

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 199

Ye Qiu sighed with emotion as he entered Violet Cloud Cave Abode alone.

This Violet Cloud Cave Abode was the place where his master, Daoist Xuantian, had stayed the longest. He was a cultivation maniac. He cultivated in the cave almost every day.

Now that ten years had passed, he couldn't help but sigh when he thought of his back when he left.

"Let's do it here..."

After sizing up the situation in the cave, Ye Qiu turned around and gently waved his hand. The cave door instantly closed. He set up a formation to prevent anyone from disturbing him during his seclusion and messing up his mental state.

After finishing all the preparations, Ye Qiu slowly walked into the cave.

The hallway towards the cave was narrow, only allowing a person to walk. After walking dozens of steps, the sight in front of him opened up.

The depths of the Violet Cloud Cave Abode was actually a blessed land. It was extremely vast. In the middle of the cave was a pool filled with lotus flowers.

Ye Qiu came to the pool and took out the Qiankun Cauldron. He placed it on the ground beside the pool and began to organize the things he needed for this seclusion.

He casually took out a purple crystal. This was what he had gotten from the system after he trapped Little Linglong last time. It was an unexpected gain. The power of the purple crystal was extremely powerful, enough for him to break through to the King-Ranked Realm.

He casually took out another Chaos Green Lotus. This supreme-grade longevity medicine was Ye Qiu's most precious treasure so far. According to his original plan, he wanted to eat the Longevity pill and break through to the King-Ranked realm.

But now, he had another thought.

“Cultivating two paths at the same time and advancing to the King-Ranked realm! What kind of heaven-defying change will there be?”

Ye Qiu was a little curious. As he muttered, his eyes gradually became crazy.

At this moment, his Qi Refinement cultivation had already reached the peak of the Paragon realm, and his Body Tempering cultivation had also entered the Cardinal realm. Now, he only needed to raise his Body Tempering realm to the peak of the Paragon realm to break through the shackles of the Paragon realm and become a King.

Therefore, Ye Qiu planned to use this Chaos Green Lotus to refine his body and increase his physical strength. This way, his strength would immediately increase by a level coupled with the powerful defense of the immortal robe. Even in the future, Ye Qiu would have the strength to fight a Martial Monarch expert.

After all, the three strikes of the Cursive Sword Art had the ability to defy the heavens and change fate.

Especially that last strike.

Ye Qiu couldn't help but sigh after sorting out his gains during this period of time.

“Sigh, when will I finish using all these treasures?”

He was more or less pretending even though he had benefited.

“System, test...”

[Ding... Beginning testing.]

[Host: Ye Qiu...]

[Gender: Male.]

[Qi Refinement cultivation: Peak of the Paragon realm. Body Tempering cultivation: Early-stage of the Cardinal realm.]

[Divine techniques mastered: Cursive Sword Art, Infinite Universe Palm, Killing A Person From Ten Thousand Miles Away, Divine Punishment.]

[Obtained Rune Treasure Technique: True Dragon Treasure Technique, Kun Peng Treasure Technique.]

[Obtained immortal treasures: Immortal Slayer Sword, Cloudy Heavens Sword, Liuxian Robe.]

[Obtained Connate numinous treasure: Qiankun Cauldron, Storm Pear Blossom Needles, etc...]

There were still many things that the system did not introduce because there were too many. It only detailed some of the more powerful things. It sent a list for Ye Qiu to see.

Ye Qiu had grasped quite a number of divine techniques. Especially the last one, the divine punishment. He had obtained it when he taught Little Linglong the Nine Heavens Divine Lightning Attraction. However, Ye Qiu had never had the time to cultivate it.

Right at this moment, he could be said to be a true tycoon. From this list, coupled with the Chaos Green Lotus and the purple crystal, no one would believe that Ye Qiu wasn't a tycoon.

"Hmm... Low-key, low-key. It's alright. Barely." Ye Qiu smiled faintly. This was nothing. He still had a long way to go. The path of the nesting children was endless.

Ye Qiu could be considered to have become rich with these three disciples. He was no longer as poor as half a year ago. He didn't say anything else. After sorting out these treasures, he began to concoct the precious medicine.

Before he came in, he nested Zhao Wan'er and got many precious medicines.

There were also many connate spirit medicines with extremely domineering medicinal effects. If they were concocted well and added with this Chaos Green Lotus, it would definitely bring huge benefits.

After spending nearly an hour, Ye Qiu finally concocted the precious medicine and injected it all into the Qiankun Cauldron. He exerted some force with his hands, and a powerful force swept up the precious medicine in the medicinal cauldron, unleashing all its strength.

On the Qiankun Cauldron, there was a hurricane with oppressive spiritual energy.

Ye Qiu didn't hesitate and stepped into the cauldron.

In an instant, a shocking power invaded his body, crazily wreaking havoc in his limbs, bones, and internal organs.

“Hiss...”

“Hell...”

Ye Qiu couldn't adapt to this sudden pain. He slowly mobilized the power in his body and finally suppressed this pain.

Ye Qiu's mouth curled up into an evil smile as he took out the Chaos Green Lotus.

“Hehe... I'm going to eat you...”

The Chaos Green Lotus was sentient. When it heard such evil words, it struggled and wanted to run. But how could it escape when it was tightly grabbed by Ye Qiu?

The Chaos Green Lotus wanted to die when it saw his evil smile and his despicable voice. If it had known earlier, it would have chosen to rot in the ground.

No matter how unwilling it was, it was still swallowed by Ye Qiu. In an instant, a violent power of longevity erupted in Ye Qiu's body, continuously attacking his nerves.

“Suppress!”

Enduring the pain, Ye Qiu instantly used the True Primordial Record to suppress this intense power. However, the power of this longevity medicine was too domineering, especially after it was fused into this precious medicine. The medicinal effect increased several times.

Ye Qiu flipped around in the medicinal cauldron. A few drops of the golden treasure liquid accidentally fell onto a seven-colored stone beside the pool. The seven-colored stone seemed to tremble for a moment, but it quickly calmed down. Ye Qiu didn't notice this subtle change.

Because of the powerful immortal power of the Chaos Green Lotus, the entire blessed land was filled with immortal energy. Even the green vines on the rock walls were filled with vitality. He endured the pain and tried his best to adapt to this power.

One day, two days...

Soon, a month passed. Even with a Supreme Body, he found it difficult to withstand the impact of this Longevity pill.

Fortunately, Ye Qiu cultivated two paths at the same time. Otherwise, his body wouldn't have been able to withstand it.

After a month of precipitation, Ye Qiu was finally able to adapt to the impact of this power and began to crazily absorb it.

The moment Ye Qiu opened his spiritual spring, almost all the power surged into it. In an instant, it had already reached the point of saturation.

"Break!" With a cold shout, Ye Qiu instantly exerted strength. His cultivation began to soar. He soared from the early-stage to the peak of the Cardinal realm.

It wasn't over yet. How could the power of this Longevity pill be absorbed so easily?

Next, Ye Qiu spent nearly a month and finally raised his Body Tempering cultivation to the early-stage Paragon realm.

The effect of cultivating two paths at the same time was instantly displayed.

The Supreme Body of a Body Tempering cultivator was several times stronger than that of a Qi Refinement cultivator. When the two were stacked together, they immediately reached perfection.

Be it his body, strength, or speed, they had all been greatly improved.

This huge change made Ye Qiu extremely happy, but this wasn't the time to be happy.

He used the True Primordial Record again and evolved the Godfiend Body Tempering Technique, deducing it to the highest profundity.

Two Great Dao Flowers bloomed. With the support of his powerful comprehension, Ye Qiu prepared to use the Great Dao Flower to complete the incomplete Godfiend Body Tempering Technique.

After several months of deduction, Ye Qiu finally successfully completed the profoundness of the Godfiend Body Tempering Technique and advanced the technique to be a divine technique.

As a result, Ye Qiu had another cultivation technique, a very abnormal yet powerful cultivation technique.

“Wonderful, truly wonderful...”

After completing the Godfiend Body Tempering Technique, Ye Qiu couldn't help but laugh. Sensing that the violent power in his body still hadn't faded, he entered a cultivation state again.

In the following period of time, he prepared to break through to the peak of the Paragon realm, so that it could be in line with the Qi Refinement realm.

Then, he will break through to the King-Ranked Realm.

He had calculated that the powerful medicinal strength of the Chaos Green Lotus was completely enough for him to break through to the King-Ranked Realm. Not to mention, there was also a purple crystal. With the two added together, Ye Qiu might be able to break through to the mid-stage King-Ranked realm, even the late-stage.

At this moment, in Violet Cloud Peak.

Early in the morning, snow covered the entire Qin Chuan. Violet Cloud Peak was also covered in white.

Lin Qingzhu got up early. Zhao Wan'er and Little Linglong also arrived at the Qianqing Hall one after another.

Ever since Ye Qiu went into seclusion, Violet Cloud Peak became even more deserted. Lin Qingzhu had a headache every day because of some trivial matters.

Fortunately, Zhao Wan'er was beside her to help. Otherwise, she would probably have gone crazy.

"Senior Sister, this list was sent by the Xiao Clan. It records the gifts of the various large families in Liyang in detail." Zhao Wan'er handed a list to Lin Qingzhu and slowly said.

For some reason, ever since the Dao discussion on Mount Yun Ding ended, the various large families in the Eastern Wasteland had frequently sent gifts to the mountain. Some were not qualified enough, so they asked Xiao Zhan to get the Xiao Clan to send them over.

Lin Qingzhu took the list and looked at it. Most of them were families she had never heard of.

Zhao Wan'er continued, "Other than these Liyang families, the families from all over the Eastern Wasteland also sent gifts one after another. Some are just expressing goodwill, while others want to rely on our Violet Cloud Peak and send their children up the mountain.

"Hmm... There are all kinds of theories, but overall, it doesn't do us any harm."

Zhao Wan'er analyzed it carefully. No matter what, she was still the princess of Liyang. She knew very well what these people were thinking.

During this period of time, Violet Cloud Peak had received enough gifts to buy a dynasty.

Zhao Wan'er was also shocked when she saw the list. She was also very impressed by her master's influence. Even if he was doing nothing and just standing there was a form of deterrence.

In order to curry favor with the Violet Cloud Peak, these families could be said to have displayed everything they had. They had all kinds of tricks.

Some time ago, Zhao Wan'er brought Little Linglong down the mountain for a walk. Good lord... Several elders of the Holy Lands came out to protect her. Wherever they went, the elders of the Holy Lands would come out to protect them. They were afraid that they would trip and fall on the way. That was how considerate they were.

Zhao Wan'er was a little flattered. Were their statuses so high now?
