

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 158

This time, it was an absolute crushing trend without any suspense.

“Little Martial Uncle...” Cheng Feng panicked when he saw Wanfeng being defeated again. “Damn it, let’s go all out. Let’s attack together.”

Dozens of figures charged out at the same time, wanting to ambush Little Linglong who had yet to catch her breath. Who would have thought that a bolt of lightning would tear through the sky.

After interrupting their sneak attack, Little Linglong entered into a state. Her senior sister’s injuries deeply agitated her.

“I’m going to kill all of you...”

She didn’t know how Zhao Wan’er’s injuries were. She thought that her senior sister and parents were just like the old beggar.

Under her emotional breakdown, her eyes were bloodshot. Carrying the Linglong Hammer, she attacked one by one. Every person who was attacked by the hammer felt as if they were struck by a speeding truck.

All the bones in their body were broken and they were almost beaten to a pulp.

In just a few seconds, Little Linglong had cleared all the disciples of the Supreme Hall. Those disciples were kicked out of the Mount Yun Ding’s barrier with a flash of white light. Before they even started climbing the mountain, they had already ended this year’s trip to Mount Yun Ding.

“No, I can’t just lose...” Wanfeng was unwilling to accept this reality and wanted to escape. He still had to continue up the mountain and could not fall here.

Unfortunately, Little Linglong didn’t give him a chance at all because he was the culprit who injured her senior sister. Seeing that he was about to walk on the bluestone path, Little Linglong suddenly smashed her hammer onto the bluestone path.

The huge energy impact actually created a hole.

“Oh my god...”

The people outside the arena were dumbfounded, let alone the people inside.

The three thousand bluestone paths were paths of laws that had been left behind since ancient times. They were protected by ancient laws. Yet, she actually smashed it with a hammer?

Wanfeng broke out in cold sweat as he laid on the bluestone path and looked at the hole in front of him. If she had hit him accurately just now, this hammer would probably have taken his life.

“Oh my god, if anyone dares to say that a little loli is cute in the future, I’ll fight him to the death.”

The big shots outside the arena were also trembling with fear. As expected of the reincarnation of an immortal, she was too ferocious.

“Don’t... don’t come over...” The current Wanfeng no longer had the arrogance from before. He was already covered in cold sweat and his clothes were wet. His legs trembled as he pushed on his legs and kept retreating. He watched as Little Linglong walked over step by step with her head lowered while carrying the hammer. She was like a death god from hell, extremely terrifying.

"I'm going to kill you..." Little Linglong shouted and instantly smashed her hammer over. Wanfeng wanted to block it, but he couldn't withstand this hammer at all.

The black saber in his hand was bent. Then his body turned into a white light and disappeared from Mount Yun Ding.

Little Linglong immediately panicked. She didn't know that there wouldn't be anyone dying in Mount Yun Ding and thought that Wanfeng had escaped. She turned around and wanted to find Wanfeng's whereabouts, but she discovered the onlookers who were secretly trying to escape. She couldn't find Wanfeng for a moment, so she directed her anger at them.

Immediately, a sentence appeared in everyone's hearts.

"Oh no... We're toasted... We have to die too..."

"Damn it, I shouldn't have stayed behind to watch the show. It would have been better if I had gone up the mountain earlier. Now, I don't even have a chance to go up."

Everyone cried, but how could Little Linglong care so much? She leaped into the sky and the dark clouds covered the sky again.

"With my body, I command the brilliant heavenly might... Suppress... Jingzhe"

In an instant, the Nine Heavens Divine Lightning Domain was formed again.

In an instant, a lightning cage descended from the sky and locked everyone inside.

“Damn it, I’ll risk it...”

After being forced into a corner, the people who wanted to escape could no longer hold back.

In the crowd, Feng Qingyun, who had been silent, also revealed a furious expression. He originally wanted to hide his skills and wait for those people in front to show their talents. After the Potentials Ranking were refreshed, he would start challenging them one by one.

In the end, not only was the rankings not refreshed, but he was going to be beaten out of the game by a little loli? Didn’t this mean that his trip to Mount Yun Ding had ended? If he missed this year, he could not participate in the next one as he was over the age restriction.

He was unwilling, unwilling to be eliminated just like that. If he didn’t erupt now, when would he?

“Hmph... Little girl, I’ve tolerated you for a long time.” Feng Qingyun roared angrily, and an incomparably cold sword was unsheathed.

In an instant, a power of level nine Infinite Distance erupted, shocking everyone. No one expected such a big shot to be hidden among the crowd.

“Who is this person?”

“He seems to be from the Land of Glacier in the north. The ice attribute on him is very strong.”

“I know him...”

At this moment, someone in the crowd shouted.

“This person is a talented person from the north of the Arctic, the Infinite Land. He has been nurtured by the Infinite Dao and his sword techniques are superb. His strength is extraordinary.”

“He was originally a popular contestant for this year’s Mount Yun Ding championship. I didn’t expect him to still be here and not go up the mountain...”

Everyone only reacted after hearing that person’s introduction.

“Damn, he’s actually the successor of the Infinite Dao?”

“Doesn’t that mean we can escape today?”

Seeing this, everyone was delighted. If Feng Qingyun could defeat Linglong, they could avoid this calamity.
