

Ghost Doctor 1201

Chapter 1201 Palace Side Hall

"I came over because I wanted to talk about Feng Jiu. I am afraid that it will be counterproductive." The voice of the Third Elder dropped and only Old Patriarch's voice could be heard.

"You don't need to handle this matter, I have my own arrangements."

When he heard those words, even though he had more to say, the Third Elder shook his head and walked away instead.

Perhaps to the outsiders, the Shangguan Family was a centuries old Alchemist family and were magnificent beyond comparison. However, the few elders knew that the Shangguan Family were not the same as they were before.

The descendants of the family who practised alchemy few and none of them were outstanding. The only talented child Shangguan Wanrong had stayed at home initially, but she had been taken away for half a year now. If there were no more fresh blood and new talent being pushed up, then the Shangguan Family was sure to decline.

In fact, they were already going downhill at this point in time. It was just that the Shangguan family head and Old Patriarch's had refused to admit it.

Perhaps they knew it. Otherwise, when they learnt that the Ghost Doctor Feng Jiu was the daughter of Feng Xiao and Wanrong, they would not have tried to bring her back to the Shangguan Family.

However, they didn't know that Feng Jiu was unlike other people. As a Princess of the Phoenix Empire she was able to personally push her father up to the position of Sovereign, that alone was enough to prove her extraordinary ability.

Moreover, her reputation as the Ghost Doctor had long surpassed that of the Shangguan Family, so how could she be so easily controlled by them? To become part of the Shangguan Family?

On the other hand, when the people in the palace heard of the arrival of the Ghost Doctor, the concubines were pleasantly surprised as they thought that they might be able to get a Nourishing Beauty Pill from the Ghost Doctor to help them look more beautiful. Therefore, they all went to the Country Ruler to beg him to take them to the Ghost Doctor.

While the concubines were waiting outside the hall, the Heaven's Prayer Country Ruler was inside the palace hall listening to the report of the Dark Guard.

"Oh? So the identity of the Ghost Doctor is the Princess of Phoenix Empire? It's a girl?" The Country Master was surprised. When he had heard the news, he had sent someone to invite her over. However, he hadn't expected Shangguan Family to have found out and knew the real identity of the Ghost Doctor was the Princess of the Phoenix Empire, and said that she was Shangguan Family's niece?

If this news was true then it would be terrible.

“The Shangguan family head said it on the street but the Ghost Doctor didn’t acknowledge him. Instead she mocked him and caused him embarrassment.”

“Is she here now?” The Country Ruler asked.

“She is here and settled in the side hall.”

“Well, I shall go and speak to the Ghost Doctor.” He stood up and walked out. He was very curious about the Ghost Doctor. The moment he stepped outside, he saw a group of concubines who then gathered around when they saw him.

“Country Ruler, we heard that the Ghost Doctor has come to the palace.”

“Country Ruler we want to go to see the Ghost Doctor too and ask for medicinal pills.”

“Country Ruler...”

Listening to the disarray of voices and seeing the women in that state, the Country Ruler shook his sleeve and said in a deep voice: “Enough, go back at once! Look at the state of yourselves!”

When they heard this, they dared’t utter another word but only retreated with their heads bowed in response.

In the side hall, Feng Jiu was sipping tea and eating the delicate cakes from the palace leisurely. Bi Shan who was behind her wasn’t quite as comfortable as she was. This was the first time he had entered a palace, even though he was standing behind his Master in the palace’s side hall, it still seemed unimaginable.

He had thought that his Master was from a rich family, he hadn’t expected her to be the Princess of the Phoenix Empire.....

Chapter 1202 Personally Hosted By The Country Ruler Mesmerizing

Not only was she a Princess of the Phoenix Empire, but she was also the Ghost Doctor, famous in every country. He didn’t know how he was so fortunate to have met such a good Master.

When he looked at his Master sitting there leisurely drinking tea and eating snacks, he couldn’t help but admire her calmness and indifference that she exuded in the palace of a First Grade Country, like as if she was in her own home.

“The Country Ruler arrives!”

Bi Shan was even more nervous when he heard the announcement outside the side hall. He looked at his Master and saw her sipping her tea slowly then flicked her robes before standing up.

At this time, a middle aged man wearing a bright yellow imperial robe walked in accompanied by two Nascent Soul cultivators and several imperial court members. As soon as he stepped into the side hall he looked at the figure in red.

The first thing that struck him was the unparalleled beautiful face like that of a fairy and the cold, deep, mysterious eyes that exuded confidence and freeness between his eyebrows which made him look energetic.

If he hadn't learned from the news beforehand that the person in front of him was actually a girl, he wouldn't have been able to tell just by looking at her that she was a girl. Because there was no scent of rouge on Feng Jiu, just the arrogant breath of evil intention.

The breath seemed to be emanating from the inside, her aura was breathtaking and good cultivation was obvious. He had to admit that none of his sons and daughters could be compared to the person in front of him.

Could such an outstanding and unparalleled character really be cultivated by such a small country?

His pace was steady with prestige, his sharp eyes hid her abilities, his face majestic and his lips were slightly pursed, his whole body exuded a captivating power of superiority. This person no doubt killed decisively,

This was Feng Jiu's first impression of Heaven's Prayer Country Ruler.

"Country Ruler." After he took his seat at the throne, she bowed politely.

"Ghost Doctor, please dispense with formalities, please sit down." He smiled and motioned for Feng Jiu to sit down.

After hearing this, Feng Jiu nodded her head slightly and went over to her seat.

When he saw that her movements seemed calm and at ease, the Country Ruler couldn't help but gazed involuntarily and asked with a smile: "I have wanted to meet the Ghost Doctor for a long time but never had the opportunity. I was delighted to learn that the Ghost Doctor had come to Heaven's Prayer Country."

"I've heard about the prosperity in Heaven's Prayer Country and the many places of interest and have wanted to come to visit for a long time. It just so happens that I was passing by so I decided to stay for a few days and go sight-seeing. I was really surprised as I hadn't expected all the families in the Imperial City to know of my arrival and disturbed you, Country Ruler."

Upon hearing this, the Country Ruler laughed: "That is because Ghost Doctor is famous in all the countries but is very mysterious. It's very difficult to meet the Ghost Doctor, that's why everyone was so curious when they learned that the Ghost Doctor had arrived in the Imperial City and each family had wanted to invite you over first."

He continued: "On this rare occasion that Ghost Doctor has come to Heaven's Prayer Country, you must stay for a few days. If you want to go sightseeing, I can accompany you. I will make sure that you thoroughly enjoy yourself."

Feng Jiu's eyes moved slightly when she heard those words. The ruler of a First Grade Country wanted to accompany her to wander around? That would put her in the same position as him, her reputation was really impressive.

However, she was just the Ghost Doctor, why did the ruler of a First Grade Country feel the need to do that?

Chapter 1203 Have You Got A Sweethear

When he heard this, the Country Ruler laughed: "I heard that you are the Princess of the Phoenix Dynasty."

"That's right, I have been travelling about all this time and it's been a year since I've returned home. I had planned to do some sightseeing here for a few days before I went home." She had planned to bring her mother home with her, but she didn't know that her mother was no longer here.

As for the Shangguan Family, hmph, they separated her father and mother, sealed her father's memory and imprisoned their mother to refine pills and elixirs for them. They want to acknowledge her? What wishful thinking!

"Then stay in the palace for two days first and I will do the honours of being a hospitable host." He smiled as he said: "The scenery in the palace is not bad, shall I take a walk with Ghost Doctor?"

"Alright."

Feng Jiu nodded and stood up. She saw the Country Ruler walk down and gestured with his hand. The two of them stepped outside with the two Nascent Soul cultivators and Bi Shan following three steps behind.

The scenery in the Imperial Palace was indeed pleasant, it was exquisite and gorgeous everywhere. As the two of them walked, they chatted. When they came into the Royal Garden, they stopped. The flowers bloomed and the fragrance was refreshing.

The Country Ruler looked at Feng Jiu beside him, dressed all in red, and he smiled and said: "If I hadn't gotten the information, I wouldn't have been able to tell that the Ghost Doctor is a girl."

"I am always travelling about, it is more convenient to dress up as a man. Over time, I've learned to mimic the behaviour and mannerisms of men, so it's only natural that Your Highness wouldn't be able to tell."

"Ghost Doctor is beautiful, I wonder if you have a marriage arranged?"

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu looked at him in surprise. He smiled at her and said: "Oh if I said that it's not crossed my mind then I am lying. On top of the talents and reputation of the Ghost Doctor, you are also a Princess of a country, it is more than enough to join another big country in marriage. If you don't mind me saying, I have a few sons who are quite outstanding. If you are still not betrothed and have not got a sweetheart, you can meet them and see if they will win over the Ghost Doctor."

Feng Jiu couldn't help but chuckled: "Country Ruler Meng has misplaced your favour, I am already betrothed to someone else."

"Oh? The Ghost Doctor has taken fancy on someone? I wonder, which country is this handsome young master from?" He was a little surprised as he looked at Feng Jiu's appearance. Besides, he hadn't heard of any men around her, how did she become betrothed to someone?

"Has Your Highness heard of Hell's Palace?" Her expression was relaxed, her eyebrows creased as she smiled.

"Hell's Palace?"

Upon hearing those two words, the Country Ruler's expression changed slightly and his heart shifted a little: "Hell's Palace's power and influence is immense, even the Black Market cannot compare to them. Naturally I know every power and influence in each country."

Although Hell's Palace had only risen to power not long ago, its forces were in every country. Moreover, the strong men in Hell's Palace were like a forest, even though they were from a First Grade Country, they didn't dare to provoke them.

Hell's Palace was also extremely secretive. If the First Grade Countries were rulers of the day, then Hell's Palace's Hell's Lord was the ruler of the night. As a result, the powerful forces from the First Grade and Second Grade Countries knew the powerful Hell's Lord from Hell's Palace as the Dark Lord.

Hell's Palace's powerful forces had never been put on show, therefore not many people knew that its forces were hugely distributed in every country.

As far as he knew, a small country had been plotting against Hell's Palace recently to take them all out in one fell swoop. In their view, those people thought too highly of themselves.

Chapter 1204 Do You Know of Hell's Palace?

She had mentioned Hell's Palace at this time, could the person she was talking about be from Hell's Palace?

When he thought of this, he felt a thump in his head and his mood fluctuated violently as he looked at her and asked in as calm a tone as he could: "Don't tell me that the person you're talking about belongs to Hell's Palace?"

"That's right, he's Hell Palace's Hell's Lord." She revealed a smile and continued speaking: "This is actually not a secret. Back when Green Gallop Country's Crown Prince and Murong Bo went against my Feng family, he had already appeared."

The Country Ruler was unable to keep smiling. He knew that the power and influence behind Feng Jiu was great, however, he hadn't realised that besides the forces he had known about there was another stronger and more formidable force that he was afraid to offend supporting her. His heart trembled as he thought of this.

Hell's Palace's power was strong though there were people who had thought about getting rid of them. However, according to their investigation and discovery, they had found out that this force was linked to an extremely powerful force of the Eight Great Empires. Since knowing this, the Country Rulers of several First Grade Countries had ordered their subjects to avoid the people from Hell's Palace and avoid making enemies out of them.

Hell's Palace was alright and hadn't interfered much with them. They only existed in the dark and did things in secret. They had never interfered with any disputes on their side, therefore, gradually they had let their guard down.

Today, he had heard the two words Hell's Palace come out from the Ghost Doctor's mouth, and she had said something that shocked him. If everyone had known about the relationship between the Ghost Doctor and Hell's Palace, they would probably not dare to offend her.

What had surprised him even more was the Ghost Doctor's father Feng Xiao, the country the Ghost Doctor was from obviously had a powerful backing and yet, ever since they had founded their Dynasty, they had never made use of these relations. Otherwise, Phoenix Dynasty wouldn't be the Six Grade Country that it still was at the moment.

With such a powerful force backing it, it was definitely qualified to become a First Grade Country.

At this time, a palace servant had stepped forward. After bowing, he reported: "Country Ruler, Shangguan Family's Old Patriarch and Family Head are here."

He froze for a moment then said to Feng Jiu: "Ghost Doctor, please make yourself at home. I will have the palace servant take you for a walk and then escort you back to the palace to rest."

"Okay." She nodded slightly and smiled. She watched as he left instructions with the two palace servants before he left.

Shangguan Family?

Her eyes moved slightly and the corner of her lips curled upwards as she walked slowly amongst the flowers. After a while she went to the pavilion in the Royal Garden and sat down. She had one hand on her chin and the other hand tapping the table as she said to the two palace servants: "Make me a pot of tea and bring me a plate of almond crisps and a plate of millet cakes."

"Yes." The palace servants responded. One waited outside the pavilion while the other had gone to instruct the palace servants to prepare tea and cakes.

Bi Shan was also standing guard outside the pavilion. As he looked at the flowers in the Royal Garden, his mind was booming from being shocked by one piece of shocking news and then another.

Not long after, the palace servants brought the tea and cakes and stood quietly outside the pavilion without disturbing her.

At the same time, in the side hall, the Country Ruler was chatting to the father and son from the Shangguan Family when he finally asked: "May I ask the reason both of you are here for today?"

In actual fact, his guard had already told him about the incident that had happened in the streets. He just hadn't expected them to follow so soon after Feng Jiu had entered the palace.

Chapter 1205 Against The Rules

Upon hearing this, the father and son looked at each other, then finally, Old Patriarch answered: "Country Ruler, we have come today to ask for a favour."

"Oh? What favour?" He asked.

"Actually this is what's happened. After our investigation, we learned that the Ghost Doctor Feng Jiu is Feng Xiao's daughter. Feng Xiao is my daughter Wanrong's husband. For some reason, the two of them have been separated. Now that we know of her identity, we would like to acknowledge her as part of the family. Therefore, we would like to ask for Country Ruler's help in this matter."

The Country Ruler smiled lowly: "I'm afraid I can't help you in this matter. The Ghost Doctor is only a guest here. If what you've said is true, then I'm sure that even without my help, the Ghost Doctor will acknowledge you. If she refuses to acknowledge you, then I would only irritate her if I tried to help."

"But she really is my younger sister's daughter." Shangguan Family's Family Head said.

"Then you only have to go to Phoenix Dynasty and get her father to corroborate your story, isn't that right?" He smiled and continued speaking: "Okay, I have other matters to attend to, I shall be taking my leave."

Upon seeing this, they could only stand up and bid goodbye.

Once they were out of the palace, Shangguan Family's Family Head looked at his father and asked: "Father, are we really going to send men to Phoenix Dynasty? Feng Xiao's memory has been sealed, even if we went, I'm afraid he wouldn't remember anything."

"Since Feng Jiu refuses to acknowledge us and the Country Ruler has refused to help, then we have no choice but to go to the Phoenix Dynasty. Also, the people we send can't be ordinary people. In any case, I hope that Feng Jiu will become a part of our Shangguan Family and help us."

"But her power and influence is so great, I am afraid that it's not going to be that easy." Shangguan Family's Family Head frowned as he spoke: "Did you not hear what she said on the streets this morning? Her expression and her tone was obvious that she had no intention of acknowledging our Shangguan Family. I worry that even if we send someone to Phoenix Dynasty, in the end she still won't acknowledge us."

The Old Patriarch's face turned somber when he heard that and snorted coldly: "It is their honour that our Shangguan Family is relatives with them!"

Upon seeing this, Shangguan Family Family Head said nothing more. It was useless to say anything more, he could only wait and see!

At the other side, in the Royal Garden, there was a beautiful woman sitting in front of Feng Jiu who was admiring the flowers. This woman claimed to be the concubine who had taken one of her Nourishing Beauty Pills. When she found out that she was in the palace, she had come over to thank her.

"Ghost Doctor, after I had taken your Nourishing Beauty Pill, my looks have been restored to my seventeen eighteen year old face. Even the Country Ruler was astounded when he saw me. It is because of Ghost Doctor's elixir that I am able to regain favour again."

The beautiful woman's voice was soft and gentle and she didn't look like a woman in her thirties. Whether it was her looks, figure or skin, she was a first class beauty.

"It's not necessary to thank me. You didn't get the elixir from me."

When she heard this, the expression on the concubine's face stiffened as she didn't know what else to say. She felt that Feng Jiu was too straightforward.

"Well then, Ghost Doctor, if that's the case, can I buy elixirs from you? I can pay a high price, you won't lose out." After thinking about it, she felt that she had better be frank and ask now before she was at a loss for words.

Feng Jiu raised her teacup and took a sip of tea then said slowly: "I can't do that. My medicines and elixir can only be sold through the Black Market. I can't sell them, that's against the rules."

Chapter 1206 Travel In Casual Clothes

"You refined the elixirs, so shouldn't what you say be the rules?" As soon as her voice fell, the young boy had flicked his robes up and stood up.

"I'm sorry, I shall be taking my leave now." She said and stepped out of the pavilion and said to the two palace servants: "Where is the palace quarters the Country Ruler has arranged for me? Lead the way!"

"It's at the front of the palace, please come this way." The two palace servants said hurriedly, half bent over to lead the way.

The concubine was a little stunned as she watched the sudden departure of the youth in red. She had felt a little angry and also a little helpless. The Ghost Doctor had a special status, even though she was the Country Ruler's concubine, she didn't dare to do anything to him.

Over the next two days, Feng Jiu stayed in the palace. Before she left, the Country Ruler had prepared many gifts for her to take away. She was unable to refuse and in the end, she had finally accepted the gifts.

Feng Jiu was surrounded by people who had come looking for medical treatment the moment she had stepped out of the palace. Fortunately, Bi Shan was there to fend off those people so that Feng Jiu could return to the inn to rest.

She had planned to stay in the city for two days to take a look at the spirit herbs in the First Grade Imperial City before going back. However, it hadn't been long since she had returned to the inn when someone was requesting an audience with her.

Outside her room, Bi Shan reported: "Master, the Family Head from the Lee Family is outside."

"I'm not seeing him. Anyone who comes seeking an audience, send them away."

As she stood in her room replying, she looked down at her red clothes and her eyebrows lowered slightly. She was almost transparent in this Imperial City now. When she walked out to buy something or walk around, she would be surrounded by people before she could do either. After thinking for a while, she retrieved a set of humble green clothes from space and put it on. After she modified it slightly, she sneaked out from the rear bedroom window.

At this time, the people were still standing outside the front of the inn waiting for Feng Jiu to come out. What they didn't know was that she had already changed her clothes and was dressed as an ordinary looking teenager and had left after disappearing into the crowd.

An ordinary figure dressed in green clothes was wandering around the largest Spirit Herb Market in the city. Sometimes he looked at something and other times he had touched something. When he saw spirit herbs that couldn't be found anywhere else, he was unexpectedly surprised at this place.

"This is indeed a First Grade Country, the First Grade Country's biggest Spirit Herb Market is really not bad. There are so many good things, this trip is not in vain." She stood in front of a cabinet and leaned forwards slightly looking at the piece of snake skin placed inside it, unable to look away.

“What a good thing! A whole strip of aquamarine snake skin. The technique is so good that’s why the skin is so intact.”

She murmured as her head swarmed with thoughts of the efficacy of the snake skin when used as a medicine and thought of many medical formulas that could use the snake skin as an ingredient. She straightened her back and looked around. Not far behind her, she saw a young man dressed in blue looking at her.

Upon seeing this, she pointed at the snake skin in the cabinet and said to the man: “Take this out and let me take a look.” Aquamarine snakes were rare and their snake skin was even more precious. The selling price could be very high, therefore, there were also many counterfeits.

The man walked over when he heard Feng Jiu’s words. After glancing at the snake skin in the cabinet, he looked at Feng Jiu and said: “This aquamarine snake skin is worth two hundred thousand gold coins, customer, do you still need me to take it out?”

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu raised her eyebrows and her lips curled up slightly. She replied with a smile yet not quite a smile: “Just because it is worth two hundred thousand gold coins I can’t ask you to take it out for me to look at it? Don’t tell me that here you still go by the rule that you have to buy what you see?”

Chapter 1207 Recognises Money By Clothes And Not By Person

As he looked at Feng Jiu’s contemptuous smile, he realised that his tone was not polite and seemed to imply he looked down on her. Therefore, he coughed and said: “This aquamarine snake skin is very precious. If anyone who wants to touch it does so and it gets damaged then who will pay? Therefore if you don’t want to buy it then we can’t take it out.”

“Don’t worry, if it really gets damaged by me, I will pay for it. Quickly, take it out and let me take a look.” She gestured.

Upon seeing this, that man had no choice but came forwards to take the snake skin out of the cabinet.

Feng Jiu didn’t pay much attention to him. After she had stepped forwards to carefully inspect the snake skin and confirmed that it was undoubtedly an aquamarine snake skin, she nodded: “Wrap this up for me, I want it.”

The man was stunned for a moment: “You, you want it? But this costs two hundred thousand gold coins, not two hundred thousand silver coins. You really want it?” This person didn’t look rich, could he afford it?

“Yes, keep hold of it for me. I still want to take a look around.” She said and continued walking inside.

After that man recovered from his shock, he hurriedly followed behind, holding on to the snake skin. From time to time, he looked at the figure in green in front of him and felt that one could not be judged by their looks, and felt a trace of shame in his heart at his own behaviour earlier on.

He had only recognised money by clothes and not by person.

The Spirit Herb Market was indeed full of things. She had felt lost when she didn't see her mother when she had come to Heaven's Prayer Country, but was comforted when she had found more than a dozen rarely seen spirit herbs.

"Settle the bill!" She said to the man behind her who was carrying over a dozen spirit herbs.

"Yes, please come this way Young Master." After walking around the market, the man's attitude had changed greatly, even the smiles on his face had increased.

In the Spirit Herb Market, some people looked over at Feng Jiu from time to time.

It was because the young boy dressed in green looked ordinary but had the ability to buy so many precious spirit herbs. They would like to buy any one of those spirit herbs but they didn't have the money to do so. However, he was able to buy over a dozen of the spirit herbs all at once, what connections did he have?

After settling the bill, Feng Jiu put everything into her space and left. She then walked around the streets and bought some fruit and cakes. She thought they could eat them on the road after their departure.

However, after some time, she realised that someone was watching her. She walked slowly and after she turned into an alley, she leaned sideways and waited there. Not long afterwards, a figure in grey flashed across. She backed away in surprise.

"You have been following me for a while, what do you want?" She crossed her arms over her chest, and looked at the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man hadn't expected the young boy to have noticed, therefore, he stopped hiding and stepped out of the shadows: "Boy, if you know what's good for you then hand over the spirit herbs you bought earlier!"

"Ha!"

Feng Jiu snorted in laughter and glanced at him: "So it's my spirit herbs you want! You've got quite the nerve."

"Hmph! It's you who's got the nerve, you didn't even enquire about this place!"

In this First Grade Country, everyone had their eyes on a big fat sheep. This kid was only at Foundation Formation strength and dared to buy so many precious spirit herbs without a strong man's protection. He was already targeted by the cultivators long ago, they were just waiting for him to make the move first.

Feng Jiu smiled, so she was someone's fat sheep because her wealth was revealed.

"I'm in a good mood today, so if you know what's good for you, you will leave. Otherwise, you will regret it later."

Chapter 1208 Human Indifference

"Your tone is cocky! I would like to see..." Before the man could finish his sentence, his body had frozen.

He had only seen the figure in green flash in front of his eyes and in an instant, a dagger glowing with a cold light was already pointed at his throat. He could feel the pain of the dagger piercing his flesh and blood was dripping.

At that moment, he was terrified.

He was a Golden Core cultivator! How could a Foundation Formation cultivator appear at his side in an instant and put his dagger against his throat? He didn't even have the opportunity to react.

"Young, Young Master.... Please spare my life. I... I am only seeking money."

Cold sweat appeared on his forehead, his speech was trembling and panicked. If at this moment in time he still didn't realise that the person in front of his was stronger than him, then his life was a waste.

"Spare your life? I already gave you a chance earlier and now you want me to spare your life? We shall have to see how many good things you have on you to buy your life back."

Her lazy and indifferent voice reached his ears and the middle aged man pulled a long face.

He thought that he had found a fat sheep to slaughter, but who knew that he became that fat sheep about to be slaughtered instead. However, his situation was helpless, whether he surrendered his belongings or the young boy killed him and took his belongings, he was still not able to keep hold of his things. The only hope he had was to keep his life.

He stiffened his body and said: "I'll take them out, I'll take them out. Don't be angry Young Master. I will give you my cosmos sack." He quickly took out his cosmos sack and removed all the valuables from his body and handed it to her.

"Young Master, I just want a chance to live."

After Feng Jiu took the things from him, she hit him on the back of his head with her palm and he fell to the ground unconscious. After seeing this, she kept the cosmos sack and went outside, and headed back to the inn.

As she was climbing through the rear window of the bedroom, she heard some voices drifting in from outside.

"Elder brother, please let me go in! My grandson is really very sick. I have asked all the doctors and they have all said that he can't be saved. Someone told me that the Ghost Doctor can save him, the Ghost Doctor can save my grandson. Elder brother, I'm begging you, I will kowtow to you, please let me see the Ghost Doctor! I beg you!"

Feng Jiu listened to the voices outside as she changed her clothes inside her room. She washed off the camouflage on her face and wiped the traces of water from her face before walking across the room to go out.

"Auntie, it isn't that I don't want to help you, but my Master has ordered that he won't be seeing anyone. I, I can't help that either." Bi Shan helped the woman up as he said helplessly.

“I have even brought my grandson here, I just ask the Ghost Doctor to take a look at him. Hoo hoo hoo... I only have one grandson, his parents died early so it’s just the two of us. Please, please, let me see the Ghost Doctor!”

The woman cried as she held her grandson in her arms, but her mournful and helpless voice didn’t move a person’s heart in the inn.

Human nature was selfish, regardless of their own affairs, no matter how miserable others were, their sorrow was nothing compared to their own sorrows.

Moreover, they were cultivators who saw life and death more thoroughly. Most of them were cold hearted people. It was just one child. To them, if the child were to die, they would have no pity for the child.

At this moment, the bedroom door opened with a creak.

Chapter 1209 Acid Water

A figure in red walked out of the room and the people who were watching with indifference couldn’t help but ran upstairs.

“Ghost Doctor! It’s the Ghost Doctor! The Ghost Doctor has come out!”

The sounds of surprise and excitement could be heard and the cultivators who were downstairs seeking medical help had come upstairs. However, before they could approach, they were stopped by Bi Shan.

“Ghost Doctor, I beg you please save my grandson! Please save my grandson!”

The old woman held her grandson in one hand and the other hand reached out to pull Feng Jiu. Somehow, in that moment, a dagger had appeared in her hand, the blade glinted as it aimed for Feng Jiu. At the same time, the child in the old woman’s arms who was about seven or eight years old leapt up and unscrewed a bottle and spilled its contents onto Feng Jiu.

Bi Shan exclaimed in shock: “Master, be careful!” He was about to step forward when he was pushed back by a force and thrown a few metres back.

As the old woman attacked, Feng Jiu kicked out and with a flick of her sleeve pushed Bi Shan away at the same time. She retreated and avoided the contents of the bottle the child threw at her.

The contents of the bottle had white fumes and made a sizzling sound as it splashed onto the floor and corroded the floor, making holes in it. When she saw this, Feng Jiu’s eyes flinched and turned cold. She glanced coldly at the child who was about to pounce at her and in the next moment, a silver needle shot out of her hand.

“Swish, swish!”

“Ugh!”

The needle pierced the spot between his eyebrows and left a trace of blood. His body stiffened and he fell to the ground with his eyes wide open. In an instant, he went from being alive to dead.

“Ah!”

The old woman cried out and threw herself forwards again. Her eyes like a bird of prey and full of bloodthirsty murderous intention. If one hadn't known better, they would have thought that she was full of hatred for Feng Jiu.

Feng Jiu stood still and watched the old woman pounce forwards. It wasn't until she had gotten near that a dagger appeared at an unpredictable speed with a powerful spiritual breath and the old woman couldn't avoid it even if she had wanted to.

"Swish!"

"Arghh!"

The dagger with powerful spiritual breath slammed into the old woman's heart and hit her spine with a powerful force.

The old woman's body stiffened as a result of the blow. Her mouth opened as if she couldn't believe that she was killed so easily.

"Master, your subordinate has been derelict in his duty, please punish me Master!"

When Bi Shan had finally recovered from his shock, he stepped forwards and knelt on one knee. He had failed to protect Master and caused Master to be ambushed and nearly killed, it was his fault.

The cultivators who had rushed upstairs were stunned by the scene. Someone actually dared to assassinate the Ghost Doctor in broad daylight? They're asking to die!

Feng Jiu's expression was like frost as she stepped forward and pulled the dagger out of the body. She said coldly: "Check their bodies for clues."

"Yes."

Bi Shan responded quickly and stepped forwards to search the bodies. However, no clues could be found, he only pulled out a poison pill each from between their teeth. Upon seeing this, he reported: "Master, these are probably sacrificial men, there is poison between their teeth and no clues on their bodies."

"Drag it out and deal with it." Feng Jiu turned around and went inside and wondered, who wanted to kill her? They had even used Acid Water.

Acid Water was a poisonous water that could dissolve a body into a pool of water and it could also disfigure a person and blind a person. Who was it that wanted to deal with her?

Chapter 1210 Return To Green Gallop

The family heads of various influential families in the city had received news of Feng Jiu's attack at the inn and were extremely surprised. Someone had dared to attack the Ghost Doctor here? Who was so bold?

After their shock at what had happened, they arrived at the inn, planning to pay a visit. However, when they got there, they saw that the Black Market Chief was already at the inn. The Country Ruler had also sent several men to pay a visit. They were all quicker than them, hence, they had decided to leave.

Because of this incident, the Country Ruler had cleared out the inn and only Feng Jiu and her servant were left in the inn. The owner of the inn hadn't dared oppose it. After all, the incident with the Ghost Doctor had happened at his inn, he had to bear some responsibility.

After the inn had been cleared out, there were no more idle people hanging around and anyone entering the inn had to be subjected to a check. Fortunately, they had some status in the city and after the guard had reported their arrival, they were let into the inn.

"Ghost Doctor, we heard that you were attacked today and we have rushed over to visit you. Are you okay? Who was so bold to assassinate you, the Ghost Doctor?"

"You are all very kind. I am fine." Feng Jiu smiled and gestured for them to sit down then ordered the staff to bring some tea.

"It's good that you are okay." They nodded and smiled as they sat down.

They had finally found an opportunity to speak to her. Although they knew that it was probably not possible to obtain an elixir from her, at least they were able to have a chat with her and get to know her.

The few of them and the Black Market Chief had a meal and drank some wine at the inn together and didn't leave until evening.

Feng Jiu had also returned to her and rested. At dawn the next day, she had left quietly, and the people that had turned up to send her off had turned up in vain.

Since his Master had nearly come to harm yesterday, Bi Shan had been blaming himself. Though he had been roaming the outside world for many years, he had not expected someone to use an old woman and a child to assassinate someone. That was something he had not predicted.

He couldn't imagine what would have happened if his Master had not reacted so quickly and avoided the attack.

However, Master hadn't said anything, not even any words of reprimand. This had made him blame himself even more. Maybe if Master had scolded him, he might have felt a little better.

"Master, it was my dereliction of duty yesterday, please punish me!"

After hearing this, Feng Jiu turned around and glanced at him saying: "You don't have to blame yourself for this. The people who wanted to kill me used an old woman and a child. Even I didn't expect it. Just be more careful in the future."

When he heard this, he lowered his head involuntarily and responded: "Yes."

He watched his Master walk to a clearing and pushed her sleeves up then reached into space and an aircraft appeared. The two of them rose into the sky and stepped into the aircraft and headed into the sky...

One month later, Green Gallop Country

Early this morning, Feng Jiu brought Bi Shan to the manor. After they had entered the formation, she saw Leng Shuang and Leng Hua run happily towards her when they saw her.

“Master, you are back!”

Leng Hua came to her side and said: “Master, you have been away for more than a year. We have been waiting here for more than a year. We have been looking forward to your return.”

“Master.” The others also greeted her respectfully. They were all very happy when they saw that she had returned.

Only, who was the person behind Master? Why did he come back with Master?

When she noticed their gaze, she smiled and said to them: “I have just returned from Heaven’s Prayer Country. I came here as soon as I arrived. Come, let me introduce you, this is Bi Shan.”

Chapter 1211 Feng Jiu Is Back!

After everyone had introduced themselves, Feng Jiu said to them: “I plan to transfer you back. Prepare for your journey back to Phoenix Dynasty. All the forces here are going back.”

When they heard this, the Feng guards were a little surprised: “Are we all going back to Phoenix Dynasty? Are we also moving the original foundation back?”

“Well, in the future, you only have one task, that is to protect Phoenix Dynasty and protect my family.” She glanced at the few of them and said: “After I have arranged my affairs, I plan to go to the Eight Great Empires.”

“Master, are you not taking us with you?” When the Feng guards thought about not being able to stay by their Lord’s side, they couldn’t help but feel down.

“I will assess the situation for some time then decide. Go back to Phoenix Dynasty first. This time I plan to bring Leng Shuang, Leng Hua and Du Fan with me first.”

When Bi Shan who was behind her heard that he was also not able to follow her, he couldn’t help but feel disheartened. Thinking about it, he was probably not qualified enough to follow Master to the Eight Great Empires.

When Leng Shuang, Leng Hua and Du Fan heard that they were going with her, they were delighted.

“What about me?” Bai Xiao asked, touching his head: “You aren’t sending me to Phoenix Dynasty as well are you?”

Feng Jiu smiled and replied: “Of course not. You have to go to the One Star Academy and participate in the Sect Elections. With your imperial beast’s talent, there is a great chance you will be chosen. After you arrive at the sect, you work hard and practise training your imperial beast. If I don’t look for you, there is no need to find out information about me. When I need you in the future, I will send someone to look for you.”

“But I am afraid I won’t be able to enter the One Star Academy. The competition is so high and I don’t even have the qualifications for assessment.”

“You don’t have to worry about that. I have arranged it all for you. The Black Market Chief and the Headmaster of the Two Star Academy will sponsor you.”

Upon hearing this, Bai Xiao couldn't help but be pleasantly surprised: "That's great!. Then I shall make a quick trip home then report to the One Star Academy."

After making the arrangements for everyone, she returned to the Six Star Academy. She was going to speak to the Headmaster instead of leaving quietly.

Early in the morning, two days later, it was still early, and there weren't many people walking about in the academy. She hadn't wanted to disturb anyone and only wanted to bid goodbye to the Headmaster. However, the moment she had entered the academy, she was seen by a student. It wouldn't have been that bad, but the student was a woman and when she saw her, she exclaimed and screamed.

"Ah! Feng Jiu is back! Feng Jiu is back!"

The sounds of her screams pierced through the quiet morning and echoed through the sky. The students who heard her screams came running out one by one. When they saw the dazzling red figure, they screamed and cheered.

"Ah! It's Feng Jiu! It's really Feng Jiu! Feng Jiu is back! Feng Jiu is back!"

In a moment, students from each division came running out one after another. They came from all directions towards Feng Jiu, cheering as they ran. Feng Jiu didn't know how to respond when she saw this.

What's going on?

She was stunned. Not long after, she saw more than a dozen fly down from the mountain peak. They were the teachers at the academy. When they saw her, they had gathered around her before the students were able to get close to her.

"Feng Jiu? You're really back?"

"Good, Feng Jiu, you've really made a name for our Six Star Academy!"

Chapter 1212 Hide In Plain Sigh

"Ah?" She was a little puzzled by what she had heard.

"Don't give me that. We know all about the things you did at the Two Star Academy." One of the teachers said with a smile when he saw the students gathering around at the back and yelling.

"Okay, okay, what are you all doing here?" The Deputy Headmaster came over and motioned for the students to move away. He came to Feng Jiu's side and when he saw her, he couldn't help but smile: "The Headmaster knows that you're back. He is waiting for you at the main peak, come with me!"

"Okay." Feng Jiu nodded and followed him through the crowd to the main peak.

As they watched Feng Jiu follow the Deputy Headmaster to the main peak, they began to discuss between themselves.

"Have you noticed something is different about Feng Jiu?"

“Yes, I can sense it too. Something definitely feels different. Even though he was just standing there not talking, but there was an obvious strong breath coming off of him.”

“Hasn’t he already advanced to the Golden Core stage? The breath on him will be different.”

“Speaking of which, he advanced really quickly. It’s not been that long and he has already advanced to the Golden Core stage and we are still at the same stage.”

“You can’t compare him to us, comparisons are repulsive”

While the students were discussing, on two mountain peaks, Nie Teng and Ouyang Xiu hadn’t approached. Instead, they stood on the mountain peaks and looked at the red figure from afar.

Nie Teng’s heart had complicated feelings towards Feng Jiu. If he hadn’t used such extreme methods back then, things might have been different now. After experiencing so many things, he no longer wanted to dominate her.

He knew that she was an extraordinary woman and was unparalleled, even a man would be ashamed of himself. He was not worthy of such a woman.

In his mind, the image of the cold murderous figure appeared, the man who exuded a domineering power of a king, maybe that was who she belonged to ultimately!

Ouyang Xiu’s thoughts were different to his as he looked at the figure in red. There was only admiration in his heart. From his initial moment of noncompliance, he had to admit that Feng Jiu had convinced him without a doubt.

Even though Nie Teng’s strength was greater than his, he had never submitted to him. But Feng Jiu was different. All the things she did shocked him and made him feel incredible.

On the other side, Feng Jiu had arrived at the main peak and saw the Headmaster sitting at the stone table making tea. Upon seeing this, she stepped forward and greeted him: “Headmaster.”

“Sit.” The Headmaster gestured and handed her a cup of tea. He looked at the radiant and bright and smiled: “You have been working hard outside this past year.”

“Not really, I have been travelling and it’s been an eye opener.” She took the cup of tea and replied, looking at the Headmaster: “Headmaster, Deputy Headmaster, I have come to bid goodbye to the both of you.”

“Are you going back?” The Headmaster asked, unsurprised. She had never belonged there and she was bound to go back sooner or later.

“Yes, I plan to return to Phoenix Dynasty to see my family. After that, I will leave for the Eight Great Empires.” She told them her plans.

“Go! This place is small and there is nothing to keep you here. You have to remember to be careful when you go to the Eight Great Empires. The strong men there are like the forest, if you are not careful, you will be killed. You must know how to hide in plain sight.”

Chapter 1213 Mini Black Bear

“Yes, I know.” She nodded her head as she listened to the Headmaster’s guidance and instructions. After about an hour, she got up and left to go to her cave dwelling.

She was probably not going to return to the Six Star Academy, so she had to see if Little Black who was guarding her cave dwelling had wanted to return to the forest or not.

Sitting on the flying feather to return to the cave dwelling, Cloud Devouring came out of space and stepped directly onto the feather then onto the ground below. When the big black bear saw them, he threw itself onto Cloud Devouring and spun around in excitement.

“Ao!”

A joyous roar fell as Feng Jiu stepped down from her flying feather.

“Little Black.” Feng Jiu called out and watched as the big black bear rushed in front of her and rubbed her leg fawningly. When she saw this, she chuckled and patted its head.

“We are leaving and we won’t come back here anymore. Do you want to go back to the forest?”

“Ao ao.” It roared lowly, its big bear head flicked back.

“Not going back?”

Feng Jiu went to sit down by the tree and said: “If you’re not going that means you will be coming home with me! You can guard my house then, actually, no, you’re so big can you shrink?”

“Ao!”

It roared and got up and turned around. Its spiritual power surged and the airflow formed a vortex and surrounded it directly. When the vortex disappeared, a smaller version of it stood before Feng Jiu.

When she saw that it could really shrink, Feng Jiu’s eyes lit up. She looked at the bear in front of her and said: “Smaller.”

The big bear turned around again and stood there staring blankly at Feng Jiu. When she said smaller, it had turned around again. It turned around a few more times until finally it had turned into a mini black bear standing there swaying from side to side as if all the spinning had made it dizzy and it was going to fall down at any time. Feng Jiu’s eyes were filled with red hearts looking at it.

“Wow, so you can actually become so small. Little Black, you are so cute.” Feng Jiu picked it up with one hand, she was reluctant to let go of the soft furry animal.

“Forget it, since you can make yourself so small, then you will follow by my side in the future!” She changed her mind again, unable to resist such a cute little bear.

Cloud Devouring who was watching by the side shook its tail and rolled its eyes as it looked at Master. It realised that Master seemed to really like furry animals.

It was obviously majestic beyond comparison but Master now liked the furry animal that looked like a dog in front of her. It would only return to its original body in event of a battle. It could only appear with such a small body if it were to accompany Master everywhere. It was sure that if it returned to its original body, Master would leave it in Phoenix Dynasty and not keep it by her side.

However, this was Master's hobby. If she encountered cute furry things in the future, she would probably keep it by her side. It was sure that this little bear would not be the last one.

"Here, here's a Truth Medicinal Pill for you. This is a good thing. After eating this, even if you don't have a contract, you can still speak." She took out a pill from space and put it in her palm for Little Bear to eat.

Little Black sniffed the scent of the pill as it stepped forward and stuck its tongue out to swallow the pill.

"It will be a little uncomfortable, but it will be fine after a while. Just bear with it and it will be over soon."

Chapter 1214 News From Guan Xilin

She touched Little Black's head soothingly as she could feel that it was feeling uncomfortable in her arms from the effects of the pill. She listened to its low growl until after a while, it finally relaxed in her arms.

"Little Black, how is it? Say something." She touched its head and looked at it expectantly.

"Ah?" Little Black opened its mouth and made a human-like sound then stared blankly in shock at Feng Jiu.

Upon seeing this, Feng Jiu laughed and rubbed its head: "Okay, I know you are silly. As long as you can speak that's fine. You don't have to talk non-stop like Old White."

She stood up and looked at the place then exhaled: "I have lived here for sometime. After I leave today, I don't think there will be many chances for me to return again,"

As she said that, she seemed to have thought of something and was somewhat surprised: "That's right, why haven't I seen Ye Jing?"

Guan Xilin as well. The Headmaster had said that there had been no news of him since he had left by himself. She was thinking of going to the Black Market to ask about him. But why hadn't she seen Ye Jing since she had come back?

Thinking of this, she brought the two beasts with her and flew to the Spirit Division on her flying feather.

"Ye Jing? She was summoned home by her family a few months ago. I heard that she had gone home to get married. I don't know what happened." said a teacher.

"Go home to get married?" Feng Jiu was stunned: "I didn't know she liked anyone!"

"Apparently it is a family union marriage, I don't know much about this matter. The person who came to pick her up that day had only said that it was a family union marriage. Ye Jing seemed reluctant to leave but left with them. This is their family matter and it's private. As a teacher, it's not at our liberty to ask too many questions."

After hearing this, Feng Jiu nodded and bid goodbye after bowing in respect. After she left the academy, she headed straight for the Black Market.

She didn't know that after she had left, Nie Teng and Ouyang Xiu had both gone to the Headmaster and requested to take their leave and report to the One Star Academy in advance.

They knew that she would definitely go to the Eight Great Empires, therefore they would go too!

When he heard that Feng Jiu had arrived, the Black Market Chief hurried outside to greet her and ushered her inside to sit down. The Black Market Chief smiled at her and said: "Young Master Feng, I have been waiting for you for a long time."

"Oh? Is something wrong?" She frowned slightly as she looked at him.

"Hahaha, everything is fine. It's just that Young Master Guan had sent someone with a letter for you. I knew that you weren't in the Six Star Academy, so I've kept the letter here with me. Now that you're here, I can finally give you the letter." Saying that, he took out the letter that he had kept with him all this time and handed it to her: "Here."

Upon seeing that, Feng Jiu took the letter and said with a smile: "I came here to ask if you have news about him but I didn't expect him to have left a letter with you." As she spoke, she opened the letter to read.

The letter didn't say much, only that during his training experience outside, he had found some clues to the whereabouts of his father. He wouldn't be back for a while and that she didn't need to worry about him.

Knowing that he was okay, she was relieved. After all, she hadn't had any news about him having been away for so long. Now that there was his letter, she needn't worry.

She kept the letter and said: "I plan to return to Phoenix Dynasty. If there are any letters for me in the future, you can send your men to deliver it there to me."

"Young Master Feng is going back?" He was slightly surprised. Then he thought about it again and said: "Yes, Young Master Feng has been away from home for a long time, it's time to go back."

Chapter 1215 Ye Jing's Home

"You can rest assured that I will send someone to Phoenix Dynasty if I receive any more letters in the future." He smiled and continued saying: "Young Master Feng is leaving, and so will I. I hope that there will be a chance to see Young Master Feng again in the future."

"There will be chances." She smiled. She stayed at the Black Market for a while to chat and then left to go out of the city.

Leng Shuang and the rest were already waiting outside the city. When they saw her coming out, they rushed forward and greeted her: "Master."

"Well, let's go!" She took out her aircraft and brought everyone onto the aircraft, then flew into the sky....

A few days later, after the aircraft had landed outside a city and Feng Jiu put it away, they asked: "Master, where are we going?" Two days ago, Master had altered the route to return home. It was not the way back to Phoenix Dynasty, where were they going?

"I've come to see a friend before going home." She said to them: "Let's go! After we enter the city, Luo Yu and Bi Shan go to inquire about Ye Jing. We will wait for you at the inn."

"Yes." The two of them responded. After they had entered the city, the rest of them went to the nearest inn in front of them and the other two went to inquire about the news in the city.

Upon entering the inn, the innkeeper had quickly greeted them personally and invited Feng Jiu inside with a wide smile. Leng Hua stepped forward and booked a few rooms and Feng Jiu went directly upstairs to the suite on the second floor to wait for the two of them to return. Leng Shuang and Leng Hua waited in the suite while the Feng guards stood guard outside the suite.

After an hour, Bi Shan and Luo Yu returned.

"Master."

After the two of them bowed in respect, they reported: "Ye Jing's family is a noble family in this city. Ye Jing is the eldest daughter of the family, the daughter of the family head. It wasn't the marriage alliance between families but a Royal Prince who wants to take Ye Jing as his side concubine. The Ye family only agreed under the pressure of the Royal Family. However, since she has returned, Ye Jing has been seriously ill, hence the wedding has been postponed. The Royal Family has issued their final edict, the wedding is to take place three days later."

Feng Jiu sat at the table, one hand supporting her chin and the other hand tapped the table gently. After she had listened to the two men's report, she sneered: "Yet another person abusing their power."

As soon as her voice fell, she stood up and said: "Leng Shuang Leng Hua will come with me to Ye Residence. The rest of you will wait here at the inn!"

"Yes!" They all responded.

Leng Shuang and Leng Hua followed Feng Jiu to the Ye Residence while the Feng guards and the rest of them stayed behind at the inn.

Although they didn't know where the Ye Residence was, they could ask anyone on the streets for directions. After the three of them had arrived at the Ye Residence, Leng Hua stepped forward to knock on the door.

The person who answered the door was an old man. He looked at the few of them and as he found them unfamiliar, he asked: "Who are you looking for?"

"We are looking for Eldest Young Miss Ye Jing." Leng Hua replied.

"And you are?" The old man asked in surprise.

"Our Master is a friend of Eldest Young Miss Ye, his surname is Feng. Please pass the message along, Eldest Young Miss Ye will know who it is. Thank you for your troubles."

"Oh, in that case, please come inside." The old man opened the door and invited the three of them in. After he had led them to the living room, he said to Feng Jiu: "Young Master, my Young Miss is seriously ill so she is unable to see any guests. Tell you what, I shall ask my Master and Madam to come out."

Feng Jiu had wanted to ask him to take her to see Ye Jing directly. However, upon second thoughts, she decided against it and only nodded her head and said: "Thank you for your troubles."

"It's nothing. Young Master please drink a cup of tea." The old man said and then hurried out to the back courtyard.

Chapter 1216 I Am Ye Jing's Close Friend

"A young boy in red clothes? Ye Jing's friend?"

In the main courtyard, Ye Family head was a little surprised at the steward's words. It was strange that someone was looking for his daughter at this time. Ever since their two Ye family elders had failed in their advancement into the Nascent Soul stage, their family's power was not as great as it was before. In fact, each day was worse than the day before.

In the past, the ones who had called themselves friends had avoided them. Especially after the Royal Family had pressured him to let his daughter become a side concubine, he had tried to seek their help but they avoided him. This made his heart go cold.

Although he knew that human nature was selfish, he had thought that friends would not be that way, those he had helped in the past wouldn't be that way. But those people who had called themselves his friends were indeed superficial people.

His daughter had no choice but to agree to the marriage for the sake of the whole family. However, she had fallen ill from worries and was getting more severe and languished by the day. His wife was in tears all day long because of this, yet as the head of the family, there was nothing he could do.

"Yes, the Young Master is very handsome and outstanding. He looks about the same age as Young Miss." The housekeeper said respectfully.

"Could it be a friend from the Six Star Academy?" When he thought of this, Ye family head ordered: "I will go and take a look. Don't tell Eldest Young Miss yet."

"Yes." The housekeeper responded and went out with the family head.

When they arrived at the living room, they saw a young boy in red sitting down drinking tea. When the family head saw the young boy, he couldn't help but be astonished, he was indeed outstanding.

His disposition was unparalleled and he was very handsome. There was a noble breath about him that even a Royal child could not compare with. Seeing this, he walked up and said: "May I know who Young Master is?"

"My surname is Feng, my name is Jiu. I am Ye Jing's friend. You must be Ye family head!" Feng Jiu stood up and bowed in respect.

"Yes I am, Young Master Feng please sit down."

He was surprised at the boy's good manners and prestige. After he had invited him to sit down, he said: "My daughter is seriously ill, that's why she is unable to come out to greet you. I apologise for the impoliteness and hope that Young Master Feng is not offended."

Also, this is a Six Grade Country, and although news of Feng Jiu's Ghost Doctor status had been spread across the powerful families in the upper-class countries, the Six Grade Country families had not received the news and portrait. Therefore, Ye family head didn't know that the person standing in front of him was the famous Ghost Doctor.

"Of course not, Ye Jing is my close friend, I don't mind at all." She said with a smile.

Seeing this, Ye family head asked in surprise: "I wonder, how did Young Master Feng and my daughter meet? Is Young Master Feng also a student at the Six Star Academy?"

"Yes, we met at the Six Star Academy. I really admire Ye Jing's honesty and upright personality. I have been away for a while and not been back to the academy for quite some time. When I went back recently, I found out that Ye Jing had returned home. I heard that she had returned to be married, therefore I came to visit her. I didn't expect to hear that she is sick."

Upon hearing this, Ye family head was relieved. So he was Ye Jing's friend from the academy. It was good of her friend from the academy to come visit her.

He nodded and sighed: "It's all because I am useless as her father, that's why she is seriously ill. I assume Young Master Feng you must know by now the news about Ye Jing becoming a side concubine."

Chapter 1217 Hold Hands And Didn't Let Go

"Yes, I've heard." She looked at Ye family head and said: "I would like to see Ye Jing. I wonder if it is convenient."

"Young Master Feng is my daughter's close friend and you've travelled from afar, of course that's fine." He stood up and gestured for Feng Jiu to follow him: "Please follow me."

"Okay." She responded and followed him out to the back courtyard. Leng Shuang and Leng Hua followed behind her.

As Feng Jiu followed Ye family head to the back courtyard, she admired the view in the Ye Residence while Ye family head secretly observed the young boy beside him.

At first, he had thought that this young boy who had come to see his daughter was someone she liked. However, looking at his attitude, it didn't seem like it. It seemed like as he had said, he was his daughter's close friend.

But could there be friendship between a boy and a girl? Even if there was, there were probably not many.

Along the way, he asked casually: "Where is Young Master Feng from?"

"I am from the Phoenix Dynasty." She looked back and smiled at him.

"Oh? Phoenix Dynasty? I have heard of them. It is said the Phoenix Dynasty advanced from a Ninth Grade Country to a Six Grade Country within two or three years and is a kingdom of great strength."

Her face beamed with a smile and she said: "Well, Phoenix Dynasty not only has great strength, the geographical location is also good and there are many places of interest. If Ye family head ever has the opportunity to come to Phoenix Dynasty, I will entertain you personally."

Entertain him personally?

Ye family head was a little surprised when he heard this, it was just too strange. He was the head of the Ye family and this young boy is of the same generation as his daughter. If he really did have the opportunity to go there, shouldn't Young Master Feng's father entertain him instead? Why did he say that he would entertain him personally?

Although he had found it strange, he didn't say anything but just smiled and nodded: "Okay, if there is a chance in the future, I will definitely come to Phoenix Dynasty."

The two of them chatted as they walked and not long later, they arrived outside of Ye Jing's courtyard. After the both of them entered the courtyard, Ye family head said to Feng Jiu: "Young Master Feng, please wait here."

Saying that, he walked up and knocked on the door himself. A young maid opened the door and when she saw that it was the family head, she bowed respectfully immediately: "Greetings family head."

"Is Madam also in Young Miss' room?" He asked.

"Yes, Madam is inside with Young Miss." the maid replied.

"Go inside and tell Young Miss that Young Master Feng is here." He gestured to the maid who then went inside. He then gestured to Feng Jiu: "Please come in Young Master Feng."

Feng Jiu nodded and walked inside with him. As soon as they had stepped inside, they heard Ye Jing's weak but pleasantly surprised voice.

"Young Master Feng? Is it Feng Jiu?"

"It's me." She responded. When she walked inside, she saw a beautiful but sorrowful looking lady sitting by the bedside holding on to Ye Jing who was struggling to sit up.

Upon seeing this, she motioned: "No need to get out of bed. You're weak. Just lie down."

"Young Master is?" The beautiful woman looked at Feng Jiu and asked.

"Feng Jiu greets Madam Ye. I am Ye Jing's friend." Feng Jiu said with a slight bow.

"Yes, he is Jing'er's friend from the academy." Ye family head said when he walked in.

Ye Jing was very happy to see Feng Jiu, and she seemed much more energetic. She took Feng Jiu's hand and said: "Feng Jiu, why are you here? I am really happy but I didn't expect to see you again."

Ye family head and Madam Ye watched in surprise as their daughter held on to the young boy's hand and didn't let go. Their speech and the way they behaved was very intimate. In that instant, their expressions couldn't help but change.

Chapter 1218 I Can Help

“Jing’er, this, you....” Madam Ye looked at her daughter who was holding on to the Young Master’s hand and not letting go, she didn’t know what to do.

Did she have a sweetheart already? Was it this Young Master in red? No wonder, even though she had agreed to marry the Crown Prince and be his side concubine, she had fallen ill. Was she lovesick?

When she thought of this, her eyes couldn’t help but heat up and her tears fell again. Her poor daughter...

“Jing’er, why are you holding on to the Young Master’s hand? This, this is not proper.” Father Ye said when he saw that Young Master Feng hadn’t pulled his hand away. Instead, he had held his daughter’s hands in his own. He couldn’t help but widen his eyes.

This young boy was too bold, he actually dared touch his daughter’s hands in front of his eyes. This kid! He wouldn’t have believed it if he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes!

“It’s okay, we are often like this in the academy.” Feng Jiu said without thinking. After her voice fell, she saw the shocked expressions of Ye father and mother and stinned for a moment. Upon reflection, she couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

That’s right, they didn’t know that she was a girl, they thought that she was a man taking advantage of their daughter!

“You, you, you two.....”

“Ye family head, I am actually a girl. I just like to dress up as a man that’s all. Ye Jing knows. We are close like sisters.” She smiled as she revealed her identity as a girl to them.

“You, you are a girl?” Ye family head and his wife were very surprised. This young man who behaved like a son from a noble family was actually a girl.

“Yes, that’s right.”

“Father, Mother, Feng Jiu is a girl. You don’t have to worry that she is taking advantage of me. Cough cough.” She smiled. She had started coughing only after saying a few words.

“Okay, don’t speak anymore, rest first.” Madam Ye looked at her worriedly.

“Let me take a look!” Feng Jiu said. She stepped forward and sat down by her bed and began taking her pulse.

Madam Ye couldn’t help but look at Feng Jiu secretly, she has medical knowledge? However, whether she had medical knowledge or not, she was being kind, so just let her be!

“Actually, it’s not a serious problem. She just worried too much and she is depressed.” She smiled and withdrew her hand: “I will write a prescription for you. She will be fine after taking the medicine for two days. As for the matter you are worried about, I can take care of it for you.”

“You know?” Ye Jing asked her.

“Yes, otherwise I wouldn’t have come.”

She smiled and said: "I heard the news from a teacher and I had come to congratulate you. Then I found out you were sick so I sent my people to inquire and found out what had happened. You, why didn't you look for me when you are in trouble? Even if I am not around, my people would have been able to solve this matter for you."

When she heard this, her heart filled with warmth: "I didn't want to trouble you, after all, this is a family matter."

"We don't have to dispense on ceremony with each other, am I right? It's not like it's the first day we met." She chuckled lightly.

The two of them chatted while Ye family head and his wife listened at the side, they were confused. What were they talking about?

How could she solve the matter? Why didn't they understand?

At this point, Feng Jiu turned and looked back at Ye family head and said: "Ye family head, please can you get someone to prepare paper and ink and go to the pharmacy to get the medicine after I write this prescription for Ye Jing?"

"We have a drug storeroom in our residence, we don't have to go out to get the medicine."

Chapter 1219 What Do You Know

"In that case, then please get someone to take me there! I will go and get the medicine to brew."

After hearing this, Ye family head looked at Ye Jing who smiled and nodded her head: "Father, take Feng Jiu there!" She knew that her father was worried and therefore added: "Her medical skills are very good."

"Young Master Feng, no, Young Mistress Feng, please come this way." Ye family head gestured.

Feng Jiu followed him outside and saw Leng Shuang and Leng Hua waiting in the courtyard. She said to Ye family head: "Wait a minute." She walked over to Leng Shuang and handed her a token, saying: "Go to the Black Market and tell them to take care of this matter."

"Yes." Leng Shuang responded and left after taking the token.

As Ye family head didn't hear everything she said, he had only heard something about the Black Market and handling matters, so he didn't ask Feng Jiu but took her to the drug storeroom instead.

At the same time, Madam Ye was asking: "Jing'er, where is Feng Jiu from?"

"She is a Princess from the Phoenix Empire. With her here, I don't think I will have to marry the Crown Prince and be his side concubine." Saying that, she revealed a heartfelt smile. She knew that as long as Feng Jiu was willing to help, her family's problems would be solved.

Mother Ye was a little surprised at what she heard and didn't quite believe it. However, she didn't say much seeing her daughter's expression. She just thought to herself that she would discuss this with her husband later and see what it was all about.

After Feng Jiu picked the medicine for Ye Jing, she ordered a servant to brew the medicine, then went back to accompany Ye Jing and chat with her in her room. Ye Father and Mother returned to the main courtyard.

At the same time, when the Black Market saw Leng Shuang arrive with the token, they were taken by surprise and ushered her in. The Black Market Chief personally spoke to her and found out what the Ghost Doctor wanted them to do. He then sent an elder to the palace on his behalf.

“Miss Leng Shuang, I have already sent someone to take care of this matter. Please tell the Ghost Doctor she can rest assured that this is not a big problem.” The Black Market Chief looked at Leng Shuang’s beautiful but cold and emotionless face. After a little thought, he asked: “Miss Leng Shuang, is the Ghost Doctor at Ye Residence right now?”

“Yes, Master is at the Ye Residence. But she doesn’t like to be disturbed, so there is no need to go. You just need to take care of this matter.” After saying that, Leng Shuang bowed and took her leave: “I’d better go back and report, goodbye.”

“Okay, then let me see Miss Leng Shuang out.” The Black Market Chief said and saw her out personally.

After she had left, the middle-aged man who had been with the Black Market Chief asked, puzzled: “Chief, although the Ghost Doctor has the first-order black token, but we have to do everything that she orders us to do, that’s too much.”

The Chief glanced back at him coldly and shouted in a deep voice: “What do you know? How many people do you think in all the countries hold a first-order black token? Not to mention, she isn’t just anyone. This is the Ghost Doctor. She refines elixirs and pills for the Black Market to auction. Do you know how much this alone benefits the Black Market?”

He paused, and then continued: “Not only that, even the upper-level figures in the Eight Great Empires think she is very promising. Do you dare to offend her? If we can handle such trivial matters for her, then needless to say, we will do it. It’s not just me, a Six Grade Country Black Market Chief who will be courteous upon meeting her and not dare to offend her, even a First Grade Country Black Market Chief would be the same.”

Chapter 1220 Speed Up The Marriage

Upon hearing this, the middle-aged man was slightly shocked. Was the Ghost Doctor’s status in the Black Market really this high?

On the other side, Ye Residence

Ever since Feng Jiu’s arrival, the two people’s laughter could be heard from Ye Jing’s courtyard from time to time. The originally depressing atmosphere was lifted.

When Ye Father and Mother arrived in the courtyard and heard the laughter from inside, they looked at each other and walked inside. Once they were inside the room, they saw their daughter leaning against the headboard and Feng Jiu sitting by her bedside. The two of them were talking about something and laughed from time to time.

“Father, Mother.” Ye Jing called out when she saw them.

“We heard your laughter from outside.” Ye family head said. He then said to Feng Jiu: “Young Miss Feng, I have ordered the servants to prepare lunch. It is in the courtyard now. They are all homely dishes, I hope you won’t mind.”

“Of course not, homely dishes are delicious.” Feng Jiu replied.

“Then please come. I have ordered the servants to take out the precious wine. Please have a drink, Young Miss Feng.” With that, he said to his wife beside him: “Get the maid to help Jing’er out of bed to come outside and have lunch with us. The more the merrier and she will be more energetic.”

“Okay, the two of you go ahead first. I will come later.” Madam Ye said and gestured for the two of them to go and sit in the courtyard first. She beckoned for the maid to come and help Ye Jing.

When the two of them walked out, Leng Hua came to stand behind her. Ye family head poured Feng Jiu a glass of wine: “Try this, This is my precious collection of spirit wine, the aftertaste is stronger.”

“Okay.”

Feng Jiu responded and took a sip from the glass. The wine was mellow upon first taste and a breath of spiritual power flowed down the throat into the body: “The taste is mellow and the spirit power is strong. It is indeed a rare and excellent wine.”

“If you like it, drink a few more glasses. I have ordered the kitchen to prepare dishes that go well with wine. Please.” He gestured. Feng Jiu dispensed with ceremony and picked up a piece of meat with chopsticks.

Not long after, Madam Ye helped Ye Jing walk out. The two of them came to the table and sat down. Ye Jing had been bedridden the past few months from her illness and rarely came out to bask in the sun. Therefore, she looked pale, like as if she would be blown over by a strong gust of wind.

“Ye Jing, your body is not meant to be lying on the bed all the time. You have to come out for walks more often, then your health will get better faster.” Feng Jiu poured her a glass of wine: “This wine is not bad, you can drink it too.”

Upon seeing this, Ye Jing lifted the glass of wine and took a sip. She didn’t mind that much. It was her father and mother who were worried that she wouldn’t be able to handle the intensity of the wine.

“Just two glasses is enough. Fortunately, this wine can dispel depression and improve blood circulation.” Feng Jiu poured her another glass when she saw that she had finished the wine. It wasn’t when she saw that her face had a blush of pink that she picked some food for her to eat.

Originally, Ye father had wanted to stop it, but after seeing his daughter’s colour had improved after drinking two glasses, he didn’t say anything. He just picked some food for her and chatted to Feng Jiu.

When the meal had ended, the housekeeper rushed in and said: “Family head, the Crown Prince is here. He is waiting in the front hall.”

When they heard this, the good atmosphere was ruined and Ye father’s face sank. His body emitted oppressive anger. The Crown Prince must be here to speed up the marriage.

He was crossing the line! They had agreed three days and yet he still had the cheek to come to their home.

As for Madam Ye, her face was filled with sorrow and her eyes were red. When she thought of her daughter marrying that kind of man, she couldn't help but bow her head slightly and weep.
