

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 178

“Hmm? It’s this little fellow again...”

He Wushuang’s mouth twitched when he saw Little Linglong running over from outside. He had an ominous feeling.

Was it his imagination? Why did this little fellow give him the feeling that she could win?

The little loli, who had been underestimated since the beginning, had already arrived at the peak in the blink of an eye. If this continued, the Dao discussion at Yun Ding this year might really be snatched away by this little fellow. That would be too embarrassing.

It was said that this generation had many geniuses. It was a golden age. As for them, they were praised to the skies. They were the Heavenly Saint and the Jade-Lake Saintess. Turning around, the experts on the Dao discussion on Mount Yun Ding was beaten down by a little loli.

That would be extremely embarrassing.

“Fairy, why do I have an ominous feeling...”

Fuyao’s gaze was extremely complicated as she looked at him. From the beginning, the only ones she treated as opponents were He Wushuang and Lin Qingzhu. Now, she seemed to have to add another one, Little Linglong.

This little fellow’s potential was extremely astonishing. Usually, when she stood there, she gave off a feeling of no threat. However, it didn’t seem to be the case once she got angry.

“That Su Lijie from Transient Light Cave seems to be a good opponent. How did he lose to her?” Fuyao said doubtfully. He Wushuang could not figure out what had happened.

On the other side, Little Linglong passed through the door and immediately saw Lin Qingzhu sitting not far away. She ran over.

“Senior Sister...”

After calling her senior sister sweetly, Lin Qingzhu smiled gently and pulled her hand to sit beside her. She was also a little surprised that Little Linglong had actually overcome all obstacles and killed her way here.

It seemed like it was just as her master had said. This little fellow contained endless potential. If she really erupted, all the geniuses on Mount Yun Ding would probably not be her match. It seemed like this was a sure bet.

Lin Qingzhu pondered as she recalled her master’s words.

After passing through the top level, only ten people could reach the peak. After entering the peak, they would enter the final competition. In the end, perhaps only one person could successfully reach the top. The others could only be used as foil and be eliminated.

Thinking of this, Lin Qingzhu thought to herself, “Master once said that Linglong’s body contains endless power. If she loses control of her emotions, the potential in her body will take the initiative to erupt.

“If the chaotic battle begins and I’m no match for them, I might consider acting for her...”

Once the chaotic battle began, the battlefield would change rapidly. Lin Qingzhu did not have the confidence to maintain an undefeated record under the siege of so many people. If there was no other choice, she could consider activating her final killing move.

The innocent Little Linglong probably didn't know that her senior sister, who doted on her the most, was already thinking about how to act for her later.

Thinking of this, Lin Qingzhu secretly laughed. She gently stroked Linglong's beautiful hair and tidied her clothes. "Linglong, quickly sit down and regulate your breathing. Try to recover your combat strength to its peak."

"Okay..." Little Linglong obediently replied and sat down cross-legged. She imitated Lin Qingzhu and entered a state of recuperation.

After an unknown period of time, the door opened again.

"Who is it this time?"

The few of them hurriedly looked over and saw a handsome figure slowly walk out.

It was Liu Qingfeng.

"Well done!"

Outside the arena, everyone in the Heaven Mending Sect cheered when they saw Liu Qingfeng successfully advance.

"Haha, now, including Martial Nephew Liu, our Heaven Mending Sect already has three disciples who entered the top ten at the same time. It's difficult for our Heaven Mending Sect not to be famous this year." Qi Wuhui laughed loudly. This day has been awesome.

Yang Wudi echoed, "Hehe, Senior Brother Sect Master, can we prepare for the disciple recruitment ceremony next year?"

“Ditto.”

“This time, I want to take in a genius to teach. Don’t fight with me...”

For a moment, the masters and elders had already begun to prepare for the disciple recruitment ceremony next year.

Meng Tianzheng also smiled in relief. He stroked his goatee and said, “It’s time to prepare. Junior Brother Qi, when we return to the mountain, you can release the news.

“My Heaven Mending Sect is scheduled to hold a disciple recruitment ceremony at the beginning of spring next year. We sincerely invite the young and outstanding disciples of the world to participate in the assessment.”

Qi Wuhui slapped his thigh and shouted, “Alright... Senior Brother Sect Master, leave this to me. I promise to do it clearly for you.”

Ye Qiu wasn’t interested in this, nor did he participate in the discussion.

Seeing that he seemed to have something on his mind, Ming Yue asked curiously, “Junior Brother, is there something on your mind?”

Ye Qiu shook his head and said, “No...”

Ye Qiu couldn’t bear to ruin this beautiful moment seeing them in such a good mood.

After this Mount Yun Ding ended, Ye Qiu prepared to enter seclusion for a period of time to break through to the King-Ranked realm. Then, he would enter the uninhabited region and investigate the secret of the strange other shore. He was preparing for the upcoming calamity.

He was indeed the nominal strongest expert in the Eastern Wasteland, but the problem was that it was still unknown how many existences stronger than him were hidden in the depths of the uninhabited region.

Ye Qiu wasn't so arrogant as to say that he was invincible.

Once the strangeness invaded this world, anything could happen.
