

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 252

This Big Dipper Technique was the monkey's inherited precious technique. It was a cultivation technique. The return triggered from this could only be a cultivation technique with uncertain attributes. However, there was a high chance that it was a defensive type. Of course, there were exceptions.

Ye Qiu only had one mental cultivation technique, the True Primordial Record, currently, and it was an incomplete one. It was obtained by triggering a critical hit return through the Violet Cloud Treasured Tome.

Now that he had reached the Martial Monarch realm, Ye Qiu could gradually feel that this cultivation technique was becoming weaker. The realms above were somewhat powerless and blurry. If he could trigger a more powerful mental cultivation technique this time, it would be equivalent to solving his biggest problem.

The Big Dipper Technique was a demigod-grade technique. Although it had yet to enter the god-grade, its strength had already far surpassed heaven-grade secret techniques.

The cultivation technique that it triggered was at least at the god-grade, right??Thinking of this, Ye Qiu gradually looked forward to it. He was a little excited and nervous.

Although this was a little shameless, Ye Qiu was thick-skinned and he didn't care.

“Come on, come on. Activate Return.”

Ye Qiu rubbed his hands together nervously.

[Ding...]

[Congratulations, you have triggered ten thousand times critical strike.]

“Gasp... Ten thousand times! I’m rich, I’m rich.”

This first shot made Ye Qiu excited. Upon hearing this critical hit rate, he knew that this was a sure bet.

[Congratulations, you have obtained a Primordial Chaos Immortal Technique, Eternal Evergreen Record.]

“Gasp... F*ck.”

“Eternal Evergreen Record? What immortal technique is this?”

This was the first time Ye Qiu heard this name and was shocked. What was even more terrifying was that this cultivation technique was actually the highest level, the Primordial Chaos Immortal Technique. It was an immortal level that surpassed the god-grade.

After carefully studying the profundity of this cultivation technique, Ye Qiu instantly sucked in a breath of cold air. It was as if he had just glimpsed the true body of the Great Dao. Unknowingly, it was as if his soul had sublimated. This mental cultivation technique was undoubtedly at the supreme immortal level.

“Hehe, not bad, not bad. I’ve profited greatly this time. With this cultivation technique, there’s finally a way to cultivate further.” Ye Qiu sighed. The problem he had been worried about had been resolved.

After carefully studying the Eternal Evergreen Record, he was even more shocked. If he cultivated this technique, Ye Qiu might really be able to reach the level of Eternal Youth.

Undying and indestructible, the Dao of Longevity? Even a Martial Monarch could not achieve longevity. Even a Deva could only theoretically achieve longevity.

In reality, whether he could live forever was still a question worth pondering. Only by pursuing the Supreme Immortal Dao and climbing to a higher realm could he live longer.

As for what was at the end of the path to immortality? Ye Qiu didn't know if it was an Immortal Supremacy, an Immortal King, or an Immortal Emperor. Or rather, was there a supreme realm above the Immortal Emperor realm? He was not qualified to pry for the time being.

Therefore, Ye Qiu still had a long way to go if he wanted to live forever. And this Eternal Evergreen Record had resolved a huge problem for him. If he mastered it, Ye Qiu would be able to be immortal unless he suffered a fatal blow.

“Hmm, from the looks of it, this cultivation technique is not bad.”

Ye Qiu nodded, feeling very happy. At least for now, this mental cultivation technique was the highest grade among all the secret techniques he had grasped.

Cultivate, he had to cultivate.

For the next month, Ye Qiu stayed on Penglai Mountain. He taught Monkey while deducing the cultivation technique. After spending a month using the Eternal Evergreen Record to replace the True Primordial Record, Ye Qiu finally had a firm foundation. He could clearly feel that the power in his body had gradually become purer and stronger.

The human aura that was originally mixed in the spiritual energy was slowly washed away by the Eternal Evergreen Record and attached with a layer of immortal aura.

Ye Qiu could feel that he was getting closer and closer to the Deva Realm.

On this day, Ye Qiu woke up at sunrise and slowly opened his eyes on the top of Penglai Mountain.

In an instant, the sharpness was like the breathing of the world. A powerful force was expelled, and the entire sea region was in chaos.

Such a shocking scene frightened the monkey into hiding and trembling.

Just now, he wanted to take advantage of Ye Qiu's cultivation to trick his master. When he saw this scene, the thought in his heart was crushed.

“Phew... Master is really an immortal. He can destroy the world with a thought. I'd better be obedient so that I won't be skinned alive and sent to the Nine Nether.”

Monkey was quite frightened, and he respected Ye Qiu even more. It could be said that Ye Qiu was the only person he feared from the bottom of his heart since he was born. And the only person he respected.

“Wukong!”

Just as Monkey was about to leave, Ye Qiu's voice came from the cliff and he was shocked.

“Master, I'm here.”

Monkey did not dare to refuse and hurriedly knelt on the ground to greet him.

Ye Qiu turned around and looked at him. "Why are you here? Did you complete your homework today?"

When Monkey saw Ye Qiu ask, he didn't dare to hide anything and said, "Master, I've already completed today's homework, but..."

After hesitating for a while, Monkey didn't know if he should say it. He had been cultivating here for a month and had been polishing his foundation. He had already cultivated the Big Dipper Technique to greater mastery. He had indeed become stronger, but he also realized a problem.

That was... Ye Qiu hadn't taught him any great divine powers yet. Even if he had endless power in his body, he did not know how to use it. He did not know how to deal with the enemy and could only rely on brute force.

Therefore, he boldly came over today and begged Ye Qiu to teach him true ability so that he could go back and fight the Great Demon King to the death.

Looking at his guilty expression, Ye Qiu vaguely guessed something. "Haha, you impatient monkey. It's only been a few days, and you're already impatient?"

Hearing Ye Qiu's words, Monkey immediately understood that his thoughts had been guessed by his master.

While he admired Ye Qiu in his heart, he no longer hid anything and said, "Master, I've been cultivating bitterly here for a month. I'm either chanting scriptures or meditating all day long. I don't want to learn these useless things. I want to learn true ability. Master, please teach me true ability."

It was obvious that he really wanted to learn true skills after hearing his pleading. However, how could he know that without this month of foundation, even if Ye Qiu wanted to teach him true ability, he wouldn't be qualified to comprehend it?

Fortunately, he managed to hold on.

In the past month, his cultivation had already reached the Five Realms. After the nurturing of many Dao techniques, his mental state and strength had increased very quickly. It wouldn't be long before he could break through to the Cardinal realm, right?

It had to be said that this monkey was indeed born from heaven and earth. Ye Qiu was extremely envious of its talent.

Now that the time was right, Ye Qiu had no intention of staying here.

“Forget it, I might as well teach him some tricks today. From now on, his life will depend on his own luck.” Ye Qiu thought to himself that he had been on this deserted island for a month. It was time for him to leave.

With a faint smile, Ye Qiu looked at the monkey and revealed a kind smile. He said, “Since you want to learn true ability, I'll teach you true ability today. However, I have something that I want you to remember.”

At this point, Ye Qiu's eyes instantly became stern. Monkey hurriedly replied, “Master, please enlighten me. I will definitely remember.”

“You monkey, you have a mischievous nature. You will definitely cause trouble in the future. I don't have any requirements for you. I only hope that when you cause trouble in the future, if others ask you who your master is, you're not allowed to say that you're my disciple.”

Hearing this, Monkey was stunned. He couldn't figure out why Ye Qiu said that. Why was he so sure that he would definitely cause trouble?

“Did you hear that?”

Monkey was shocked back to his senses and hurriedly replied, “Don’t worry, Master. I will remember it in my heart. If I really cause trouble in the future, I will definitely not tell anyone about it.” Monkey said firmly.

Ye Qiu smiled in relief. His words were enough. Although this monkey was a little naughty, its character was still not bad. If there was anything, he would really do it.

Ye Qiu was finally relieved when he said that he wouldn’t sell him out.

“Good! Today, I’ll teach you a Mystical Power. Tell me, what do you want to learn?”

Monkey scratched his head and thought for a while. He did not know what he wanted to learn and said, “I don’t know what I should learn. Master, please point out the path.”

“Hmm...” Ye Qiu pondered for a while and searched his mind to see if there were any secret techniques suitable for monkeys. After searching for a long time, he revealed a meaningful smile and said, “How about I teach you a peerless sword technique?”

“Sword technique?” Monkey thought for a moment and casually picked up a branch to gesture. It felt soft and did not suit his temperament. “No, no...”

The corner of Ye Qiu’s mouth twitched. “Damn it, I’m the best at sword techniques, but you don’t learn it? You’ll regret it in the future. If you learn my sword technique, you will be invincible in the world. Is he looking down on my sword technique? Ah, I can’t take it anymore...”

Taking a deep breath, Ye Qiu finally suppressed the anger in his heart. He then said, “Since you don’t want to learn swordsmanship, I still have a lightning technique here. Are you willing to learn it?”

Monkey thought for a while more and that scene appeared in his mind. He felt that this lightning technique was not domineering enough and did not match his temperament. He said, "No, no."

"You monkey, you're not learning this or that. What do you want to learn?"

Ye Qiu was so angry that he wanted to leave. All the secret techniques he had grasped were the strongest techniques in the world. If this was released, wouldn't the entire Great Desolate World be in chaos and everyone would fight over it?

This monkey was great. He was even picky about this.

"Master, I want to learn something more powerful and domineering." In the end, Monkey said what he was thinking. His thoughts were simple. What he wanted was a skill that he could show off. He didn't care about anything else.
