

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 285

“Pheh...”

Taking a deep breath, Ye Qiu’s eyes became serious. Back then, he still had a trace of fear and did not dare to ascend to the Heavens, afraid that he would encounter those so-called Immortal Ancient powerhouses.

But now, Ye Qiu was no longer afraid. With such a supreme immortal body, he believed that it wouldn’t be long before he could be on par with those Immortal Ancient powerhouses.

Perhaps even he did not expect that he would gain so much from this simple trap. It could be said that today was definitely his greatest gain.

Not to mention that this is the strongest physique in history, just those few restorations were enough for him to obtain so many supreme immortal techniques. Even in the Heavens, the secret techniques he grasped were not inferior to those so-called Immortal Ancient powerhouses.

With this confidence, the rest would be much easier.

“Hmm... Primordial Dao Body. If those with ulterior motives discover such a heaven-defying physique, it might be dangerous.”

After a while, Ye Qiu put on a seal, covering his chaotic energy and using a great method to restrain it. After doing all of this, he finally heaved a sigh of relief. He did not expect to be able to hide it, but at least he would feel more at ease.

“Hehe... System, continue.”

After dealing with this, Ye Qiu continued. He still had one return that had not been triggered, which was the Heaven and Earth Nourishment.

[Ding... congratulations, you have triggered a five-thousand-fold critical strike and obtained a chance to receive Heaven and Earth Nourishment.]

[Do you want to receive it?]

“Five thousand times?”

This critical hit rate was a little scary. Ye Qiu was shocked and felt relieved. It seemed like the restoration opportunity just now had become a cushion, which was why these two were so high.

Sigh, what a pity. How good would it be if it was the other way around?

Ye Qiu immediately felt bored after looking at the system’s reward. This kind of gift was dispensable for someone of his level.

In his realm, he could no longer take another step forward by relying on cultivation. The only thing he could do was comprehend the Great Dao and comprehend the laws. Only then could he break through his shackles and reach the Deva realm.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiu immediately felt bored and lost interest. However, this reward had already been triggered. Wasn't it a pity not to accept it?

“Eh...”

Just as he was hesitating, Ye Qiu's eyes suddenly lit up. He suddenly remembered that his Heaven Mending Sect had hundreds of thousands of disciples waiting to be fed. Would it be better if he gave them a great fortune at this moment?

The Dao Discussion was imminent, and the Path to Heaven was about to open. If at that time, the new generation of disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect suddenly advanced by leaps and bounds, and their strength would increase, wouldn't all the immortal holy lands inside and outside the Eight Desolates be stunned?

Thinking of this, the smile on Ye Qiu's face gradually became evil. The cunningness in his heart slowly appeared.

“Hehe, interesting. I'm suddenly looking forward to it. I shouldn't be this kind of person. It's not good to openly bring your disciple to cheat. If I can't do it well, and everyone did not do as well, wouldn't I end my sect?”

The more he thought about it, the more excited he became. Although he said he wasn't willing, Ye Qiu was already prepared to start operating.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a loud bang. A red light slowly descended from the sky and landed in the fire domain. There was a dazzling spark. There was a fairy in the flower, dazzling and otherworldly.

“Oh my god, look, what is that?”

Such a huge commotion attracted the attention of everyone outside the mountain. They all saw the holy figure in the sky. Her figure was holy and flawless, like a fairy growing in a sea of flames. She could not be looked at or touched.

The figure revealed itself. In the crowd, the first to react was Lin Qingzhu. She shouted nervously, “Wan’er!”

“What?”

Everyone was shocked when they heard this. That holy figure was actually Violet Cloud Peak’s second disciple, Zhao Wan’er?

Everyone looked incredulous. No one could believe that this was true.

Meng Tianzheng’s expression was solemn as he said in shock, “Immortal body, it’s actually the legendary immortal body. Oh god, my Heaven Mending Sect actually produced another immortal body. My sect would prosper.”

As soon as he said this, the entire venue erupted, and the entire Heaven Mending Sect was instantly stirred.

The self-proclaimed geniuses and the new generation disciples with innate saint bodies could not help but lower their heads at this moment.

After Little Linglong, Violet Cloud Peak actually produced another immortal body.

How did she do it? To transform into an immortal bone from the divine bones and be completely reborn, such a heaven-defying operation had never been seen in history.

“God, if I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn’t have believed that there was really someone in the world who could do such a thing.”

No one knew what had happened below. They only knew that another peerless fairy had appeared on Violet Cloud Peak of the Heaven Mending Sect. At this moment, she was no longer inferior to any so-called peerless genius, even to those goddesses and saints who had inherited the Dao.

This abnormality in the Eastern Wasteland also attracted the attention of the other immortal holy lands. They all felt that in the distant east, there was a peerless genius slowly rising.

All the immortal holy lands could not help but begin to feel the pressure multiply. The undercurrents of the Great Desolate surged, and the battle had already begun silently.

In the crowd, Lin Qingzhu stared fixedly at the fiery red light above her head, feeling incomparably happy.

“Junior Sister actually successfully broke the shackles of the divine bone and advanced to the immortal bone. With such a huge increase, her strength will definitely soar rapidly. I believe from today onwards, her cultivation will surpass mine.”

Other than happiness, she was still happy because this was her junior sister, the junior sister who had accompanied her through the stage of sorrow.

Of course, other than being happy, she was also a little anxious.

“Junior Sister will definitely advance by leaps and bounds after this transformation. Looks like I have to work harder and not disappoint Master.”

The pressure in her heart also began to increase. As the Eldest Senior Sister of Violet Cloud Peak, she had her own persistence. All along, she had been protecting her two junior sisters as the Eldest Senior Sister, but now, it seemed like her two junior sisters were about to surpass her. She did not want to be the one being protected, and the fighting spirit in her heart was raised.

As the flames dissipated, Violet Cloud Peak returned to normal. The fire domain barrier on the mountain was opened.

Everyone was very anxious. The moment the barrier opened, Meng Tianzheng said, “Let’s go and see what happened.”

At this moment, there was nothing they cared about more than this. They all wanted to see what was happening below and what Ye Qiu was doing.

The group of people flew into Violet Cloud Peak majestically. Countless disciples from the seven factions had arrived.
