

Ghost Doctor 2005

Chapter 2005: Good For Nothing

Gray Wolf glanced around and said: "We've finished handling the matters at hand so we came back. Master instructed us to send more men over to guard the Manor before he left. We must protect Ghost Doctor at all costs. We had intended to bring the men over tomorrow but we heard the commotion from next door so we decided to come over."

Upon hearing that, Feng Jiu nodded. She looked at the men they had brought over, then said: "Tell you what! Place these men in the Lin Manor. I have enough men guarding the Feng Manor, I don't need that many. If there is any commotion, they would be able to hear it from next door."

"Alright." The two nodded.

"Take them back first and come back over later. I have something I need to tell you." Feng Jiu ordered, then she turned and went back into her room while the traces of the incident that had just happened were being quickly cleaned up by everyone else.

After Gray Wolf and Shadow One had brought their men over to the Lin Manor and got them settled, they came back again. They saw that the traces of blood had been cleaned up and the lights in Feng Jiu's courtyard were still on. They looked at each other and called out.

"Ghost Doctor, we are here!"

"Come in!" Leng Shuang opened the door and motioned for the two of them to come inside.

Feng Jiu was in the room drinking tea at the table. When she saw the two of them, she motioned for them to sit down: "Sit down!"

How would the two of them dare to sit! They just stood at a distance and looked at her. Shadow One didn't speak and just looked down while Gray Wolf smiled and asked: "What instructions do you have for us Ghost Doctor?"

"I will be going away in a few days. When I'm away, you and Leng Shuang will guard the two residences together and wait..." Before she was able to finish speaking, she heard Gray Wolf exclaim.

"What? Ghost Doctor is going away? Where are you going? For how long? Do you not plan to take us with you? If Master finds out we will be in trouble!"

Shadow One raised his head and glanced at Feng Jiu, and said: "Madam, Master has ordered us to protect you. If Madam is going away, you may leave Gray Wolf behind if you wish, but you have to take subordinate along."

Gray Wolf was angry when he heard this and said in a huff: "Why does she have to take you and not me? I don't think you are particularly better than I am."

The corners of Feng Jiu's mouth twitched. She glanced at the two of them and coughed lightly: "I don't intend to take anyone with me this time. You just need to stay here and guard the mansions."

"How can we do that? Just as Shadow One has said, even if you don't bring him with you, you have to at least bring me along!" Gray Wolf said hurriedly. He patted his chest and said: "With me by Ghost Doctor's side, you will be safer."

Even Leng Shuang glanced sideways at Gray Wolf when she heard this and looked away silently.

"Are you stronger than me?" Feng Jiu asked Gray Wolf calmly.

Gray Wolf's expression stiffened and he replied in embarrassment: "Of course not, but help you out and run errands for you or something."

"If it's just that, I have plenty of people who can do that for me." Feng Jiu looked at him with a smile.

"But, Ghost Doctor, you will be safer with me accompanying you! If anything happens, at least I can shield you!" Gray Wolf tried his best to make himself stand out. However, after he thought about it, he realised there wasn't really much he could say.

In terms of concealing his breath, he was not as capable as Shadow One. In terms of intelligence, he was also not comparable to Leng Hua and Du Fan. In that case, he was truly good for nothing.

Chapter 2006: Just Follow The Decision

Feng Jiu drank her tea and replied slowly: "I've already made arrangements with regards to this matter. I was just informing you so you won't panic if you can't find me. I've already dealt with the matters for Heavenly Pill Tower, you only need to take care of the matters your Master has entrusted you with as well as the safety of the Feng Manor and Lin Manor."

Seeing that her mind was already made up, Shadow One paused for a while, then said: "Then where is Madam going? How long will Madam be away for? Will there be danger?"

They didn't have to follow her but they had to know some details in case their Master asked them in the future. They couldn't not know anything could they?

"Since my return, I have sent men to inquire about Han Rong's whereabouts. Recently, I learnt that he has gone to the Volcanic Forest. My main aim for this trip is him." Feng Jiu's voice was cold. She played with the teacup in her hand and said slowly: "Once I've dealt with him I will return."

Han Rong?

Gray Wolf and Shadow One's eyebrows twisted slightly when they heard this name and they couldn't help but cast a glance at each other. Of course they were not unfamiliar with Han Rong, however, they were unfamiliar with the Han Rong after the seizure.

The last time the Ghost Doctor had said that there was news of him, she didn't take his life because the location wasn't suitable. Later on when she had tried to find him, there was no news of him. Now that there was news of his whereabouts, naturally she wouldn't let it go.

It was because of Han Rong that the Phoenix Empire had been destroyed, and it was precisely because of Han Rong that the Ghost Doctor's relatives had been separated by death. The pressure their Master had received from several countries and their Dynasty being besieged were also caused by Han Rong's provocation.

Han Rong was once their Master's subordinate, however, he had caused so much trouble time and time again. If their Master were here, he would have taken care of him personally.

"Madam, Han Rong is a cunning person with many schemes up his sleeve. I'm afraid that it won't be that easy to deal with him. Moreover, he recognises you. If he accidentally discovers you, I'm afraid for Madam's safety..." Shadow One looked at her with worry. He knew very well that Han Rong couldn't wait to tear his mistress apart.

"It's because he's not easy to deal with, that's why I have decided to make the trip personally. I won't be able to have peace of mind no matter who goes." Feng Jiu said slowly: "This time, I won't let him go back alive!"

There was a chill in her eyes. When she thought of that damn Han Rong there was a fire burning in her heart. If it weren't because of him, little Feng Ye wouldn't have died so horribly and she wouldn't have to keep the truth from her grandmother till now.

Although Grandpa hadn't said much, she knew that little Feng Ye's death had been a big blow to him. It was because he was afraid of grandmother being upset that he hid his sadness.

After she had instructed them, Feng Jiu said: "The people tonight are from the Black Assassins Palace. The Black Assassins Palace Lord has been injured so he probably won't come back soon, but you still need to remain vigilant. When I leave I will leave the Feng Guard behind to guard the Manor. I've also asked Mo Chen to take care of things at Heavenly Pill Tower. If you have any problems you can't resolve yourself, you can ask him."

"Yes, we understand." They nodded in response. After she had given them instructions for other matters, the two of them retreated.

Back at the Lin Manor, Gray Wolf scratched his head and looked at Shadow One: "Are we really letting the Ghost Doctor go by herself? She's not even bringing the Feng Guard, will she be alright? Han Rong is not easy to deal with."

"We will follow everything Madam has decided."
