

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 191

This little fellow's style of doing things was incomparably violent. One second, she was smiling at you, and the next second, the hammer might be aimed at your face. Therefore, in order to protect this handsome face, it was better to leave first.

Liu Qingfeng felt a little afraid as he watched the disciple of the Divine Language Academy leave.

"Why don't I leave too?"

After thinking about it, he decided to stay. At least she would have someone to take care of her. It would be terrible if anything happened to the little fellow and Martial Uncle Ye skinned him later.

On the peak of Yun Ding, Little Linglong swung her hammer again. Her eyes were red as she angrily swung her hammer. In an instant, all the energy in her body erupted, and lightning filled the entire world. The ancient path of starlight immediately trembled.

Boom...

With a deafening sound, the throne was still safe and sound.

Seeing this scene, Ye Qiu sighed and said, "Sigh, Linglong is only at level one of Infinite Distance in Body Tempering. Although all the previous realms have been developed to the extreme."

"However, if she wants to shake this Infinite Order, you need a power that can break the rules."

Lin Qingzhu was puzzled and said, "Master, what is the power that breaks the rules?"

Ye Qiu turned around to look at her and explained, "Everyone's potential has a limit, which is the so-called extreme realm. If it develops to this point, there will be no possibility of it rising. Coincidentally, this so-called limit happens to be within the laws.

"Therefore, if you want to break the rules, you must first break your own upper limit, which is the so-called... extreme limit. Only by breaking your own upper limit can you break through the so-called restrictions of laws and transcend."

After hearing Ye Qiu's explanation, Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan'er immediately understood something.

"In other words, if Linglong wants to take the crystal now, she has to break her own limits and reach the extreme to succeed?"

Ye Qiu nodded, and their faces trembled. From her master's explanation, this so-called extreme breakthrough must be extremely difficult. It seemed like Little Linglong would really return empty-handed this time.

Although Little Linglong's potential was endless, it was still the power sealed within her in her previous life.

It was a completely different concept. The limit Ye Qiu mentioned meant the upper limit of her strength in a certain realm. This was because every realm had a limit. After reaching this limit, one would enter the next realm.

Very few people tried to break through the so-called limit after reaching the upper limit to reach a perfect state.

Everyone focused their attention on the little demon king who angrily walked to the throne again.

“Damn it...” Little Linglong kicked the throne angrily. She turned around and realized that Liu Qingfeng was the only one left.

The disciple from the Divine Language Academy had long disappeared. Seeing that the target of her anger was gone, Little Linglong could only give up.

“At least you ran fast.”

Turning around, Little Linglong calmed down for a while. Her mouth was pouted, and no one knew what she was saying. Suddenly, she sat down cross-legged, as if she was adjusting her state.

Seeing this scene, everyone immediately became excited.

“Could she really break through these shackles and obtain the energy crystal?” Someone boldly guessed, and the crowd immediately erupted.

Everyone’s breathing also tightened as they stared fixedly at the little fellow on the screen.

In the Heaven Mending Sect’s team.

The elders and disciples also looked nervously at the youngest fellow in the Heaven Mending Sect.

Qi Wuhui endured for a long time and said, “I’m so nervous. I wonder what kind of surprise this little fellow will bring us. In history, no one has been able to touch this crystal. If she can really take it, this time... my Heaven Mending Sect will definitely be famous throughout the Great Desolate.”

Yang Wudi also said, “That’s right! This little fellow’s potential has always been terrifying. Perhaps she can really break the record that even Martial Uncle Xuantian couldn’t break back then.”

Even though his son had been beaten beyond recognition by Little Linglong many times, Yang Wudi couldn't help but praise her. This was something that would bring honor to the entire Heaven Mending Sect. How could he not be nervous?

"It's starting..." Ming Yue reminded them and everyone hurriedly looked over.

Little Linglong, who was recuperating for a moment, suddenly opened her eyes. Her aura had changed.

Everyone was shocked. They watched as she slowly walked to the crystal and put away the Linglong Hammer. Instead, she slowly grabbed the crystal with both hands. A red rune slowly flowed into her hand.

"This is..."

Everyone was shocked. They could not figure out what this red rune was.

Only Ye Qiu knew that this red rune came from the Godfiend Body Tempering Technique that Little Linglong cultivated. Back then, in order to teach her this body tempering technique, Ye Qiu had spent a lot of effort to guide her how to circulate the Qi in her body step by step.

It was an effort.

As soon as the Godfiend Body Tempering Technique erupted, the red runes erupted with powerful energy.

"Pull out the carrot!" Little Linglong shouted angrily and instantly exerted strength. In an instant, all her strength erupted, and the indestructible throne actually began to shake.

“It’s moving. Is it really going to succeed this time?”

Everyone became nervous.

Little Linglong kept exerting strength. After her strength erupted to the limit, the crystal still did not come out.

Little Linglong did not give up and tried her best to pull it out again. Just as her strength reached its peak, there was suddenly a loud bang. That power that had already reached its limit seemed to have broken through some shackles and risen to a terrifying level.

Seeing this scene, Ye Qiu was shocked, “It’s broken?”

At this moment, even he could not remain calm. This little fellow relied on her emotions to break through the extreme realm without anyone to guide her?

The experts present also understood something at this moment. They lowered their heads and pondered.

“This little fellow actually broke through to the extreme so easily. Although she’s only in the Infinite Distance realm, her potential is one in a million. This is unbelievable.”

Perfected Zi Yang and Perfected Yunxu also looked at each other and fell silent.

Swish...

In a flash, with Little Linglong's full strength, there was a whoosh. A crystal streaked across the sky and was sent flying.

"It's out. It's really pulled out."

At this moment, everyone could no longer remain calm. They looked at the pulled crystal flying in the air and were completely shocked.

"Oh my god, this is unbelievable! She actually pulled it out..."

Everyone was dumbfounded. They watched as Little Linglong gasped for breath and looked at the crystal that was about to fly away in the sky.

"Mine, don't run..." She jumped up and successfully caught the crystal. The crystal was still struggling and wanted to run. When her temper flared up, she punched it twice and it immediately stopped struggling.

"Haha..." Seeing this, Qi Wuhui could no longer hold it in. He slowly walked to the center of the crowd and was incomparably proud. "Everyone, I've embarrassed myself. I'm really sorry. My Heaven Mending Sect has accepted this ancient crystal..."

Qi Wuhui's infuriating expression rendered everyone speechless.

The current Qi Wuhui's expression was like showing his child who had scored a hundred points in the exam. He would tell everyone that my kid scored a hundred points. How much did your child score? Did he pass?

"Hell..."

Immediately, someone couldn’t stand this humiliation and turned around to leave.

All of them had ugly expressions. The various immortal holy lands had been preparing for so many years for this Dao Discussion. They did not expect the Heaven Mending Sect to still be in the limelight.

Next, it would definitely be the various large families and dynasties in the Eastern Wasteland who would try their best to curry favor with them. They would probably wake up laughing in their dreams with so many potential disciples for them to choose from.

“Sigh...”

Looking at Qi Wuhui’s pretentious expression, Perfected Zi Yang also sighed and said, “I’m old. Forget it, Tianzheng. Congratulations, you’re once again firmly in first place at the peak of Yun Ding. Looks like your Heaven Mending Sect is indeed good at imparting disciples...”

Meng Tianzheng couldn’t stop smiling. He probably did not expect that the Heaven Mending Sect would be able to obtain the championship at the top of Yun Ding again after Martial Uncle Xuantian.

Old Meng was extremely proud.

“Haha, Senior, you must be joking. I’m just casually teaching, casually teaching...”

“F*ck!”

Qi Wuhui was stunned by Old Meng’s casual words. When did the Sect Master learn to brag? Wasn’t this Ye Qiu’s line?

Little Linglong won the championship and even obtained the Yun Ding Crystal. At this moment, all the elders and disciples present felt proud. The uncontrollable confidence was a little inflated.

Did you see that? That Little Demon King is powerful, right? When she sees me, she has to call me Senior Brother.

The little demon king that everyone could not avoid in time had now become everyone's favorite. Everyone liked her very much.

As the light screen flashed, a golden statue descended from the sky and landed beside Daoist Xuantian's statue.

That was Little Linglong's statue. Compared to the other statues, this statue was very small, but it carried a hammer in its hand. It looked very valiant.

With a flash of light, the last two people on Mount Yun Ding were teleported out.

At this point, the Dao Discussion on Mount Yun Ding had officially come to an end.

"Master, Senior Sister..."

The moment Little Linglong came out of Mount Yun Ding with the energy crystal in her hand, she excitedly ran over and pounced into Ye Qiu's arms.

Ye Qiu smiled in relief as he hugged this little fellow.

After Ye Qiu put her down, she immediately ran into the arms of her two senior sisters and asked, "Senior sisters, did you croak?"

Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan'er were about to praise her, but they immediately stopped themselves.
