

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 244

Three Dao Flowers hung above his head, emitting a dazzling light.

Everyone was stunned.

“What’s going on? What a terrifying aura. Could it be that another expert has appeared?”

Everyone panicked. The two Kings of the Heaven Mending Sect had died in this battle. How should they deal with another powerful enemy? Just as they were panicking, three Dao Flowers instantly soared into the sky from the crack.

Everyone looked up and saw a white figure slowly ascending to the sky.

“Master!”

Seeing that familiar figure appear again, Lin Qingzhu instantly stopped the tears in the corner of her eyes and was incomparably excited. Her master was not dead. He had only slept for a while and he had come back to life.

“Damn, how did he survive this?” Qi Wuhui, who was originally covered in snot and tears, immediately cursed. “You cheated my feelings again.”

He was just thinking, if Ye Qiu died, no one in this world would torture him anymore. How lonely would that be? Who would have thought that Ye Qiu would suddenly come back to life? How did he do it? He didn’t die twice in a row. Could it be that he also had Regenerative Bone?

“That’s great, Martial Uncle isn’t dead! We won. The Heaven Mending Sect will definitely win...”

Ye Qiu's recovery made the entire Qin Chuan tremble. All the disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect were incomparably excited. They had personally witnessed this shocking battle. Ye Qiu and Xuanyi had fought with the dignity of the Heaven Mending Sect. They had won. All the disciples could not help but start to feel proud. They were proud and honored to be disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect.

This calamity was almost known as an impossible calamity to survive. The Heaven Mending Sect finally withstood it.

Ye Qiu strolled through the void as the three Dao Flowers slowly soared into the sky. With a raise of his hand, two immortal swords appeared in his hand again. The power in his body gradually entered a state of loss of control. Ye Qiu tried his best to suppress it.

The instantaneous eruption shook the Nine Heavens.

"What's going on? What's wrong with Junior Brother?"

This sudden change caught everyone off guard and they did not know what had happened.

The disciples and elders of the Heaven Mending Sect revealed worried expressions and were at a loss.

Ye Qiu stood alone in the sky. Three Dao Flowers gathered at the top and bloomed with dazzling light. Terrifying power of the dharmic dao continuously swooped down, revealing the withered vegetation in the battle just now under Ye Qiu's third strike. It began to recover in an instant.

"This is... Dao Validation!" In the crowd, Meng Tianzheng's eyes revealed a terrified expression as he said with a solemn tone.

"What? Dao Validation? Could it be..." Qi Wuhui seemed to have guessed something and his expression instantly calmed down. However, his heart was like a raging river, causing ripples.

Dao Validation proved the Dao of the world. It was the barrier between a King-Ranked and a Martial Monarch. After stepping through this barrier, Ye Qiu was no longer a mortal, but a fully deserving Deva.

A Deva recognized by the Heavenly Dao.

No one expected that not only did Ye Qiu, who had clearly died just now, not die, but he also revived with full health. Now, it was a blessing in disguise and he began to attain the supreme Great Dao.

“Heavens, could it be that Junior Brother Ye has already begun to attain the supreme Great Dao at such a young age?”

Everyone was shocked.

How old was he? He was probably only in his thirties. At this age, he had already touched the Martial Monarch realm?

Bang!

Ye Qiu stood alone in the void, accompanied by a clear sound. He instantly slashed out with the Immortal Slayer in his hand. That terrifying sword energy instantly cut a hole in the void.

“He wants to verify the Supreme Sword Dao!”

On the Infinite World, everyone was instantly shocked, their faces filled with disbelief. It was only at this moment that they realized that the Dao that Ye Qiu wanted to attain was actually the Sword Dao that tested one’s comprehension the most.

As soon as the words were out, Ye Qiu's body trembled. In an instant, a righteous aura erupted, and everyone was instantly stunned.

"This aura... This is human merit. Could it be that he wants to do both?"

"F*ck, is he crazy? He actually dares to verify two supreme Great Dao at the same time. He's simply a lunatic."

Those experts at the peak of the King-Ranked realm knew best how difficult this was. They had never been able to attain one in their lives. Now that they saw Ye Qiu wanting to attain two at once, they were incomparably shocked.

They were also cursing Ye Qiu's madness in their hearts. He was too greedy. To be able to attain the Martial Monarch realm was already an eternal existence. He was actually so unsatisfied.

"Hmph, idiot. Forcefully attaining two Daos is undoubtedly increasing the difficulty for himself. I want to see what will happen to him after he fails to attain the Dao." A King-Ranked powerhouse sneered and continued to pay attention to the situation in the Eastern Wasteland. He didn't believe that Ye Qiu could really successfully attain the Dao. If he failed, his outcome would definitely be extremely miserable.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a loud bang and another Dao Flower emitted a dazzling light. Golden runes appeared in the Dao Flower, and in an instant, an incomparably terrifying power erupted, shattering the Nine Heavens.

"Hiss..."

At this moment, no one could sit still anymore. They looked at the white figure on the natural chasm and cursed.

“F*ck you. Opening three paths at the same time?”

“Lunatic, he is definitely a lunatic. Just wait for death...”

They had roamed the world for many years and had never seen such a crazy person. Almost everyone was dumbfounded.

Ye Qiu’s action was undoubtedly pushing himself into the abyss and cutting off his path of retreat. If he succeeded in opening all three paths, he would be the number one Monarch in history, an existence that no one could compare to since ancient times. However, if he failed, his soul would definitely be scattered and he would never be able to reincarnate.

Such a soul-stirring scene made everyone nervous.

Lin Qingzhu was so nervous that she clenched her fists tightly. Her nails pierced through her flesh and blood flowed out, but she didn’t care at all. Her eyes were unfocused as she stared fixedly at a figure in the sky and muttered, “Master, you have to hold on.”

Almost all her mental sustenance came from one person, the man who brought her up the mountain, taught her Dao techniques, and silently protected her. She didn’t know about the others, but to her, Ye Qiu was her everything.

Everything she did was for her master. She was willing to do anything to make him happy and bring him honor. Every time she saw Ye Qiu in danger, she was definitely the most nervous. At such an exciting moment, everyone was looking forward to Ye Qiu’s transcendence. Only she was silently praying for her master, who doted on her the most.

She didn't want a Martial Monarch. She only wanted her master. No matter how much she wanted to, she could not change anything. She could only watch from afar.

Nine Heavens Divine Lightning surged down. In an instant, dark clouds covered the sky. Divine might descended from the heavens, and a terrifying pressure instantly came.

Everyone felt exhausted. They supported their bodies with difficulty and did not let it fall.

Boom!

Lightning tore through the sky and broke the silence of the night.

"It's starting!" Meng Tianzheng said worriedly.

In the sky, the three Dao Flowers emitted a dazzling light. In an instant, a bolt of lightning struck down. It instantly hit a Dao Flower, which swayed in the wind.

"It was blocked... blocked?"

Everyone was shocked. This bolt of lightning was successfully blocked, but Ye Qiu didn't seem to be in a good state.

"Pfft..." Ye Qiu spat out a mouthful of blood and finally sobered up. He looked up at the sky with a ruthless gaze. As he turned around, he felt a sharp pain in his body, continuously stimulating his nerves. He slowly wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and muttered to himself, "Am I really too hasty?"

Originally, Ye Qiu's plan was to settle down for a while before choosing to break through to the Martial Monarch realm. However, in the ultimate battle with Tianmeng just now, he had some comprehension and his body began to break through.

As a result, Ye Qiu's plan was in chaos. However, there was no turning back now. He decided to give it a try and take down this supreme Great Dao in one go.

After taking a breath, Ye Qiu panted heavily. He gritted his teeth and slowly closed his eyes.

"Come on! Let me feel the so-called test of heaven and earth..."

Ye Qiu opened his arms and stood in the sky.

In an instant, the surging power in his body began to boil. A supreme sword intent condensed in the world, covering the sky and earth, sweeping through the entire wasteland. The mountains were swept by the sword energy and cut in half.

"Hiss... Not good, everyone, pay attention. The Infinite World seems to be in danger of collapse."

On the Infinite World, someone discovered that while Ye Qiu's sword intent wreaked havoc without holding back, the Infinite World was repeatedly attacked. The shattered cracks gradually expanded, and everyone immediately panicked.

Another bolt of lightning descended, and a destructive aura ruthlessly struck the three Dao Flowers.

Boom!

Under the Dao Flower, Ye Qiu's body trembled. He had clearly suffered a fatal blow and spat out another mouthful of blood.

Someone said in surprise, "Is he going to transcend the tribulation?"

"What is transcending the tribulation?"

As soon as these words were spoken, it immediately attracted everyone's curiosity. They had only heard of Dao Validation. This was a test of the world. As long as one passed it, they could break through to the Martial Monarch realm. However, they had only heard of it. No one had seen it before, and they did not know how those Martial Monarchs proved their Dao.

Some peak-level King-Ranked experts who knew said, "As everyone knows, if a person reaches the peak of the King-Ranked realm, they can comprehend the Heavenly Dao and become a Saint. From then on, they will transcend the laws.

"And this so-called Dao summarizes many things, such as the Sword Dao, Blood Dao, Body Dao, Righteous Heaven and Earth Dao, and so on. As long as one comprehends one Dao to a supreme realm, they can pass the test of the world and obtain the recognition of the laws.

"There are many such tests, but most of them are targeted at the Dao that you want to verify. But..." At this point, the old man's face darkened and he revealed an incredulous gaze. After a while, he said, "The Dao here is also divided into difficulties. The higher the talent of the person who attained the Dao, the more terrifying the difficulty of the test.

"As far as I know, such a test has only appeared a few times in history. It can be said to be the most difficult test. Which one of those who triggered the Heavenly Tribulation wasn't an invincible figure of an era?

"Unfortunately, all of them failed and ended up in a miserable state."

"What!"

At this point, everyone understood.
