

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 299

Many people were puzzled. Why didn't anyone from the Heaven Mending Sect appear?

As soon as this doubt appeared, it immediately attracted speculation. Some people guessed that the Heaven Mending Sect was probably busy fighting for power and benefits. The various factions were in conflict and had no time to care about this place.

Everyone had their own guesses, but no one could tell what had happened on Qin Chuan's mountain.

At this moment, Qin Chuan was covered in snow.

All the disciples sat nervously on the training ground of Violet Cloud Peak, waiting anxiously.

"Ah... Why isn't there any news yet? I'm so anxious."

"Two days ago, there was news from the foot of the mountain that an underwater immortal palace had appeared in the East Sea. The experts of the various immortal holy lands have rushed there."

"The entire East Sea is filled with people. It's so lively."

"Such an opportunity can only be chanced upon by luck. If we miss it, I'm afraid we'll never see it again in our lives."

The crowd kept discussing. Everyone was burning with anxiety, but no one dared to move without orders.

Hearing their discussion, Qi Wuhui's face was gloomy and he was burning with anxiety. From time to time, he would look in the direction of the back mountain, hoping that there would be some news from there.

But now that a month had passed, there was still no news.

Lu Feng hurriedly walked over and whispered into Qi Wuhui's ear. "Senior Brother. The outside world is spreading that our Heaven Mending Sect is in chaos. This rumor has already spread throughout the Great Desolate World. It's not good for our reputation. Do you think we should explain?"

Qi Wuhui frowned when he heard this. He thought about it seriously and waved his hand. "There's no need. Let them pass it on. They can pass it on however they want. There's no need to care."

"But..." Lu Feng stopped talking. After hesitating for a while, he said, "Is our Heaven Mending Sect really going to ignore the underwater immortal palace that appeared in the East Sea?"

Lu Feng looked at the disciples discussing below and felt very helpless.

Today, countless disciples had come to look for him. Everyone said that they wanted to try their luck and see if they could obtain a huge opportunity. However, without Qi Wuhui's order, no one dared to move. They could only sit on Violet Cloud Peak and wait quietly.

Lu Feng could feel that they were already a little emotional. If this continued, it would definitely cause a drastic change.

The Heaven Mending Sect had always advocated the concept of freedom in cultivation. Your path was up to you. As a master, he only pointed out the path for you. How you walked depended on your own choice.

Therefore, every disciple of the Heaven Mending Sect had their own thoughts and their own choices.

At this moment, it was obvious that they all wanted to leave the mountain, but Qi Wuhui detained them on the mountain. It was tantamount to cutting off their immortal fate. It was fine for a short period of time, but if it continued for a long time, it would definitely cause a drastic change and resistance.

It would be fine if they were dissatisfied one by one, but if the disciples of the entire sect were dissatisfied, it would be difficult to control.

How could Qi Wuhui not understand this principle? He turned around and looked at the calm back mountain, but there was still no sign.

“Sigh...” Qi Wuhui sighed weakly. He was under immense pressure. He did not want anything to happen, but he could not suppress these children’s thoughts and restrict their cultivation.

For a moment, he was in a dilemma.

“Junior Brother, Junior Brother, what are you doing? I can’t hold on anymore.” Qi Wuhui cursed Ye Qiu in his heart and said weakly, “Sigh, forget it... Since it’s an immortal encounter, we can’t miss it. From the looks of it, it will probably take some time for the Sect Master to wake up. At that time, I’m afraid we’ll miss it.”

“Junior Brother Lu, I can’t leave Qin Chuan. You, Junior Brother Yang, and the other elders can bring these children down the mountain.”

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone was overjoyed. They had been detained by Qi Wuhui on Violet Cloud Peak for more than a month and had been holding it in for a long time. How could they not be happy now that they had obtained Qi Wuhui's agreement to go down the mountain to fight for the immortal opportunity?

Of course, this was only the thoughts of a small number of people. Most of them, especially the disciples of the First Peak, had no change in expression. Compared to the immortal encounter, they cared more about their master's safety and were always worried about the situation in the back mountain.

The atmosphere at the scene formed two extreme contrasts. Some were happy, while others were worried.

After thinking about it, Qi Wuhui was still worried. He turned around and said to Lin Qingzhu, "Martial Nephew Lin, you're the strongest among the younger generation of my sect. I can't do without you in such a big scene. Why don't you go down the mountain too?"

Qi Wuhui asked with a negotiating tone.

Lin Qingzhu was stunned for a moment. She looked at the back mountain and was a little worried. After hesitating for a while, Lin Qingzhu felt that it was still a little inappropriate. At this time, she wanted to stay by her master's side and not leave.

However, it would be embarrassing for the Heaven Mending Sect to not have a genius in such a big scene.

After thinking for a moment, Lin Qingzhu glanced at Zhao Wan'er, who was in a daze behind her. The corners of her mouth curled up into an evil smile.

Zhao Wan'er's heart trembled when she realized Lin Qingzhu's gaze. What was Senior Sister doing? What an evil gaze... Scary, scary.

“Senior... Senior Sister?” Zhao Wan’er said with a trembling voice.

Lin Qingzhu suddenly held her hand and said, “Wan’er, don’t say anymore. I understand.”

Lin Qingzhu said earnestly. She looked at Zhao Wan’er’s chest and compared it to her own. She couldn’t help but swallow her saliva. “Now that you’ve grown up, it’s time for you to stand alone. There are too many things on the mountain and I can’t take time out. How about you help me go down the mountain for this battle?”

Zhao Wan’er actually found it difficult to refuse her senior sister’s sincere request. It was as if her senior sister would be very sad if she rejected her at this time. How could she do such a thing?

Thinking of this, Zhao Wan’er gritted her teeth and said, “Alright, I’ll go.”

In the past, it was always her senior sister who held the fort alone. Now, it was her turn. It was a good opportunity to test how powerful the immortal technique taught by her master was.

Hearing Zhao Wan’er agree, Lin Qingzhu smiled evilly in her heart. It was still her master’s trick that worked. See... wasn’t her junior sister confused by a few words?

Unknowingly, Lin Qingzhu gradually learned Ye Qiu’s chicken soup literature and became scheming.

“Junior Sister,” After a while, Lin Qingzhu was a little worried and continued, “At the foot of this mountain, geniuses are gathered and there are countless experts. The honor of Violet Cloud Peak and the dignity of our sect depend on you.”

“Senior Sister, don’t worry. I won’t disappoint you.” Zhao Wan’er said firmly. She was very confident now. Because she had the strongest fire in the world, why should she fear anyone?

“Okay, be careful. Go.”

In the end, Lin Qingzhu instructed Zhao Wan’er with a reluctant gaze and watched her leave. After she left, she couldn’t help but laugh on that cold face.

Her master’s trick was too fun. Didn’t she easily control her junior sister?

It had to be said that Lin Qingzhu was indeed the person who had followed Ye Qiu for the longest time. At this moment, she had already mastered how Ye Qiu usually tricked them.

Now, with an early-stage Paragon realm genius like Zhao Wan’er holding down the fort, the Heaven Mending Sect was more confident.

One had to know that she was not just an early-stage Paragon. The most terrifying thing was her supreme immortal bone and the strongest Red Lotus Karmic Flame in the world.

So what if the so-called geniuses of the other domains were dazzling? In front of the Red Lotus Karmic Flame, they were all trash.

Lin Qingzhu was very assured.
