he could reach a hundred kilometers in an instant. The Kun Peng could travel a hundred thousand kilometers with a flap of its wings.

If Ye Qiu cultivated this Kun Peng Secret Technique, he could also reach a hundred thousand miles in an instant.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiu became excited. Who will be faster than me in the future?

Last time, Ye Qiu had already tasted the disadvantage of speed when he chased after the Heaven Swallowing Sparrow. Facing such a speed-type opponent, even if he could defeat it, it would be very difficult to kill it. As long as it really wanted to escape, you wouldn’t be able to catch up at all. You could only watch its back and eat its dust.

Ye Qiu’s confidence immediately increased now that he had this Kun Peng Treasure Technique. Wouldn’t he be able to easily defeat the other party if he encountered such a speed-type opponent again?

“Hehe, not bad...” Ye Qiu was secretly delighted and began to comprehend the Kun Peng Treasure Technique. With the help of the two Great Dao Flowers, Ye Qiu quickly grasped a thing or two. It was not time to absorb Kun Peng’s precious bone yet, so he would keep it for now.

Ye Qiu profited greatly this time. Not only did he obtain the goddess's heart, but he also accidentally obtained a Kun Peng bone. He immediately felt happy. "In the future, get me as much of this business as you can."

Boom...

At this moment, the covered copper coffin suddenly let out a loud bang.

"Hmm? The Longevity pill has appeared?"

In an instant, everyone's expressions changed.
