

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 313

Boom!

The Nine Heavens trembled. Under this sword, the world trembled and the void distorted.

Lian Feng's sword could be said to have erupted with all her might without holding back at all. The moment Cloudy Heavens slashed out, her body seemed to have been sucked dry.

The sword energy tore through the sky and slashed towards the seven Perfected Immortals.

Li Chou gradually became crazy in the blood mist.

"No! It's impossible for me to lose. Suppress!."

This cage of order seemed to be a coffin specially set up for them. No matter how hard they tried, they could not break free. As the sword energy slashed over, a ball of blood mist filled the sky with a loud bang.

It was as if it was raining blood, dyeing the East Sea red.

Under the underwater immortal palace, a monkey hid in the dark, trembling.

“Oh my god, what kind of monsters are these? They’re too terrifying. I should continue to hide.”

The more Monkey looked, the more shocked he became. He was also very puzzled. Didn’t he just accidentally lure out an underwater immortal palace? Why did it suddenly attract so many people? Each of them was more terrifying than the other. If he went out at this time, he would definitely be the first to die.

After thinking for a moment, Monkey tore open the seal of the Immortal Palace and secretly hid inside.

The people above still did not know that this monkey hiding in the dark was about to attract the greatest calamity in history. They were still in the glory of Lian Feng’s sword and could not extricate themselves.

The Novel will be updated first on [n] [o] [v] [e] [l] [n] [e] [x] [t] [.] [c] [o] ] [m]

When the blood mist in the Nine Heavens dissipated, the seven Perfected Immortals fell into the deep sea at the same time and the battle ended.

“Pfft...”

Lian Feng spat out a mouthful of blood. She finally couldn't hold on anymore. She didn't have enough blood and energy and almost fell into the deep sea.

Lin Qingzhu flew over and caught her. She asked with concern, “Mistress, are you alright?”

At this moment, she had already acknowledged this stunning mistress and the concern came from the bottom of her heart. This was because Lian Feng had stepped forward at their most dangerous moment. In order to save them, she did not hesitate to resist seven Perfected Immortals alone.

Just based on this, Lin Qingzhu had already decided in her heart that she was their master's wife. Even if her master didn't agree, she would tie her to his bed.

Where can you find such a good wife? Look, this appearance, this beauty, this strength. Master, you better know what's good for you.

If Ye Qiu knew what his disciples were thinking, he would probably die of anger. Traitor...

“Ahem ahem...”

Hearing this, a gentle smile appeared on Lian Feng's pale face. For some reason, when she heard her call her mistress, she felt a little more protective of her. It was as if these two little girls were her disciples. She felt very gratified.

“I'm fine.”

After a while, Lian Feng finally recovered. She had just consumed too much spiritual energy and was not injured.

After regulating her breathing for a moment, Lian Feng was already able to stand steadily. She turned around and looked at the girl in front of her who was as cold as her. However, it was only a short moment of shock before she quickly recovered.

“Girl, this sword was given to you by your master, right?”

Lian Feng looked at Cloudy Heavens in her hand. She was very familiar with this sword. Because back then, Ye Qiu had used this sword to suppress the crowd in the Monarch’s tomb and become famous in one battle.

Seeing him give this sword to his disciple, she also understood that this disciple must occupy a very important position in his heart.

Ye Qiu valued his disciple, so Lian Feng naturally followed him and admired Lin Qingzhu.

Facing Lian Feng's question, Lin Qingzhu was stunned for a moment before answering honestly, "Yes... Mistress, I'm not skilled enough. Master was afraid that I would encounter danger outside, so he specially passed down this sword."

Lian Feng nodded and handed Cloudy Heavens to Lin Qingzhu. "Hmm, not bad. Girl, take it. This sword is very strong. Don't bury this sword's reputation."

After returning Cloudy Heavens to Lin Qingzhu,

Lian Feng felt that something was wrong. Shouldn't she give her a gift since it was their first time meeting? After all, they called her Mistress. However, she was not familiar with secular etiquette. It would be bad if she made a fool of herself.

After thinking for a moment, Lian Feng took out a jade pendant and hesitated. She personally brought it to Lin Qingzhu and said, "It's our first time meeting, and I don't have anything good. I'll give you this Wintry Jade.

“I obtained this jade pendant in the Extreme Mystic Land back then. It has accompanied me for many years and is extremely helpful to my cultivation. I don’t need this thing now, so I’ll give it to you as a gift.”

Lin Qingzhu was shocked when she saw this piece of Wintry Jade. This jade pendant could actually resonate with the Mystical Ice Bone in her body. This meant that this jade was very suitable for her cultivation. If she carried it with her, her cultivation would definitely advance by leaps and bounds.

Moreover, in terms of quality, this Wintry Jade could be said to be a fully deserving Connate numinous treasure.

“This... Mistress, this gift is too precious. I can’t accept it.” Lin Qingzhu immediately said. She could understand if it was a gift from an elder, but this was too sudden and so precious.

Lian Feng frowned and didn’t understand. Could it be that it didn’t conform to etiquette? Did she do something wrong?

She had been cultivating in the forbidden land all year round and did not know much about secular etiquette. When she saw Lin Qingzhu refuse, she subconsciously thought that she had done something wrong.

Just as she was about to speak, a fiery red figure darted out from the side. A handsome little girl looked at her with a smile.

“Hehe, Mistress, what about mine? Senior Sister has gifts, but don’t I have any?”

Lian Feng was stunned when she heard this.

“Yes, I shouldn’t be wrong.” Lian Feng, who was originally questioning herself, immediately strengthened her faith. She was not wrong.

After thinking for a moment, Lian Feng said, “Yes, both of you have.”

As she spoke, she searched through the storage jade and finally found a fiery red jade pendant.

“This Flame Spirit Jade is a pair with your senior sister’s piece. The effect is extremely good and is very suitable for fire attribute cultivation. I see that you have a fire-attribute immortal bone in your body. This jade must be very suitable for you. I’ll give it to you today.”

After taking the treasure from Lian Feng, Zhao Wan’er smiled sweetly and called out obediently, “Thank you, Mistress.”

“Ah,”

Lian Feng’s heart seemed to have melted. Her heart felt soft when she called her mistress, as if she really had two especially obedient and cute disciples.

What a strange feeling.

Lian Feng liked this feeling very much. Even though it was their first time meeting today, she had to admit that she already liked these two disciples. Especially when they called her Mistress. It was very sweet and especially touching.

Why don't she discuss with Ye Qiu later and ask him to send these two disciples over for her to play with?

“Hmm... feasible.”

Lian Feng seemed to have made up her mind. She had already begun to plan how to get these two girls to her training hall to cultivate with her.

Suddenly...

Boom!

The Nine Heavens trembled, and the originally calm battlefield was once again swept up by a violent wind.

“What’s going on?”

Everyone was shocked and hurriedly looked up. They saw that the sky suddenly darkened and lightning flashed.