

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 190

“So that’s what happened...”

After hearing Ming Yue’s explanation, Ye Qiu suddenly understood. He also felt very regretful. Daoist Xuantian died early and wasn’t here. Otherwise, he would probably be able to get two, right?

However, he did not seem to lack this so-called providence.

“Sigh...” Ye Qiu sighed and shook his head.

Providence of the world represented luck and fortune. It was a good thing. Currently, Ye Qiu seems to lack such a thing.

If one’s providence was strong enough, the probability of becoming an immortal would be higher because this thing also represented the recognition of the world. It could prevent bad luck, suffering, and the pain of karma. This is an indication of an upward trend.

However, why were there only four? Who could use so little?

No, it seemed like he had to think of a way to trap his darlings. However, he did not know if the providence of this world could trigger a Critical Hit Return. If it could, he would be rich.

At this moment, on the peak of Yun Ding, Little Linglong, who was sitting on the throne, was enduring the baptism of the providence of heaven and earth.

The King's seal between her eyebrows became even more eye-catching. Her aura also became illusory, and her entire temperament changed. It was as if the high and mighty god was giving everyone the pressure of a peerless empress when she became serious.

“Oh my god, who would have thought that the peak of this year's Yun Ding would be won by a little girl?”

“This is crazy.”

No one expected the outcome to be like this. In the beginning, they had predicted that this year's top candidate would win. Perhaps it would be He Wushuang, Fuyao, or Lin Qingzhu. In the end, it was so unexpected. None of these people won. Instead, Little Linglong, who everyone thought was just going in to play, stole it.

“Hehe, invincible among my peers...”

Sitting on the peak of Yun Ding, Little Linglong was very excited. She felt that this chair was very comfortable and kept moving around. After sitting for a while, she stood up and ran behind the throne to take a look. “Eh, what is this?”

Little Linglong looked puzzled as she looked at the blue crystal behind the throne. It seemed like that magical power came from this crystal. Out of curiosity, she reached out to pull it out.

Little Linglong was instantly unhappy. She picked up the hammer and prepared to smash it out.

Everyone gasped when they saw this.

“F*ck, what is she doing?”

“Could it be that she wants to smash the King’s throne?”

At this moment, everyone was stunned. They wanted to go in and stop her, but at this moment, no one could stop her.

At this moment, only Liu Qingfeng and the disciple of the Divine Language Academy were left on the peak. But they couldn’t go up either.

“Little Junior Sister, no...” Liu Qingfeng hurriedly shouted.

Unfortunately, she was too far away to hear it. She stared blankly at the crystal behind the throne.

“This is definitely a good thing. That power just now is warm and comfortable. I’ll bring it back for Master to study and install it on the bed. Hehe, I’ll definitely be able to sleep well every day in the future.”

As if she had made up her mind, Little Linglong instantly raised the Linglong Hammer and smashed it down. Suddenly, the world trembled and the ancient path of starlight began to collapse. Everyone immediately understood what Little Linglong wanted to do.

It turned out that she didn’t want to smash the throne, but the energy crystal on the throne. After understanding this, everyone was stunned.

“Haha, this little fellow is crazy. She actually dares to have designs on the energy crystal at the peak of Mount Yun Ding...”

“That energy crystal contains endless power. It’s an energy crystal formed by the fusion of countless years on Mount Yun Ding.”

“I don’t know how many people are coveting this crystal, but they are more or less afraid of the pressure of Yun Ding and don’t dare to rashly take it.”

“Even Daoist Xuantian only probed for a while back then and failed. He had no choice but to give up.”

“This little fellow really dares?”

For a moment, everyone became excited. They were a little envious and wanted to watch the show. They wanted to see if this little fellow could take out the energy crystal.

At this moment, even Ye Qiu was speechless. Good lord, he was just praising her performance this time. He was prepared to praise her later. In less than three seconds, she started acting up again.

As expected of you, Martial Monarch Linglong. This was something that many people in history wanted to do but did not dare to do. You actually didn’t even hesitate and directly swung your hammer.

On the screen, Little Linglong stood behind the throne and swung her hammer with all her might.

“Come out...” She had used all her strength. As she swung down with this hammer, the ancient path of starlight trembled and almost collapsed. But when she turned around, the throne was still safe and sound.

Little Linglong was instantly enraged. She rolled up her sleeves and put down the Linglong Hammer. She stepped onto the throne and grabbed a blue crystal with her small hands.

“Pulling carrots...” With a childish shout, Little Linglong erupted with all her might and began to pluck the carrots. Her stubborn temper rose. If she couldn’t pull out this crystal today, she definitely wouldn’t leave.

“Haha...” Seeing this comical scene, Perfected Zi Yang also laughed and teased, “Young friend Ye Qiu, your little disciple is quite ruthless.”

Ye Qiu revealed an awkward and polite smile, too embarrassed to answer.

Perfected Yunxu saw something and replied, “This crystal is formed from the order of Yun Ding. It has been nurtured for tens of thousands of years and is incomparably sturdy. It’s as difficult as ascending to the heavens to shake the order of Yun Ding.

“Back then, your master, Daoist Xuantian, also tried, but the order of Yun Ding was unshakable and he had no choice but to give up.”

Hearing that his master had such a past, Ye Qiu was stunned for a moment and continued to listen to him.

“Since ancient times, there have been people who could make it loosen. There are many records in the ancient Godfiend records. These people who can shake the order of Yun Ding are all invincible geniuses and stunning figures.

“Moreover, their potentials have already been developed to a perfect state. They have been acknowledged by the order of Yun Ding, so they could slightly shake it.

“However, it’s only slightly loosened. If you want to take the crystal, at the very least, the potential of each realm has been developed to the limit, and your talent and aptitude have reached the peak.

“Otherwise, it will be as difficult as ascending to the heavens to obtain the crystal without the approval of the order...”

Hearing this, Ye Qiu’s eyes lit up.

“Interesting. One has developed all their realms to the limit. Their talent and aptitude have to reach the peak?”

Ye Qiu smiled in his heart. He suddenly felt that this matter had become fun.

Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan'er discussed softly behind him, “It seems like... Little Junior Sister's potential in various realms has already been developed to the limit, right?”

Zhao Wan'er thought about it seriously and immediately sweated.

“Yes, that seems to be the case. Master said that Little Junior Sister's every realm has been refined by various precious medicines and combined with her own physique to perfect every realm. She definitely has no problem with her physical potential. As for her talent and aptitude...”

At this point, the two of them looked at each other and immediately laughed. There was no problem with her talent, except for illiteracy.

She learned everything quickly and basically grasped the technique at a glance. The only thing she could not grasp was reading and studying, it was like she's under some kind of curse to not be able to do that.

She only learned three words after learning for more than a month: roasted sweet potatoes.

At this moment, in the scene, Little Linglong held the blue crystal and stood on the throne. She instantly exerted strength like pulling out a carrot.

In an instant, the entire Mount Yun Ding trembled. She used all her strength, and her face turned red.

It did not make the crystal move at all.

Little Linglong's temper immediately flared up again. She took a deep breath and exerted strength.

“Pull out the carrot!”

This time, she completely unleashed the power in her body. She had reached her limit in her anger.

Suddenly, the crystal loosened and the entire Yun Ding trembled.

“F*ck, f*ck...”

“It moved. It moved.”

Everyone was dumbfounded by this scene. The Yun Ding's crystal actually began to loosen under Little Linglong's full strength.

“Could it be that she can really create an unprecedented record and successfully pull out the Yun Ding crystal?”

Even Perfected Zi Yang and Perfected Yunxu revealed terrified gazes. If she could really pull it out, her future would be unimaginable.

Those who could pull out the Yun Ding crystal must have heaven-defying potential. How could such an existence have low future achievements?

“Oh my god, my heart is beating faster. This little fellow is too exciting.” Perfected Zi Yang sweated as he spoke. He could not stand such stimulation at his age. At this moment, his heart was beating along with the little fellow’s rhythm.

Boom...

With a loud bang, a petite figure flew out like a cannonball. She smashed fiercely onto the ground and was planted upside down.

“Pfft...”

Little Linglong struggled to pull herself out of the ground.

“Pfft...”

She spat out a mouthful of mud. Little Linglong’s face was filled with anger.

“I don’t believe this...”

She was angry. She stretched out her hand and the Linglong Hammer appeared in her hand. She jumped up and charged towards the throne again. Liu Qingfeng and the disciple of the Divine Language Academy were dumbfounded.

“Oh my god, this is too crazy! I’d better leave this place quickly, lest the Little Demon King gets angry from embarrassment and kill me. That would be bad.”

The genius from the Divine Language Academy said with lingering fear. Who knew if the anxious Little Linglong would vent her anger on him? In any case, there was no more fighting here. If he didn't leave now, he probably wouldn't be able to leave later.
