

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 164

What was Dao?

As soon as this question was asked, Lin Qingzhu was stunned. She frowned and had many answers in her heart. She recalled the lonely figure on the cliff of Violet Cloud Peak, the sunrise and sunset every day. She woke up three times a day to comprehend the Dao, cultivate her Qi, and questioned her heart.

These were her three homework assignments when she entered the sect. Back then, the ignorant her had always understood that she cultivated for revenge. However, she did not know why others cultivated.

Therefore, she specially went to ask her master. Her master said something that still left a deep impression on her.

Thinking of this, Lin Qingzhu said without hesitation, "To stand up for the world, to establish a life for the people, to inherit the ultimate techniques, and to bring peace for all generations. This is the Dao, the Dao in my heart."

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone was shocked.

"F*ck... I've heard countless answers on this level, but I've never heard such a domineering sentence."

"What is the purpose of me cultivating?"

"To stand up for the world, to establish a life for the people, to inherit the ultimate techniques, and to bring peace for all generations?"

"F*ck, amazing! This is the most impressive and beautiful answer I've ever heard."

As soon as she finished speaking, the entire venue erupted. No one expected Lin Qingzhu to say such a thing. Even the people outside the arena were shocked. Who would have thought that the cold and aloof Lin Qingzhu would have such ambitions?

“Damn, this is too ruthless. One sentence made my blood boil.”

As soon as Lin Qingzhu said this, Qi Wuhui’s worried heart was instantly relieved. Then, it became even more radiant, and the situation became brighter.

“Hehe, I’m sorry. I’ve embarrassed myself. My Heaven Mending Sect has always been like this when teaching disciples...”

At this moment, even Perfected Zi Yang and Perfected Yunxu revealed shocked expressions.

“Phew...” They sighed deeply. Even they could not reach such a level of magnanimity. How ambitious was she to dare to stand up for the world?

“Young friend Ye Qiu, your disciple is really amazing. She has such a mental state at such a young age. I’m convinced...” Perfected Zi Yang sighed and said with admiration.

Ye Qiu was also a little surprised. He didn’t expect her to remember what he said to her so clearly. She had really brought honor to him. Hehe, as expected of my most considerate little sweetheart. She’s too heartwarming.

“Haha, Senior, you flatter me. My disciple is slow-witted. How would I dare to receive such praise from you?” Ye Qiu smiled, yet his expression didn’t seem to be modest.

The corner of Perfected Zi Yang's mouth twitched. Good lord... He really didn't know if he was really humble or if he was pretending.

"Haha, young friend, you're really a straightforward person. I admire you..." Perfected Yunxu also shook his head and smiled, feeling extremely envious.

Not only was Ye Qiu powerful, but his cultivation was also unfathomable. Even his disciple was a rare genius. In a daze, he seemed to recall the fear of being dominated by Daoist Xuantian back then. It seemed to have become his nightmares.

At this moment, Gu Jianxuan's expression was a little ugly. He didn't expect Lin Qingzhu to suddenly say this. She had shown her big picture. Compared to her, all the answers seemed especially weak. It was even a little selfish.

"Damn it!" After cursing, Gu Jianxuan's mentality completely collapsed. At first, he thought that Lin Qingzhu only cultivated the Martial Dao and not the Dao of Heart.

Who would have thought that not only did she cultivate two paths at the same time, her mental state was also so high that she directly crushed everyone. If this continued, his Supreme Hall would probably lose all its reputation.

He felt a little regretful. Why did he have to go against Ye Qiu from the start? Wasn't this purely looking for humiliation? Unfortunately, it was useless to regret. He had already bragged about it, so it was impossible for him to stop now.

If he wanted to regain his dignity, he could only place his hopes on Lu Yan. If he could not withstand it, then Supreme Hall would really lose.

As soon as Lin Qingzhu finished speaking, the chess piece in the old man's hand suddenly fell, and his expression froze. "To stand up for the world, to establish a life for the people, to inherit the ultimate techniques, and to bring peace for all generations?"

"Wonderful, truly wonderful."

After a moment of silence, the old man suddenly revealed a smile. A golden light slowly descended and entered Lin Qingzhu's body. There was actually so much providence of the world. It was dozens of times more than what He Wushuang had obtained previously.

Everyone watching was shocked.

"I've been guarding this stage for several eras. This is the most exciting answer I've ever heard. Young lady, congratulations on passing the Dao Heart Questioning."

The old man smiled faintly, and the light gradually faded. The door in front of her suddenly opened.

Lin Qingzhu was stunned as she felt that shocking providence. She didn't expect that her master's words back then would be so helpful to her today. She admired Ye Qiu even more.

"I didn't expect Master's understanding of the Dao to be so deep. This is all thanks to Master." Lin Qingzhu muttered to herself in her heart. She knew better than anyone who said this.

Just as she was in a daze, she suddenly felt a trace of killing intent.

"Attack!"

At the critical moment, a few disciples of the Supreme Hall attacked from behind. The moment she sensed this aura, a bone-chilling sword intent bloomed. Lin Qingzhu slowly turned around and stared coldly at the Supreme Hall disciples in front of her.
