

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 112

He stood alone from the Nine Heavens.

Ye Qiu held his sword in one hand, as if he was an immortal that had come to this world. That peerless and magnificent figure shocked everyone. For a moment, everyone's eyes were filled with fear and shock. He held the eight-petal lotus flower in his hand. The Cloudy Heavens in his hand shook, as if to say "who dares to take a step forward".

Everyone's faces turned pale as they looked at the corpses on the ground and the Paragon experts whose lives had been taken by the Cloudy Heavens. They knew very well that at this moment, the Longevity pill was destined to have no fate with them.

"Let's go..."

In less than a moment, the crowd gradually decreased. Those who survived didn't dare to stay any longer, afraid that Ye Qiu would settle scores with them. Previously, so many people couldn't defeat him. Now, even the Butcher had died. Hua Feiyu had left in fear. How could the remaining people dare to go against Ye Qiu?

Soon, only Lian Feng, Ye Qiu, Yun Shengzi, and the others who didn't have any conflict with them were left.

"Haha..." Yun Shengzi stroked his goatee and laughed. "Congratulations, Fellow Daoist. You successfully defeated the enemies and obtained the Longevity pill. Fellow Daoist's performance today can be said to be peerlessly magnificent and unique. I'm impressed, impressed..."

Ye Qiu's expression didn't change as he slowly descended from the sky and arrived beside Lian Feng.

Lian Feng looked at him affectionately, shocked by his performance just now. He's too strong. Who could withstand such ferocity? He single-handedly suppressed a group of Paragon experts. Not only was he unscathed, but he also killed so many Paragon experts. As expected of the man I like, fierce...

Looking regretfully at the longevity medicine in Ye Qiu's hand, Lian Feng congratulated him from the bottom of her heart, "Congratulations, Senior Brother. With this Longevity pill, becoming a King is just around the corner."

Ye Qiu turned around and looked at her watery eyes, then looked down at the Longevity pill in his hand. After pondering for a while, he said, "Lian'er, this longevity medicine is for you."

Silence...

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone was shocked and silent.

"What did he say?"

"He wants to give this longevity medicine to this girl?"

Yun Shengzi and the others were dumbfounded. They thought that they had heard wrongly and were hallucinating.

Do you know what this is? It was a longevity medicine. Damn it, you just gave it away?

Although this eight-petal lotus flower was only a low-grade longevity medicine, its power was unimaginable. If one could consume this medicine at the Paragon realm, it wouldn't be long before they could break through to the King-Ranked realm.

You actually gave it away? How generous are you?

Everyone was stunned.

They had never thought that someone would use the longevity medicine to pick up girls. Even if it was true love, they wouldn't be so generous, right?

Lian Feng's heart trembled, and she was completely stunned. He... actually wanted to give this longevity medicine to me?

She couldn't understand why Ye Qiu didn't use the longevity medicine that he had spent so much effort to obtain and instead gave it to her. Could it be that in his heart, she was really that important? Thinking of this, Lian Feng's heart raced as she looked at Ye Qiu lovingly.

She did not expect that on this trip to the tomb, she would actually meet a man who wished he could hand over the entire world to her. He could even give her a treasure like longevity medicine. It was difficult for her to deny Ye Qiu's feelings for her.

"Oh..." Lian Feng foolishly poked her lips with her fair finger, not knowing what to say. She was touched and surprised. However, looking at this longevity medicine that emitted a powerful vitality, she resisted.

Ye Qiu had already given her many treasures before. How could she ask for Ye Qiu's treasures again? Although she really wanted this stalk and it was very useful to her, she couldn't do that. She wasn't a selfish person. She didn't want Ye Qiu to keep contributing while she enjoyed the benefits. What kind of person would she be then? She could no longer do such a thing. Only love that went both ways could reach the end.

Thinking of this, Lian Feng's face suddenly turned cold. She turned her head proudly and said, "I don't want it."

"Hiss..."

“This is even more ruthless. She doesn’t want the free longevity medicine...”

Everyone immediately gasped. If you don’t want it, you can give it to me, I want!

What were this young couple doing? Everyone was feeling anxious in their hearts. They were clearly just spectators, but at this moment, they were like the main leads, extremely nervous.

Ye Qiu caught the fleeting love when he heard Lian Feng reject him. Clearly, her heart had completely fallen. Under his repeated attacks, she had completely fallen. He was immediately delighted. There was something going on.

Ye Qiu said affectionately, “Lian’er, I’ve said it before. You are my world. I want to send the best things in the world to you. This longevity medicine is indeed very precious, but in my heart, it’s not even one ten-thousandth of yours.”

Lian Feng trembled when she heard this confession. Ah... Damn it, this again. This is what I can’t stand the most.

It was as if she had been electrocuted. Her entire body was numb and soft. She had no resistance at all. The ice and snow in her heart seemed to have melted.

Lian Feng slowly turned her head and looked at Ye Qiu’s extremely gentle eyes. For a moment, she was in a daze.

Really? Do I really have such a high status in your heart??Lian Feng couldn’t help but ask herself. She looked at the longevity medicine in front of her and seemed to have an answer.

Ye Qiu continued, "I've asked the starry sky. It said that the moon is formed by you. You are like a ray of moonlight that shines on my heart, illuminating the summer night and sending me the autumn breeze. Meeting you is the luckiest thing in my life. You are the morning dew and the evening star. You are my joy in everything. I've written my love in the wind. From now on, I will be yours. From the moment I met you, everything I did was to get close to you."

Lian Feng trembled when she heard Ye Qiu's words. "Stop talking. I want it. I want it, alright?" "Eh? It's so embarrassing. How could he say such cloying words in front of so many people? It was illegal to show off their affection in public.

At this moment, Lian Feng was very touched. She didn't expect herself to be so important to Ye Qiu. Thinking about it, wasn't it her luck to meet him?

There was happiness hidden in her heart and love in her eyes. Lian Feng looked at Ye Qiu affectionately and said proudly, "I want it."

As she spoke, she took the longevity medicine from Ye Qiu and lowered her head, feeling extremely touched. However, she was used to being cold and did not know how to express her emotions. She could only lower her head and think.

Seeing that she had finally accepted it, Ye Qiu finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"Hehe, aren't you in my hands now?" Ye Qiu was extremely excited as he thought.

Fortunately, he had a rich experience in his previous life and learned some cheesy words of love. Otherwise, he really wouldn't have been able to take her down. A hundred thousand times! A hundred thousand times!

Ye Qiu just looked at her quietly. Lian Feng lowered her head and pondered for a while before suddenly raising her head. She looked at Ye Qiu affectionately and didn't say anything. She stood on her tiptoes and slowly kissed him.

A passionate kiss. This was Lian Feng's most direct response. She did not express it so implicitly. If she decided on it, it would be her lifetime commitment.

Ye Qiu's eyes widened in surprise.

Was she that bold? He felt the emotions that came from the other party...

And here would be the omission of fifty thousand words.

Lian Feng kissed him and made up her mind. She retreated with a red face and pursed her lips. She thought to herself, "Is this what my senior sisters meant by kissing? Hmm... The feeling was indeed wonderful. It was sweet, making people unable to forget it. It was a strange feeling. Looks like I'll have to ask my senior sisters for guidance and let them impart some experience to me when I get back."

After making up her mind, Lian Feng revealed a gentle smile. Her eyes were like crescent moons, very beautiful and moving. It was intoxicating to look at.

Ye Qiu was stunned...

"I like this gift very much." Lian Feng continued seriously, "If possible, let's officially date?"

Ye Qiu's heart trembled. Did he succeed?

"Okay..."

Without any hesitation, they had finally become official.

“Eh...”

The audience, who had no idea what was going on, was suddenly stuffed with all the sweetness. They were so angry that their faces turned pale.

This was too much. Let's go, let's go.

They had thought that there would be a good show to watch, but who would have thought that it would be this? Damn it, if they had known earlier, they would have died in the battle. Everyone cursed. Even Old Daoist Yun Shengzi's face darkened.

“Fellow Daoists, this matter is over. I'll take my leave first.”

“Fellow Daoist, please wait. I'll accompany you.”

Soon, everyone was gone.

Who could stand such grievances? You guys dare to stuff those sweetness down our throats? How dare you.

[Ding...]

[Congratulations, host. You have succeeded in becoming an official couple. Love Bond: Ye Qiu— Lian Feng.]

Binding successful. Unlocked the Love Affinity System and obtained a god-grade lucky draw chance.]

“Come on, draw for me...”

A smile appeared on Ye Qiu’s face and he gradually became impudent.

“Ding...”

[Congratulations, you have drawn an immortal item: Love Affinity Set, Liuxian Robe, Liuxian Dress.]

“Hmm? What is this?”

Ye Qiu was stunned for a moment and carefully checked the treasure he had drawn. It turned out that there were two sets of clothes.

“F*ck...” Ye Qiu suddenly cursed and sucked in a breath of cold air.

This Liuxian Robe and Liuxian Dress were actually so powerful. When worn, their defense would become extremely strong. Without any special methods, even a Martial Monarch realm expert would not be able to break through their defense. Wasn’t this f*cking invincible?

With the Cloudy Heavens Sword and the Liuxian Robe, wouldn’t he be able to kill anyone he saw in the future?

Yo, good, good...

As expected of my lucky goddess. I've made a killing this time.

The most terrifying thing was that if these two clothes were worn by two people who loved each other, there would be other unexpected effects.

Well, as for the effect, he would talk about it later.

"Hehe, not bad, not bad..." Ye Qiu was delighted and continued, "System."

[Ding! You have given a low-grade longevity medicine to your love. You have triggered a critical hit.]

[Activate?]

"Activate it."

[Ding... congratulations, you have triggered a 20,000 times critical strike. You have obtained a supreme-grade longevity medicine, a Chaos Green Lotus.]

"Hiss... Chaos Green Lotus. Oh my god, I'm really rich this time." Ye Qiu was really stumped.

The Goddess of Luck had descended. It was a 20,000-fold critical hit. The low-grade longevity medicine directly became supreme-grade. With this longevity medicine, wouldn't he be able to directly break through to the King-Ranked Realm?

One had to know that Ye Qiu had just broken through to the Paragon realm. It had only been a few days, but he immediately had the chance to break through to the King-Ranked realm. If this continued, he would become a Martial Monarch soon.

I'll immediately break the legend where there wasn't a Martial Monarch in Eastern Wasteland for ten thousand years. Thinking of this, Ye Qiu was excited. Suddenly, he pulled Lian Feng over and kissed her on the cheek. She was dumbfounded.

'What happened?' Lian Feng looked up at the smiling Ye Qiu and was at a loss. She asked curiously, "What's wrong?"

"Nothing. I suddenly thought of something happy." Ye Qiu smiled and pretended to be calm.

"Something happy?" Lian Feng frowned. What kind of happy thing?

Ye Qiu gently turned around. Suddenly, his clothes changed. He was already wearing the Liuxian Robe. An oppressive immortal aura instantly pressed down, causing Lian Feng to feel her breathing become tense.

That immortal robe was completely resistant to the capture of divine sense. If he stood there and did not take the initiative to expose his aura, one would not be able to detect him at all. Moreover, the immortal robe's defense was extremely strong. Lian Feng estimated that even if she used her full strength, she probably wouldn't be able to injure Ye Qiu at all.

"This... immortal robe?" Lian Feng said with a trembling voice, her eyes filled with disbelief. She didn't expect Ye Qiu to have an immortal robe besides the immortal sword. How many treasures did he have? This man was unfathomable, completely unfathomable.

"Lian'er, look at my clothes. Do I look good?" Ye Qiu smiled gently and stroked Lian Feng's beautiful hair.

Lian Feng was stunned. She sized Ye Qiu up. This immortal robe gave off an immortal aura. His entire aura had changed. He was too handsome...

He was like a true immortal. He was calm and composed, his actions were elegant, and his bearing was extraordinary.

“Yes.” Lian Feng nodded and revealed an adoring gaze. She liked it very much.

Ye Qiu smiled and said, “Then do you want one too?”

Lian Feng’s heart trembled. “This...”

Did he have another one? This was impossible. This immortal robe was a rare treasure in the world. Even those ancient orthodoxies might not be able to take it out.

Ye Qiu already had an immortal sword and immortal clothes. Could it be that he had other immortal treasures?

How rich was he?

Ye Qiu slowly took out the immortal dress and slowly held Lian Feng’s hand. He said, “This immortal dress is a couple’s set with mine. Quickly put it on and let me see...”

Lian Feng looked at the dress in disbelief. It was pure white and flawless, filled with an immortal aura. Its quality was on the same level as Ye Qiu’s immortal clothes. From its appearance, it was indeed a set.

Lian Feng hesitated for a moment. She had given a kiss for the longevity medicine. How should she thank him if he gave her another immortal dress? Her body? Eh?

Lian Feng shuddered. In the end, she decided to wear it and take a look. She would just owe the gratitude first. At most... at most, she would think about it another day.

Taking the immortal dress, Lian Feng used the Dao of Changing. With a light turn, the immortal dress was already on her body.

At that moment, she was like a true fairy that had descended to the mortal world. She was otherworldly and beautiful. She swayed her body gently, making one's heart tremble unconsciously. It was fascinating. The breathtaking dress revealed a pair of fair and defined feet. The dress swayed slightly in the wind, revealing a perfect figure.

"Beautiful, too beautiful..." Ye Qiu was stunned. He had seen countless beauties, but there was only one who could make him fall in love and unable to extricate himself.

Oh, no! There were two...

Ming Yue was not bad either. They were two different styles.

Even Lian Feng was surprised by her own change. After putting on the immortal dress, she could feel her strength rapidly increasing. At this moment, even if hundreds of Paragon realm experts surrounded her, she would be invincible.

The powerful defense of this immortal dress was no joke. Moreover, she could sense Ye Qiu's existence when the dress was on her body. It seemed like they were telepathic. It was a subtle and strange feeling.

After carefully studying the other effects of the immortal dress, Lian Feng suddenly blushed. She said angrily, "Why is there such a strange function? It's the same as that Daoist Xuanyuan's evil technique. It's too evil..."

She couldn't help but curse in her heart. She looked up at Ye Qiu...

“Hmm, forget it. We’ll talk about it another day.” After thinking about it seriously, Lian Feng decided not to think about this problem for now. She turned around and stopped. She asked, “Is it nice?”

She looked at Ye Qiu expectantly and heard him say, “Yes, it’s beautiful... My Lian’er is so beautiful. You’re like a flower placed in the heavens, beautiful and moving...”

Lian Feng blushed and was very happy. After a while, she regained her usual coldness and said, “Alright, as long as you think it looks good.”

She didn’t care much about other people’s gazes, as long as Ye Qiu liked it. Perhaps in her heart, no matter how beautiful the clothes were, they were only for the sake of the person she loved. As long as she liked them, it was fine. It didn’t matter what others thought about it.

Ye Qiu admired it fiercely. After enjoying it, he was finally satisfied. He turned around. Good lord, they were all gone...

Sigh, what a pity. I wanted to show off my love again, but there’s no audience. Then forget it.

At this moment, he had already obtained the longevity medicine. Ye Qiu had also lost interest in the so-called treasures in the Monarch’s tomb. He did not fancy those so-called Monarch’s artifacts and spirit herbs, but he could give them to his disciple.

He had gained a lot from this Monarch’s tomb and became rich in an instant. Violet Cloud Peak had never been so rich before. Ye Qiu was very satisfied. He already had so many treasures that he couldn’t count them all.

Immortal Grade: Immortal Flat Peach Seedling

Supreme-grade longevity medicine: Chaotic Green Lotus.

The remains of the Kun Peng.

Qiankun Cauldron.

Wait a minute, these were all his gains from the Monarch's tomb.

After he returned and went into seclusion for a period of time, his strength would definitely increase rapidly. As long as he reached the King-Ranked realm, he would be invincible in the Eastern Wasteland.

There was a natural chasm in the other domains, so he was currently unable to enter the other domains.

Only those who had reached the Martial Monarch realm or had special Dharma treasures could pass through the barrier and arrive at other domains.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiu couldn't help but worry. When would he and Lian Feng meet again after he left? Unless another domain world like the Monarch's tomb appeared, they could only meet again after he broke through to the Martial Monarch realm.

Lian Feng seemed to have realized this as well, and she felt a little reluctant.
