

THE MOST GENEROUS MASTER EVER Chapter 76

Liu Ruyan gradually felt exhausted after a few rounds. Facing Qi Hao... no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't force him to use his ultimate move.

Ming Yue looked at it and felt anxious. She also understood that the victory was already decided.

"Sigh..." Ming Yue sighed silently and looked depressed. In the end, Liu Ruyan fell in the top four. She was unable to advance any further, but she was already very satisfied with her current results.

At the very least, the Heavenly Water Peak was no longer the second last. It was not in vain that she spent so many natural treasures.

"Master, I'm sorry to disappoint you..." After her defeat, Liu Ruyan walked over dejectedly and apologized to Ming Yue.

Her eyes were filled with tears and her heart was filled with unwillingness. She recalled how her master had painstakingly nurtured her over the past month, but she had not been able to bring back a good ranking for her master.

She felt terrible.

Please support author by reading novel from NOVELBIN

Ming Yue wiped away the tears from the corners of her eyes and comforted her. "Silly girl, why are you crying? I'm already very gratified that you're able to reach this step."

The exciting championship battle was finally about to begin with Liu Ruyan's defeat.

Even Ye Qiu was fully focused.

On the stage of the finals, Lin Qingzhu stood there straight like a sharp sword, cold and oppressive.

Qi Hao stared at her coldly. anger rose from his heart as he thought back to the humiliation his father and him had experienced during this period of time.

That blazing battle intent spread out from the arena.

Everyone could feel the shocking battle intent emitted by the two people on the stage.

“The show is about to begin! Who will win the final battle?”

“The feud between Violet Cloud Peak and the Hidden Sword Peak has once again shown after so many years.”

The atmosphere instantly reached a climax. Everyone’s eyes were fixed on the two people in the arena.

“Are you guys ready?” Xu Feng looked at the two of them solemnly and said slowly.

Lin Qingzhu nodded, and Qi Hao said, “We can begin.”

Just now, Lin Qingzhu had dealt with Gu Baiyi as quickly as possible. The consumption wasn’t huge. On the contrary, the spiritual energy that Qi Hao had used to defeat Liu Ruyan seemed to be greater.

However, what was curious was that he didn’t seem to care at all. Instead, he felt as if victory was within his grasp.

“I now announce that the Seven Peaks Martial Meeting’s finals have officially begun.”

Xu Feng announced loudly and quickly left the arena.

Under everyone’s gaze, Qi Hao unhurriedly took out a pill and ate it.

“This is...”

“Recovery Pill?”

Everyone was shocked. Wasn’t the pill that Qi Hao ate to recover his spiritual power?

“Damn, isn’t this cheating? We agreed on a fair fight, but he actually shamelessly ate pills to recover.”

There was an instant burst of discussion and even resistance.

When Qi Wuhui saw this, he slowly stood up and looked around. His authority as a disciplinary elder has led to an instant silence when he swept his gaze around the crowd.

When Xu Feng saw this, he had no choice but to step forward and say, “In the rules of the Martial Meeting, there’s no rule that forbids recovery by consuming medicinal pills.”

As soon as he said this, everyone realized that he had indeed not said that they were not allowed to eat pills.

“F*ck, how shameless! He actually used this despicable method to win.”

“Only the Hidden Sword Peak would do such a thing. Who asked them to be the referee?”

Everyone discussed softly, looking down on Qi Wuhui’s despicable style from the bottom of their hearts.

After Qi Hao ate the Recovery Pill, all his energy was instantly restored to its peak. He began to reveal a confident smile and looked at Lin Qingzhu playfully. “Hmph, you’re still too inexperienced to fight with us. During this period of time, you and your master have humiliated my Hidden Sword Peak. Today, I, Qi Hao, will pay you back double. Prepare yourself for my wrath.”

Lin Qingzhu did not have any emotions in the face of Qi Hao’s provocation. She only coldly said, “You talk too much.”

Lin Qingzhu was not surprised at all even when she saw Qi Hao eat the Recovery Pill. She firmly believed that Hidden Sword Peak would do anything to win, so there was nothing to be surprised about. However, he was underestimating her by wanting to defeat her with just a pill.

“Come on.” Without any hesitation, Lin Qingzhu held the sword with one hand and the purple sword light flowed on the sword body. The cold aura instantly intensified in an instant.

Qi Hao was a little afraid of that cold aura, but it wasn’t like he didn’t have a way to deal with it. “Hmph, little girl, you’re quite arrogant!”

With a furious shout, a sword suddenly appeared in Qi Hao’s hand, emitting a light that was not inferior to the Violet Cloud Sword.

Everyone was shocked when they saw the sword and looked at Qi Wuhui.

“Hidden Edge Sword!”

“It’s actually the Hidden Sword Peak’s inheritance sword, the Hidden Edge Sword...”

“Interesting. Violet Cloud Sword versus Hidden Edge Sword. They are both legacy swords.”

“Doesn’t that mean that this competition is nominally the first confrontation between the next peak master of Violet Cloud Peak and the next peak master of Hidden Sword Peak?”

For a moment, the atmosphere reached a climax again.

Qi Hao was the first to attack as soon as the Hidden Edge Sword appeared, sweeping his sword across.

The hidden edge was not obvious, and the sharpness was not revealed. The seemingly soft and powerless sword contained layers of killing intent.

Lin Qingzhu frowned. This was the first time she felt pressure, but it was only a little pressure.

The Violet Cloud Sword instantly turned around and leaped, striking down with a vast and mighty aura. Her movement technique was free and valiant, simple and crude.

The sword techniques that both sides cultivated were inherited from both factions, and they were of the same level.

For a moment, it was difficult to determine the victor.

“Haha, Hao’er, well done. Get her.”?Qi Wuhui laughed in his heart below the arena, but there was no change in his expression. He has learned to be smart now. Before the outcome was decided, he should not pretend to be impressive. Otherwise, it would be easy to slap his face.

“Is that all you’ve got?” After being repelled, Lin Qingzhu gradually became serious and replied coldly.

Although Qi Hao’s sword technique was exquisite and his strength was extraordinary, if that was all, then... the Hidden Sword Peak’s path would end here.

After saying that, the Violet Cloud Sword instantly attacked. Lin Qingzhu formed a sword seal and instantly slashed out.

This was a test. Clearly, Qi Hao had fallen for it.

“We’ve just started and you’re already so eager to use your ultimate move? I think you’re just so-so...” Qi Hao replied with a cold smile with his sword behind his back. He suddenly drew his sword and slashed out. A stream of sword energy swept up and collided with Lin Qingzhu’s Swift Slash.

The two sword energies offset each other. A terrifying sword force erupted from the center of the arena, and the entire arena instantly collapsed.

Meng Tianzheng raised his hand and stabilized the foundation of the arena. He casually threw out a compass and an energy barrier covered the arena.

“Swift Slash was actually neutralized!” Ming Yue was burning with anxiety when she saw this. So far, this was Lin Qingzhu’s strongest move. She did not expect Qi Hao to block it so easily. From the looks of it... wouldn’t Violet Cloud Peak definitely lose?

Ming Yue suddenly trembled when she turned around and looked at Ye Qiu.

He... doesn’t seem to be worried at all. Could it be that he still has a trump card??Ming Yue suddenly felt that she couldn’t understand Ye Qiu’s actions at all. Even at this time, he could still remain so calm.

Either he didn't care about the outcome of the battle, or he still had a backup plan. This was a mentality of victory.