

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 111

A trace of light seemed to appear in the world from the chaos and darkness.

There was a bang.

The copper coffin that had been sealed for a long time suddenly opened...

The expressions of everyone present instantly changed. From the copper coffin, a jade-like lotus slowly flew out. At that moment, the world turned gloomy, and the entire space seemed to have exploded.

“Be careful!” Ye Qiu grabbed Lian Feng and protected her in his arms. Lian Feng was about to resist when she suddenly felt a monarch aura coming from the copper coffin.

In an instant, everyone’s expressions changed and they hurriedly dodged. Ye Qiu took out the Qiankun Cauldron again and the two of them hid inside. The others also took out their Dharma treasures and dodged the calamity. Those who reacted slightly slower were swept by the monarch’s aura and instantly died.

“Roar...” In the vortex, the Zhuyan let out a roar and was instantly struck by the Monarch’s aura. Its body began to shrink rapidly, and its fate was unknown.

The Suanni was even more tragic. It suffered a backlash from the Nine Heavens Lightning Technique and was instantly killed by the Monarch’s aura.

The scene was in chaos, and the world suddenly darkened.

The lotus flower that was emitting a dazzling light in the darkness suddenly fled in a direction.

“You want to leave? Dream on...” Hua Feiyu was the first to attack. He looked greedily at the lotus and revealed a confident smile.

He was determined to obtain this eight-petal lotus. As long as he obtained this Longevity pill, he could become a King and step into the true King realm. At that time, would Ye Qiu still be his match?

He firmly believed that as long as he reached the King-Ranked realm, Lian Feng would definitely choose him. This was a world where the strong were respected. Everyone worshiped the strong. And after reaching the King realm, he was already close to being invincible in the mortal realm.

He didn't believe that Lian Feng could resist the temptation of becoming a princess consort and choose Ye Qiu, a Paragon.

“Haha... Hua Feiyu, I like this Longevity pill. If you don't want to die, get lost.” A heroic voice came from the sky. The Butcher held a huge saber and suddenly slashed down from the sky.

Hua Feiyu's expression changed. He quickly turned around and said angrily, “Butcher, you dare to be my enemy?”

“Go to hell. Who are you talking to?” Who would have thought that the Butcher would not give him any face at all? “Do you think this is your holy land? I won't spoil you.”

The butcher didn't hold back at all. He slashed down with his butcher's knife and sent Hua Feiyu flying.

At this moment, Hua Feiyu's anger had reached its limit. “Haha, good... very good. All of you like to go against me, right? Alright, since none of you want me to have an easy time, then I'll not let anyone have one...”

Hua Feiyu completely exploded. All the precious techniques in his body were activated, and the power of a late-stage Paragon completely erupted. In the blink of an eye, a compass slowly appeared in his hand, and he set up a barrier in this area.

In an instant, the killing aura had already formed. Hua Feiyu seemed to have entered an uninhabited place. He instantly slapped out with his palm, forcing the Butcher back.

The Butcher was furious. Seeing that the Longevity pill was about to escape, he no longer hid his strength. He suddenly slashed with the saber in his hand, and a shocking murderous aura erupted. "Kid! You're courting death..."

In an instant, the butcher knife spun and slashed out.

A red light appeared in the world. The butcher's knife slashed down, and a huge mountain in front of him was instantly cut in half.

"F*ck..."

This strike shocked everyone present.

At this moment, a white figure instantly attacked and headed straight for the Longevity pill. When everyone reacted, their expressions changed. "Stop her."

Everyone attacked at the same time and stopped Lian Feng. Lian Feng's expression turned cold. She didn't say anything else and instantly used the Heaven Mending Technique. She was determined to obtain this Longevity pill. She would kill anyone who dared to stop her.

At this moment, she did not hold back at all. She used the Heaven Mending Technique and the world instantly entered the domain of the Heaven Mending Technique.

Everyone felt their breathing tighten, and the atmosphere was in a deadlock. Under that powerful pressure, someone withdrew from this battle. There were too many experts here. Even if they had the strength of the early-stage Paragon realm, they seemed very small in front of these experts.

Boom...

As the deafening sounds continued, the battle gradually became crazy.

Lian Feng held the Four Symbols Cauldron in one hand and used the Heaven Mending Technique with the other. She could actually suppress a group of people. That combat strength really amazed Ye Qiu.

“Hehe, my wife is really amazing.” Ye Qiu grinned. He didn’t expect her to be so fierce.

On the other side, the battle between the Butcher and Hua Feiyu had also entered a white-hot stage.

At this moment, a huge hand slowly stretched out from the horizon, wanting to take away the eight-petal lotus.

“Hmph, who are you to do such sneaky things?” Yun Shengzi’s face darkened. At this moment, he also chose to attack. In an instant, he transformed into a white crane and flapped his wings. Thousands of feathers struck towards that huge hand.

In an instant, the giant hand disintegrated. An old man walked out from the chaos crack with a livid expression. It was the person who wanted to steal the Longevity pill.

“Dan Qiuzi, hmph... So it’s you, old man.” Yun Shengzi smiled disdainfully when he saw the old man. The two of them exchanged blows instantly and were locked in battle.

The originally harmonious scene was now a mess. What fellow Daoist? They usually called each other quite affectionately. But if they really encountered something, they would deal a critical blow with their fists and hit their flaws.

At this moment, Lian Feng, who was in the center of the battlefield, was facing the siege of so many experts at the same time. She felt that she was powerless. If she continued fighting, she would definitely lose. She immediately shouted, “Ye Qiu, what are you doing? Come and help me.”

She was angry. She had fought so hard, but that guy was still watching from afar. He was actually in the mood to watch the show. If he continued to watch the show, his wife would be gone. I’m so angry. Is this true love?

Ye Qiu smiled when he heard this clear cry. She’s getting anxious, really anxious.

“Okay...” Stretching lazily, Ye Qiu jumped up and prepared to help his wife.

At this moment, Hua Feiyu slashed from the air, wanting to kill Ye Qiu in the chaos.

Ye Qiu’s expression turned cold and killing intent flashed across his eyes. This kid actually wanted to sneak attack him in the chaos.

“Get lost...” Ye Qiu condensed sword energy with two fingers and slashed out instantly, offsetting Hua Feiyu’s sword energy.

On the other side, the butcher swung his butcher's saber crazily. He had already gone completely crazy from killing. Anyone he encountered could not escape his butcher's saber. "The Longevity pill is mine. No one can touch it."

Hua Feiyu said sarcastically, "Butcher, I don't want to talk to you because I'm afraid of you. If you want the Longevity pill, you have to get past me first. And you, Ye Qiu... Aren't you arrogant? If you have the guts, come up. One or two, I have nothing to fear..."

Hua Feiyu was so crazy that he wanted to challenge the Butcher and Ye Qiu at the same time.

"Haha..." Ye Qiu was so angry that he laughed. There was only one way to break this situation, and that was to beat them all one by one. "Alright, since you want to die so much, I'll fulfill your wish..."

Ye Qiu instantly slashed out with his sword. Hua Feiyu calmly blocked it. On the other hand, when the Butcher saw that Ye Qiu had interfered, he didn't attack again. Instead, he wanted to take advantage of the chaos to snatch the Longevity pill.

However, how could these two let him succeed?

The two people who were originally fighting one-on-one instantly surrounded him. The Butcher went for wool and came home shorn. He suffered heavy blows from the two of them and was forced to retreat.

For a moment, the scene was in chaos. More and more people joined the battle.

Seeing this scene, Ye Qiu frowned. If this continued, with his early-stage Paragon realm strength, he would definitely be exhausted before them. After thinking for a while, he looked up at the sky. Lian Feng was surrounded by enemies. If Ye Qiu didn't help, she might really be in danger.

Ye Qiu instantly used the Kun Peng Treasure Technique to escape from the battlefield.

“You want to leave? Stay here!” Unexpectedly, Hua Feiyu stopped him again.

This time, Ye Qiu was really angry.

“Again and again. Do you really think I don’t have a temper?” Ye Qiu instantly summoned Cloudy Heavens as he said.

In an instant, the world fell silent.

“This...”

“Why does he have an immortal sword?”

That sharp immortal energy erupted wantonly. In an instant, all the secret technique light seemed to dim. Under the deterrence of the immortal sword, the originally chaotic battle suddenly stopped.

On the other side, Hua Feiyu’s face was pale as he looked at Yun Xiao in Ye Qiu’s hand in disbelief. He said with a trembling voice, “Immortal... Immortal sword? No, how could he have an immortal sword? This is impossible...”

Even the others looked shocked and in disbelief, let alone him.

The Butcher revealed a greedy gaze. “Immortal sword? Hehe, this kid is really rich. He even has a treasure like an immortal sword.”

The greed in his heart was instantly aroused. The Butcher remained silent and quietly reached behind Ye Qiu. In an instant, he launched a sneak attack and slashed at Ye Qiu’s back.

“Be careful...” Up above, Lian Feng’s face turned pale when she saw this scene. She wanted to break free from the encirclement and save Ye Qiu.

At this moment.

Bang.

A metallic sound rang out. Just as the Butcher was about to succeed, his butcher’s saber was cut apart by Ye Qiu’s Cloudy Heavens Sword.

“This...” The Butcher’s face was pale. His butcher’s knife was a spirit treasure, yet it was so easily cut off by Ye Qiu?

His expression was gloomy as he revealed a meaningful smile and said, “Haha, since you’re courting death, I’ll fulfill your wish...”

Cloudy Heavens shook its body, and in an instant, a huge sword energy domain was formed. In the immortal sword domain, the power of the Cursive Sword Art was displayed to the max.

Under this shocking pressure, everyone’s faces turned pale. It was the divine might of the heavens that could not be looked at directly. The immortal sword was a supreme treasure of the heavens. How could ordinary people withstand its might? Even a Martial Monarch wouldn’t dare to say that they could withstand a single strike from an immortal sword.

“Everyone, attack together and kill him.” At this moment, Hua Feiyu suddenly spoke.

Ye Qiu's strength increased greatly with the appearance of the Cloudy Heavens. At this moment, no one was his match. The only way to break this situation was to join forces and deal with him. Otherwise, it would be impossible for all of them to take the Longevity pill with just this sword.

For a moment, everyone seemed to have reached a tacit understanding. They entered this sword formation and looked at Ye Qiu covetously.

The situation turned around. Ye Qiu coldly looked at these people and sneered in his heart.

"Alright, all of you attack together! One or two, what's the difference? Those who aren't afraid of death, feel free to come up..." Ye Qiu waved his sword domineeringly. His aura didn't decrease at all. He seemed to be taking a stroll in the park. He was actually so calm in the face of this siege.

Everyone felt pressured and nervous.

"Hmph, Ye Qiu, so what if you have an immortal sword? In the end, you're only an early-stage Paragon. Even if you have an immortal sword, you might not be able to unleash its true power. There are so many of us here today. I don't believe you can still overturn the sky." Hua Feiyu said domineeringly. He took out his Dharma treasure again and did not hide anything.

"That's right. I might as well kill you today and snatch your sword." The Butcher spoke greedily. He had never been a pushover. He didn't believe that Ye Qiu could really beat so many of them.

"Haha, cut the crap. Come on." Ye Qiu smiled faintly. He had never panicked.

With Cloudy Heavens in his hand, he had the boldness of the world.

"Hmph, let's see how long you can be arrogant..." Hua Feiyu roared in anger and took the lead to attack. His sword slashed across the air.

Almost at the same time, everyone attacked, wanting Ye Qiu to have nowhere to hide.

“Die.”

Instantly, all the experts in the surroundings charged towards Ye Qiu. He slowly closed his eyes, his actions extremely strange.

Everyone was puzzled. “What is he doing? Has he given up resisting?”

That’s not right...

Suddenly, a shocking sword intent came from the barrier above. Violent winds danced within a hundred kilometers. Everyone was shocked. They saw Ye Qiu gently wave Cloudy Heavens in his hand. In an instant, a Heavenly Gate seemed to open in the sky.

The violent wind suddenly erupted and Ye Qiu opened his eyes. He let out an excited cry. “Come on...”

Ye Qiu seemed to have entered a magical realm as Cloudy Heavens streaked across the sky. A sword slashed over ruthlessly. In less than a breath’s time, a few Paragon realm experts were instantly slashed down.

This sword technique was the second sword technique of Ye Qiu’s Cursive Sword Art, Chaotic Dance Strikes the Sky.

One strike opened the Heavenly Gate.

Once this technique was used, it would shock the world. Ye Qiu's own strength could suddenly increase by hundreds of times, and his sword energy was incomparably powerful. The only thing in the world that could compare was the third technique, A Blade of Grass Strikes Through Stars.

However, Ye Qiu had yet to master the third sword technique and was unable to unleash its greatest power.

Boom...

An earth-shattering bang sounded. In less than a moment, countless people had died.

Ye Qiu's eyes seemed to have turned red from killing. Facing the enemies that kept attacking, he slashed them down one by one. Even Hua Feiyu would not have been able to escape if not for the risk of having his Dharma artifact destroyed.

As for the Butcher...

The butcher's greedy gaze turned into fear when he saw that move. A fear that came from the bottom of his heart. Hiss...

He wanted to escape, but he had already been locked onto by the sword energy. Under his despairing gaze, the Cloudy Heavens simply slashed across his chest.

"No..." The Butcher let out a desperate cry and tried to escape, but his body was no longer under his control. It was split in two.

At this moment, terrifying immortal power wantonly attacked his body, and his soul was instantly heavily injured. In less than a breath, it began to dissipate.

The Butcher had fallen.

“This...”

Hua Feiyu’s face was pale as he looked at Ye Qiu in horror. Then, he looked at the broken sword in his hand and the destroyed Martial Monarch weapon. He let out an incredulous voice.

The might of an immortal sword was unstoppable.

Now, with Ye Qiu’s superb sword technique, he completely displayed the power of the immortal sword. At this moment, not to mention late-stage Paragon, even peak-level experts did not dare to anger him.

At this moment, he was really afraid. His soul was trembling from the deep fear in his heart. Ever since he started cultivating, he, who had never tasted defeat, finally realized what it meant by there was always someone better.

As if he had suffered a huge blow, his hair turned pale.

“I... lost.” Hua Feiyu weakly lowered his arms and looked at Lian Feng with a complicated expression. He no longer had any thoughts about her. He finally understood why Lian Feng chose Ye Qiu and not him. The proud and arrogant him originally thought that he was far more outstanding than Ye Qiu, but he didn’t expect that... Ye Qiu just disdained to fight with him. Be it strength or temperament, the other party was better than him.

How could Lian Feng like him?

With a lonely gaze, Hua Feiyu suddenly raised his head. Suddenly, he stopped and fled.

Everyone looked.

“F*ck...”

This sudden turn of events made everyone curse. He had instigated so many people to attack Ye Qiu. Now that he realized that he couldn't beat him, he actually ran away? Damn it, it was basically hopeless to be so pretentious.

At this moment, the attackers were finally afraid.

“Retreat...”

If they didn't leave now, when would they?

What? Did you say Longevity pill? If you want to get it, then get it yourself, I won't accompany you. I'm just afraid that you won't have the life to use it. The scene was in chaos. Everyone thought of this at the same time and instantly used their movement techniques to escape.

Ye Qiu didn't chase after them. He didn't have a habit of killing. Seeing that no one dared to step forward, he smiled and instantly used the Kun Peng Treasure Technique to chase after the Longevity pill.

At this moment, Lian Feng, who had just broken free from everyone's encirclement, also wanted to get the medicine. She suddenly discovered that a white figure had gotten the Longevity pill before her.

When she saw the other party's appearance, Lian Feng was delighted. Soon, she looked worried again. She was happy because the person who obtained the Longevity pill was Ye Qiu, the man she liked. What she was worried about was that she also wanted the Longevity pill, but Ye Qiu had already snatched it. She couldn't snatch it from Ye Qiu.

Otherwise, it would be a scene of domestic violence. Not good...

“Hmm, forget it...” Lian Feng sighed and gave up. Ye Qiu had already given her so many treasures. She was already very satisfied. If she had any thoughts about his treasure, what kind of person would she become?

She should be happy. After all... he was her temporary boyfriend now.

Thinking of this, a smile appeared on Lian Feng's face. She looked up at the sky with love in her eyes. That white figure was so otherworldly and stunning...
