

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 291

If Ye Qiu still had the Connate Dao Body from before, it would indeed be a little difficult to comprehend this secret technique. It would take at least a year and a half, but his foundation had already evolved and he had grown into the strongest physique in history.

Although he had yet to reach the most perfect state, comprehending this scripture was much simpler. Moreover, Ye Qiu had a feeling that if the trap succeeded this time, his gains would be at least a hundred million.

If he succeeded, his Primordial Dao Body would definitely reach its most perfect state and be known as the strongest immortal body in history.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiu began to get excited. He calmed down and seriously comprehended this scripture.

With the astonishing support of the three Dao Flowers, Ye Qiu only used an hour to understand quite a bit.

“Phew... As expected of an immortal technique. It’s indeed very profound.”

Taking a deep breath, Ye Qiu slowly opened his eyes and looked at Lin Qingzhu’s beautiful face and expectant gaze.

“Disciple, today, I will teach you a supreme immortal technique, the Mystic Ice Technique! Remember this scripture.”

As he spoke, Ye Qiu gently pushed out his palm and pressed it on Lin Qingzhu’s chest. Blue scripture instantly surged into her body.

Lin Qingzhu's face turned pale.

"Un," With a soft groan, she gritted her teeth and endured it, not letting herself make a sound. She felt the endless power coming from her master's palm.

Lin Qingzhu was secretly shocked. "Ah... Master's power is so intense. My body can't take it anymore."

She was trembling from the cold. Her face was extremely pale. She gritted her teeth and held on with difficulty. Her consciousness gradually became blurry. This bone-chilling coldness was even more torturous than Zhao Wan'er's flames.

In her daze, Lin Qingzhu's crazy will to survive made her want to find a trace of warmth uncontrollably. After fumbling in the darkness for a long time, she seemed to have touched a very warm embrace and pounced forward without hesitation.

"Oh..."

Ye Qiu sucked in a breath of cold air as he felt the little darling curled up in his arms. He didn't push her away, and an evil smile appeared on his face.

"Through the laws of heaven and earth, the execution is not slacking. The anger of winter, the freezing of mountains and rivers."

In her blurry consciousness, Lin Qingzhu tried her best to remember the secret technique sutra that her master had taught her. Fortunately, she had a photographic memory and memorized everything with just a glance.

Seeing this, Ye Qiu continued, "Defend your source and follow my path to deduce this method."

Ye Qiu instructed and began to deduce. It was similar to Zhao Wan'er's previous experience. If Lin Qingzhu wanted to comprehend this technique, she needed Ye Qiu to guide her step by step. Otherwise, it was very easy for mistakes to appear in cultivation. If one was not careful, they would die.

Ye Qiu didn't want this to happen, so this was the safest way.

Lin Qingzhu, who had just recovered, nodded with difficulty. She remained curled up in her master's arms, as if that was the warmest place in the world.

Ye Qiu's heart ached as he looked at her pale and helpless face. However, he couldn't relax at this critical moment. With a single palm strike, a bone-chilling power entered her body again.

"Un," Lin Qingzhu let out another violent reaction. The blood in her limbs and bones seemed to have been frozen. Her entire face instantly turned pale, and she was extremely terrifying.

In the next second, Ye Qiu pushed out his palm again. He used the power of the Red Lotus Karmic Flame to clear the meridians in her body and began to deduce.

Lin Qingzhu's consciousness gradually recovered. She perked up and observed the route deduced by her master, following step by step. Her memory was extraordinary and her comprehension was extremely high. In less than a moment, she had already grasped the profundity of this immortal technique.

She began to circulate on her own. Seeing this, Ye Qiu was delighted.

“As expected of my most valued little darling. Her comprehension ability is indeed not bad.”?Ye Qiu praised her in his heart. He drew out his power and let her deduce on her own, but he didn't get distracted and kept observing. Once there's any changes, he would immediately help her.

Soon, Lin Qingzhu grasped some of the profundities of this technique. Her entire body became colder and her temperament underwent a tremendous change. It was even colder, colder than Lian Feng.

Lian Feng's coldness was purely due to her cold personality, while her coldness came from the bottom of her heart and her body. She was like a fairy standing in the sky, cold and untouchable.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a loud bang. Ye Qiu followed the blood and looked into the prefecture sea. He saw that the Mystical Ice Bone was emitting a violent change.

Seeing this, Ye Qiu was shocked, “It really reacted?”

As he had expected, the Mystical Ice Bone had really mutated. Because her bones were originally divine bones, after Lin Qingzhu cultivated the immortal cultivation technique, it was tainted with a trace of immortal energy and began to transform.

Ye Qiu had a feeling that after this bone transformed, it would definitely not be weaker than Zhao Wan'er's piece, it might be even stronger.

Lin Qingzhu clearly noticed the change in the Mystical Ice Bone in her body and began to change direction, placing all her focus on this bone.

Time passed bit by bit as the deduction continued.

After she was completely out of danger and had completely adapted to this coldness, Ye Qiu retracted his power. He began to cultivate.

While deducing for Lin Qingzhu, Ye Qiu was also improving. The two didn't conflict.

At this moment, his Mystical Ice Technique had already been cultivated to a certain realm. It formed two opposite extreme reactions in his body with the Red Lotus Karmic Flame. The two complemented and restrained each other, as if they were a combination of Yin and Yang. The power emitted was indeed incomparably shocking.

"Ice and fire?" Ye Qiu thought to himself. He could feel that his left hand and right hand were unconsciously emitting two different forces. If he added the lightning technique, he would have three extremely offensive attributes.

The current him could be said to be a warrior who developed in all aspects.

Next, he only needed to repair the True Dragon Treasure Technique and his defense would catch up. His strength would also increase by a level.

The only thing he lacked was speed.

"Hmm... Why don't I give up on repairing the Infinite Universe Palm and restore the Kun Peng Treasure Technique instead?"

Ye Qiu fell into deep thought. He had already used one of these four chances on Lin Qingzhu.

He had to consider the next three opportunities carefully. What he needed the most now was to deal with the calamity. Only by being strong-willed would he have enough confidence to face an even stronger unknown enemy.

First of all, the Immortal Slayer Sword had to be repaired because this sword was the Dharma artifact that Ye Qiu needed to rely on the most.

Only it could make Ye Qiu successfully kill the immortal.
