

Ghost Doctor 2009

Chapter 2009: Call Me Little Jiu

1

Therefore, the two groups of people gathered around together and rested. As some people went to the water source nearby to get some water, an azure figure blended into the group seamlessly.

“Is the water ready? I’ve hunted a wild boar, we can go back to roast it and share with everyone.” Feng Jiu’s hand held a wild boar that weighed about a hundred catties and spoke to the people getting water.

They glanced at the young boy. When they saw the young boy who wasn’t physically strong, had a simple smile on his face and was holding a wild boar in his hand, they stepped forward and said: “Come, let me help! We have filled enough water. Brother, did you hunt this huge boar all by yourself?”

“I can’t let Elder Brother call me brother, just call me Little Jiu.” She grinned and scratched her head: “I was just lucky. The wild boar was injured when I caught it. Otherwise, it wouldn’t have been so easy to catch it.”

“Little Jiu? That’s easy to remember.” The strong man said with a smile as he picked up the wild boar that Feng Jiu had placed on the ground.

“What about Elder Brother? How shall I address you?” She asked with a smile and looked at the young strong man.

“My surname is Chai. I am a collateral relative of the Chai family and I’ve come out with them for an experience this time. You can call me Brother Chai.” The young man said to Feng Jiu: “Come, let’s go back! We are in the innermost area now, next time don’t go too far alone to hunt game lest you run into danger.”

Upon hearing this, Feng Jiu’s eyes squinted as she smiled: “Thank you Brother Chai for reminding me, I will remember.” She walked back with him and chatted with him along the way.

When the people who were sitting around resting saw that they had come back with a huge wild boar, they were surprised. The middle aged man who was leading the Chai Family looked at the young man and asked: “Where did you get the wild boar?” Wild boars were rare in this area and they hadn’t seen any along the way.

“I didn’t hunt it. It was Little Jiu.” The young strong man replied. He patted Feng Jiu, who was next to him, on the shoulder and continued speaking to the middle aged man: “Second uncle, let’s deal with the wild boar and roast it and share it with everyone. You can have a rest first.”

The middle aged man glanced at the simple and honest looking young boy in azure and smiled: “Alright, you go on then!” He gestured and then looked back at the men and women on the opposite side.

However, at this moment, Feng Jiu walked over and smiled into crescents as she looked at one of the men: "Brother Fan, can you come with me to collect branches?"

The young man who had been called was startled. He looked at the young boy in azure and said: "Of course." He stood up and smiled at several people, then walked into the woods with Feng Jiu.

"Your name is Little Jiu?" Fan Yixiu asked, turning his head slightly to look at Feng Jiu.

"Yes! Brother Fan can call me Little Jiu." She smiled and squinted her eyes as she picked up dry branches in the forest. When she saw some dry branches on the branches of the trees, she jumped up and broke them off.

The two of them chatted while they gathered branches. When they arrived at the resting place, Feng Jiu took the branches from his arms and said: "Go and rest Brother Fan! When the roast meat is ready I will bring it over for everyone." Having said that, she turned and walked over to the place where the boar was being roasted.

Fan Yixiu was dumbfounded upon seeing the young boy's familiar tone with him. He found it weird but he couldn't describe why.

"Eldest Senior Brother, sit down! Drink some water!" One of the women next to him handed a water bag to Fan Yixiu.

Chapter 2010: Scorpion Mercenary Group

"Thank you." Fan Yixiu took a sip of the water and looked over at the young boy in azure who was busy barbequing.

Chai Second Master who was sitting opposite him followed his gaze. His eyes fell on the young boy in azure and he smiled: "Little Jiu has a likeable personality and he seems honest and trustworthy."

"Yes!" Fan Yixiu smiled and nodded. After he retracted his gaze, he chatted with Chai Second Master about the Volcanic Flare Stone.

On the other side, Feng Jiu soon became acquainted with the Chai Family through her barbeque skills. She called out Elder Brother, Sister, and so on which made the people delighted and wanted to take special care of her.

"The roast meat is here, have a taste of it. It's just finished cooking and the taste is really good." Feng Jiu brought over the barbequed meat then ran back to the barbeque area to help. For a while, the forest was filled with a strong scent of meat and sounds of laughter from everyone.

After they had finished eating the roast meat, Chai Second Master said: "It's time to go, we shouldn't stay here for too long."

"Alright." Fan Yixiu nodded in response. He told everyone and then followed the Chai Family's team into the forest.

Feng Jiu followed the team and stayed close to the young man, the two of them talked and laughed along the way. They weren't at the front nor the back of the group but were in the middle.

Suddenly, the team at the front had stopped. Chai Second Master who was leading the team gestured and the surrounding people gathered round vigilantly. Their backs were to each other and they faced the outside, at the same time, their hands were on their weapons ready to take action at any time.

Fan Yixiu and the others also watched the surroundings vigilantly. Though they were being guarded by the mercenaries, they didn't dare relax for one moment. Then, they heard a loud laugh.

"Hahahahaha....."

The laughter was accompanied by strong men in mercenary uniform that emerged from the surrounding forest. Everyone of them were at least at the level of Celestial Strong Exponent. The evil and murderous aura was extremely prominent and it made everyone feel very uneasy.

The mercenaries who were protecting Fan Yixiu and his team had recognised who the other party was and couldn't help but gasp: "It's the Scorpion Mercenary Group!" Their faces paled and fear could be seen in their eyes.

Every mercenary in this area knew of the Scorpion Mercenary Group's infamous name for looting. These men specialised in looting and those who resisted were killed. The men were often killed after they had been robbed and the women's fate was even worse. Those with ordinary looks were killed after they've had their fun with them. If they encountered women who were good-looking, they would lock them up after they've had their fun with them and keep them as their play-thing. Their methods were cruel and terrifying.

"What Scorpion Mercenary Group?" Several girls from the Nebula Immortal Sect didn't know about their reputation and couldn't help but ask in a low voice.

However, the mercenaries who were protecting were pursing their lips and the expressions on their faces were of terror. They were unable to speak a word.

Fan Yixiu had heard of the Scorpion Mercenary Group. At this moment, when he saw that those people had a red mark of a scorpion on their faces, his heart sank. He lowered his voice and spoke to the people around him: "The situation will get ugly soon, you should go first, run straight out of the Volcanic Forest and don't stop."

The other two sect members' hearts also sank when they saw the faces of the mercenaries who were protecting them, and even the faces of the elders in the Chai Family had changed.

It seemed they were in trouble. They just hadn't expected to encounter such a tricky situation so soon after entering the innermost area.