

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 298

Such a strange phenomenon inevitably made many Holy Lands wonder what had happened to the Heaven Mending Sect.

Many Holy Lands prepared to send their disciples into Qin Chuan to investigate the situation. However, after they entered Qin Chuan, they discovered that this place was peaceful. The commoners lived and worked in peace. It was not as chaotic as they had guessed.

This phenomenon lasted until a month later.

Suddenly one day...

Boom!

Dong, dong, dong.

In the East Sea, a stone monkey suddenly darted out from the bottom of the sea. In an instant, ripples spread out. The Ruyi Jingu Rod in the monkey's hand was superb, stirring the entire East Sea.

Suddenly, the world trembled. An ancient immortal palace appeared in the depths of the sea.

It was unknown what the monkey did, but it seemed to have touched some seal and released an ancient immortal palace.

In an instant, the surroundings changed. Everyone felt the aura of the immortal palace.

“Ancient Heavenly Court?”

In the deep sky, a powerhouse emitting blood energy suddenly opened his eyes, revealing a greedy gaze. After only stopping for a moment, he tore off the shackles on his body and flew towards the East Sea without stopping for a moment.

At the same time, all the powerhouses and experts inside and outside the Eight Desolates felt this aura. As if they had seen a trace of hope of becoming an immortal, they all headed towards the East Sea.

The appearance of the underwater immortal palace broke the original peace. The immortals and holy lands all moved.

“Haha... The first collision on the path to immortality is finally coming.”

On Mount Yao, Hua Feiyu revealed a crazy smile as he sat under a dead old Kui Tree. Ever since he was defeated by Ye Qiu last time, he had been cultivating bitterly in seclusion here. He was waiting for a great trend to soar into the sky and fight for the supreme Immortal Dao.

“Ye Qiu! This time, I want to see how you fight me.”

With a cold laugh, Hua Feiyu instantly erupted with a shocking aura. With a raise of his hand, the green mountains and rivers instantly withered.

If someone was here, they would definitely be shocked. This Saint of Mount Yao had actually reached the legendary Martial Monarch realm?

That's right, in their generation, he had also successfully broken through to the peak of the mortal world after Lian Feng.

How did he do it?

Perhaps, the greatest credit belonged to the orthodoxy behind him.

Mount Yao was an ancient orthodoxy of the immortals. Its foundation was extremely terrifying, even more terrifying than the Heaven Mending Sect. And their Holy Land's strength in the Heavenly World was unfathomable.

Hua Feiyu was known as the most talented person in the history of Mount Yao and had obtained the recognition of the inheritance of Mount Yao. The experts above would definitely not sit back and do nothing. With their help, it was extremely easy for Hua Feiyu to break through to the Martial Monarch realm.

Hua Feiyu only waved his hand gently, and the mountains in the hundred miles had completely withered.

With a few cold laughs, he looked coldly at the distant east. As he muttered, his gaze gradually became fierce. "The underwater immortal palace has appeared? Is this an accident, or is it the will of the heavens?"

"Ye Qiu... This time, I will definitely kill you."

The situation is so tense now. The appearance of this immortal palace was definitely a sign of some great trend.

The day the underwater immortal palace appeared, the world was in chaos. All the Holy Lands were mobilized.

There must be a rare treasure following the appearance of the immortal palace. Some Martial Monarch experts who had been sleeping for many years and were on the verge of death also broke through the seal and walked out.

This chaos caused by the monkey involved the entire Eastern Wasteland. At this moment, the atmosphere in the Eastern Wasteland was extremely strange.

On Heavenly Lake Mountain, the moment Daoist Tiantong received this news, he angrily slapped his chair and said, "Damn it! At such a tense moment, an immortal palace suddenly appeared. Are they forcing our Eastern Wasteland to death?"

Daoist Tiantong was very angry. Previously, he had just received the news that Meng Tianzheng had passed away, and he felt very regretful for this old friend.

Such a huge change in the Heaven Mending Sect had indirectly affected the situation in the Eastern Wasteland.

One had to know that the Heaven Mending Sect was currently the number one holy land in the Eastern Wasteland. It was also the only holy land in the Eastern Wasteland that could compete with the other domains.

Now that they had experienced the Sect Master's death, the sect would definitely be in chaos. It would take a few years for them to recover.

At this time, it was impossible for them to leave Qin Chuan.

Therefore, they could only rely on themselves now. They definitely could not count on the Heaven Mending Sect.

Daoist Tiantong originally wanted to develop steadily for a few years and wait for things to change.

Unexpectedly, the monkey suddenly lured out an immortal palace and attracted the experts of the seven great domains and the various immortal holy lands.

At this moment, the Eastern Wasteland felt like it was about to burst.

Once a battle erupted, the Eastern Wasteland would definitely be in ruins with the Eastern Wasteland as the main battlefield. Moreover, the Eastern Wasteland had just experienced a dark chaos and the eruption of a strange origin.

How could the Eastern Wasteland withstand another eruption after resting for less than a year?

Daoist Tiantong's anger echoed in the hall. As the most respected ancestor of the Heavenly Lake, Perfected Zi Yang had a solemn expression. After thinking about it again and again, he shook his head helplessly.

“Sigh... Meng Tianzheng, why did he suddenly die? This matter is really a little strange.”

He couldn't figure it out. He was much older than Meng Tianzheng. Wasn't he still alive and well? Instead, Meng Tianzheng, this junior, left before him. During this period of time, he had been thinking about this problem and really couldn't figure it out.

In the current situation, it would indeed be difficult for the Eastern Wasteland to win if the Heaven Mending Sect did not send anyone. After all, the Heaven Mending Sect had a Martial Monarch, the only Martial Monarch in the Eastern Wasteland.

But now, the Heaven Mending Sect had suffered such an accident and Ye Qiu had mysteriously disappeared for half a year. The situation could be said to be very serious.

“Master, what should we do now?” Daoist Tiantong asked solemnly, having lost his sense of propriety.

Perfected Zi Yang thought for a moment and said, “The appearance of the underwater immortal palace must be accompanied by immortal treasures. We can’t miss such a heaven-sent opportunity. Since we can’t count on the Heaven Mending Sect, we can only rely on ourselves.”

Sighing, Perfected Zi Yang slowly stood up from his seat and said with a serious gaze, “Pass down the order. All disciples of the Heavenly Lake will immediately leave the mountain and rush to the East Sea.”

With an order, the Heavenly Lake instantly moved out, and the disciples of the various factions flew towards the East Sea.

This change was the fortune of heaven and earth. It was not just about strength, but also luck. Whoever was lucky enough to obtain the greatest gains had been mobilized by the seven great domains. As the host, how could the Eastern Wasteland not express their gratitude?

Since the Heaven Mending Sect could not be counted on, their Heavenly Lake would take the lead.

Not long after the Heavenly Lake moved out, the disciples of the Jade-Lake gradually appeared in the East Sea.

The various large families and factions in the Eastern Wasteland also headed over. For a moment, the entire East Sea was crowded and lively.

However, they did not see a single disciple of the Heaven Mending Sect.
