

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 230

“Sigh, I’m old, I’m old...” Qi Daosheng couldn’t help but tease and shake his head when he saw Lian Feng holding a small note in her hand with a delighted expression.

Lian Feng suddenly looked up and was stunned.

“Oh no!”

Her heart skipped a beat. She had been so focused on Ye Qiu that she had forgotten that her senior brother was still beside her. Wouldn’t that mean that her senior brother had seen everything she had done?

Qi Daosheng could tell that she was embarrassed and wanted to laugh. The Saintess that he had raised for so many years was taken away as soon as she was ripe. The problem was that he didn’t even know who the other party was.

“Let’s go!”

Shaking his head, Qi Daosheng was the first to leave the Infinite World. Lian Feng lowered her head and didn’t say anything, feeling very confused. She turned around and looked at the void. She was very worried. She made up her mind.

“The Eastern Wasteland is currently suffering from a calamity. I have to break through to the Martial Monarch realm as soon as possible and cross the other side to help him...”

Just now, her senior brother had also said that the Infinite World was showing signs of collapse. Perhaps in the future, the Eight Desolates would really become one. At that time, the Eight Desolates would fuse and countless immortal holy lands would be involved. It would completely break the structure of the world. They would return to the peak of ancient times. When that happens, a good show will unfold.

Therefore, Lian Feng's eagerness to become stronger became stronger. Time waited for no one.

"Hmm... Prove the supreme Great Dao!" After saying this coldly, Lian Feng left the Infinite World and returned to the Heaven Mending Sect's Holy Land to enter seclusion.

The scene returned to the Eastern Wasteland.

After the bloody battle, Qin Chuan was still in a precarious state. At the foot of the mountain, a million ferocious beasts were eyeing them covetously. They had lost control because of Chao Feng's death. Instead of attacking Qin Chuan, they started killing each other. Because they had lost their rationality after being devoured by the strange origin, the only thought left in their minds was killing.

.....

In just half a day, only a few hundred thousand of the million ferocious beasts were left.

The scene was extremely spectacular. Blood flowed for thousands of miles outside Qin Chuan's natural chasm. Blood dyed the ground red and gathered into a huge river. The wasteland was extremely bloody and cruel. Even the air was filled with a disgusting stench.

"F*ck! This is too heroic. This is the first time I've seen such a scene in my life. It's comparable to the bloody battle in the uninhabited region back then." At this moment, even Qi Wuhui's face was pale as he said in disbelief.

"Martial Uncle, it's all chaos down there. Should we bring some people out and plunder?" At this moment, Liu Qingfeng suggested. The foot of the mountain was filled with the precious bones of ferocious beasts. As long as one had the guts to go down, they could pick them up.

Any few pieces could help them advance a major realm. It could be said to be extremely tempting. However, the gains and risks were proportional. Even if a Cardinal went down, he might not be able to guarantee that he could escape unscathed, let alone those Infinite Distance and Celestial realm cultivators.

Qi Wuhui thought about it seriously for a moment. When he turned around, he discovered that hundreds of thousands of people were staring at him. Clearly, they could not resist the temptation of those precious bones. Everyone wanted to take the risk.

However, without Qi Wuhui saying anything, no one dared to rashly open the barrier and go out.

“Hmm...” After thinking about it seriously, Qi Wuhui nodded and said, “Sure, but don’t go far. The crisis has yet to be resolved, so you just have to pick up some precious bones near the barrier. Previously, your Martial Uncle Ye killed many ferocious beasts with a single strike, including many powerful descendants. The opportunity is in front of you. It depends on how you grasp it...”

After saying that, Qi Wuhui turned around and slowly pushed out with one hand. He was about to open the barrier, when suddenly, he heard a shout from outside the mountain.

“Fellow Daoist Qi, save me...”

“Hmm?”

As soon as these words were spoken, Qi Wuhui was stunned for a moment. He looked down and saw Daoist Qingmiao and Lu Yan running over in sorry states. Behind them, black aura filled the sky and smoke billowed.

“Daoist Qingmiao?”

Qi Wuhui was stunned when he saw Daoist Qingmiao and Lu Yan running over in a sorry state.

Why was this guy here? On second thought, he remembered that the Supreme Hall had been broken through at dawn today. They might have escaped from the training hall.

Daoist Qingmiao's appearance attracted the attention of the hot-blooded youths of the various large families on Heavenly Ridge. Everyone couldn't help but sneer and mock them when they saw their sorry state.

"Haha, isn't this the First Elder of the Supreme Hall? I haven't seen you for a few days and you're already so sh*tty?"

"Oh, I have some impression of it. It seems like there was a violent commotion in the direction of the Supreme Hall this morning. Could it be that... the Supreme Hall has been breached?"

"Haha, serve you right..."

Everyone spoke sarcastically. No one present had forgotten that when the calamity arrived, the Supreme Hall abandoned the Eastern Wasteland and them. They chose to stay alone and hide. Now that the Supreme Hall had been destroyed, they were like stray dogs, asking for help everywhere.

Looking at Daoist Qingmiao, who was begging for help below, someone said, "Perfected Qi, don't let them in. None of the people from the Supreme Hall are good."

"That's right. When they chose to close the mountain gate and abandon the people of the world, did they ever think of today?"

Everyone spoke one after another. Clearly, they hated and rejected the Supreme Hall from the bottom of their hearts.

Outside the barrier, Daoist Qingmiao also felt the disgust many people present had for them. He felt extremely aggrieved. As the First Elder of the Supreme Hall, he had extremely high prestige and was admired by the world. He did not expect that today, he would be insulted and mocked by some small cultivators. That kind of grievance was unbearable for ordinary people.

“Damn it!” Even Lu Yan clenched his fists and suppressed the anger in his heart. They were humiliating his master, which was equivalent to humiliating him. “How dare these dogs bully us?”

Lu Yan was immediately unhappy. Before coming, he was already mentally prepared that he could accept the humiliation of the Heaven Mending Sect. However, he could not accept the humiliation of these small fries. They had only survived until now because they had latched onto the Heaven Mending Sect. What right did they have?

“Disciple, calm down!” Seeing that Lu Yan couldn’t take it anymore, Daoist Qingmiao hurriedly stopped him. Only the Heaven Mending Sect could save them, so this humiliation was nothing. For the sake of his disciple’s life and the future, he chose to endure it.

“Fellow Daoist Qi! I know that my Supreme Hall has repeatedly offended your Heaven Mending Sect. But that was all done by my master. My Supreme Hall has been destroyed, and he has long abandoned my tens of thousands of disciples and fled. I had no choice but to come to you in order to protect this final inheritance.

“The Heaven Mending Sect, as the number one holy land in the Eastern Wasteland, has the heart of the world and a benevolent heart. I beg you to save my Supreme Hall.” Daoist Qingmiao said dejectedly. To be able to say such words showed his determination.

With a bang, he knelt outside the barrier.

“Master!” Lu Yan’s heart palpitated and the corners of his eyes stung when he saw his master kneel down just like that.

Seeing this scene, everyone present was stunned.

“This old fellow has always been arrogant. Why is he...”

Some people began to doubt themselves, and there was a wave of discussion. No one expected Daoist Qingmiao, who had always been proud, to do such a thing today.

The Novel will be updated first on novelbin.net

Even Qi Wuhui was stunned. The line he had just thought of to mock was suddenly stuck in his mouth. Wouldn't he have a reputation of adding insult to injury if he mocked him now?

Although Qi Wuhui liked to disgust people, he disdained to do such a thing.

Qingmiao continued, “Fellow Daoist Qi, I know you hate me, but this child has never done anything wrong. I beg you to take him in. As long as you're willing to take him in, I'm willing to apologize with my life!”

Daoist Qingmiao, who was in despair, turned around and saw the black clouds pressing down on him. He steeled his heart.

At this moment, he was already on the verge of death. He was powerless to resist the incoming great ferocious beast. In order to protect Lu Yan, he was willing to exchange his life for his.

Seeing him like this, Qi Wuhui was also quite touched. The people beside him no longer persuaded him. At the very least, he was worthy of admiration. Even the disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect present were a little shaken.

Among them, Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan'er were the most touched. Daoist Qingmiao might not be a good person, but he was sincere to his disciple. They could feel that because their master treated them very well too.

After hesitating for a while, Lin Qingzhu prepared to persuade him.

“Senior Brother, let him in.”

At this moment, a voice came from behind.

“Master!” Lin Qingzhu was delighted when she heard the familiar voice and turned around.

Everyone also turned around and realized that it was Ye Qiu. Everyone immediately fell silent. There was no longer any objection.

Qi Wuhui also turned around and smiled when he saw that Ye Qiu had spoken. He slowly pushed out his palms, and the power of a Paragon erupted in an instant, slowly activating the array formation.

“Open!” With a sharp shout, a hole opened in the barrier. Qi Wuhui shouted down, “Enter!”

Lu Yan was delighted when he saw the entrance open. He hurriedly helped his master up and said, “Master, the entrance is open. We’re saved. Quickly get up...”

Daoist Qingmiao was also very touched. He did not expect Qi Wuhui to really ignore the past and forgive his previous mistakes. He was also impressed. No wonder the Heaven Mending Sect was praised as the number one holy land in the Eastern Wasteland. How could he not admire such tolerance?

Seeing that the black aura behind them was about to cover them, the two of them instantly rushed into the barrier. The moment they entered, Qi Wuhui operated the array again and closed the entrance.

Boom!

A shocking bang sounded at the foot of the mountain. A great ferocious beast violently collided with the barrier of the entrance, causing its head to bleed.